THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Harry Eberhart is recovering from quite a serious illness.

-Automobile is a misnomer-dust raisers would be more appropriate. -Miss Betty Heinle arrived home from Philadelphia, Saturday evening.

little child, of Tyrone, spent Sunday in Spring street. Bellefonte.

-W. Reynold Shope, the Bellefonte lumberman, is just recovering from a over Sunday. severe illness -Mrs. Joseph Ceader and daughter, Helen, spent several days in Williamsport this week.

-James McClain, cashier of the Barnesboro National Bank, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

-Miss Mable Harmer, of Philadel-

-Miss Maude Holderman and Miss Clara Hastings, spent Sunday with friends at Unionville. -Miss Louise Garman, of Atlantic City, is visiting her grandfather, the venerable Daniel Garman, on High St.

Mrs. John Lose, a sister of Mrs. Daniel Heckman, of Bellefonte, was stricken with paralysis, Thursday, at her home -Fred Dunham, the man who publishes the Hustler, at Howard, was in town vesterday purchasing material for the palatial residence he is erecting at that place.

-Sunday morning the annual Memorial sermon to Gregg Post No. 85, G. A. R., will be preached by Rev. J. Allison Platts, in the Presbyterian church. The public is cordially invited. -Fred Montgomery, the obliging manager of the Creamery Store, spent Sunday very delightfully with friends in Tyroner. "Frenchie," ought to get an automobile to make those frequent

-Andrew Harter, of Freeport, Illnois, passed through town on Monday, on his way to visit friends in Pennsvalley and then continue his journey to Sunbury to attend the Lutheran Synod in session there this week. -Mrs. James Coburn, who has been spending the past month at Atlantic City, returned to Aaronsburg, on Saturday, where she was met by Colonel Coburn. They spent the Sunday at their old homestead, and came to Bellefonte Monday.

-Mrs. W. Scott Wieland and little daughter, of Nordmont, was in Belle-fonte over Sunday visiting her husband who is in the sales department of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. They contemptate making their future home in

-George Mallory, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in Altoona with his brother, Calvin, who is seriously ill. It will be remembered Mr. Mallory was at one time a resident of this place, residing on South Pine street in the house occupied by his brother.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Rishel, of Benner township, are visiting in Phlladel-phia at the home of their son, Dr. Geo. Rishel. Mr Rishel has been suffering from gangrene on the leg, and while in street, by tearing down part of the large barn, and placing the portion standing in first class condition. Prior to the redam when it rained.

The next thing he will be drawing whales out of the same streams.

-Supt. F. H. Thomas is doing much to improve the roadbed of the Bellefonte Central railroad from Bellefonte to State

-Miss Rettie Heinle, who recently has arranged to give a recital in Petrion Thursday evening, June Miss Bettie is certainly talented in his men. selections. That she will be greeted by pullman's. a large audience is assured.

was termed the "Apple Blossom Party" Philadelphia. Among the party was Hon. James Cortelyou, brother of Hon. George D. Cortelyou, a member of President Roosevelt's cabinet.

Claire Bidwell, R. Francis Armstorng, continues to produce hay right along H. Clay Valentine, Nannie Fleming, Harald Palmer Fleming, Minnie Edna Backmas, Kathryn J. Parker, Harry Lorenzo Garber, Helen Morris White. Lorenzo Garber, Helen Morris White, will look better this year on Memorial John Payne, Albert Morrison, Ruth than it has for a good many years, simp Savage Garman, and Thomas Lamb.

Who has a better right to become a benedict than "Finkie."

-Linn S. Bottorf, of Curwensville, spent Sunday in town, and at Lemont. -This time of the year things look scaly in front of Sourbeck's green gro-

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garman and has been visiting Miss Eva Showers on

-Miss Sarah Hastings entertained Miss Henrietta Burrows, of Tyrone,

-The Undines will have their custo- fruit by the frosts. mary big picnic at Hecla park on the Fourth of July this year.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Conley have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoffman, of Riddly Park.

