UNIONVILLE.

Miss Nannie Fisher has gone to Clearfield where she expects to remain three months, and before she went she ordered the Centre Democrat to be sent to her while she remains there. It's better than a telephone connection, Nannie.
There are 577 business places in Centre county liable to pay a mercantile tax.
William Resides, perhaps, best known as "One Armed Billy," walked over the mountain last Friday to spend his 70th birthday at the home of Philip Resides, who lives in the house in which he was born just 76 years ago on March 22nd, 1831. Billy is one of those noble and honored veterans of the civil war, who gave his left arm for the nation's cause, and no braver soldier ever fired a gun than he was. He lost his arm at the battle of Fredericksburg and was also severely wounded in the thigh.
There have been several lively scraps in the diamond of our town lately. We failed to learn the particulars, but we do know that one of our young boys had one of his eyes beautifully frescoed—a sort of a halo placed around it—as it were.
Boys, don't fight, it's nasty business.
Five of our young ladies went to feast on Mrs. Hazel's famous ice cream. One lady only had three cents, another had five cents, another had seven, one had four, and the other had six, making in all 25 cents. So they pooled their exchequer and ordered five pony dishes at five cents each, but the ice cream was so grand that they were far from being satisfied, and some were in favor of buying a 10 cent dish, on trust, but they were overruled by the majority.
Don't forget the opera, which will appear in the Grange Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings. Jaysville Junction is a laughable play and those connected with it, report excellent progress in their rehearsals. Admission 25 cents. House will be crowded. Secure your tickets early.
Ed. Loughry, jr. of Sydney, Australia, is visiting his cousin, Mrs. P. J. McDonnell, at this place. Mr. Loughry is a son of Edward Loughry, who at one time resided at the intersection. In 1879 he was sent to Australia in the interest of the Baldwin Locomotive works. In 1881 he married a most estimable Australian lady, whose father was a man of great influence. The younger Edward came to this country to complete his education in mechanical arts and engineering. He expects to remain in this country a number of years.

Barn Burned.

The barn on the Masden farm owned by Samuel H. Kunes, of Blanchard, located east of the Eagleville station along the Bald Eagle creek, was destroyed by fire about 9.30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The farm is not tenanted and the barn was empty except for a small amount of hay. The origin of the fire was incendiary, and the loss is about $500 with no insurance. The fire made a great light which attracted attention for miles.

WHO IS THE MAN?

The following article is taken from the Pittsburg Pa. Dispatch, of last Thursday. Does anybody know the man? We are unable to trace him to this community.
"F. B. Clark, believed to have originally come from Bellefonte, a recent resident of California, an erstwhile guest at the Astoria Hotel in New York, and up to a late hour yesterday afternoon the occupant of a suite of rooms at the Colonial Hotel, is an occupant of a modest unfurnished cell at Central police station under numerous and serious charges.
"Some days ago certain checks, one for $225 and another for $50, drawn on the Farmers & Merchants National Bank of Tyrone, were presented to the police department by the manager of the Colonial Hotel with the statement that there did not seem to be any material resources to draw upon.
"About the same time L. J. Marks, a diamond merchant, made complaint that he had considerably cashed two checks for Mr. Clark. One was $175 and the other for $200, and he had also lent Mr. Clark three diamond rings and a modest diamond pin which he valued at $550.
"In Clark's rooms in the hotel was a satchel filled with the most beautiful "yellow back" securities. It looked as though some one had broken into John D. Rockefeller's private vault. Most of these securities, which cautious men like Russel Sage generally kept in their safe deposit vaults, were recklessly left in Clark's valise. They were stock certificates of the Central Coal & Coke Company which was incorporated in the State of Delaware in 1906, and bore the seal of the company on each one.
"A relative of Clark's in Clearfield County organized a coal company about 12 years ago, but just about the time beautiful stock certificates to the amount of $150,000 were issued its mines failed. Clark, it is alleged by the police, got possession of these certificates. The police say he had disposed of $765 of stock to a certain Pittsburg investor and that he had engaged a suite of rooms in the Fulton Building to promote the company and dispose of the rest of the stock. The police say all these transactions were fraudulent.
"Mr. Marks made two informations last night against Clark. One for larceny by bail, and the other for obtaining money under false pretenses. F. J. Smith, manager of the Colonial Hotel, according to the detective department, will make information today against him for obtaining money under false pretense.
"In looking up the record of the above gentleman we find that he was in Bellefonte several months ago in the interest of coal lands located in Clearfield county. He was trying to induce some of our citizens to take stock in the enterprise. He failed in these efforts and after remaining here about a week left the Garmen House without paying his board bill.

