Miss Elsie Stover is nursing her sick daughter at Wolf's Store. W. J. Hackenberg and family, of New Berlin, are visiting friends and relatives here. Thomas and Sallie Greninger, of Clintondale, helped their parents Adam Greninger's, to butcher, on Thursday. Mrs. Samuel Shreckengast and son Augustus, of Greenburr, were the guests of Adam Greninger's, on Saturday. Mrs. Harvy Lambert and children spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Bressler, at Tylersville. Mrs. Jessie Wert, of Aaronsburg, is visiting at this place. William Noll and family, of near Pittsburg, were guests of C. H. Bierly's last week.

HARRIS. TWP.

John W. Leech, of Altoona, was at his home in Shingletown last week. Robt. Leech and Geo. Lohr spent Sunday afternoon at D. B. Thomas'. Miss N. B. Thomas and her brother Ralph spent Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Leech. W. A. Leech is able to be about again. Miss Maude Knoch, and friend Mr. Fogleman, spent Sunday afternoon at State College. Fred Gearhart is away hunting this week. A man, too, is known by the company he keeps away from.

SHINGLETOWN.

John W. Leech, of Altoona, was at his home in Shingletown last week. Robt. Leech and Geo. Lohr spent Sunday afternoon at D. B. Thomas'. Miss N. B. Thomas and her brother Ralph spent Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Leech. W. A. Leech is able to be about again. Miss Maude Knoch, and friend Mr. Fogleman, spent Sunday afternoon at State College. Fred Gearhart is away hunting this week. A man, too, is known by the company he keeps away from.

SORE THROAT OR MOUTH

When the mouth or throat is irritated or diseased you have the common ailment of Sore Mouth or Sore Throat. If not quickly cured, you are in danger of contracting more serious or even fatal maladies such as Croup, Quinsy, Tonsillitis or Diphtheria. Nothing in the world will cure Sore Throat or Sore Mouth so quickly, so surely as TONSILINE because TONSILINE is the one remedy especially made for that purpose. It has never failed. You'll need TONSILINE one of these days, or some night when the drug store is closed—better have a bottle ready at home when you need it most. 25 and 50 cents. The Tonsiline Co., Canton, Ohio.

MOSHANNON.

Thos. Fleming, of Brown's, was circulating among his friends on Monday. James Craft and sister, Ida, of Clearfield, spent several days with their aunt, Mrs. Sara Viehdorfer. Recce Bierly, wife and sister Alyce, spent Friday in Lock Haven. Miss Verna Lebkeicher, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Nellie Kern. Miss Maude Rankin returned to her home on Wednesday of last week after having spent several weeks in Patton, where she was employed as a teacher, or rather a substitute. Mrs. Annie Fetzer is visiting her brother, T. D. Weaver. Norman Quick, of Cane, is spending his vacation with his par-ents. Glenn Williams returned home, on Saturday evening after several days visit in Philadelphia. Miss Bertha Fulmer, of Drifting, spent Sunday with her friend Michael Kern. Miss Susan McGowan was a Moshannon visitor on Sunday. Mrs. Austin Kern was called to her home in Marsh Creek on Friday evening on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. O'Neill, and her uncle. Quite a pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Harris Watson's, on Saturday in honor of the sixth birthday of their little daughter Hazel. The afternoon was spent in playing various games until 3:30 o'clock, when refreshments were served. There were 23 children present. Mrs. Kling, of Jersey Shore, is keeping house for T. D. Weaver. A quilting bee was held at the home of Mrs. Lucy Cramers on Thursday of last week. Those present were Miss Rachel Lucas, Mrs. John McGowan, Mrs. Edward Shannon, Mrs. Mattie Fye, Mrs. J. T. Lucas, Mrs. Y. W. Howard, Mrs. H. Z. Bierly and myself. All report a fine time. The Modern Literary society held their meeting on Saturday evening and it proved to be a great success. The "Modern Herald", edited by Amos Keog, was decidedly fine, also the recitations given by Miss Jennie Lucas and F. E. Snyder. The question for debate: Resolved, that the Indians suffered more from the hands of the whites than the negroes did; after this was interestingly argued, it was decided in favor of the affirmative. All are cordially invited to attend on next Friday evening.

SPRING MILLS.

