

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—A. A. Stevens of Tyrone transacted business in Bellefonte Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Nolan and little son left Bellefonte, Saturday, for a visit to friends in Pittsburg.

—Miss Mary Norris, of Belair, Md., is a guest in Bellefonte at the residence of Mrs. Reuben Valentine and family.

—Recorder John C. Rowe and J. C. Meyer, Esq., were arrivals home Friday morning from a business trip to Pittsburg.

—Billy Miller, a young colored boy of Bellefonte, was successfully operated upon at the Bellefonte hospital last week.

—The red men of Bellefonte will hold a smoker at their regular meeting Monday next in their hall over the Centre County Bank.

—The Phillipsburg Foot ball team will play the Academy at the fair grounds this Saturday afternoon at 3 P. M. Admission 25cts.

—Judge Allison O. Smith and wife, of Clearfield, were in Bellefonte last week visiting their son who is a student at the Bellefonte Academy.

—J. L. McClenahan, of Centre Hall, gave our sanctum a call. He reports apples and cider so plenty as to be a drug, and folks generally well.

—Miss Ollie Mitchell, Gen. Beaver's secretary, has returned from a three weeks' visit at Philadelphia and Atlantic City. She had the most delightful time.

—W. H. Whitmeyer and family moved during the past week from Lewisburg to Lamb street, Bellefonte. He has accepted a position in the Penna. Match works in this place.

—Mrs. William Cassidy, of Bellefonte, entertained a party of friends at cards on Friday evening in honor of Miss Wanda Von Morozowicz, who is visiting Mrs. Jack Decker.

—John Metfinger, of Pleasant Gap, who is just recovering from a severe attack of asthma, was in Bellefonte Monday feeling as well as can be expected. He says that there are bear up in the Gap and the hunters are after them.

—John Wetzel, of Bellefonte, who is 82 years old, was noticed picking apples on his farm the other day. By his side was his son, Rev. Frank Wetzel, pastor of the Reformed church at Rebersburg, and it is said the father picked all 'round his son.

—Surveyor Hud Herring, of Penn Hall, favored our sanctum with a call. He is familiarly called, has charge of a corps of engineers surveying in the mountains, having charge of the section of state lands from Linden Hall west to Pinegrove, for the purpose of establishing the lines.

—The pool tournament at Knisely Bros., billiard and pool parlor, is one of the things that is exciting a great deal of interest among experts of this popular game. As the rollers of the ivories gather around the green cloth to compete for supremacy, it is carefully watched by a large number of spectators.

—Do our readers want to know the happiest man in Bellefonte? Well, go down at the Potter-Hoy hardware store and the fellow whose face is as radiant as the morning sun, he's the man, we mean Scott Weiland who is rejoicing over the arrival of a son, which is the first born. That's enough to make a man smile, isn't it?

—W. H. Baird, formerly of Milesburg, but now holding a good position in the post office at Juniata, Pa., visited his home this week and called around to see us. He finds there are a number of people in that section from this county and it is quite natural that nearly all get the Centre Democrat to find out what is happening at their homes.

—The election proclamation, issued by Sheriff Henry Kline, will be found in this issue. It gives timely information to all voters. It enumerates the offices to be filled as well as the place of holding the election in each district of the county. Tuesday, November the 6th, is the date. No matter what your politics may be, be sure and go to the polls on that date.

—This week Harris Heylman, cashier of the First National Bank, of Indiana, has been circulating around among his many friends in Bellefonte. Since leaving here he has become quite a hunter, and frequently he has been going to the mountains, with his gun, but we think he has better success in hunting "Dear," than either squirrels or birds. He is getting along nicely in his position and likes the place.

—It is said that John I. Underwood, of Renova, has increased in size about a foot within the last week and is the happiest man in town. The cause of his growth and happiness is because a son the first born, arrived at his home Thursday morning. The young papa who is now walking on the air is a son of Isaac Underwood, of Bellefonte, who has also been wearing a complaisant smile during the past week; we guess they had better call this Isaac, Jr., to keep peace in the family.

—Fred Smith has been about Bellefonte the past week, looking improved in health. About two months ago he left here for the sanitarium at New Haven, Pa., where he was admitted as a tuberculosis patient. It is remarkable the improvement that is noticeable in that time. It is his intention to return thither again and spend the winter camping out in a tent so that he will be sure to get all the fresh air possible, no matter what the temperature may be. This open air treatment appears to accomplish his result.

