HOWARD.

The Christian chapel people, of Howard, are few in numbers, but large in spirit and friendship. Last Thursday the members of this church, also their friends and neighbors, gave Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Miner a complete surprise by calling in a body, and presenting to Mr. Miner a handsome umbrella as a reward for his faithfulness as Sunday school supt. During the holiday season the same denomination presented their organist, Miss Irena Pletcher, a handsome gold brooch, as a gift for her faithfulness at church services...

SPRING MILLS.

Now comes a season of business in activity. Mrs. John Hoy, from Pleasant Gap, is paying a visit to her parents, Mr. Stovers. Our young men had a fine fantastic parade on New Year's day. There was a longer line than in former years; they paraded from here to Millheim and back...

WOODWARD.

Lagrippe seems to have taken hold of most of the citizens in our community. Miss Bessie Von Neida who has been employed in Reading for sometime, returned home. C. T. K. is all smiles since his better half is working at his uncle's. Nice indeed, not Chas. C. W. Hosterman, wife and daughter Lida, spent a short time in Buffalo, N. Y., and Edinboro, Pa., among their children...

MIX THIS AT HOME.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to readily relieve and overcome any form of rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter from the blood and waste matter, relieving at once such symptoms as blackhead, weak kidneys and bladder and blood diseases. Try it, as it doesn't cost much to make, and is said to be absolutely harmless to the stomach...

HARRIS TWP.

Quite a number of young folks were entertained at Miss Winona Thomas' on Saturday evening. Among them were George Lohr and friend, and the worst of it was George was seen riding down the lane on Sunday morning in Boalsburg. Misses Mary Felty and Mae Laird visited at Stonevale on Sunday. Mrs. Cyrus Gearhart and children are now at her home. Report of Shingletown school: No. of scholars who did not miss a day during the month, are as follows: Miles Thomas, Roland Breon, Edgar Hess, Edna and Anna Leech, Nooy Breon and Ruth Koch. Per cent of attendance during the month is: boys 92; girls 90. This is the lowest per cent. of the term, and was caused by sickness of the past few weeks.

TYLERSVILLE.

We are having very warm weather at present, i. e., warm for this time of year. John Herlocher made a trip to Lock Haven on Saturday. Henry Embich, of Bull Run, visited his brother, Philip Embich, on Sunday. Charles Harbaugh and wife, of Carnolly, also visited Mr. Embich on Sunday. Newton Walizer and Calvin Confer, of Greenburr, visited Sylvanus Moyer on Sunday. The local institute will be held at this place on Feb. 2. The members of the committee will do their best to make it a success. Mrs. Catherine Shaffer is not improving we are sorry to say. Henry Grieb is making logs at Logan Mills, with Chas. Weaver and Wm. Caris for assistants. Ida, the young child of A. H. Caris, is quite ill. Some men are such hopeless fools that we feel like sending them to the home for incurables.

Now comes a season of business in activity. Mrs. John Hoy, from Pleasant Gap, is paying a visit to her parents, Mr. Stovers. Our young men had a fine fantastic parade on New Year's day. There was a longer line than in former years; they paraded from here to Millheim and back...

Its not too late yet to make New Year resolutions deliberately and then stick to them. As the days begin to lengthen, the cold begins to strengthen—we'll see. John Sowers, one of our young men who is employed as book-keeper at the Standard steel works, spent last week a few days at home. His holiday vacation was postponed as he could not get off during the real holidays...

The news came here of another of our young men meeting with success. Loyd Duck some time ago went to the Bannan steel works, and by his brightness and courteous manner, was promoted to act as correspondent for the steel works from Westinghouse, at Pittsburg. We wish him further success. Outside of the fantastics, New Year passed off very quietly. The absence of sleighing interested somewhat with the day's real enjoyment, specially on the part of the young people. Blanche Moyer, one of Colyer's grand checked girls, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Grenoble. With butter selling at 26 cents a pound and eggs at 24 cents a dozen, who wouldn't be a Gregg township farmer...

There is some whispering of getting a boiler factory to our town. This would be a great boon to our town as we have as fine a situation and opportunity for one as any place one could imagine. The subject for debate in the Penn. Literary society on Friday evening was, boys should stay on the farm. The affirmative side won. Tibben Zuber composed a poem, "The farm" and read it in society. He received great commendation for it. Many of our families are sick with lagrippe. It seems to be contagious as it grips every one in a family before leaving. The Presbyterian Sunday school treated its scholars on Sunday to a sack of mixed nuts and a ripe, luscious orange. John Heckman was attacked by a stroke of paralysis and his one entire side is paralyzed since. Mrs. Ed. Lingle was buried in the Georges valley cemetery on Sunday. She was a young woman and a daughter of James Houser.

F. of Monessen was seen in our town on last Friday. Miss Stella Miller, of Millheim, visited her brother Lawrence over Sunday. C. M. Stover employed at Hosterman, W. Va., spent Christmas with his father leaving again for his place of employment on the 3rd, accompanied by Harry Kessinger, and Geo. Fultz also Barney...

Harry Grenoble, after spending about four years in South Dakota, returned home to visit his parents. The report has reached us that Mrs. Amelia Williams, formerly of this place, but of late of Monessen, has been married to a doctor of said place. The scribe wishes her a long and happy journey through life. Mrs. Calvin Eby, of Burnhans, visited at N. W. Eby's last week. Both churches at this place held their quarterly communion services on Sunday night. Hub and Brownie make regular trips to one of our neighboring towns. I wonder why. We are glad that some of the young folks of some other town have so much grace, when they come to our town.

Meeting is still in progress. Those on the sick list are: Henry Heaton, W. T. Fetzer and H. O. Miller. A twelve pound girl came to brighten the home of William Poorman, Saturday. Kay Martin is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Croft. Edward Mayes, of Snow Shoe, visited the Kessling brothers, recently. George Walker and wife, Sundayed out of town. Miss Gertrude Confer attended the opera, Quincy Adams Sawyer, in Bellefonte Friday night, and on Saturday morning journeyed on to Altoona, where she will spend a week visiting friends. Harry Hagen and lady, of Beech Creek, James Wentzell and sister, of Pleasant Valley, attended church at this place Sunday evening. A party was held at the home of J. E. very beautiful manner by E. B. Pownell. Miss Nora Poorman, of this place, visited at the home of St. Walker in Howard, last week, and is now spending sometime in Williamsport. Before returning home she will visit Wm. Bluebell, of Snow-shoe. While Philip Iddings and David McCloskey were crossing Bald Eagle creek, on the ice, Dave noticed a muskrat track; he scented the track to where there was an opening in the ice, went too close and fell in. Meanwhile Mr. Iddings ran down along the creek and cut a hole, thinking he would pull him out, but he only saw the musk rat. As the ice has gone out since then, perhaps someone has found Dave down about Milesburg. Twenty-five cents reward. Lost—A mitten: Finder please return to Mrs. Hezekiah Walker. Martin Fetzer transacted business at Snow Shoe, recently. Henry, Harry and Jackson Confer, of Howard, visited friends here last week. S. K. Watson, was a Milesburg visitor, recently. Forest Aikens and Clayton Sliker, passed through this place last week on their way from monument to their home at Moose Run.