The Methodist church had communion services on Sunday evening. The Spring Mills people hope that only the best luck may attend the president on his visit to Panama. Big game must be scarce in this part of the state by the way the men are mistaken for deer. We hope none of our local hunters will mistake or be mistaken for game. Prof. Surface, the state Zoologist, will hold in Emanuel Shook's peach orchard, on Dec. 15, at 2 p. m., a public spraying for San Jose scale. All interested in this should remember the date and be present. On Sunday was temperance lesson in the Sunday schools and a good one, for here as well as other places many are ruined by intemperance; but the impure stream flows ever onward and moloch of intemperance seems never to be satisfied. On Monday, Michael Snyder was brought here a corpse and buried in the Heckman cemetery. He at one time lived below town. Rev. Sheeder of the Lutheran church preached the funeral sermon. C. P. Long shipped several car loads of apples last week. Our hunters came home from the Seven mountains with a fine large deer. Rev. Haas is holding protracted meeting in the Evangelical church at Green Grove. Misses McCoy and Shugart, of Bellefonte, were entertained at the hospitable home of Mable Alison last week. Dr. Braucht is ill at this writing.

GREENBURR.

Russel Stover is the proud possessor of a new octave, piano case organ. John Shade, who was working in Renova during the past season, returned to his home last week. Charles Gramley and Sarah Confer, of Rebersburg, were guests of Abbie Confer's on Sunday evening. J. W. Snyder, F. P. Wirth and Fred Staron, each received two barrels of sweet potatoes from South Carolina last week. A very interesting missionary service was held in the Reformed church on Sunday forenoon. On account of three cases of fever in his family, Rev. Searle was unable to meet his appointment at Greenburr, on Sunday afternoon. Ellis Walizer, and his daughter Erada, are down with typhoid fever. If our health officers would pay less attention to vaccination, and more to typhoid fever, we would fare better. After a short stay in Lock Haven and Salona, Miss Carrie Kahl returned to her home last week. Mrs. Alma Brown, of Reading, is visiting her parents. Butchering is in full blast in our burr and vicinity.

SALONA.

Irvin Weaver and family, and Mrs. Harry Weaver, spent a few days with relatives in Pennsvalley. Glen and Clarence Karstetter spent Sunday at Clintondale. Smith and son Edward, visited friends in Sugarvalley. Edward Zerby, of Spring Mills, visited at W. C. Karstetter's.

MILESBURG.

Mrs. Ed. Collins with two children, of Cresson, Mrs. Borse and two children, of Pitcairn, are guests of their parents, Wesley Crain's. Homer Carr will open a coal yard on the N. Y. C. R. R., in connection with the Milesburg yard. Mrs. William Walker and Mrs. Walter Smith are visiting Mrs. Enoch Hugg of Philipsburg. Yarnell of late has a great name for small game this season; scores of hunters are flocking thither for cotton tails. Guy A. Cox and Emery Bennett, of Altoona, shot a fine wild turkey, several rabbits and two pheasants recently. Wm. Snyder, of Bellefonte, shot a big wild turkey on Saturday, the largest shot this season, a number of pheasants, put the weight between 30 and 40 pounds. Four hunters of Pittsburg boarded with Thomas Malone at Yarnell, had a week's hunt; for their work took home as reported to the scribe, a ground hog, 55 rabbits, 5 coons, 9 pheasants and 6 squirrels. Wm. Caldwell, of Pittsburg, is a guest of his parents, Charles Caldwell's. Charles Zimmerman and family, of Altoona, are visiting her parents, William Johnson's. The Baptist surprise social was an entire success, on Saturday evening last. When some of the members were entertaining Rev. Hall and family at the front door; others were slipping in the back way with their gifts, leaving their parcels of appreciation on the table and floor. When all was in readiness to break the news, lo and behold! the Rev. and wife were much pleased and surprised that such friendly occurrence should take place at their domicile without their knowledge of such work. But, however, it was the case. The Rev. put on a broad smile, and the good man of the house expressed himself by saying he felt a little shaky about the knees. Everyone took with them liberally all kinds of groceries, dried fruit, canned fruit, jellies, apple butter, meat, lard, corn, apples, cats, pumpkins and 15 chickens. Some were not present on account of F. L. Wetzel's infant daughter being a corpse. There were Methodists and Presbyterians present, in all 63. Some were on the porch busily organizing a society to be known as the "Willing Workers." The following officers were chosen: Pres., Mrs. McMullen; Sec., Mrs. Confer; Asst. Sec., Mrs. Cox, Treas., Mrs. Hall. Any wishing to join are welcomed to help the good work along. The first meeting will be called to meet at the residence of Mrs. Wilson Heaton, in the near future. Mrs. Lewis, of Bald Eagle, is visiting Mrs. Wesley Crain. Miss Sue Wallace, of Bellefonte, Sunday with the Weaver sisters.

NITTANY.