-Sam Haupt, of Bellefo misfortune of breaking his

-Miss Mary Cowdrick, who has been Sun a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. this. phia, is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Tate on High St.

Geo. Ingram left Thursday for her home at Niagara Falls.

-Hon. John Noll is home from Harrisburg, and has his overalls on and back at work pilling up stone and mortar. The last session of the legislature did not spoil him in the least.

-James H. Sommerville, formerly of Bellefonte but now of Winburne, has been appointed a member of the board of trustees of the Cottage State hospital at Philipsburg.

-Children's day services will be cele-brated in the Bellefonte M. E. Sunday school on Sunday, June 9th. An elab-orate program is already being prepar-ed, and there will be special music appropriate to the day.

-Thursday and Friday Web Kerstetter, of Curwensville, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, of near Bellefonte. He is one of the enterprising merchants of that town and is getting along nicely.

-The financial statement for the boro of Bellefonte was issued this week and tre county in the fall. the showing is a very creditable one, as the boro debt was materially reduced, which is something that will be welcomed by every taxpayer.

-Principal John D. Meyer has cut out the last day entertainments in all the schools in the borough. It so greatly interfered with the studies of the younger pupils during the last month of school or else they were physically and mentally overtaxed.

-Limb-of-the-law Walker, prefers the old style wording for his law shingle, having his window lettered to read "W. Harrison Walker, Lawyer," The modern way has changed the law office shingle to spell "Attorney at-law." The were killed recently in a wreck while on their way east from Los Angeles was with appendicitis last week, recovered George H. Hagenman, of Reading. He was a lawyer and a brother of Mrs. Daniel Keller. During Mr. Keller's residence in Bellefonte Mr. Hagenman frequently visited here where he made —Miss Nellie Leibkicher, formerly of section yesterday morning. We think, schedule time as usual that day, but it -This week John Wilson, formerly had he done so, and ventured out over kept Wade busy to meet them and care the operator at the Western Union Telea deep place, there might have been a for the baggage. Mrs. Cruse, who was graph office in Bellefonte, moved his funeral and one Reese less.

quite ill on Friday afternoon and Saturday, is much improved.

—At the progressive euchre held in St. John's Hall, Thursday evening, Wilson Gephart received first prize which was a handsome pocket book.

—Expect to make their future home.

—Sunday Captain Irvin, of the Salvation Army, took seriously ill while conducting the Services in the hall. Her the city will consult a specialist with the hope of permanently recovering.

—Hard P. Harris has made a decided improvement about his home on Howard improvement about his home of permanently recovering. which was a splendid cocoanut cake.

-Adam Ginger and two interesting little daughters, Adeline and Ida, were pairs it was a mighty good dry weather in Bellefonte Friday and called at the structure but it wasn't worth a tinkers Centre Democrat office. Although quite young the girls went to the millinery store, and without the aid of their papa,

Central railroad, from Bellefonte to State At considerable expense a completed a course in election in Phila number of sharp curves have been taken ble change in his meat market on High delphia, with high honors, is home and out and two arched bridges have been street. A small office has been built onbuilt across Buffalo Run. The work was done by supervisor Thomas Rishel and set in a half square, making it very his men. The time is coming when the convenient for those who wait on the this direction, and upon former occa-sions delighted Bellefonte audiences by will imagine they are riding in palace

-Mr. Zettle, of Benner township, left -Sunday Hon. J. T. McCamant, an alfalfa plant at the Democrat office postmaster of Tyrone, entertained what with a root 30 inches in length, the seed of which was sown three years ago. at the country club house, at Hecla. Last season Mr. Zettle harvested three The genial crowd was composed of prominent gentlemen from Tyrone, Al-toona, Philipsburg. Huntingdon and Philipsbu nourishing food for all kinds of live stock including the feathered tribe, but the climate here is not suited for it, the winters freezing the plant, which makes it necessary to resow it frequently. In -Sunday evening Bishop Darlington California and other western states it confirmed a large class at the St. John's thrives under the mild climate, and the Episcopal church as follows: J. Arthur roots grow down to a depth of twenty Dickenson, U. James Dickenson. Elsie feet, and being once sowed the plant with several crops each year.

