The Valentine properties on East Lamb street are being much improved by having the roofs re-shingled and other necessary repairs accomplished.

Workmen have been engaged this week in tearing down the private hospital building built several years ago in the rear of the residence of Dr. R. G. H. Hayes.

John Krebs who has been employed at the Edison Electric Works as night fireman has accepted night watchman at the Bellefonte Central Railroads near Coleville.

In the Opera House on May 5th and 6th the "Rector of Mark" will be presented for the benefit of the Logan Fire Company. The production promises to draw a large house.

Lieut. George Runkle, after a short visit with friends in Bellefonte and Centre Hall, left for Philadelphia to join the schoolship Saratoga, of which he is one of the commanding officers.

Miss Henrietta Butts left on Tuesday to accept a position in the Philadelphia postoffice, which will be at an advance of the salary which she received in the Bellefonte office, where she held a position for some years.

W. M. Grove, who is making a complete survey of the state lands in the Seven Mountains, and locating the boundary lines between Centre and Mifflin counties, was in town this week attending to business.

W. Scott Wieland, who was taken ill about a month ago, and went to his home at Nordmont, Pa., to recuperate, returned on Monday to resume his work with the Porter-Hoy hardware company. He is a little thin in consequence, but otherwise is well.

J. A. B. Miller, Esq., is greatly improving his Curtin street property by reshingling the building, new porches, and other slight repairs. When these are finished he intends to have the house repainted, which, taken all together will make this residence one of the prettiest in town.

The 40-hour Devotions will begin in St. John's Catholic church, at this place on Sunday, May 5th. Father McArdie will be assisted in the services by Fathers Codori and Maucher of Lock Haven; Father Bustion of Jersey Shore; Father Corcoran of Snow Shoe; and Father Lachman of Bitumen.

Mr. and Mrs. Shearer, who have been spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. James Stein, left for their home in Carlisle Thursday, to prepare for the celebration of their golden wedding which took place on Monday. Mrs. Stein with the children went down Friday. Mr. Stein joined them Monday.

Tuesday morning C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, received a telephone message from Lemont stating that his mother was quite ill. Mr. Shuey and his wife drove up to Lemont and spent the day with her. Mrs. Shuey has been in delicate health for some time and there is some doubt as to her permanent recovery. Her age is 77 years and is one of the finest ladies to be found in the county.

James Ambrose Shook, of Juniata College, Huntingdon, was on a short visit to his home. James is a member of the Juniata debating team which defeated the State College team at Huntingdon last week. He also belongs to the Glee Club of Juniata College which has been giving very successful concerts in quite a number of towns this season.

Mrs. W. D. Hunter, of Pittsburgh, who has been spending the past week with her father-in-law, Steel Hunter, of Bellefonte, left last Thursday for Pittsburgh where she will remain until about the middle of May, when she will join her husband at Oakland, California, who is enjoying steady and lucrative employment as a carpenter in that city.

Sim Hazzard, of Snow Shoe township, brought quite a menagerie to Bellefonte on Tuesday last week. It was composed of a wild cat, a possum and a skunk, but they all were harmless as they had been killed by Mr. Hazzard's unerring aim many months ago and were simply mounted animals. James R. Hughes secured the mounts as the starter of a museum at the Bellefonte Academy.

The Odd Fellows did not have a favorable day for their annual gathering at Lock Haven on Friday. Rain set in on the program. All preparation had been made by the local lodges for a fine affair. The turnout from different parts of the state was large, and estimated at 10,000. From our county there was an attendance of over 300, the major part from Bellefonte. The delegation from this town was large and accompanied by a fine band.

Councilman William Derstine, Geo. R. Meek, Harry C. Quigley, Charley Hughes, Frank Bartley, Jess Dunlap, Nip Smith, Newton Dunsap, Hezkiel Condo, Dan Kelley, Bruce Garbick, Jim McNichols, Doughnut Doll, Sam Miller, Stoder Ghert and John Anderson, were some of the prominent individuals of Bellefonte who had important business in Altoona, on Monday. It is unnecessary to remark that Barnum & Baileys big show was in that city the same day.

