

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rote have arrived in Bellefonte.

—William Dukeman, of Altoona, is visiting friends in Bellefonte.

—Father McArdle, of Bellefonte, spent Thursday at Jersey Shore.

—W. H. Burrows and family have removed from Bellefonte to Tyrone.

—Capt. Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, arrived in Bellefonte, Thursday. He is always a welcome visitor.

—J. H. Eckel, formerly of Penn Hall, has become a citizen of Bellefonte, having moved over here last week.

—Rev. Barry, the new pastor, will preach in the Lutheran church next Sunday, morning and evening.

—Mrs. John Conley, of Centre Hall, spent Thursday in Bellefonte as the guest of her son, Will Conley, on Logan street.

—The offices to be filled in this county at the next election will be as follows: District Attorney, Prothonotary and County Surveyor.

—One of the finest teams seen in this town for many a day is that pair of grays driven by Geo. Beezer. They are evenly matched and the envy of every horseman.

—Charles Richards, who spent the past two months in Lancaster, Pa., for the purpose of picking up some new points in the jewelry trade, is home again.

—Edward Hanscom, one of the clerks in the Bellefonte postoffice, left on Wednesday afternoon of last week for Chicago where he transacted business of importance.

—Arthur B. Aultz, of Tyrone, has been appointed temporarily to fill the position of car inspector in the Bellefonte yards. He is a fine young fellow and thoroughly understands his business.

—It was useless to employ Hard Harris to fumigate the Bellefonte postoffice of diphtheria germs, with formaldehyde. Would done just as well to have sent for Penrose and had him blow his breath through the place.

—About three weeks ago Mrs. Samuel Shirk, of Bellefonte, fell down a flight of stairs in her home near the Valentine works and sustained serious bruises that she has not yet recovered, though she is much better.

—John Woodring, of Tyrone, formerly of Bellefonte, is acting as a substitute brakeman on the Bald Eagle Vally train. When John left Bellefonte he was just a lad, now he has grown to be a man larger than his father.

—Fish Commissioner M. E. Meehan, of Harrisburg, and W. F. Hass and W. J. Miller, of the Spruce Creek hatchery, were at the Bellefonte hatchery Thursday looking over the work that has been done there during the past year.

—Mrs. Hannah Lutz, who lives with her son-in-law, Andrew Dunkle, out in Bush addition, has been seriously ill for over a month and is in a helpless condition. Being in her 83rd year, her chances for recovery are not the most encouraging.

—When the weather is favorable these days the venerable Daniel Garman is seen out taking short walks. Although in his 88th year and having had several spells of serious illness this spring, his condition is much improved. He now is one of our oldest citizens.

—Roy Johnson, Harvey Gingham and John Dugan returned to Altoona on Friday evening, after visiting friends in Bellefonte. Mr. Johnson is a fireman on the Middle Division of the P. R. R. and was on duty when the train wrecked at Mineral Point, near Johnstown, Mr. Johnson had a miraculous escape from being killed.

—William Mayes, of Hubersburg, was in Bellefonte Monday morning for the first time since about Thanksgiving. He had been very ill, and practically given up to die, but finally a change came for the better and now he is getting along nicely. He is still a little weak and pale but the breathing of fresh air will bring him around all right; while in Bellefonte he was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Philip Garbrick.

—Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, pastor of the Reformed churches of Bellefonte and Zion, A. Luckenbach and B. A. Noll, were a committee appointed by the joint consistory to draft resolutions upon the death of the late Michael Corman, of Zion. They speak very highly of the deceased who so many years was a faithful and helpful member of the Reformed church at Zion, an elder in the same church and a member of the joint consistory.

—The new Episcopal rectory is fully planned and work on the same is likely to begin soon. It will be erected with a view to the convenience and comfort of the pastor, as well as to supply needed wants for Sabbath school and other purposes. The space between the church edifice and the present rectory will be utilized for the improvement which will afford the congregation and rector modern conveniences such as will make it pleasant for this flourishing congregation.