-The Union cemetery in Bellefonte ly because there has been more interest Jacob Finkelstine left Bellefonte, taken by the owners of lots. G. W. Port, who has things in charge there, has been Sunday, for Philadelphia where he is now getting ready for the event of his life, that of taking into himself a bride.

The wedding will take place the first man. This year he has received assist-The wedding will take place the first week in June, and after a wedding tour they will return to Bellefonte where the prospective groom has a cozy new home prospective groom has a cozy new home is also being beautified by loving hands citizens of our sister town. He will waiting his bride. It is located in Sam who desire to keep green the make a masterly effort on that occasion beinl's house on Willowbank street. Who has a better right to become a gone before to that bourne from whence crowd. who has a better right to become a benedict than "Finkie."

—Harry Hutchirson, the obliging ticket agent at the P. R. K. depot, returned Sunday looking like a stuffed to da. This was caused by him attending a banquet at Wilkesbarre, given by the veteran employes association. This organization is composed of employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., who have been in the service 21 years or over. "Hutchie" reports having a good time which he generally does when chicken, the generally does when chicken, turkey and quail on toast and other things on are tap.

Who was It.

W. F. White, of Bellefonte, was in the vicinity of will interest has been arroused which from whence no traveler has returned. For years the correct walks are becoming popular in will close for the season, and will re-open in September. The young folks of the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the was the will close for the season, and will re-open in September. The young folks of the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the was thrown have greatly enjoyed this place of the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the was the circular of the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the was the will close for the season, and will re-open in September. The young folks of the town have greatly enjoyed this place of the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the was the will close for the season, and will re-open in September. The young folks of the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through about 11 a'clock was in the vicinity of the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who went through the Market street bridge. He was attacked by three men who will close

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lukenbach, of Tyrone, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. -Overcoats were trump, Sunday, Monday and especially on Tuesday.

-H. E. Duck, of Millheim, whiled a hiser's at Curtin. brief time in our sanctum, a few days

-Miss Edythe Lytle has returned from a six months' visit at Wilkins--Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Ralph Mallory. -Miss Nettie Osman, of Glenn Iron, er home at Gettysburg.

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings, of Fairmount, West Virginia, arrived is Bellefonte to spend the summer month. -J. C. Loder, of Howard, was a caller; he thinks much harm has been done to

-Mrs. Frank Harris, of Boston Mass. is a guest at the home of Col. and Mrs.

-Sam Haupt, of Bellefonte, had the misfortune of breaking his collar bone Sunday. He wants to be careful after

-Miss Ida Orris, stenographer for Col. W. Fred Reynolds, spent Sunday in Williamsport as the guest of Miss Marie White

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bullock, of little beauty. Julian, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Faxon, on East High St.

Governor Stuart will not cut down the increase of four millions to the school appropriations, but he is likely to use shears on some other appropriations. -After an extended and delightful visit among friends at Osceola, Philipsburg and Clearfield, Mrs. James Schofield returned to Bellefonte Saturday evening. -Fred Bryan, of the Daily News, was ill part of last week but the way to have cured him real quick would have left him gaze on a real pretty girl. -Theodore Rynder, of Erie, is visiting friends in Bellefonte and Milesburg. He was formerly a resident of Milesburg and contemplates moving back to Cen-

-Guy F. Stover, of Pitcairn, is visit ing his parents at Coleville. Guy is olding a good job in the carpenter department at the P. R. R. shops and is getting along splendidly. -Clarence Osmer, of Pittsburg, has been visiting his parents in Bellefonte 'Doodle" is working at his trade as a paper hanger and painter and says work s booming in the Smoky City. -R. B. Taylor, the coal dealer, another valuable horse on Thursday; the way his horses have been dying i ice and coal with an automobile. -Mac Curtin, of Pittsburg, is a guest The at the home of his parents, Hon. and latter some wag may transmogrify it, in Mrs. Harry Curtin, at Roland. Mac. is a night, to read, "A-turner-of-law."

would be cheaper for him to deliver his —George Knisley, who was threatened with appendicitis last week, recovered sufficiently to be out on Saturday and sufficiently to be out on Saturday and South Pine street in the house occupied by his brother.

