Miss Margaret Hoover, of Blair county, is at present visiting her grandpar-ents here, and gives the following ac at 10.30. All the members, especially, count of her narrow escape along with her parents on Sunday night, March 4. They retired about 8 o'clock ; along about two o'clock in the morning Mrs. Hoover was awakened by hearing the snapping and cracking of fire ; it appears that the fire started in the kitchen below, and the the upstairs window ; they could not get the window up, so they were compelled to break the glass and make good their escape. Mr. Hoover got his head cut on the glass; the doctor had to put eight stitches in it to keep it together; the rest of the family escaped with a few bruises, and in their night clothes. All of their household goods went up in the flames. Wm Hoover at one time was a citizen of Howard, and a son-in-law of D. W. Mc-Closkey, of Snow Shoe Intersection.

The sick are convalescing; among them is Mrs. Joseph Davidson, who was taken sick with the grip about the holidays ; her health has been poor all winter; on March 5, erysipelas set in and for a few days the chances of her recovery seemed to be against her; she is thought to be out of danger.

John Haines' moved from Ellis Way's farm to Wingate, in his own house; our loss of a good neighbor is Wingate's gain.

Turkeys seem to be plenty, as they come in the fields almost every day; Philip Iddings says he counted fourteen in one flock.
