BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-The Kline sale last Thursday, was largely attended. -Remember, no paper will be issued from this office next week.

-Miss Helen Dunney was a visitor at the Shank home last week. -Miss Lillian Williams, of this place, is visiting friends in Philipsburg

-Sheriff Kline has eight boarders- this place. two awaiting trial and six under sentence. -Charles Smith, of Warriors Mark, was a business visitor in Bellefonte, Sat-

-The James Carson sale takes place to day east of town on the Cameron

-Mrs. M. C. Gephart, of Bellefonte, departed Thursday afternoon for a visit to friends in Philadelphia.

-W. F. Dunning, the organist at the Methodist church, is organizing a class in organ and piano instructions, -Mrs. Thomas H. Benner, of Atlantic City, is in Bellefonte at present and will probably spend the winter with

-John Mann, of Orvis, Pa., was transacting business in town on Monday. He -William Kramer, the painter, hada bad attack of painter's colic on Thursday morning. By evening he was

-Mrs. Lulu Fore, of Saxon, arrived in Bellefonte on Friday and will spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and which comes to the Mrs. William Bathurst.

-The public schools of Bellefonte will -The public schools of Bellefonte will readily understand why Harry K. Thaw close on Friday the 21st in all the various killed Stanford White at Madison departments, and will observe the usual holiday vacation, until Monday 31st. -Saturday the Bellefonte Furnace Co.

from Renovo. It will be used principally for shifting in the yard out at the furnace. -Miss Mabel Harner, of Philadelphia, departed Thursday afternoon for her over the mountain.

he has a good position with the Lake few equals.

he knocked down 250 pins.

with delight by the children of the Belleon Friday of next week and continue until Monday the 31st.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and family, of Beaver Falls, arrived in Bellefonte Friday afternoon and will spend the holidays with Mrs. Mary Ann Johnon and Was J. A. Aikens, -Miss Anna Shaffner, of Philadelphia, is in Bellefonte superintending usekeeping at John Lyon's while Mrs. Lyon is recovering from an operation she recently underwent. -Samuel Mulbarger has given up hisposition with the Americ an Lime & Stone company in this place and with his family will move to Williamsport where he has secured employment.

business, and gave us a call. Mr. Moore our county. pleasing to meet and an ex- house on Friday evening, Dec. 21st.

-Dr. A W. Hafer and Charles Smith. represented the Bellefonte Council, No.

-Prof. Rothrock, of Boalsburg, was in town on Saturday, on his way to pay his father David Rothrock, near Fillmore, a visit. The latter has been in failing health for some time and is near A. gymnasium in which the Bellefonte 80 years; his condition is considered crit- team won the laurels. It was one of the ical but not hopeless.

-The Daily News says:-Samuel H. for Postmaster of Bellefonte and is cirmakes four candidates now in the field, namely, Samuel H. Williams, T. H. Harter, Hard P. Harris and S. H. Diehl. There are several dark horses mentioned.

-John Love, who in boyhood lived in Bellefonte, then went to Oklahoma City and for the past three years has last week on his way to New York city.

Robert Harnish, on Tuesday, moved Enough centre county people went over there in recent years to start a little col-responsible for his strong and very em- and work out the great problems of life. phatic utterances. A good thing for him to have along would be a blouse and overalls so that when he gets down under the machine he will not soil his vance so that he can reserve skates.

All persons in masque will have to reveal their identity before being admitted.

Grand march at 9 o'clock sharp, unmasking at 10 o'clock. Admission 15 cents; ing at 10 o'clock. Admission 15 cents; or postpone giving a description of them until another time.

Sion might go to bed at night fich and was one of the brighest attorneys in the kind in the west.

S. P. Batturast. 407 Smithfield St., Pitts inherited muchof his legal mind and talent, and thus can be depended on at all times. We wish the young barrister whose hard working husband hasn't had a new suit of clothes or a decent of the brighest attorneys in the kind in the west.

S. P. Batturast. 407 Smithfield St., Pitts inherited muchof his legal mind and talent, and thus can be depended on at all times. We wish the young barrister whose hard working husband hasn't had a new suit of clothes or a decent of the brighest attorneys in the kind in the west.