—Rev. E. G. Richardson, the new pastor of the Bellefonte Episcopal church, is devoting much of his time in building up the congregation. To this end he has organized a church club that started out with a membership of twenty-eight. Friday evening Rev. Richardson entertained the younger people and their mothers from 7:30 to 9 o'clock, the older members from 7 until 9 at the Sunday school room in the basement of St. John's Episcopal church. There were a large number of persons present who had a very enjoyable time. Rev. Richardson besides being an eloquent and scholarly preacher is a hard worker and the fruit of his labor has already manifested itself. At a parish meeting of the church, a committee was elected looking to the erection of a church home and Guilds which would be a most needed adjunct to the Parish and likewise a great benefit to the town.

—W. K. Haines, of Aaronsburg, was a caller at this office on Monday.

—Mrs. Samuel Foster spent a few weeks with her relatives near Howard.

—J. H. McCool and daughter Mattie, of Redmill, gave the Democrat a pleasant call.

—Dr. H. W. Tate, the Bellefonte dentist, left this week for West Va., where he will remain for ten days.

—Mrs. James Schofield, of Bellefonte, left for Pittsburg Friday where she is the guest of Mrs. McEntyre.

—Miss Julia McDermott, who has been in Philadelphia the past month or more, has decided to spend the winter in the Quaker city.

—Mrs. Edward Rine and her two children, of Punxsutawney, are the guests of Mrs. Rine's mother, Mrs. Gessner at Coleville.

—Rev. Spangler, the new pastor of the Bellefonte United Brethren church, filled his pulpit here last Sunday. The congregation was well pleased.

—The ladies of the Reformed church expect to hold their Country store the first week in November, in Crider's Exchange next door to the Racket.

—Newlin Irvin, of Bellefonte, has just passed through the same kind of a seige that Job of old passed through, only Newlin had his boils on his cheek.

—The Luther League will have an interesting service in the church next Sabbath evening, consisting of instrumental and vocal music, addresses and other appropriate exercises. All are cordially invited.

—Noah H. Swayne II, head of the Philadelphia branch of Rogers, Brown & Co. and president of the Nittany Iron Co., was an arrival in town last week. He came up to look over his varied business interests here.

—There was not a corporal's guard left Bellefonte on Saturday morning to see Pennypacker's show, the new capitol. People have read about the gigantic gap robbery and are disgusted with Pennypacker and his crowd.

—Mrs. Hamilton Otto has come to Bellefonte from Williamsport, having recovered from the operation she underwent in the Williamsport hospital several weeks ago. Her daughter, Helen, was also an arrival from Niagara Falls.

—John Walker, of Bellefonte, took a party of three friends to Tyrone on Tuesday afternoon of last week, having made the run with his Franklin car in one hour and twenty eight minutes. The indicator showed the distance as a fraction over thirty-four miles.

—The Bower family, of Bellefonte, expect to close their house on east Linn street in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bower and children will come down and spend the winter with Mrs. Bower's father, James Curtin, while Mrs. C. M. Bower will spend the winter among her relatives.

—Dr. William Laurie, of Bellefonte, held special religious services in the Presbyterian church at Belleville, Mifflin county, last week and on Sunday morning administered holy communion to the congregation. Dr. Laurie's services have been in great demand throughout the Huntingdon presbytery.

—Every farmer in this county should keep his eye on the want department in this paper. There always will be something there for sale in the line of live stock. At the same time you may have something that you may want to sell that is of no use to you that can be turned to a good advantage in this way and it costs you nothing.

—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Musser passed through Bellefonte Tuesday of last week on their way to Altoona after having spent a short time up Buffalo Run. As attracted there at the time by the opening of the hunting season. Mr. and Mrs. Musser anticipate making their home in Hollidaysburg as Mr. Musser has been promoted to a position in the new machine shops in that place.

—The big trout that generally are to be seen about this time of the year, opposite the Watchman office in Spring creek, are not nearly so numerous as in years past. A half dozen or so can be seen most any day but they only average from eight inches to a foot in size, whereas last year a dozen or more from twelve to eighteen inches in length could be seen with quite a lot of smaller ones.