Gorton's minstrels at the Opera House to-night.

H. T. Smith, of Hubersburg, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

J. Hummel Stear, of Sunbury, was a business visitor to Bellefonte, Monday.

William Bilger and his son left for Pittsburgh where they will purchase stock.

Miss Theresa Shields is in Philadelphia studying music under the renowned German professor, Herman Von Sternburg.

Joe Thal caught a large salmon trout last week out above the Reynolds mill that weighed 3 1/4 pounds and was 20 inches long.

Grizzly Rhoads arrived home Tuesday evening from Reynoldsville where he has been working at his trade in the glass factory.

L. R. Robb, of Altoona, while here this week on a visit to his mother Mrs. Alice Robb, did some fishing and landed an 18 inch trout from Logan Branch.

J. S. Emerick, of Smulton, was a pleasant caller. Upon examination Mr. Emerick informs us he finds that no fruit has been injured by the late freeze.

Rev. C. T. Hall, pastor of the Baptist church at Milesburg, and Rev. H. I. Crow of the Reformed church at Hubersburg, were among our callers on Wednesday.

A whole evening of royal entertainment is assured all those who attend Gorton's minstrels this evening. Good music and lots of fun, just the thing to drive dull care away.

J. E. Rupp, fireman on a passenger train between Altoona and Pittsburgh, passed through here to visit his father, ex-Register John Rupp, at Boalsburg, and do some trout fishing.

Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer, of East High street, who has been suffering from a catarrhal affection of the head, and bronchitis, has fully recovered from the result of her recent illness.

Friday John J. Bower, Esq., wife and babies went to Williamsport where they spent several days visiting friends. After having an enjoyable visit they returned home Tuesday afternoon.

Sunbury councils have decided to sprinkle the streets with oil instead of water. Wonder how beer would do to lay the dust on the streets of Bellefonte. It is stated by pretty good authority that it lays the thirst. Why shouldn't it lay the dust. The indications are that it would; but the great trouble would be the tank would be emptied before the beer would get to the dust.

William Hillbush, who holds down a good position at Middletown, N. Y., is visiting his old haunts in and around Bellefonte. He has charge of a large construction gang for one of the large railroads in that city and is getting along swimmingly. His friends here were glad to see him. He says that just now work is quite dull in his line of business and he thought he would take the time to come home and see that everything was going right.

Sunday next will be observed as Y. M. C. A. day in our local churches. An appropriate sermon will be preached by each pastor at either the morning or the evening service. At the Reformed church, in the absence of Rev. Schmidt, the morning service will be supplied by an out of town Y. M. C. A. speaker. Souvenir booklets will be distributed, giving views and reports of the local work. No funds for the association will be raised at these services.

Fisherman Tibbens of this town can be classed as the champion fisherman for suckers; good luck always strikes him. Big catches of fish rarely miss him. The other day he hauled out some whoppen suckers, one measuring 20 inches, while 12 to 16 inches is an ordinary measure, and in numbers usually running about the "teens." He tells us this season he has caught about 200 suckers and trout mostly of the first kind and none of mean lengths.

The coming production of "The Rector of St. Mark" by local talent, for the benefit of the Logan Fire Company, promises to be of more than usual interest. In the coming production each member seems well fitted to the part assigned, and although the piece is a strong one, from a dramatic standpoint, the parts are in competent hands. The cast is composed of the following: Agnes Shields, Melissa Tonner, Eva Crissman, Willis Gephart, Charles Noll, Russell Blair, Harry Otto, Hugh M. Crider and Will J. Vance.

While operating a large mangle machine in the Park hotel laundry at Williamsport, Rosa Miller, of Bellefonte, had her right hand terribly crushed and burned Tuesday of last week. The mangle is a large machine used to iron sheets and large pieces of clothes. The rollers are heated with gas and propelled by machinery. When her hand was drawn into the rollers she called for help but it was impossible to release her until the machine was dismantled in part, which required 20 minutes. The hand was terribly burned, especially the palm which was burned almost to a crisp.

