Mrs. Kunes is on the sick list.

The much talked about telephone line in this community has become a reality and the phones were put in place on the 9th; any person having a Bell phone or connection can talk to the following places: Bierly Bro's, Milesburg; Z. C. Snyder, P. R. R. office, Snow Shoe Intersection; Claud Poorman, Ed. Poorman, Ed. Poorman, H. A. Witherite, Charles Lucas, D. F. Poorman, Jas. Watson, Oran Poorman and E. S. Bennett, all on the Wallace Run rural line.

Protracted meeting is now in progress. All invited to attend.

Mrs. Bedient, after a pleasant visit with her son at this place, returned to her home at Cornig N. Y.

UNIONVILLE.

There has been and still is a great deal of sickness in Unionville and vicinity.

Mrs. Riley Pratt, George W. Morrison, Martin Hogan and A. J. Griest, all of whom have been seriously ill, are convalescing slowly.

Milt Peters, after a tussle with the gripp, is again able to light the street lamps.

Dr. E. A. Russel was also laid up with the gripp, as the result of exposure and overwork.

Mrs. Julia L. Bell and her little grandson Frederick Schaffer, of Clearfield, are visiting friends in Centre county.

Mrs. Maggie Taylor and several of her children, are pleasant visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Peters.

I trust I will not be accused of egotism when I state, as a matter of news, that there was a re-union of the whole "Domino" family on Saturday night. It was a most agreeable surprise to the writer as they pounced in on us after the night train passed down. You may guess the rest.

William Gill, of Julian, is a semi-periodical visitor to our town. "Bill" is an interesting entertainer, especially when telling his experience as a soldier in the Civil War. It has never been disputed that he was one of our brave soldiers. After the battle of Fredericksburg, as he was walking leisurely on the road leading into the city, he picked up Stonewall Jackson's pocketbook which contained $200 of Confederate money. We have his word for it.

On last Friday evening, Dorsey Calhoun took a sled load of our good cotton to the home of Rev. Dr. Piper at Milesburg and, do you know, they kept him from going to sleep 'till after midnight. It was one of the great social events of the season. Recitations were delivered by Mrs. Sarah Emerick, Chaply Underwood, J. S. Fox and Miss Pauline Smith. The Rev. Piper in a most fitting language, warmly welcomed his guests. Of course the baskets full of good things had to be sampled and, we are informed, none enjoyed the process better than our good preacher. It was one of those green spots one occasionally comes across in the journey of life that can never be blotted out of one's memory. The following is a list of the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Holt, Mrs. Susan Askin, Mrs. Wm. Turner, Mrs. John Emerick, Mrs. Wm. Keatley, Mrs. A. J. St. Clair, Mrs. Wm. Bullick, Mrs. Amanda Moran, Mrs. Marie Musser, Mrs. Wm. Tolbert, Mrs. Chas. Eckert, Mrs. Cora Kreps, Mrs. Jos. E. Brugger, and the Misses Hannah Holt, Sarah Harper, Wilmina Emerick, Edith Hoover, Verna Moran, Sue Underwood, Pauline Smith, Marian and Laura Rumberger and Patterson Holt, Clayton Stover, Chapman Underwood and Prof. J. C. Cox.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

On Tuesday evening, as P. J. McDonnell was coming home with his crew of trackmen, from the west end of his division, on a hand car, a serious accident occurred that seems almost miraculous that it did not prove fatal. Just opposite the residence of George Shipley, a mile and a quarter west of town, where the wagon road and railroad are very close together, Wm. T. Shert was driving along in the same direction and with him was a dog which ran over in front of the hand car, and by which it was struck with such force as to derail the car and turn it end for end. William Eckenroth, one of the trackmen, was working the front lever and consequently was riding backward, and when the car struck the dog, he was thrown off and under the car. He was rolled quite a distance on the sharp ballast, cutting several gashes in the side of his head and tearing a large piece of scalp off the back of his head, and tore off an ankle bone and was more or less hurt on the shoulder and other parts of his body. The men hurriedly put him on the car and brought him home, believing that he was fatally hurt. He did not recover consciousness until nearly noon. Dr. Russell was at once sent for who dressed his wounds and, after a careful diagnosis, said that there were no internal injuries and that his wounds will not necessarily prove fatal. No bones were broken. The dog was killed outright.