S. P. Batturast. 407 Smithfield St., Pitts inherited muchof his legal mind and talent, and thus can be depended on at all times. We wish the young barrister whose hard working husband hasn't had a new suit of clothes or a decent of the brighest attorneys in the kind in the west.

S. P. Batturast. 407 Smithfield St., Pitts burg. Pa.

S. M. Terseter, Tylersville, Pa.

Q. W. Lepter, Laurelton, Pa.

-Found, a fur glove-owner call for

-Read Green's ad to day, found in another colunn.

-Samuel Rider and wife, of Jersey Shore, formerly of Coburn, were callers. -Mrs. Georg T. Barnhart, of Frank-lin, spent several weeks with friends, in -D. L. Bartges, of the Cloverdale farm at Earlystown, was a pleasant caller, on Friday.

—Benner Way was in town to inform of Altoona, are visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Donat his home near Waddle.

-Mercury, on Wednesday morning, was 7 below zero Sunday and Monday, brought about five inches snow. -Papa James Gault, of Bellefonte, is wearing a smile over the arrival of -M. C. Gephart, the music dealer, has some important aunouncements to has some important aunouncements to other day. He will now have to get a at her home on Quaker Hill. It is said her heart to God early in life, and it is hustle on. -Misses Merriman and Blanchard of > hardware store. They are suitable for Christmas Gifts.

one of the Johnstown Lutheran churches, is expected to fill the pulpit in the Lutheran church of this place, on Sabbath, reports that place growing in importance December 30, next, morning and evening -Frank Graham, now connected > to his parents, who recently moved -After seeing "Girl of The Streets,

Square roof garden in New York City. -Jacob Lee, of Hublersburg, returned Monday from Lewistown where he had the statesman, philosopher and merreceived a second-handed locomotive been visiting his son Clyde, who holds a chant. good position at the large works at Burnham. Mr. Lee had a very pleasant time and reports things pretty lively ter. Mrs. H. W. Tate, of Petriken Hall, ing in the Recorder's office in the absence of Recorder, John C. Rowe, who sence of Recorder, John C. Rowe, who —D. F. Fortney, Esq. of Bellefonte. -Richard Harpster, the son of Mr. and accompanied his wife to Philadelphia Mrs. George Harpster, of Bellefonte, was where she underwent an operation. For an arrival home from Franklin, where work of that kind Mr. Schaffer has but Shore railroad.

—Mr. Clubstone came to Bellefonte the other day and of course nothing would do but to break the bowling record —"Girl of The Streets comes to the opera house on Friday evening 21st. The play is crowned with amusing in cidents and has had an overwhelming to the operation of the says that consequence of the says that the operation of the operation of the says that the operation of the operation of the operation of the says that the operation of the operation o on the Y. M. C. A. alleys. In tenframes amount of success. It is said to be fonte public school, which will commence tipstaffs. in the Centre county courts has Street been suffering for the last two months succeed.

-"An altogether delightful play" is visitor in Bellefonte Friday. the universal sentiment of the immense audiences which have witnessed the in Thos. Moore, of Centre Hall, with Streets." The play has been an instant Mrs. Moore, were in town Saturday on hit this season and the press of surbusiness, and gave us a call. Mr. Moore rounding towns is unanimous in its is one of the prominent pedagogues of praise. It will be seen at the opera

-The Bellefonte Central Railroad Co. as well as ever. have put a siding into the mountain of of Bellefonte, left Friday morning for slag that is found at the Bellefonte Fur-Harrisburg to attend the district meet-nace Co. It is being loaded on cars and ing of the Royal Arcanum which was used along the railroad. The process by snowed all day with a drizzle of rain. Milesburg, Tuesday morning at 90 clock, held in that city that evening. They which the slag is loaded is something novel, and it does the work to perfection. We don't know exactly whom to give the credit for the patent-Supt Thomas or his right hand man, Homer Crissman.

-Friday night there was an interesting game of basket ball in the Y. M. C. fastest games of the kind ever played here, and everybody who witnessed it The Daily News says:—Samuel H. was highly pleased. The score was 28 Diehl has entered the list as a candidate to 18 in favor of Bellefonte. Those who The score was 28 are interested in sports of this kind, who culating a petition in his favor. This are not attending these games, are missing a treat.