REBERSBURG.

They say Miss Mary Meyer attending school at Bucknell University, and brother Robert at Bloomsburg Normal, are home for the Easter vacation.
They say, Rev. Snyder of the Evangelical church and Wetzel of the Reformed church, preached good sermons last Sunday evening.
They say, the Lutheran Sunday school took an offering Sunday morning, for the China famine sufferers, amounting to over $60.
They say, Thomas Brungart, W. H. Hackman, Merwin Kuhn, and quite a good many others, are going to fit on Thursday.
They say Dr. Henry Krumrine, our dentist, intends remaining in our city this summer. He is at present over-ruled with work.
They say, Jackson Ocker, employed at a lumber job in the Livonia Narrows, is home for a few days.
They say, there will be a sunrise prayermeeting Easter morning, at 6 o'clock, in the Lutheran church, of our town.
They say, Luther Frank has the spring fever, caused by the sudden change in the weather.
They say, Mrs. Kate Moyer, and daughter Orpha, entertained guests, Saturday and Sunday, from Union county.
They say, James Gramley's sale was largely attended, Saturday and stock brought high prices.
They say, the public sales close here next Wednesday.
They say, Thomas will have summer school.
They say, Calvin Crouse, who had gone to Lock Haven, about a week ago, in search of employment, has returned, and expects to remain home for the summer.
They say, Mrs. Nevin Moyer is on the sick list; we all hope for her speedy recovery.
An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Breen of Lock Haven was buried in the Evangelical cemetery, Tuesday noon, Rev. Hass officiating.
They say, Howard Krape has secured the general agency for Pennsylvania, for the Rogers silver ware, the best in the world.
Rebersburg citizens generally seem highly pleased with the compliment paid them by the "Democrat" concerning the wealth of this beautiful village.

Easter Services in Episcopal Church.

On Good Friday, in St. Johns Episcopal church, Three Hours Passion service will be held from 12 to 3, and in the evening at 8 o'clock there will be an exhibition of 52 passion pictures of the Last Days of our Lord. While a general invitation is extended to all interested to attend these services, a special invitation is hereby given to the young men's club and their lady friends, and to the young women's club and their gentlemen friends, to be present at the showing of the passion pictures. On Easter day the services will be:
Holy Communion, 8 a. m.; morning prayer, sermon and communion, 11 a. m.; children's floral festival, 7.30, when the Sunday school children will present their Easter offering and receive each a potted plant in bloom.

State Elks Reunion.