—Wade Cruse is now the papa of a little daughter which came to his home us that if he had a pair of skates he could have skated on the ice out in his section yesterday morning. We think rented a cozy little house where they illness was of such a serious character that she had to be carried to her home above Schofield's store on Spring street.

-A meeting of the west branch Medical association was held in Lock Haven. Among those from nearby owns were, Charles McKirk and John W. Gordon, of Philipsburg; M. J. Locke R. G. H. Hayes, J. L. Seibert and Geo. Harris, Bellefonte.

Once again John Cherry comes to the front with a fish story, and we guess its all right. Thursday evening he landed another California trout that landed anothe -Monday morning Clarence, the five year old son of Alfred Thompson, the bone. A physician was called who set the broken member and he is getting along as well as can be expected.

-Philip Beezer has made considera make their future home. the left of the room and the counters set in a half square, making it very trade. The man behind the desk in this cosy little appartment is Philip Beezer.

-Fred Leathers, of Howard, an upto-date business man, and manufacturer whom were the groom's father, mother of the famous Excelsior Graphite Roof. and sister and Prof. C. M. Ellenberger ing Paint, was in Bellefonte Monday and wife, looking as if the world was good and kind to him. He is selling hundreds of gallons of his excellent paint which nat-urally puts a smile on his countenance and great big dollars in his pocket. He is a good fellow and is always a welcome visitor in our town.

-Our good triend Joseph Ceader, of Bellefonte, just knocked $2,500.30 big "plunkers" out of the New York Life Insurance Co., and the beauty about it is that he didn't have to die to do it. face of his policy, which expired May 11.
was for $2000 and the $500,30 was the accumulation thereof. Joseph thinks that he would rather have that kind of dough than the kind he mixes in his doughtray, a hungry man wouldn't.

—Al. Dale, Esq., is getting his inspiration from nature to deliver the Memorial address at State College on Thursday the 30th, While in his lumber

-Miss Mamie Boggs, of Philadelphia, is visiting Miss Betty-Heinle on Bishop street.

-Daniel Hollabaugh and sister, of will r Coleville, are visiting at Harry Emen-inst.

—The two Chinese laundrymen have pulled up stakes and left Bellefonte. They will locate at Emporium.

-Mrs. S. F. Bowser, of Butler, is visiting her sister Mrs. W. H. Taylor, on at the rolling mill at that place. corner of Spring and Bishop street.

tained in this issue as a supplement. -The exchange conducted by the

-The ladies of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church realized $100 from the supper given by them last week. That's making them some.

-Sarah Dawson, a little daughter of John Dawson, fell out of a second story window at her home on Half Moon Hill. Sunday, and was badly injured. The near Boalsburg, for the summer. little girl is getting along as well as can be expected. Grant Charles, the popular young clerk at the Hotel Bush, rode his pretty little Scotch pony down from Boalsburg on Monday and has the animal stabled at the Palace livery. It is certainly a -Friday Hon. John Noll, wife and daughter, Bertha, returned from Harrisburg. Mr. Noll made a good record while in Harrisburg, and as to securing good appropriations for our local institutions he did well. -"The Original" base ball team of Bellefonte will cross bats with the Hecla Park team on Decoration Day at Hecla Park. This will be the opening game at the park and no doubt it will be largely attended. The game will be called at 30. The regular excursion rate of 25 cents will be charged and 25 cents admission to the game.

-The Pittsburg District Conference of the A. M. E. church is holding the annual meeting in Bellefonte this week. The presiding officer is Dr. B. W. Anderson, of Pittsburg. There are about twenty-five ministers and about that many laymen. They are being royally entertained, and as ministers in general have a great fondness for chicken. reports from all parts of the district show much progress in all lines of their church work.

-Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick has the most sensative automobile in Bellefonte. Like a 3-year old colt it frightens at almost everything along the road. The The result was that the blooming thing rolling until it reached the steam started on a trip South, the two main of heating works. The Doctor also disjective points being Mt. Pleasant, Nort covered that after it had been severely Carolina, where his son, Rev. John H night, to read, "A-turner-of-law."

superintendent in one of the departments of the number of Shriners who at the Westinghouse Electrical Works.

well with three wheels as four, and it position.

WEDDINGS.

KUSTENBAUDER-GATES

THOMPSON-PACKER

On Wednesday afternoon Guy H. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, and Miss Ada Eulalie, daughter of Mrs. George Packer, of Beech Creek, were married. The groom at one time was employed at the Bellefonte

BATHURST-MILLER.

William H. Bathurst, of Altoona, and Miss Maude Miller, of Spring twp., were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents near Nittany furnace, last Thursday evening. The bridegroom is a native of Centre county and an industrious young man. The young couple will make their home at Roland where Mr. Bathurst is now employed.

FETTERS-HAVERSTACK

Thursday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock Miss Bessie Fetters became the wife of Albert Haverstack of Tyrone. wedding ceremony was performed at the ome of Mr. and Mrs. William Lucas, on Halfmoon Hill; an excellent wedding dinner was served. They left on the evening train for Tyrone where they will

GATES-RIDER.

At the First Lutheran parsonage Wednesday 15. Rev. F. K. Bergstresser united in marriage Edgar Gates, of Tyrone, and Miss Mary Frances Rider, of Gatesburg. The ceremony was performed at 10 30 o'clock in the presence of a little company of friends, among

TWO-WEDDINGS.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Mary Madeline Weaver to George Girard Child. of Cambridge. Mass., which will take place at 6 o'clock in the evening of June 5th, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, on east Linn street. On the same day Miss Virgina Fleetwood Lingle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Episcopal church at noon.

Trip Made With Stolen Horse.

Early Wednesday morning West Gob-ble, who resides in Georges Valley, took in charge a horse and buggy that came by his place without a driver. The animal showed signs of having been driven building a concrete walk in front of T. hard. Word was sent to Potters Mills to F. Myer's residence on Main street, of Blauser's store and the hotel, and later word was received from Reedsville that a horse and buggy had been stolen from the stable of William Fleming. It is pre-sumed that some one took the horse to reach Penns Valley unobserved.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The Centre County Pomona Grange will meet in Hublersburg, Friday, 24th Mr. and Mrs. George Corman, of Smullton, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at their home.

Last week Cameron Hinton and James Holter, of Howard, were slightly injured

The ladies of the Pine Hall Lutheran -The annual statement of Bellefonte church will serve supper and ice cream boro's finances for the past year is con- and other dainties on the evening of May Robert Breon, of Millheim, caught a ladies of the Episcopal church in Petri-kin Hall, Saturday, was also a suc-measured 18½ inches and weighed two pounds and ten ounces.

Henry N. Krape, a life long resident, of Salona, celebrated his ninetieth birthday, Saturday. He is the oldest man in that section of Clinton county. Mrs. Theodore Boal, with her aunts,

Mrs. Davis and Miss Buttells and a number of servants, returned to their home Samuel Stover, who for a number of years has been making his home with Beaver, Fred Brewster, Frank T. Simon the Bible sisters, near Centrehall, is and Dr. Judson P. Welsh. quite ill. due to a stroke of paralysis. The Decker Bros. have placed a portable engine and stave mill on a tract of land in the Seven Mountains, owned by ex-county commissioner John Decker. T. S. Trutt, formerly of Potter, who week and has gone to Northumberland.

at Boalsburg, on the evening of Decoration Day. Sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake will be served. Music by the State College Cadet band. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris have returned from Waynesburg where Mr. Harris was settling up the affairs of the defunct National Bank at that place. They also visited their son, Dr. Edward Harris at Butler.

