BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Mrs. Gephart is visiting friends in Johnstown.

-Frank Kern spent Sunday at his old home in Pennsvalley. -The boys about the Court house are planning for another outing on Fishing

-Mrs. O. L. Rishell and Miss Benner, of Oakhall, were pleasant callers in our

-Mr. and Mrs. Curtin Taylor, of Bellefonte, are rejoicing over the arrival Bellefonte and Axe Mann.

of a baby boy. -We are pleased to learn that within of Bellefonte, spent Sunday among 26th, the last few days conductor Reamer is friends up along Buffalo Run.

somewhat improved. -Mrs. Robert Vonada, of Reading, formerly of Coburn, chaperoned by Mrs. Garthoff, gave the Democrat a call.

-Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings and daughter Miss Sarah, left Friday morning for Harrisburg and Washington, D. C.

-Fred Sourbeck, after visiting his parents in Bellefonte, left Friday morning to resume his work at Latrobe, Pa. -Miss Edna Williams entertained home on Curtin street, on Thursday -Mrs. Samuel Lucas, Miss Sarah Lucas and Willis Lucas, of Warriors Mark, are visiting the Misses Kelley's on Beaver street. -Keichline's machine shop, on Water street, is in working shape, equipped with some of the finest machinery that can be purchased. -Mrs. John H. Wilson, and daughter Mr. Wilson, who is employed in the Western Union office at that place.

-Mrs. Andrew Harris, of Lock Ha. -Next Sunday morning at 10 30 cises of ven, was an arrival in Bellefonte last o'clock Dr. J. Allison Platts, pastor of May 31.

-Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Finnegan, with their daughters Florence and Margaret, were in Philadelphia last week, called there by the death of Mrs. Finnegan's

-Edward Keichline left Friday to accept a position as a machinist at Sparrow Point, Md. Ed. is a good mechanic and we know he will meet

-Rev. Rhodes, the new pastor of the Howard U. Ev. church, was a pleasant caller upon the Democrat, Several years ago was the popular pastor of the Centrehall charge.

-A. F. Bailey, of Galeton, Pa., was a pleasant visitor in town Friday morning. Mr. Bailey served his country faithfully during the Civil War in Company E, 45 P. N. I. V. He is a brother of Commissioner J. G. Bailey. -Trout fishing became ripe on Monday and the streams were lined during the week with whippers of the water, with tempting bait and fly to lure the now about ready for the bricklayers. The building will be of brick and three stories in height and will give that com-pany just double the floor space it now occupies in the old Phoenix mill plant. -Frank Davis arrived in Bellefonte Friday morning with his family from Millheim and will make this his future home. Frank is employed by Knisely Brothers in their cigar factory, and is one of the finest cigar makers in the Frank brought with him two fine hunting dogs that he prizes very highly. -Miss Martha McEntire, formerly of ring street. She is a resident of Pittsburg and holds a position as stenographer in the insurance office of English & Furey, the later being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, of near -Bellefonte has two dozen stylish autos raising dust on our streets. Each machine should have a sprinkler attach-ed to keep down the dust when going over our main thoroughfares-how nice that would be and how it would administer to the cleanliness and comfort of the auto occupants and the machines, as well as to the homes.

-Horton Ray, the courteous proprietor of the Brockerhoff House, is forging to the front as rapidly as possible as an up-to-date hotel man. He is leaving nothing undone that will add to the comfort of his guests. Among the recent improvements is a body brussels to the furniture and equipment of his store a large oak cabinet for holding two store a large oak cabinet for holding two store a large oak cabinet for holding two store as large oak cabinet for holding two store as large oak cabinet for holding two stores and store as large oak cabinet for holding two stores as large oak cabinet for holding two stores and store as large oak cabinet for holding two stores and stores as large oak cabinet for holding two stores as large of the stores as large oak cabinet for holding two stores as large oak cabinet for holding tw carpet in the hall upstairs and in several of the rooms. The designs are hand-seventy-seventh birthday anniversary and her children gave her a surprise by a home gathering. There were present D. Kirk Tate, wife and child, of Barnesboro; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Beezer and two children, and D. Benton Tate, of this place. One daughter in Massa-chusetts and a son in Virginia were unable to come to the gathering.