Horton S. Ray, of the Brockerhoff House, arrived in Bellefonte Monday afternoon with a new Buick automobile with top, which is the finest of the kind in the town, besides being one year later model than any of the rest. Taking the machine generally it is a "beast," and runs as smooth as a Pullman sleeper. Mr. Ray was accompanied by Hugh Crider, and the trip was without any accidents or fatalities. They left Auburn, N. Y., Thursday, expecting to get in Bellefonte Saturday, but the rain and mud prevented them from making the progress they intended as some places the mud was axle deep.

East Curtin street seems to be the one part of Bellefonte that has awakened to the need of a little brightening up after the trials of a hard winter—quite a perceptible change there will be when the new addition is made to Mr. Newcomer's house and it is painted, when W. B. Rankin has finished with having his house painted, when J. A. B. Miller has new roof and new porches on his house and it is painted, and when the double brick is to be built on the Hayes lot opposite the Gaul property and completed; these improvements altogether would be a great addition to any section of the town.

Another broker's office is scheduled for Bellefonte.

Miss Grace Smith, of Centre Hall, was a Bellefonte visitor, Tuesday.

When you have an item of news don't hesitate about bringing it to this office.

James Furst brought home a 14-inch brook trout on Tuesday evening that took his fly near the Spring.

William Fredericks returned on Tuesday evening from White Deer where he attended the funeral of his father.

Prof. Milford Pletcher, the pedagogue of Blanchard, transacted business in town yesterday. He now has a thrifty summer normal in session at that place.

Sergeant Jack Blanton of the U. S. Army recruiting office which had been established in Phillipsburg for several months has removed to Bellefonte, and opened rooms in the Temple Court for the same purpose.

William Fore, night foreman at the Bellefonte furnace, resigned his position and accepted a similar position with the Saxton furnace Co., at Saxton. Billy is a splendid furnace-man and understands the work thoroughly. His friends wish him success.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Carson arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening from Berwick. Mrs. Carson was called here on account of the very serious illness of her father, Ex-County Treasurer Kline, who had a relapse on Monday evening. It is sincerely hoped Mr. Kline will speedily recover.

Saturday afternoon D. A. Grove, of Lemont, left for Buffalo, N. Y., where he visited the horse market for the purpose of selecting a car of good stock. He found prices of horseflesh out-of-sight and concluded not to invest at this time. Instead of horses, he brought back a car load of cattle for fattening on the farm.

Harry Mensch, who for a number of years has been in the employment of the United Telephone Co., both at Bellefonte and at Williamsport, has been promoted to wire chief of the Schuylkill district, with headquarters at Pottsville. He has five exchanges under his charge, which shows that the company is recognizing his ability.

William Carson, who lives a short ways east of town, has had all kinds of bad luck lately. A few days ago one of his best horses broke a leg and had to be shot; now two more of them have lung fever and not expected to get well. It seems as though misfortune never comes single-handed; by William, you must remember that with every cloud there is a silver lining.

Dr. J. E. Ward, the dentist, is now in his new office on High street which has been fixed up in the queen's taste. He has already begun torturing his victims. For the past three days a good many people have been testing that new chair which the doctor claims is one of the finest. The great trouble is that sitting on it doesn't seem to prevent a patient from saying cuss words.

Landlord John Knisely, of the Garman House, has placed in the office two large and comfortable rocking chairs for the comfort and convenience of the friends and patrons of the house. John hasn't been in the business long but he has managed to have a brick house fall on him before he is able to understand how to please the public. He makes a most excellent landlord and is getting along tip-top.

