

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Bruce Garman, the genial proprietor of the Garman house, is laid up with a bad case of rheumatism.
—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Longacre and Harry Bowers spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Longacre.
—Mrs. John Noll and Mrs. Sara Satterfield, of Bellefonte, are visiting at the home of O. F. Felmeier and family at Lock Haven.
—Miss Rose Haupt, one of the Bell operators, left Bellefonte for Johnstown where she will visit friends for the next two weeks.
—Mrs. John Lyon, of Bellefonte, was successfully operated upon Monday at the Bellefonte Hospital. She is getting along very nicely.
—Miss Clara Aikens, one of the most charming young ladies in Bellefonte, returned home on Friday, from a two weeks visit in Philadelphia.
—Miss Helen Overton, who has charge of the primary department at the Bellefonte Academy, gave a tea Friday from two to five o'clock.
—Mrs. Saltsman and Mrs. Cheston who spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hastings, in Bellefonte, left for their home at Lock Haven on Friday.
—Still improvements go on at the Broer's house, Bellefonte. A new floor is being laid in the room adjoining the bar, and the hall that leads from the office.
—Miss Bessie Heverly, one of the most popular young ladies of this place, left town Monday morning, for Butler, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Conroy.
—Miss Sarah Bayard, who has been in Williamsport for the past two months taking a course at Potts Business College, spent a few days with her sister Miss Ursula Bayard.
—One of the big sales this season will be that of James S. Carson, on the Cameron Burnside farm east of town, Thursday, Dec. 20. He has a fine line of live stock and implements.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and the latter's two brothers, Carl and Win Noll, left Friday afternoon for their home at Pitcairn, after a week's visit with friends in Bellefonte.
—Walter Rankin, who now holds a good position with the Witter Construction company, at Mt. Union, was home to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rankin.
—The list of contributions to the Bellefonte hospital during the past week were sent to our office yesterday, but arrived too late to have same put in type for this issue, as it is quite lengthy.
—Every dollar you spend in Bellefonte during the holiday season will be a direct benefit to the town. People who go away to buy goods have no business to brag about local enterprise.
—W. F. Dunning, of Ocoala, entered upon his work as organist in the Bellefonte Methodist church last Sunday. He is an expert in handling a pipe organ. And those who heard him were delighted.
—Supt. F. H. Thomas, of the Bellefonte Central Railroad, recently attended a meeting of the United States Railroad Association at New Orleans. He was accompanied by his daughter Miss Margaret, and together they had a most delightful time.
—Thanksgiving evening John M. Shugart, cashier of the Centre County Bank, fell and strained his wrist to the extent that he was kept in bed all day Friday. He had it done up in splints for several days, but it will not be long until he will have the right use of it again.
—George Bush, Yeager & Davis and R. S. Brouse, of Bellefonte, have placed in their respective stores in the Bush Arcade, large handsome glass counter cases. To use the slang expression: They are "dandies" and show off their goods to a good advantage. The cost of them all amounts to over $200.
—The members of Mrs. C. E. Kline's Sunday school class will hold a seven cent social in the Lutheran church tomorrow evening, Dec. 7th, 7 o'clock. The entertainment part of the program consists of music, recitations and tableaux, after which a supper will be served consisting of oysters, crackers, chicken salad, rolls, ice cream, cake and coffee.
—Friday Mrs. Harvey Lutz, of Bellefonte, was rendering lard at her home on Valentine Street, when it boiled over and set fire to the house. An alarm was sent in and soon the entire fire department was out, and for a few minutes the town was aglow with excitement. Joseph Ayers, who was in the vicinity where the fire took place, ran in and succeeded in extinguishing the flames before they had done much harm.
—Friday evening, Dec. 14th, the attraction in Garman's opera house will be "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," the great comedy success. Jules Murry's own company, with William A. Whitecar at its head, was formed with the object always in view for securing for this play a cast superior to even the very excellent ones that have appeared in it in previous years. This object is said to have been accomplished, and the organization is receiving unstinted praise in all the cities visited.
