

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Best on the road—Vogels Minstrels—at the Opera house to-night.

—Miss Elizabeth Blanchard left for Philadelphia on Saturday to resume her work for the winter.

—Mrs. S. M. Buck, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Burrows, on Lamb street.

—Dr. A. W. Hafer left Bellefonte on Wednesday for York and Gettysburg. He expects to return Monday.

—Fred Chambers, eldest son of Col. E. R. Chambers, of Bellefonte, has entered the University of Pennsylvania, as a student of law.

—Miss Barbara Levy, one of the pleasant and obliging clerks in Katz's store, has returned home after a six weeks visit with friends in New York city.

—Miss Mary Harris Weaver left for Philadelphia to resume her duties as nurse in the Presbyterian hospital, after spending three months in Bellefonte.

—Miss Ella Stewart has gone to her home in Orangeville, Ill., after a very pleasant month's visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Patsy Stewart, in this place.

—Daniel Garman and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Cruse and little child, left Saturday for Williamsport where they will spend some time with friends in that place.

—Mrs. Aull and Miss Aull who came to Bellefonte expecting to spend some time with Mrs. Richards, were called home by the sudden death of Mrs. Aull's brother.

—Cecil Carothers, ticket agent for Pennsylvania Railroad company at Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dale on North Allegheny street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Irvin formerly of Bellefonte, have retired from the cottage keeping business in Atlantic City and gone to Buffalo, N. Y., where they are now located.

—Frank Clemson, of Buffalo Run, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday. He says things are going all right in that section of the county. The crops were never better.

—John Knisely and George Rhoads of Bellefonte, have secured the contract for building the new Reformed chapel on north Spring street. The facing will be of stone, the same as the church.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp, who spent the summer in Pitsburgh, have returned to their home in this place. They contemplate moving to Pitsburgh to locate permanently some time in the near future.

—October 6 is the last day for paying poll tax for voters to qualify who have not paid a poll tax since Nov. 7, 1904. Saturday, October 13, is the last chance to register so as to be enabled to vote at the coming November election.

—Thursday afternoon, Col. W. Fred Reynolds, John M. Shugert, H. E. Fenlon, John Blanchard, Hard P. Harris and George R. Meek left for New Florence, Westmoreland county, to spend a couple days with Thomas A. Shoemaker.

—On account of the Fair the Bellefonte Central will run a special train leaving Bellefonte, Wednesday evening at 11 o'clock, for Pine Grove Mills and intermediate points; on Thursday and Friday will hold regular train at the Junction until 5:30 o'clock.

—Fred Robb, a son of Mrs. Erastus Robb of East High street, was operated on Thursday morning in a Pitsburgh hospital for appendicitis. His condition was reported very serious. He has been working in Pitsburgh for some time. The latest report is that he is getting along as well as can be expected.

—Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Weatherly, of Omaha, Neb., who had been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Spear, left on Monday afternoon for Philadelphia, accompanied by Mrs. Mollie Valentine. After transacting business in the Quaker City Mr. and Mrs. Weatherly will return to the west and Mrs. Valentine to Bellefonte.

—Mail carrier Robert Woodring, of Bellefonte, last spring purchased the Aaron Williams property on the corner of Howard and Ridge streets, and has been making some extensive improvements. He has had the house moved from the corner so that there is a nice yard in front and on the Ridge street side. "Bob" is spending his good elegant cash in the right direction.

—In order to better accommodate the crowds going to and from the fair grounds next week the Central R. R. of Pa. will run trains from its station at the foot of Lamb street at intervals of ten minutes. On Wednesday and Friday trains will start from the station every ten minutes after 12 o'clock noon. On Thursday the trains will begin running at 1:30 p. m. The round trip fare will be 10 cents.

—William A. Lyon, the Bellefonte butcher, had been nursing a pretty sore finger, and for several days things began to look pretty interesting for "Bill." He slightly cut it with a knife and paid no attention to it, until finally it began paining and his whole arm became affected. He began to feel a little frightened and went to a physician who promptly cut the finger open and cauterized it, as the symptoms were very much like those of blood poisoning. He's all right now.

