BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Henry B. Young, of Pittsburg, spent a few days in Bellefonte. -Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Musser, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. -Mrs Edward Richard left Monday afternoon to visit friends in Philadel-

-L. T. Munson, Supt. of the Bellefonte furnace, is transacting business in Pittsburg this week.

-Grant Keslinger has been appointed phia yard master in the Pennsylvania railroad yards in Bellefonte.

-Rev. Richardson, rector of St, John's Episcopal church, is visiting friends in Baltimore, Md.

-Richard Taylor, manager of the skat-ing rink, will have another "Masquerade Skate" in a week or ten days.

-Louis Daggett left Sunday evening for Port Deposit, Md., and will resume his studies at the Jacob Tomb's insti-

-Rev. William Laurie, D. D., will preach both morning and evening in the Presbyterian church at Milesburg next

-Mrs. R. G. Foster, who has been a pleasant visitor at the Hicklen home on Logan street, left for her home in Philaspending an enjoyable time in Pittsburg. -Workmans Bargain sto delphia, Saturday. -Charles Hughes, wife and baby, returned on Monday evening from New York, where they have been spending the holiday season. -Mrs. R. B. Taylor, whose death was ago, is recovering, and in a short time will be able to sit up. -Miss Mable Otto arrived in Bellefonte, from Johnstown, and will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Longacre on Allegheny street. -The county auditors, H. B. Pontius, James Swab and R. D. Musser, began on Monday to audit the accounts of the different county officials. -The Richard's home on Linn street is nearly completed. When finished it will be one of the prettiest mansions in that portion of the town. George Jones, of Osceola, a cousin of Hon. James Schofield, was a Bellefonte visitor at the Schofield home on Thomas street over Sunday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fishburn, who have been guests the past week at the Fishburn home, south of Bellefonte, left Monday afternoon for Pittsburg.

-Miss Sarah P. Bayard, who is Home Secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association at Williamsport, spent Sunday at her home in Bellefonte.

-We can not give space to school reports, since there are some 300 schools in the county, and reports from these would take far more space than we can

-Mrs. Ed. C. Cooke, with her daughter, is making arrangements to leave Bellefonte in the near future and join her husband at CaCananea, State of -Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings and daughter Miss Sarah arrived in Bellefonte on for burial. Monday from Harrisburg, where they have been spending the Christmas season with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hickoff.

-The Juvenile Loyal Temperance the afternoon of each Friday, at 4 o'clock in Petriken Hall. The presence of all boys and girls is requested at these meet-that instituton, but for the past few thing by them. weeks has been home ill with the grippe returned on Monday.

-Miss Mary Cole's condition at the Bellefonte Hospital is very much improved. Last week symptoms of lockindications are that she will recover.

man, this week received a miniature box of oranges through the mail. They were from his friend, Rev. John A. Wood, from his friend, Rev. John A. formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Pasadena, Cal. The fruit were as small as marbles, but they had the right color and -It is stated that Albert Hoy, former-

-Miles L. Keller of Snow Shoe, is visiting in Bellefonte.

-"Uncle Toms Cabin" at the opera house to-morrow evening. -Miss Marie Welsh, of Pittsburg, is visiting her aunt, of this place.

-The Jury List for the February Term of Court appears in this issue. -Miss Ann Orvis, daughter of Judge Ellis Orvis, left Thursday for Philadel-

-Write to Katz & Co. for samples of their new swisses and sheer waisting effects for spring 1907.

-Fred Shope, of this' place, has secured a position in Johnstown, and will opened after a nice vacation. Sever go there to take charge of it, the last of new boarding students have enrolled.

-Jesse Cox has had the interior of his resaturant repaired and repainted and the turned home. They report having a place looks inviting enough to be on good time.
the main thoroughfare of a large city.

—Miss I. -William Sechler, of Montgomery,

Lycoming county, was a visitor in was visiting friend Bellefonte at the home of his brother ing the holidays. Hammond Sechler, on Linn street.

Mrs. Corman, of Philadelphia, who have that will interest all persons who are been guests at Mr. and Mrs. Philip seeking large values for their money. Beezers returned to their respective sult an expert optician about his son's veyed through this county. eyes which have been giving him considerable trouble of late.