Mr. Launen and wife, of Lock Haven, were guests of Harry Tressler and family on Sunday. J. W. Rossman, of Stephenson Co., Ill., is visiting his many friends around here. The church rally was well attended; quite a number from Clintondale and Hublersburg were here and it proved a success. Quite a number of our people attended the dedication of the Ev. church, at Hublersburg, on Sunday. Whitmer Smith, who was working in Tioga county, has returned home. Harold Rogers, the infant son of H. G. Rogers, died on Saturday morning and was buried on Sunday, at Snyderstown, aged 6 months and some days. P. S. Rossman and son Nelson were to Lock Haven on business, Saturday. Sam Rossman, of Lock Haven, visited friends here over Sunday. Wendel Bartholomew, who is employed up the river, has returned home. Mrs. Hettie Tate visited her daughter, Mrs. Harry Stover, near Hublersburg, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Clark left on Wednesday for Philadelphia where they expect to remain this winter. E. B. Winkelman and wife, of Altoona, visited their many friends here the past week. Anyone wishing items sent in from around here should hand them to the correspondent not later than Sunday evening.

GORTON.

Mrs. J. W. Wiggins visited in Philipsburg over Sunday. Mrs. F. Poorman and daughter Josephine, spent Monday in Snow Shoe. J. W. Rossman, of Afolkey, Ill., and Miss Duffield, of Lock Haven, spent Saturday very pleasantly at the home of F. Poorman's. Don't say Gorton can't boast of a court house on the hill. The post office at this place will be discontinued in the near future. Even going to school would be lots of fun for a boy if getting caught doing it meant he would be whailed by his father.

AARONSBURG.

Irvin Weaver and family, of Salona, spent a few days with J. H. Detwiler's and at James Weaver's. Ira Gramley and wife were at Rebersburg on Tuesday to help Oliver Stover butcher. Harry Mensch, of Williamsport, was home on Saturday; his stays are always too short, as many of his acquaintances don't get to see him. Mrs. Chestie Wert spent a few days with her sons at Smullton, returning home on Sunday. Wesley Wyle, who is employed at Lewistown, is home for the first time in a few months; he expects to move over there next spring. Mr. Snyder, of Bellefonte, was down with his wife over Sunday at the residence of grandmother Bower. Mr. Meyers, of Boalsburg, and Mr. Ream, of Penn Cave, were royally entertained by the Hatley sisters on Sunday. A. S. Stover, our up-to-date paper hanger, is employed at Renovo. Mrs. Catherine Breen, nee Frank, wishes to inform the ladies that she will sell her hats and trimmings at cost, as she expects to join her husband, who is employed at Altoona. This is your chance for cheap head-gear. Rev. Wm. Clouser, of White Deer, will hold communion services in the Reformed church on Sunday forenoon. Geo. Koch and wife and Bruce Rossman and wife, of Penn Cave, spent the Sabbath at James Roush's. Mr. Yearick and wife, of Jacksonville, and Calvin Moyer, of Freeburg, were the guests of W. H. Philips over Sunday. Gilliland Eisenhower and son Merrill, who are employed at Lewistown, are home for a short visit. Mrs. Rev. Kennelly, of Altoona, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. P. Condo. Thos. Keister, of Newark, N. J., is visiting his son Norman, at the home of Thos. Edmund's. CENTRE HALL.

Cloyd Wert, wife and daughter Katherine, of Tusseyville, spent Sunday at the home of Witmer Lee. Helen Bartholomew came home from Tyrone where she has been teaching; the schools have been closed until after xmas on account of diphtheria. Her brother Ed, who works for the P. R. Co. in Altoona, came with her to spend Sunday at home. Mr. Alfred Durst has been ill the last week. Hope she will soon recover. Hoffer left for Philadelphia Tuesday morning, to resume his studies at the University of Penna. The party of hunters from our town returned from a two weeks hunt, with but one deer. Will Durst is home for a short stay. He has been working in Pittsburg for some time. Pork in this section is very high. 7c is the regular price. Mrs. David Geiss and daughter were visitors in Bellefonte on Monday.

JACKSONVILLE.

J. Newton Kling and wife, of Scottsdale, are visiting their parents here. Mrs. Joel Kling is improving. Mrs. John Smith, Sr. and Mrs. John Smith, Jr., attended the funeral of the former's aunt at Lock Haven, on Saturday. Jas. Vonada and family and John Shaffer and wife spent Friday at Bellefonte. The hunting party from this place returned on Saturday. They were successful in getting three deer. J. S. Condo and John Smith spent Sunday at Jerry Lutz's, near Bellefonte. J. N. THIS TELLS THE STORY!

The following is an extract from a letter just received ordering our "Headache Cure":

56 Charlotte Street, Dorchester, Mass., Oct. 18, '06.

F. Potts Green, Dear Sir—Your "Cure" works wonders for me. It has never failed in a single instance. I am an old chronic sufferer, 63 years old, and have had these terrible sick headaches ever since I was born. Tried everything for years but have found the remedy in your "Wafers." Have only two or three serious headaches in the year and if I have your Wafers with me I always get immediate relief. Very sincerely, D. W. HOWARD.

Mr. Howard will be remembered as the leader of the Boston Ladies' Orchestra that gave a performance here a few years ago.