—Farmer Isaac Frain of Marion township, was in town on Saturday and called to inform us he had been honored with an invitation to attend the dedication of the new capitol. At first he was pleased, but after reading that the Gang had spent $1,000,000 instead of $4,000,000, the appropriation he returned the invitation with some healthy comment on the lack, as to what the farmers think of that kind of business. From Mr. Frain's temper on this job, we think that his comments should have been penned on asbestos, at it was hot stuff.

—Saturday Mr. and Mrs. John Olewine returned after a delightful visit with friends at Lewisburg and in attending the Union county fair. They left Bellefonte in an automobile, but after reaching Millburg he sold his machine to Dr. Steans, of that place. They then proceeded to Lewisburg by train and came home that way, after having a very enjoyable trip. Mr. Olewine still has the automobile fever, and he does not know whether the next car he purchases will be a Pierce Arrow, a Darracq or a De Dietrich which range from $6,000 to $10,500.

—Vogels minstrels to-night.

—Don't forget the big Centre County Fair next week.

—Bruce Underwood, of Pitsburgh, has been visiting his Bellefonte friends.

—Walter Harris, of Williamsport, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. W. T. Daggett, of Bellefonte, is now spending a few weeks in Philadelphia.

—Edward Thomlinson, of Wilkensburg, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gettig.

—Miss Sadie Caldwell has returned from a pleasant three-weeks' visit with friends at Sparrows Point.

—"Dorino" takes his second ramble (in his mind) over the county in the Unionville items, this week.

—Mrs. Jack Folkrod, of Williamsport, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Longacre, of Beaver Falls, have been visiting Mr. Longacre's parents in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Jack Folkrod returned to her home in Williamsport, Saturday after a visit with her parents in Bellefonte.

—Misses Rebecca Heckman and Minnie Cole left Saturday afternoon for Williamsport where they spent Sunday.

—Miss Julia McDermott and Mrs. Kelly left Saturday afternoon for Philadelphia where they will spend the next ten days.

—Comm. Clerk James Corl was confined to the house for several days of the past week on account of a bilious attack.

—Rev. Jay Woodcock, assistant to Dr. Chas. Wood in Philadelphia, has been visiting friends in Bellefonte and State College.

—Mrs. Mary Gray, daughter of Dr. Wm. Laurie, of Bellefonte, is now on a trip to visit friends in Philadelphia and Buffalo.

—If you want to vote on the 6th of November you must pay your taxes 30 days before or no later than Saturday, October 6th.

—Miss Margaret Campbell left Bellefonte for her home in Pitsburgh after a pleasant visit with her sister Mrs. J. K. Barnhart.

—The family of John Sharp left Bellefonte for Trenton, N. J., where he has a good position. He was connected with the shirt factory here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Longacre, of Williamsport, arrived in town Friday for a short visit at the home of Mr. Longacre's parents on Penn street.

—Mrs. Daniel Boone and two children, of Linden Hill, spent several days last week in Bellefonte as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ambrose Slotman.

—Emery and Berry will be at Bellefonte Wednesday, Oct. 10, during the week of the Centre county fair. Special return train to Coburn that night.

—When you come to Bellefonte next week don't forget to call around at the Democrat office—we are always glad to see our many friends, on all occasions.

—A. M. Barr, of Chicago, left Bellefonte after spending two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Bella Barr, who makes her home with Milton Johnson on Spring street.

—Mrs. Lewis Gettig and Mrs. W. M. Rearick departed last week for New Bloomfield where they attended the Missionary convention of the Lutheran church.

—Mrs. Ross Hickok and two children left Bellefonte, Saturday afternoon for Harrisburg after spending the summer at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. H. Hasting.

—J. A. B. Miller, Esq., wife and her sister, of Bellefonte, left Wednesday for Harrisburg to attend the ceremony connected with the dedication of the new State Capitol.

—George H. Cook and wife, of Phoenix, Arizona, are now visiting friends in Bellefonte. Mr. Cook is a brother of Andrew, Claud and Charles Cook, and is one of the most successful business men of the west.

—Mrs. Edward Darr, and her daughter Miss Ida, of Everett, Pa., arrived in town last Saturday to pay a two weeks visit to her son Geo. Darr, of this place. They will remain here to take in the Centre County Fair.

—W. M. Furey, of Bellefonte, this spring cut up and planted six Early Rose potatoes which he had gotten for a present from his son. A few days ago he "raised" them and found that he had 1 1/2 bushels for the six originally planted.

