* The Racket.

BELLEFONTE'S BIGGEST TOY STORE

IS READY.

One whole floor devoted to toys alone, and everything to delight

DOLLS, ROCKING HORSES, SLEDS, DOLL CARRIAGES, BLOCKS, DRUMS, GAMES, PIANOS.

and all the new ideas in mechani-

A large and varied line of fancy goods in comb and brush sets, shaving sets, manicure sets, work boxes, hand mirrors, etc. Only 21 business days until

You can do better at The # Racket, they sell for cash.

E. P. IRVIN.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS!

Since the campaign is over there is more space in the paper for news from over the county and for that reason we specially desire to have those of our cor- ter Tallhelm, assisted by that bright respondents, who have not been writing young gentleman, Meyers. for some time to take up regularly each week the pen, and have their community represented in the columns of this paper. If any of our correspondents are out of supplies it is because we are not aware of it. Remember, all you need to do is to notify us and the same will be forwarded to your address promptly. If for any reason it is impossible to send Madisonburg, to watch bruin, Last the news from your section in the future week bruin spoiled a large amount of will you not try and interest someone to corn for Jacob Gingerich at that place. take up the correspondence in your place? The many readers of this paper in the county are anxious to have your com- diptheria. "Poor, degraded fibbers." munity represented, and if the happenings are sent us we will most cheerfully print them. All correspondence should Michael's. be sent us early in the week, on Monday if possible.

COBURN.

Lloyd Bartges spent a few days at Centre Hall this week.

N. B. Shæffer, wife and son Nevin, of there were more communicants than ever before at this place. Next Sunday at Lamar.

Wedding took place on Tuesday and the bride is Miss Nellie Roopley, daugh at Lamar.

Wedding took place on Tuesday and the bride is Miss Nellie Roopley, daugh at Lamar.

Wiss Chesta Stover of Woodward is Miss Chesta Stover of Wo the Reformed church. Surely this town is becoming better and the prophecy of a former resident, who, upon leaving, said that the demons were now leaving town and the angels could have fair play, is fulfilled.

Miss Helen Stonebraker visited her sister at Fiedler on Saturday.

Harry Stonebraker, of Milroy, spent a day with former friends here, Mrs. J. H. Rishel and daughter Lodie, of Farmers Mills, and Mrs. N. Lose, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday at Daniel Krader's.

On Saturday a little daughter arrived at the home of J. H. Winkleblech and Johny is as happy as can be, for now he gy Department of Agriculture, for the Johny is as happy as can be, for now he has one of each sort.

On Tuesday evening an army of 62 of Rev. C. T. Garrett's good friends of this ries of spraying demonstrations, and deplace, armed themselves with sausages and other necessaries of life and proceeded on their way to Millheim, captured the parsonage and held control several hours; the pastor, of course, readily making an unconditional surrender. His friends took this method of showing their appreciation of the estimable services the pastor rendered here during the past seven weeks' nightly meetings.

HOUSERVILLE.

Mis, Lydia Clark, of Flemington, visited her father, Wm. Coble.

Howard Grove is rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at their home last George Houser departed for Chicago, to enter the machine shops as an appren-

L. F. Mayes and family are now located at Lemont, in the house formerly occupied by George Glenn.

John Meckley is spending the week in Bellefonte attending court.

If Domino would take a trip this way in his imaginary automobile, we think his square meal indicator would point to almost every house, as the butchering season is now in full blast.

E. M. Houser spent a day hunting and returned with a fine deer.

PORT MATILDA.

nice deer this season; one was a fourpronged buck. M. G. Mains, night operator at this place, is visiting friends at Belsena, L. S. Way filling his vacancy.

Geo. Price killed three nice hogs on Tuesday.

C. T. Williams, of Grampian, spent

Sunday at home. H. W. Raybert and wife spent Sunday with friends and relatives at Union-

Miss Catharine Reese and Mrs. C. C. Jones took in Pennsylvania day at State College on Friday.

