—Mr. and Mrs. T. S. McCarger and F. W. Rees attended the Methodist conference held in Tyrone, last week.
—Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes and Miss Margaret Winsler left Bellefonte Friday for New York City where they became the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes.
—John Steninger, one of the progressive citizens of Middleburg, spent Sunday and Monday in Bellefonte. He is in the coal business there and is getting along sumptuously.
—Calvin Horner has returned from Wilksbarre and has taken up his work again at the Blackford restaurant. Cal. is a dandy cook and knows how to get up some appetizing dishes.
—The various stores in Bellefonte now close at 8 o'clock instead of 6 o'clock as they had been doing through the summer. Saturday nights they will remain open until 10 o'clock as usual.
—Miss Jennie Irwin will have on display and for sale at the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the finest cut flowers and potted plants ever displayed for Easter trade.
—Mrs. Edward Saxton, of Bishop St., was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last week and underwent quite a serious operation. At this writing she is very much better and her friends are hopeful of her recovery.
—Miss Maggie Gates, of Centre Line, who received treatment in the Bellefonte hospital for about two weeks, has been discharged. She is a sister of editor Charles L. Gates, of Bellefonte, and a very fine young lady.
—Rev. David Speer, of Chambersburg, spent Friday in Bellefonte as the guest of his brother William T. Speer on West High street. He left Saturday for Tyrone where he spent a couple of days attending the Methodist Conference.
—Last Sabbath was Palm Sunday, and as usual it was fittingly observed in the Bellefonte Catholic church, and the usual distribution of palms was made to the members of the church. Rev. P. McArdle preached excellent sermons.
—Richard Taylor of the skating rink announces another Masquerade Skate to be held Monday evening April 1st. Two beautiful solid gold signet rings will be given to the lady and gentleman wearing the best and most unique costume.
—Cyrus Solt, the Bellefonte drayman, has purchased a new horse for in his wagon. It looks to be a strong one and able to pull heavy loads up the steep hills of the town. Cyrus is a hustler and has headed the new horse in his business which has been increasing right along.
—Bruce Ulrich, of Wilkensburg, who had been visiting friends in the vicinity of Millheim, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday of last week where he spent several days as the guest of his sister, Mrs. Lewis Gettig, on Thomas street. He is a pleasant young fellow and made many friends.
—H. B. Aike, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Lewistown, a former truck farmer, in company with a friend favored our sanctum with a call. He, with his son, are employed at the Standard Steel Works, and is pleased with his removal thither, and the boom that Burnham and Lewistown have.
—If the Y. M. C. A.—everywhere and "elsewhere," made it a duty to teach anti-cigarette smoking among boys, and young men, great good to their health might be worked. Cigarette are the cause of much demoralizing in the health of the young that are addicted to the use of these pernicious articles.
—Some one said that Frank Woogor, of Bellefonte, was attending the Methodist conference in Tyrone, Sunday. He would have looked alright in the amen corner if he had gone there, but he passed through Tyrone to Altoona where he held a special conference with one of the finest and prettiest young ladies in that neck o' woods.
—C. F. Clevantine, who has been located at Millifing, the past six months representing the famous Rawley Remedies in that county, was back to Bellefonte to assist in the moving to Millifing this week, where he expects to be permanently located in the future. Mr. Clevantine for several years was connected with Harper Bros. grocery at this place.
—In a little more than two weeks the trout season will open and already the ardent disciple of Isaac Walton is getting his fishing tackle in preparation for the event. Good trout fishing is expected in the neighboring streams as the water during the past year has been strong and favorable for the young trout with which the streams have been stocked.
—Col. E. R. Chambers and his brother George, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in Altoona as the guest of their niece, Mrs. Hazel. Their sister Mrs. Nannie Willard, who is well known here, is lying there at the point of death, the result of cancer. Mrs. William Larimer, of Bellefonte, a sister of the afflicted lady, is by her side doing all in her power to alleviate her sufferings.
—Last Friday, the thermometer registered 82 degrees above zero, which, of course, was as warm as the average warmth of summer. The birds were singing, men were out in their shirt sleeves and everybody anticipated an early spring. It was rumored that on the corresponding day of last year, 1906, the thermometer registered 10 degrees below zero. This was a question of debate all over the town, some of our good brethren becoming very hot under the collar. We looked the matter up and we find that the man who claimed it was 10 degrees below zero has another guess coming. The government thermometer, on March 22, 1906 stood 37 degrees above zero. On the 23 it was 2 above, and on the 24th it touched zero, after that it gradually increased upwards. The official gentlemen, so the fellow with the weather theory will have to come down off his perch.