—May we be permitted to ask our readers to hand us the news from week to week? Being human, we are not omniscient, and so we can not see all that is transpiring. Simply jot down the facts, and we'll try to write 'em up. If you have friends visiting you, let us know. Likewise if you expect to go somewhere, let us know. We duly appreciate your modesty, but then you are denying your friends a pleasure by not letting them know of your movements, as we and you know of theirs.
—The Bellefonte Academy football team was anticipating a nice trip to Baltimore, Md., where they expected to play the Baltimore University football team on Thanksgiving. About the time the Bellefonte boys were imagining themselves on the train speeding over the rails at the rate of a mile a minute toward the Monumental City they received a dispatch canceling the game which, of course, caused them to become indignant because the game was satisfactorily arranged for early in the season. The Baltimoreans wanted the Academy to put up a guarantee and play the game in Bellefonte, but this, of course, the Academy refused to do. The boys then went to their respective homes and spent Thanksgiving.

—Mrs. M. J. Locke left Saturday afternoon for Philadelphia, where she will visit relatives.
—John Munson, a student at Yale College, spent Thanksgiving at his home on Linn street.
—Note the change of timetable on the Central R. R. of Pa. which went into effect on Monday.
—Mrs. Harry Rankin, formerly of this place, but now of Williamsburg, is visiting friends in Bellefonte.
—Mrs. Maggie Miller, (nee Harpster), of Dubois, spent a day here, on her way to her former home Centrehall.
—The little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hiller, we are pleased to note, has recovered from the attack of typhoid fever.
—"A 7-cent Supper," by Mrs. Kline's Sunday School class, in the Lutheran church, Friday evening, 7. Dont miss it.
—We have two "donts": (1). Dont send communications to this office, without the writer's name; (2), such dont go into the Democrat.
—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rankin, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mrs. D. H. Hastings over Thanksgiving. They left for home Monday.
—Miss Belle Weaver, the careful and obliging stenographer for Bower, Gettig & Zerby, is tickled almost to death. Just speak to her about it.
—Ambrose Ray, of Bellefonte, who several weeks ago was bitten by a dog, has discarded his crutches and is now feeling as well as usual.
—Jonathan Harter and Mrs. George Peters, of Millheim, transacted business in Bellefonte Saturday relative to the estate of the late George Peters.
—D. C. Walter, of Bellefonte, left on Thursday morning for Pennbrook, Dauphin county, where he will spend the winter with a nephew, D. L. Lenker.
—Imperial store for holiday goods; a room 15x20 will be added to be filled with "Wellers ancient Pottery and China ware," new goods every day up to Xmas.
—We were pleased to have a call from some of Tusseyville's best folks, namely, Arthur Slutterbeck, wife and son Mrs. Henry Moyer and Miss Blanche Moyer.
—The rainfall during the past month, November, was 1.30 inches. Streams are below average height. Ice, thus far, has barely been half an inch in thickness.
—Capt. Annie C. Irvin, of Richmond, Va., and Lieutenant Hunter, of Buffalo, N. Y., who are now in charge of the local branch of the Salvation Army, held a cake and coffee supper last Saturday evening.
—Frank Lukenbach, Vice President of the First National Bank of Tyrone, spent Thanksgiving in Bellefonte. He set an example to other young men by attending the Thanksgiving services in the Reform Church.
—Little skills of snow have whitened the ground occasionally last week and this week, not near enough to arouse a single sleigh bell, but awakening the thought that the merry jingle of the bells will soon enter for the open air concert with zero accompaniments.
—Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan, of Bellefonte, have announced the approaching wedding of their daughter, Margaret, to Jesse B. Yarnell. The happy event will take place at the McClellan home on east Lamb street, Tuesday, December 18th, at 12 o'clock noon.
—It is with pleasure that we note that there is considerable improvement in the condition of John F. Knisley, of Bellefonte, who has been confined to his home on Thomas street as the result of an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, and his many friends now feel confident of his permanent recovery.