L. A. Patton, of Altoona, spent Mon-

Edward Robison is suffering with a large boil on his hand,

Charley Woodring left on Monday for Valparaiso, Ind., to take a commercia course in the school at that place.

The ambon will be placed in the little sancttary, which is now being enlarged.

UNIONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs Toner Irvin, of Sheridanville, are visiting at the home of the lat-ter's parents, A. B. Hall's.

A protracted meeting is in progress in the M. E. church, conducted by the Rev. M. Piper. As to Unionville it may be truly said: "The harvest is ripe, but the laborers are few." Daniel Hall, who came home from ry up-camp Hosband, in McKean county, returned to camp on Monday, where he will strike while the iron is hot. A hunter boarded the train on Monday with 14 pheasants and one rabbit on a string. S. K. Emerick, who. by the way, is one of the best auctioneers in the county, has already called II sales this fall with a number more on the slate.

Miss Pauline Smith lost a valuable ladies' watch. The finder will be suitably rewarded if left at the home.

Howard Holtzworth lost a valuable family mare, a tew days ago. He had given her to Victor Wagner, to work for her board, and while taking her into the stable one of his horses kicked her on the front leg, breaking it above the knee, and had to be killed.

T. E. Griest, who has been confined to his bed for about two weeks, with a severe attack of acute indigestion, is slowly convalescing.

Charley Griest, of Barnesboro, spent Sunday with his parents at this place, Harry Musser, the sly fellow, was aught by the writer in the act of taking out a marriage license to wed Miss Ethel Weaver, of Julian, but I have learned * nothing further, consequently I will have to give these happy young people another hearing later on.

Billy Parsons, our genial railroad agent, is off to the mountains on his annual vacation and deer hunt; his place in the meantime, is being filled by Wal-

GREGG. TWP.

GREENS GAP.

Cornfodder is all husked. A. J. Graden and L. H. Duck expect to go to Yeagertown in a few days. The people of Spayds Gap should get Russel, the champion bear hunter from

L. H. Duck was housed a few days with a sore throat. Some gossiping people put out the report that he had

BUZZARDS GLORY.

Cleve Weaver spent Sunday at George

Dora Wingart is the proud mother of

MADISONBURG.

N. B. Shæffer, wife and son Nevin, of near Centre Hall, visited relatives here one day.

John Elmer, Bruce Davis, Ellie Vonada, Mond Fiedler, and Russel Hockman, spent Sunday afternoon at Edna Communion services were held in two Limbert's home; all reporting a good

POTTER TWP.

EARLYSTOWN, NO. 2. George Michael and family spent Sundoy with P. S. Trutts.

Robt. Smith's sister, in Centre Hall, is The weather is very fine now, but cold.

Important to Farmers.

district of Centre and Clearfield counties has been given me. and shall hold a se sire all parties who may be interested in the exterminating of the dreaded San Jose scale, or any of our scale pests, should strive to attend at least the one nearest your home. Bring samples of any scale or anything that shows suspicion of being a danger to your trees. I will try and answer all questions and will strive to say and do something that will be a help to all. Will meet you at the following points on days specified, at 1 p. m., sharp:

Dec. 1. Peter Gearhart's, Clearfield. John Herrit's, Jersey Shore. David Schenk's, Howard.

Emanuel Shook, Spring Mills.

Benj. Limbert,

19 Newton Neidigh's, Pinegrove, p o St. College, R. F. D. 21, H. O. Scholl, Unionville, p. o. Fleming, R. F. D. CHAS C. HESS, Philipsburg, Pa.

GIFT FROM CANTERBURY.

Ambon For National Cathedral Constructed of Historic Stones.

Messrs Oscar and Dorsy Struble have the visit to Washington two years ago to the summer at this place.

