

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

The carnival, billed for the skating rink this Thursday evening, was called off by the management.

Mrs. Jacob Hassell and three children, of Ohio, are visiting the former's father, Mr. A. Baum, on Bishop street.

The lime and limestone industry in Bellefonte is booming. In fact the operators are unable to secure all the workers they can use.

Mrs. Eliza Stump, of Centre Hall, was a visitor at Hecla, and also Mrs. A. W. Houser, of Nighbank, both gave our sanctuary a call.

The person holding ticket A341 should present it at Yeager & Davis' store and receive the handsome painted dinner set of forty-two pieces.

Among the Phillipsburgs who are courting this week are: C. H. Guelich, Thomas Armstrong, E. E. Hagerty, Harry Simler and George W. Zeigler.

The Woman's Guild of St. John's Episcopal church had a very enjoyable as well as profitable time at their birthday party at the Mrs. Wilkinson home Thursday evening.

Friday evening, Dec. 7, Mrs. Kline's Sunday school class will hold a "7-cent" social in the Sunday school room at the Lutheran church. There will be a novel bill of fare offered.

Mrs. Huston, wife of Dr. Huston, of Clintonville, was a visitor in Bellefonte Monday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Coburn and Mrs. Rodgers on Allegheny street.

Mrs. Platts, wife of Rev. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, who had been making an extended visit among friends in New York State, returned home Monday.

Reuben Miller, of Bellefonte, the progressive grocerman on Willowbank, is erecting a large wareroom to the rear of the present store building which will enable him to carry a larger stock of goods.

Clement Gramley, of Rebersburg, one of the efficient jury commissioners of Centre county, was a visitor in Bellefonte on Monday. He is a good jovial fellow and his friends here are always glad to see him.

Saturday evening the Ben. Gentzel hunting party returned home from the Alleghenies. They had with them two fine deer which they unloaded at Gettig's meat market where they were objects of interest to hundreds of people.

Several weeks ago Mrs. Corli, wife of James Corli clerk for the county commissioners, underwent an operation in the Bellefonte Hospital and the indications were that she was going to permanently recover. We regret to note that she is in bed again and her condition is such as to cause alarm.

The city papers' accounts notwithstanding, it's the opinion of the Democrat that not sixty bears have been killed in the wilds of Old Centre this summer and fall, nor have near a hundred deer been shot in our mountains this season. Of rabbits and pheasants the number killed is quite large compared with former open seasons.

The congregation of the Bellefonte St. John's Episcopal church in this place have already pledged about $2,700 for the erection of the proposed new church house for Sunday school purposes, in the rear of their church on Lamb street. Plans are being prepared for the same and it is the intention to begin work just as soon as arrangements can be completed.

Lewis Gettig, the Bellefonte butcher, bought for Thomas A. Shoemaker 37 large, fat turkeys which were brought to Bellefonte Friday and taken to the country home of Mr. Shoemaker near town. Monday they were brought to town again and shipped off. Mr. Shoemaker is of a generous turn of mind and it is believed they went toward making some of his friends happy on this Thanksgiving day.

Consulting the Centre Democrat's sale register during the past month, the fact is presented of there being more large sales of farm stock than during any previous fall. What accounts for this? Sales of personal property were usually held over until early in the spring months up to the month of April. So many sales taking place this fall will likely serve to cause fewer in the spring. We'll see.

John Sourbeck Jr., of Bellefonte has been raffling off turkeys and chickens this week in the room on Bishop street lately occupied by James Summers. Friday night he raffled off 11 turkeys and 21 chickens. Saturday evening there were 13 turkeys passed into other hands in the same way. Most of them have been distributed through the town so there are a good many people feasting on Thanksgiving turkey to day.

Paper bags have been distributed throughout Bellefonte and surrounding towns. State College, Milesburg, Unionville, Centre Hall, Snow Shoe, etc. Any article of clothing, oil linen, vegetables, meats, fruits, canned goods and supplies of any kind will be gladly accepted and used to the best advantage to the hospital. Nov. 29th will be general donation day or any convenient time to donor. The inscription on "If the bundle is too big for the bag; tie the bag to the bundle." Any one wishing an extra bag may have it upon applying at hospital.

Deer hunting season closes to morrow, Friday. A large number of the noble "feet fotted" fell at the crack of the hunter's rifle—so many that we predict deer will be scarce next season. An unusual number of bears have also been killed this fall—the same may be said as to wild turkeys and pheasants.

The number of hunters killed and crippled in an accidental gun discharge has also been large. Do not misanderstand the two first lines above—while deer hunting has closed, "deer hunting" is open all the year round.