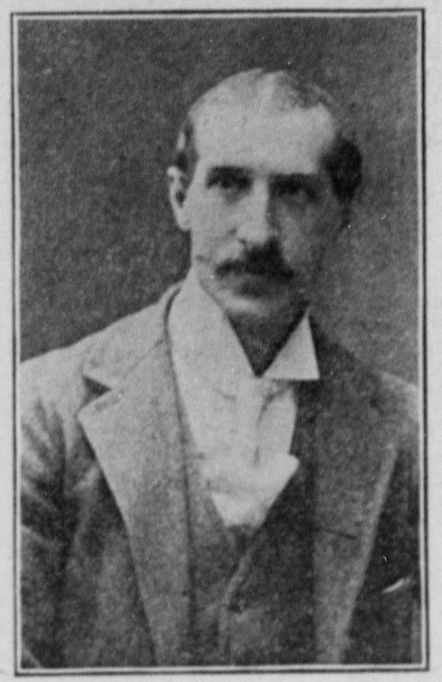

—William L. Steele and Sidney Keefe, spent Sunday in Tyrone.
—Ray Shultz, of Juniata, spent a few hours in Bellefonte on Saturday.
—Isaac Maitland returned this afternoon to his home in Williamsport.

—Scott Wieland salesman for the Potter-Hoy hardware company, was taken ill last week and was confined to his room for several days. On Saturday he was able to go to his home at Woodmount, Pa. in Sullivan county.
—Col. Hugh S. Taylor was appointed a delegate by Adjutant General Stuart to represent the National Guards of Pennsylvania at the National convention at Charleston, South Carolina. He left on Sunday for the South.
—Prof. John Hosterman, of the Phillipsburg school, spent Sunday in Centre Hall and Bellefonte. He is enthusiastic over the good work being done in the public schools in that town and is pleased with the position he holds.
—A new law has just been enacted providing a salary of $2 per day for two days and mileage at the rate of three cents per mile for each school director who attends the annual meeting of the County association of the School Directors.
—Miss Jennie Irwin, of Bellefonte, has on sale at the Potter-Hoy hardware store, a beautiful display of cut flowers and potted plants for Easter. Those desiring to make the festive occasion bright and cheerful should give Miss Irwin a call. They will be on sale until Saturday night.
—There will be a Sacred concert next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church. The large chorus has been at work for some time preparing a beautiful cantata, "The Risen King" by P. A. Schnecker, similar to the one produced by this choir at Xmas time. There should be a large attendance.
—The new order of Elks in Bellefonte are now getting ready to occupy the Larimer building on high street. Along with the lease of the house goes an option to buy the place. It is altogether bright and cheerful should give Miss Irwin a call. They will be on sale until Saturday night.
—This week a series of home prayer meetings are being held by the Bellefonte Presbyterians. Monday evening they had a pleasant and profitable meeting at the home of David Love, in Bush Addition, Tuesday evening a large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollabaugh, at Coleville. To-night the meeting will be held at the Morrison home on east Howard street. Friday night at General Bearver's home on Curtin street. The public is most cordially invited to attend these meetings.
—One of the oldest citizens of Bellefonte is John Wetzel, who resides in the west ward, adjoining the residence of M. A. Kirk. He is a carpenter by trade, but long since has laid down the saw and the hatchet and is living a retired life. In the last few years of his life he has developed a fondness for fishing, and the time is coming when you will find the veteran fisherman along Spring creek, near the old pump-house, at anytime between 10 o'clock in the morning and 10 o'clock at night. He cares very little about throwing the fly on the water for trout, but he does like to catch a sucker or eel. Of course, if a trout in season takes a hold of his hook and he gets it out on dry land, its all up with the speckled beauty. Monday evening he came home with a sucker that probably was 30 inches long, and he was as proud as though he had landed a whale. He had also several smaller ones, and these would have made him and his wife an excellent meal.

—W. A. Boone and wife, of Howard, R. I. were pleasant callers.
—Miss Grace Blackford attended the Methodist conference at Tyrone.
—George Lee of the Goldfields, Nevada, is visiting his daughter at Nittany.
—There was a light rain yesterday, 11 inches, towards evening a fresh rain set in.