—T. Wilson Way, formerly of State College, but now of West Chester, Pa., transacted business in Bellefonte last week. Mr. Way is in the employ of The Sharpless Separator company in that city, as inspector, and frequently travels the state in the interest of the firm.

—Landlord H. S. Ray left on Sunday for New York city where he will spend a week or more visiting his parents who are engaged in hotel business at that place. A report that Mr. Ray had intended to give up the Brockerhoff House at this place is incorrect, as he has no such idea of leaving this place.

—The Pennsylvania Match Co., of Bellefonte, is erecting two large buildings at their plant in order to facilitate their work. One building is to be used as a drying house in which the green wood will be prepared to undergo the process of being converted into match stems. The other building will be used as a storehouse.

—E. T. Boyle, of Hazleton, who for the last seven months has been mail clerk on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, between Bellefonte and Mill Hill, has secured a position on the Main line between Pitsburgh and New York City. Mr. Boyle is a competent mail clerk and the change means to him a big advance in salary. While in Bellefonte he made a number of warm friends who will be glad to hear of his promotion.

—A number of women in Bellefonte, have organized what will be known as the Ladies Guild of the Bellefonte hospital. Mrs. Emil Joseph was chosen president, and a better selection could not have been made. It is the purpose of the guild to work in co operation with the Ladies Auxiliary for the benefit of the hospital and not in opposition to it as has been rumored. The membership fee is only one dollar, and it is the belief that a list of five hundred members can be secured.

—Philip Beezer left Wednesday afternoon for Cincinnati.

—Miss Barbara Leese, of Renovo, is visiting Dr. Edith Schach on Thomas St.

—Thomas F. Brungart, of Miles Twp., was a business visitor to the county seat this week.

—Abraham Weber, one of Howard's leading business men, transacted business in Bellefonte Tuesday.

—Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell of Bellefonte, left Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon, to visit friends in Pitsburgh.

—Mrs. James McGinnis, nee Miss Adeline Lyon, of Punxsutawney, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lyon, in Bellefonte.

—Harry W. Phillips of Philadelphia, the genial organizer of that success Tent of Maccabees in this place departed on Monday morning for his home.

—Harry Getzell and sister Mrs. Harry Garbrick, of Altoona, were arriving in Bellefonte Wednesday, called here by the illness of their father, Henry Getzell.

—Joseph L. Montgomery and family, of Bellefonte, are occupying their new residence on the corner of Allegheny and Lamb streets, although it is still incomplete.

—The carpenters employed on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad have just completed a large stock room at the freight depot in Bellefonte. It will be a great convenience.

—Hadley's moving pictures will be presented in Garman's Opera House, Tuesday, Oct. 16th, benefit of Gregg Post, for improving soldiers' burial lots in the Union cemetery.

—The dedication of the new state capitol takes place this Thursday and Col. Edward Chambers, of our town, will be there in full uniform as a part of Gov. Pennypacker's staff, to aid in the ceremonies. Edward can do it, in good elegant form.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hiller and daughter, and Mrs. W. P. Wilson left last Thursday for Missouri to spend a month among relatives in that state. That is Mr. Hiller's former home, and Mrs. Hiller's folks reside but a few miles from there.

—It was thought that Miss Julia Curtin, of Bellefonte, would have to submit to an operation for an abscess in the head, but the indications are that she will permanently recover without passing through that trying ordeal. She is still at the hospital.

—C. M. Parrish, the Bellefonte druggist, has added to his store equipment a new National cash register which indicates that the old wooden one was not able to hold the coin that rolls in there from day to day. He's keeping up with the bandwagon, all right.

—Edward Robb, who for the last couple of years has been assisting his brother, Supt. Nelson Robb, in the United Telephone and Telegraph office in Bellefonte, is the successor of J. Newlin Irvin as clerk in the First National Bank. He is a good, competent young man, and will fill the bill.

—Next Sunday morning Rev. James B. Stein, pastor of the Methodist church in Bellefonte, will preach in the auditorium at State College. His pulpit here will be supplied by Rev. David Spear, of Chambersburg, a brother of W. T. Spear, of this place, who is a warm personal friend of Rev. Stein.

—Col. J. L. Spangler, of Bellefonte, is gradually getting in the woodwork for the interior of his residence on Allegheny street. Most of it is antique oak, and the general make-up of the bookcases, mantles and the other furnishings show that when the Colonel gets through he will have one of the finest and most complete homes in Bellefonte.

