Oran Poorman, wife and two children, were Yarnell visitors, Sunday. Howard Watson, who spent Christmas with his parents here, returned to Medix run, Wednesday. Those who are on the sick list are: Mrs. Nancy Lucas and Mrs. Joe Alexander. Mrs. Ida Poorman made a flying trip to Butts Sta. on Monday. Dr. Irvin's smiling face is quite frequently seen on our streets. Among the pleasant visitors of the holiday week were Santa Claus and his wife. Mrs. G. M. Fetzer and son Austin spent one day last week in Mt. Eagle, with her mother, Mrs. Treasurer, who is on the sick list. Claude Poorman, wife and son Ralph, spent Sunday at John Walker's. Messrs. Edward, Joseph and Bert Kesling, of Yarnell, spent Sunday afternoon at the Fetzer home. John Burfield, who is working at Medix run, spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle, John Walker. Runville No. 1 and 2, where are you? Mell Kelley was seen on our streets again. Clayton Walker has returned home from the woods for the present. Elias Hand and Miles Green returned home Thursday, and were accompanied by Mr. Green's brother, Frank Green, of Dagus Mines.

MOSHANNON.

Glenn Williams has gone to Philadelphia, where he expects to enter Williams' college. Morris Gleason was a business visitor in Houtzdale last week. Thos. Fleming, of Brown's, was circulating among his many friends on Tuesday. Rosella McGowan, of Snow Shoe, spent several days with her cousin, Helen McGowan. Chester Beightol and G. A. Daugherty, of Pine Glenn, were visitors in town on Friday. Mrs. George Rupely, of Pottersdale, spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. W. Howard. Mr. Barr and wife, of Winburne, were visitors at the Reiter home on Saturday. Sarah Repperly spent a few days at her home in Winburne last week. Nell E. Tubridy has returned to Emporium after having spent the past few days with her aunt. Edward Shanon made a business trip to Clearfield on Monday. Those on the sick list are: Margaret Bierly, Mrs. Frank Culver, Mrs. Jackson Watson, Thos. Gleason, Sr., Rachel Lucas, Mrs. Sarah Viechtor. We hope for their recovery. Mr. Reuben, one of Lock Haven's hustling insurance agents, was a business visitor in our town on Friday. Herbert Craft and wife spent Sunday at the former's home on "Windy Hill." Michael Kerin, of Viaduct, Laura Williams, of Gorton, and Rhoda Weaver, of Cato, spent Sunday at their respective homes.

HAINES TWP.

Warm January weather, so far. Mrs. D. D. Breon is spending several weeks with her parents, Jacob Winkleblech's, in Brushvalley, and Lettie Breon, of Sober, has charge of her house work in her absence. Grant Stanley, of near Williamsport, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry Zerby. Those who spent Sunday at J. D. Durr's were: E. F. Jackson and wife, Ed. Glantz and wife, and Messrs. Harry Wolf and Arch. Whitmeyer, of Fiedler, J. W. Zerby and family, of Millheim, spent Sunday at R. B. Hosterman's; also Gurney Hosterman. Chas. Lingle has moved from Georges valley into Luther Stover's house. Durbin Musser, wife and son Paul, spent Sunday at Enoch Kreamer's. Mrs. Kreamer is on the sick list. Today, Thursday, Edward Bressler will move to Aaronsburg and F. S. Tomlinson, the up-to-date farmer from Clearfield, will occupy the farm which Bressler vacated. Misses Maud and Bessie Hosterman made a business trip to Coburn on Saturday. The grangers at Fiedler unloaded a carload of soft coal at Coburn last week.

PLEASANT VIEW.

Mrs. Bertie Confer is recovering from a severe attack of grippe. George Summers and wife, of Wingate, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Bertie Confer. It is only the unmarried men who talk loudly about what they would and would not let their wives do. The married men are silent.

GREGG TWP.

FARMERS MILLS. Blanche Hagan, of Bellefonte, is visiting her parents. Tessie Dunkle has gone to spend the winter at State College. Mr. Laubauch and friend, Miss Stamm, spent a few days at the home of Geo. Barnes. Those on the sick list are: Geo. Bright and family, Bruce Hagan and grandmother Houtz; she is in her 94th year. Geo. Barnes and family spent Sunday at Oak Hall. Arthur Grove and family spent Sunday in Brushvalley. Dora Wance, of Aaronsburg, visited her friend, Cora Frederick. A few of our young folks attended the dance at Beaver dam. Rena Rishel and Tessie Dunkle called on their friend, Mary Barner, one day last week. Maurice Long went to Burnham for employment.

