GROWING INDUSTRY IN BELLEFONTE

The Yeager Swing Mfg. Co. will Erect an Immense Plant

FOUNDATION STARTED MONDAY

Will be a Brick Structure 52x200 feet and two Stories High—Firm has a Successful Industry—Met With Unusual Success.

One of the most enterprising manufacturing concerns in Bellefonte is the Yeager Swing Manufacturing Company organized about three years ago. They have been employing a large number of men during the last year, and their business has been steadily increasing until larger quarters have become necessary. To meet this growing demand for more room the company this week broke ground for a large building which will be located at the foot of Reynolds' ave., on the meadow just across the creek from Lingles' foundry and machine shops. The structure will be two stories, built of stone with a slate roof, 52x200 feet and have 20,000 feet floor space. The foundation will be seven feet above ground which is believed to be above the flood mark. The first story will be divided into machine room, wood-working department, and a wareroom. The second floor will consist of an assembly room and a finishing room. The establishment will be connected with the railroad by a trestle crossing Spring creek just on this side of what is known as the car shop office. This siding will not be more than 100 feet long, and built so that the articles manufactured can be loaded from the building to the cars, or the raw material unloaded from the cars into the shop. It will have every convenience of an up-to-date manufacturing establishment and will be a credit to the town.

The members of this enterprising firm are Harry Yeager, Thomas J. Sexton, and Elmer E. Davis, all of whom are wide-awake young business men, and they deserve a great deal of credit for their effort to add something to the general prosperity of the town. One of the prominent factors of the success of this industry is Morris Yeager, who has been foreman of the concern since its beginning, which was about two years and a half ago, in the building on West High street, now occupied by the Chinese laundry. Here Morris Yeager, with one man, manufactured swings and then loaded them on a wagon, especially built for the purpose, and hauled them over Central Pennsylvania. Finally the business began to grow and the old car shop office was fitted up for a swing factory. They moved there in January 1905. It was found that that building was not adapted for a business of that kind and in a few months afterwards the factory was moved to what is known as Reynolds' mill, on Willowbank street. It was while here that besides manufacturing swings they began the manufacture of wooden toys, the principal product being mission furniture, for which they have obtained a large trade. The mill property while very large, yet at the beginning of this year proved inadequate and they were compelled to rent from Sylvester Ray part of the old carriage shop on Water street. This they used as a finishing shop and a store room. These also became too small for their thriving business; they now propose to erect a building that in every way will meet every demand.

It is expected that when the building is completed and everything is in running order there will be not less than 100 men employed which will mean considerable to the town. Every man in Bellefonte who has an interest in the place will, at least, wish that this may be the starting of even a greater industry than is now intended.

When these improvements are completed their capacity will be greatly increased, and the manufacture of some new lines will be taken up, as the location affords an opportunity for further development.

125 Deer Killed in Clinton Co.

That is the number given by the Express of Lock Haven. We think an accurate count would reduce those figures easily some 25 to 35. It further says 25 deer were killed in the Brush and Sugar Sugar valleys, 25 in the vicinity of Hyner, 15 on Panther run, 10 on Hayes run, 20 about Haneyville and Caldwell, 10 each on Lick and Bakers runs, 15 in the Scootac regions and the balance scattering. Most of the deer killed this year were bucks and were generally found on the ridges. This fact promises to make deer even more plentiful next season.

The Democrat thinks much of the exaggeration, every season, is attributable to hunting parties being named after different members of the party, by different individuals. For instance: one person will say the Gentzel party killed three deer in the Green Woods; another person will say the Kerstetters (belonging to the same camp) killed three deer. This makes a credit of six where only 3 were killed—and the reporter, in good faith, unknowingly, is misled.

State College Won.

In what was considered the best football game of the season in Pittsburg, State College defeated the Western University of Pennsylvania on Thursday by a score of 6 to 0. Brilliant plays, an attendance of 10,000 and ideal weather conditions served to make the game interesting all through. For two halves the teams showed, tackled and kicked until two minutes before the end of the game, when State College made gains that sent her over the line. In the second half W. U. P. seemed unable to hold State down as well as they did in the first half. Towards the end of the game the visitors gained strength and won the battle.

Some people are so agreeable that they are disagreeable.

