EDITORIAL.

ALL-republicans who really "stand by Roosevelt," are on the democratic platform in its main timbers.

THE "No Treating" bill, if passed, will knock the props from under many a candidate for office, who has no other merit than to offer drinks to make votes.

THE President nominated J. G. McCamant for postmaster at Tyrone. Everybody is anxious to see what will happen in Bellefonte as the term of the present postmaster has almost expired.

THE news from the Dakotas is chilling—people frozen, cattle frozen, snows deep, and fuel scarce in some parts, no coal on account of railroad blockaded by drifts.

"STAND by Roosevelt," so lustily cried by the capitol trimmers last fall, to divert attention from their crime, is not sounded any more.

LYCOMING county is about to start an Historical Society, and have about 125 names to start with. This is about the membership of the Centre Co. Historical Society.

MOSHANNON.

Miss Mary Tubridy returned to her home in Rochester, on Saturday; she was accompanied as far as Clearfield, by her aunt.

Miss Mae Walker, of Bellefonte, was a pleasant guest over Sunday at the home of her uncle, Henry Barger.

On last Friday eve, a load of Snow Shoe's most popular young people, took advantage of the good sleighing and attended the M. S. S. exercises.

On Tuesday all eyes were gladdened by a fall of snow of about 8 inches, which now makes good sleighing.

H. S. Cramer was a business visitor in Philadelphia last week.

Hugh Ward and daughter Annie, were visitors in Bellefonte, last week.

Mrs. Barbara Wagner, of Philipsburg, spent Thursday with her friend, Mrs. Cramer.

On Friday eve the Modern Literary Society held its usual Friday evening exercises, and this meeting proved to be the most interesting meeting of all, and the largest in attendance.

A quiet and enjoyable affair took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McCartney, of Marsh Creek, Tuesday, Jan. 8, being the 50th year of their married life.

Have A Good Sale.

Lent will begin on Wednesday, February 13, 1907, and Easter comes on Sunday, March 31, which is unusually early. The date of the latter will probably interfere with the display of elegant costumes and "nobby" bonnets.

A Superior Court Decision.

The superior court has handed down an opinion that sustains the opinion of Judge Harold M. McClure, on the provisions of the road law of 1905, which gives townships the right to vote on the abolition of work tax.

A GOOD warm Overcoat or Suit is a mighty welcome thing these days. Surely mighty welcome at the extreme low prices at which they are being sold. You remember last January with its drifts of snow and piercing winds. How the frost needles pierced you through and through. How your very marrow was chilled. The weather man says that history will repeat itself this month, and so this great sale of Winter Suits and Overcoats could not have happened at a better time.