—John Wilson, formerly operator in the Western Union telegraph office in Bellefonte, but who has charge of the telegraph office in Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his family. He is getting as stout as our friend John Knisely. He says that a streak of good luck has struck him, and he is more than pleased with his position. He has purchased a new typewriter and is going to do business in the modern way. He is now on the lookout for a house and as soon as he is suited he will move his family there.

—Friday Hon. W. C. Heinle, of Bellefonte had the pleasure of seeing his daughter, Miss Bettie, graduate with honor from the Lulliam School of Dramatic Art, Philadelphia. She stood second in a class of fifteen, although her production was considered the best of any in the entire class. It was so heartily endorsed by the large audience that she received a couple of large bouquets and when the curtain dropped the applause was so tremendous that before the exercises could proceed the curtain was drawn and Miss Heinle made her bow in recognition of her profound appreciation of the ovation tendered her. She was the only one in the class who was honored in that way. Miss Heinle is a natural born elocutionist and dramatist who is bound to make a success in her chosen vocation.

—Trailing arbutus was in evidence on Sunday.

—Miss Jennie Lose and Miss Clara Hastings spent Sunday in Lock Haven.

—Dr. John Henderson, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in Bellefonte and vicinity.

—Mr. and Mrs. Claud Smith, John Bullock and Miss Ella Musser spent Friday in Altoona.

—Rev. H. Brownlee Smith, of Harrisburg officiated at the St. John's Episcopal church, Sunday.

—Mrs. Jessie Underwood and little daughter, of Sunbury have been visiting relatives in Bellefonte.

—Geo. Uzzle, one of the heavy weights about Snow Shoe, was transacting business in town on Tuesday.

—F. H. Thomas, Supt., of the Bellefonte Central railroad, transacted business in Philadelphia this week.

—D. S. Monroe, D. D., formerly of Bellefonte, was a pleasant visitor between trains Saturday morning.

—Mrs. Rush Larimer returned to her home at New Florence, Friday, after a pleasant visit with friends in Bellefonte.

—Hickman Kellerman, manager of the telephone exchange at Indiana, spent Sunday with his parents east of Bellefonte.

—John Bryan and daughter had been visiting friends in Altoona. Mr. Bryan was called there on account of the illness of his mother.

—Dr. H. M. Hiller left on Sunday for Philadelphia where he will attend the U. of P. in order to take up some special work pertaining to his profession.

—George Paul Sheffer has rented the Hamilton house on Allegheny street now occupied by the Batts sisters, and will move there on the first of May.

—During the past week we have heard of very few trout being caught about town. The weather was unfavorable and the hungry fish have all been caught.

—Everything about Bellefonte seems to have gone up in price, except the price of subscriptions. If paper keeps advancing, that may follow of necessity.

—Ex-Register A. G. Archey, now one of the hustling merchants of Pine Grove Mills, was in town Monday. He likes his new venture and reports business brisk.

—The Rev. James Boal, D. D., of Centre Hall will preach in the Reformed Church, Bellefonte, next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the Reformed Church at Zion at 2.30 p. m.

—Prof. Angel will be at the Brockertoff House, on Wednesday morning until Thursday evening, May 1 to 2, to meet all patrons who may wish to consult him in regard to their eyes.

—Homer McKinley, of Milesburg, has moved to Bellefonte. He is employed at the Central R. R. Co.'s machine and repair shops, and in this way he will be much nearer to his place of employment.

—All the churches of this town are now supplied with pastors, changes having taken place in over one half of the pulpits within the past twelve months, and the membership of these congregations have filled the vacancies to utmost satisfaction of all.

—Mrs. Margaret Rosenboover, Edna Hamilton and Mary Mosebarger, returned home Friday evening after having accompanied the bride and groom to Drifft, Pa., where a reception and dance was held in their honor. The guests numbered about 150 and all had an excellent time.

—Rev. Barry, of Hartleton, preached twice in the Lutheran church last Sabbath, which riveted the attention of the audience. He is the father of the newly elected pastor, who will come to this place in a few weeks to take permanent charge and will in the mean time preach here occasionally.