—Herman Osman, of Altoona is visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams in Bellefonte.
—Miss Emma Sower, of Spring Mills, has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kerns on High street.
—Harry G. McKee arrived from Wilkensburg Saturday and is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer.
—Mrs. E. A. Swartz and little daughter, of Milesburg, inspected the modus operandi of getting out the Democrat.
—Roads over the county are reported as not being in the best condition—frost still lingers in the ground in some places.
—Richard Garman, of Philadelphia, who attended his brother's funeral here, on Monday, returned home Tuesday afternoon.
—Instead of taking the train Tuesday morning, the "Beauty Doctor" troupe had Alf Baum drive them across the mountains to Lewistown.
—J. A. Felty, a former Centre county boy, but now of New Castle, is spending a few days in Bellefonte. Mr. Felty is a brother of Mrs. Arthur Kimpfort.
—Mrs. Thozamine Lane arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday evening and is a guest of Mrs. Louisa Harris on Allegheny street. Mrs. Lane will occupy the Graham home in the near future.
—Cards are out announcing the wedding of Mr. Guy Bible formerly of Bellefonte to Miss Sarah Y. Pimock, of Koxborough, near Philadelphia. The wedding will occur Wednesday April 3rd.
—Misses Clara Aikens and Bess Heverly, of Bellefonte, left Tuesday for Milesburg where they will spend Easter. They are both very pleasant young ladies who cannot help but have a good time.
—It beats the very dickens how business does keep up for Prothonotary Arthur B. Kimpfort, of Bellefonte. There is another little lady at his home on Curtin street which makes him smile, clean down to his toes.
—James Harris, the Bellefonte merchant tailor, is now walking on stilts. He can afford to, because Monday night he became papa of a little son. Now "Jimmy" the midnight parades will begin, and you will do more sweating.
—On Good Friday the three Hour Passion Service will be held in St. John's Episcopal church from 12 to 1 and in the evening at 8 o'clock there will be an Exhibition of 52 Passion Pictures of the Last Days of our Lord. Everybody is cordially invited.
—Jacob Fishburn and family, of Kansas City, Mo., have been visiting the old homestead, near Bellefonte, for several weeks, "Jake," as he is known here, went west seventeen years ago and since then has been getting along nicely. He is now Express messenger whose run is between Kansas City and Dallas, Texas.
—Monday evening the consistency of the Bellefonte Reformed church held a meeting and granted a vacation of two months to their pastor, Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, in order that he may attend the fifth World's Sunday School convention which will be held in Rome, Italy, during the month of May. Rev. Schmidt expects to sail from Boston on the 27th of April, and after the convention he expects to spend some time in foreign travel.
—Misses Mary Blanchard and Adelaide Merriman, of Bellefonte, have been in Baltimore, Md., holding a sale under the auspices of the "Basket Shop, of Bellefonte." That is, these young ladies are in the City of Monuments making and selling all kinds of pretty baskets, such as they had on sale here several months ago. The Baltimore American, one of the leading newspapers of the south, paid a high compliment to these ladies by explaining their work.
—Among those from a distance who attended Bruce Garman's funeral, Monday afternoon were the following ladies and gentlemen: Mrs. Samuel Hare and Mrs. Orner, of Altoona; Misses Rebecca and Edith Garman, of Jersey Shore; Richard Garman, of Philadelphia; C. M. Garman, of Atlantic City; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garman, of Tyrone; J. S. Rummel, of Youngstown, Ohio; Geo. Uzzle, of Snow Shoe; Charles E. Robb (The Exalted Ruler of the Elk Lodge,) of Torrence; Shearer, T. A. Lucas, H. A. Leinbach, Chas. Schwamm, Wm. Seidler, of Lock Haven.
—Parent's Days were appropriately observed in the public schools on Thursday and Friday. It was really surprising and gratifying to Supt. John D. Meyer, and his able corps of teachers, to see how much interest the parents and patrons of the schools will take in educational matters when given an opportunity. The attendance was larger than last year, and as the visitors went from room to room they could not help but be impressed with the excellent work each teacher was doing for the children. One of the features of these days was the exhibition of drawing and writing done by the pupils. It was correct and tasteful, showing more than ordinary ability on the part of those who gave this line of work special attention.