-Frank Crawford, of Bellefonte, traveling salesman for the Potter-Hoy panied by her daughter who the Miller home a few days.

Cook's property, on Linn street, for —Miss Nell Valentine is a period of three years.

-Carrie Bayard, one of the matrons ing a vacation in Bellefonte at the Bayard home, on Spring Street

-Chauncey F. York, the rich Malena manufacturer, who has been such a good and David Kelley, left Saturday, and after angel to the Pleasant View chapel since visiting friends a few days along the its building, sent the treasurer of the Bald Eagle Valley, she returned to her chapel a check for $10 as a present,

-Miss Mary Thomas, of Philadelphia, came Thursday for a visit with her friends and relatives in Bellefonte. Miss Thomas became the guest of Mrs. Callaway, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Louisa Bush, on Spring street. -The following numbers have drawn sets of dishes not claimed at Yeager & Davis, Bellefonte: A-1040, B-685, C-550089, 51392, 52457, 53399, 54404. If they are not presented within one week numbers will be drawn again.

is more than delighted over the opportunity of renewing acquaintances with dear old "Uncle Tom" and "Little Eva."

-During the year 1906 there were just lose him.

Legion, recently organized, will meet on the city to take charge of the state hos- season the strongest acting company most limit. Many new cases of fever of Uncle Tom's Cabin. were reported every day.

Miss Eva Crissman will continue the dancing school in the Arcade building considerable sickness. Grip, is employed in the Baldwin locomotive of Bellefonte; Secretary, Dr. J. Y. Dale dancing school in the Arcade building pneumonia, fevers and severe colds, works. While here be took the grip, of Lemont; Treasurer, Dr. George F.

ter a party who belongs to that town, but ed their foreman. William J. Swarmer, who is being kept by a family by the with a handsome silver watch and chain, on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, will and is considered one of the best milliname of Bush, living in the Brown row, Mr. Swarmer prizes the gift very highly, be off duty for some time owing to a tary officers in the division for years, -A. J. Shivery, son of Harry Shivery, as it is a token of esteem in which he is severe scalding which he received recentthe milkman, left on Monday to enter held by those under him. It is also a ly at Martha station. He was in the act
-Charles P. Hewes, who for a numthe Milkman, left on Monday to enter held by those under him to know that the men of disconnecting the steam hose pipe be- ber of years was the junior member of first of April. He was building up a ribly burned and scaded. nice business down there but no doubt -There will be a "Loyal Temperance ing one of the "bosses" in the city along jaw developed but the attending physicians have successfully counteracted the much-dreaded disease. The present ance of his life with comparative strang- Union." on Saturday, January 12, at January 13, and January 13, at January 14, at January 15, and January 16, and January 16, and January 17, at January 18, and January 18, and January 19, and January 1 ers. He is a good citizen and will be three o'clock in the afternoon, in the clerks in Joseph Brothers & Co's store. efforts will be productive of great good. capable musicians. This organization -C. C. Shuey, the Bellefonte grocery. A revival of religion is badly needed promises to be not only instructive, but him with it on or there will be trouble. Bellefonte who attended the autoright there and then. It might have mobile show in Philadelphia. Mr. Ole been taken by mistake from his law of wine is in the market for an auto-steamly of Bellefonte, but now of Providence, fice but the difficulty in reasoning that er, and after making an investigation of R. I. is suffering from appendicitis, and way is the fellow left none to take it's the several machines in the Quaker City the probabilities are that he will be place, Generally the best hat, overcoat he proceeded to Boston, Mass, where he

-Miss Helen Dunney is visiting her brother, of this place. -25&35 cent madras reduced to 19 cents at Katz & Co's white sale. -Jerome Harper left Sunday to re sume his work in Philadelphia,

-James A. B. Miller, Esq., is at his office again, after a tussle with the grip. -Col. W. Fred Reynolds is visiting friends and transacting business in Lan-

-Oscar Gray is suffering from nervous prostration at his home in Crider's Ex--Roy McCalmont, of Rochester, N.

Y., spent Sunday with his wife and child in Bellefonte.

-Mrs. A. O Furst and her daughter, Mrs. John Curtin, are among the visitors at Atlantic City.