UNION TWP.

SELLEGROVE.

Still have good winter weather.

Jacob Spotts has a very sore foot; a few weeks ago he got it frozen. There is danger of something serious setting in unless it soon takes a turn for the better.

Last week Harry Kunes wife and little daughter, were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. Lansbery.

Mrs. Ammerman, of Tyrone, is a pleasant caller at the home of her son Alfred.

Albert Flick, of Fleming, is quite ill at Bellwood where he has been working.

A. V. Miller, mother, and Miss Lourah and two Miss Lansbery's, were pleasant callers at the home of Alfred Spotts on Sunday. Come again, folks, you are all welcome.

Joe Way made a trip to Tyrone with a load of potatoes.

A caller came to the home of Harry Geist, in the form of a boy, he came to stay for good.

There is a young man in our community who is in hard luck, just now; he took a young lady home in his sleigh; while they were at the lady's home the sleighing played out, he came home in a buggy, and there was a split some way; the snow is here, but the sleigh is gone, he has lots of sand but not enough to go for that sleigh; poor fellow we all pity him.

HAINES TWP.

WOLFES CHAPEL.

Cold weather and fine sleighing at present.

The farmers have about all got their ice houses filled.

W. E. Boob bought a team of sorrels at the Gentsel & Beezer horse sale at Millheim for $475.

Mrs. Chas. Stover and three children, of near Woodward, spent Sunday at the home of her brother D. M. Musser.

Ira Gramley and family, of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday at J. D. Stover's.

A good many of the people from this place attended the auction at Fiedler on Saturday.

I don't know what has become of the Bower Hollow scribe, whether he fell in the bath tub and drowned or what has become of him.

B. F. Stover, wife and daughter Verna and Katie, spent Sunday at Enoch Kreamer's and entertained them with their graphophone.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Andy Moyer and family moved from the Dale farm, on Nittany Mountain, to Centre Hall.

On Thursday of last week there were six rail cars at different places on the B. E. V. railroad between Mt. Eagle and the Rolling mill.

Miss Cora Edmiston of Altoona, who has been seriously ill of pleurisy, at the home of her friend, Eleanor Ewing of State College, is improving.

A State College student by the name of Kiene was taken to the Williamsport hospital Thursday night and successfully operated on for appendicitis.

Miss Mary Johnsonbaugh, an operator in the Bell Telephone exchange, at State College, left Thursday for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Birmingham.

George W. Spangler, of Tusseyville, father of attorney Newt Spangler, had the misfortune a few weeks ago of falling and breaking his leg above the knee; we are glad to learn that he is improving.

Benjamin H. Arney has concluded that he and Mrs. Arney will take life easier hereafter, and although they will continue to live in their splendid country home outside Centre Hall, the farm work will be done by others.

Philip H. Meyers' singing class in Millheim have decided to hold a singing convention some time in the near future. If they do have one we hope it will be one of the old fashioned kind that we used to have in Millheim.—Journal.

We are in receipt of the annual report of general superintendent T. B. Patton, of the Huntingdon Reformatory, and in it we find that Centre county is accredited with having eleven inmates there during the year of 1906, for which $317.24 sustenance was paid.

Mrs. Mary Jane Waite, of Smiltown, widow of William Waite, has been granted a pension of $8 a month, through the agency of W. J. Carlin, Esq. of Rebersburg, and John C. Lingie, of Gregg township, has had his pension increased to $12 a month.

Miller feed governors are being sought after by millers. A recent order was received by H. G. Miller, the inventor, at Linden Hall, for one hundred by a Philadelphia jobber. Mr. Miller, Tuesday stated that he had another important invention well under way.