Dr. M. A. Kirk, of West Highstreet, is entertaining his two nieces, Mary and Lizzie Kirk, of Clearfield county. They are out for their health and are taking a trip overland in a conveyance which they are enjoying. They came to Bellefonte Tuesday evening from Kylertown, by the way of Snow Shoe. They are very pleasant and affable young ladies and their stay in Bellefonte will be an enjoyable one.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoffman have decided to cast their lot with the people of Bellefonte by making their home with Mrs. W. Harrison Walker on East Linn Street. They are pleasant people from Pleasantville, and it is such persons the inhabitants of our pretty and prosperous little town are always glad to welcome. Mr. Hoffman is a thorough business man and if some of our citizens had taken his advice sometime ago they might have all been wearing diamonds.

Tuesday night, after closing hours, a gang of young fellows began acting the fool in the entrance of Montgomery & Co's. store, in Crider's Exchange, when the long expected happened. One of the large plate glasses in the front windows was broken, and now the boys will have to anti-down in the pockets or they will anti-up on the hill. It serves them right, as they have no business standing around in the dark, making it a place where ladies shrink from passing.

For some time past Samuel Rine, the water superintendent, has been advertising for fifteen able bodied men who could find permanent employment. The meaning of all this is that he is laying a six-inch pipe from the new water works to the top of the hill, to what is known as the Blair property. Then he comes back to Reynolds street, and from the main, on Willigwank street, he lays a new pipe along the avenue. This is intended to give the people out in that vicinity a better water protection. It will require considerable digging before the job is completed.

Mrs. Kate Green, of Bellefonte, started out recently to raise $200 to be appropriated on the A. M. E. parsonage on East Lamb street. She has already given two suppers, and with what she has collected in the meantime she has $25 in bank. It is said that while there is a will there is a way, and this is one of the instances of that character. It is hard work but you can bet that she will make the $200 good all right; she made the fellows up around the temple of justice cough up, Wednesday. The next step for her to strike would be Temple Court. There are millions in there.

In speaking of the present retarded season to farmers of Centre county it is reported that Henry Tibbens and Charles Eckenroth, of Bellefonte, made some startling revelations. Our friend Tibbens stated that while farming in Centre county he has seen rye in head in April, and to knock Tibbens skyhigh it is reported that Conrad Eckenroth, who belongs to Gregg Post, the members of whom are all proof against lying, even at a campfire, says that he saw clover in head in April and it was so thick that you could hardly get a mower through it. Where is "Sammy" Williams? It is possible that he planted potatoes out in April he had new ones, ten in a hill and every one as large as a cannon ball. Whose next?

Perry Alters left last week to accept a position in an express office at Genoa, N. Y.

William Tyson, the renowned tenor singer from Tyrone, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday.

Joe H. Beck, one of Walker Town, ship's worthy citizens was a business visitor in Bellefonte Tuesday.

Mrs. Jones, wife of Mail Agent Jones on L. & T., left on Tuesday evening to visit friends at Williamsport.

Mrs. Jennie M. Bonilton, of Franklin, Pa., and Miss M. Grace Mabride, of Scranton, stopped off in Bellefonte for a few days on their way to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Miss Emily Dunsmore, a professional nurse from Altoona, left Saturday for her home. She was attending Mrs. A. Hoffman at the home of W. Harrison Walker on East Linn street.

The advertisements for bids for the construction of the new state road between Milesburg and Bellefonte, will be found in another column of this issue. That indicates that the project will go through in short order. It will make one of the finest drives in the state when completed.

RECENT DEATHS.

