—William Zerby, Esq., has purchased the Fred Mosberger residence on Bishop street where he and his bride will go to housekeeping. It is a desirable property and will make a comfortable home.

—One of the most popular places of amusement in Bellefonte is the dances given by Miss Eva Crissman in the Bush Arcade Hall; Friday evening it was well attended and everybody had a most enjoyable time.

—There were seven snows in January, with a total of 19 inches, equivalent to two inches of rain. During the month there were nine rains, a total of 3.49 inches of rain. Total precipitation for the month, melted snow and rain, 5.40 inches.

—Last week D. F. Fortney was to Danville, Pa., where he was one of the principal speakers before the school directors' convention at that place. Mr. Fortney has made the subject of our schools a study for years and naturally is in demand on such occasions.

—The Bellefonte Trust Co. has a new advertisement in this issue intended to interest the boys and girls over the county. It is an important topic, about how to save money and make money work for you, by starting early in saving your pennies. By following the plan the company offers, the time will come when you can stop working for money, as you can make money work for you instead. Keep your eye on the little bank.

—Architect Robert Cole has given $50 to the building fund of the Bellefonte hospital. Ex-Sheriff Daniel Woodring has given $5.00 for the same purpose. The object is a worthy one and there should be many more persons in Bellefonte and Centre county to follow the example of Messrs. Cole and Woodring. The institution is a good one, and all the patients and their friends are sounding its praises. More rooms are absolutely necessary in order to do more efficient work.

—Friday evening Henry Rothrock, of near Bellefonte, was going home with a load of coal. When opposite the brick schoolhouse, on East Bishop St., he got off the wagon to fix something and while he was gone the horse slipped, and he fell to the ground. He struck his face against the wheel of the single tree, the result being that the entire eyelid of the left eye was torn away and a deep gash was made on his forehead. A physician was summoned who found him in bad shape. Since then he has been under medical treatment and he is getting along as well as can be expected.

—For the last month Rev. James Stein, pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, has been conducting a revival meeting at which many young people have come forth and made a profession of Christ after which they were taken into the church upon probation. Last Sunday afternoon almost two hundred men gathered in the main auditorium to listen to a plain, practical address made by Rev. Stein after which a large number stood up for prayer. He is a hard worker and deeply interested in the souls of men. In the service he was assisted by Rev. W. B. Cox and Dr. Benjamin Hill, of State College.

—About ten days ago Knisely Brothers, proprietors of the store and pool room, piled one of their show windows full of cigar boxes and started a contest. With every purchase the purchaser was entitled to a guess as to the number. Much interest was aroused, and the extravagant way some of the fellows guessed they must have thought that the boxes had their foundation in the cellar, as the guessing ranged anywhere between 200 and 1,000. Monday the boxes were counted when it was found that there were 310, the successful prize winners being Dave Wireman, H. H. Montgomery, Victor Meyers and R. Hunter. They being all of the same mind, each was given a prize.

—Next Sabbath the people of Bellefonte and vicinity are invited to join in celebrating the anniversary of the Centre County Bible Society. In the morning, at 10:30 o'clock the first service will be held in the Methodist church, when the United Brethren, Evangelical and the African Methodist congregations will unite. Another special service will be held in the Presbyterian church in the evening when the Reformed, Lutheran and Episcopal congregations will join. The regular services will be conducted in these churches in the morning. The anniversary speaker will be Rev. Leighton W. Erhard, D. D., of Philadelphia, who is an interesting and forcible speaker. It is to be hoped that both these services will be well attended. Appropriate music will be provided for these meetings.

—E. T. Gregory, agent for the National Biscuit Company, with headquarters at the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Thursday morning of last week, with the thermometers ranging from 15 to 20 degrees below zero, in company with Liveryman DeHans, drove from the Bald Eagle station to Beech Creek. The only protection to his hands was a pair of thin kid gloves. He put his hands up to his ears to shield them from the cold, and when he arrived at his destination it was found he had frozen his hands and fingers, being so cold that he could not get his gloves off. After holding his hands in the snow for some time and receiving some treatment from Dr. H. H. Moershaug, he felt relieved. His ears were also touched by the frost but not near as much as his hands. He is now going to ask the company to supply him with a pocket stove and some ginger oil to make such trips.

—Last week we were obliged to omit several communications, except such as were strictly news local, for want of space, which was taken up for the accommodation of our advertisers, and also refused some ads. for same reason.