On Thursday evening of last week Miss Lieut. Williams, of the Salvation Army, gave her farewell meeting in the Army hall on Spring St. It was attended by a large audience all of whom are sorry to see her go. During the past five months she has been doing fine work in Bellefonte and has been the means of building up the army in many ways. Many of Bellefonte's most prominent people were assembled at her farewell meeting; every one gave her a comforting word. She left Friday on the morning train for Butler, Pa., where she will be stationed.

J. L. Gonsallus, of near Beech Creek, serving as a juror, gave us a call.

A. C. Williams, a prominent citizen of Martha, transacted business in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garbrick, and little child of Altoona, are visiting in Bellefonte.

James F. Somerville, of Winburn, attended the funeral of the late Hon. A. O. Furst Friday.

Peter Keichline, of Bellefonte, has put a new slate roof on his residence on Willowbank street.

W. Harrison Walker, Esq., and wife of Bellefonte, took dinner Friday at the Fallon House, Lock Haven.

Mrs. Will Larimer returned Monday morning from Jersey Shore where she has been visiting her son Lee Larimer at that place.

Henry Lowery accompanied by his son James and daughter, Bella, took in the excursion to Harrisburg on Saturday to see the Capitol.

Courts not largely attended this week, outside of jurors and witnesses. No doubt hunting and some corn husking is engaging others.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford T. Thomas and two sons, of Bellefonte, returned Friday from a six-months trip abroad. They report having an enjoyable time.

Joseph Tressler, one of Pleasant Gap's most esteemed citizens, has been on the sick list for several weeks suffering from a complication of diseases.

Dr. George F. Harris, of Bellefonte, is having the parlor in the Curtin residence on High Street, repainted and papered in the most modern and artistic style.

Any kind of an overcoat you've thought of buying—is here for you—but the price is lower than you expect to pay. Our usual low prices are made lower now. Sim, the Clothier.

Harvey McClure, who is time-keeper for Drak & Stratton, railroad contractors, working at Mt. Union, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClure.

There will be a progressive euchre held in St. John's hall Friday evening at 8 o'clock to which the public is cordially invited. This will be the last euchre held until after Christmas.

Rev. Frederick J. Baum, of Coatsville, preached an interesting sermon in the Lutheran church last Sabbath morning and in the evening participated in the Sabbath School Anniversary exercises.

Miss Lula Meek, with Miss Flora Love, returned to Bellefonte Saturday evening from Atlantic City where they had been spending a couple months. Miss Marie Meek, who had gone to Philadelphia with her uncle Ollie Meek, on Friday, returned Saturday with her sister Miss Lula.

Sunday the papers reached Bellefonte about twenty-five minutes earlier than usual. The cause for this was that they came in on the New Sunday train from Lock Haven which arrives here at 9 o'clock and goes to Tyrone. This train returned to Bellefonte Sunday evening at 8:16.

W. C. Lingle is making quite extensive improvements to his house and property on east Linn street. In addition to remodeling the house inside he is repairing the exterior and "regarding and fixing up the yard surrounding it so that when completed it will look like an entirely different place.

Sunday was a beautiful day and in the afternoon a large number of persons wended their way to the Bellefonte Hospital to take a glance at what was being done there toward the building of the new addition. They found contractor Henry Lowry had about half of the foundation dug out and the work is going on as rapidly as possible.

The Bellefonte Academy and the Williamsport High School teams played their second game of the season at the fair grounds on Saturday, the Academy winning by a goal from the field and two touchdowns or 14 points to nothing. Thanksgiving, the Academy boys will play with a strong team in Baltimore, and let us hope that they will win.

Edward Lucas, of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte Monday morning and in the afternoon left for Pennsylvania to spend Thanksgiving with his parents. At one time he clerked in Lewins clothing store in Bellefonte and when the Lewins family left for the Quaker City, Mr. Lucas went with him and since then he has been holding down an elegant position.

The skating rink in the armory is proving a popular place for amusement and the old time interest is revived. The rink was opened by Will Brown and Richard Taylor and this week Mr. Taylor became the proprietor, and will introduce a number of new features. Ladies are admitted free, and music on Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Rink is closed on Friday evening.

Mr. W. T. Dunning, son of Rev. Dunning of Osceola Mills, who so ably played the pipe organ in the Bellefonte Methodist church Nov. 17, during the special for the Knights of the Golden Eagle, has been engaged by the congregation as permanent organist to take charge the first Sunday in Dec. Mr. Dunning has been organist in the M. E. church at Pittsburg the past year or so and is highly spoken of. He plays with a masterful touch and had an offer to go to Grace church, but because of his health he preferred coming to Bellefonte.