RECENT DEATHS.
C. BRUCE GARMAN—in the midst of a young and prosperous life, was called away Friday morning about 1 o'clock. The end was calm, and without a struggle passed quietly into the great beyond. About three weeks ago he became suddenly ill with valvular heart trouble. From that time his physician looked upon his illness as fatal, and the only consolation to his friends was that where there was life there was hope. Tuesday of last week he grew worse and kept growing weaker until the final summons came. It was sad from the fact that he was just in the vigor of young manhood and, through his ambition and ability, would have met with unusual success. He was a hale fellow well met and enjoyed the confidence of hosts of warm, genial friends. He possessed a warm heart for others, and whenever the opportunity presented itself was found helping and aiding those in need. He was popular and as the result of that popularity he was a member of four or five organizations of the town, among them being the Undine Fire Co., Macabees, Red Men, Elks, and the Episcopalian church. For fifteen years he had been connected with the Garman House. Six years ago he was associated with it in connection with his brothers Alvin and Corrie. Finally Alvin dropped out and the popular hostelry was in charge of Corrie and Bruce. About one year ago Corrie left for Atlantic City when Bruce assumed entire control. He set to work to bring the hotel up to a high standard and gradually he accomplished his purpose. He made many changes that showed his determination to make his place of business inviting to the public. Five years ago he was married to Miss Sabra Campbell, who proved to be a very efficient young woman as mistress of a public house, and they together were totally engrossed in making the Garman House everything that could be desired, but it has been ordained otherwise. The deceased was a son of Daniel Garman and was born in the old hotel, within a few feet of where he died, so that all his life was spent in the hotel, his age being 34 years, 2 months and 24 days. This is the first death in the Garman family since August, the 4th, 1856, when his mother answered the summons. It is also the first death in the Bellefonte order of Elks and the Knights of the Maccabees. The deceased leaves to mourn his loss, a wife and the following brothers and sisters: Edwin F., of Bellefonte; Mrs. Isaac Maitland, of Williamsport; Ira D., of Philadelphia; William H., and Mrs. Charles Cruise, of Bellefonte; Corrie, of Atlantic City, and Robert, of Tyrone. The funeral took place Monday afternoon and was largely attended. The remains repose in a beautiful silver gray imperial casket which was literally covered with floral tributes from his many friends as their last tribute of respect. Among these floral emblems were the following: A large anchor of roses and lilies with the word "Undine"; sent by the Undine Fire Co. Company; a crescent and star by the Red Men; a pillow of roses by the Knights of the Maccabees; large bouquet of roses from the Elks; bouquet of carnations from the gentlemen at the hotel, and a wreath of ivy leaves and roses from the Panther Run Hunting Club of which Mr. Garman was an enthusiastic member. One of the prettiest floral pieces was two cypress leaves with 32 roses representing the age of the young man, sent by friends. A large bouquet of roses and carnations from Mr. and Mrs. Maitland; Easter lilies from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Harper; lilies and carnations from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garman; a wreath of ivy leaves, lilies, and roses from the B. F. O. E. 182 of Lock Haven; Mrs. O'Reilly, casket bouquet of roses and Mrs. C. B. Garman, a casket bouquet of carnations. The services were held in the Episcopal church which was crowded from chancel to door. The impressive services were conducted by Rev. Edward Richardson, the rector. From the church the remains were taken to the Union cemetery where they were laid to rest in the family plot.

JOSEPH R. GOSW—A well known resident of Altoona, died on Thursday from complication of diseases. The deceased was born at White Hall, Centre county, on Sept. 23, 1836. A number of years ago he went into Blair county where he began farming near Bellwood. He retired some eight years ago and since then resided in Altoona. He was a veteran of the civil war and possessed a record of which any soldier would have been proud. On March 26, 1865, he was captured by the confederates and thrown into Libby prison and confined there until he was paroled some time later. During the war he participated in over twenty battles. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and highly esteemed by all who knew him. The funeral took place Saturday morning. Interment was made at Altoona.

WILLIAM EDWARD WOLF—of Altoona, an old Centre county boy, died on Sunday morning March 17, at Dr. Nason's sanatorium at Roaring Springs of bowel trouble. Deceased was born at Boalsburg, this county, January 23, 1859, thus being 48 years 2 months and 22 days old. At the age of eighteen years he went to Altoona and worked at various occupations. Twenty-five years ago he was married to Miss Lizzie Shoop, of Centre Hall, who survives him with four children, as follows: Mrs. Carrie Steven, Bessie, Bruce and Ralph, all at home; he also leaves two brothers and two sisters, namely: Gust Wolf, of Keyser, W. Va.; Luther, of Altoona; Mrs. William Maeder, of Altoona; and Mrs. Daniel Weaver, of Lemont.
MRS. ANNA SHOWALTER—relict of the late Cyrus Showalter, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Mary Motz, at Woodward, last Saturday night March 19, of a general breaking down of the system. Deceased was born in Union county and was 69 years, 3 months and 22 days old. Surviving her are three children, Mr. Motz, of Woodward; Mrs. Sarah Stover, of Chadwick, Ill., and Simon Showalter, of Northumberland. The funeral was held on Wednesday, interment being made at Woodward.
Parents will say their children are bad, but won't stand it from others.