As Eman. H. Musser, of Aaronsburg, was going to work the other morning a bullet from a target rifle shot by Clyde Bressler, nearby, struck him in the face, passing through his upper lip, and causng a severe wound Dr. G. D. Green, one of Lock Haven's prominent physicians, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Green, Buffalo Run, left Thursday for Philadelphia where he will other day, while coming down the hill take a special course in surgery, bacteriology and X-ray work at the Unitro front of the New Reformed chapel. Saturday James A. Keller, president kicked off a wheel which didn't stop of the Penns Valley Banking Company, jective points being Mt. Pleasant, North Carolina, where his son, Rev. John H.

William Gohen, of Harris township, is numbered among the sick, having a swollen arm, the covering of the bone the elbow being slightly diseased. He also has other ailments which may be attributed to an improper circulation of the blood.

Joseph Auman, of Penn township, who was at Axeman with Prof. C. R. Neff's surveying party on the state lands in the Seven mountains, cut a severe gash in his ard, and a graduate nurse of the Lock this office.) (No advertisements will be answered from Haven hospital, has gone to accept a position in a private sanitarium at Newport News, Va., which is close to the amestown exposition. William A. Price has been shaving astomers in Waynesboro for a period of fifty-nine years, barring a term of enlist-ment in the civil war. He began as an apprentice in the shop of his father, 50 years ago last Thesday. He is 71 years of age, in good health and still does a full day's duty at the barber's chair. One afternoon recently while Samuel Ream was assisting in sawing a log which he had hauled to A. A. Frank's mill in North Millheim, he stepped on a ville, Pa. WANTED—to buy a good second-hand one-borse wagon. Address J. S. Ruhl, Tylers-ville, Pa.

saw, and badly lacerated the fingers. was found necessary to amputate the two middle fingers. What might have been a sad accident happened in front of Henry Shultz, residence at Howard the other day when Mrs. Shultz with her sister, Mrs. George hand upon the rapidly revolving circular

They escaped with a few slight bruises. Orvis Fetzer, who is employed at Pitcairn, running a "dinky" engine on a work train, was visiting at his former home, out near Yarnell. He says be has a nice job and earns good money, but does not like that place as he was always accustomed to sunshine, green always accustomed to sunshine, green Reliefonte, Pa.

WANTED—Lath and shingles, oak and chestnut, small dimension stuff. A million places of each. For dimensions required and other information, call on or address. Yeager Mrg Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

W. C. Lingle will be married to Howard Rugger, of Jamesville, Wisconsin, the medical association at Los August 100 and extended tour of the country on June 10th. While his objective point is the annual meeting of the medical association at Los August 100 and extended tour of the me ceremony to take place in St. John's he expects to run down to Orango, Texas, to see his son Harold, who is in business there, for a few days and then after a trip up the coast will return by the Can-adian Pacific to Montreal, thence by boat over the St. Lawrence and the Lakes home.

Thomas Weaver, of Aaronsburg. is Milheim. The following persons are also preparing to put down concrete walks: John Stoner, A. Walter, D. J. Nieman and George Ulrich on Main street, and Mrs. Elizabeth Alter and Frank Colyer on Penn street. Dr. F. E. Gutelius is also preparing to build a similar walk from his house to the stable.

Mrs. G. W. McWilliams is nursing a badly mutilated finger, which was caught in the cog gearing of a cream separator. H. D. Meek, the State Collage druggist, has purchased a Buick touring car from John Porter Lyon. Now, say there is no money in pills.

Tuesday D. A. Grove, of Lemont, had a valuable horse burt in a stone crusher. It is believed that the animal cannot survive its injury. Mr. Grove valued the horse at $250.00.

Toner A. Hugg, Sergeant of the 5th Regiment Buglecorps, left on Thursday for Philadelphia where he entered the Wills Eye Hospital for treatment. When coming home from the last Gettysburg camp, Toner was struck in the eye by a banana skin, and ever since has had a very sore eye. It is hoped he will find relief.

Sunday morning at 10,30 a memorial service will be held in the Auditorium, State College for Geo. W. Atherton, L. L. D., late president of that institution. The speakers for the occasion will be Rev. George M. Whitenack, Jr., Dr. Benjamin Gill, General James A.

ANOTHER VIEW.