-Mr. and Mrs. Christ Musser and two children, of Altoona, are guests at the William Musser home on Lamb St.

-Tuesday the Bellefonte Academy opened after a nice vacation. Several -Misses Eva and Helen Crissman, who visited friends in Sunbury, have re-

-Miss Lilla Keiser, one of the efficient operators at the Bell telephone exchange, was visiting friends in Philipsburg dur-

-Mrs Anna Ettinger, wife of Joseph -Warren Rush and John Martin, two Ettinger, of Boalsburg, died on Monday of last week. She was a sister of ex-

-Workmans Bargain store has in--Mrs Hanlon, of Baltimore, and augurated an important clearance sale

-An interesting article appears in anomes.

George W. Port, of Bellefonte, took the new electric road proposed between momentarily expected a couple of weeks his son, Blain, to Philadelphia to con- Chicago and New York, that was sur-

-Mrs. Herman Miller, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ida Gill, returned home on Friday evening accompanied by her daughter who will visit

-Miss Nell Valentine is at present stenographer in the law office of Harrison Walker. She is acting in that and teachers in the Soldiers Orphan capacity until Miss Lottie Robb, the school, at Jumanville, Pa. has been spend-regular stenographer, recovers from her regular stenographer, recovers from her

-Mrs. Joseph Dyer, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Bolich and two sons visiting friends a few days along the home in Canada.

-Baggage Agent John Fisher on the Lewisburg road had the misfortune to have his hand mashed in a door while on the train and in consequence has no use of the hand for some time; several small bones were fractured.

-Miss Goldy Cain arrived home Sunday evening from an extended visit during the holidays with the Rev. Davidson's family at Madison, Pa., and friends at Wilmore. Miss Cain is one of our efficient public school teachers.

-"Uncle Toms Cabin" will not slight -J. P. Thomas, who for seven years ments in the Spring and rest the balance Bellefonte this season therefore the town had been working as a moulder in the of his life. Mr. Shuey has one of the foundry of Howard Lingle, Bellefonte, with has moved to Altoona where he accepted | Centre Furnace. a similar position in the railroad shops. At the opera house to-morrow evening. He is a good fellow, and we are sorry to shipped into the district from a distance be finished and then the building will be fonte but for several years proprietor of day at the latter place, of pulmonary ready for use.

in Scranton who have been detailed by in. They claim to have engaged this the Haag hotel at this place. pital, which is crowded almost to its ut- ever secured to present the great play met in the Court House Tuesday

She will give lessons in dancing every Friday evening. Miss Ida Orris will preside at the piano.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days.

—Philip Heimer, an Overseer of the light rains, and few bright days. Poor from Beech Creek, was called to _On New Year the employes of the long, however, 'till all that kind of wor-Bellefonte Tuesday morning to look af- Nittany Furnace, of Bellefonte, present- riment will be over.

Earl Tibbens, who has been a student at consider that he is trying to do the right tween the engine and baggage car, but the law firm of Spangler & Hewes, the steam had not been shut off, and in was in Bellefonte on Friday. -Dr J. E. Ward, the dentist, who consequence live steam at a pressure of now the solicitor of the city of Erie, and with his family moved to Carlisle last 80 pounds blew against him, and his left holds his head pretty high when he comes spring, will return to Bellefonte by the arm from the wrist to the elbow was ter- to visit his poor brethren in this neck

-Perry and Harry Alters left Satur- cordially welcomed on his return. Petrikin Hall. The presence of all day afternoon for a week's visit with friends at Altoona and Lewistown. Perry Alters has just received an honorable discharge from the United States Army, while Harry is one of the efficient speaker and it is to be hoped that his lection of competent instructors and all the productive of great good.

as in the regions of the North Pole. Hunter, DeLaun Stuart, John Olewine, -The man who stole W. Harrison John Walker. Curt Wagner and Archi-Walker's overcoat had better not pass bald Allison were among the people of the probabilities are that he will be compelled to have an operation performed. If this proves to be the case his sister and brother, Miss Nannie and Randolph, of Bellefonte, will go and look after him and his interests,

—Edward Eckenroth, one of the proprietors of Eckenroth's lpaint and wall
—Edward Eckenroth's lpaint and wall
—A little over two years are R. R.

prietors of Eckenroth's paint and wall-pleasing manner at the home of their paper establishment, left Bellefonte son-in-law, William H. Benner, on Water Osterreich, a photographer, of Detroit, Tuesday afternoon for Pittsburg to attend the 19th annual convention of the Master Painters and Decorators Association of Pennsylvania. It lasts through to-day, and judging from the through to-day, and judging from the program the convention could not help. Master Painters and Decorators Association of Pennsylvania. It lasts through to day, and judging from the program the convention could not help but be beneficial to those in attendance.