-Homer Crissman, assistant to Supt. railroad, has accepted the position of

The Bellefonte Cemetery Association propose to employ a man for the summer season who will devote his entire time to mowing the grass and cartification and the grass and cartification and the closure of the Presbytery on Wednesday evening. The next meeting will be held in Tyrone June 10th.

Some beautiful music. The Division Commander Sir Knight Chas. T. Derick of Altoona, honored the Commandery summer season who will devote his entire time to mowing the grass and caring for the lots, provided a sufficient number of lot owners will place their lots in its care to provide a fund with which to pay the man who does the work. The prices charged will be $1.50 for full lots and $1.00 for half lots for the entire season and the lots will be the entire season and the lots will be the grass and caring for the lots, provided a sufficient number of lot owners will place their lots in its care to provide a fund with which to pay the man who does the work. The prices charged will be $1.50 for full lots and $1.00 for half lots for the entire season and the lots will be gymnasts, clowns, jugglers, aerial performers and sensational hippodrome formers and sensational hippodrome forme

-Harvey Gengher, of Altoona, is home for a few days.

-Friday Anna Fogleman was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital. -Monday morning Thomas Shoe-maker and wife left for Ebensburg.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woomer returned home on Sunday evening from their wedding tour,

-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, of Elmira, N.Y., have been visiting friends in

-Jim Ross and Sandy Wallace are in Lock Haven constructing a large brick stood along the tracks at the engine porch at t e home of W. L. Harvey. -Fred Kurtz, Jr., editor of the Lewisburg Journal, speat part of Friday in Bellefonte as the guest of his parents. -Dr. Elois Meek, of Johnstown, has been a visitor in Bellefonte at the home wife. -John Noll, of Altoona, spent Sunday fourteen of her young friends at her very pleasantly with his parents, Colonel and Mr. Emanuel Noll, on Allegheny

> -Charles C. Shuey left Monday morning for Tyrone to attend a convention of the District Stewards of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

-Farmer Peter Corl was in town on Tuesday trying to find a safe family horse. He found them scarce and returned to State College without one.

Jenette, spent Sunday in Altoona with important position with the Bell Telephone Co., spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his mother, Mrs. Henry P. Harris.

week, called here by the serious illness the Presbyterian church, will deliver the of her sister, Miss Sue McDermott. the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. of Bellefonte. The public is cordially invited.

-Mr. and Mrs. Philip Beezer returned from Philadelphia on Sunday evening. Mr. Beezer, who went to the ci y to consult a specialist is feeling much better and is around again as usual. It is to be hoped that he may find permanent relief.

-Staff Captain Lyons, of the Salvation Army, of Philadelphia, arrived in father, Jame C. Derr, on Penn street, Bellefonte Monday morning and con- will receive prompt attention. ducted special services at the hall in the evening. An infant was dedicated to the Lord and the enrollment of soldiers also took place.

-Robert Hoy, who for sometime had what kind he will buy is uncertain. been freight agent for the Bellefonte Railroad Co. He is a good man and is spoken of as an expounder of the Gospel

-Ollie Campbell and Billy Rees, formerly of Bellefonte, will figure prominently in the home talent minstrels which will be given in Barnsboro to-morrow night. It is possible that these gentlemen will simply paralize the audience with their marvelous stunts.

-Dr. H. M. Hiller arrived in Bellefonte last week from New York, having come direct from Cuba, where he has been the past few months. His coming was about a month or six weeks earlier than usual but then the doctor likely wanted to have the sport of the opening Bellefonte, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeager on tre county tre county.