E. M. Houser spent a day hunting and lington a valuable and historic gift.

His visit to Washington two years ago used the organist complained of the reeds not sounding right and Mr. Johnson finally opened the lower part of the organ and found a five-foot blackspake.

Estate of John Solt. late of Increased. ington a valuable and historic gift, says a Washington special to the New. York World. During the recent repairs made on Canterbury cathedral the archbishop garnered some of the old-The Boone hunting club killed two est stones in the edifice and had them made into an ambon, or pulpit. These, sculptured by William D. Caroe, architect in charge of the cathedral, will be given to the American cathedral in memory of the Christian martyr Stephen Langion, once archbishop of Can-

The ambon stands ten feet in height and nine feet in length. The left hand bas-relief represents the venerable Bede, the earliest Christian author, dictating the last chapter of the Anglo-Saxon translation of the gospel of St. John on his deathbed, A. D. 735. The right hand bas-relief represents the martyrdom of William Tyndale, translator of the first printed English Bible,

OVER THE COUNTY.

William Harnish, of Hecla, is seriously being a sufferer from a paralytic stroke.

fat turkey gobbler, weighing 14 pounds, on his first day's hunt. There are still some small patches of corn left to husk in some localities. Hurry up-cold finger days are knocking at Hunters are greatly opposed to the proposed law to license hunting and will fight it vigorously at the next session of We would like to hear from a number of correspondents who have failed to write for some time. Send us the news, we will print it. Miss Sarah M. Brungart, of Centre Hall, is at Youngwood, Westmoreland county, where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wood. She expects to remain in that section for some time.

Daniel Johnson of Hublersburg shot the largest turkey near Hecla park that was ever known to be killed in that section. It was a gobbler and weighed 31 pounds, It was picked from a flock of

I.E. Reish and frend of Bailyville, narrowly escaped serious injury in a run-away Saturday Nov. 17. The horse got beyond control and did not stop until it had torn a wheel off the buggy and run into the fence.

Mrs. B. H. Arney, of Centre Hall, acompanied her daughter-in-law, Mrs A. Miles Arney, and two little daughters, to their new home in Niagara Falls, and assisted them in getting their home ready

Hon. J. Will Kepler was out with the Pine Grove Mills crowd hunting deer and failing to get any of the fleet footed animals, and not to come home emptyhanded, brought in a twenty-nine pound wild turkey gobbler Thursday afternoon.

Thursday, Mrs. Catharine Archey, of Graysville, went to Tyrone in her usual health. On her return home that evening she opened the wrong door and fell down the cellar stairs, sustaining painful injuries. She is gradually getting left without taking anything.

While her husband is hunting in the Seven Mountains, Mrs. Joseph M. Gil-liland, and daughter, Miss Nellie, of New Bloomfield, are spending the time among friends in Penns Valley. While in Centre Hall they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Goodhart, Robert Fogleman, who was acting as brakeman on a P. R. R. freight train between Altoona and Pittsburg, had both bones broken between the wrist and elbow while coupling cars in the Altoona yards on November 9th. He is now at his home at Fillmore.

The Pine Hall Reformed church will be re-opened, after extensive repairs have been made on Sunday Dec. 2, 1906, Protracted meeting will begin first of December, at Zion Hill.

MADISONBURG

MADISONBURG

MADISONBURG

MADISONBURG

MADISONBURG

In at 10.30 o'clock. There will be services on Saturday evening, Sunday, morning and evening; and the pastor will be assisted by Rev. Stein of Lock Haven, and Rev. Groh, of Carlisle.

> Rev. F. H. Bergstresser, the popular young minister at Pine Grove Mills, left there Monday on a two-weeks vacation and when he returns he will be accompanied by Mrs. Bergstresser. The pending at few weeks at the hotel in Centre Hall will remember Carl Anderson, one of the Sweedes who operated the drill for Mr. Brown when sinking the Welsh mountains in Lancaster counthe test well, east of Centre Hall. His death was caused by abscesses, and occurrred in the Bradford hospital. He leaves a wife and three small children.