-Miss Mary Cole, daughter of architect Robert Cole, of Bellefonte, who is learning to be a trained nurse at the -The many acquaintances of John Bellefonte Hospital, cut her left hand C. Miller, formerly of Bellefonte but who about one month ago. It was so trivial and has gone to Cincinnati, Ohio, to physicians lanced her side and took from it about one quart of puss. She one of the best tenant houses in town. is now resting easier and it is thought she will speedily recover.

-Rev. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the been with the Barber Asphalt Paving Presbyterian church, Sunday evening company of Pittsburg, was in Bellefonte preached a sermon to the students of the Bellefonte Academy. It was a masterly discourse and should have been heard by his family to Lewistown where he selevery young man in the town. He tried cured work in the Burnham IronWorks. to impress upon the hearers that every young man should chose a trade or profession and bend all his energies to become a master mind along these chosen -Dr. David Dale, of Bellefonte, has lines. He also stated that all great inpurchased through John P. Lyon a ventions and all reforms have originated Franklin automobile, and from now on, with God, who has been transmitting for a month or more, he will hardly be them to men who are willing to study

-Monday evening County Commissioner Calvin Weaver was showing a number of his friends a few old relics clothes. It's a good looking machine and he is learning quite rapidly to operate it. which he gathered up during the last few years. Among them was a silver dollar dated 1799, which has been in his -A Masque Carnival will be held at is one of the dollars that hasn't burned -A Masque Carnival will be held at the skating rink, on new New Year's night, Tuesday, Jan. 1st. The public in general is cordially invited to participate in and witness the Masque Carnival on the above date. Fine music by the Bellefonte Orchestra, and the best of order will be maintained. Persons conderwill be maintained. Persons contemplating going in masque should no should be maintained as the skating rink, on new New Year's a hole in his pocket. He has other coins of various denominations, although not so ancient. In this collection of old money he has a good selection of what was known during the "Civil War" as "Shin Plasters," issued by the United State Gov., and it was of such unstable templating going in masque should no ready to give legal advice. His father ment Co., one of the dollars that hasn't burned a hole in his pocket. He has other coins of various denominations, although not so ancient. In this collection of old money he has a good selection of what was known during the "Civil War" as "Shin Plasters," issued by the United State Gov., and it was of such unstable value that a man having it in his possession.

Give him a good house.

—The late Hon. A. O. Furst, of Bellefonte, has been succeeded by his son, James C. Furst, who has been at the bar long enough to take up his father's practice and give general satisfaction. He is a studious young man and will be found in his office each day represents the Northwestern Improvement. tify Manager Taylor a few days in ad sion might go to bed at night rich and ready to give legal advice. His father ment Co., one of the vance so that he can reserve skates, get up the next morning as poor as a was one of the brighest attorneys in the kind in the west.

-Ex treasurer Yearick favored us

-Mr. E. Dearmitt and wife, of Min-

-The Penna. Development company held an important meeting on Monday. -Miss Nell Stevens, of Sunbury, is visiting Miss Alice Lowery of East Bishop St., Bellefonte.

-John B. Hoffman. justic of the peace at South Philipsburg, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday.

-While no paper will be issued by us

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClellan and child, of Altoona, arrived in Bellefonte. Tuesday, where they attended the Yarnell-McClellan wedding.

-Mrs. Frank Derstine and little child, achy, on Allegheney street.

-If you want to laugh and grow fat all in one night go to Garman's opera house Friday evening, Dec. 28th, and see George F. Hall in "Hello Bill."

-A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Bellefonte, have a fine selection of bas-kets in the show window of Potter-Hoy lege at Philadelphia, is at home to spend the venerable Frederick Sensor a veter not interfere the work will progress until it is completed. Skating Rink in the Armory, Christmas with a hotel at Sharon, Pa, spent several days of the past week in Bellefonte. He had been to Philadelphia on a visit thing you ever saw. thing you ever saw. -Lattimer Daley, a Bellefonte boy', who has secured a position as freight brakeman on the Pittsburg Diviwhich comes to the opera house on sion, is on leave of absence for a fe Friday, December 21st, you will more days visiting his mother on Logan St. -In another column of this issue will be found James Schofield's new ad. It is something novel, and exceedingly poetical, typifying the versatile mind of

> -Tuesday morning the Bellefonte old weather, however, made Bert Taywho had been confined to his residence most of last week with a severe cold, is again found in his office ready to receive a $5 or $10 fee. He says that

-Joseph Twitmire, son of W. L. Twitmire, has moved back to Bellefonte again, and is now firing on Theodore e knocked down 250 pins.