-Col. J. L. Spangler and wife have returned to Bellefonte after having spent much of the winter in Philadelphia. The Colonel underwent a slight operation recently and he is now feeling as spry as when a boy of 19. He is one of Bellefonte's best citizens and it is to be hoped that an extended and prosperous life may still be his.

-April for its first and second, seemed to be on a tear. It had all kinds of weather and none straight-like being on a bender. It was cool, damp, with snow and rain alternating in rapid succession, the precipitation being in light installments. Fortunately for vegetation, there were no freezes to injure buds and plants. Farmers were greatly hindered hundred suits of cothing. The coats and -Wednesday of last week Mrs. Therfound in your wardrobe at home. The coats can be drawn out in a second and are always found in excellent shape, without a crease or wrinkle. Besides keeping the clothing free from dust it does away with much labor in showing them to customers. He has also added a number of counter racks which give the place a more business like appear--In the revision of the permanent committees of the Huntington Presby-F. H. Thomas, of the Bellefonte Central of Bellefonte, was made chairman of the committee on evangelistic work and a bookkeeper for the Pennsylvania Devel-member of the committees on Presbyopment Co., whose operations are at Joplin, Mo. He takes the place of Miss Mame Butts who is now holding a posimade chairman of the committee on made chairman of the committee on tion in Philadelphia. Mr. Crissman un- theology and Gen. Beaver chairman of tion in Philadelphia. Mr. Crissman understands the business all right and it is to be hoped that he can figure out a big. fat dividend for the stockholders at the close of the year.

The Religionts Counter Appeir in Philadelphia. Mr. Crissman understands the close of the committee on systematic beneficence while James Harris was appointed a member of the committee on home missions. Rev. Platts presided at the clossions. Rev. Platts presided at the clossions. Rev. Platts presided at the clossions. They were accompained by their

-Mrs. Robert Irwin is visiting friends in Altoona -Miss Anna Sechler returned home

fram Baltimore, Friday. -W. H. Meyer, merchant at Centre hall, favored our sanctum with a call.

-Judge Cyrus Gordon, of iClearfield, was an arrival in Bellefonte Tuesday. -Mr. and Mrs. Steve Finnigan arrived home from Philadelphia on Monday -Mr. John Laurie, of Tyrone, returned home after visiting a short time at Dr. -Hon. P. Gray Meek attended the fu-neral of the late William Bigler, at Clearfield on Friday. -Monday, Howard Martin had his lower lip cut very badly while turning a switch at the Bellefonte Furnace.

-Indications are that Centre county --Harold Kirk and Miss Minnie Cole, O. F. gathering in Lock Haven on the

-The P. R. R. Co. are putting up a new water tank near where the old one -Good dwelling houses for rent in Bellefonte are scarcer than ever. That is an indication that our town is improving generally.

-John Sourbeck, after being laid up of her parents, Hon. P. Gray Meek and at home for several weeks with a very sore hand, returned on Thursday to his work at Altoona.

-Mrs. Evelyn Rodgers, of Bellefonte, Mrs. G. G. Pond, of State College, attended the D. A. R. convention, held in Washington, D. C. -Rev. Dr. Barnard, after a most pleasant visit with his many friends in Bellefonte, departed Saturday for his home at Madisonburg, Ind.

man who has been coining money at sary. It is not sure until it receives his Hecla Park, has concluded to sell his -John Toner Harris, who holds an outfit, and like Carneige enjoy life.

fonte, has been selected to deliver the last week at the wedding of David Baraddress at the commencement exercises of the Clearfield High school on -Budd Lucas, efficient baggage mas-transferred to the Lewisburg & Tyrone division, running between Tyrone and -Josh Cox, who succeeded the late C D. Crider as car inspector in the Belle-position as night foreman of car inspectors in the Tyrone yards. -Jas W. Derr is now prepared to do all kinds of repairwork in canseating chairs. Orders left at the home of his -Landlord H. S. Ray left on Monday for a brief visit to Auburn, N. Y., where he will visit his cousin for a Tew days and inspect some automobiles. Just

-Rev. Barry, of Hartleton, father of Central Railroad Co., at Coleville, left the recently elected pastor, will preach in Sunday for Altoona, where he has ac- the Lutheran church, on Sunday next, epted a position with the Pennsylvania morning and evening. He is highly year down at Kingville, W. Va., as a sawyer at the operation in which Dr. Tate is interested, has returned and is stopping at the Garman House. That section did not agree with him and will accept employment nearer home.