—We had a record last week of a Clinton county hog which dressed 95 pounds and a request to have Centre county beat that. Well, here goes: John Wooster, of Pleasant Valley on Marsh Creek, killed a porker, a few days ago, that dressed, weighed, 152 pounds; now beat that who can. This porker yielded three cans of lard.
—Don't forget that on Tuesday evening next, "The Flaming Arrow" will appear in Garman's opera house. The program includes a band of sixteen full-blooded Indians, together with cow-boys, scouts, ex-United States soldiers and four bronchos. An Indian band is with the attraction. It is a beautiful love story, replete with thrilling scenes.
—The Bellefonte Furnace company have given their employees at the Scotia one mine an increase of ten cents a day in their wages, to take effect December 1st. This will make $1.20 per day for common labor with skilled labor in proportion. The increase was a voluntary one on the part of the company, hence the more appreciated by the men thus benefited.
—James K. Barnhart one of the obliging clerks in the First National Bank, came up town Monday morning wearing a smile as broad as the street. It was enough to change the countenance of any married man, for about one o'clock Monday morning the store visited his residence on Thomas Street and left a little daughter. Both mother and child are getting along nicely.
—The Maccabee meeting on Wednesday night of last week with the Dutch Banquet and turkey raffé adjunct at the Undine Hall was a great success. Several new members were taken in and there were about sixty-five members in attendance. Five turkeys and two watch fobs were raffled off. They had a good time until midnight eating sauerkraut and smoking the pipe of peace.
—Wednesday of last week Miss Marie White severed her connection with the Bellefonte Furnace Co., stenographer and is now open for engagements in her line of work. She is a speedy and careful stenographer, and anything entrusted to her will be well and faithfully done. For the present she has her typewriter in the office of W. C. Heine where she will do typewriting with both promptness and dispatch.
—The orchestra dance given Thanksgiving evening in Bellefonte by Misses Marie White and Eva Crissman, was one of the prettiest dances that has taken place in Bellefonte for a long time. There were quite a number of guests present from a distance, and it really was an enjoyable event. The music was furnished by the Bellefonte orchestra composed of Christy Smith, Harry Garbrick, Louis Hill, Henry Brown and Henry Dickinson.

—"The Flaming Arrow" at the opera house next Tuesday evening.
—J. H. Robb and H. J. Wooster, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with friends in Lock Haven.
—Snow of the wet kind began to fall yesterday afternoon at 3:40, and seemed to mean business.
—Mrs. S. T. Gibbs and daughter, Miss Ollie, of Milesburg, are visiting Mrs. E. Hugg, at Philipsburg.
—Mrs. Lester Shafer, of Milroy, and two children have been visiting friends and relatives in Bellefonte.
—Sheriff Kline shipped a few of his boarders to the Huntingdon Reformatory last week and has seven others left.
—A large number of new 1907 model automobiles have been ordered for spring delivery by Bellefonte men, we mean in their minds.
—Kline Woodring, Esq., has been having a bad season with his eyes and in consequence was compelled to keep indoors for several days.
—Mrs. Mary Gray, of Bellefonte, is making preparations to take a trip through Florida. She expects to be absent about one month.
—Catherine J. Vonada, of Zion, widow of Elias Vonada, left for Valley Falls, Ks., on last evening's train, where she will make her home for a time.
—The Bellefonte ministerium at its last meeting passed highly creditable resolutions on the departure of Rev. J. W. Moravcsaw who has left for other fields of labor.
—Among our callers this week was Miss Gertrude Conifer, of Yarnell, who thinks that the Centre Democrat has taken some strides forward recently and not least among the improvements she would note the "That Column." Others say the same thing.
—H. S. Taylor, wife and mother, were in Philadelphia on Saturday and witnessed the game of football between the Army and Navy teams. They were interested in the game since James Taylor is a student in the West Point Academy.