YANKEETOWN.

E. E. Smith was housed up last week with a severe attack of grippe. Newton Zerby and wife visited friends in Millheim, Saturday. Ed. Baney and sister Verna visited their grand-parents in Millheim over Sunday. Frank Richardson and family visited friends at Woodward. Harry Weaver and daughter Eveline, were housed up with grippe last week. E. H. Mark visited his parents one day last week. C. P. Long is getting the telephone in his house; we suppose the neighbors will soon follow his example. Henry Mark and wife spent Sunday afternoon at Spring Mills at the home of the lady's brother, J. F. Heckman, who was stricken with apoplexy. Mrs. Harvey Bailey is busy quilting since the wedding.

PENN CAVE.

Lots of rain through this section caused much sickness. Mrs. Lotie Hettinger was not able to be out on account of a bad cold. William Lucas has the grip. Hayes Reifsynder is spending some time with J. W. Tressler after working at Burnham. The Egg Hill tin band was out serenading; how about it Thurman? J. W. Tressler killed a fine porker last week weighing 419. Miss Cora Brown spent Saturday at Boalsburg. William Reifsynder spent a short time with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Tressler, last week.

MURRAY SCHOOL DISTRICT.

Col. Decker returned home on Friday evening from a week's trip to Philadelphia. A good many young people from this place attended the chicken and waffle supper at Madisonburg, on Saturday evening. Mrs. Nevin Fiedler and Lettie Rachau spent Monday at the home of Benj. Limbert. The latest thing in going to parties at present is, for the girl to furnish the sleigh and her escort the horse. Preaching in Bethesda church on Sunday evening, Jan. 20. Mame Wert spent Saturday night with her friend, Elvie Limbert.

NORTH CENTRAL.

I. C. Spayd was about the last to butcher. George Shook was in our burg on Saturday evening. John Long and wife attended preaching at Madisonburg on Sunday evening. Mrs. John Rachau is on the sick list; also Lizzie Philips. George Long and wife spent a few days last week with the lady's mother, Mrs. John Long. Wanted—an old maid or lady to become the wife of a certain widower in our burg. SPAYD'S GAP. Artie Keller and Domer Rachau are on the sick list. B. F. Jackson, who had a severe cut on his foot, is slowly improving. Annie Rachau spent Thursday afternoon with her friend, Kathryn Jackson. Clara Rachau and two children were visitors at W. C. Keller's last week. Oliver Rachau spent Sunday with Geo. Jackson.

GREENBURR.

Warm, rain and mud. William, Calvin and Benjamin Confer, after spending the holidays with their families, returned to Milroy on Monday. John Snyder and Mrs. Eva Esenwine, of Salona, spent Sunday at Greenburr. Protracted meeting has been in progress for a week in St. Paul's Evangelical church. Mrs. Ida Wyle and son, after spending a week with her parents, returned to her home at Aaronsburg on Thursday last. Charles Stover bought a fine young horse from Fred Siegel. Daniel Larney will move to Union Co. in the spring. Samuel Shaffer and wife returned to their home after a visit to relatives in Bellwood.

BELLE GROVE.

The protracted meeting closed in Bush hollow last Sunday on account of quarterly meeting at Unionville. John Spotts is on the sick list. A visitor came to Jim Burd's; it came to stay; one also to Jacob Cashmere's. E. P. Barton has been husking corn for David Spotts. Mrs. Rachel Spotts was keeping house for Mrs. Launsberry a few days. Mrs. Mary Spotts was to Tyrone to see James Resides, who has been very ill, but learn he is somewhat better. Tacie and Verna Shipley were visiting their sister, Mrs. Charlie Bush. Harry Stere is at home again. Alfred Spotts and Harry Kunes were to Tyrone to see Mr. Resides.

ROMOLA.

Charles Miller, of Orvis, spent Sunday with friends at this place. Miss Pearl Brickly spent a few days in Altoona last week. Charles and Mitchell Weaver bought the Heverly farm and are busy cutting the timber. Lemuel Poorman was moving his furniture through this place toward Orvis. Mrs. Ella Brickly returned from Jefferson last week. Peter Robb was seen taking a load of corn into Hayes Run on Saturday. The sounding of self-praise is a positive weakness with many persons.

