BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Philip Garbrick has recovered from his attack of rheumatism.

-James Shook has returned to Huntingdon, where he is attending Juniata the opera house on Jan. 9th. college.

home on Willowbank street, suffering with tonsilitis.

Bellefonte, spent Tuesday with friends at Unionville

-Revival meetings have been started of two weeks with friends in Willamsthe Bellefonte United Brethren sport. church. The public is cordially invited. -Mrs. Platts and her two children phia. They accompanied Dr J. Allison flood student at West Point, and Harry Tay- spent the holidays with his parents at lor, of Baltimore, were home during the Julian. holiday season.

on his silk hat and is now attending the session of legislature which commenced at noon Tuesday.

-Rev. James Stein, pastor of the Bellefonte, left Wednesday for Sunbury Bellefonte Methodist church, held an interesting watch meeting on Monday night. It was well attended.

evening for Elizabeth City, North Caro lina, on business of importance.

freight station, has been promoted to the hart, on Thomas street. position of car recorder in the Bellefonte vards.

-John Strunk has accepted the position at the Pennsylvania freight station Rees, and more with others. in Bellefonte made vacant by Harry Smith who is now employed in another department of the work.

-Miss Miller, one of Lock Haven's accomplished young ladies and Mr. and —Joseph Mitchell, son of banker Isaac Mrs. Daniel Nolen, of Curwensville, were Mitchell, who holds an important posiguests the past week of Mrs. Henrietta tion at the large works at Burnham, Nolen on East High street,

-Senator P. Gray Meek, of Bellealthough he must still exercise great care so as not to receive a backset.

-John Kennedy, of Punxsutawney. the new superintendent of the Nittany furnace, spent several days in Bellefonte last week looking over the plant. found everything in good shape and the afternoon. furnace resuming its full capacity. With

-Rufus Strohm, well-known in Bellefonte and son of ex county commissioner James Strohm, of Centre Hill, is lying very ill at his home, in Scranton, with typhoid fever. He is a bright and energetic young man and his many friends will wish for his speedy recovery.

-Jonas E. Wagner attended the ses sion of the High school department of the Pennsylvania State Educational as- in West Virginia doing millinery work sociation, which convened in Williams | the past three months, spent the holi port last week, and assisted in organizing an association of mathematical and Martin Cooney.

- Harry E. Shook, who is employed opera house tomorrow evening. This returned to his work Wednesday evening, after spending Christmas at his been seriously ill at the Bellefonte Post.

- Monday Dec 24, the Bellefonte Post. office broke its record by doing the large office broke its been seriously ill at the Bellefonte hos- home in this place. pital and for a short time it was a ques tion whether she would recover. take pleasure in stating that a change has Wilson Norris were Christmas visitors in along very nicely.

-Harold Lingle, son of J. Howard Lingle, of Bellefonte, who had a slight touch of diphtheria, has recovered. father was quarantined in the house with him and for the last two weeks his large business has been carried on by his foreman and his youngest son, Raymond White as stenographer.

-On Sunday, Clyde Smith, the tailor, who is the successor to James Gross, will | Snow Shoe. leave for New York to take a four weeks course in a cutting school. In his absence the shop will be kept open by Geo. Chambers. Clyde is a practical young man and an expert workman who should succeed as a cutter-as good ones are as scarce as hen teeth. Cutters are plenty, but net all can turn out good work.

-Daniel Gutelius, of Warren, Ohio, Gutelius stopped over in Bellefonte for a few hours on Tuesday. He and his ity. brother-in-law, Thomas Morris, who at Gettig, the butcher, have gone into the butchering business in the western town, and are getting along nicely.

Trust company received a New Year's parture. greeting on Tuesday that was appreciat. It was a notice of a 5 per cent. divialso that an additional $10,000 was set of the company two years ago it has enjoyed an unusually successful period, hich speaks well for the management of the institution and the efficiency of its officers and employes On Tuesday. Jan. 15th, a stockholders' lunch will be given at the Brockerhoff house.

-Miss Marie White, who for a number farm near that place. of years has been making her home in Bellefonte, has decided to cast her Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Musser, of Bellewill be missed by hosts of warm friends. As a stenographer, she possesses rare ability, and stands at the head of the Black, or even to Brown or Green.