-The Union Mutual Life Insurance

-S. F. Hartsock, son of John W. Hartsock, of Buffalo Run, was a caller at this office Monday. "Sam" is a progressive young man, and recently cured an excellent position in the cashier's office of the freight department of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona.

-Farmer Frank Clemson, of Buffalo Run, was in town and tried to pay the Centre Democrat-two years in advance and got a dollar back. He had a splendid public sale this year and he thinks that liberal advertising was a most profitable investment. He found it that -Any old time you get Wilson Gephart, of Bellefonte, to go to Oklahoma we will make'er good. He doesn't want to be known as "Coal Oil Johnny the 2nd." just yet awhile. As long as the iron boom is on, he will stay right with it as an employe of the Bellefonte Furnace Co.

-One of the finest teams that comes to Bellefonte is owned by farmer John Rishel, of near town. They are evenly mated, and big enough to draw an im-mense load. Mr. Rishel has been offered enough money for them to buy two ordinary teams, but does not want to part with them.

-Sunday, Rev. W. H. Spangler, pastor of the Bellefonte United Brethren church preached at Howard. His pulpit here was filled by Dr. Thomas C. Van Tries in a manner that was pleasing to the congregation. The Doctor's explanation and application of the scriptures are always interesting.

-One night last week a drummer at Tyrone missed the evening train for Lock Haven, and had to get through by driving. He arrived here at 12 p. m. where Alf Baum hustled him to Lock Haven in time for the 2.52 train. It was a lively trip, over bad roads, but Alf landed him in time.

Constans Commandery number 33 Knights Templar, held a special session for the Knighting of several candidates Monday evening. The retiring Emi-nent Commander, Frank Warfield, was the entire season and the lots will be mowed as often as necessary to keep them in good condition. Those who wish their lots placed on the list for care should give their names and the price for the care of their lots to the treasurer. Miss Mitchell, before the rst of May, in order that she may know whether there will be a sufficient number to justify the employment of the man and that the lots may be put in good condition for Memorial Day.

gymnasts, clowns, jugglers, aerial performers and sensational hippodrome races, band music by the famous German Band. The side show will contain many interesting and laughable features and just the place for the man who has the blues to go. The grand entry in the main circus will take place at 8.30 o'clock. The admission to the side show will be 5 cents and to the circus 25 cents; children under 14 years of lots may be put in good condition for Memorial Day.

gymnasts, clowns, jugglers, aerial performers and sensational hippodrome races, band music by the famous German Band. The side show will contain many interesting and laughable features and just the place for the man who has the blues to go. The grand entry in the main circus will take place at 8.30 o'clock. The admission to the side show will be 5 cents and to the circus 25 cents; children under 14 years of age 15 cents. It is hoped that the attendance will be large.

-Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of Bellefonte, are rejoicing over a baby boy. -Policeman George Jodon is on the siek list, being threatened with pneu-

-Mrs. Peterson is now one of the efficient operators at the Bell Telephone —Archibald Allison, Bellefonte's up date plumber received two car loads of terra cotta pipe Monday. -Mrs. W. H. Hepburn, of Jersey Shore, is spending a couple of days at the home of Mrs. Louisa Bush.

-Cameron Stover and wife left for their home in Butler, after a most delightful "honeymoon" in Bellefonte.

been spending the winter at the residence of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler, left for Philadelphia on Tuesday. -George W. Reese is transacting business at Philipsburg. From there he will go over to Patton to witness the minstrel performance in which his son

Will takes an active part. -Mrs. John Dale, son and daughter, for several months. -Vincent Walker is the gentlemanly young clerk at Green's Pharmacy who will take great pleasure this summer in handing out the delicious soda waters and ice cream sodas to the many customers at that store.