POTTER TWP.

Jesse Long, tenant on the Andrew Corman farm, near Spring Mills, will have sale and move to Burnham in the spring. David Sowers, of Spring Mills, also intends to move to Burnham, where he and his son John are employed, the former as a watchman and the latter as a clerk for the Standard company. Among the young men to begin farming in the spring is W. W. Ingram, now the right-hand man with Wm. E. Tate, west of Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Ingram will move to near Struble Station, above State College, on the farm of Henry Snyder. Aaron Lutz has leased the Dale farm, on Nittany Mountain, and will move there in the Spring from the Bible farm, east of Centre Hall. Jerre Zettle, of Staver's Church, Wisconsin, was an arrival at Spring Mills last Friday. Mr. Zettle went west twenty years ago and this is his first visit east. EARLYSTOWN.

The straw party at the Fort was well attended and all had a very pleasant time, and a fine layout which brought a smile on all faces. Mrs. D. L. Bartez went to Johnstown to visit her daughter, Mrs. Reiter, and from there she will go to Wilmerding to call on her son Thomas and family expecting to be back the latter part of this week. We are sorry to hear of the fall Mrs. Frank Moyer had; hope she will soon be around again. The party at Chas. Neff's was a jolly one, a fine time and lots to eat; will go again Charles. The table at the Fort seated about 60 for New Years. It seems the thinking of the boys and teacher at Earlystown school, did not run in the same way, one morning; at least as young Americans, the boys locked out the teacher, but Tom took it very cool, as he was a boy once himself. EARLYSTOWN, No. 2.

James Waddle and wife came on the 22nd of Dec. to spend their wedding trip to their uncle, George Michael's, and with his aunt, Mrs. S. C. Saul. Maggie Stiner spent a week at Oak farm. Mrs. D. W. Bradford spent Sunday at Oak farm. Charles Saul is on the sick list. Rev. Seyler and wife spent Sunday at George Michael's. Fannie Knoffsinger spent two days at Oak farm.

MT. EAGLE.

Ward Daughenbaugh, wife and daughter, spent Sunday at Mrs. Daughenbaugh's sisters, Mrs. Arthur Bathurst, at Roland. Jacob Schenk and wife, after spending a few days with friends and relatives at Philipsburg and Ocoala Mills, have returned home. Mrs. James Hayes and two sons spent Sunday at this place. Floyd Bathurst made a business trip to Howard, Friday. Anna Dunkle, who spent a few days with her mother here, has returned to State College. Nora Shank after visiting a few days with her parents here, returned to Howard. Pearl Gates, of Kennedy, was seen on our streets Saturday. Mrs. J. I. Dunkle spent Sunday at Roland. Celia Smoyer, of Snow Shoe, is spending some time with her uncle here.

COBURN.

Among the many who are afflicted with colds and grippe, Francis Long and Reuben Harter are very ill. Miss Kathryn Kerstetter spent last week with her sister Mrs. L. L. Weaver, at Pine Creek. Wm. Hazel, Jr., and family visited his sister, Mrs. Cora Hosterman, one day last week. Emanuel Harter and wife, of Brushvalley, visited at the home of Reben Harter on Monday. Mrs. Cora Hosterman and two daughters, Lulu and Estella, visited relatives in Madisonburg over Sunday. P. S. Kerstetter is learning telegraphy id depot at this place.

WADDLE.

Protracted meeting is now in progress at the U. B. church. Miss Eva Syllis, of Stormstown, spent a few days with her friend, Miss Jessie Way; of course, you know, she has another friend around here; how about it Lester? The presiding Elder gave us a very fine sermon on Sunday night at the U. B. church. Dan Letzell and his friend Miss Syler spent Sunday at Mrs. J. E. Way's.

LAUREL HOLLOW.

Misses Mame Zerby, Verna and Kate Rachau were seen here, Sunday. Samuel Beck made a trip to Bellefonte on Saturday. Those who spent Sunday at J. W. Beck's were, Misses Sara Gentzel, Mazie Emerick; also Cora Weaver, Clarence Philips and Harry Stevenson. Those on the sick list were, Mrs. J. W. Beck, Miss Celesta Beck. The chicken and waffle supper at Madisonburg was largely attended. J. W. Beck and James Wert made a trip to Burnham last week. Katie and Daniel Gentzel Sundayed at C. A. Weaver's.