—Sunday S. H. Deihl, of Bellefonte. The balance of the family who holds an excellent position in a large carriage works, but who has been suffering from a severe cold. Sam was not favorably impressed with the town, and says that Bellefonte is good enough for him. When it comes down to rock bottom, that's what they all say; but to have this experience you must get away for a while.

Master Painters and Decorators Association of Pennsylvania. It lasts through parts and Decorators Association of Pennsylvania. It lasts through parts and they together do not have the sexpendence of Pennsylvania. It lasts through parts and they together of the program the convention could not help but be beneficial to those in attendance.

—Sunday S. H. Deihl, of Bellefonte, returned from Indiana, where he spent three weeks working for his son, Harry, who holds an excellent position in a large carriage works, but who has been suffering from a severe cold. Sam was not favorably impressed with the town, and says that Bellefont is igood enough for him. When it comes down to rock bottom, that's what they all say; but to the proper and the convention of the family parts among the proper and the convention could not help but be been all together on the breakth of the pulpit in the Presbyterian church the tensor has a scholarly gentleman and is not afraid to tell the fellow in the previous depth in the pulpit in the Presbyterian church the pulpit

-Prof. James P. Hughes has returned from Wheeling, W. Va.

-Mrs. Frank P. Blair is suffering from an attack of the lagrippe. -Mrs. Michael Kelly is quite ill with pneumonia at her home on Beaver St. -Rev. Crittenden conducted religous services at Snow Shoe Intersection on -Squire H. Harshbarger, wife and two children, spent Sunday with friends in

-Miss Ruth Johnston returned bome after a few days visit with friends, in -Miss Mary Daley, of Lemont, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Cox, of this place. -Miss Nell Stevens, who spent some time in Bellefonte, has returned to her home, in Sunbury. -Mr. and Mrs. Boal, of Boalsburg, were guests at the home of Mrs. Reuben Valentine, Saturday.

-George B. Reimsnyder, Esq., Sunbury, is transacting legal business in Bellefonte this week. for Philadelpha, where she exppects to make her feture home. spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Edward Cain, of this place,

-Mrs. T. B. Buddinger and daughter Miss E. Blanche Buddinger, of Snow Shoe, were Bellefonte visitors on Friday. -Mrs. Louisa Bush celebrated her 70th birthday on Saturday and many of her friends called to extend their good

-Fred Moseberger is shipping his household goods to Altoona to-day where he will engage in the hotel business again. -Mrs. Thomas F. G. Seixas, who has been visiting her parents, Squire and Mrs. Smith on Bishop street, returned to her home on Saturday.

home in Pittsburg, Monday. -Mrs. John Waite, who has been visiting friends at Lemont and Bellefonte the past few days, returned to her home in Lock Haven on Monday. -Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Seibert had as guests the last week Mrs. S. Klase and daughter Helen, of Crawford, N. J., and

-Mrs. Pond, wife of Dr. G. G. Pond, of State College, spent Friday in Belle-fonte, at the residence of Col. James P. Coburn, president of the First National

-The wedding of Miss Sue Cohan of McKeesport, and Richard Lane, of Philadelphia, is announced to take place sometime during the month of Febru-"Rich" is a son of the late James Lane of Bellefonte, and a worthy young -Jacob Shuey, father of C. C. Shuey, Bellefonte's prominent groceryman, has decided to lay aside the farming implelargest and best cultivated farms around -Miss Lottie Robb, the efficient stenographer for W. Harrison Walker, Esq., who for the last ten days has been seri-

Talk of high finance! Jacob Barlett gave John Southeok, Jr., ten conte for a turkey and sold it for $3 00. That beats Common Steel and Lawson's copper mines all hollow.

—Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings and daugh—

The new drying building at the permines all hollow.

—The new drying building at the penna, match factory is almost completed. Mr. Lowry and his crew of carpentage of mineteen were bodies shipped into the district from a distance be finished and then the building will be for the last ten days has been seriously ill with peritonitis, is slowly recovering, and unless something unforted. A. M. Hasson, who left Philipsburg. a little ters have finished slating the roof which is good news.

—Jerry J. Kelley, formerly of Belle.

the Commercial hotel in Altoona, Thurs- trouble, aged about 42 years. Besides -It may he interesting to his many -To morrow (Friday) evening the day disposed of the hostelry to Fred his wife, he leaves to mourn his death friends in Bellefonte to know that Dr. attraction in the Garman opera house Moseberger, of Bellefonte, who for a four sons, viz. Thomas, Clarence, Al-Lee B. Woodcock is one of the physicians will be Mason Bros. Uncle Tom's Cab- number of years successfully conducted bert. Charley. His remains were

-Yesterday an election was held at

Lieutenant-Colonel Hugh S. Taylor, of Bellefonte, who for many years was o'woods. He has the appearance of be-

-John Toner Harris for five years has been manager of the Altoona exchange of the Pennsylvania Telephone company, has been promoted to the traffic manager of the same company. The appointment, which is to take effect Jan. 21, has been officially nounced from the general office of the CHARTER NOTICE. company Mr. Harris' new headquarters will be at Harrisburg.

-F. Potts Green, the Bellefonte druggest and his estimable wife, the other day celebrated their 49th anniversary of their marriage by fentertaining a few of their friends at their home on the corner of Linn and Allegheny streets. Among the pleasant recollections of their wedding was that after they were married they drove from Lewistown to Bellefonte in a sleigh, the snow being three feet deep and the cold intense.

mecca for democrats it thought it wouldn't increase the majority, so it left another bright little daughter. urally they are all highly delighted and

-Mrs. W. B. Rankin is recovering from a severe attack of lagrippe, -Iohn Given, of New York City, is in town looking after some business matters. He spent the past season abroad. -Did you notice our circulation statement on the fourth page of this issue? It keeps growing steadily aach year when we pass the 5000 mark there will be a celebration appropriate to the event.

-Wilson Heiman, of Philpsburg, was brought to jail on Tuesday afternoon by constable A. D. Adams accused of stealing a horse from Thad Meyers, the liveryman at Philipsburg. He is also accused of larceny.

RECENT DEATHS.

ANNA MARY HETTINGER:--wife of Joseph Hettinger, died at her home near Boalsburg, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after months of suffering of cancerous trouble, bearing all her suffering with christian fortitude, She was a member of the Boalsburg Reformed church. She was twice married, her to Peter Bluskey, Nov 13, 1902; in Rush first husband was Jonathan Shutt, who twp. $50.
died several years ago. She married Thos G McCausland et al attys in fact -Miss Marie White will leave to-day or Philadelpha, where she expects to make her feture home.

-Mrs. John Weaver, of Hublersburg, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Edward Cain, of this place.

first husband was Jonathan Shutt, who died several years ago. She married Joseph Hettinger. She had one son and two daughters: Mrs. Jos. Pressler, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Chas. Isenberg and Walter Shutt, of Boalsburg. Her maiden have was Walker and is survived by four brothers and three sisters. Wiles Geo B Simler, Ir., et ux to Charles. four brothers and three sisters: Walker, of Bellefonte; A. S., Pine Grove Mills; Isaac and Levi, of Spring Mills; $650. Mrs. Henry Meyers, of Bowling Green, Ma: Va; Miss Clara Walker of Baltimore. April Interment was made in the Boalsburg

MRS. HIRAM BAKER:-nee Miss Mary Muffly, on Dec. 12th, died at her home in Des Moines, Iowa, aged 77 years, 3 months and 22 days. The cause of her death was pneumonia with which she had been ill but a few days. She was a type of a good American woman, wife, mother and christian. She was the the mother of twelve children. nine sons -Miss Millcent Prince, after a most and three daughters, 40 grand children pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Don- and 2 great grand children. Mrs. Baker ald Potter in Bellefonte returned to her was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church soon after her marriage and remained a faithful communicant until death. She was at one time a resident of Howard, Centre county.

