

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

SPRING MILLS.

Our schools will close this week. John Hoy from Pleasant Gap, moved to our town and will work for Wm. Allison.

One of our men received a letter which had the reading on, "In a flood at Pittsburg."

Ripka Bros. held several auctions and what goods were left they sold to a merchant from Sunbury.

Daniel Zeigler's moved from the house on the hill into Ben. Kenelley's house.

Charles Smith, who was clerk in Ripka's Store during the past year, has secured a clerkship in a store at Sunbury and will leave for there in the near future.

The K. G. E. held a banquet on last Thursday evening. There were many present and all enjoyed themselves. A sumptuous supper was served, and entertainment was given which consisted of a parade, vocal and instrumental music, also music by several phonographs.

The second thunder storm of the season passed through here on Sunday morning.

Earl Smith and two sisters from Pottery Mills, attended the K. G. E. banquet and visited at the home of John Smith's.

The Allison farm, which Howard Weaver will vacate this spring, is not yet rented to any one.

Rev. Haney, the Evangelical minister, moved into Daniel Immel's house in the creamery row.

The Reformed church celebrated the Lord's Supper on Sunday forenoon.

The Y. M. C. A. had a special program arranged last Sunday evening for Pennsylvania Day.

Paul Letzell has secured employment at Sunbury, on the railroad.

Last Friday evening Penn Literary Society had a mock court trial of an assault and battery case, arising from a love affair. The district attorneys were M. T. Zubler and Walker; the judge, John Foreman. There were many witnesses, which made the trial interesting. The prisoner was brought into the room and taken from there to the place of punishment, by the sheriff. The jury had been chosen from the audience. Taken as a whole, the performance was a success.

UNION TWP.

J. A. Way and family visited his father-in-law Mr. Bush, of Bush Hollow, on Sunday. Joe knows where to find good timber for the stomach.

Caleb Way's public sale was well attended.

Mrs. Adda Resides and son Ellis, from Tyrone, are visiting friends in our town.

James Flick bought a fine colt to match his other one. You ought to see him laugh all over his face now.

W. S. Miller, of Julian, is visiting his old home in Millburg and vicinity.

Bennet and Dale, lumber Co. are slashing the timber on the old Allegheny into props, ties and chemical wood quite lively; the Walker Bros. have the job of cutting.

Henry Roads, of Fleming, has taken a large job of timber to cut, and put on cars at Carthouse. He wants men badly.

Mr. Wagner is hauling coal bank, props for Flick Bros., who have a large job handy to Belle Grove.

Quite a number have already moved and still some to move yet.

One of William Bushes' horses, that he bought this spring, is quite sick.

William Watson lost a valuable horse with colic the other day.

The ground will soon be in order for starting the plow, if it continues this kind of weather, come good old spring we all welcome you back again once more.

PINE GLENN.

Thomas Gleason, of Moshannon, was circulating among his friends here on Friday.

Jennie Askey has gone to Renova, where she will spend some months.

Mr. and Mrs. King, of Winburne, Sunday in Pine Glenn.

Rev. Meredith began a series of revival services in Messiah's church, on Sunday evening.

Blanche Dougherty went to Bellefonte on Thursday, at which place she entered the hospital where she will become a trained nurse.

Grace Vallimont spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

Silas Dixon and son James, and family, are moving from this place to near Zion, Mr. Benton and family will occupy the house vacated by them.

Edward Cramer purchased a new wagon recently.

HOWARD.

Mrs. William Wilson is visiting her son, Boyd Wilson in Williamsport.

Berton Confer, of Beech Creek, accompanied by a gentleman friend, and their lady friends visited friends here Sunday.

Mrs. George Leathers and Mrs. Viola Hastings did shopping in Lock Haven last week.

The entertainment given by the Junata Glee Club was a great success, as the church was crowded.

Mrs. Arge Gardner, also Mrs. Austin Gardner, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gardner.

We are sorry to note that William Wilson is on the sick list.

Miss Mittie Lucas arrived home from Baltimore with a fine line of spring hats.

John Shay and wife did shopping in Bellefonte Saturday.