KEEP IN GOOD HEALTH.

There are many thousands of people all over the world who can attribute their good health to taking one or two Brandreth's Pills every night. These pills cleanse the stomach and bowels, stimulate the kidneys and liver and purify the blood. They are the same laxative tonic pill your grandparents used, and being purely vegetable they are adapted to children and old people as well as to those in the vigor of manhood and womanhood. Brandreth's Pills have been in use for over a century and can be obtained in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated. Congratulations rarely convey a fair idea of the true state of feelings.

JULIAN.

We wish to correct the statement made in our items, whoever the correspondent was, about the Penna. R. R. erecting a power house west of the station. Instead of a power house so called it will be a tower. This tower will be occupied by both a day and night operator, and the understanding is that the operating, as far as train telegraphing, will be taken out of the ticket office. Mr. Ardell and wife returned from their honeymoon on Tuesday of last week; they were given a warm reception the same evening by our boys and girls. Those who have not had an opportunity, wish to congratulate you and wish you a long, happy and prosperous life. Gladys looks quite young. Don't forget the oyster supper that will be given in Nason's Hall, on Saturday evening, Jan. 19th. Our lodge, The light of the Legion, will serve the supper, also candy and cake, etc. All come and do yourselves justice. Roland McKenzy is one of the lads in the case that ever played the slip on the Julian people. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Platts, of the Presbyterian church of Bellefonte; on their return home the same day Mrs. McKenzy, mother of the groom, had prepared a bouillabaisse supper. The following day the bride and groom left for Tyrone, where he is employed by the Penna. R. R. company. Accept our hearty congratulations, and we'll see you later. What do you know about this? Some of our citizens are making remarks that are very disrespectful about our teacher. This is only done by people who are jealous of his position. There's another term coming; try again. Wonder who the writer was that reported last week that Col. Andrew's fine horse had died. This statement has been denied. E. S. Bullock and wife gave a party last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ardell; over twenty guests were present and all report having a jolly time. Master Tallheim left Sunday morning with his aunt, Phena Tallheim, for Johnstown, where he will go to school the balance of the winter. Frank, when do you expect to go back on the farm, feeding swine? that's your place—nit— The very best quality of oysters has been ordered for the oyster supper, to be given by our lodge, on Jan. 19th. Don't forget the date.

BLACK OAK.

There is a large amount of tie making going on in this place. Miss Mae Flick is on the sick list with lagrip. We have the prize tie-block cutters around here. O. P. Nason and Peter Coyle cut 400; George Flick and J. C. Andrews cut 440; Thomas Passel cut 300—I am just taking their word for it. Miss Olive Straw, who for the past two weeks has been visiting at Pittsburg, with her gentleman friend, returned home last week. Geo. Flick, Jr., left Monday for Altoona. Miss Anna Andrews spent New Year in Lock Haven; she reports a good time. Henry Cronister returned to Pittsburg, where he is teaching school. Big meeting broke up at Julian, last week; it had good success. Gordon Straw and wife of Altoona, came home to spend New Years. A. W. Hartscock killed some very fine hogs; he said it would have made the other pound, if he had not cut the head so close. If you have any apples to sell, bring them to George Flick, he is the prize seller now; he makes the trip to Winburne in three days.

UNIONVILLE.