—The county commissioners have installed a new L. C. Smith visible typewriter so that the members of the board do not have to go "blind" when they write a letter or have to stand on their heads to read what they are doing. Quite a number of the same machines have been put in other offices of the town.
—It will be impossible for us to accept any additional advertising space for the holiday season, as about all the available space is taken up by regular advertisers on time contracts. Regular advertisers must confine themselves to regular space. During the past year we have refused many columns for want of space and in that time have not had occasion to solicit a line.
—One of the large public sales of the season will be that of ex-treasurer Harrison Kline, two miles east of Bellefonte in the Jacksonville road, on next Thursday the 13th. He has a large equipment and intends to retire from the active work of farming, so that everything will be sold without any reservation; and the stock and implements are all high grade.
—Mrs. John Raymond, who a short time ago was taken to the Bellefonte Hospital in rather a serious condition, is now at her home in excellent health. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond both speak in the highest terms of the treatment Mrs. Raymond received at the hands of those who have the institution in charge. There was nothing left undone that would add to her comfort or be conducive to speedy recovery.
—The attendance at the skating rink these days is quite large, and the sport seems to have the old-time fascination for young and old. Persons who were experts in flourishing times of the old rink do not feel that it affects their dignity to go down and put on the rollers for a glide over the floor. Mr. Taylor is conducting the place on a good plan and there is no disorderly conduct, and the rink is liberally patronised by all good people.
—One day last week Bert Bathurst, of Bellefonte, was up in the pines, above Coleville, looking for rabbits. As he was walking along one jumped out of the brush in front of him, when Jacob Cole, who was out for the same sport, happened to see it, and raising his gun, fired. The bullet just grazed the chin of Bathurst, making a slight wound. It is unnecessary to say that Jake was badly frightened and Bert was glad he was still living.
—An evening school for working boys was organized at the Y. M. C. A. on this evening last with an enrollment of twenty employed boys. The class has entered on a term of ten weeks with two evenings per week devoted to common school branches taught by Prof. F. E. Pray. Members of the association are charged $4, in installments for the term of twenty nights. This makes the average expense for each member about six cents per subject, per evening.
—Persons who have their sale bills printed at this office receive a notice in the sale register free that reaches over one thousand each week in the county. They can get the best of work at this office at reasonable prices. We use the best quality of paper and have first class workmen to do your printing promptly. The Centre Democrat does the most of the sale bill printing, for the reason that the public has learned that it gives you the best satisfaction all around.
—Among those who witnessed the St. W. U. P. football game at Pittsburg on Thanksgiving was Thomas Beaver, of Bellefonte. To put in the extra time he, with six others, hired an automobile to take in the sights of the Smoky City. While turning a corner one of the wheels smashed and the occupants, in the twinkling of an eye, landed on the hard paved street, "Tom" trying to plow it up with his nose. His face now looks like some of the pumpkins he raised out at his farm this summer.
—On Monday a prominent citizen of the town stopped at this office to compliment the editor and some of our good neighbors on High Street for sweeping the street and having all the rubbish removed. We appreciate his good judgment but as we could not rob another man of the credit we had to inform him that the credit was due to our energetic street commissioner who keeps the principal thoroughfares of the town in such excellent shape most of the time. The fact is that the editor of the paper like many of the neighbors, is so much engrossed in other matters that he would forget to sweep the street until someone would remind him.
—Call a woman an old hen and she will undoubtedly lay for you.

RECENT DEATHS.