-The masque carnival at the skating rink on Tuesday evening drew a large crowd to witness the procession of costumed skaters. The variety of characters was interesting and afforded much amusement. The judges were editors the mast. Harter, Geo. R. Meek and Chas. R. mas. Kurtz, who after due deliberation, awarded the lady's prize to Miss Eva Showers and the gentleman's to Wilson Gephart, the prizes being fine pairs of skates for each. Miss Showers had a Moorish costume and Mr. Gephart was a Daily has been brisk and newsy in a mancoontown sport in barred suit. Others ner that is truly appreciated. As editor received favorable mention. The attendance showed that manager Taylor he found it necessary to secure an assistis making a success of the rink. ant.

-Installation of officers of Gregg post takes place Jan. 12th.

-Lyman Howe's moving pictures at

-"Quincy Adams Sawyer" at -Oscar Young is lying quite ill at his opera house on Friday evening, -Miss Marie Reese, of the Lock Haven Normal, spent her vacation among -Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Cook, of friends in Bellefonte and Snow Shoe. -Miss Elizabeth Gephart spent Christmas in Bellefonte, after a delightful visit | Christmas week in Bellefonte as weather the streams were much swollen friends at Lock Haven last week.* of Bellefonte, are visiting in Philadel- on Tuesday, not enough to occasion a

-H. M. Miles, of Wilkinsburg, and sis--Lieutenant James Gilbert Taylor, a ter paid us a short call on Tuesday. He Hiday season.

-Hon. John Noll, of Bellefonte, put his silk hat and is now attending the parents Mr. and Mrs. William Steel in

Bellefonte. -Misses Helen and Eva Crissman, of Bellefonte, left Wednesday for Sunbury

Geo. Bright. -Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Revnolds and Edward Irvin, proprietor of the two children, of Lancaster, visited at the Bellefonte Racket Store, left on Sunday home of Col. and Mrs. Reynolds on Lynn street last week. -Cora Campbell, of Punxsutawney, -Harry Smith, of Bellefonte, at the spent her holiday vacation in Bellefonte transfer department at the Pennsylvania as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Barn-

-Will Rees, of Patton, spent his holiday vacation in Bellefonte as the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W.

-Rev. Smith, of Johnstown, filled the pulpit in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning and evening and pleased the congregation with his discourse. -Joseph Mitchell, son of banker Isaac spent Christmas with friends in Belle--Mrs. Joseph Grossman, of Bellefonte, fonte, who had been housed up for the last four weeks, threatened with pneu-who resides in the little stone house, monia, is able to be around again, near the Quaker church, while out in her back yard the other day, fell and broke

He turned to their home in Altoona Monday

-Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Emenhizer and iron $24 to $25 a ton they want to hustle. daughter, of Romola, were holiday visit—Rufus Strohm, well-known in Belle- ors in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Emenhizer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rease -William Keichline arrived here Monday from Los Angeles, California, where he has been for the past year, and s now visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Keichline -Miss Bessie Cooney, who has been days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. day.

-Miss Elizabeth Blanchard and Mrs. Duval, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. A. come for the better and she is getting Beilefonte at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Blanchard, on Linn street.

-Lyman H. Howe's famous moving pictures will visit this place on Wednes day, Jan. 9th, and will present a novel entertainment at the opera house. He always draws a good audience.

-Among the guests at the annual Lingle, ably assisted by Miss Marie Benedicts reception held in Tyrone, Fri day evening were : Miss Nell M. Conley, of Bellefonte; Miss Marie Griest, of Unionville, and Arthur Buddinger, of

-I. P. McDonnel, of Mingoville, has the honor of securing the first subscription receipt for the year 1907, at the Centre Democrat office. As a result he has guest. set a good example by reading his own paper during 1907.

-Rev. G W. Fortney, of Suffering. N. Y., spent Christmas in Bellefonte as guest of his brother. David F. spent Christmas with his many friends portney. Esq. He is a good, sociable in Milheim. On his way west Mr. gentleman and has been having a pleasant time among friends in this commun

-Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gearhart, of one time worked in Bellefonte for Lew Bellwood, spent Christmas in Bellefonte as the guests of Mrs Gearhart's mother. Mrs. Joseph Fox. 'Mr. Gearhart left Wednesday, and Mrs Gearhart remained -The stockholders of the Bellefonte until Saturday when she took her de--William Dorworth, one of the young men of Bellefonte of whom our citizens dend out of the past year's earnings; can feel proud, spent his vacation here with his parents. Dr. and Mrs. E. S. apart to the surplus fund, making said Dorworth. He is employed at the large fund now $20.000. Since the founding General Electrical Works at Schenectady, N. Y. -Mrs. R. M Magee and son William, of Philadelphia, were recent visitors in Bellefonte and Centre Hall. They left here and went to Lewistown where For est and Boyd joined them, and together they spent Christmas with friends on a lot in with the good people of Philadel fonte, is recovering from quite a severe phia and will leave for the Quaker City attack of scarlet fever. In the mean n a week or ten days. Miss White, time Mr. Musser was quarantined from has been a popular young lady in Belle-fonte, and her smiles and pleasing jokes place at the Bush house.

-Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spigelmeyer, of Bellefonte, left Tuesday noon for Wilclass. On leaving she will take with her the best wishes of those whom she constantly came in social contact. It would be very pleasing to hear that she had changed her name from White to Black or even to Brown or Green

-Edward Murphy, of Philadelphia, came to Bellefonte, and after spending several days here left for home, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Ralph Mallory and her two children. Later Mr. Mallory and his sister, Miss Edna, left for the Quaker city where they spent Christ-

-Roger T. Bayard accepted the p

-Mr. and Mrs. Toner Aikey of Spring street are rejotcing over the arrival of a big baby girl.

of Sunbury, were arrivals in Bellefonte Saturday morning -W. T. DeHass, Register and Record-ness in town Thursday. -W. Harrison Walker, a prominent at-in Lock Haven Thursday. -Fred Chambers left for Philadelphia Saturday to resume his studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

-Miss Blanche Jacobs of Moundsville W. Va., is home to spend Christmas with her mother on East Lamb street.

-Samuel Hart, of Harrisburg, spent guest of his mother and sisters. port.

—As a result of a moderation in the Miss Harriet, of Bellefonte, visited Co's store. See their announcement

-Edward Woomer, who holds a position in Connelsville, has been spendinig his holiday vacation in Bellefonte. -Miss Verna Geiss, of Centre Hall, spent several days in Bellefonte as the guest of her brother, Wagner Geiss.

-Mrs. Morris Furey, of near Belle-fonte, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Webb Kerstetter at Curwensville. -Mrs. Charles Shields, nee Miss Emma Herkimer, of Williamsport, is visiting Miss Caroline Harper on Thomas street. -Rev. C. T. Aikens, president of the Susquehanna University of Selinsgrove, Pa, was visiting friends in Bellefonte, last week. -Mrs. James B. Lane, of Bellefonte, spent Christmas in Philadelphia as the guest of her mother and sister, Miss Mary Thomas. -An ice cream and cake supper will be given in the Salvation Army hall, that the production will have a large attendance Friday evening. -W. Harrison Walker returned home

Mrs. Hoffman, parents of Mrs. Walker. -Wilson I. Fleming has been appointed deputy grand master of the Masonic family of Philadelphia, have been spend-Clearfield counties and lodge no. 534 in of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bradley. lefferson county.

-Mrs. George VanDyke and daughter spent a very Merry Christmas at the Noll home on Spring street. They re--M C. Gephart, the music dealer reports an unusually good sale of pianos and Mrs. A. J. Cook, on Linnstreet. during the holiday season, which he at-tributes largely to the liberal advertising done in the various county papers. -All the hotel bars in Bellefonte were closed on Christmas and as a result the day was quieter than usual. Many of the boys missed the customary "Tom and Jerry"and an occasional "greeting" from

-Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Buffalo, N. Y, after spending a short time in Bellefonte as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. . C. Showers, left for their home Mon-While here they had a very pleas-it will be a treat to witness its production on the local stage. -L. T. Mayes, of Lemont, one of the new auctioneers who developed in the past year was in to pay us a short call. He has been quite successful in the venture and as a result is receiving calls for his services as a general auctioneer. -Frank Bilger, of Severance, Kansas, arrived in Bellefonte, Saturday night prior to Christmas to visit friends and relations here and at Pleasant Gap It is sixteen years since he left Centre county and this is his first trip home.

-Mrs Blackburn, wife of Dr. Albert Blackburn, and children, of Philadelphia. are guests in Bellefonte at the home of Col, and Mrs. J. L. Spangler on Allegheny street. Mrs. Blackburn has many friends here, and is always a welcome

-Ex-Commissioner Daniel Heckman. who has been superintending the Humes farm near town since last April, is truly in his element for that is where he can put in a good hand. He insists that he is as busy as ever and enjoys the job. Six years in a county office did not affect him like many others.

