

FRANCIS SPEER'S Breezy "THAT" Column

THAT Casbeer, the Bellefonte jeweler, says that a diamond is one thing that will match every woman's complexion.

THAT when a man, while playing pool at Knisely Bros., misses a straight ball, can it be said of him that he is crooked? Sometimes.

THAT if a man takes too many eye-openers he becomes blind to his own interests. How often has this been the case in Bellefonte.

THAT every time you come out on the streets of Bellefonte you are liable to see a man who makes you wonder how on earth he makes a living.

THAT with some men in Bellefonte life is but a hog path leading to the Union cemetery. This may sound harsh, and unkind but it's the truth.

THAT one-half the flowers brought to the average funeral in Bellefonte would have made life much more pleasant if given a few months earlier.

THAT there is a girl in Bellefonte who claims that she is only nineteen, when it is a well established fact that she will never see 25 summers. Don't let her fool you, boys.

THAT there are some girls in Bellefonte who if they would just let some real nice fellow love them once in a while they would not wear such a forlorn countenance on the street.

THAT Benjamin Bradley, the Bellefonte contractor, says that about the only time he ever wanted the earth was when he was taking his last trip to England; he then wanted it bad.

THAT Rash Williams, of Bellefonte, says that a phonograph isn't to blame if it has a bad record. Rashie ought to know for he has his attic full of all sorts of records. They are piled up there high as cord wood.

THAT the Thanksgiving service in Bellefonte was well attended but the personnel of the congregation showed that many of the husbands in Bellefonte sent their wives there to worship God while they, themselves, preferred to worship the almighty dollar and bow down to idols of gold and silver.

THAT the fellow who undertakes to try and make the obliging young ladies in the Bellefonte telephone exchange believe that one ring on the phone is worth two on the finger, will get left. They would rather have one on the finger than fifty on the phone, and you can just put that down in your vest pocket.

THAT Bellefonte has in it some men who don't seem to realize that death is the one power whose hand cannot be stayed by wealth, influence or love. Judging by their grasping disposition they imagine that they are going to live always in this world and pay little attention to the fact that they must someday die and leave all.

THAT the world may be coming to an end soon from the fact that something happened in Bellefonte the other day that was very much out of the ordinary. A man incidentally dropped into a certain house and found the mother playing the piano and the daughter in the kitchen washing the dishes. This may not happen in Bellefonte for the next thousand years.

THAT there is a young man in Bellefonte who has been driven to drink just because a young lady in town has thrown him overboard, or rather given him the mitten. If he is that chicken-hearted he ought to get a barrel of whisky and drown himself in it. The young man who hasn't more sand in his gizzard than that will never get very far in the world.

WHITENING CLOTHES.

A Harmless Solution That Will Lighten Laundry Labor.

It is never necessary for harmful washing solutions to be used in order to facilitate the laundering of clothes, for there are several things that can be added to the water which will quickly eradicate dirt, besides making the washing easier, and will not injure the fabric.

Kerosene is one of the best clothes whiteners and is perfectly safe to use. It is especially good for clothes that have been hanging for some time and become yellow.

For ordinary purposes use but a tablespoonful of kerosene to a gallon of water.

In the event of garments becoming very much soiled an emulsion made from equal parts of kerosene, clear lime-water and turpentine shaken until creamy is invaluable.

Only one cup of the mixture should be added to a boilerful of clothes. They should be kept over the fire for half an hour.

In the case of men's jumpers, overalls, working shirts or children's stockings or trousers this emulsion is invaluable.

Make a very hot soap-suds and add a small portion of the emulsion to the water. Allow the clothes to remain for about five minutes in the water and rinse with hot water thoroughly, for in the latter case when the emulsion is used so strong it is quite necessary that every particle should be removed.

Borax soaps which are free from alkali are good for laundry purposes.

CHICKEN A LA KING.

Recipe From One of New York's Big Popular Hotels.