ANNUAL STATEMENT.

An itemized statement will be sent between this and Jan. 1st, 1907, to every subscriber of this paper whose subscription at the time is not paid in advance. This is a custom that we have observed for some time at the end of each year, as it serves a good purpose. It will directly inform them as to the standing of their account with which they may not be acquainted, and some overlook. It will also avoid a disputed account extending for several years. It will also enable us to catch all papers that are going to wrong addresses. Above all, at this time of the year, every business man is anxious to get in that which is due him, so that he can meet current expenses and start the new year with the decks cleared for action. We are just as anxious to pay our bills as we are to secure that which is due. There will be no distinction as to rich or poor, high or low, friend or foe, all in arrears will get a statement; and we kindly request that it receive attention at the earliest convenience. By so doing you will greatly oblige.

Union Thanksgiving Services.

The Union Thanksgiving Service in the Bellefonte Reformed Church was unusually well attended. The large auditorium was almost filled with an attentive congregation. Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, pastor of the church, had charge of the services on this occasion; the excellent music for the day was furnished by a choir composed of Mrs. Harry Jenkins, Mrs. Ambrose Schmidt, Roxie Mingle, Sarah Ott, Jacob Smith and A. Lukenbach, with Miss Lulu Harper as organist. Dr. William Laurie, Rev. Stein, Rev. W. H. Spangler, Rev. Harrington and Rev. Richard Crittenden assisted in the services while Dr. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Presbyterian church delivered the sermon in a manner that was pleasing and helpful to all present. Dr. Platts' fort in sermonizing is his practical illustrations which helps materially in securing the attention of his hearers and then revealing the truth, as it were, to their hearts. His illustrations of Thanksgiving in the old New England church and home were brilliant and pathetic word pictures of the solemnity in which Thanksgiving was held by our grandfathers. Dr. Platts then gave an interesting review of the marvelous prosperity of the past year for which each individual should be thankful to the Creator. A collection was taken up for the benefit of the hospital.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. is here to do a good and noble work for the boys and young men of the town and they should take advantage of the opportunities that are extended them through this agency. The Tuesday evening Bible class is having a fair attendance, but there is still room for many more. It is taught by able instructors and is a good place to go. The Friday night class, in which the common school branches are taught, ought to be well attended, especially by young men whose education has been limited on account of having to work at the time they ought to have been in school. The game room is well patronized during these cold evenings. A large number of new games have arrived and are claiming a good share of the attention of the men and boys. If you want to make muscle the gymnasium and the bowling alley are the places to go. Classes have been organized in the "gym" and there should be forty to one hundred young men in them. Now is the time to start.

A Business Change.

At a meeting of the directors of the Nittany Iron Company, held in New York on Monday 1st, Mr. Noah H. Swayne, 2nd, tendered his resignation as president of the company. The Board elected him Chairman of the Executive Committee and he will continue to give to the company the benefit of his experience.

John Kennedy, General Manager of the Puxsuntawney Iron Company, Puxsuntawney, Pa., was elected president to succeed Mr. Swayne, his election to take effect December 1st. Mr. Kennedy is a practical blast furnace man of large experience and with a record of unbroken success. It is not expected that Mr. Kennedy will live in Bellefonte but that he will come over frequently from Puxsuntawney and will be here much more often than Mr. Swayne has found it possible to be of late. It is not expected that there will be any further changes in the management or in the conduct of the Company's affairs.

Lawyers Banquet.

Friday evening the Centre County Bar Association held its annual banquet at the Country Club House, Hecla. There were 24 members of the bar and 20 officers present, who partook of the delicious turkey dinner. After the inner man had been bountifully supplied, Hon. Ellis L. Orvis acted as toastmaster, and after making an address appropriate to the occasion called on J. P. Coburn, now the oldest member of the bar, and D. Paul Fortney, the youngest member of the bar, to make addresses, and were well received. The balance of the evening was passed in a social manner, and thus the occasion proved one of the most enjoyable ever held by the association.

Four Mills in a Few Weeks.

Four mills have been destroyed near Clearfield in the past few weeks. First was the feed mill of A. H. Reed, Fourth street; then the saw mill of M. G. Brown at Lick Run, both by fire. The third was the powder mill last week, caused by an explosion, and on Sunday the Smith grist mill, the result of the boiler explosion at the Electric Light power house.