James Alexander, after spending his holidays at the home of his father, Wm. A. Alexander, returned to Philadelphia where he has received a free three-years' scholarship in the school of Mechanical Arts. Milton Peters has developed into a first class electrician. Our street lamps are giving first class satisfaction under his supervision. John Bush, of Mount Union, called at my sanctum a few days ago. He is a son of the late, John M. Bush, and was born and raised at Waddle station. He left that section 20 years ago and like many others, wants me to go up to his place in my automobile. He said his wife, who was a Miss Stroud, of State College, can hardly wait from one week to the next for the Centre Democrat to make it's appearance and wonders why it might not as well come two or three times a week. Lost—A pair of men's gum shoes—reward—Jos. Gill. We are sorry to learn of the mishap that befel our genial friend, brakeman Paul Neff, who had his arm so badly scalded by uncoupling a steam pipe before the steam was turned off. While the scald was not a dangerous one, it was nevertheless serious and painful. The sad feature of his mishap is the fact that the scalded arm is the one with which he encompassed "Waist" places. Will Kreps, who has been at the home of his mother, Code Kreps, for several weeks, seriously ill with typhoid fever, has so far recovered as to be able to leave for his home in Altoona. Mrs. Francis Ammerman had a set of silver tea spoons and a set of dessert spoons stolen out of her home recently while she was temporarily absent. This was a dastardly trick and we hope the guilty party or parties can have no rest day nor night until they return them. Mrs. Riley Pratt, at this writing Wednesday morning, is still lying in a comatose state and no hope of her recovery is entertained by her friends. Our town was in a fever of excitement on last Sunday morning when the news of the sad death of Wm. Z. McLeer was learned through the Sunday city paper. Mr. McLeer was the husband of Mary Bing, daughter of the late Ex-County Commissioner, John Bing. She has hosts of friends in this community, all of whom sympathize sincerely in her great bereavement. The mad, the mad, the horrible mad! That's spread on our pavements so thick; If Lindy was wise, he could see with his eyes. 'T were better to lay them with brick. Ditto: Wm. A. Peters, also Joseph T. Barton around the burner Corbet, likewise a number of other citizens. Do give us better payments? I will try my auto next week sure, nothing unforeseen preventing.

WINGATE.

Verna Moran Sundayed at her uncle G. D. Hoovers. Clayton Boob, of Salona, Sundayed with his uncle Daniel Boob's. Franklin Warner, who spent some time with his grandparents, returned to Greensburg, where he is employed. The temperance rally that was held in the church on Sunday morning, by Rev. Crittenden, was largely attended and was a great benefit to young men. Myra Lannen left for Bellefonte on Tuesday, and a few days later was called home on account of serious illness of her mother. Grace L. Boob spent a few days last week among relatives at Curtin and Bellefonte. Mrs. Rachel Comely, of the township home, was very unfortunate in falling down the cellar steps and was very badly injured; she is improving.

SOBER.

Miss Dora Gentzel was a caller at Mr. Feidler's, Sunday afternoon. Big meeting started at Paradise, Saturday eve. Mrs. Amanda Smith is a caller at Oscar Wolf's. Mrs. Susan Green spent Sunday at L. P. Smith's. Mrs. Andrew Zerby spent a few days at the home of U. G. Aumans. Mrs. Amelia Neese, who spent some time at Bellefonte, returned home. Wm. Vonada and wife, who spent Christmas with their daughter at Buffalo, N. Y., returned home.

Y. M. C. A. Events.

There will be something doing in the line of sports, in the Y. M. C. A., during February. Keep these dates in mind: Feb. 8th—Renovo vs. Bellefonte, basket ball. Feb. 15th—Junior exhibition and basket ball. Feb. 21st—Williamsport vs. Bellefonte basket ball. Feb. 28th—Indoor athletic meet. Haupt Bros. were awarded the contract for laying a concrete floor in the county prison.

NEWS CONCERNING KATZ & CO'S WHITESALE

You'll be left—mind what we tell you. We don't say this to hurry you in, but the best bargains are selling like hot cakes, and it is up to you whether you get your share or somebody else gets it. For instance, one number of skirts selling at $1.85, regular price $3.25, was closed out last Saturday night. Of course, there are plenty of others to take its place, but this was a Jim Dandy. Anyways, there are no more of them left now. 25c corset covers at 15c, lace trimmed, one row of beading, and set in Ribbon. Ladies' gowns, neatly tucked and Embroidery Trimmed, worth 75c, but now selling at 49c. Childrens' drawers at 5c and 10c a pair, worth at regular prices, 25c. Ladies' umbrella Drawers at 25c, worth at regular prices 39c. Table Linen 25c, regular 50c and 75c qualities. Bed Spreads at 98c. You can't match them anywhere in town at $1.50 and $2. Mercerized Madras at 19c a yard, worth from 25c to 50c a yard and 50 pieces of new plaid and Striped Swiss at 25c a yard; something new this season. All this and ten thousand other things for you to see when you come in is hardly to be snickered at. Is it?

DON'T WAIT FOR TOMORROW, BUT COME TODAY. First Choice is Always Best.