—Messrs. Jeremiah Zettle, A. W. Zettle, Lawrence Runkle, Irvin Zettle, all of Gregg Twp., spent the past month at Juniata, doing carpentering on a new Evangelical church at Juniata, Pa., passed through town on Wednesday for their homes having finished the wood work. They are good workmen and that is the reason they were there.

—Rev. W. M. Rearick and Clement Dale, Esq., were representatives from the Lutheran church of Bellefonte at the meeting of the Synod of Central Pennsylvania held at Middleburg last week. Mr. Dale, while there, made some inquiry about getting a minister to succeed Rev. Rearick, whose pastorate here will cease by November 1st.

—All preparations are made for the fall and winter season of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium classes which begin Monday evening, Oct. 6, 1906. Get in line now, and be in at the beginning; it will make you feel better. The men are busy laying the coverings on the floor. The bowling season has opened up and the alleys are in good shape, so men get to work and limber up.

—"Rally day" was successfully observed in the Bellefonte Methodist church. The pastor, Rev. J. B. Stein, was assisted by Evangelist Edward Biddle, of Tyrone. Despite the threatening weather there was a large attendance, and Rev. Stein was greatly encouraged with the prospect of the work for the winter. The great trouble however is that so many of our church people get tired in well doing.

—Monday evening the roller skate craze struck Bellefonte in great shape. A large number of young ladies and gentlemen gathered at the Armory and for several hours they had fine sport gliding over the polished floor. There were some who were skinned up pretty badly but they never stopped for a little thing like that. The Coleville band furnished the music and everything passed off very pleasantly. The enterprise is in charge of Wm. Brown, who is a very courteous gentleman, will treat the patrons right.

—The other day Wagner Geiss, the efficient clerk in E. K. Rhoads' coal office, invited a representative of the Centre Democrat to ride with him to Centre Hall to partake of a spring chicken dinner at the home of ex-county commissioner Geo. Goodhart and wife. No coaxing was necessary on the part of Mr. Geiss, and when our destination was reached we found there ex-postmaster James Goodhart and wife, of Lewistown; James Goodhart, a prosperous young farmer of near Centre Hall, wife and child, and Mrs. Wagner Geiss and two children of Bellefonte. It was a jolly good-natured crowd, and the way that fowl disappeared showed that not one around the festive board was troubled much with indigestion. Mr. and Mrs. Goodhart moved from the farm to Centre Hall and now are enjoying the fruits of their hard labor in days gone by. In the evening we partook of an excellent supper at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. David Geiss, where our short stay was thoroughly enjoyed.

—Rev. W. H. Spangler will preach in the U. B. church next Sunday morning and evening.

—Company B left this morning at 3 o'clock to attend the capitol dedication at Harrisburg.

—Mrs. Yarrington, who has been visiting at the Walker home for the past month, left for her home at Richmond.

—Miss Wanda Von Morozowicz, of Pitsburgh, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker on East Bishop street.

—The two urns on the diamond are up and in place affording ample opportunity for man and beast to secure fresh water.

—P. S. Keichline, our downtown green grocer, is adding very much to the appearance of his store by giving it a new coat of paint.

—Miss Lillian Muffly left Wednesday afternoon for Philadelphia, after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Montgomery, on Allegheny street.

—Wednesday morning Dr. W. W. Feidt, of Bellefonte, with his little son had been out at the tollgate and while returning the horse frightened at the dumping of slag at the Nittany furnace. When the horse turned he broke one of the shafts and while the doctor was preventing a run the little boy rolled off the seat of the conveyance and then to the ground. Fortunately he was not injured, and walked with his father to Bellefonte. The horse failed to get away.

RECENT DEATHS.

WILLIAM WASHBURN—An aged and well known resident of Morrisdale, died at his home at the latter place Monday morning.

GEORGE W. CUMMINGS—died at his home in Millheim, after a long illness of a complication of diseases. His age was seventy-one years, three months and eleven days. Deceased was a veteran of the civil war. He leaves to survive a wife.

JOHN MEINER—who lived near Loganton, at a place called Hopple's Hollow, died Sunday night after a lingering illness. He was aged 74 years, and had resided in that vicinity for a great many years. He is survived by his widow and two sons. The funeral services were conducted at his late home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. Searles.