MANY GENERATIONS IN ONE FAMILY

Master Harold Albert Wion Has a large Variety of "Parents"

FAMILY RECORD HARD TO BEAT

Has 5 Great-Grandparents, and 2 Great-Great-Grandparents all Living and None are Extremely Old Persons--The Family Tree.

Master Harold Wion is a bright little lad who resides with his parents at State College, Pa., and is entitled to a bit of comment in our paper this week. Although but two years and five months of age, his numerous parents all think him just as nice a little fellow as ever happened.

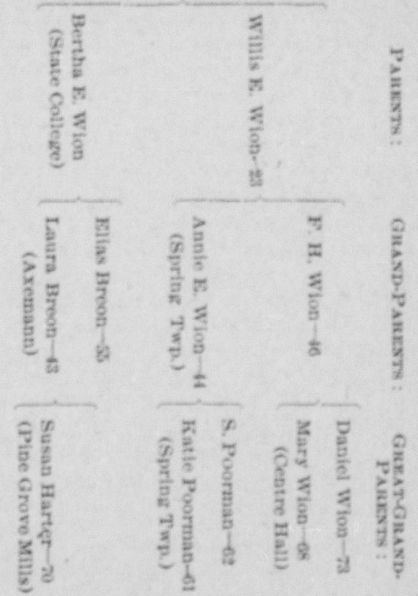

But then, if we were to mention all the real nice little boys and girls in THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT we would not have a bit of space left for other news. The reason Master Harold receives this notice is that he is more fortunate than most of the good boys and girls in one respect, and that is the great variety of living parents, who are nice things to have about, when Christmas time comes around, as most all are liable to remind Old Santa Claus where Master Harold lives and he always is sure to stop and leave a bunch of toys and stockings filled with candy.

The following diagram shows that in addition to his papa and mama he has 4 grand-parents, 5 great-grand-parents, and 2 great-great-grand-parents—all of whom are living:

Harold Albert Wion—2 years, 5 months

It would make an interesting picture to have all of the above in a family group, but that could not be obtained. If there are any family records in the county better than this, we would be glad to have them reported at once.

Golden Wedding.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Eberhart, of the place, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedded life, an event which few can enjoy. The following children were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Eberhart and son, of Puxsuntawney; Mrs. J. R. Williams and little daughter, of Bedford, Pa.; Mrs. Daniel Markle and family, J. Harry and family, Geo. and family, Mrs. Harry Badger and family, Mrs. Joseph Apt and family, and Miss Mary, at home, all of the community, which made an interesting family reunion. In the evening the wedding repast was served which proved an enjoyable incident. Mr. and Mrs. Eberhart were the recipients of numerous valuable presents as tokens of esteem from their children. Just fifty years ago—Mr. Eberhart took as his bride Miss Elizabeth Witmer of Millburg, and removed to this place in 1862 and have resided here continuously ever since, being among our most respected citizens.

Pastor's Family Afflicted.

Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Searle, of Loganton, are mourning the death of their 3 years old daughter, who passed away after a two weeks' illness of typhoid fever. Four children of the same parents have been down with this dread malady. One has recovered, a daughter is convalescing, and a son is still confined to bed.

104 Years of Age.

Mrs. Jane Halpin, the oldest resident of Scranton, died Monday in the House of the Good Shepherd, aged 104 years. Her eldest son, James Halpin, is 82 and her baby boy, Martin, 77.

RECENT WEDDINGS.

ARDREY-RIDER.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rider, well known and esteemed citizens of Scranton, was the scene of a pretty wedding at noon of Thanksgiving day, Nov. 29, 1906. Their eldest daughter, Belle Gray Rider, was united in holy matrimony to Ellis E. Ardrey, by Rev. R. S. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride is highly respected by the community for her many graces of heart and mind. Mr. Ardrey has a good position at Bellwood which place the young couple will make their home. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Ardrey, well known citizens of Martha, who greeted the occasion by their presence. The Thanksgiving dinner which followed the ceremony, was all that could be desired. The bride and groom will be followed to their new home and through life by the best wishes of their many friends.

