A few evenings ago a dozen of mesdames neighbors, invaded the Dr. Seibert home on Allegheny street, and treated Mrs. Seibert to a pleasant anniversary surprise with some pretty presents thrown in.
C. G. McMillen, of Columbus, Ohio, was in Bellefonte last week. The many friends of himself, Mrs. McMillen and their daughter, Mrs. Moore, will be interested in knowing that they contemplate coming to Bellefonte next spring and taking a house for the six summer months, and then, maybe, they will conclude to stay here permanently, as all of them regard Bellefonte more in the light of their old home than any other place in which they have ever lived.
The ministerium of Bellefonte, on Monday, passed highly creditable resolutions on the recent removal from Bellefonte to other fields of labor of Rev. A. Davidson, pastor of the United Brethren church, and Rev. W. M. Kearnick, pastor of the Lutheran church. Those resolutions were very expressive and complimentary to the gentlemen whose life and character was worthy of emulation, and who did much to build up the moral and religious tone of the community.
The Panther Hunting Club, of Bellefonte, have about completed arrangements for their annual deer hunt the last two weeks of the month. Those who are entitled to go are Jno. and A. Linn McGinley, John and Andrew Knisley, M. A. Jackson, Harry F. Gerberich, C. Bruce Garman, W. C. Cassidy, R. S. Brousse, Lew Wallace and Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia. Jacob Jury will be taken along as chief cook and Fred Lane as man-of-all-work. They will camp on Big Run.
Summer before last, when contractor Gault of this town was tearing down the rear stone addition to the once Burnside residence—now the Y. M. C. A. home—he found among the garret rubbish an old daybook of 1847, which, from the entries, embraces the names of scores of customers of one of the merchants of that day. Many of these are familiar to us. On the first page the Democrat finds a lengthy entry, "Postage act, with H. McLaughlin." Letters are entered at 5 and 10 cents postage, according to weight. The other pages are given to entries of purchases of store goods, cash acct etc., including freight paid on goods received by boat, (Bald Eagle Navigation Co. canal, abandoned after the construction of the B. E. V. R. R.) The book was turned over to the Linn Historical Society.

Hospital News.
There are now fifteen patients in the Bellefonte Hospital which means that the institution is crowded. The matron and her attendants are doing all they can to make the patients comfortable, but what they need, and that badly is more room.

Robert Korst, an Austrian, who was in the employ of the Nittany Iron Works was admitted Monday suffering from a broken leg.
Mrs. Edward K. Kane, of Bellefonte, was taken to the hospital for treatment this week.

Salvation Army Wedding.
A Salvation Army wedding took place in the court house on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the presence of quite a large audience. It was something entirely new, and thus it was very interesting. The contracting parties were Miss Viola Wilson, of Bellefonte, and W. D. Beavor, of Minneapolis, Minn. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McClosky. The knot was tied by Staff Captain Lyon, of Philadelphia. After the ceremony at the temple of justice the bride and groom were driven to the home of Mrs. McClosky, at Vernona, where a reception was held and refreshments served. The next day the happy couple started for Philadelphia to visit friends before settling down in their home. The bride is a young lady who has been taking a good deal of interest in the Salvation Army at this place, and no doubt will make an excellent wife. The groom is a bridge contractor and is employed by one of the railroad companies in the city in which he lives.

Eddie Hill Injured.
News was received in Bellefonte Monday night, that Eddie Hill, of this place, had been killed Sunday night at Clearfield. It has since developed that he was in a freight wreck Friday night between Sunbury and Harrisburg and was very badly injured. He was picked up and taken to the Sunbury hospital where he is getting along as well as can be expected. His wife went to Sunbury Saturday but she was not aware that his injuries were quite so serious as they have since proven.

Patience is a virtue, especially in our creditors.
A stitch in time is better than sowing the wind.

Foster Weaver, of Pine Grove Mills, who has been housed up with a broken leg, as so far recovered as to go around on crutches.
You will notice that our sale register is unusually large for this season of the year. Sales are plenty and the value of advertising them in this paper is realized by all.
H. E. Schreckengast, of Spring Mills, who had the contract for the erection of several houses at Ebensburg, Pa., has completed his work and returned home again.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durst, of Centre Hall, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Verna May, to Samuel Goodhart. The ceremony will take place Thursday, 8th inst., at 1:30 o'clock.
At the public sale of the real estate of Sarah Frank deceased, the farm in Penn township was sold to W. Speer Breon for $2975. The house and lot in Millheim was not sold.
One of the many good yields of wheat raised in Potter Township is reported by J. T. Potter. Eleven and one-half acres yielded an average of twenty-seven bushels. No fertilizer was used.