—Last week Miss Jennie Morrison, daughter of Andy Morrison, was in Bellefonte visiting her uncle John Meese. She is a bright young lady and while here was in her usual good spirits. She went home and in a day or so afterwards took her bed with typhoid fever, on Sunday her temperature was 104, but since that time it has been reduced and the young lady is getting along as well as can be expected.

—George Hile, with his sister, Miss Sadie Hile, of Pleasant Gap, are occupying the rooms in Crider's stone building recently occupied by Dr. J. E. Ward as dental offices. They also occupy one room in the rear of W. C. Cassidy's office. Mr. Hile is in the lumbering business with P. B. Crider & Son, and makes his headquarters here. He is a very energetic young man and is the kind of a man every community should welcome.

—Mrs. Cori, wife of James Cori clerk to the County Commissioners, who had been ill for three weeks was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday and on Sunday an operation was performed. Although it was of a serious nature she is getting along very nicely and will recover. Mr. Cori has had quite an uphill time of it recently. First he had been ill, then a couple of children took sick and then finally his wife became ill which resulted in her having to go to the hospital. Everything is now looking better and "Jim" is beginning to see the silver lining to the cloud.

—James A. McClain, of Spangler, was an arrival in town Wednesday.

—Titus M. Gramley, of Spring Mills, was a business visitor in town Monday.

—Boyd A. Musser, of York, Pa., transacted business in Bellefonte this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kelley, left Tuesday for New York, where they will spend the next ten days.

—J. J. Orndorf, one of Haines township's leading citizens, gave the Democrat sauctum a call.

—Wilbur F. Harris, of Harrisburg, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Henry Harris on Howard street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Beaver and little daughter left Saturday morning for New York City.

—Miss Eliza Blanchard and Miss Mary Blanchard are enjoying a two weeks visit in Philadelphia.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Shreffler and little child, of Osceola Mills, is visiting relatives in this place.

—Mrs. Benner Graham and son, Scott, left Friday morning for a week's visit to friends in Philadelphia.

—Mrs. George Grimm departed Saturday for Pittsburg where she will visit her mother for some time.

—A. L. Lichtenwalner Esq., a well known Phillipsburg attorney, transacted business in town Wednesday.

—Mrs. Harry Macker, of East High street, was taken to the Bellefonte Hospital Sunday for treatment.

—W. F. Daggett the proprietor of the Bush House has been quite ill this week. Part of the time he has been in bed.

—Captain William F. Reber, of Philadelphia, was in Bellefonte Wednesday morning between train while on his way to State College.

—James Clark, one of Benner township's prosperous farmers, has concluded to have sale next month, after which he will become a Bellefonter.

—Rev. Wm Hesse, D. D., of Brookville, Pa., will preach in the Lutheran church of this place, on Sunday November 4, morning and evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Malone, of Yarnell, called on Tuesday to arrange for advertising their sale. It is their expectation to leave the farm and locate at Pittcairn, Pa.

—The game of foot ball between Phillipsburg and the Academy which was postponed last Saturday will be played this Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m., at the fair grounds.

—Mrs Ernest Whiting, was taken to the Lock Haven Hospital Wednesday afternoon for treatment. Her husband is an employee of the Potter-Hoy Company and they live in Petrikin Hall, Bellefonte.

—F. H. Young, of Bellefonte, has resigned his position as agent for the National Biscuit Company. He has accepted an agency with the Ward and Mackey biscuit and cracker manufacturer of Pittsburg.

—An enjoyable bag social will be held at the residence of Sam'l Showers, on Spring street, on Friday evening, Nov. 2, by the ladies of S. E. Goss, S. S. class, of the Lutheran church, ice cream, candy, cake and coffee, for sale. Proceeds for benefit of class. Invitation to all.

—The Republican County Committee have opened their headquarters on the third floor of the Temple Court. Samuel B. Miller is in charge. This is a useless expenditure of time and money this year. "Sammy" had better be busking corn or pumpkins, he would get better returns.

—Rev. W. M. Rearick, of the Lutheran church, will preach his final sermon next Sunday morning at 10:30. In the evening the Luther League will hold a public meeting. A special program will be rendered. On next Wednesday morning the pastor and family will leave for Milliffling.

—Among our callers this week was A. Flannigan, a democratic member of the Clinton county Board of Commissioners. He was ushered in by Comrs. Dunlap and while here related some peculiar incidents they encountered in letting the new bridge at Hubbard's crossing over Beech Creek between the two counties.

