

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Miss Marie White, of Williamsport, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.
—Instead of one house Dr. R. G. H. Hayes is building two on Curtin street.
—Jacob Reish, of Pa. Furnace, one of Centre county's pedagogues, was a pleasant caller.
—J. Harry Eberhart has recovered from his recent illness and is again filling his position at the match factory.
—Mrs. Fall Stover, of Bellefonte, was called suddenly to Unionville Saturday on account of the serious illness of her aged mother.
—Fred Walls Larimer, who has charge of the ore banks at Gatesburg, is now running a boarding house out there. He couldn't get enough Americans to work in the banks so he just imported a crowd of Hungarians.
—Col. J. L. Spangler has laid a new brick pavement in front of his lots on Curtin street. It is much more substantial than a board walk, and thus it will be several years before the Colonel will be nagged by the council to repair that sidewalk.
—Mrs. D. I. Willard and family arrived in Bellefonte on Thursday from Union City. Mr. Willard is now one of our enterprising merchants who recently embarked in business here. They will make their home on Linn street in the house formerly occupied by E. I. Cook and family.
—Thursday Boyd C. Musser, of Scranton, with Mrs. Musser, their two interesting little ones and Miss Grace McBride were early arrivals for the commencement at State. They expect to spend the greater portion of June with Mr. Musser's parents up at the College, while Mr. Musser will keep on the go for the York Bridge Co.
—Prof. A. A. Fletcher, of Howard, Pa., was in town on Saturday on business. During the summer months he will give his attention to school books representing the Christopher Sower Co. of Philadelphia, publishers of the famous Brooks arithmetics and other text books. He also will handle publications of Hinds, Noble & Eldridge, especially their advanced geography and Thorp's History.
—Thomas Laurie is still found on his chicken ranche, east of the borough. He has lived a frontier life most all his days, and it is difficult for him to be contented in town. Mr. Laurie has been suffering from heart trouble for some time and therefore he has been compelled to stop raising chickens and hogs on such a large scale. Had his health not failed he would have shown the people around here how they raised porkers in the West.
—It is well for all landlords throughout the county, who have a liquor license, to remember that it will be a violation of the rule of the Court to sell anything today, on Memorial Day, and a violation of the law to sell on Saturday, June 1st, from 1 to 9 p. m., it being the time for holding the primary elections, under the new law. This is also published so that none of our readers may undergo any unnecessary suffering under this suspension.
—The examining board of Second Brigade, N. G. P., will convene at the Logan house in Altoona, Monday evening, June 3rd, for the purpose of examining the capacity, qualifications and efficiency of all the commissioned officers in the Fifth regiment and Sheridan troop. This will include every man who holds a commission on Col. H. S. Taylor's staff, as well as the colonel himself, and will be the first time in six years that such an examination has been made.
—Edward Overton, of Bellefonte, has been licensed as a local preacher in the A. M. E. church. Last Sunday he was all tugged out to nature with a regular minister's suit and he looked like one of the Bishops of the church. Now he wants to commence his good work on George Freeman, Robert Adams, James Miller and Jim Foreman. If Edward succeeds in getting these gentlemen into the fold, and keeping them there, it will be a big feather in his cap. They are all good fellows, but they ought to be pillars in the church.
—W. Harrison Walker and his father-in-law, A. A. Hoffman, are going into the chicken business pretty extensively. The back yard of their residence, on east Linn street, it apportioned off into several chicken yards in which are found incubators and brooders which means that they are going to give the raising of "chicks" more than ordinary attention. Everything around the place is painted, giving the surroundings a pretty and attractive appearance. Harrison, whatever you do, don't feed your hens sawdust for they are liable to lay wooden eggs which are not in any great demand just at the present time. Now if they could lay boards by appeasing their appetites with sawdust mash, that would be different.