FOR THE DEMOCRAT: In your paper of last week you state the reason there were no papers filed by chairman of the was employed at West Seneca, New Democratic County Committee, under York, the past winter, returned this the late Primary Election Law, was because the law was believed to conflict A daughter has been born to Rev. and Mrs. Elmer L. Williams, of Chicago, Illnois. Rev Williams was formerly of Donnelley's views. These views are all Martha and is well known in Bellefonte. erroneous. The party rules are only A festival will be held in the townhall adopted by consent of men who have common political views and agree as to how they shall be carried out. They do not stand a moment as against a positive legislative enactment. The party rules, however, much as they conflict with the Primary election Law or how much the law conflicts with them, must give away to the law. It is the clearest kind of demagogery to hold that rules must be changed to meet the Act of Assembly. They are knocked out by the act and are of no force whatever. Chairman Donnelley's belief is only a scheme based on a very poor foundation, to keep up the old ring now running the Democratic party, without having any expression from the rank and file of the party.

A Democrat.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES : Spring Mills Mifflinburg Norman A. Duck -Valeria A. Brumgard Spring Mills Cleveland H. Eungard -Ida M. Zubler Howard A. Robb Howard Alma Pletcher George Marcko Enterprise. Mary Fenck Bellefonte William Clarence Love Esther Ellen Miller Thomas D. Weaver Moshannon Williamsport

Cato

Clarence

Bellefonte

Tyrone

Sadie A. Davis

John Almarshi

Albert R. Haverstine

Bessie Jennie Fetters

Suzsi Szics

PENNY A WORD ADV Any subscriber can insert left foot recently. He was unable to ment in this column, one issue free, if it does walk home and had to be carried from not exceed 25 words. Charges to others: cent a word, first issue, no adv. less than 25 cents; Miss Ema Askey, a granddaughter of issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Shaw, of Blanch- (No advertisements will be a

WANTED-50 pigs six weeks old. Macker. Bell fente. FOR SALE-Seven-year-old horse. J. E. Miller, Madisonburg, Pa.

FOR SALE-Beagle and fox bound. W. K. Albright, State College, R. 3. WANTED-50 head of stock sheep. Address or call on A. B. Kimport, Bellefonte, Pa. FOR SALE-Fine flock of white Brahma hens. Apply to W. G. Tallbeim & Son, Julian, Pa. FOR SALE-200 feet % inch wire rope in good condition. Apply to W. H. Ertel, Coburn, Pa.

broken board and fell striking his left. lar FOR SALE—A good second-hand pool table and equipment; cheap. Address A. C. Derr. It Bellefonte.

LOST—Certificate No. 206, on Bellefonte Trust Co.; amount $1700, dated Oct. 5th, 1806, paya-ble to Rev. J. F. Tallhelm, Julian Pa. FOR SALE—Farm of 125 acres, good house and barn; good spring water at both; mineral and timber. U. B. Hishop, Woodland, Pa. 10-tf to going to Bellefonte to visit their sick brother. The Borse turned around too quick and threw both ladies to the ground

They escaped with a few elicited ground. WANTED-Four girls to pack matches. Wages guaranteed while learning. Steady work, Apply in person or by mail. The Pennsylvania Match Co., Beliefonte, Pa. x27 that reason he expects to return to Centre county where he has a similar position in view. He is about right.

Dr. W. S. Glenn, of State College, expects to start on an extended tour of the SEED CORN SORTER.

In order to drop corn regular seed should be uniform in size; all small, round and thick kernels removed, all of which is accomplished in one opperation by this sorter. Frices and circulars on application, Luse Mapufacturing Co. Ltd. Centre Hall, Pa.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. The following prices prevailed Thursday The following prices are paid by SECHLER & Bellefonte-Grain. following prices are paid by C. Y. WAG-

LOCK HAVEN MARKETS.

Prices on the curb market Wednesday morning, at Lock Haven were as follows: Butter, per pound 35c; eggs, per dozen 15c; dressed chickens, per lb 16c; lard, per pound 11c; potatoes, per bushel 6oc.