GOTTLIEB HAAG—One of the best known citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity died at the Bellefonte Hospital, Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Haag had been in ill health for almost a year and his death was due to infirmities to old age. The deceased was born in Wittenberg, Mehrstetten, Germany, June 14, 1829, making his age 77 years, 5 months and 16 days. He was the son of George Haag, and learned the carpenter's trade in his native land, and in 1854 he came to America. After residing in Schuylkill county, Cresson, Pottsville and Williamsport, he located at Pleasant Gap where he built a hotel and distillery. Nineteen years ago he came to Bellefonte. He is the owner of the "Hotel Haag" property at this place and other real estate. November 13, 1854 he was married to Cathern Trezy of Wittenberg, Germany. In Nov. 1894 they celebrated their Golden Wedding with a big dinner at the Hotel Haag Bellefonte. All the prominent people of the town were present. Mrs. Haag died June 1905. They had no children of their own but reared two boys who were like sons to them, namely John C. Mulfinger of Pleasant Gap and Harry Haag of Bellefonte. He also leaves two brothers and three sisters namely George of Switzerland; Mrs. Magdalen Ruse, Germany; Mrs. John Schielerberger, of Warrensburg, Mo.; Philip, of Williamsport; Mrs. John Renner, of Wittenberg, Germany. The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Union Cemetery.
Tuesday the will of Mr. Haag was probated. To Margaret Scheitemberger, of Warrensburg, Missouri, and Sarah Haag, of Williamsport, he gives the cash on hand in bank, share and share alike, but it is not to exceed $100 each. To John C. Mulfinger he bequeathed a certain mortgage which the deceased held which is a lien on the property at Pleasant Gap, together with the accrued interest thereon. Harry Haag, his adopted son, and John C. Mulfinger, get all his personal property, share and share alike, excepting the other bequests in the will. Dr. Henry Munchach he gave $200, his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Reiter, of Mehrstetten, Oberampt, Missigen, Wittenberg, Germany, he bequeathed $200; his sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Fisher, of Schoplock, Gutenberg Oberampt Kirchheim of the Tock, Germany, he bequeathed $300. After all the bequests made in the will have been satisfied, the rest of the estate goes to Harry Haag. When the will was made Alois Kohlecker, of Milroy, was appointed his executor. After his death R. A. Beck, of Bellefonte, was appointed and will act as such.
MRS. MARGARET HOSTERMAN—widow of the late David Hosterman, died at Ocoala, Ohio, Nov. 27, 1906, after an illness of several weeks, feeble from the infirmities of age, and a couple of years ago suffered an attack of illness which required an operation. She became much better, and enjoyed very fair health considering her age until her illness of the past few weeks. She suffered intensely, but bore her affliction with Christian fortitude. She was born in Centre county, Pa., and was aged 75 years, 10 months and 20 days. She married Nov. 8, 1833. David Hosterman and they continued to reside in Pennsylvania until 1865, when they removed to Ohio. They located in Ocoala which remained her home until death. Her husband preceded her to the other shore 18 years ago. To their union were born eight children. The two oldest died in infancy and Lewis in 1887. Those living are: Mrs. B. S. Decker, Sandusky county; Mrs. L. A. Kanable and John Hosterman, Ocoala; Mrs. T. E. Underwood, Sycamore, and Mrs. Dennis Frost, Rosefarm, Ohio. In her young days she joined the Reformed church, but after being in Ohio a number of years she united with the U. B. church of Ocoala. She was a daughter of Jesse Vore, of Haines township, who died in Ohio, whither he had removed.
ALEXANDER MILLER—One of Harris township's highly respected citizens, died Friday morning about 3 o'clock at his home near Shingleton. Several weeks ago he was hauling corfodder from the field when the load upset. He fell from it and had his leg broken. He about recovered from that part of the accident, but it is thought that he was injured internally, as he complained of having a severe pain in the breast. His age was 51 years and 5 months, and he died in the house where he was born. He was unmarried, and for a number of years was a deacon in the Lutheran church. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: John, David and George, of Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Jacob Herman, of Lemont; Phoebe and Mary, at home. The funeral took place Sunday; interment at Boalsburg.