Samuel Garris:-a well known and respected citizen of that town, died at his home at Reedsville after an illness of six or seven weeks of Brights disease. His age was a few months over 35 years. His wife, who was the daughter of William Reed, of Lumber City, survives fith, May 10, 1904; 1 acre 65 perches in him. Mr. Garris was a stone mason by trade, he having moved there about 14 years ago from the neighborhood of Centre Hall. Mr. Garris was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Reedsville. The funeral took place on Wednesday at 10 a. m., interment at

SOLOMON CONYER :- died Monday afternoon of last week at the home of his son John A. Confer, in Snow Shoe. He at one time was in the furniture and undertaking business in Milesburg. He was 76 years of age, and followed the business of an undertaker nearly all his life. He was a man who had the confidence and respect of all who knew him. The only surviving son was the one with whom he resided. The funeral took place Friday morning. Interment not exceed 25 words. Charges to others: cent brought to Philipsburg for interment.

ver secured to present the great play function of Uncle Tom's Cabin.

—Monday. James Parsons, who had een visiting at the residence of W. P. dent, Dr. Theodore Christ, of State mourn her death a husband and four for RENT—A steam-heated store room, 20x —After Miss White leaves Bellefonte—After Miss Whit liam McManahan, and a brother Samu-The remains were taken to Milroy FOR SALE :- 50,000 feet of Oak, Maple and for interment on Tuesday. WILLIAM MILLER .- the three year-old Altoona to select a successor to Rufus C. son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Bush Elder, as colonel of the 5th Regiment. Addition, died Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gettig at 'Roland, from grip. The child was buried Wednesday morning at the Sunnyside cemetery eral office work; wages reasonable. Edward near Nittany Furnace. The services H. Dale. State College, Pa., R. No. 3. near Nittany Furnace. The services were held at the Gettig home at Roland.

ELIZABETH McKINLEY:-died on Thursthe following sons and daughter to mourn her death; James, Samuel, John and Mrs. R. H. Brown. Interment was made at Milesburg. day morning at her home in Milesburg,

An Infant Son:—John H. Wilson telegraph operator at the Western Union Telegraph office in Bellefonte, and wife. Telegraph office in Bellefonte, and wife, are mourning the death of an infant son who died of pneumonia Friday morning at 1 o'clock, aged 6 months. The funeral and is desirably located. Apply to W. G. Runkle, Atty. Catholic church, Notice is hereby given that an application will be made by Morris W. Yeager, Harry C. Yeager and Elmer E. Davis, to the Governor of Pennsylvania, on Friday, the 1st day of February, at 10 o'clock, under the provisions of an Act of Assembly entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved April 29th, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an in teruled corporation, to be called the "Yeager Manufacturing Company," the character and object of which is manufacturing furniture, swings and other articles from wood and metal, and for these purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of said Act of Assembly and its supplements.

The proposed charter is now on file in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

JAMES A. B. MILLER.

THOS. J. SEXTON, Solicitors.

ORPHANS COURT SALE.

ESTATE OF MARY ANN CALDERWOOD. By virtue of an order Issued out of the Orphans' Court of Centre Co., there will be exposed at public sale, at the court house at Bellefonte, Pa., on THURSDAY, FEB. 14th. 1907.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES, John Ciprico -Magdalena Strick Gorton Heights Wallace A. Deobler Rebersburg Abie Hoy Smullton Claude W. Smith Bellefonte Edith L. Else -Milesburg Benj. H. Etters Bellefente Mary A. E. Smith Joseph Kunes - -Blanchard Elsie V. Kunes - - Beech Creek

REAL ESLATE TRANSFERS. Thos Foster et al to Catherine Tressler, Oct 23, 1906; lot 41, in State College.

Chas C Duck, et ux to Geo Hodak, Dec 25, 1906; lot 89 in Casenova, Rush two. $210. Mike Stair et ux to Mike Sakola et ux Oct 4, 1906; I acre in Rush twp. $65. Thos D. McCausland et al atty's in fact to Steve Cusher, June 11, 1906; 1 6-10 acres in Rush twp. $80. Thos G. McCausland et al attys in fact acres in Rush twp. $59.