-The appropriation of $17.000 to the Bellefonte Hospital by the senate committee, is a handsome sum that could be put to a good use. There is a possibility that this amount may be reduced by -Iohn Baudis, the merry-go-round the Governor, in case he deems it necesapproval.

-Rev. Father Benner Armor, of -Gen, James A. Beaver, of Belle- Bellefonte, was master of ceremonies ry of Johnstown and Miss Gertrude Sales Schwab, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. ohn Schwab, and sister of Charles M. Schwab, the millionaire, which took ter on the Snow Shoe railroad, has been | place last week.

-The latest topic for discussion the past week among the sports is whether John Olewine can blow steam in John Lyons' face, or whether Lyons actually dusted the hardware man out the pike fonte yards, has been promoted to the the other day. The point is, can Olewine's Stanley steamer beat one of Lyons crack gasoline Buick cars? A trial speed down at the fair ground would be more interesting than a horserace. If given as a hospital benefit the proceeds would be more surprising. As this would be between a Buick and a Stanley, As this Bob Hunter with his Franklin flyer would not be allowed to butt in. -Several weeks ago Cyrus Solt, the Bellefonte drayman, purchased a large horse at the Jacob Shuey farm, near Lemont, paying two hundred dollars for the animal. When he brought it to take the animal was a second to the anima town, it was the admiration of all horsemen, showing that it was good. Monday, while coming from the freight deof the young beast, only six years old, the week with whippers of the water, with tempting bait and fly to lure the speckled beauties. How cruel for the wriggling worm and the struggling fish.

—The foundation for the new building to be erected by the Yeager Manufacturing Company has been completed and is now about ready for the bricklayers.

—Wednesday we had a pleasant call fingle of the shifting engine, and with the shifting engine, and in its efforts to get away one of its legs in its e frightened at the shifting engine, and until he is able to buy another one.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. JOHN CONFER:-died at her home week, after a lingering illness, aged about 35 years. The deceased was burried on Thursday. Interment was made in the Disciple converse. She is exercised. in the Disciple cemetery. She is survivas Mr. McCarger knew nothing of her illness. She was past 79 years of age, and a lady possessing a beautiful character. When a little girl she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and since then has been living according to that faith. The deceased leaves to mourn her death one son, J. S. NcCarger, of Bellefonte, and four daughters, all residing in New York. Mr. McCarger left on Tuesday afternoon for Groton, N. Y., to attend the funeral.

Love is blind, especially low is in love with hims elf.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Notice is bereby given that accounts will be presented to the firmation on Wednesday. May unless exceptions be filed theret the 2nd day of the term, the standard or the product of the produc

MRS. REBECCA BOOB:-wife of Nathaniel Boob, of Millheim, was stricken with paralysis, Saturday April 6, and died at 1.15 o'clock in the afternoon without regaining consciousness. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Guisewhite and born in Aaronsburg November 12, 1848, thus making her 58 years, 4 months and 28 days old. She was twice married, her first husband being late of Spring Twp., dece W. Charles Hosterman, by whom she had ten children, eight of whom survive her, as follows: Allen O., of Hosterman, W. Va.; William L., of Coburn; John C., of Millheim; George C., of Boalsburg; Mrs. Katurah Corman, of Wolf's Store; Mrs. Susan Corman, of Smullton. Smullton; Mrs. Lizzie Haines, of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Minnie Cole, of Newport. Her first husband died in 1881 and in 1885 she was married to Nathaniel Boob. Two children were born to them, Sarah M., and Guerney, at home. She also leaves one brother, Luther, of Harrisburg, and a sister, Mrs. Brungart, of Loganton. Funeral was held Wednesday morning, inter-ment was made in the cemetery at Wolf's chapel.