George Spangler, of Blanchard, has killed thirty foxes and one large wild-cat this winter, and he is still pounding away at them. He says that the wild cat that he captured had just killed a monster wild turkey gobbler, which in condition would have weighed from 25 to 30 pounds.

Peter S. Clapper, of Roaring Springs, claims the prize for a long sausage. From a hog which was dressed 422 pounds he made a sausage in one piece, which measured sixty-three feet and four inches long, and contained seven gallons of meat. It weighed forty-two pounds.

Several weeks ago John E. Rishel, east of Centre Hall, sold a bay team of horses at a fabulous price, and recently he purchased three young horses from D. A. Grove which he expects to develop into a high-priced team. Mr. Rishel is a good horseman and knows how to train and grow them.

Mrs. Alfred Durst, of Centre Hall, whose serious illness was noted in these columns from time to time, has recovered sufficiently to be about the house again and in time is expected to fully regain her health. This condition permitted her daughter, Mrs. S. M. Goodhart, to return to Altoona.

Manager George Taylor, of the Altoona football team at State College, last week made arrangements with manager Norman Wright and captain Harry Burns, of the State football team, to open the season in Altoona on September 21st, which also will be State's first game for the season.

Jacob S. Herman, of Lemont, has abandoned the huckstering business and will henceforth give his attention to tilling soil, having rented the two Dale farms consisting of 250 acres, near Lemont, which will comprise what is known as a 6 horse farm. He is just the man to control a farm of that size.

Captain William F. Reeber, of Philadelphia, has taken full charge of the hotel at State College. He has not fully decided whether he will have his family come from the city or secure competent persons to run it for him. The hotel is one of the best equipped in the county and there is no doubt but what the Captain will make it go.

As some of our readers will fit this spring before April 1st, causing a change of post office address, let there be no neglect to inform us so the Democrat will follow them, but we especially impress upon all, not to fail to inform us of the OLD address as well as the NEW and save us much annoyance in finding where the paper formerly went to. This is as important to the "fitter" as to the printer.

Hugh H. Hampton, a young man whose home is in Centre County, was arrested recently at Burnham by Constable Dillon of Altoona and taken to that city where he was given a hearing before Alderman King upon the charge of seduction. The charge was made by a minor girl also from Centre county. The defendant, in default of $1,000 bail, was committed to jail for a trial in the Blair county court.

Harry Austin, of Milesburg, has purchased a well-known hostelry in most places known as the Central Hotel of which, for 33 years, Alois Kohlbecker had been the general proprietor. After his wife died, his son Harry took it and would have made a success of the business, but some of the heirs of the estate wanted a settlement and so it had to be sold. Mr. Austin, who is an industrious young man, will take charge April 1st. Plans have been made whereby the old hotel will be completely renovated. Every room in the house will be repainted, papered and furnished in the new. A new addition will be built and the entire building painted and beautified.

Last week, a birthday surprise was given Mrs. Sarah Gray, at her home at Halfmoon. In honor of the event her friends from Chambersburg, Scranton, Beech Creek, Bellefonte, Tyrone, Warriorsmark, Loveville and Halfmoon, with well laden baskets, filled the home of Mrs. Gray and very pleasantly surprised the honored lady. Her two daughters, Mrs. George Glenn and Mrs. Frank Hartscock presented her with a beautiful couch. Dinner was served from 1 to 4 o'clock. Everything was there to tempt the appetite and all did justice to the good things prepared. The day was full of music, song, jesting and laughter.

KATZ & CO.'S Store News!

We had fully expected to continue our famous WHITE SALE to the 1st of March, but our Mr. Katz who is now in New York selecting our Spring Stock, advises us that large shipments have been made, and we must positively wind up this coming week, the most successful sale we have ever conducted. These under-muslins were bought eight months ago, long before the big advance made by manufacturers in all classes of cotten goods. We are positively selling them at less than we can sell you the same Muslins and Trimmings. There is no use asking prices, as everything is marked in plain figures.

We have a few LADIES' and CHILDREN'S COATS left. The prices are cut exactly one-half in preference to carrying them over to next winter.