WINGATE.

Miss Edith Gray spent Friday afternoon at the junction.

Blair E. Fisher took in the sights of Bellefonte Friday evening.

Dora Stere spent Friday evening with Ella Davidson.

Mrs. James Davidson of this place, is very poorly; hope she will recover soon.

Some of the Milesburg girls must have thought Friday evening was a summer evening.

Miss Dora Stere, also Mary Fisher, spent Sunday afternoon at the burg.

Miss Gracie Boob left for Bellefonte.

Blair Ezra you ought not stay at home so close.

MILESBURG.

L. T. Eddy and wife left Thursday to attend conference at Tyrone.

Mr. Fowler and wife, left on Friday for Tyrone and Altoona.

Josephine Bodle is visiting Samuel Campbell and wife.

Mrs. Ross Wallace is visiting in Tyrone and Altoona.

Geo. Aikens, with son Carl, of Uniontown, attended his father's funeral, Wednesday of last week.

Helen Longwell, with her aunt of Bellefonte, spent a day with Miss Twitmore and Miss Caldwell.

Hiram Campbell, of Tyrone, spent a few days in the burg.

Ed. Nyhart and family, of Johnstown, are visiting his parents.

A married couple made a public display of their affections for each other, on the public highway, a few days ago, hugging and kissing each other to the amusement of their neighbors.

Chester L. Boggs, of Pittsburg, Sunday with his parents.

Harry Peters and family, of Pitcairn, returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Peters.

Mrs. Joseph Baird and son Frank, started on Sunday morning to spend the day at conference in Tyrone.

Minnie and Ethel Crain, of Port Matilda, William Rorabaugh and wife, of Tyrone, were guests of Mrs. Westley Crain.

John A. Whiteman's dwelling, on Main street, occupied by Wilson Heaten caught fire; the fire is a mystery how it caught inside of the roof, on Friday; it required three bundles of shingles to repair it.

Mrs. Joseph Spears and son, of Curtin, Sunday with her mother.

William Young, of Buffalo Run, spent a portion of Sunday with his grandmother.

Nelson Grubb, of Coleville, spent Sunday with his mother.

W. T. Falton is in Philadelphia, laying in his supply of spring goods.

JULIAN.

The weather is fine and every one seems to be busy.

Wm. H. Gill, we are sorry to say, had a light of paralysis, and for a short time his recovery was doubtful, but his condition has some what improved.

Mrs. Hannah Murphy is recovering slowly from her attack of lagrippe.

Mr. Alexander is building a fine dwelling house just across the R. R. track and up to this time he has several applicants for rent when finished.

Our town is in a thriving condition. More work and shipping done here this spring than has been for years. It is almost impossible to hire a man at this time.

The stork has visited our postmaster, I. H. Turner, and left a big boy. Howard is so much elated that he has not gone to his meals since Sunday. Well we wish you success.

Rev. Miller pastor of the U. B. church preached a very able sermon to a large and attentive audience on Sunday morning. The pastor took for his text, Prov. 15 chapter and 15 verse. The way of the transgressor is hard.

Mrs. Foust, who has been under the doctor's care for some time, is slowly improving.

Mr. Pleck, we are glad to say, is able to be out again.

The U. B. S. S. will give an Easter entertainment, at 7:30 o'clock. To this service all are invited. The members of the church have put forth every effort to make this one of the best Easter services ever given in town.

HECLA PARK.

Miss Grace Grove and Mrs. Gardner Grove spent Sunday at Peter Homan's.

Kile Corman and William Sprout transacted business at Spring Mills last Friday.

Charles Miller who had been on the sick list for the last year or so, died Sunday. He being a member of the I. O. O. F., of Hublersburg will be buried by the order. Interment Wednesday morning at Hublersburg.

Last Saturday evening the Jolly Jokers of Hecla held an entertainment in the school house at Hecla. The house was crowded to its seating capacity with about one hundred and fifty present. Every body speaks well of the entertainment as being one of the best of its kind ever witnessed. It is a home talent play, with lots of humor. We believe that it did the spectators good to attend as they got plenty of amusement. The same play will be given at Lamar, Saturday evening March 30th in the hall at that place, and we assure that no one will rue the small admission fee after seeing the play. Come out and have an evenings' fun with the rest of us.