MRS. ELIZABETH GORDON—Wife of Daniel Gordon, died Sunday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock at her home at Pleasant View, near Bellefonte. She had been seriously ill for sometime, with a complication of diseases. Her age was 58 years and is survived by a husband and five children. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the chapel at that place; interment in the Union cemetery.

MRS. AMELIA A. DENNIS—Wife of Samuel Dennis, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Boyer, in Haines township, of infirmities incident to old age, aged seventy years, eight months and twenty days. She leaves to survive one son, Lewis Dennis, of South Dakota, and three daughters, Mrs. Samuel Boyer and Mrs. Cora Everett, of Haines township, and Mrs. Jacob Hazel, of Miles township.

LUTHER S. ROBERTS—Who years ago was among Bellefonte's most prominent citizens, died suddenly of bright's disease at his home in Pasadena, California, on Friday; up to going to press no definite news relative to his demise could be obtained. He was a son-in-law of Mrs. Catherine Humes, of Bellefonte, and is survived by a wife and three children, among whom is Dr. Humes Roberts, who with his wife visited Bellefonte this summer, and who have not returned home yet.

HARRY C. BANEY—who was born and raised in Bellefonte, but who for a number of years had been a resident of Atlantic City, died very suddenly on Friday of last week, from Bright's disease, after he had been a sufferer for the last year, although his demise at this time was very unexpected. Mr. Baneay was in the roofing business and was quite successful. He at one time conducted a grocery in Bellefonte. He was married to Miss Sarah Meyer a daughter of the late Thomas Meyer, of Benner township. He was 45 years of age and is survived by his wife but no children. He was buried at Atlantic City.

HENRY TWITMIRE—a former resident of Centre county, died Thursday evening Sept. 27th at the home of his son, Dr. T. C. Twitmir, at Gallitzin, Pa. Some time ago the aged gentleman fell down stairs and suffered a stroke of complete paralysis. He has passed the 87th milestone in life's journey and was probably the oldest Old Fellow in the state. For 57 years he had been a member in good standing of Centre Lodge No. 153 I. O. F., of Bellefonte. The remains were brought to Bellefonte Friday afternoon on the 1:23 train and taken to the home of Samuel Decker, on North Spring street, where the funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Interment in the Union cemetery.

MRS. SUSANNAH TODD—A highly esteemed resident of Philadelphia, died Friday morning in the Maple Hill sanitarium in that place. The deceased was the widow of John O. Todd, who for many years was connected with the mining interests of that section, and who died June 8, 1897. She leaves to mourn her death three sons and three daughters, viz: John T., Philadelphia; Fred C., Cincinnati, Ohio; Harry W., Philadelphia; Myrtle, wife of Andrew Allport, Midvale, Va.; Mary, wife of L. E. Rupert, of Montgomery, W. Va.; and Ethel N., wife of J. W. Faucett, Ashville, N. C. Besides these, she leaves two sisters and one brother, viz: Mrs. George W. McGaffey, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Jackson Taylor, of Swatmore, Pa., and L. W. Nuttall, of Nuttallburg, W. Va. Funeral took place Monday.

Mrs. JENNIE AMANDA HALL—died at her home in Milesburg, Sept. 28th, 1906. Aronson, her bed-wet her husband, children and their families. At the time of her death her age was 45 years, 8 months and 5 days, having been born January 23, 1771. She was married to John W. Hall, May 11th, 1878. To this union were born eleven children namely: Laura B., Charles M., Frank H., Henry C., Elwood, LeRoy, Bessie F., Malcolm H., Nellie M. C., Philip and Mary E., all of whom survive her except Laura B. and Charles M. In all respects she was a loving and devoted wife and a faithful mother. She was well and favorably known in this section. During her illness she displayed remarkable patience, and she was buried from the M. E. church, of which she had been a member since childhood. Many beautiful flowers were sent from friends in Milesburg and other towns. Interment was made in the family plot in the Advent cemetery. The four older sons acted as pall bearers.

A wholesome cream of tartar baking powder. Makes the finest, lightest, best flavored biscuit, hot-breads, cake and pastry.