-Prof. James R. Hughes, principal of the Bellefonte Academy, left Saturfor his school. He does not wait for them to come to him but like a man of business he goes after them, and generally finds more than he can accommo-

-Mrs. F. E Whiting, of Bellefonte who has been in the Lock Haven hospital for three weeks and who underwent a successful operation at that in stitution, left there and is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Scott Peck, in Lock Haven. Mrs. Kline. wife of Sheriff Kline, of Bellefonte, was also visiting the same family.

-Ammou Gramley of Woolrich, Pa. was among our callers this past week. and made the publisher glad. It was several years since he last reached Bellefonte, where he was born and reared. He is now a superintendent n the John Ricle & Co. woolen mills, where some of the fingst flannels and hosiery is made, which has a famous thoughtfully made an appropriate gift last few months, has leased a hotel in on Christmas to Policeman Beezer. was a fine gold watch and chain, in re- lic as "The Allen". Honesdale is the cogniation for his successful effort in county seat of Wayne county and has capturing the men who robbed that a population of 7000 and is located in secured several hundred dollars worth hotel has fifty rooms and is conveniently of stolen plunder. Mr Beezer did some located. Mr. Brandon and his step-son, commendable work in this affair, that Robert Patterson, took charge on the 1st merits special mention.

clever young lad, who learned the paint-ing trade in this town. He called at our —The us was his sister, and so insistent was he Department Commander, M. A.

-Orrie Ishler, of Wilkinsburg, visited his parents in Bellefonte last week.

-Richard Lane, of Philadelphia, spent -Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hill and little child Christmas with friends in Bellefonte, -Miss Lillian Williams, of Bellefonte, Altoona, visited friends at Philipsburg recently.

-LeRoy Sherry, of Altoona, is visiter of Clearfield county, transacted busi- ing in Bellefonte as the guest of his in Williamsport. parents.

-Miss Bess Meek has returned from torney of Bellefonte, transacted business Chicago, where she has been the past three months.

-Miss Flora Love, of Bellefonte, spent her holiday vacation with friends at Centre Hall. -Jessie Cox of Bellefonte, proprietor of the Crystal Cafe, served an up to-date dinner on Christmas -James Parsons, of Philadelphia spent Christmas at the home of Wm. P. Humes, in Bellefonte.

elsewhere in this issue. -Mrs. Geo. T. Smith, of Buffalo, N. Y. is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J.

C. Showers, on Bishop street. -Mrs. J. W. Keller and Mrs. Weibly, of Linden Hall, were very pleasant callers upon the Centre Democrat. -Mrs. Jonathan Harper and daughter are home again, after a pleasant visit and have returned from a three with friends in Philadelphia. Maud have returned from a three months stay with friends in Chicago.

-Mrs Emil Joseph and son Edmond Charles, spent Tuesday in Tyrone, as returned from an extended visit with guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lukenbach. friends at Atlantic City and New York. -Miss Betty Heinle, who is attending school of elocution in Philadelphia, spent part of her holiday vacation in Bellefonte. -Mrs. Nancy Confer and daughter, Bella, of Bellefonte, are now in Altoona where they expect to remain the balance of the winter.

-Joe Katz, the business merchant of be given in the Salvation Army hall. Lewistown, spent kast week in Belle-on New Years night. A watch night fonte as the guest of his parents, Mr. service will follow.

-The shart for "Quincy Adams Saw-yers" is being cleared off, which means that the production will have a large atat Lock Haven last week.

-Fred Chambers and Ward Fleming. Thursday morning from Pleasantville law students at the University of Penn-where he spent Christmas, with Mr. and sylvania, spent their holiday vacation sylvania, spent their holiday vacation with their parents in Bellefonte. -Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Bible and fraternity for the district of Centre and ing a few days in Bellefonte at the home -F. E. Seymour and two daugh--The American Lime & Stone Co. ters Ruth and Louise of New York City, presented a $100 check to the Bellefonte are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Noo--Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, of Philadelphia, have been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Gibson's parents, Mr. -Miss Anna Cherry, daughter of Engineer Theodore Cherry of Bellefonte spent Christmas in Philadelphia as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry Dawson, -Dr. John Keichline, of Philadelphia, came to Bellefonte to partake of an old fashion Christmas dinner at the home of his parents, Squire John Keichline and spending the last two weeks in Harris. nia. burg as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ross

-Mrs. Ida Long and daughter Miss Myra, of Altoona, have been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of ex-County Commissioner Daniel Heckman, on East Lamb Street. -C. C. Shuev, the progressive groceryman, presented the Bellefonte Hospital Staff with a large box of fruit and nuts together with a number of holly wreaths.

