On account of the great amount of freight traffic to and from this point, James Snyder has been installed as permanent operator, who will move his family here as soon as he can get a suitable house. Another stride upward for Unionville.

Bennie Fredericks predicts that the coming winter will be a mild one and in consequence there will be a big crop of weddings, among which will be —, well, never mind.

On last Sunday Mrs. Jasper Holt gave birth to a pair of twin girls that weighed only a little over two pounds each, and on Tuesday morning one of them died. While they were mere midgets they were said to be well formed, apparently healthy and were beautiful little ladies; it is a pity that one was taken away. The parents have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Mrs. Ed. Root, of Bellwood, is delighted with the Centre Democrat, and now she wonders how she ever was able to keep house without it.

George Morrison takes the gingersnap for the biggest hog in our town. That is, he killed the biggest hog this season; weighed 468 lbs.—not estimated.

Those who attended the missionary entertainment at Tusseyville, on Sunday evening, report it a grand success.

Butcherings is all the rage here. Buckwheat cakes and sausage are on the list.

A doctor is sometimes obliged to send several bills before a patient responds to his treatment.

GREGG TWP.

MURRAYVILLE NO. 2

Sunday was an ideal day, considering it being Dec. 2nd.

There was preaching in St. Paul's church, Sunday morning, by Rev. Snyder, assisted by Rev. Cooper, from Gettysburg.

Mr. Decker transacted business in Spring Mills, Saturday.

Nevin Felder, wife and little son, spent Sunday afternoon at Mrs. Wm. Royer's.

Miss Blanch Limbert spent Saturday with her friend Miss Verna Rachau.

T. H. Doutys saw mill was in operation the past week.

The corn through this section is husked and stored away; there are yet some potatoes to be raised; as soon as they are stored away we are ready for Old Winter.

Butcherings is all the go.

Harvey and Samuel Long spent last Saturday at Wolf's Store helping their brother, Frank, butcher several porkers.

Coxy's Army, in full uniform, "went down the pike," Sunday, five o'clock.

Miss Katherine Long spent Sunday in the west end of town.

George C. Sittler met with an accident Sunday morning which might have been serious; a vicious cow in some way trampled him down and kicked him. He was struck on the lower jaw, his lip was bruised, but otherwise he was unhurt. That is being cow-kicked.

We failed to hear the chautauquian band this far. Boys get your cowbells, horsefiddle and tin pans, we want to hear the music.

Don't break the springs,
 You will remember
 When the old gent sings,
 HOY'S SCHOOL.

Sunday was a pleasant day to be out on account of the sunshine.

Abner Limbert and his two halfmoons crossed the mountains on Saturday in a hurry.

Butcherings is all the go through this valley.

All persons who want to get some wood sawed call on Greenoble & Ertle for they have a grand rig.

L. H. Ducklett on Monday to cross the seven-mountains.

Hurrah! Hurrah! for A. L. in Brushvalley.

Store News!

If a prize were to be offered for the largest number of Coats sold on last Saturday, that prize would be awarded to Katz & Co.

On last Saturday we sold twenty-seven customers that formerly purchased their goods from mail order firms, and not only saved them money on their purchases but the freight besides. The next time you come to our store stick one of your mail order catalogues under your arm; bring it along and lets compare prices. You will be surprised to learn how successful we are at underselling all mail order firms. We will discount any price made by any catalogue firm, even if we are compelled to give our goods away. We mean business.