The joint consistory of the Aarons-burg charge, Reformed church, met in annual session at Aaronsburg. The consistory recommended that the several congregations comprising the charge, that had not as yet instituted young people's meeting, should hereafter have them as part of the weekly services.

Owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. M. E. Slaugenhaup, of Harris-burg, has been at the old homestead in Georges Valley during the past ten

The dentist requires that a patient shall have an open countenance.

Will open at Pleasant Gap, Monday April 29th, under the supervision of Prof. S. S. Williams, It will continue for eight weeks, when a special course-will be offered to teachers and those preparing to teach. There will also be an academic course. Terms $3.50 and $5.00. 14-15

School Opening.

I will open a school, in Rebersburg, on Mod-Monday, April 18th, for a term of 8 weeks, for purplis of the intermediate and grammar grades.

Terms medicrate.

ADJOINING COUNTIES

In Blair county, Treasurer D. J. A. Rohrer collected from this year's liquor licenses a total sum of $43,850-$34.650 from hotel licenses in Altoona, $4,000 from brewery licenses, $5,200 from boroughs and $100 from townships.

Gov. Stuart has appointed James Foust. Altona, to be Dairy and Food Commissioner, vice Dr. B. H. Warren, of West Chester. Mr. Foust was formerly Chief of police, and up to this time has been chief of the Western agents of the Dairy and Food Bureau.

Harry C. Norton, of Antes Fort, was nstantly killed Saturday evening on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a point about one mile west of Antes Fort Station, His headless body was found about ten -Mrs. Emma McClellan, who had o'clock by a party of Italian laborers who were returning to their home.

The mayor of Altoona has ordered the arrest of all men in the city who have no visible means of support. He says they must either go to work or get out of town, if they don't want to go to jail. How would this work if applied to the folks who wear long skirts, with little to come and go on?

Jack and Virginia, left Wednesday morning for New York from where they will sail Thursday for Havan a Cuba, to be the guests of Col. Teller for Miss Phoebe Deitz, of Lock Haven, of Clinton, Lycoming, Centre, Potter and part of Northumberland. She succeed ed the late S. M. McCormick, whose deputy she had been for a number of years priorto his death.

Almost all the inmates of the Crawford house, at Jersey Shore, were early Friday morning affected by the fumes of escaping coal gas and had it not been for the fortunate awakening of the proprietor of the hostelry, Edward Newald, it is probable that a number of the guests would have been suffocated. It caused by the escaping gas from the furnace in the cellar.

Timothy Hennessy, aged about 70, was found drowned in the river near the Market street bridge, Clearfield, Friday evening about five o'clock by some boys who were fishing. They summoned a number of men who drew the body out of the water. Mr. Hennessy was a well known contractor and was robust and rugged for a man of his years. He was last seen Thursday evening.

T. R. Stam, of West Union, Ia., arrived in Millheim Monday evening of last week for a short visit with his relatives.

FOR SALE—A fine stock bull, color dark red.

Israel C. Spayd, R. F. D. No. 1, Spring Mills. that place but moved to Iowa a number of years ago where he successfully en-gaged in the mercantile business. He is burg. now traveling extensively through the southern states as the representative of a large wholesale cigar manufacturing firm of Detroit, Mich.

In Blair county court on Monday, George Formhals Jr., the Hollidaysburg young man who is charged with murder resulting from shooting William J. Warner, on Juniata street, Hollidaysburg, on the night of March 21, was given a hearing for the purpose of ascertaining if his offense is bailable. Wm. FOR SALE: Century dictionary eclopedia and atlas half morrocco binding for $35, cost $61. Address this office. Moyer, the companion of the victim and EGGS FOR HATCHING-White Wyandotte only eye witness to the unfortunate shooting, testified as to the occurrence. Jas. C. Derr, Penn St., Beliefonie. dence adduced here the jury would be justified in fining a verdict of murder in the first degree. We decline to accept bail and the prisoner is remarked.