MRS. DAVID P. MARK—died at Graham station, of the after effects of typhoid fever after an illness of six weeks. Mrs. Mark was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos Young, the former being deceased. She was born in Bedford county about 32 years ago. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, two daughters, Margaret and Katherine, and two sons Harold and Walter; two sisters Elizabeth, wife of M. E. Mark, of Philipsburg; and Rose, wife of J. Paul Clark, of West Palm Beach, Fla., and four brothers, John D., of Neb.; Wm. of Pitcairn, Robt. and Arthur, of Philipsburg. Interment at Mocks cemetery on Friday.

CLYDE C. HOLT—son of Oscar and Mattie White Holt (the latter now deceased) died of heart disease at Williamsport Hospital, on Thursday evening, Nov. 29th, 1906. The deceased was born and resided in Burnside township this county, until a few years ago, when he moved with his father to Winburne, Clearfield county, but of late had been living at Barnesboro, Penn., previous to his serious illness; he was past 25 years of age, and leaves to mourn his sad death his wife, one small daughter two years of age, his father, step-mother, five brothers and three sisters; his remains were taken to Winburne, where funeral was held on last Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
JOSEPH E. TIBBENS—who was found on the trolley tracks in Altoona a few nights ago in an injured condition, died in the Altoona hospital Friday morning, aged about 34 years. He is survived by a wife and two children. The remains were taken to Loganton, and the funeral held from the residence of his father, George Tibbens, Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Deceased was formerly a mail carrier between Mill Hall and Loganton. When he was found on the trolley tracks in Altoona his right arm was crushed near the shoulder and it had to be amputated. There was also a big gash in his head and his body badly bruised.
MRS. JULIAN REEDER—of Mt. Eagle died at the home of her son, Austin, of that place, night of 24 ult. A paralytic attack nine years ago, led to her death in addition to an attack of pneumonia. She was the widow of Wm. Reeder who was a soldier in the civil war and was killed at the battle of Antietam. Deceased is survived by six sons and one daughter, namely, George, of Williamsburg; Daniel of Tyrone; James of Lorain, O.; Austin, of Mt. Eagle; Herbert, of Pittsburg and Mrs. Lizzie Funk, of Altoona. She was a member of the Christian church, and was buried in the Curtin cemetery.
MRS. MARY M. LINT—died suddenly at Dixon, Ill., on Nov. 29th, from heart failure. She was born in Bannerman, Snyder county, and lived at Zion, this county, for a number of years, being a daughter of Mrs. Caroline Garthoff, K. Lint died in July and no children survive. The following brothers and sisters survive: J. S. Garthoff, Waterloo, Iowa; James D. Garthoff, Lock Haven; J. F. Garthoff, Mrs. Katherine Garthoff and Mrs. Caroline Garthoff, her mother, of Bellefonte. Her age was 50 years.

RICHARD H. DOWNING—a prominent member of the Society of Friends, and a man widely known in business circles died at his home, 1613 Race Street, Philadelphia, Saturday morning, following a stroke of apoplexy on Wednesday. He was very well known to residents of Bellefonte and Centre county through large business interests here, having been associated in business enterprises with the late Daniel A. Boaris. In 1861 he engaged in the coal business in Centre county and afterwards became president of the Bellefonte and Snow Shoe Railroad, remaining there until the road was absorbed by the Pennsylvania Railroad. ADAM GREENINGER—of near Rebersburg, died Monday evening about 9 o'clock from heart failure. He was 52 years of age and a man who had hosts of friends. He was a member of the Reformed church and lived a life consistent with its teachings. He is survived by a widow, two sons and two daughters. The funeral took place this morning.
MRS. JOEL DEBLER—who resided near Rebersburg, died from heart failure Thursday morning, at 9 o'clock. She was 67 years of age and was held in high esteem by the people of that community. She was a member of the Lutheran church. She is survived by a husband, three daughters and one son. The funeral took place Sunday.
MRS. MAHALA FRANK—wife of Thom as Frank, died suddenly at her home at Baileyville, on evening of 26, from heart trouble. Deceased's maiden name was Mahala Shill; her age was 53 years, and five months. Surviving her are a husband and two sons, William and Edward. Interment at Graysville.