-Miss Julia Bidwell, who is now employed in Pittsburg, spent a few days of her vacation in Bellefonte at the home of her parents, on South Allegheny Street. -Rev. J. V. Royer, of Altoona, was friends is that where there is life there is a pleasant caller while here with wife hope. About three or four weeks ago and baby, spending Christmas

High street, where there was a Christmas family gathering. -Lent will begin early next sarting on Ash Wednesday, February Easter Sunday will be observed March 31. Coming in so early it may make the season of the Easter bonnet an unfavorable one from a weather standpoint. Bellefonte, left last week to visit friends surprise the world with a horseless carin Somerset. He left his store in charge riage that can't be equaled when it comes principal mission was to look up students of Charley Richards, who for years was ooks old fashioned to see him back of and when they are placed on the marthe counter handling time as if it were a ket horses and mules will sell for a song. mére bagatelle.

-Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gentzel been spending the week with their children, Harry Gentzel and Mrs. Garbrick. They report having a pleasant time.

fictial. -- Contractor W. L. Steele, of Bellefonte, has been penned up in his residence on Pine Street for several weeks with boils on the back of his neck, and by this time can heartily sympathize with Job of old. He has been a great sufferer, and for ten straight nights unable to lie down or sleep The only rest he got was sitting in a chair. Afthough his case was considered serious. he has almost recoverd.

-George B. Brandon, who has been -The firm of F. P. Blair &Co., very making his home in Bellefonte for the It Honesdale, known to the traveling pub-Geo Simmonds, of Beaver Falls, is a people and should prosper in their new

-The installation of officers of Gregg office on Saturday, accompanied by a Post for 1907 will be held at the first reghandsome young lady who, he assured ular meeting for the New Year, Jan. 12. that we partly accepted the statement and Staff have been invited and will no Miss Anna Nolan, one of the most prothat we partly accepted the statement when the lady endorsed the declaration. The fact that they were married the day previous at Lock Haven entitles them to palm off such a joke on the editor, but soon after our suspicions were confirmed and we forgave them. It is among the impossibilities for a blushing bride to conceal the fact. May joy and happiness abide with them.

And Staff have been invited and will no doubt be preent. The following officers ficient clerks to be found anywhere had already resigned to make way for Miss Bayard. Monday Register Tutien received a letter from Miss Bayard stating that she had accepted a position in Williamsport. Mr. Tuten's office being piled to conceal the fact. May joy and happiness abide with them.

-Miss Lottie Robb has been ill during the past week.

-Miss Mary Linn, of Bellefonte, spent several days last week with friends in -Mr. and Mrs Sidney Krumrine and children, spent Christmas with friends pocket. -Mr. Gilbert Meyer, who is attending school in this place, is visiting his parents, in Allegheny. -Frank Bosch, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Williamsport, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. -William Clark returned Tuesday morning from Tryone where he had been visiting friends. -The Woman's Guild, of the Bellefonte Episcopal church, at their recent fair cleared over $60.

-Miss Lillian Williams, of Bellefonte, spent part of the holidays among her friends at Philipsburg.

-Miss May Hudson, of Huntingdon, spent Christmas in Bellefonte as the guest of Supt. F. H, Thomas. -Misses Anna and Caroline Valentine

-Mrs. A. Lukenbach, and her son

-Mrs. Charles Rocky returned to her home in Altoona after spending a Merry of meetings that will be continued up. Christmas with her parents Mr. and Mrs. William Steel.

-Lydia Miller, daughter of Mr. and rs. Robert Miller, left Saturday for Westtown, where she will enter a college for young ladies.

-Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lose, and little child, spent a Merry Christmas with friends in Bellefonte. They returned to Altoona Sunday evening.

Austin Bartley, of Altoona, were home on Xmas to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bartley, of this place. -Mrs. R. B. Taylor, of Bellefonte, who for the last week has been seriously

-Herbert Bartly, of Lock Haven, and ill with pneumonia at her home on Spring street, is slowly improving. -Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleming, of Altoona, and Thomas Fleming, of Beaver Falls, spent Christmas in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming. -Friday evening at 7;30 o'clock there will be a meeting in the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. for the purpose organizing a class in mechanical drawing. All young men interested are cordially invited.