FOR SALE—2 good cows, one fresh in February, the other fresh April 6th. Bell phone connection. H. A. Witherite, Runville. 16-18 it can hardly be said that they are the better for it. We are athletic in our way, better for it. We are attached in our way but when all is said and done, nothing keeps men and women alike in better condition than to walk briskly and regurestation of the condition than to walk briskly and regurestation. Apply to W. J. Dale, Bellefonte rostoffice. in Howard township, on Tuesday of last larly in the open air, yet every year finds postomer

Fresh milk is highly beneficial to the yes in cases of strain due to overstudy. The milk should be made lukewarm, the milk should be made lukewarm, disping a rag Mingoville. Pa.

FOR SALE—Workman's Boarding House, lo cated at Hecla Park. An excellent opportunity to make money. Address John Workman Mingoville. Pa. ed by her husband and one son.

Mrs. Lucy McCarger:—the aged mother of J. S. McCarger, of Bellefonte, died Tuesday morning at her home in Gorton, N. Y. Her death was sudden the lids. If the eyes are not touched, but the milk left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids. If the milk left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids. If the milk left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids. If the milk left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids. If the milk left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids. If the milk left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids and left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids. If the milk left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids and left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids and left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids and left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids and left to dry on, considerable cannot be the lids and left to dry on the lides and left to dry on the lides are the lides and the lides and the lides and the lides and the left to dry on the lides and the lides are the lides and the lides and the lides and the lides are th as Mr. McCarger knew nothing of her but the milk left to dry on, considerable Love is blind, especially when a fel-low is in love with hims elf.

Notice is hereby given that the following accounts will be presented to the Court for confirmation on Wednesday, May 22nd, 1807, and unless exceptions be filed thereto, on or before the 2nd day of the term, the same will be confirmed to wit.

The First and Final Account of Jackson Watson, guardian of Elsie Watson.

The First Account of Fillmore Craig, guardian of Rev. John Craig.

A. B. KIMPORT, Prothonotary.

April 16, 1907.

Account of Fillmore Craig, guardian of Rev. John Craig.

Bellefonte, Pa. 14-17

WANTED—Lath and shingles, oak and chestnut, small dimension stuff. A million pieces of cach. For dimensions required and other information, call on or address, Yeager Mfg Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

7-tf.

In the Orphan's Court of Centre County.
In the matter of the estate of C. C. TAYLOR.
late of Spring Twp., deceased.
The undersigned, an auditor appointed by the said Court to make distribution of the funds in the hands of the accountant, to and among those legally entitled thereto, will meet the parties in interest for the purpose of his appointment at the office of Fortney & Fortney, in the borough of Bellefonte, Pa., on Tuesday, the 14th day of May, 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m., when and where said parties may appear, or be forever debarred from coming in on said fund, x19

D. F. FORTNEY, Esq., Auditor.

PROF. J. ANGEL

Eyesight Specialist.

TWO DAYS

MAY 1 & 2.

From Wednes, morning until Thurs, evening, -AT THE-

BROCKERHOFF HOUSE, BELLEFONTE.

Prof. Angel as an eyesight specialist gives remarkable results for weak eyes, headache, blurred vision, cross eyes, or defective eyesight. Should any person doubt the statement, Prof. Angel is well able to give plenty of individual testimonials of some of the best people of Bellefonte and vicinity. Prof. Angel is trustworthy and reliable. If you wish to save your eyesight and money too, don't fail to call on Prof. Angel. All paren's are advised to have their children's eyes examined, especially those that go to school. You will thereby make a good scholar and avoid suffering.

At the Brockerboff House from Wednesday morning until Thursday evening, May I and 2

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE

在1900年 (1900年) 1900年 (1900年)
Charles M. Ross - Linden Hall Fay Weber - Boalsburg
H. Frank Woomer - Bellefonte
Evan Davis Philipsburg
Leonard M. Raymond - Cooper Catharine M. Rosenhoover Bellefonte
Sterling T. Walker - Philipsburg Rachael Ogden - Hawk Run
S David F. McKean - Howard Bertha Sheddy Vilas
Clyde M. Waite - Smullton Elsie M. Stover - Wolfs Store

Afraid She'd Lose Her Hat.