HOOPER-LINGLE.

On Thanksgiving a very pretty and stylish wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Lingle at Philadelphia Park, when her daughter, Miss Louise P., became the bride of Edward J. Hooper, of Clearfield. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. D. Wilson, of the M. E. church. It was a ring ceremony, and of a most impressive character. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Anna Scott, who during the ceremony also rendered Lang's "Flower Song". The bride wore a gown of blue silk, made over taffeta with Irish point trimmings, and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Carrie and Helen Lingle, sisters of the bride, wore white Paris muslin gowns, and carried pink carysanthums.

SITLER-TAYLOR.

At the home of F. A. Yearick, in West Brush Valley, on Thursday evening, November 22, by Rev. S. A. Snyder, of Rebersburg, George W. Sitler and Miss Bessie Blanche Taylor, both of Spring Mills, were united in marriage.

SWEETWOOD-LUCAS.

Ma. Charles H. Lucas, of Spring Mills and Miss Jennie A. Sweetwood, of Potter's Mills, were united in marriage Nov. 7th, 1906, at the M. E. Parsonage, Milesburg, by the Rev. M. C. Piper.

STUDENTS EXONERATED.

A rather interesting case took place before Squire W. H. Musser in Bellefonte Saturday morning. It was from State College, the charge being cruelty to animals, preferred by John Snyder, the liverman at that place. The defendant was Kenneth Stevenson, a College student. There were a large number of witnesses, and they were packed in the office almost like sardines. Some of them smoked and they came near smoking the smoke out of nose and tongue. If he hadn't smelled powder and endured the smoke of battle during the war it is a question whether he could have stood it. On September 23rd Kenneth Stevenson, Roy A. B. Steigenthal, J. B. McWilliams, William Way and Roy Gender, students of State College, hired a team from Mr. Snyder to come to Bellefonte, Mr. Stevenson being the driver down and part way back. When they reached here McWilliams took the train for Pittsburg, while shortly afterwards the other four young men started back for the College. When they arrived at Lemont they took the longest way around, going by what is known as the Branch road. While on the thoroughfare, between Boalsburg and State College, they stopped to water the horses in the creek, but the sorrel horse didn't drink. After they left the stream they noticed that the sorrel was sick, according to the testimony of the men they tried to get it to the stable as soon as possible. Before reaching the College, however, the horse died on the road. The plaintiff claimed that the animal had been abused while the defendant claimed that the horse was a balker and died from colic. At the close of the case Squire Musser exonerated the students from the charge and sent them back rejoicing. J. A. B. Miller represented the plaintiff while H. C. Quigley made the plea for the defendant.

A Business Suggestion

Monday night John J. Bower, Fire Marshall in Bellefonte, appeared before Council and made the suggestion that hereafter when a fire alarm is turned in by parties outside the borough, such parties should make themselves liable for the cost of taking the engines and other apparatus out. Every time the fire department is called out it costs the borough anywhere from $2 to $20, together with the wear and tear of the machinery. It happens also that eight times out ten that the cause of the alarm is nothing more than a chimney on fire and it is often extinguished before they get there; the expense is saddled on the borough. This however does not apply to people living inside the borough. The suggestion is a timely one and no doubt will meet with the hearty cooperation of council.

Hugh Crider's Auto Experience.

Hugh Crider, of Bellefonte, can now testify that an automobile can kick with about the same force as a government mule. Tuesday morning he tried to start the critter balked. After advancing the sparker he gave a third turn and all at once the engine gave a sudden start and the crank wrench flew up striking him between the eyes which laid him out on the broad of his back, the blood running profusely from the wound. He was carried into the office and in a short time was again able to recognize his friends and thankful that he was still in the land of the living.

Bibles at Cost.

The Centre County Bible Society always has on hand a stock of the publications of the American Bible Society in its depository in the Y. M. C. A. building, Bellefonte. Bibles at cost at 15c. and upwards. Testaments at cost at 5c. and upwards. A limited supply for gratis to the needy and destitute. A sample copy for examination of a Bible, all things considered, safe to say none better in the world. R. Crittenden, Sec'y James Harris President.

CONCLUSION OF NOVEMBER COURT

Several Boys Are Sent to the Huntingdon Reformatory by Judge Orvis.