Geo B Simler, Jr.. et ux to Charles

Mary W Linn to Fannie Barnhart. April 2, 1906; 21/2 acres in Spring twp. Philip D Foster treas to Miss Mary Smith, Dec 28, 1906; in Philipsburg.

Carson, Sept 12, 1904; 2 acres in Snow Shoe twp. $6.60. Carrie V Gruver to I Bert Sweeley, Dec. 31, 1906; 119 acres 113 perches in Howard twp. $300. Wm H Hollingswood to Harry C. Fulton, Jan 5, 1907; bottling works in Philipsburg. $2000. Andrew A Walker to Wm G Runkle, Jan 8, 1907; lot 108 in Bushs addition.

Louise Bush to A A Walker, Dec 1. 1906; lot 108 in Bushs addition, Spring $450. Philip D Foster to Robert Sloteman, Sep 12, 1904; one lot in Spring twp. Thos J Sexton to Salinna Sioteman, Jan 5, 1907; lot 9 in Harrisonville, Spring twp. $1. I F Gates atty-in-fact to Lois M Gates Jan 4, 1907; 21/2 acres in Ferguson twp. W Harrison Walker trustee to E Grif-Boggs twp. $25.

Judges C. R. Savidge, of Northumberland, and Ellis Orvis, of Centre, propose to do a little business on the side when off the Bench. They are respectively president and vice president of a newly organized Sunbury Brick Company, which has acquired a large tract of valuable red shale and clay lands in Franklin township, Snyder county, along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and will shortly engage in brickmaking on an extensive scale

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertise ment in this column, one issue free, if it does a word, first issue, no adv. less than 25 cents; sense 40 erate ; & incres 50 contr

FOR SALE-House and lot on North Spring street. W. Harrison Walker, Atty.

FRESH COWS FOR SALE : - A George Valentine Jr., Bellefonte, Pa. SAWMILL: want to buy or rent a 2nd-hand sawmill for light power. John W. Eby. Zion. FOR SALE:—two cows, one will be fresh to-wards latter part of this month. Geo. E. Wise, Rebersburg.

MRS. CHARLES SNOOK :- died Sunday

FOR RENT—A steam-heated store room. 20x 100 feet, and offices in the Exchange building. Apply to F. W. Crider. x13

Ash, in boards and planks from 1% to 3 in by F. H. Clemson, Buffalo Run. WANTED :- a position as bookkeeper and general office work; wages reasonable. Edward H. Dale, State College, R. No. 3. 51-21

WANTED: horse in exchange for marble or granite work. Will exchange and pay difference if work be of small cost. L. F. Mayes, Le-producing farms in the county. Good orchard water, close to school, church and railroad, N. B. SANGLER, 42-3m. Bellefonte.

FOR SALE:—at Eshool, Perry Co., 3 farms, joining, acreage total 1010 timber total 2,000,000 ft.; will be sold cheap. The timber on 150 acres of land near Heela park. One million ft. standing yellow pine timber. 1-2 mile from R. R. at Cammal, Pa. Thos. N. Stover. Livonia, Pa.

100 lbs per head; matched pair of blacks mare and horse, four and five years old, weight over 1,000 lbs each; one yearling grey mare; one weanling mare, seven months old. Apply to George Valentine, Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR SALE-Ten head of shoats, weight about teas coffees, spices, baking powder and gro-cery specials; no better way to go in business for yourself; not necessary to invest any capi-tal. Call or address The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, 411 Lackawanna Avenue, Scranton, Pa. 47-6t ANNUAL ELECTION —The annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county, will be held in its office. Petrikin hall, Bellefonte, on Monday, Jan. 14. 1807, and the election of twelve directors for the ensuing year, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. of said day.

FREDERICK KURTZ, Pres't.

D. F. Luse, Sec'y.

D. F. LUSE, Sec'y. MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. The following prices prevailed Thursday The following prices are paid by SECHLER & Reliefonte-Grain The following prices are paid by C. Y. WAG-NER for grain