—Saturday Henry Wetzel and his son Paul Wetzel returned to Bellefonte after being absent since June. They were in the employ of the United States government in making geographical surveys throughout several counties of the state. They stopped work at Punxsutawney and returned home until next summer when they will resume their work at that point.

—William Lingle, of Patton, who purchased the residence on Linn street, Bellefonte, recently occupied by Joseph L. Montgomery, is making extended repairs to the interior of the building. Many of the partitions are being moved and reset and by the time the carpenters get through with it an entire change will have taken place, and everything be modern and up-to-date.

—Prof. D. M. Wolf, of Spring Mills, was a caller at this office Saturday. Although not quite as young as he used to be he holds his age well, and looks as if he might round out a century. Dr. Wolf as he is known by theologians, is one of the oldest instructors not only in Centre county, but in the state, and through his teaching hundreds of young ladies and gentlemen have laid the foundations of an education that has been of inestimable value to them. He is still in the harness and doing good, efficient work.

—You have often heard of a man having a bee buzzing in his ear. Well, "Billy" Bottorff, the obliging clerk in Olewiew's hardware store, in Bellefonte, had been having some trouble with his ear and it is claimed by some of his friends that it was the matrimonial bee, and it became so troublesome that he found that something had to be done and that pretty quick. Instead, however, of hunting up a girl and going to consult a minister he went to a physician who took from his ear a hard substance that resembled a fishing worm, about one inch long. He now hears plainly, especially when called to his meals.

—Tuesday morning the Centre County Commissioners let what is known as the Hubbard bridge near Beech Creek. The following are the various bids: Alleger & Co., Wilkesbarre, $6900; Toledo Massillon Bridge Co., Pittsburg, $7100; York Bridge Co., $6495; Canton Bridge Co., of Ohio, $6700; Penn Bridge Co., of Beaver Falls, $7216; A. Buchanan Bridge Co., of Chambersburg, $6674; Oswego Bridge Co., N. Y., $6485. The latter company being the lowest bidder, and they will have the job. This bridge will have 12 foot spans over Beech Creek and will be one of the best bridges in the county, and is one that has been very badly needed.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Mrs. Annie Poyer, of Snow Shoe, was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital for surgical treatment last Thursday.

Mrs. P. B. Breneman and son Robert, of Millheim, left Wednesday morning of last week for Lafayette, Ind., where Mr. Breneman holds a professorship in Purdue University. They will make that place their future home.

Some of the Pine Grove nimrods who came in with turkeys from the first day's hunt were Hon. J. W. and Capt. Kenler each having a fat hen, Frank Davis, Chas. Irvin, George Reed and Irvin Holmes, turkey and pheasant. Earnest and John Hess, of Altoona, with squirrels in their pouches.

Marcellus Sankey, of Potters Mills, Richard and Cloyd Brooks, J. W. Mirtel and G. W. Bradford, of Centre Hall, each purchased cattle at the sale in Bellefonte Monday, of last week. Most of the cattle were bought with a view of improving herds of cattle previously owned by these parties.

The lines of the Bald Eagle Telephone Co. have been extended from Howard exchange through Komola to Orvis or Hayes Run, and both of these places are now within call of patrons of the United Telephone system. The people of Orvis are much pleased that they are connected by phone with the outside world.

J. M. Wieland, Cal. Wieland and Al. Gingrich, who were the proprietors of the Boalsburg carriage works, have dissolved partnership. Cal. Wieland and Al. Gingrich will have now have charge of the coach shop, and J. M. Wieland will enter into partnership with W. H. Stuart in the mercantile business.

M. A. Brungart, of Zion, returned on Monday from an extended trip. In July, accompanied by several of his neighbors, they went up through Canada. Mr. Brungart left the party there and continued his trip down through the Western states along the Mississippi, visiting relatives scattered through the west. He came home chipper and in the best of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Korman Spicher, bride and groom of Philadelphia, after spending two weeks visiting relatives and friends in Centre county, returned home. Mr. Spicher is a mail carrier in the city and is doing well. It will be remembered that he is a Centre county boy, born near Centre Hall, while Mrs. Spicher is one of Philadelphia's handsome and accomplished ladies.

Prof. J. H. Kurzenkabe, of Harrisburg, who is well known in Millheim and vicinity, having conducted numerous singing conventions there, while making an address at the Sunday morning services at the Reformed church, at Shamokin, on Oct. 14 received a paralytic stroke. He was at no time unconscious and is able to use the limbs on his right side, which is the side affected.