The holiday vacation will be hailed the most popular play descriptive of Cherry's engine on the Tyrone & Lewistown railroad. He resides in one of -James Kane, of Bellefonte, one of the Samuel Deihl's houses on Willowbank Lewistown. He is a young man who is underwent an opperation. She is getgetting along nicely and deserves to ting along as well as can be expected -A. H. Rown, of Snow Shoe, was a

> -Tuesday afternoon the friends of John Knisely were glad to greet him on the street again after a very severe illness. He says that he is feeling all right but his pantaloons don't just exactly fit as he thinks they ought. He is thow gaining strength each day, and will not be long until he will be just

-Weather was quite disagreeable last week and beginning of this week, a mixture of snow and rains. Sunday it

-If you are desirous of having one good time during the holiday season don't forget the Masque Carnival which will be held at the Bellefonte skating for the last six months or more has been that she paid no attention to it. A coup-editing the Barnesboro Star and run-le of weeks ago a little lump appeared ning an insurance agency in that town under her arm. It grew worse and final-Lowry. of Bellefonte, to tear it down aly developed. be surprised to learn that he has ly it was lanced a couple of times, but and rebuild it on Curtin street, where it sold out all his interests in that place it gave her little relief. Saturday the will be rented The house is substantial and has gone to Cincinnati, Ohio, to physicians lanced her side and took ly finished in the inside and will make

-Special attention is called to M. C. Gephart's piano announcement to be found on page 6 of this issue. Some Fairview cemetery, special inducements are offered on the high grade instruments he handles. He can sell them as cheap as anyone, and then he is a reliable dealer and permanently engaged in business and has a reputation to maintain. These are advantages not to be overlooked when you are thinking of placing a good instru-ment in your home. Read his adv. ary-

-Friday evening, Dec 28th, the theatre-going people of Bellefonte will be given a genuine treat. George F. Hall will appear in the musical comedy en-titled "Hello Bill," which is brim full and running over with wit and humor. It will be remembered that Mr. Hall was in Bullefonte several years ago and was seen in "The American Girl." He made Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvamade a big hit then and is much better now. His imitations of prominent act-

RECENT DEATHS.

Joseph Tressler: - who forsome years has been a respected resident of Pleasant Gap, died Friday morning at 9 o'clock at his home in that place, from cancer of the stomach, from which he had been ailing for some time. He had just about completed a new home at the Gap but he told his friends he would never live to occupy it. About one year ago he thought he was going blind but he recovered his sight and in that direction was much improved. He next week the office will be kept open for the transaction of business, and job printing.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClellan

McClellan

McClellan

William Ross, of Pleasant Gap. The deceased was a member of a family of ten children, of which Daniel Tressler is the only child now living, and he is eighty years of age. The funeral took place Monday morning at ten o'clock. Interment in the Pleasant Gap ceme-

MRS. ELIZABETH SENSOR:-after a lingering illness of more than a year, died at her home in Fleming, on Tuesday, the 18th., at the age of 76 years. This aged Mother in Israel, whose maiden that she is threatened with diphtheria. said of her-she was a life long member -Wilber T. Twitmire, student at the of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Christmas with his parents and friends. | an of the Civil War, and the following hristmas Gifts.

—Wednesday the foundation for the children: E. Curtis. Reyonville; Mrs A.

—Rev. Smith, an assistant pastor in new addition to the Bellefonte Hospital G. Ammerman, of Blue Ball; George and was completed If the cold weather does William, of Tyrone; and Misses Allie and Minnie at home. The funeral will take place on Tuesday 10 clock A. There will be a barrel race at the Rev. Dr M. Piper. She was a truly good woman, kind neighbor and an indulgent and loving wife and mother. May she rest in peace,

