THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

SPRING MILLS.

All the world is making music now-a-days. The brooks tinkle and the breeze whistles. The birds are singing and the frogs in the marshes pipe away bravely. Be in tune with all this song and rejoicing.

Mrs. Robert Smith, who sometime ago had been to the hospital for treatment, and seemed to be in favorable condition, is now very ill and her condition is not encouraging.

The Grove surveying crew moved from Coburn to Potters Mills, where they will continue surveying state land.

Next Wednesday, May 15, is the day for teachers' examination for Gregg township.

Rev. Reareick held communion in the Lutheran church here on Sunday forenoon.

Miss Annie Corman was suffering with jaw trouble. She says that the best thing out is an aching tooth, but who has the nerve to get it out? She is the amiable clerk in the Corman store.

Calvin Zeigler is having a grand portico erected around his beautiful house on the hill. It makes a decided improvement.

The editor desires every one to send their news weekly. Can anyone boast of what the Spring Mills scribe can—that there was not one issue of the Centre Democrat for nearly two years that did not contain items from our town? If there is any other scribe more loyal it must be Domino.

It is W. O. Gramley, who is having his house repainted in a pure white, not U. O. as in last week's paper.

Meyer, our bustling butcher, is doing a good business. Don't forget to patronize home industries.

Samuel Stitzer will occupy the blacksmith shop belonging to Mrs. Condo. Mr. Stitzer fully understands his trade and will, no doubt, meet with success at blacksmithing.

No one is so independent as the farmer; he doesn't have to truckle; if he is insulted he can resent without fear of losing trade, and there is no reason, with the improved farm machinery he now has in use, he should not have an eight hour day and have leisure time for reading and resting like in nearly all other callings.

In a week from Sunday evening Rev. Reareick will preach his farewell sermon.