The following is a report of the sick in Harris township: Edwin Rupp, of Altoona, has been ill of typhoid fever at the home of his father, J. A. Rupp, of Boalsburg, but is now convalescing. Miss Anna Weber has been sick for two months from nervous ailment, and is little improved. Mrs. Solomon Lohr is suffering considerably from a large ulcer on the ball of her right eye. She has been confined in a dark room for three weeks, with little hope of a speedy relief. Nora B. Miller is able to be around among her companions again, after an illness of several months.—Reporter.

The Phillipsburg Journal says: "Henry Prentiss, of Bangor, Maine, and W. B. Quigley, of Lock Haven, were there last week looking after their property interests in that section. They are owners of 10,000 acres of land east of Phillipsburg, and recent successful tests for coal on lands adjoining have encouraged them to look into the matter of the development of their property, or disposing of the same to parties interested in such matters." This is the same tract of land in which one or more Bellefonters are interested and on which three good paying veins of coal have been found recently by prospectors. The tract is located in the vicinity of Beaver Mills.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate—which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders—and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boal contemplate making Centre Hall their home between this and next spring.

At the real estate sale of John Stoner, at Madisonburg, the house and lot was bid up to $1,100, and the 20 acre tract west of town to $700 an acre.

Up to last Saturday D. L. Geary, of near Red Mill, killed ten wild ducks. He says he has an engagement opened with other ducks on the Red Mill dam.

Miss Romie Van Pelt, of Centre Hall, returned from a two hours' hunt Monday afternoon with a gray squirrel as a trophy. Her hunting companion, Prof. J. D. P. Sneathgill, in the same trap, captured two gray.

Monday evening of last week Clayton Pressler, of near Millheim, brought home a wild turkey that dressed 15 lbs. He had shot it in Sugarvalley and reported that there were more than thirty turkeys in the flock out of which he got his.

Robert Smith, of Spring Mills, has placed in his side yard a walk of over 230 feet of cement in large blocks. The concrete was put in to a depth of ten inches to avoid any damage from frost. It is a splendid walk, looks like solid stone and will wear a life time.

As some time ago there appeared in some of the county papers the statement that Herbert Goss had been sent to the Reformatory, we are glad to correct the error. It appears that a mistake in the name has been made, and instead of Herbert Goss it should have been Kirby Goss, of Phillipsburg.

The M. E. Church at Martha's Furnace after extensive repairs will be "Reopened" for public services on Sunday Nov. 4th. The morning sermon will be delivered by the Rev. M. C. Piper of Milesburg, and in the evening the Rev. J. M. Johnson of Altoona will preach. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Friday evening, Oct. 12, the friends of Miss Eva Schenck gathered at her home on Hunter's Run, and gave her a complete surprise, it being her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing different kinds of games. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents which she appreciated highly.

In the vicinity of Linden Hall several flocks of wild turkeys have been harbored. Monday the first day the game could be legally killed, and by evening eight of the proud birds were bagged by many hunters, namely: John and Jonas Ross, John Raymond, James Swabb, John L. Tressler, Linden Hall; Rev. J. R. Sechrist and J. Frank Smith, Centre Hall; George Fisher, of Boalsburg.

Sunday evening, Oct. 14, while A. Zettle, with his wife and child, and his little sister, of near Spring Mills, were on their way to the home of W. M. Grove, near Centre Hill, their horse took fright at a pile of coal along the roadside at the barn of Jerry Confer. The occupants of the vehicle were thrown out, and Mr. Zettle was pretty badly used up. The others escaped without much injury.

There is a public school in Penn township, Carbon county, which has been open for a month, and not a pupil has been in attendance during the entire time. The teacher opens up in the morning and remains until closing time. The parents of the pupils decline to obey the vaccination act and are keeping their children out of school. The directors have refused to pay the teacher, and he will probably appeal to court.

Prof. Samuel C. Miller, principal of the Norwood public schools and president of the Delaware county teachers' association, was the representative of the association at the convention for the establishment of a teachers' retirement fund, held in Harrisburg Friday, Oct. 12. Prof. Miller is an old Centre county boy, being a native of Ferguson township, and is making his mark among the eastern educators of the State.
