John Solt, one of our most esteemed citizens, died on Monday morning about 10 o'clock, from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy, with which he was stricken one day last week, and from which he never revived. He was aged 62 years and 4 months and leaves to survive him his wife, two sons, William, of this place, and Samuel, of Greensburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Rosa Bickel, of Zion. Also two sisters—Mrs. Mary Shank, of near Bellefonte, and Mrs. George Noll, of Lauertown. He was a consistent member of the Evangelical church, a man of high character, and of whom naught but good words can be said. He was one of God's nobles: works and an honest man. The funeral took place on Wednesday, from his late home, at 2 o'clock. Services by the Rev. Reifer of the Free Methodist church.

Russel Blair didn't get my roadster fixed, "run out of muckage" he said. So I am compelled to postpone my trip No. 2 till next week. Will then go to Millheim and tell all about a lawsuit I witnessed there in chief justice Musser's office which will be the principal event of trip No. 4.

POTTER TWP.