A favorite dish served in one of the big popular hotels of New York is chicken a la king. The recipe, as given by the chef of the fashionable establishment, is as follows: Cut into small pieces the white meat of a cold roast chicken. Make a sauce with two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan over the fire. When the butter melts stir in two heaping tablespoonfuls of flour which has been well sifted. When the flour and butter are mixed to a cream pour in slowly a pint of hot milk, stirring constantly to keep from lumping. Allow the sauce to boil up once, then add a teaspoonful of grated onion, a saltspoonful of salt and the yolks of two eggs. Stir them briskly through the sauce, add two truffles and two mushrooms cut in small pieces and fried lightly in butter, one sweet green pepper cut in shreds after seeds have been removed and a generous tablespoonful of capers chopped and just a suggestion of grated nutmeg. Last of all, add the chicken, stir all together and allow it to cook a minute. Chicken a la king is usually served in a chafing dish.—New York Post.

THE HOME DOCTOR.

Milk taken before and after a bitter medicine will absorb the taste very quickly.

For a sore mouth try a wash of one teaspoonful of peroxide in a half glass of water.

After cutting a corn peroxide should always be applied to prevent any possibility of blood poisoning.

Gouty persons should avoid eating sweet food, but the practice of eating a dozen walnuts a day is recommended by physicians.

A cup of hot water will relieve a sick stomach, and for those who cannot take it plain try a little lemon juice, a lump of sugar or a pinch of salt.

When you suffer from heartburn take half a teaspoonful of bicarbonate of soda stirred in half a tumblerful of cold water. One doctor advises that a few bleached sweet almonds be eaten. They should be thoroughly masticated.

Four Eclipses Next Year.

Next year there will be four eclipses, two of the sun and two of the moon. On the 27 of January there will be a partial eclipse of the moon, partly visible in the United States. On July 24th there will be another partial eclipse of the moon in United States. The eclipses of the sun will not be visible in the United States.

DER PENNSYLVANIER

Mischer Drucker! — Es ist merkwürdig. Wann mancher Mann juchst ein trumm Wort falle loht über die Weibheit, dann ziehe je über ihn los un losse tee gut Hoer an ihm. Ostmols vergesse je es ihm net so lang as er lebt. Dann geht es wieder Männer, was schier eeng ebbs sage tenne un die Weiber lasche juchst berzu un sage: „is er nau net voll d'r Videns!“ So en Mann war d'r Evangelist Sam Jones, was terzlich gestorwe is. In seine Niekings, was er als gehalte hot, hot er nie en Blatt vor's Maul genumme, sundern er hot grad rausgeschwätzt, wie ihm d'r Schmel gewachte war. Sell is uffhors d'r rechte Weg, aber, wie schon gefahrt, net en Jeder darf sell dhun. Mit em Schmeckle tummt mer bei die Weiber viel weiter, as mit d'r Wohret zu sage.

Wann so en Mann sterbt, was en somforige Verrieselheit gehat hot, do is es d'r Brauch, das so allerhand aus sein Leine vergäht werd, was er bei Lebzeite gedhu un gefahrt hot. Gewöhnlich nemmt mer dann aber juchst des Best, weil mer vun die Todte nix as wie Gutes rede soll. Es is net, as wie mann en Mann for en Offis lascht. Drum will ich do en bar Sprich vun sellem Jones gewo, weil mir doch funscht net grad ebbs eifallt. Do geht's:

„Ich gleich en Mann, was kann pruhshe bei seiner Frach, das er Religion hot.“

„Ich mot ietwer eeng ebbs dhun, as wie mich vor en zornig Weibsmensch hiesstle, was en scharfe Zung hot.“

„D'r greecht juchst, was ich fenn, is die Frach, was en Mann heiert, wann je schon die ganze Zeit gewiht hot, das er nix nuh is.“

„D'r lieb Gott hot d'r Frach en kleine Hautt gewo, aber er hot je net gefachte, das je en Himt über en Heubsthot händle fot.“

„En Frach kann ihr Mann net runn neckelege mit Befehle un Wiefchheit.“ „Ich bedauer eengie Frach, was sich hiehohe kann un zuhorche, wie ihr Mann vun anner Zeit runnengemacht werd.“

„En Stadifrah is juchst en Burers-frach mit Sundagkleder an.“

„Ich mot ietwer todt sei, as wie in d'r Fätschen.“ (Woll, ich glaubs net, das es viel Weiber gebt, was die sehm Meening hen, wie d'r Sam.)