MRS. HANNAH LUCAS :- whose maiden name was McBride, and who was the widow of Charles Lucas, deceased some sion, is on leave of absence for a few | 39 years ago, died of cancer of the tongue, on Dec. 14, 1906, aged 82 years, months and 15 days. She was a faithful wife and dutiful mother, and a good neighbor. She made her home with her only son and child, Robt. B. Lucas, who with his wife, did all they could to make her happy and comfortable. Her re- in Walker. $1. nains were laid beside those of her husband in Curtin cemetery, on Sunday 16, plumbers had a picnic. They were in Rev. J. Zeigler, her pastor, assisted by great demand all over the town. The Rev. Bingham, of the U. B. church, of ficiating. She was baptized in her 73rd year, having professed Christ some years previous and remained faithful unto

NEWLIN IRVIN :- after a serious illness of several weeks, Newlin Irvin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Irvin, died at the home of his parents in Bellefonte, at 7 o'clock this, Thursday, morning, result of diphtheria; paralysis finally developed and brought the crisis. He was been and recently had Boggs and Snow Shoe twp. about 26 years of age, and recently had succeeded T. A. Ardell as proprietor of the Ardell Lumber Co., at this place, and been suffering for the last two months with a large lump on his neck. It is very sore and he says that the pain is so severe, that at times he can feel it to the tips of his fingers. It looks like a tumor more than anything else.

—Walter Rankin, son of W. B. Rankin, son of W. B. Rankin of Bellefonte, who houlds a clerical position with a large and influential firm whose business is building railroads, has been tansferred from Mt. Union to the position with a large and on Tuesday, for the second time, and on Tuesday, for the second time, and four brothers, all of the Potential to Mas. Kate Ayers:—wife of Geo. A. Ayers, of Altoona, died at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-hor and the horizon of last week of typhoid fever, after an illness of several months. Deceased was born in Bellefonte, June 14th, 1882, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wolf, now of Altoona. She is survived by her husband and one child; also her parents and four brothers, all of the Potential Tool of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the bellefonte Methodate the home of Altoona, died at the home of Altoona, died at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Agers, of Altoona, died at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of the problem of the cousin, Mrs. Laura McPhale, in Alle-horse farm on the problem of Mountain city. Interment at that place.

MARTIN SMITH :-- after being sick with rheumatism and dropsy for a num-ber of months died at his home at Marengo on Tuesday of last week. was a native of this county and was about fifty-seven years of age. For a number of years he kept a general chase in College twp. $5500. mercantile store and was the postmaster at Guyer. He is survived by his third wife. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, interment being rural play to achieve any marked success made in the Ross church graveyard.

of Milesburg.

ERADA WALIZER :- the fifteen-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Walrink on Tuesday evening, January 1st.
Manager "Dick" Taylor is making elaborate preparations for this event, and thus it will be the first great event in the Walizer was critically ill with the same

-Several years ago Dr. R. G. H. Mrs. Fred, W. Gowland:-formerly Hayes, of Bellefonte, built a private san- of Philipsburg, died Monday evening at itarium in the rear of his family resi her home in York. She had undergone dence on Spring street. Since he has an opperation for appendicitis on Sun moved back he has decided to abandon day, December 9th, and seemed to be

VESTA' BREON:-the sixteen-year-old daughter of Henry Breon, died at her parent's home in Millheim, Thursday morning of consumption, after a year's illness. The funeral was held on Sunday morning. Interment was made in the SAMUEL KELLERMAN :- after a brief illness, died at his home at Scotia on Wednesday night of last week. He was aged about sixty-eight years and is survived by a wife and family of grown up children. The funeral was held Saturday.

-All trains have been late the past week, due to heavy traffic and holiday shipments. -On Tuesday a large throng of State College students passed through town enroute for their homes to spend their holiday vacation. -Mrs. James R. Hughes returned

Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. -The Bellefonte Academy are holding

Avoid alum and alum phosphate baking powders. The label law requires that all the ingredients be named on the labels. Look out for the alum compounds.

NOTE.—Safety lies in buying only Royal Baking Powder, which is a pure, cream of tartar baking powder, and the best that can be made.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Calvin Garfield Weaver - Aaronsburg Calvin Garfield Weaver - Aaronsburg Lulu V. Throssell - Millheim dirs, is having his life burdened by applications for the thirty positions he has at his disposal Three thousand people Lulu V. Throssell Jesse B. Yarnell Margaret M. McClellen - Bellefonte

REAL ESLATE TRANSFERS. Benj. P. Wilhelm et ux to Margaret Parker, Nov. 29, 1905; lot in Philipsburg

Linden Hall Lumber Co. to Laurelton Lumber Co., Dec. 12, 1905; 4 tracts in Miles twp. $1. Linden Hall Lumber Co, to Wm. Witmer & Son's Co., Dec. 17, 1906; 23 tracts Irwin H. Fravel to Edgar I. Bechdel, Dec. 13, 1606; ¼ of an acre in Liberty twp. $410.