FEW CASES TRIED THIS WEEK

Most Causes Were Continued or Postponed—Another Voting Precinct Created in Curtin Township—Reported by S. D. Gettig, Esq.

The following is the balance of last week's court and the sentences imposed: Robert Cole vs George Kachik. This was an appeal from the judgment of a Justice of the Peace. A verdict was returned in favor of the plaintiff, Robert Cole, for the full amount of his claim $50.

George Hastings vs. Harry Shively. Appeal from a Justice's decision. Jury found in favor of defendant.

On Wednesday evening case of R. S. Brouse vs. J. H. Olinger and Margaree Olinger, his wife, being an appeal, and from Bellefonte, was tried and the cause is brought to recover on a book account against the defendants. J. H. Olinger confessed the amount due, to wit, $3.04 and the cause went to trial against the wife, plaintiff contending that Mrs. Olinger had made a contract for the goods which was denied by the defendant. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $8.21.

On Thursday before the rising of the Court the Court suspended sentence on Burdine Butler, Oren Allison and Jesse Lucas, all three of them being from Howard, and plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery, upon the payment of the costs by each one in the case in which they plead guilty.

On Friday morning Judge Orvis passed sentence on the following prisoners convicted during the week: Boyd Reed, charge malicious mischief. Sentenced to pay $15 fine, costs of prosecution and undergo 30 days imprisonment in the County jail.

In the case of George Reed and Joe Ross they failed to appear and their recognizance was forfeited.

Alvah B. Cers was sentenced to pay $10 fine, costs of prosecution and stand committed until sentence was complied with. The charge was assault and battery. Mrs. Eliza Walker was prosecuted.

Britton Morgan charged with malicious mischief was fined $5, costs of prosecution and stand committed until the same was paid.

Charles E. Andrews, charge betrayal, received the usual sentence in such cases.

Robert Hendershot was sentenced to the Reformatory for breaking into Joseph's house. Sentence suspended in regard to the robbery of Blair's jewelry store. A fine $1.00 and costs was imposed.

Harry Thompson, charged with breaking into Joseph's house, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1, restore the stolen goods and undergo imprisonment in the Huntingdon Reformatory.

Ralph Fish, of Philipsburg, who pleaded guilty to larceny, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1, costs of prosecution and undergo imprisonment in the Huntingdon Reformatory.

Newton Kline was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution in the Florey case and stand committed until the same was paid.

Other civil cases on the first week's list were disposed of as follows: Gerberich, Hale & Company vs. M. S. Betz, continued.

Walter Stephens, Executor, of O. L. Schoonover, deceased, vs. Andrew Somerville, being an appeal, continued at cost of defendant.

Mary K. Gray vs. the High Standard Garment Company, being an appeal, settled.

Frank F. Irvin vs. Rosa L. Pearce, judgment confessed by the defendant in favor of the plaintiff in open court for $145.00, with stay of execution for sixty days.

SECOND WEEK.

Court convened on Monday morning, and Joseph Ross, who had plead guilty to the charge of malicious mischief, was sentenced to pay the costs and balance of sentence suspended, and the following cases on this week's list was disposed of:

A. W. Hafer, Trustee, vs. L. C. Rearick, opened judgment, continued at cost of defendant.

H. T. Hall, trustee, vs. John M. Robb, being case in replevin, settled.

J. C. Nason vs. George W. Gill, being an action in ejectment, case continued, the same being special.

Grant H. Thompson, Trustee in bankruptcy of the Murray Lumber Company, bankrupt, vs. Samuel Gault, being an action in assumpsit, continued.

William Witmer vs. Edward Sellers, being an action in trespass, continued at the costs of the plaintiff.

Harry Krape vs. the Howard Brick Company, a corporation, being an action of trespass, continued.

David L. Kerr vs. George W. Brown, mortgagor, defendant, with notice to Clement Dale, Administrator of Annie Brown, deceased, test tenant, together with all other terre tenants, if there be any, being a Scire Facias Sur Mortgage, $127.20.

The Lewisburg National Bank of Lewisburg, Pa., vs. Len W. Duncan Administrator, etc., of William P. Duncan, deceased, who was endorser for the Sandy Ridge Fire Brick Company, being an action in assumpsit. Defendant confessed a judgment in open court in favor of the plaintiff for $4330.16.