It is told that a woman on a windy day had hard work keeping her hat on her head and used both hands to hold it, letting her skirts fly.

'Madame," said a man in horror, your skirts are above your knees." "I don't care if they are," said the woman, still keeping both hands on her "I've had those legs forty-eight years, and the wind has never blown them away yet, but I just bought this hat for $18, and I don't intend to lose it."

The bill which Governor Stuart signed on the 10th inst. provides for a bounty of $4 on a wildcat, $2 on a fox and $1 on a weasel or mink. These noxious animals now give to the sportsman not only pleasure but profit in their extinguish

PUBLIC SALE.

SATURDAY, MAY 4:—at 1 o'clock p. m., at Snydertown, will be sold the household goods and other personal property of Miss Sadie Emerick, dec'd, by H. E. Duck, executor, A. C. McClintick, auet.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertise ment in this column, one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words. Charges to others: cent a word, first issue, no adv. less than 25 cents; issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents.

(No advertisements will be answered from

FOR SALE-Two young red foxes, Address W. H. Earon, Fleming, Pa.

WANTED-A safe horse for family use. Apply to Peter Corl. State College, Pa. FOR SALE—One hand-turning heading ma-chine. Address Will Wolf, Fiedler, Pa.

FOR SALE-Two fresh cows for sale, prices reasonable. W. H. McKinley, Box 114, Miles

FOR SALE-A four-year-old horse, safe and sound; weighs 1200 lbs. H. S. Limbert, Spring

EGGS-Wyandotts, Dustin strain, batching eggs, three cents each. J. R. Brungart, Re-bersburg, Pa. 15-19 WANTED—Highest market price paid for but-ter fat delivered at the Bellefonte Creamery. H. D. Shivery, prop.

WANTED-Four girls to pack matches. Wages guaranteed while learning. Steady work. Apply in person or by mail. The Pennsylvania Match Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

CHAIR CANEING—I am prepared to do chair cancing of all kinds in first-class style; all work guaranteed. Drop me a postal and I will call. James W. Derr. Bellefonte. x16

FOR SALE -Farquar sawmill with rope feed, three head blocks, line shaft, cut off, chase shingle mill and building; any one interested call on E. L. Stoner, Aaronsburg, Pa. 14-17

FOR SALE—No. 30 Russel separator with Sattley swinging stacker and bagger, belting and everything in good condition. I have no use for it. Anyone interested call on E. L. Stover, Aaronsburg, Pa.

AGENTS WANTED—Good Pennsylvania German hustlers wanted to take orders for Solly Hulsbuck's book of choice selections of Penna-German. Original. Fun. fact. filosophy. Makes lean folks laugh and grow fat. and the fat laugh themselves lean. The Hawthorne Press. Elizabethville, Pa.

FOR SALE—A farm of 160 acres and allowance adjoining the Beliefonte fish batchery; under a good state of cultivation; two barns and two orchards: never-failing springs convenient to the house, and all necessary outbuildings along with house, all being in good condition. Apply to Wm. J. Dale, Bellefonte. SEED CORN SORTER.

In order to drop corn regular seed should be uniform in size; all small, round and thick kernels removed, all of which is accomplished in one opperation by this sorter. Frices and circulars on application. Luss Manufacturing Co. Ltd. Centre Hall, Pa.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. The following prices prevailed Thursday The following prices are paid by SECHLER &

Bellefonte-Grain.

LOCK HAVEN MARKETS.

Prices on the curb market Wednesday morning, at Lock Haven were as follows:
Butter, per pound 35c; eggs, per dozen 15c; dressed chickens, per lb 16c; lard, per pound 11c; potatoes, per bushel 6oc.