—During the past week Wm. Garman was doing some special work in the Bellefonte post office. Having been connected with that office for over ten years it was an easy task to jump in at his old job as distributing clerk, at which he was considered an expert and made some high records for speed and accuracy.

—Mrs. George Meyer, nee Miss Jennie Showers, of Philadelphia, is expected to arrive in Bellefonte to-morrow evening and become the guest of her mother, Mrs. Alice Showers on Allegheny street since leaving Bellefonte a little while ago to bless the household and grand-ma is awfully anxious to get her eyes on the pretty little child.

—This evening there will be another ecure in the Catholic hall. These are always enjoyable affairs, and the ladies in charge will try and make this one excel all others. Four fine prizes will be given and ice cream, cake and coffee served. Admission 25 cents. The game starts at 8.15. Go early and enjoy a pleasant evening.

—The Bellefonte Academy base ball team started the season under the most favorable circumstances. Thursday they played the State College Varsity, the score being 5 to 3 in favor of State. They defeated Lock Haven Normal on Saturday by the close score of 4 to 3. The pitching of Fullerton, the Academy twirler, is fully up to College standard, and proves a puzzle to every batter who faces him.

—Wednesday of last week, Rev. James B. Stein, of Bellefonte, attended a meeting of the ministers of the Central Pennsylvania Conference which met in the Grace Methodist church. The trustees have charge of the distribution of all the funds of the conference which amounts to thousands of dollars. If all the trustees are men of the same character and judgment as Rev. Stein, the fund will be fairly and squarely distributed.

—There is but one case in the Supreme Court of Pa. from this county and that will be argued at the regular session for this district, in Philadelphia, this week. It is an appeal from the finding of Judge McClure who heard the case, which is a proceedings in equity in regard to the right-of-way of certain tracks about the Nittany Iron Co.'s, owned, and used by the Nittany Valley R. R. Hon. John G. Love and J. A. B. Miller, Esq., represent the Nittany Valley R. R., plaintiff, while John Blanchard, Esq., and H. C. Quigley, Esq., represent the Nittany Iron Co., defendant.

—Miss Bogle arrived in Bellefonte from Philadelphia.

—Samuel Hart, of Harrisburg, was a Sunday visitor in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Lingle and son Joseph returned on Tuesday from Philadelphia.

—Charles Moerschbarger transacted business in Lock Haven Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Love left on Sunday evening for their future home in Altoona.

—Mr and Mrs. Daniel Nolen, of Curswensville, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Garber arrived home on Monday evening from their wedding trip.

—Miss Mame McGarvey left Tuesday morning to attend a photographers convention at Williamsport.

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings and daughter, Sarah, returned home from Harrisburg and Washington on Monday.

—Miss Kate Gummo, of Tyrone, left on Monday morning for her home, after visiting friends in Bellefonte.

—Miss Melissa T. Toner, of Canton, Ohio, is a very pleasant visitor at the home of Mrs. Mary Harris on Howard street.

—Capt. Philip T. Garbrick arrived home on Tuesday from Reynoldsville where he has been working in a glass factory as a glass cutter.

—Mrs. Henry Elliot, who has been a guest at the home of Dr. Tryon, the past few weeks, returned to her home at Atlantic City this afternoon.

—Philip and William Waddle attended the funeral of their brother-in-law Zine Bland Gray, which occurred in Tyrone, Monday afternoon.

—Willis Wion, who had been located at State College the past year, has returned to Bellefonte and is employed by the United Telephone company.

—Mrs. Heverly and her brother George Mallory left on Saturday for Altoona having been called there on account of the serious illness of their brother, Calvin.

—Little boys and even big girls should not forget the new curfew law goes into effect on Monday evening in Bellefonte. It is up to the police to do their duty.

—Benedict Gimbel the Philadelphia millionaire merchant who committed suicide in New York City, was married to a daughter of Marx Loeb formerly of Bellefonte.

—F. Peebles Green, formerly janitor at the Centre County Bank, is very ill at his home on Water street. His son Edgar, of Altoona, was here within the past few weeks to see him.

—R. W. Ossman an employe of the Landerbach Barber company, is wearing a big smile since Monday morning all on account of a bouncing baby boy that arrived at his home on South Spring street Sunday morning.