The State association of the Order of Elks in Pennsylvania is planning for a big reunion in Harrisburg on May 14 and 15.
The details were arranged at a recent meeting of the executive committee. There will be a business session on the first day and a parade and social session on the second day. It is expected that 90 lodges will be represented. Valuable prizes will be awarded to the lodge having the largest number of women visitors present, the lodge coming the greatest distance and the lodge having the largest percentage of members in parade.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Morning of the 26 had quite a thunder gust, also a light one on Wednesday morning.
Jacob Shirks' home along Pleasant Gap pike came near burning down during the week. A lamp exploded and by the strenuous efforts of the family the home was saved.
From the number of changes in the address of Democrat patrons, it would seem there are many changing homes in the county, as well as going outside, including the West, this spring.
Hon. J. H. Wetzel, civil engineer, and C. A. Weaver, county commissioner, were in Millheim recently and staked off the position and dimensions of the abutments for the new iron bridge across Elk creek.
Noah F. Stover, of Millheim, is seriously ill at his home on Penn street. Mr. Stover has been a life long resident of this community and resides in Millheim for the past twenty-five years. His sickness is general debility incident to old age.
At a meeting of the stockholders of the National Dairy Show Association held in Chicago Saturday, March 2nd, Prof. H. E. Van Norman, of State College, was elected vice president. It was decided to hold the second annual show in Chicago this coming fall.
J. Orris McCormick, of Spring Mills, has rented the Penn Cave hotel, in Gregg township and will take charge in April. It is his intention to conduct a hotel for the summer boarders and cave visitors. The Penn Cave is a popular resort in summer time.
The Phillipsburg Journal says that the many friends of the handsome and popular young clerk at the Potter House, Walter Waple, thought there was a wedding in sight, judging from the way he was "tripped up" Sunday. Even the shoe man asked him what was doing.
The following changes have taken place in Millheim: Adam Maize, moved into Earl Koen's home on Penn street. S. G. Burrell moved from Penn Hall into his own residence on Main street, vacated by Maize, and Frank Kremer took possession of the Bumiller house on Penn street.
The Centre Co. S. S. convention will be held this year later than usual, in Bellefonte, July 30th and 31st, in the Presbyterian church. The executive committee seeks the co-operation of all interested in Sunday School work. Make this meeting of the highest value to the cause. W. Henry Schulyer, Sec., Centre Hall, Pa.

COBURN.

Spring is certainly here as some early gardeners have dug in the earth and the housewife is boiling soap and doing her semiannual house cleaning.
Levi Spigleny says it's a fact that a man in this town has six hens and the man found nineteen eggs in one day. The hens know that Easter is close at hand.
Mrs. C. F. Corman and little son, of Duquesne, are visiting relatives here.
Mrs. J. J. Breen, of Paddy Mountain, spent Saturday with L. H. Stover here.
One day last week a son arrived at the home of J. O. Eisenhuth and John thinks the little fellow will some day take the grandfather's place as Highvalley scribe.

E. L. Stover, the pike manager, is doing patch work on the pike and it certainly needs it. The past winter seems to have been hard on the roads.

Work on New Sate Road.

Work on the new state road between Flemington and Mill Hill will commence in about ten days. As soon as the quarries are put in operation at Salona crushed stone macadamizing will be delivered along the road. An immense steam road roller has been sent from Chicago and will soon be delivered at Mill Hill.
The small boy is apt to wonder why a young man has the shoulders of his coat padded instead of the seat of his trousers.
He who banks on luck should hire some other fellow to take his risks for him.

GREENBURR.

W. S. Kahl, started for Lewistown, on Monday morning, where he intends to work at his trade.
A select school will be taught in the Greenburr school house.
F. P. Wirth, and William Lamey started for Spook Hollow on Monday, where they will start a sawmill.
Harry Miller, of Tylersville, and Estella Fiedler, of Maple Grove, were quietly married at the home of Rev. Searl. The room in which the couple were made one, was beautifully decorated and the ceremony took place under a white arch.
No wonder Jacob Bartges, of Maple Grove, struts around so proudly of late, his twins; they have a beautiful boy and girl; their alright Jacob, we don't blame you.

In the Interest of the G. A. R.

Governor Stuart has signed the bill directing county commissioners to appropriate annually not more than $100 to each Grand Army post in their respective counties to aid in defraying the expenses of Memorial Day. The bill becomes law at once, and the G. A. R. posts in Centre county will therefore, be entitled to an appropriation from the county treasurer for the observance of the coming Memorial Day. There are eight posts in this county.