Friday morning, Nov. 16, while driv-ing to the College creamery, Mrs. Fred Krumrine had a narrow escape. Her horse frightened and took to kicking, breaking the single tree, tearing loose from the shafts and dragging her over the dashboard Fortunately she escaped with but a few scratches and bruises. John E. Fryberger, cashier of the First National bank, of Philipsburg, and who is well known in Bellefonte, took possession Thursday of his hand-some new residence on South Centre street. The home is one of the very finest in the town, thoroughly equipped with all of the modern conveniences, and is certainly a credit to Philipsburg. The Kerr farm, near Centre Hill, was sold by James B. Strohm, administrator, at a postponed sale, for the sum of thirty dollars per acre. The farm was in two parts-one part, on which the buildings are located, contains forty-eight acres, and the other thirty-two acres. The purchaser was Elmer Hettinger, pow tenant on the farm. Another bidder was M. J.

Sam'l Ailey's, Jacksonvile, Nit-tany, R. F. D. C. C. Cook, of Howard, has been or telephone pole, which is some-thing entirely new and original, and considering the growing scarcity of timber, may in years to come be of great value. Mr.Cook is now considering the question of the organization of a stock company with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars to manufacture his patent and put it on the market.

During the late warm spell a large blacksnake found its way into the par-lor of George W. Johnson, tenant on the John Archey farm near to Pine Grove Mills. One of the children saw it but in making search Randall Thomas Davidson, archbish-op of Canterbury, will commemorate later when the organ was about to be Thursday, the 8th of Nov., William Corman, son of Wesley Corman, of Buf-falo Run, met with quite a serious accident. He was running a grain drill out of the barn floor when the tongue flew up and struck him on the jaw, breaking the bone in two places. A special apparatus was made and placed in the boy's mouth so as to hold the broken bone in place. The bone is knitting alright, al-

Rouge, La. Dr. Henry Prentiss Arms-by of the State College of Pennsylvania, delivered the president's annual address delivered the president's annual address at the closing session of the society, the subject being "The Promotion of Agricultural Science." He also read an interesting paper on "Problems of Animal Nutrition," and introduced a resolution advocating the appointment of a commission to investigate the policy that should prevail in the experimentation and research in the interests of agriculture. He was re-elected president of the organization.

Estate of Jacob Bottorf, late of College Twp.. deceased.

Letters testamentary upon the said estate having been granted by the Register of Wills to the undersigned. all persons knowing them solves to be indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims, to present them for estilement, to Mrs. M. Elizabeth Olewine, Bellefonte, Pa.

M. ELIZABETH OLEWINE D. HALL BOTTORF, WILLIS M. BOTTORF, WILLIS M. BOTTORF, W. HABBISON WALKER, Attorney.

Hon. John T. McCormick of State College is the happiest man in town, because a grand-son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krumrine. Al Duncan, one of the efficient accountants in the Philipsburg First National bank, and who has been quite ill during Adam Yocum of Hublersburg shot a the past two weeks, is slowly improv-

> While hauling corn fodder at Amos Koch's, in Harris township last Thurs-day, a loaded wagon upset. Alexander Miller had both bones of his leg broken near the ankle.

A hunter named Brungart shot what was probably the largest bear killed this season. It was shot in the mountains near Hyner, and Mr. Brungart states it weighed over 400 pounds. A new tribe of Red Men was instituted at Milesburg, Friday night, Nov. 16, by Thomas K. Donnalley, great chief of records, of Philadelphia, assisted by a team from the Bellefonte tribe. The house and lot belonging to the estate of JessieWert, late of Aaronsburg, deceased, was sold by the administra-tors of the estate to J. H. Crouse of Aaronsburg. Consideration $525. Samuel Gingerich, west of Centre Hall, while husking in standing corn in the field of Irvin Burris, on the Potter farm, in seven and one half hours husked one hundred and twenty bushels. How is that for husking?