MARTHA.

Moving is all the go.

The "Good old summer time is here again."

George Richards and Ephraim Frantz left Monday for the West, how far we do not know. They expect to explore the western states.

Harry Woodring and family, spent Sunday with G. W. Williams.

Ernest and Roy attend quite frequently since that new graphophone has come. Is that the attraction, boys?

Maurice Cronister, son of Dallace Cronister, is seriously ill.

John W. Williams expects to move to Port Matilda April 1st.

Roy says he does sincerely, wish that the people would not only get a telephone, but electric light through his community for his convenience. But Harry says he would rather have a trolley line up to Black Oak for his accommodation.

R. K. Eberts, who has been employed at Pittsburg, came home sick.

LIVONIA.

On the sick list, this week, were, H. E. Stover, Garfield Adams, Robert Wolf and Ruth Stover; but we are glad to say all are about well again.

The infant child of John and Anna Anderson died Saturday, aged 2 weeks.

Roy and Oscar Hough returned from the Pacific coast, having been gone a year and report having enjoyed themselves to the utmost limit.

Mrs. Grace Hough one of our friends, made a flying trip through here Saturday.

Miss Beulah Wetzel and friend called at Mr. Stover's Friday.

MOSHANNON.

E. S. Black wife and little son James, of Clearfield, are guests at the home of Mrs. Mollie Rankin.

On Thursday evening, J. G. Lucas and wife entertained 22 young ladies and gentlemen, in honor of Miss Minnie MacIntyre, of Altoona.

Miss Lula Remsen, of Munson, is the guest of her friend, Miss Riter Lucas.

Mrs. George Carson of Pine Glenn, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Riter.

Mrs. Henry Haupt and daughter, of Bellefonte, spent a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. Bridget Kerin.

On Friday Miss Edith Lucas left for Tyrone where she expects to attend the Methodist Conference, and from there she will go to Altoona where she will spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. F. L. Zimmerman.

Thos. Hayes, of Spangler, spent Sunday at the Gleason home in Lodebar.

Mrs. Kling returned home on Saturday after a most enjoyable trip to friends and relatives in Jersey Shore.

George Laurie and wife, of Nanty Glo, are spending some time at the home of the former's parents Jacob Lucas'.

A coon of Gorton, spent Monday with Rant White.

The Misses Laura Williams and Roda Weaver, Michael Kerin, Albert Lucas and Vernon Eiters, spent Sunday at their respective homes.

Mrs. Stringfellow, of Peale, spent a few days last week at the home of her niece, Mrs. Milford Martin.

On Thursday Jacob Hazzard and Earnest Culver transacted business in Bellefonte.

John Bowes, of Beech Creek, attended the M. L. S. exercises on Friday evening.

Mrs. Robert Park and children spent Sunday at the home of Luther Hicketts.

On Monday morning Miles Crownover was called to Huntingdon, to attend the funeral of his father.

Miss Mabel Fye returned after several days' visit with friends in North Bend.

We are sorry to note the loss one of our most highly respected citizens, H. Z. Bierly, who is moving to Selingsgrove, where he expects to go on a farm.

OAK HALL.

Miss Cathryn Dale transacted business at Bellefonte Saturday.

Miss Mayme, Helen and Grace Swabb, of Pine Grove Mills, visited the home of Wm. Kern, Sunday.

Miss Alma Homan returned home, after spending some time at Pine Grove.

Francis Blazer, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday at home.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Elliot Sawers, Saturday night.

Mrs. Al O'Neil, of Altoona, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sawers.

A few people attended the sale of S. M. Bell, Saturday.

Miss Anna Kamp visited in our vicinity the fore part of the week.

O. L. Rishel recently purchased the Smith property and will occupy it on April 1.

Israel Reitz, of Boalsburg, assisted his brother in the blacksmith shop last week.

Ira Korman moved his family from Pine Grove into the house vacated by Chalmers Hosts.