—There will be no race Sunday in Bellefonte if John Love, of Willowbank street, and "Tom" Murphy, of Lamb street, can help it. At the Love home the stark left a little girl, and Friday the bird flew down the chimney at the Murphy home and left a boy.

—C. M. Parrish, the druggist, is receiving congratulations over the arrival of a little girl that came to his home Sunday evening about 7 o'clock. The fact that it was a girl pleases "Buz" more than anything else. Monday all day he was full of joy for utterance. He now has a son and daughter, which should make any married man happy. There are a half dozen married men in Bellefonte now looking on the successful pharmacist with considerable envy.

—W. H. Macker, the huckster and produce dealer, has branched out in the wholesale business, and from now on will always be found in Bellefonte. He has bought out Jacob Herman of Leomont, who for years has been in that business, and who has retired. This gives Mr. Macker a larger scope of territory, and an opportunity for making a little money. He deals in eggs, pork, chickens and everything in that line. He will buy them here and ship them to the eastern markets.

—The ladies of Bellefonte who are interested in the Loyal Temperance Union are in such circumstances that they would not need to devote several hours each week to the boys and girls of our town, but their great desire is to help them to grow up and become useful men and women. The ladies have a regular course of study for the boys and girls so that it is schooling for them, and thus every mother should urge her children to attend the meetings of the league, which are held each Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—John Toner Harris, brother of Hard and James Harris, of Bellefonte, belonged to the Elks, of Altoona. On leaving there and going to Harrisburg to become assistant traffic manager for the Pennsylvania Telephone Co., the lodge presented him with a beautiful emblem in shape of a folk charm, the base of which is a genuine Elk's tooth. Surrounding the tooth is a shield on which is the emblem of the fraternity, an Elk head. On the reverse side is another emblematic symbol of Elkdom, the clock face and the initials, "B. P. O. E.," worked in gold.

—During the past week the County Commissioners unpacked some metallic furniture for storing away books and papers pertaining to the office. It is compact and ornamental, and practically fire proof, of about same character as was put in the new State Capitol, but the officials did not contract for it by the foot, yard or pound; and got it at a reasonable price. The vast amount of documents and records in large books in the court house is gradually filling up the different vaults, and ere long it will be a serious question to find room for them unless a new vault is constructed for the excess.

—E. R. Taylor, manager of the Bellefonte skating rink, is going to give a masque carnival on Thursday evening, February 7th. The first one proved to be such a grand success that there was a special request that he should have another. Mr. Taylor is doing all he can to make this one better still. The music will be furnished by the Coleville band, and the entire affair will be unique. The grand march will take place promptly at 8:30 o'clock instead of 9. Persons contemplating going in masque should notify Manager Taylor a few days in advance so that he can reserve seats. All persons in masque will have to reveal their identity before being admitted. —Joseph Rumbler the plumber, had the misfortune the other day of bursting a small blood vessel in his arm. "Joe" was beginning to think that the time of his departure was about at hand, and all those little "cuss" words he said while putting together gas, water and steam heating pipes, flashed across his mind. He suffered some from it, but he soon recovered and is down to work again.

—Herbert Shaffer, formerly of Bellefonte, but now in the lime and stone business at Milroy, visited his parents and friends here on Friday. "Hen" as he is known among his friends, is making quite a record as a poultryman, and is now studying to secure a method to make hens lay whether they want to or not, especially at a time when eggs are commanding 40 cents a dozen. Give him time and he will work them to death.

—500 more men are wanted to attend the "mens meeting number two," in the Methodist church, next Sunday at 3:30 p. m. The meeting for "Men Only," last Sunday was a marked success as nearly 200 men were present. The interest was intense and we believe a lasting impression was made. We have been solicited by many to complicate the meeting, most gladly do we yield to these solicitations, and cordially invite all men to join us. J. B. Stein, pastor.

—The Graham sisters intend to break up housekeeping in the immediate future. Mrs. Ester Gordon has gone to Philadelphia and will spend the winter with her brother Benner, and family and Miss Sallie will go with her sister Mary to Lewistown. Mrs. Tamaxine Lane, wife of the late James B. Lane, has rented the house and will take possession on April first.

—Within the last ten days two new articles of furniture were placed in County Commissioner's office in the court house. In the vault, connected with the same office, is another steel case used for placing papers that are frequently used for holding books.