A jovial crowd of hunters are camping this week in Bayleets woods, back of Roland in Boggs township. They took with them guns and musical instruments so that after the long hunt of the day was over they would have something to entertain them at night. The jovial crowd is composed of George Miller, Charles Noll, Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, Russel Blair, Clayton Brown, Mr. Hazlett and two gentlemen from Philadelphia. Their cook is Oscar Ostrander who has been getting up some excellent meals. It goes without saying they have been having a tip top time. The other day Al Dale and H. H. Harshbarger walked out there and back which was a pretty good tramp for gentlemen who are something over the half century mark. However, when it comes to getting over the ground they are like yearlings.

Charles Larimer, of Clearfield, is visiting relatives in Bellefonte.

Miss Robie Noll returned home Tuesday evening from a visit to Warriorsmark.

"The Village Parson" at Garman's opera house Monday night. Everything up to date.

William H. Brouse left Wednesday for Pittsburg where he will spend Thanksgiving.

Newlin Irwin departed Wednesday afternoon for Philadelphia where he will spend Thanksgiving.

Joseph Harris, of Baltimore, Md., spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guest of his mother, Mrs. Rachel Harris, on north Spring street.

Walter Whippo and family, of Wilkingsburg, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte. He is very much pleased with his new place of residence.

Among our visitors this week was Mr. A. V. Daugherty, of Moshannon, who reports having snow at that section and gas still flowing from the test well.

A good silk umbrella was left at this office recently. Unless the owner calls for it the publisher will appropriate it to his own use. Call early and avoid the rush.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sourbeck, Jr., of Bellefonte, are rejoicing over the arrival of a 12-pound baby boy. They must have pretty good water up where he lives.

There's some interesting overcoat news in our ad this week. Any man who has not bought his coat cannot afford to miss the savings we offer now in overcoats. Sim, the Clothier.

Friday closes the deer season and not for many years has the fleet-footed animal been so plentiful. An effort will be made to compile a complete list of the number killed for next issue.

Each Sabbath afternoon religious services are held in the Bellefonte Hospital which are thoroughly enjoyed by the patients. Those who conducted the services last Sunday were C. C. Shupey, Jacob Smith, Mary and Mildred Grim and Olive Steele.

All boys in Bellefonte who work during the day and are interested in taking up the study of the common school branches in the evening, are cordially invited to meet Prof. F. E. Frey at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening, for the purpose of forming a class.

John Seibert, of Benner township, who for several weeks had been quite ill, is able to be about again and on Tuesday was greeting his friends in Bellefonte. He is 74 years of age and says he will soon feel as strong as he did before his illness.

All persons having received the donation bags sent out by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Bellefonte Hospital are requested to send them to the hospital. If they can't do this they will please send them either to the groceries or to Mrs. Hastings or Mrs. Joseph Ceaders.

John Curtin, one of the efficient accountants in the Centre County Bank has leased what is known as the Harbaugh property on Curtin street and will begin housekeeping there. The interior of the house will undergo some repairs before it is ready for occupancy. It is a very pleasant part of town in which to reside.

Whatever you do, don't forget to go to Garman's opera house Monday evening. The attraction will be the "Village Parson" which is one of the best shows on the road. The play will be acted by a brilliant cast and a thoroughly successful performance is promised. It is second in interest to the beautiful drama, "Human Hearts."

The donations at the Bellefonte hospital are arriving right along and those who have the institution in charge are greatly encouraged. These donations are not only coming from the people of this section, but from all over the county, showing the deep interest that is being manifested in the hospital by people living in the rural districts. Those who have anything for this cause now is the time to send it.

A veteran commercial traveler comes to Bellefonte occasionally, and is well known in central Penn'a and other sections; his visits hither are to his son, G. R. Spigelmeier of Rackett store fame. This veteran is Mr. Shem Spigelmeier, who last week started on another commercial trip. He is a resident of Hartleton, and especially Massachusetts, of 45 years ago he was extensively engaged in the mercantile business at Hartleton. It would be interesting to have an account of his mileage traveled.

Rev. Richardson, rector at the Episcopal church, has started an interesting series of historical sermons for Sunday evenings. The discourses relate to the early history of the Episcopal church in this country. Last Sunday's discourse gave some interesting accounts of religious sentiment in the New England colonies, and especially Massachusetts, in which Puritanism came in for some appropriate comment. Monday evening the rector gave a sociable to the young men of the congregation at the Brockhoff house, which was well attended.