N. J. Rishel and wife visited at Linden Hall Saturday.

RUNVILLE.

Mrs. Susie Steward, of Munson, spent last week in our village visiting relatives.

Claude Lucas, wife and three children, Eunice, Eugene, and Lemoyne, of Snow Shore, were guests at their paternal home on Sunday.

Ulysses Flick, wife and daughter Mabel, of Bellwood, spent Sunday at Mrs. Ellen Freil's.

Mrs. Grant Houseman, of 3015 Spruce Ave., Altoona, was the guest of her parents, James Lucas's, Sunday.

Mrs. James Resides, of Tyrone, spent several days with her mother.

L. J. Heaton made a business trip to Altoona, Saturday.

Plum Grove, I agree with you when you said that "Yarnell" was in great want of a substitute scribe. It takes quite an indefinite time to recopy off the other correspondents.

Mrs. Cornelius Freil did some shopping in Bellefonte, Saturday.

George Walker has purchased a fine team of horses that cost $560, also Willis Poorman, and Dean Poorman, each purchased horses.

Edward Gross, wife and mother, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at Mrs. Ellen Freil's.

Ruth Garman, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Tacy Lucas recently.

Scribe No. 2. How about the buggy ride, Saturday eve?

RUNVILLE, NO. 2.

Ulysses Flick, wife and daughter, of Bellwood, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Freil.

C. Friell, of Hunters Park, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

William Watson of Snow Shoe visited at the Friell home on Sunday.

John Coaxey and wife of Clarks, spent Sunday here.

Florence Leathers spent Sunday at her home.

Reuben Lucas, wife and children of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with the former's mother.

Claude Poorman visited at his home in this place.

Claude Lucas, wife and children, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday with friends here.

Charles Smoyer spent Sunday at Snow Shoe.

Bernice Harnish, of Snow Shoe, and Minnie Witherite, of Chestnut Grove, spent Sunday here.

Miss Florence Lucas, of Milesburg, spent a few days with her grandparents.

Mrs. Carl Peorman and little son are visiting at the Poorman home.

Preaching Sunday morning and also in the evening.

Mrs. Grant Houseman, of Altoona, spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Bernice Harnish returned to her home in Snow Shoe.

Kate Sennet did some shopping in Bellefonte, Saturday.

NITTANY.

James Nolan and wife were to Lock Haven one day last week.

Daniel Showers and wife were to Lock Haven and Mrs. S. R. McCaleb on business.

Mrs. Fannie Emeric and daughter Lavina, of Hyner, visited their many friends here over Sunday.

James Kaughman, of Parvin, visited friends here, Sunday.

The auction on Saturday night was largely attended; articles sold brought fair prices.

W. E. Shaffer and wife, of Millburg, visited B. F. Shaffer and family over Sunday.

William Weber, Jr., George Gates, Jr., and Clarence Rossman, of Burnham, visited their parents and many friends here last week.

John Tate, of Salona, visited his mother, Mrs. Hettie Tate, on Sunday.

S. Peck was to Bellefonte on Saturday on business.

H. A. Long accepted a position with the McNitt & Huyett Lumber Co.

Our people expect to get away with some high priced eggs next Sunday.

The Sociable at W. J. Mauck's, on Saturday night, was largely attended and a nice sum was realized. The Ladies Aid Society, who held the social, wish to thank W. J. Mauck and family, for opening their home to the public; all present report having had a fine time.

Quite a number of our young gents attended preaching at Mackeyville, on Sunday evening.

Oscar Zimmerman, Pleasant Gap, visited friends through here last week.

Mrs. E. J. Peek and two sons attended church at Jacksonville on Sunday.

James Martin, of State College, visited at the Peck residence last week.

James Nolan shipped a carload of wheat from Huston Station, last week which he raised on the Holmes farm.

William Showers shipped quite a number of shingles to Salona last week.

Mrs. H. W. Winkleman was called to Avis to see her daughter, who is ill.

SMULLTON.

W. W. Rachau left for Bellvue, Ohio, where he is employed for the coming season.

Uncle Herb sold his trotting beast to Jerome Speigelmeyer. Jerome expects to use her on one of his wrinkles of the earth.