—Sam Cherry, of Bellefonte, who is assisting the Haupt Bros. in putting in the abutments for the bridge at Millheim, is said to have captured the heart of one of the pretty little girls down there. He's a masher, all right.

—If you desire a delicious drink that is cooling and refreshing you can get it at Green's drug store. They have started the fountain for the summer and from now on you can get anything that you call for, that is kept at an up-to-date fountain.

—Mrs. Edward Cook and daughter left Tuesday morning for Sonora, Cananea County, New Mexico, where they will join Mr. Cook who is employed by Consolidated Copper Mining Company. They expect to make that their future home.

—Most reports we receive from many parts of the county are to the effect that cherries and other small fruits were injured by the frozes of last week. Homes, however, said: "When a case is finished, courts are subject to the same criticism as other people." If judges and juries fail to perform their duties properly, they must still expect to be taken to task by an independent press.

—This decision of the courts should be tacked up in a certain newspaper office in this town, which tried to influence public sentiment in murder cases, before the trial even took place.

A WARNING.

The recent decision of the supreme court of the United States sustaining the proceedings against former Senator Patterson, of Colorado, because of his editorial criticism of the Colorado courts, is held not to have affected the privilege of the press to indulge in proper criticism after a case has been disposed of. When it is under consideration by judges or a jury, criticism must be withheld. Justice Holmes, however, said: "When a case is finished, courts are subject to the same criticism as other people." If judges and juries fail to perform their duties properly, they must still expect to be taken to task by an independent press.

—This decision of the courts should be tacked up in a certain newspaper office in this town, which tried to influence public sentiment in murder cases, before the trial even took place.

The New Baggage Room.

The new baggage room at the P. R. R. station has been completed, and its big improvement over the little space that has been there for years. Baggage master Emanuel Noll now has a private room and the next it will take about five yards of red tape to get to see his royal highness. "Joe Undercoffer, his assistant, is running around there as well pleased as the boy with a drum and a pair of red-top boots. Then Harry Smith is grinning all over his face at the thought that he has such a soft snap, although he keeps his nose to that book all the time. With this improvement of enlarging the baggage room comes a checking department. This means that if you have a package that you don't care to carry around all day you can pay five cents and have it checked and feel that it is safe, except a mince pie. This will certainly be a great convenience.

One on the Parson.

Monday morning Rev. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, while getting ready to take a trip to Elmira, N. Y., made the startling discovery that his overcoat was missing containing a clerical order for a ticket, a pocketbook and some other articles. He and his good wife ransacked the house although Rev. Platts was certain that the sneak thief had taken it from the rack in the hall. The police were notified to keep a lookout for a man wearing the coat as described. The parson fortunately had two overcoats which permitted him to leave on his trip under the impression that he was out an overcoat. After it had been made public that the minister had lost the garment, it was located at Yeager & Davis shoe store on High street. Evidently Rev. Platts had gone in there to buy shoes, and had taken his coat off and forgot where he left it. Taking it all in all the joke is on the parson.

Dimeling With the People.

It is gratifying to note that Senator Dimeling voted in favor of the McCord bill which, had it not been defeated by the gang, would have given the people the right to elect the United States Senator from Pennsylvania or would at least permit them to instruct their representatives in the legislature as to their preference of candidates. The Senator is standing by the people. He is not one of those men who for money or office would sell his soul or sear his conscience, thus preventing him from doing what he knows to be right and honorable.

RECENT DEATHS.