Alum and alum-phosphate powders are injurious. Do not use them. Examine the label.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Mrs. MARGARET DIEHL—wife of Conrad Diehl, died Tuesday morning, Oct. 2, at 1:50 o'clock at the home of her son-in-law, Harry Rocky, near Jacksonville. She was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago and had been confined to her bed until she died. She was aged 79 years. She is survived by the following children: Samuel, Joseph, John and Mrs. Katharine Greninger, of Howard; William and Daniel, of Nittany, and Mrs. Harry Rocky, of Mackeyville.

JOHN D. BROWN—son of Mrs. Mary Brown, of Bellefonte, died at Clarence Monday morning about 9 o'clock. He had been in ill health ever since his wife died a little less than four years ago. Sunday night he had a stroke of paralysis from which he never recovered. He was a jeweler and four years ago moved from Snow Shoe to Bellefonte where he opened a shop for repairing watches. His health was such that he was compelled to close it, and six weeks ago he took his family from here to Clarence, where his oldest daughter is employed in the postoffice. He was about 42 years of age, and a very courteous gentleman and had many friends. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. He is survived by seven children, the youngest being about four years. He is also survived by a mother, two brothers, and two sisters; Henry, of Bellefonte; Thomas, of Vandergriff; Mrs. William Davidson, of Clearfield, and Mrs. Geo. Hermon, of Scotland. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. William W. Shaffer - Zion, Pa; Sallie E. Seyler - Blanchard; Milton E. Stover - Aaronsburg; Ida M. Shultz - Rebersburg; J. Wilmer Henszey - Philadelphia; Anne T. Hamilton - State College; Andrew C. Longe - Williamsburg; Margaret E. Steele - Bellefonte.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. Rodman B. Newport et al to Frank Reid, Aug. 8, 1906; 94 acres 98 perches in Walker twp. $1. Daniel Hosterman to W. V. Getzell, Sept. 29, 1906; house and lot in Penn twp. $750. Catharine A. Gross to Edward A. Gross, Sept. 25, 1906; house and lot in Bush addition. $100. Patrick Parker et ux to Celia Mirbach, Aug. 29, 1906; premises in Philipsburg, $10,30. Emma Hughes et al to William Cunningham, Dec. 29, 1903; premises in Philipsburg, $625. W. A. Murray et ux to Thomas Allen Aug. 13, 1906; premises in Boalsburg, $200. Royer E. Lorigan et ux to Albert S. Brown, Sept. 15, 1906; land in Rush twp. $176. E. P. McCormick et ux to Mary C. Bagley, Sept. 3, 1906; part of lot No. 109 in Philipsburg; $350. Mary C. Bagley to Annie Howe, Sept. 13, 1906; part of lot No. 109 in Philipsburg; $700. Albert S. Brown et ux to Edward Perks, Sept. 22, 1906; eastern half of lot No. 32 in Rush twp. $1,200. Linden Hall Lumber Co. to Laurelton Lumber Co., Sept. 20, 1906; 6 tracts in all-1,587 acres, 169 perches in Harris and Miles twps; $1. Linden Hall Lumber Co. to Wm. Witmer & Sons Co., Sept. 20, 1906; 8 tracts in all-1,540 acres, 108 perches in Harris and Potter twps.; $1. Linden Hall Lumber Co. to Wm. Witmer & Sons Co., Aug. 15, 1906; 3 tracts in all-551 acres in Harris twp.; $100. J. B. Irish et al to Andre Firen, Aug. 20, 1906; lots Nos. 273, 275, 277 and 279 in Rush twp.; $125.

Garman Opera House. Mr. Garman has secured "Wild & Rich's Players," the popular stock company as the attraction at the Garman Opera House for Fair week, commencing on Monday, Oct. 8. This excellent organization of performers will be remembered as having played to large and well pleased audiences here two years ago. An entirely new list of plays will be produced by Mr. W. C. Wild's dramatic company, during the engagement, including—"Shadows of a Great City," "Broken Hearts," "Tracy the Outlaw," "A Runaway Tramp," "The Night Before New Year's," "Rip Van Winkle" and "Jesse James." Among the specialty performers are Billy Wild, the inimitable monologist, Jeanette Le Blanc, sourette, and Geo. Curry, expert dancer. The play to be presented on Monday evening is "Shadows of a Great City," one of the strongest plays in this company's repertoire and has never failed to give entire satisfaction to its audiences.

of which she had been a member since childhood. Many beautiful flowers were sent from friends in Milesburg and other towns. Interment was made in the family plot in the Advent cemetery. The four older sons acted as pall bearers.