The contract to fill in the approaches to the new bridge over the railroad at Spring Mills was awarded by the supervisors of Gregg township to C. P. Long for $300.
Ex-sheriff John Spangler, of Centre Hall, father of Col. J. L. Spangler of Bellefonte, is lying very low at his home from complications of diseases incident to old age. He is gradually growing weaker, and his death seems only to be a question of time.

For the benefit of those who do not know we will state that the county pays no premium for scalps of animals or birds. This is important to all justices of the peace. It seems that under the multiplicity of game laws, the scalp laws have all been repealed.

Swartz's store, at Tusseyville, was robbed last Thursday night Oct. 25th of goods valued at $2000. Entrance was gained through the rear door by the use of a key. The goods stolen were mostly mittens and gloves. The Tusseyville, postoffice is located in the building, but nothing was disturbed.

Hunters and fishers have had their eye on the old school house in Havice Valley in the Seven Mountains. The building is to be sold, and may be purchased by sportsmen who will occupy it when out on hunting and fishing expeditions. The locality is in the center of a good field for game and fish.

Road viewers performed the preliminaries on a road leading from the residence of C. C. Bartges to the railroad station at Spring Mills. The viewers appointed were Jacob Wagner and D. J. Meyer, with Wm. M. Grove as surveyor. The Gregg township supervisors also attended the view.

The old Bilger homestead at Artic Springs, in Rush Township, for years a famous resort for picnic parties, was entirely destroyed by fire on Monday night. J. E. Horn was the lessee of the property and all his household furnishings was destroyed while an old gentleman who was care-taker of the property narrowly escaped with his life.

Pleasant Gap has two new houses—quite a fine one for our friend Joseph Tressler, a frame dwelling, now finished; the other, Mr. Tressler's son-in-law, a brick-cased dwelling nearing completion. The village already has a number of pretty and comfortable homes, in all of which its industrious people take just pride.

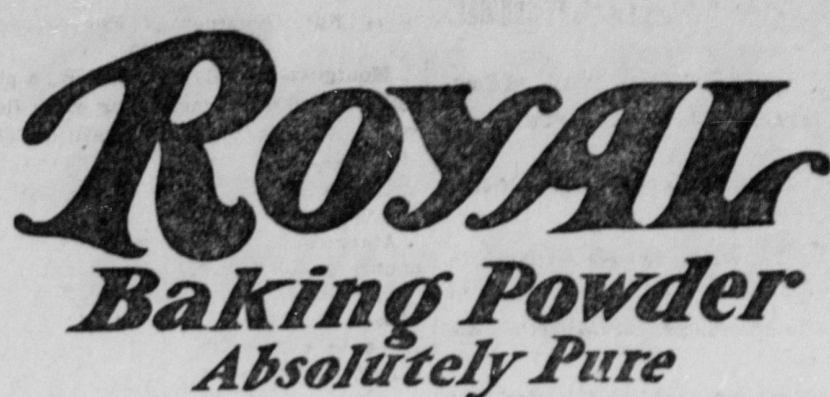

Dr. P. S. Fisher, of Zion, on Monday took John Baney, of that place, to Danville asylum. He had been ill for some time and his wife dying recently had a tendency to sort of weaken his mind. For many years he was a shoemaker in that little village and always a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman. His friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Apples are so plenty in parts of our county and the adjoining county of Clinton, that owners of orchards have to eat the fruit to get rid of the crop. It is apple pie in the morning, apple dumplings for dinner, apple taters for supper, apple butter, for spread, apple sass and roast apple for desert, and apple jack to wash down the diet. Apples are trump if they are a slump.

A couple weeks ago Ernest, the twelve-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arista Lucas, of Union township, was picking apples when he fell from the top of a tall ladder and was very seriously injured. One leg and an arm were broken and the other leg and other arm very badly sprained. He will be compelled to remain in bed a long time, although his complete recovery is anticipated.