PETER FRANCIS MCGOVERN—better known to his many friends in Bellefonte as "Pete" McGovern, was killed at Butler, Friday evening. When the telephone message was received here Saturday morning the scene at the home was truly heart rending. The young man Thursday evening had written a letter to his mother stating that he had struck a good position and he would be home to spend the Sabbath with the family. The accident happened while he was on his way from work. A train was passing into the town and in order to get to his boarding house a little quicker he tried to jump on the cars and missed the step. He was thrown under the wheels and fatally injured. He was taken to the Butler hospital where he lingered until 1 o'clock Saturday morning when he passed into the great beyond. He was conscious up until the end. He was a kind hearted young man, who had hosts of friends in this town. He was a bright, ambitious young fellow, and liked to work. He learned the moulding trade and like many other young fellows had a desire to see some of the world, and although away from home most of the time he would write to his mother and sisters and let them know where he was and how he was getting along. He was a member of St. John's Catholic church of Bellefonte, also a member of the Solidarity of the Blessed Virgin. Peter Francis McGovern was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGovern and was born in Mt. Carmel. He would have been 18 years of age on the 7th of May. Left to mourn his death are his father, mother, and the following brothers and sisters: Bernard, John, William, Gertrude, Margaret, and James. The remains were brought to Bellefonte Sunday morning and Tuesday morning the funeral took place from the Catholic church.

GEORGE LAMBERT—died at his home in Milesburg, Monday afternoon. He has been employed by the Bellefonte Central Railroad company for the past five years as a watchman at the engine house. While at his work last Thursday evening he was overcome with gas and was taken home, since then he has not been quite so well. On Monday afternoon he walked up street and made some purchases and went back home and about fifteen minutes afterwards his good wife found him dead. He was born in Benner township, but has resided in Milesburg for the past thirty-five years. He would have been 57 years old on the 27th of May. He leaves to mourn his death his wife, Molly Geogher Lambert, and the following children: Lewis, Harry, Tracy, Clyde, and Ethel, all at home. The funeral was held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

ELIAS FETTERHOOF—One of the best known citizens in Pennsylvania, died early Friday morning at the home of his son-in-law, Charles Krape, at Spring Mills, the cause being paralysis. He spent most of his life in Madisonburg where he was well and favorably known. He was about 77 years of age, and in his younger days joined the Lutheran church of which he was a consistent member. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Charles Krape, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Philip Meyer, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Joseph Bitner, of Farmers Mills; and Robert who is a minister. The funeral took place Monday at Spring Mills.

ZANE B. GRAY—died at his home in Tyrone. For five years past Mr. Gray's health had been declining. Sunday, however, his condition became alarming. Congestion of the lungs set in and he grew much worse. Zane B. Gray was born in Half Moon valley, Centre county, May 30, 1840, and was aged 66 years, 10 months and 19 days. He remained at home until he reached the age of 24 years, when he came to Tyrone.

MRS. JULIA O'LEARY—wife of John O'Leary, formerly of Bellefonte, died Wednesday morning at Spring Grove Pa. The cause of this good old lady's death was due to old age. She was in her 91st year. The body will be brought to Bellefonte Friday afternoon and the interment will be made from the 420 train.

STEVE LOBAUGH—a well known printer, who was stricken with paralysis on Saturday, died at his home, in Williamsport, aged fifty-six years. Funeral services will be held at 7 o'clock, at his home in charge of the Rev. J. Emory Veeka, pastor of High Street Methodist church. Interment was made at Centre Hall.

MRS. CATHARINE HOOVER—an aged lady who lived about two miles west of Coburn, died from rupture. She was buried in Paradise cemetery. She was a noble christian woman, a kind mother, and a most excellent neighbor. Five sons survive her, viz: Harvey, John, Elmer, William and Perry.

LEROY ERTL—the 22 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ertl, of Windber, who died at his home there on Tuesday last week, was brought to Howard Thursday and taken to Jacksonville for burial.

THAT some women in Bellefonte are afflicted with St. Vitus dance of the jaw bone.

PRESIDENT'S CABINET.

On the fourth of March there was considerable change made in the president's cabinet. Even so an important matter as this can be forgotten, so for the benefit of our readers we publish the new cabinet.

Mail Bag Found.

The mail bag the robbers stole at the Centre Hall postoffice robbery was found Tuesday evening, by Milfin Moyer while fishing in the Seven Mountains a mile and a half south of Potters Mills. The bag contained all of Captain Boal's private papers. It was brought to Centre Hall Wednesday morning. After the robbery it was the general opinion that the men crossed the Seven Mountains as suspicious looking characters were seen in that vicinity the next day.