Mrs. MARGARET DIEHL—wife of Conrad Diehl, died Tuesday morning, Oct. 2, at 1:50 o'clock at the home of her son-in-law, Harry Rocky, near Jacksonville. She was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago and had been confined to her bed until she died. She was aged 79 years. She is survived by the following children: Samuel, Joseph, John and Mrs. Katharine Greninger, of Howard; William and Daniel, of Nittany, and Mrs. Harry Rocky, of Mackeyville.

JOHN D. BROWN—son of Mrs. Mary Brown, of Bellefonte, died at Clarence Monday morning about 9 o'clock. He had been in ill health ever since his wife died a little less than four years ago. Sunday night he had a stroke of paralysis from which he never recovered. He was a jeweler and four years ago moved from Snow Shoe to Bellefonte where he opened a shop for repairing watches. His health was such that he was compelled to close it, and six weeks ago he took his family from here to Clarence, where his oldest daughter is employed in the postoffice. He was about 42 years of age, and a very courteous gentleman and had many friends. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. He is survived by seven children, the youngest being about four years. He is also survived by a mother, two brothers, and two sisters; Henry, of Bellefonte; Thomas, of Vandergriff; Mrs. William Davidson, of Clearfield, and Mrs. Geo. Hermon, of Scotland. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. AMELIA A. DENNIS—Wife of Samuel Dennis, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Boyer, in Haines township, of infirmities incident to old age, aged seventy years, eight months and twenty days. She leaves to survive one son, Lewis Dennis, of South Dakota, and three daughters, Mrs. Samuel Boyer and Mrs. Cora Everett, of Haines township, and Mrs. Jacob Hazel, of Miles township.

LUTHER S. ROBERTS—Who years ago was among Bellefonte's most prominent citizens, died suddenly of bright's disease at his home in Pasadena, California, on Friday; up to going to press no definite news relative to his demise could be obtained. He was a son-in-law of Mrs. Catherine Humes, of Bellefonte, and is survived by a wife and three children, among whom is Dr. Humes Roberts, who with his wife visited Bellefonte this summer, and who have not returned home yet.

HARRY C. BANEY—who was born and raised in Bellefonte, but who for a number of years had been a resident of Atlantic City, died very suddenly on Friday of last week, from Bright's disease, after he had been a sufferer for the last year, although his demise at this time was very unexpected. Mr. Baneay was in the roofing business and was quite successful. He at one time conducted a grocery in Bellefonte. He was married to Miss Sarah Meyer a daughter of the late Thomas Meyer, of Benner township. He was 45 years of age and is survived by his wife but no children. He was buried at Atlantic City.

HENRY TWITMIRE—a former resident of Centre county, died Thursday evening Sept. 27th at the home of his son, Dr. T. C. Twitmir, at Gallitzin, Pa. Some time ago the aged gentleman fell down stairs and suffered a stroke of complete paralysis. He has passed the 87th milestone in life's journey and was probably the oldest Old Fellow in the state. For 57 years he had been a member in good standing of Centre Lodge No. 153 I. O. F., of Bellefonte. The remains were brought to Bellefonte Friday afternoon on the 1:23 train and taken to the home of Samuel Decker, on North Spring street, where the funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Interment in the Union cemetery.

Mrs. SUSANNAH TODD—A highly esteemed resident of Philadelphia, died Friday morning in the Maple Hill sanitarium in that place. The deceased was the widow of John O. Todd, who for many years was connected with the mining interests of that section, and who died June 8, 1897. She leaves to mourn her death three sons and three daughters, viz: John T., Philadelphia; Fred C., Cincinnati, Ohio; Harry W., Philadelphia; Myrtle, wife of Andrew Allport, Midvale, Va.; Mary, wife of L. E. Rupert, of Montgomery, W. Va.; and Ethel N., wife of J. W. Faucett, Ashville, N. C. Besides these, she leaves two sisters and one brother, viz: Mrs. George W. McGaffey, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Jackson Taylor, of Swatmore, Pa., and L. W. Nuttall, of Nuttallburg, W. Va. Funeral took place Monday.

Mrs. JENNIE AMANDA HALL—died at her home in Milesburg, Sept. 28th, 1906. Aronson, her bed-wet her husband, children and their families. At the