-Samuel Gault and H. Kerns, of the North ward, are rival candidates for overseer of the poor nomination on the republican ticket. It must be a good thing from the number after this job. -Mrs. and Mr. Blair Yarnell, left this will make their future home. Mr. Yarnell is employed by the Dean Electric Company at the above mentioned city. -Clarence Garbrick son of Mr. and Mrs. George Garbrick, who had been spending his vacation in Bellefonte, left Tuesday for Philadelphia to resume his -Mrs. D. H. Hastings and daughter Miss Sarah, of Bellefonte, have been -William Kramer, of Bellefonte, who had been dangerously ill from painter's -Monday Dec 24 the Bellefonte Post-fice broke its record by doing the large. Friends. He looks a little like Santa studies at the University of Pennsylva-

Gussie Smith, of Warren, Ohio, returned home after spending an enjoyable time in Bellefonte, at the home of Mrs. Milyoung lady of talent and refinement, spent Christmas in Bellefonte at the hospitable residence of Sunt. and West Police. ler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, spent Christmas in Bellefonte at the hospitable residence of Supt. and Mrs. F. H. Thomas, on Linn street. She is a by F. H. Clemson, Buffalo Run. young lady who has many friends here, and they were glad to see her. -Miss Mary Cole, the bright and interesting daughter of Robert Cole, of this place, is now lying at death's door this place, is now lying at death's door eral office work; wages reasonable at the hospital. The only comfort to her H. Dale, State College, R. No. 3.

home of his wife's parents. Mr. Faxon's turned into blood poison. -Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fishburn arrived in Bellefonte, Saturday, from Auburn, year. Neb. Mr. and Mrs. Fi shburn are on their honeymoon having been married on Christmas day in that faraway western city. Mrs. Fishburn's maiden name was Miss Mina Blessing, daughter of a prominent merchant of Auburn. -The coming summer W. R. Jenk--Jeweler C. D. Casebeer and wife, of ins and Willard Hall, of Bellefonte, will down to cheapness and durability. They now have their new invention down fine; This is no joke-its straight goods,

-Just prior to the holidays Miss Marie and grandson, of Spring township, re-turned from Altoona where they had delphia where she had been spending a couple of weeks. She was accompanied by Miss Helen White, of New Haven, with her friend Miss Esther Seely, of Mr. Gentzel is just recovering from a Iowa and Miss Josie White, of Riverton. serious illness, and the trip proved bene- They are a mirthful crowd and it goes without saying that they had a most delightful time.

-During the holidays the interior of the Bellefonte hospital was made very attractive and home-like with beautiful decorations. The patients could not help but feel that the matron and nurses were carefully caring for them, and are willing to do anything that would bring comfort to them. Thanks are due those who in any way contribute to the success of this worthy enterprise.

-Miss Minnie Cole, one of the com-positors at the Daily News office, had the misfortune of burning several fingers on her right hand. She was ironing and dipped the iron in a basin of water to cool it when the steam burned her finstore last September, and from whom he the heart of the hard coal region. The gers, to the extent that she was compelled to go and have them dressed by a physician. You can bet that she will never try the same experiment again.

-Several months ago Miss Sarah Bayard, of Bellefonte, resigned her position in the Racket Store and went to Pott's Business College. It was arranged that on the 1st of January Miss Bayard was to become an assistant to Register Earl C. Tuten, in the Court house;

-Miss Lottie Robb, of Bellefonte, has been confined to the house with grippe. -The postoffice fight in Bellefonte is a dandy, and it has become very enig-matical as to who is carrying the much coveted plum around in his inside,

-Harold Kirk, who is one of T A. Shoemaker's right hand men at New Florence, has been spending several days in Bellefonte at the residence of his parents, Dr and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, He is getting along tip-top.

-Charles W. Tripple, the hustling agent for the Weikel & Smith Spice Co. Philadelphia who spent a week in Bellefonte as the guest of his sister, Mrs. Harry Yeager, left Tuesday for Rochester, N. Y., where he will begin work again. Charles has become quite lusty and he has the appearance of the man who handles long green in a hot political campaign. He is now recognized as one of the best salesmen on the road -Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, of Bellefonte, spent part of the holiday season with friends in Philadelphia and is held in high regard by the company he represents. He handles the matches manufactured by the Pennsyl. vania Match Co., of Bellefonte, and says, that the demand is much greater than the supply.