The Port Matilda grange should send a copy of its resolution (found in another colum) relative to the Capitol fraud, to the Governor, his attorney general, Carson, to the Public Grounds Commission and other of Pennypacker's favorites who may have been concerned in the Capitol job. One night recently somebody over in Philipsburg must have thought that Dr. F. K. White, the county Treasurer, had a whole lot of cold cash hid away in his house as it was entered by burglars who went into the Doctor's room and stole his pantaloons right before his very eyes. After taking them down stairs they went through the house and found nothing but a silver watch which they, no doubt thought was tin and so they left without it. The fellow missed his guess and

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

The postoffice at Menno, Mifflin county, has been discontinued. That section will be served by a rural free delivery route.

A project is under way by Railway Co. to extend the trolly from Huntingdon to Mt. Union and also to ONE BLACK HORSE: weight 1300 lbs.. single and double worker, 7 years old. Made to A project is under way by the Juniata

A bear broke into the barn yard at the old Bloom place, along the Curwensville pike, near Luthersburg, and slaughtered twenty sheep. In nearly every case the sheep's back was broken. Monday morning J. T. McCloskey, of Mill Hall, killed a la'ge porker which weighed 518 pounds. This is the largest porker that has been reported so far. Can't some Centre countian do bigger hoging than the above? Hunters from the mountains of Elk county bring an account of John Diel 18 years old, being killed by a bear on Saturday. Diel had shot the bear, bringing it down and went up to bleed it thinkoutlaw gang, which under the leadership the Welsh mountains in Lancaster coun-ty and raided the lowlands of that county, is now behind the bars. He is Walter Ward, who was arrested in the woods near Downingtown. All the other members of the gang are now dead or in The editor of the Daily Public Spirit of Clearfield in his paper of Saturday last returned his thanks to William G.

McMaster, of Chest township, Clearfield county for a 40 pound turkey which he had presented him with. The editor in order to have the proper care taken of the fowl says that "he was so big we had to put a halter on him and tie him in a orse stall over night." Elizabeth Furnace, which has been scontinued as a station by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, is a place of many names. At the station are only a few houses and the station itself is a mere shed. On the Altoona & Logan Valley Electric Railway it is known as Pinecroft. To the people who live east of Pinecroft it is known as Antis. Others call it Salem, and the Government, for postal business knows it as Sabbath Rest.

Dr. James Crawford, of Tyrone, says the Herald, now carries a loaded gun. He was out in the woods the other day as a member of the Foresters' hunting party camped along Sand Spring run, and at a crossing saw a fine deer loom before him at a distance of only 50 feet from him. The doctor is a crack shot. He deliberately aimed and pulled the trigger. Then he snapped the trigger again and again. He discovered, as the deer disappeared from view, that he had no load in his rifle-

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of MARY A. CALBERT guson township, deceased.

Letters of administration in the above estate having been granted to the undersigned all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims to present the same without delay to W. HARRISON WALKER, Admr..

Bellefonte, Pa.

Estate of JOHN SOLT, late of Fleming. Pa., deceased of administration in the above estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims to present the same without delay, to

J. M. KEICHLINE. M. A. BICKLE, Adm.,
Atty. Zion, Pa

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of DAVID L. MILLER, deceased, late of though the process is slow and tedious. He was in Bellefonte, Monday, having the wound attended to by a physician.

The Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science met recently at Baton Rouge, La. Dr. Henry Prentiss Arms-

EXECUTORS' NOTICE.

The following list of subscribers have been getting the Centre Democra at different places, and removed without notifying us of the change or leaving directions with the post master. No doubt they are wondering why the paper does not reach them regularly. Any information regarding the present P. O. address of any of them, will be appreciated if sent to this office:

PAUL KREAMER, Agronsburg. H. K. BRUNGART, Francisville, Ind. THOS. J. KEISTER, Coburn. Pa. GEO. W. BECHDEL, Mill Hall, Pa. MISS JENNIE WORRIL, Maitland, Pa.