Wm. F. Steele to Gussie Steele, Dec. 11. 1906; house and lot No. 11, in South Philipsburg boro. $1.

Wm. F. Steele, to Gussie Steele, Dec. 11, 1906; house and lot No. 10, in South Philipsburg boro. $1. Hanah Hamilton's exrs. to Susan E.

Keeler, Dec. 7, 1906; house and lot in Spring twp. $580.

wealth of Penna. Oct. 15, 1906; 12.789 had a promising future before him. At time of going to press no arrangements time of going to press no arrangements had been made as to the time of funeral, counties of Union Lucomities and Clin. had been made as to the time of funeral. counties of Union, Lycoming, and Clin-

Bottorf, Dec. 17, 1906; 254 acres 203 perches in Potter twp. $6500. Exrs. of Jacob Bottorf to Hall Bottorf,

Dec. 17. 1906; 2 tracts, in all 100 acres 92 perches in College twp. $6000,

Exrs. of Jacob Bottorf to M. Elizabeth Olewine. Dec. 17, 1906; 191 acres 16 per chase in College twp. $6000,

WANTED:—position by strong man in butcher shop to learn meat cutting for city trade Wages no consideration. Address, Box 28.
Spring Mills, Pa. 50

"Quincy Adams Sawyer."

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" the latest since "The Old Homestead"-that kind Mrs Love Ann Taylor, -widow of of success any popularity which makes Thomas B. Taylor, died at her home at the name of the play a household word in every city where presented-has the the snow falling to a depth of nigh two of old age. She was only a month less distinction of being entirely different WILLIAMSPORT COMMERCIAL COLLEGE inches. Monday it also snowed all day to a depth of two inches, at night it changed to cooler and a freeze, Tuesday being bright but cold

—If you are desirous of baving one or old age. She was only a month less distinction of being entirely different than 92 years of age. Her husband from other rural plays. It is a clean, pure, sweet, wholesome play, without bitteness. Best of all, however, it is one and three daughters Mrs. Agnes Grant and Misses Florence and Lida Taylor, drama ever pretended to make such an important feature of its fun. The grant feature of its fun. The grant feature of its fun. important feature of its fun. The genuine country atmosphere is emphasized in the carefully correct and elaborate stage settings. Will be seen here Friday, January 4, 1907, at Garman's Opera

Samuel F. Esterline, of Sugarvalley New Year. No doubtful character will disease. The funeral of the daughter and Miss Anna M. Walker, of Wolfs be admitted.

Store, were married December 16, by Rev. Frank Wetzel, at his parsonage at Rebersburg.

NFORMATION WANTED.

PAUL KREAMER, ABTORSburg.

The following list of subscribers have been setting the Centre Democra: at different places, and removed without notifying us of the change or leaving directions with the post master. No doubt they are woudering why the paper does not reach them regularly. Any information regarding the present P. O. address of any of them, will be appreciated if sent to this office:

H. K. BRUNGART, Francisville, Ind. THOS. J. KEISTER, Coburn, Pa. GEO. W. BECHDEL, Mill Hall, Pa. MISS JENNIE WORRIL, Maitland, Pa. A J. KLING. Young wood, Pa. J. C. WITMER, Alexandria, Pa. J. T. YARNELL, Oleona, Pa. FRED KORLER, Troutville, Pa. B. S. YEARICK, Spring Mills, route 2.

ROBT W. THOMAS, 421 Bedford street, Johns WM. SANDERS, Jonsonburg, Pa. E. O. FRAVEL, Benore Pa. WM. BUCHANNON, Lemont, Pa. GEO. HEVERLY, Beech Creek, (Eddy LICK,) WM. SANDERS, Johnsonburg. SAMUEL E. BREON, Bellefonte. JOHN H. SHEASLEY. Durbin, W. Va. T. L. RIEMERT, Patton, Pa. R. M. GINGERICH. Centre Hall, Pa. M. FUNE, Parksburg, Pa.