James Hamill, Esq., of Columbus, O., son of the late Dr. B. B. Hamill, of Oak Hall, was one of the many persons from a distance who attended the exercises of Pennsylvania Day at State College on Friday. He left again for his home on Sunday taking the train at Bellefonte, he is one of the graduates of State College who has taken a deep interest in the institution, and some day may help it along financially. He is a lawyer by profession but practically he is a coal baron who fortunately became wealthy in the coal fields of West Virginia. He also made money in the lumber business and other minor industries in which he is interested.

On Wednesday, Oct. 27, a very pleasing event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robb Jr., at Romolia, when their eldest daughter, Alta B. and John W. Whipple, of Wilkingsburg, were united in marriage. They were attended by Oneida Robb, sister of the bride, Edna Glossner, of Wilkingsburg; John H. Robb, of Bellefonte, and Charles E. Heck, of Avis. At high noon Miss Emma Robb, daughter of jury commissioner Frederick Robb, played the wedding march and the contracting parties appeared before Rev. H. I. Crow, who pronounced them man and wife. The beautiful ring service was used. Seventy-five guests were present and partook of the bountiful wedding dinner. The numerous and valuable gifts received showed the high esteem in which the young people are held by their hosts of friends. They left on the evening train for a wedding trip. In a few weeks they will be home to their friends at Wilkingsburg, Pa.

Weston, of Philadelphia, is a brother, the only surviving one out of a family of six. He was a fine gentleman and had hosts of friends.

PETER WOLF—died at his home at Warriorsmark, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, of diseases incident to advanced years, aged 75 years and 3 months. By occupation he was a tinner. Born in Centre county, he removed from Pine Grove Mills to Warriorsmark in 1856. His wife died some four months ago. He is survived by four sons and two daughters, W. R. Wolf, of Altoona; Amos R. Wolf, of Tipton; Mrs. Dorsey Chronister, of Spring Mount; Warren, Clyde and Perina Wolf at home.

MISS SARAH CATHARINE ROSS—a well known maiden of Phillipsburg died on Saturday night about 10:30 at McGirk's Sanitarium, the results of a cancerous affection of the abdomen. The deceased was a native of Lancaster county; having been born at Columbia on May 2, 1844, making her age 62 years, 6 mo. and 22 days; she followed the occupation of a nurse. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and a lady whose amiable qualities made her many friends. She is survived by two brothers viz. John, of Hickory Run; and Thomas, of Clearfield county. The funeral took place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

JAMES WHITTAKER—a well-known resident of Bellefonte, died Friday morning at the residence of his son, Edward Whittaker on north Spring street, of pneumonia after a brief illness. He was born March 24, 1843, at Denton, Lancashire, England, and when but a boy of 7 years of age came with his father to America. They located in Bellefonte. In 1861 he enlisted in Co. B, 42 Regt., Penna., vol.; and served three years when he re-enlisted and served to the end of the war. When he returned from the war he secured a position at breaking the Snow Shoe railroad. He was afterwards promoted to a conductor; in this connection it would not be out of place to state that Mr. Whittaker, together with Robert Thompson of Bellefonte, and Henry Dyke, of Milesburg, were the only three men living up until the former's death, who commenced work on the Snow Shoe Railroad in its early history. The deceased is survived by the following children: George and Edward Whittaker, of Bellefonte; Mrs. William Dezendorf and Mrs. Harry Jackson, of Altoona, A. B. Whittaker, of Curwensville, is a brother, and Miss Nettie Whittaker, of Canton, Ohio is a sister. The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Episcopal church, and was in charge of Gregg Post, G. A. R. of which he was a member. Interment in Union cemetery.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate—which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders—and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

50th Anniversary.

Tuesday evening the Masonic fraternity, of Bellefonte, gathered in their handsome headquarters on Allegheny street, for the purpose of celebrating an event of interest in connection with the order. It was the 50th anniversary of the initiation into the lodge of three highly respected citizens, in the persons of John Petrakin Harris and F. Potts Green, of Bellefonte, and Thomas J. Pardue, formerly of this place, but now of Huntingdon. A large number of persons were present as well as a great number of visitors, numbering about one hundred. It proved to be quite a social function, and addresses were made by Senator W. C. Heine, Col. James P. Coburn, J. C. Meyer, Hammond Sechler and F. Potts Green.

An amusing feature of the addresses was the presentation through J. C. Meyer from John P. Harris to F. Potts Green of a note for $50,000 signed by Storey Cotton Co. payable fifty years from date and the return by brother Green of a box of double-acting, compound cathartic pills consisting of large white marbles with the directions to take one every 50 years. After the close of meeting the company adjourned down stairs where tables were set, and partook of a delicious repast of roast turkey, scalloped oysters and all the accessories.

It was midnight before all had retired to their homes well pleased with the pleasant evening spent.

Few men are too lazy to run through a fortune