W. E. Bair had the misfortune of cutting an ugly gash in his hand on Friday. He was cutting wood when an underbrush caught his axe handle with the above result.

James Miller accompanied by his son went to Woodward to spend a few weeks with his son.

A. E. Strayer purchased a fine hunting dog last week, from a party in New Berlin. The animal certainly is well blessed with lung capacity.

H. K. Smull is looking around for a good young, stout man to help in the blacksmith shop and learn the trade.

Lost: a new 2 cent pipe-finder will please return the same and receive his blessing from John Emeric.

AARONSBURG.

Samuel Gettig's, of Spring Bank, moved in the home formerly occupied by Jacob Reed.

Maggie Mingle and her best friend, spent the Sabbath at Pottery Mills, with Nellie Mingle.

Mrs. James Lenker, of Lemont, visited Mrs. Livina Lenker's a few days last week.

John Grenoble and wife, of Yeagerstown, Thomas Meyer and wife, of Boalsburg, Frank Guisewite and family, of Feidler, spent the Sabbath with their father, J. C. Stover, at the home of Clymer Stover's.

Harry Bower has gone to Altoona, where he has secured employment.

Sara Guisewite has gone to Rebersburg with a full line of the latest styles in the millinery line; she expects to supply the ladies of that burg with Easter hats.

Wesley Wyle who is employed at Lewistown came home to get ready for his sale on Saturday, after which time they will move to Lewistown.

TYLERSVILLE.

Mrs. Reuben Wetzel, of Mackeyville, is visiting her parents Benj. Weaver's.

For several weeks past A. S. Greninger has had an impediment in his speech, so that his voice is altogether changed. Benj. Greninger made a business trip to Coburn on Friday.

E. K. RHOADS

At his yard, opposite the P. R. R. Passenger station, sells only the best qualities

ANTHRACITE AND BITUMINOUS COALS

—Also all kinds of—

Wood, Grain, Hay, Straw and Sand.

Superior Screenings for lime burning, Builders' and plasterers' Sand.

TELEPHONE CALLS Commercial, No. 66 Central, No. 1321

P. P. Greninger's school closes today, (Monday.)

During the latter part of last week we have had very pleasant weather. Birds have been singing, wasps flying etc. But spring may not be here yet.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine. Sold for over 60 years.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that daily action of the bowels is absolutely essential to recovery. Keep your liver active and your bowels regular by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of HAIR VIGOR, AGUE CURE, CHERRY PECTORAL.

Seeds That Grow

We have received our stock of the reliable "Ferry Seeds" and can furnish any gardener, big or little, as we have the seeds in package or in bulk.

Chicks That Grow

best are the ones fed on "Chick-seed" We introduced this prepared food for young chicks last year and the demand could hardly be supplied. We have a stock of the food now, ask to see our "Water Fountains" for chickens. The only way to keep a fresh supply of clean water.

The Potter-Hoy Hardware Co.

BELLEFONTE.

Beezer's MeatMarket

ALLEGHENY ST., BELLEFONTE.

We keep none but the best quality of BEEF, PORK, MUTTON, SLICED HAM, All kinds of Smoked Meat, Pork Sausage, etc. If you want a nice juicy Steak go to PHILIP BEEZER.

PHENOMENAL SALE

We are now selling the Celebrated

COOPER REMEDIES

IN IMMENSE QUANTITIES

We claim that the sale of them in Bellefonte is larger than any other proprietary medicine ever introduced in this city. We are receiving wonderful endorsements of these preparations daily from people who have purchased them from us.

We unhesitatingly say that we have yet to see a case where they have not given complete satisfaction.

To all who suffer from stomach trouble and rheumatism who will call on us we will take pleasure in explaining the nature and remarkable effect of these new medicinal formulae.

WE SELL THEM AS FOLLOWS:

Cooper's New Discovery, $1.00 per bottle, six for $5.00. Cooper's Quick Relief, 50c per bottle.

SIDNEY KRUMRINE, - - PHARMACIST, BELLEFONTE, PA.