MRS. J H. RUNKLE, Woodward, Pa. MAURICE GLEASON, Brisbin, Pa. WM HUNSICKER, Atlantic City, N. J. MRS. JAMES MARKLE, Franclinville Pa. R. P. LOHR, Altoona, No. 700 Seventh ave. MISS CLARA HOUVER, Bellefonte, (formerly Altoon's )

WILBER WILKINS, Bridgewater, S. D. F. S BING, Snow Shoe, LYON SHAY, New Brighton, Pa. J. H. DAVY, Yeagertown, Pa. SALLEY SEYLES, Zt n. R. EISENHUTH. Bellwood.

Teachers Want Offices.

Deputy State Superintendent of the Schools Henry Houck, who takes his Snow Shoe are after these thirty places, most of them school teachers

The fellow who sleeps with his watch under the pillow shouldn't mind the bed ticking.

PENNY A WORD ADV. Any subscriber can insert a want advertise ment in this column, one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words. Charges to others : cent a word, first issue, no adv. less than 25 cents; issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents. FOR SALE:—good hotel, Address P. O. Box 254, Bellefonte, Pa. 50

WANTED: -to rent a stocked farm. Inquire at Centre Democrat office.

FAT HOGS FOR SALE:—Apply to George Valentine Jr., Bellefonte, Pa. x1 FOR SALE-House and lot on North Spring street. W. Harrison Walker, Atty. FRESH COWS FOR SALE : - Apply to George Valentine Jr., Bellefonte, Pa. x1

FOR SALE: -6 fine shoats; weight between 75 or 100 lbs. M. C. Stover, Farmers Mills, Pa.

FOR SALE OR RENT: -1-horse farm 1 mile north of Millheim. Inquire of Mrs. Susan Kern, Millheim, or M. J. Kern, Bellefonte.

ESTRAY:—a stray dog came to my place; brown in color; white leg and breast; strap around his neck. H. S. Smull. Smullton. 50

FOR SALE :- One of the most fertile and best

FOR SALE OR RENT: Known as the John Ardell property, on Linn street. Beliefonte. This property has all modern conveniences and is desirably located. Apply to W. G. Runkle, Atty.

-Bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, English branches, Winter term begins January 2nd. 22 students accepted positions during November. Trial lessons and catalogue free. F. F. Healy, Proprietor.

SALESMEN WANTED:—to sell and deliver-teas, coffees, spices, baking powder and gro-cery specials; no better way to go in business for yourself; not necessary to invest any capi-tal. Call or address The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, 411 Lackawanna Avenue, Scranton, Pa. 47-6t

ANNUAL ELECTION:—The annual meeting of the Zion Cemetery association, of Centre Co., will be held in the Grange hall, on Tuesday, Jan. 1, 1907, for the election of officers, between Jan. 1, 1907, for the true.
the bours of 1 to 4 p. m.
JOHN W. EBY, Pres't.

S. W. SHAFFER Sect. LOST :—a deed for a tract of timber located in Taylor township. Clinton county, somewhere on the road from Aaronsburg to Coburn, then to Bellefonte and from Bellefonte to Howard. It was given by John Long. The finder will please return it, and get a reward, from N. H. Yearick, R. F. D., Nittany post office.

ANNUAL ELECTION:—The annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county, will be held in its office. Petrikin ball, Bellefonte, on Monday, Jan. 14, 1907, and the election of twelve directors for the consuling year, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. of said day.

FREDERICK KURTZ, Pres't.

D. F. LUSE, Sec'y. THE BOOK You've been searching for The Every Day Educator. It contains codifferent departments. Here are a few: Banking, Bookkeeping, Penmanship, Languages, Telegraphy, correspondence, short cuts in figures, secret cipher, how to apply for a situation, how to get out a patent how to educate yourself, common blutders corrected, correct thing in dress and manners. In fact almost everything you want to know. It contains 340 pages, sent postpaid for 25c. Stamps taken same as cash.

pages, sent postpani same as cash. HESTONVILLE BOOK STORE, 4901 Girard Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

The following prices prevailed Thursday The following prices are paid by SECHLER'& Bellefonte-Grain The following prices are paid by C. Y. Wag-