-Dr. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, left Monday for Philadelphia to assist Rev. Hezler to conduct special services in the Market Square Presbyterian church for two weeks. In return Rev. Hezler will come to Bellefonte on January 14, and, on that evening, commence a series, until communion Sunday, Jan. 26th, Rev. Hezler is said to be a man who possesses wonderful magnetism as a minister, and do can good here if the congregation will give him the required asstance, and warm up to the situation. Next Sunday, both morning and evening Dr. Platts, pulpit, in Bellefonte, well be occupied by Rev. S. L. Boston, of Pittsburg, who is fine in his exposition. of the great truths of the gospel. He conducted meetings in Bellefonte for two, weeks, thus he needs no further com-

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertise ment in this column, one issue free, if it does, not exceed 25 words. Charges to others : cent a word, first issue, no adv. less than 25 cents. issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents.

FOR SALE: -good hotel. Address P. O. Boz, 254, Bellefonte, Pa. 50 FAT HOGS FOR SALE :-- Apply to George Valentine Jr., Bellefonte, Pa. x1

WANTED:—lean steers for fattening. J. A. Witmer, State College, R. 1. FOR SALE:—farm of 128 acres, near Zion. Apply to I. P. Bickle, Milesburg, Pa,

FOR SALE-House and lot on North Spring street. W. Harrison Walker, Atty. FRESH COWS FOR SALE : - Apply morning for Elyria, Ohio, where they

> FOR SALE:—fresh cow with calf. Apply to Lem Hampton, 1% miles west of Fillmore. FOR SALE—A stock of general merchandise at Rebersburg, Pa. Apply to C. H. Smuil. x1 FOR SALE: -2 driving horses, 1 cow, 7 head of sheep, 3 buggles. Mable M. Morrison, Roland.

> STRAYED—Light yellow cooley dog strayed, from home; liberal reward. John Spearly, Bellefonte, R. 1.

FOR SALE—A good home, & tre Hall station. According Mills. Pa Apply to Samuel Freder ick, Farmers Mills, Pa. FOR RENT-A steam heated store room, 20%

100 feet, and offices in the Exchange buildi Apply to F. W. Crider.

HORSE—Will buy or sell black horse 6 years, old, sound, weight 1,400 lbs; works single of double. W. E. Boob, Fiedler, Pa. X1 WANTED :- a position as bookkeeper and gen-

WANTED-A position as book-keeper and gen at the she cut her hand which afterwards H. Dale, State College, Pa. R. No. 3.

FOR SALE:—1 double sled for heavy hauling or lumbering; also some clean wild cherry boards. Inquire of D. F. Houser, R. F. D. 2, State College. SALESMN WANTED-To look after our in terest in Centre and adjoining counties. Sal ary or commission. Address Lincoln Oil Co. Cleveland. O.

ESTRAY—A young had or a sai 2 years old came to my home on Ooc look, has tag on left car with name and bander: "K Meyes No. 11." Williard Crispen, Charence, Pa. FOR SALE :- One of the most fertile and best

LE OR RENT :- Known as the John Are: property, on Linn street. Bellefonte. This property has all modern conveniences and is desirably located. Apply to W. G. Runkle, Atty. AGENTS WANTED For the sale of the cele brated Roumany Veterinary Remedies and Condition Powders, for animals and fowls of all kinds; liberal discount. For full information address the Keystone Veterinary Remedy & Supply Co., Harrisburg, Pa. X1 FOR SALE-Ten head of shoats, weight about 100 lbs per head; matched pair of blacks; mare and horse, four and five years old, weight over 1,000 lbs each; one yearing grey mare; one

SALESMEN WANTED -to sell and deliver teas, coffees, spices, baking powder and gro-cery specials; no better way to go in business for yourself; not necessary to invest any cape tal. Call or address The Great Atlantic sub-Pacific Tea Company, 411 Lackawanna Avenue, Scranton, Pa. 47-61 weanling mare, seven months of George Valentine, Bellefonte, Pa.

ANNUAL ELECTION:—The annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county, will be held in its office, Petrikin hall, Bellefonte, on Monday, Jan. 14, 1907, and the election of twelve directors for the lon, and the election the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. of said day.

PREDERICK KURTZ. Prest.
D. F. Lenn, See y. 30-38 D. F. LUSE, Sec'y.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

The following prices prevailed Thursday The following prices are paid by SECHLER &