Mr. Kuhn is on the sick list. Robert Leech is champion fox hunter of this town. He shot at a fox from one mountain to another, and if he had killed that one, he would have had a half dozen in one day...

FILLMORE.

A sled load of young folks took an enjoyable trip to Bellefonte last week. James Lutz has his choppin' ready for work; come and give Jimmie a trial. We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Dorsey Green is on the sick list at present. A sled load of jolly young folks from Roopsburg came to the home of Ira Marshall last Thursday evening. We hear that they had a fine time till they started home and then they had a fine time hunting their straw and their wet robes; the next time stand your team in the stable and you won't be harmed; it was too bad a night for a team to stand out.

WADDLE.

Carrie Waddle, of Fillmore, spent Sunday with her friend Mary Cross. Hello, Fillmore; here we are; you said last week you would like to hear from us the week before you said that Buffalo Run was slow; remember Waddle is right along Buffalo Run, everybody has been wondering why no one at Fillmore had a cold but me, just found out that they are too slow to catch one. Bertha Eddy and Grace Fry, of Valley View, spent last week with their friend Jessie Way. George Kelley, wife, and family, spent part of last week at Philipsburg. Strange how everyone in this world always wants a lower berth but for the next would prefer an upper.

COLLEGE TWP.

BRANCH. Miss Verna Hoy came home after spending some time with friends, in Altoona. Those who spent Sunday evening at John Breen's, were Mrs. Nolan, Harry Musser, Ralph Musser, Samuel Everhart and Henry Lents. Miss Margaret Musser spent Sunday at Peru. William Breen and Henry Dale spent Sunday with their friend Jared Lytle. Miss Winona Thomas spent Sunday with her friend Katie Breen. Quite a few from the Branch attended the festival on Saturday evening at Pinegrove.

UNION TWP.

BELL GROVE. Wagner Stern & Co., are buying coal bank props, both on the stump and off. Anybody having timber to sell, can find a market for it with these parties. Engineer Hall, of Unionville, shipped a nice car load of apples last week, the car was loaded by Joseph Brugger and Miles Hall. It was a fine car load of fruit; it went to Pittsburgh. If you want any wood work and trimming done see A. V. Williams and W. A. Spotts. Alfred Spotts is hauling bank props for Jacob Spotts. The Free Methodists held their district quarterly conference in Tyrone, last sabbath.

BENNER TWP.

ROCK VIEW. A jolly crowd from here went down to John Heaman's on Thursday night and had a fine time. Grace Hoy and Earl White are on the sick list. Lewis Peters is building an air ship to fly over to school. He says it will not be so hard on the polish on his shoes. There will be speeches at the high school on the 22. And Lewis Peters will sing a solo, he is a charming singer. S. H. Hoy has cut the ice on the pond at the fish hatchery. A large number attended the farmers institute at Pleasant Gap.

Emerson Weiser, of Millheim, while using his pocket knife to shave a piece of wood at school, cut an artery in his right leg. In some way the knife slipped while he was using it and penetrated the leg right above the knee.

SPRING MILLS.

Many young folks here are having great sport "sledding" these days. The sport is exhilarating but not without an element of danger. Rev. Haney was chosen to lead the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday evening. Last week one evening, about thirty young people had a play party at Charles Weaver's, where they were served with ice cream, cakes, apple and taffy. Some didn't get home the "wee sma' hours. All had a pleasant time. An eastern prophet has predicted dire calamities during the year of 1907, by the way the year has begun, it looks as though he may have hit it. Rev. Eicano Duck, from Near Jersey, made a short visit to his parental home. Howard Weaver will move from the Allison farm in the spring. W. H. Sinkabine purchased a new piano from some western city. James Leitzell is buying up walnut logs. This splendid sleighing brought in farmers from long distances with wood and provisions, for man and beast. The body of Mrs. Chas Snyder, from Eagleville, was shipped here and interred, by Smith Bros., in the Heckman cemetery. Dr. Braucht is busy every day visiting the sick. A certain business man who never advertises, was asked the other day how business was. He replied "Some day I do nothing and other days I do twice as much. A certain woman in this vicinity, who persists in poisoning cats, dogs and chickens, for her neighbors, must be informed that there is a very strict law for such cruelty, and she is being closely watched for one more such act. There was no preaching in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, as Rev. Schuyler had an attack of the grippe. The debate for last week was, "Resolved, that Jefferson was a better statesman than Hamilton." There was a general debate and the affirmative side won. Several families from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles Rachau at Madisonburg. Mrs. Robert Smith, who has been sick for some time, is not improving. Last Friday evening the "U" club and the "A B C" club, held a party at Mr. Decker's, in Georgesvalley. They had popcorn, cake and ice cream for refreshments.

BUFFALO RUN.

The ice crop was good and farmers have nearly all got their houses filled. The Benner Grange held a festival on last Friday evening, and only a few attended. Our school director, W. H. Krape, went to Howard on Saturday in search of a teacher, for the Knox school; he will get a good one. E. Kelley went to work for the Limestone Co. at Armore Gap. John Kline is getting ready to put up a large limestone and has hauled about forty-five tons of coal for it. H. C. Heckman and John Lese have taken the contract of repairing the barn roof on the Brockerhoff farm, torn off by the storm two weeks ago. J. F. Grove is nursing a sore thumb from the effect of filing a saw and used his thumb for the file.