Halloween was celebrated in Center Hall by the youngsters and, perhaps, aided by some of the old-sters, judging from the appearance of things next morning. The topsy-turvy work, and highjinks played was more than children's work. Wagons, carts, plows, buggies, the heavy horse team crusher and scraper, and other implements, "too numerous to mention" were brought from near and far by the hollie "ghosts" and adorned some of the premises. Sheaves of cornfodder were used as floral decorations to pinnacle some of the high piles. A little before midnight, the Centre Democrat is assured, there was no sign or evidence of any nocturnal demonstrations by the ghosts to celebrate the event. But when the morn came in a sight was had—to make some mad—others glad. The carnival made the public square its silent storm centre and special attention was given to blockade the Murray drug house, Meyer's store, the near-by barber shop and bank. It is a caution how silently the hollie depredators can perform hard and heavy work at midnight, which would make them sweat, grunt and groan, if hired to do the same in daytime. These ghosts regularly pay their annual respects to the town in this manner at same date.

Some men are thrown in the shade by their rivals and others stand in their own light.

SMITH-LEE.

Jonas D. Smith and Miss Lee, both of Philadelphia, were married in that city last week, and arrived at the old homestead, near Tusseyville, Wednesday last week. The groom holds a splendid position in the business offices of the Philadelphia Inquirer, and is a son of the late J. T. Smith, of Potter township, deceased.

Hendershot Foiled.

Robert Hendershot made a good job of going through F. P. Blair & Co's jewelry store but he was foiled in two attempts to break jail. For some time past the sheriff has had his suspicions of Hendershot's actions and one day while out in the yard exercising, he climbed on the roof of an out-building and intended climbing over the wall by the aid of a telephone wire but was caught in the act by deputy sheriff Reese, who was watching for something of the kind. Wednesday evening of last week when the prisoners were locked up for the night Hendershot's cell was searched and the discovery was made that he had sawed a hole in the floor big enough to get through, and had then replaced the boards very carefully and was only waiting a favorable opportunity to get down into the cellar when escape would have been comparatively easy. Where he got the saw is a mystery. When on Mr. Hendershot will be watched very closely.

The Wound Proves Fatal.

Mrs. A. B. Shope, the woman from Cató, near Snow Shoe, this county, who was taken to the Lock Haven, hospital Wednesday of last week, suffering from a gunshot wound in the right leg, died on Friday. The limb was riddled to pieces she never rallied from the shock. She was aged about 50 years, and is survived by her husband and a large family of children. George, her son, who did the shooting, is almost insane with grief. The accident happened on his 17th birthday. The young man celebrated the event by going hunting and after an hour's stay in the woods returned with a pheasant.

Boy as a Bold Mail Robber.

The mysterious disappearance of mail matter from the Renovo post office for two weeks was solved by the arrest of Harold Lupo, a lad of 14 years, who was caught opening one of the combination boxes. Search revealed over $2000 worth of checks, a $1300 note and a $20 money order concealed in the lining of his coat. Young Lupo acknowledged that he had been tampering with the mail boxes in the post office for some time and had destroyed a number of checks.

High Price For Water.

It is stated that the three Jersey Shore dairymen who were arrested and fined by Alderman Batzle for selling watered milk are likely to settle by paying their fines in a few days. The fines will amount to about $70 each.

Matrimonial Bureau.

Monday morning the Hon. John A. Dailey, of Curtin township, was in our office, proud as a Major, for the purpose of informing us of his success along an entirely new and novel line. He insists that while upon his recent trip to Vicksburg the past summer to attend the dedication of the Soldiers' Monument that he was the happy medium by which a prominent individual of this county was made acquainted with a charming young lady of the Southern clime, who soon afterwards became a happy bride. Mr. Dailey only claims to have brought about the acquaintance, but at the same time to have made the lonely condition of the Colonel known—and then and there the siege was begun which was so successfully terminated. The Hon. John to verify his statements, says the introduction took place on a boat on the Mississippi river, and he exhibited the cards of the parties, exchanged at the time. He has the cards of one or two other charming Southern belles, received at the same time, which he will turn over to the right parties if application is made in a proper and serious manner. Mr. Dailey does not want it understood that he is conducting a matrimonial bureau, but since the election is over he claims he has a little more spare time and that it is a pleasure to assist any of his worthy friends along this line. He made no intimation as to the amount of his retaining fee, but we know that it will be reasonable.

Even the woman who is not afraid to die doesn't fancy the idea of joining the silent majority.