Lauderback-Barber Company, formerly trading as Platt-Barber Company vs. R. M. Foster, Trustee, an action in assumpsit, continued.

HUNTING NOTES.

EARLYTOWN.

Hunting Club of the Regulars, of Pottery Bank, composed of the following members: John Wilkeson, James Keish, Thos. Decker, D. L. Bartges, Hon. M. Coyle, Harry Wilkison, Mike Smith, Loyd Smith, Jonas Boal, James Moyer, Miff Moyer and Rev. Smith; taken in as visiting members, of 201 North 3rd St. Reading, Pa.; Walter M. Weaver, Philip Buck, and Winfield S. Shirk. The lucky ones to bring down deer, were Walter M. Weaver with a fine savage rifle a fine buck; next was Hon. M. Coyle brought down one of the finest that was brought out of the mountains, as fat as butter. Mr. Coyle used the fine automatic Winchester. Next one was as fine a one, was brought down by James Moyer with his Marlin 35-40. Besides these three fine deer they had strings of pheasants and cottontails.

This old and well governed camp never came out skinned; they always get shooting and down comes game.

A MEMBER.

They got four.

A hunting party from Mill Hall composed of Elmer Flanagan, Elmer Sloppy, Harry Flanagan, George Stover, Harry Houtz, Irvin Miller, and George Flanagan returned home on Saturday from Big Run with four fine deer. The deer were displayed in front of the Kyle house there on Saturday evening.

BUCK SHOT.

One of the finest and largest bucks that has come down Blue Creek in the past quarter of a century was brought to Jersey Shore, Tuesday night. The big animal which was shot by Robert M. Bubb, of Jersey Shore, weighed 140 pounds and carried eleven prongs.

The Bechdel and Bitner hunting party that camped on the head of Two Rock Run came home Friday with two deer, two bear, two foxes, one wild cat, and a nice lot of small game. The party was composed of Jacob, William, and Lloyd Bechdel, Charles, Clyde and Lee Bitner, and William Strunk Jr. They had a fine hunt.

The Bellefonte Panthers, who were encamped in the vicinity of Big Run, came home this week slightly under the weather, owing to the fact that they had been out during the entire season and in all that time were unable to score a single deer. They hunted industriously, but luck seems to have been against them this trip; that never discourages a true sportsman, and they will be in the woods next season as usual.

The McCartney hunting party known as the Indians, who camped at Wolf Run, returned with five deer, one being a five-pronged buck, and other small game. The following were in the party: Joe, Tom, and Roland McCartney, of Snow Shoe; Edward Confer, of Boggs; Geo. Robinson, of Snow Shoe. That was one deer a piece, the legal limit, and a happy set of hunters they were, as they returned.

The Howard hunting party made a good record this season, while encamped on the west branch of Big Run. They had to their score: 4 deer, 1 large bear, 2 wildcats, 22 rabbits, 7 pheasants. The party consisted of the following: H. M. Confer, A. Confer, C. M. Confer, Robt. Confer, H. Butler, R. Butler, P. Thompson, John Lucas, all of Howard; and Ed. Confer, of Mackeyville.

Harrison Knarr and his grandson, Harry Kuhn, of Boalsburg, wandered along the foot of the mountain, in search of game, and to their surprise they soon saw a deer which Mr. Knarr shot.

In the eastern part of Pennsylvania the total number of deer killed by the various hunting parties has been estimated at 25; along with this has been a number of fine bear.

The Rangers, of Tyrone, encamped back of Snow Shoe, have three deer to their credit, and an Altona party on the Black Moshannon have had two deer.

In the correspondence portion of the paper there will be found reports from numerous hunting parties over the county.

The Coleville hunting club, encamped at Benner Run, secured two very nice deer.

Look at your Label.

All persons who paid their subscriptions during the past month of November will find the credit for the same given by a change of the date after their name on the label. Look at it now and in case of an error you will please notify the office at once. The labels are always changed at the end of each month, and it is not necessary to inquire as to how your subscription stands as you can see it always on the label each week, the date showing when your subscription expired or will expire.