ROMOLA.

On Saturday night there was a very heavy rain storm passed our town, and almost demolished our sleighing. J. B. Poorman is very busy hauling wood. James McCloskey returned Friday from Glenn Union. Miss Mary Poorman, of Orvis, spent a few days last week at home. Harvey Mann has secured employment

YARNELL.

Carl Pownell, of Altoona, is spending a few weeks with his aunt here. Mrs. Nettie Pownell. Mrs. James Falls, of Beech Creek, accompanied by Mrs. David McCloskey, of Union twp., were callers at Geo. Walker's last Thursday. L. P. Croft has returned home after an absence of several weeks. Mr. Henry Confer is quite ill. Arthur and Ella Confer, and Armour Heaton of Milesburg, visited over Sunday at the home of their grandparents here. Miss Grace Rine, of Bellefonte, spent the past week as the guest of Miss Anna Shank. Mina Woomer, of Pleasant Valley, visited at D. N. Boyer's Saturday. A crowd of young people from Bellefonte enjoyed a sledding to the home of J. E. Richard, last Wednesday night. Miss Lucy Kline spent one day last week at the home of Fleming Poorman at Holts Hollow. Myrtle Heaton, departed for her home at Gorton last Friday. Miss Clara McClincy, of Chestnut Grove, visited over Sunday at the Pownell home. Messers E. B. Fisher and James Harshbarger, of Bellefonte, were callers at this place Sunday evening. R. S. Confer and wife spent Sunday at J. E. Confer's. Wilson Heaton and wife, of Milesburg, spent Monday p. m. at J. A. Confer's.

HOWARD.

RIDGEVILLE. A large lumber job is opened up in our vicinity, owned and operated by Irvin Wagner. Edward Cox made a flying trip to Beech Creek on Monday. Floyd Breth, Misses Lessa Confer and Elizabeth Breth, composed a trio that attended spelling school at this place. Rumors of a sawmill; we can almost hear the whistle. Foster Schenck and Edward Knarr are both hauling on the Irvin Wagner job. Bertha Scheck, of the Hunters Run school, recited a very pretty poem at the spelling; also William, Myra, and Iva Holter, Zeima Sullenberger and Zella Hains. Roy Oyer spent Wednesday night with his uncle, Harry Thompson; he got interested in the graphophone and forgot to go to the spelling bee. Dill Confer filled his ice house last Saturday with some very fine ice. The sporting club from this place are enjoying their hunting this winter as they do not have to exert themselves carrying their game home; that's right let the foxes live until there is a premium on them.

GREENBURR.

And the next day it snowed. Many of our citizens attended the local institute at Tyersville, on Friday night and Saturday. J. V. Kahn intends to start for Yeager town this week. John Shade returned home last week from Yeager town, apparently not well pleased with the condition of things there. The protracted meeting in the U. E. church, has been in progress for one week now, but, as yet, no sekers. David Shoemaker is busy hauling logs to the sawmill and getting ready in general to build a home next summer. The Reformed Bible school contemplates getting new music books. Severe Winter. J. H. Howells, of Minot, N. D., one of the leading buyers of cattle and sheep in the west, who was in Minneapolis said that cattlemen of the west would lose more than a million dollars because of the severe winter.

Stupendous Beyond Conception was the opening of the Boston Syndicate Co.'s GREAT CLOTHING SALE IN THE REYNOLDS BUILDING, No. 11 BISHOP ST. NEXT DOOR TO MISS SNYDER'S MILLINERY STORE. BELLEFONTE, PA. The people came in droves to attend this mighty sale, for never before were such bargains offered to the people of Centre county. There is a rumor in circulation that our stock is infected, but such is not the case, as our goods are fresh from the cases, where they were put last November. LOOK FOR THE BLUE BANNER

Why Refer to Doctors Because we make medicines for them. We give them the formula for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. They trust it. Then you can afford to trust it. Sold for over 60 years. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a remedy that should be in every home. I have used a great deal of it for hard cough and cold, and I know what a splendid medicine it is. I cannot recommend it too highly. MARK E. COURSE, Hyde Park, Mass. Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Ayer's Sarsaparilla Pills, Hair Vigor. Ayer's Pills greatly aid the Cherry Pectoral in breaking up a cold. on Harvey Miller's sawmill. Oscar Weaver returned home last week, from the woods. Master Henry Uhl has returned from the lumber woods and is looking hale and hearty. A German of our town, who has not much learning in the English, had a horse stolen from his barn. Whereupon he advertised: Von nite the other day ven I was bin awake in my sleep, I here sometin's vat I tinks was not just rite in my barn, and I out shumps the bed and run the barn out and ven I was der come, I sees dat pig iron gray mare he was bin tied loose and run mit the stable off and who so bring him back I pay him just as much as is bin kustomary.