A J. KLING. Youngwood, Pa. J C. WITMER, Alexandria, Pa. J T. YAHNELL, Oleona, Pa. FRED KOHLER, Troutville, Pa. B. S. YEARICK, Spring Mills, route 2. ROBT W. THOMAS, 421 Bedford street, Johns

WM. SANDERS, Jonsonburg, Pa. E. O. FRAVEL, Benore Pa. WM. BUCHANNON, Lemont, Pa. GEO. HEVERLY, Beech Creek, (Eddy LICK.) WM. SANDERS, Johnsonburg.

SAMUEL E. BREON, Bellefonte.

JOHN H. SHEASLEY, Durbin, W. Va. T. L. RIEMERT, Patton, Pa R. M. GINGERICH, Centre Hall, Pa M. FUNK, Parksburg, Pa. MRS. J. H. RUNKLE, Woodward, Pa. MAURICE GLEASON, Brisbin, Pa. WM HUNSICKER, Atlantic City. N. J.

MRS. JAMES MARKLE, Franklinville Pa. R. P. LOHR, Altoona, No. 700 Seventh 27e. MISS CLARA HOUVER, Belletonte, (formerly Altoona) WILBER WILKINS, Bridgewater, S. D. F. S BING, Snow Shoe, LYON SHAY, New Brighton, Pa

J. H. DAVY, Yeagertown, Pa. SALLEY SEYLER, Zich. R. EISENHUTH, Bellwood. W. R. POTTER, Winburne, Pa. S. P. BATHURST, 407 Smithfield St., Pitts JOHN H. WEISER, 319 Crawford ave., Al-

S. M. TRESSLER, Tylersville, Pa. G. W. LEPLEY, Laurelton, Pa.

GROVE & COLDREN'S Horse and Cattle MARKET.

ONE BAY MARE: weight 1185 lbs., 6 years old. needs no recommendation, children, ages of 6.8 and 10 years, drive this mare single, past automobiles without fear.

ONE BAY Driving Horse: weight 1000 lbs., com ing 4 years old: Hambletonian. good single driver, kind and gentle, ONE BAY HORSE: 6 years old, weight 1300 lbs.; heavy bone, medium size, well built, good double worker.

ONE BROWN HORSE: weight 1200 lbs.; coming 4 years old, heavy boned, lowdown, square built, double worker, is the making of a good one, Next is a GRAY Horse (broncho kicker). Weight 1200 lbs.; 4 years old, heavy built, square boned, double worker, but can not stand prosperity.

D. A. Grove, - · · Lemont. W. H. Coldren, - -Bellefonte

Gillen, the Grocer,

Who Gives the Cash Buyer a Discount for Cash Only.

Flour 94c, - regular price $1.10 Price.

cakes of Laundry Soap. .25. Pure Baking Molasses 13 a qt. Banner Lye, 3 boxes for .. .25.

Highest Prices paid for Produce: EGGS..... 30C PER DOZ BUTTER..... 26C PER LB POTATOES.....50c per bu.

SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

GILLEN, THE GROCER,

•

It's Coming!

Half way into November and Christmas comes in De-

You have lots of time to buy those Christmas presents. No! The wise thing for you to do is to GET START-ED NOW! Make it a point to come in soon.

Take your time to looking over our unrivalled line of Novelties, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, etc., etc.

That's how you'll get the best goods. That's how you'll avoid

Casebeer's Store,

distemper and weariness.

Buy early at

Successors to F. C. Richards' Sons. Bellefonte High St.

KATZ & CO'S Store News!

THIS WEEK

one sign in our window reads:

"NOTHING IN THIS WINDOW OVER $5.00

The other reads:

NOTHING IN THIS WINDOW UNDER $5.00

and they are the cheapest line of Coats in America.

KATZ & CO.