„Die Weiber sen verdoht scharf im Hande un Schwappe un in dene Sache hen se ten Gewisse. Se verlathe en Paar alte Hofe for mehner, as ihr Mann neu derfor bezahlt hot, un dann gehe je hie un prahle noch demit.“

„Wie verboenger, vertrumpelet un verdrictter en Weiberhot is, asde mehner is er in Fätschen un asde beffer werd er gealiche.“

„Ime Städtel in Georgia hen en bar Mädel geheiert mit d'r Intenchen, ihre Männer zu beffere. Nau gebt's doct en Kngahl Stroh-Wittweiber.“

„Es geht ten Weg for außzuehle, uf wie viel Arte as es en Frach ferrig bringe kann, ihrem Mann dek Vire zu verfatse un ungemietlich zu made.“

„Wann en Frach Hofe anhot, pruhsht sell noch net, das je ab en Mann is.“

„Ich hab Weiber gefennt, was zu arm ware, for en Paar Schuh zu laffe. Aber ich hab nie eene gefennt, was zu arm war, das je ten Spitzel hot laffe tenne.“

„Wann d'r Deimel mol sei Fuß uf en Frach gedhu hot, dann fannst du dich verlosse, das jelle Frach nie mesh uffummt.“

„D'r greecht juchst, was d'r lieb Gott gefachte hot, is die Frach, was for ihr Mann en Todde oder Punsch macht.“

„Wann mei Dochter juchst ten Dreh hot, dann muh es ganz sei. Wenn es aber nothmennig werd, das en Pärch druf tummt un es fehlt en pallender Blade, dann schneid ich unne en Eit-felche ab un net owe.“

„So das es ten Missett geht, sag ich nochemol ganz brunders, das d'r Sam Jones die omige Sprich gefachriene hot, un net ich. Ich hab tee Geld for en Parik zu laffe. Aber ich muh doch gefest, das er so ziemlich d'r Nagel uf d'r Kopp gedroffe hot, wie mer so segt. Auffording zu allem, was ich do gementent hab, war er ten Freund vun Fätschen, Bigabot Schirtwechts un so bergleich Offeberigeteete. Ich hat gefliche, sei Meening zu heere über die Dreffes, was die Weibheit mebre am Stiefelcher. Do hat er verleiht ab gefahrt, wie feller Kapuziner.“

„Is des en Dreime erbarter Weiber, sich zu verjunge die Seele un Deimel.“

Gephart, to throw off all middle profits, do away with all kinds of expense advertising usually done by piano companies and give that amount to the purchasers, thereby making them a friend of the piano and this house, and securing the strongest kind of an advertisement of their pianos.

The Hallet & Davis Pianos have been made continuously for 60 years and have always stood at the head of the list of the high grade pianos, having over 114 medals and awards for first prizes at exhibitions, etc. It is used and endorsed for years by hundreds of colleges, schools of music, convents and conservatories. Remember, this is not a stock of cheap pianos sent into Bellefonte, as has been done in the past, but the stock usually carried by M. C. Gephart, and who is known throughout Centre, Clinton, Blair, Clearfield and Huntingdon counties as handling the world's best. Mr. Gephart has never been identified with the sale of cheap pianos and in the many years of his piano selling here has always borne the reputation of giving all his customers a "square deal."

Advertisement for Yeager & Davis shoes. Text: 'WE ARE PROUD Of the fact that we have the best line of good all solid serviceable Children's Shoes ever brought to Centre county. On account of the great advance in the price of hides, leather and Shoes, and knowing that the market was full of shoddy goods, we were very careful to select our line of Children's Shoes so as to give the trade good value. The Shoe that we speak of are not cheap shoes for it is impossible to get good shoes cheap. They are shoes that are made of good leather; shoes that will stand the rough usage that a child generally gives them. We have a full line of the Educator shoes for children. These shoes are made THE SHAPE OF A CHILD'S FOOT, good and wide in the toes and with low heels. This shoe is the best thing ever made in the child's shoe to save their feet from corns and bunions as is usually the case after they grow up. Our object in writing this advertisement is to impress on your mind two things: First—that the line of Children's Shoes that we will sell you will be just as we represent them and you will not be deceived. Second—that they are not cheap shoes for the concern who advertises that they have good cheap shoes, now cannot make good their statement for with the terrible advance in hides and leather it is impossible to get them. Now if you are LOOKING FOR GOOD SHOES COME TO US and if you are looking for poor shoddy shoes it is not the place to come. We tell you just what you are getting and do not misrepresent.