T. A. ARDELL.—died Thursday night at Julian. It was a great surprise to his many friends, as he was well and favorably known here, as well as all through the Bald Eagle valley, where he spent about forty years of his life. His death was a great shock because of the suddenness with which it came. In the evening he and Mrs. Ardell enjoyed themselves as usual, and about 9 o'clock they retired. A short time afterwards Mrs. Ardell heard a peculiar gurgling in his throat. Apprehending there was some trouble she raised his arm but it fell to his side, she then went to the window and called the neighbors, but when they arrived they found him dead. Mr. Ardell was a lumberman in the early period of his life, and most of his operations were in this and adjoining counties. He purchased a farm at Julian where he has spent more than half of his life. He was of a kind and friendly nature, and his home, one of the best in the country, was always open for the entertainment of his friends. His life and character was such as was worthy of emulation. He was born in Steuben county, New York, where he was married to a lady whose name we were unable to secure, but who with Mr. Ardell spent the greater part of her life in Centre county. Several years ago she passed away. Last June his brother, John Ardell became ill and T. A. Ardell left his home at Julian and came to Bellefonte where he practically assumed charge of the Ardell planing mill and lumber yard. John Ardell died on the 29th of July, when T. A. assumed full control. The business was afterwards transferred to Newlin Irvin, who since has also passed away. It was while in Bellefonte that Mr. Ardell became acquainted with Mrs. Margaret Brackbill whom he married on December the 5th, at the home of his daughter in Philadelphia. They had just gotten settled in their Julian home, and were surrounded by every comfort of life that tended to make the domestic circle bright and cheerful when the messenger of death enters and blasts all their hopes. His age was 66 years and 22 days, and is survived by his second wife and the following children: Mrs. George Stevens, Julian; Mrs. Dr. Mattern, Gordon and Robert, of Philadelphia. He is also survived by a brother at Phillipsburg, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Reynolds, of Rochester, N. Y. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and was largely attended.

JOHN H. BERRY.—for 10 years proprietor of the Hotel Haag at Milton, died in that hostelry Sunday morning of paralysis. He was in the seventieth year and survived by his wife and five children: two sons, Harry and Robert, and three daughters, Mrs. Edward VanAllen, of Northumberland; Mrs. Frank Patterson, of Philadelphia; and Miss Sara at home. Mr. Berry some years ago, was landlord of the Spring Mills hotel, on the hill, and will be well remembered by many readers of the Centre Democrat.

WILLIAM F. COLETER.—one of the oldest residents of Blanchard, died at his home Friday morning 26, from causes incident to old age. He was aged 83 years. He is survived by four children: Mrs. Lula Good, of Lock Haven; Girard, of Westport; William and Frank at home. During his lifetime he filled many of the offices of Liberty township and served many years as a justice of the peace. A funeral was held at the family home Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Baptist cemetery.

CHARLEY WARBLEN.—formerly of Bellefonte, but for a number of years a resident of Kane, died in that place Wednesday, of last week. He was a glass blower, and worked here while the glass works was in its height. Charley was a great trout fisherman and spent most of his spare time along our streams where he was successful in catching the speckled beauties. The cause of his death was gangrene. He was a jolly good fellow and his friends will be sorry to hear of his death.

MRS. HARRIET MATTERN.—wife of John F. Mattern, died at the family residence in Warriorsburg, last Saturday, aged 61 years, 9 months and 24 days. The cause of her death was heart trouble. Surviving are her husband; her mother, Mrs. Eliza Grazer, who made her home with them; one son, Professor Lewis W. Mattern, of Washington, D. C., and one brother, George Grazer, who resides at Marenago, on the line of the Tyrone and Lewisburg railroad.

JAMES HEVERLY.—who has been a patient sufferer with dropsy the past year, died at his home in Howard, 23rd. Mr. Heverly was a loving father, and kind husband. He was aged 57 years, and is survived by his wife, and one son, Charles Heverly, of Harrisburg, and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Beck, of Walker, Mrs. Adam Kline, of Howard, and Maude at home. The funeral services were held at his home in Howard township. Interment was made in the Howard cemetery.

Deceased was a son of James and Mary Wilson and was born in Centre county in March, 1836, and was thus past seventy-one years of age. He served during the Civil war and was a brave soldier. In 1865 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Keatley, of Nittany. Nine children were the result of this union, five of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. Julia Weight, of Coveade; Mrs. Hattie Hicks, of Clover Creek; Mrs. Catharine Catehall, of Petersburg; Boyd A. of Pittsburgh; and John E. of Williamsburg. On Monday the remains were taken from Petersburg to Williamsburg and buried in the cemetery beside the bodies of Mrs. Wilson and their four children.