—Miss Lyde Thomas is now stopping at the Bush House; later she will take rooms in the Thomas homestead on the corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets, which has been used the past winter as a fraternity house by Bellefonte Academy students. About the same time Mrs. Nancy Orbinson, with her daughter, Miss Agnes, and her grand-daughter, Miss Holly Beach, of Princeton, N. J., will also move from their present home on Spring street into rooms in the Thomas house. Mrs. Orbinson's son, Hal, who for many years past has been a missionary in China, with his family are expected home about the middle of June and they will occupy the Orbinson home. It is the present intention of Mr. Orbinson and family to remain in this country and not return to China.
—Morris B. Runkle, who for a number of years had been the clerk in C. M. Parrish's drug store, left on Monday with his wife for Coatsville, near Philadelphia, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Runkle has accepted a similar position in Thompson's pharmacy where he not only gets an advanced salary but some of the profits of the concern if he succeeds in building up the business. It is one of the largest stores of the kind in eastern Pennsylvania, and Mr. Runkle has the chance of making himself comfortable in life. He is an energetic young man and no doubt will size up to the opportunity. Mr. Runkle is a credit to Mr. Parrish under whose tutelage he has reached his present proficiency which has made him fit to accept such a responsible position.

—Mrs. W. I. Fleming is visiting her husband in Harrisburg.
—Mrs. Ed. Campbell spent several days in town recently as the guest of Mrs. Sabra Garman.
—Don't forget the Recital to be given by Miss Bettie Heine, in Petrikin Hall, Thursday evening June 6th.
—Miss Gertrude Confer, of Yarnell, is spending commencement week in Bellefonte as the guest of Miss Mildred Ogden on Thomas St.
—Mrs. J. Irvin Underwood and little son, of Renovo, has been a guest at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Underwood on Spring street.
—Mrs. Frank Miller and little daughter, of Tyrone, arrived in Bellefonte Monday and became the guests of Mrs. Joseph Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hill.
—Dentist Kilpatrick the other day lowered the waters of Spring Creek by pulling out a 15 inch trout. The Dr. is as great on trout pulling as he is on teeth pulling.
—Farmer John Rishel recently lost one of his matched gray horses. The team was probably the finest that came to our town and for which he frequently was offered over $600.
—Hon. J. H. Wetzel and crew of men, who are now engaged in surveying the roads in Centre county for the State are working in Pennsylvania this week. They are getting along nicely with their job.
—The Memorial Day parade in Bellefonte will take place this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. After the exercises in the cemetery Rev. James B. Stein will deliver the memorial address in the court house.
—Samuel Decker has improved his residence on Spring street by the application of a couple coats of paint. When he gets through with it will be one of the most cozy and comfortable homes in the town.
—Miss Nan Schofield will leave Bellefonte during the early part of the month of June, expecting to spend the summer in New York, Philadelphia and along the coast; a short time will be spent in Jamestown.
—H. M. Snyder, one of the sturdy old farmers from beyond State College, was a pleasant caller. He thinks the cold has had an unfavorable effect upon the clover, and chances for a good wheat crop fair.
—The Centre County Commissioners have placed in their office a new flat desk. It is of oak and besides being pretty durable. It wasn't placed there before it was needed, nor was it bought by the "cubic foot."
—Al Shank, George Row, Al Depkin and Wm. Shank, four Academy students left Friday afternoon to attend the National banquet of the Kappa Delta Pi held Saturday night at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia.
—Col. Taylor, of the 5th Regt., will be able to walk on the air after the report of the National Guard, of Pennsylvania, is given out. It will show that the 5th will stand first in the Brigade on nearly all lines of proficiency.
—The annual reception of the Academy occurs on Friday evening, June 7th, from 7:30 to 10, to which all the friends and patrons and old students of the institution are cordially invited. No formal invitation is issued and this means you as well as your friends.
—Miss Margaret Furey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, of near Bellefonte, and her sister, Miss S. W. Kerstetter, of Curwensville, left recently for New York City. After visiting there for awhile Miss Margaret will continue her journey to Plainfield, N. J.
—James Kane is in a critical condition at his home, near this place, from a large growth on the side of his neck, that is of the nature of a tumor. He had been to Philadelphia some time ago for treatment but since then it has been growing larger and causes him much distress.
—Miss Helen Longwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Longwell, who had spent the winter in Bellefonte with her grandmother, Mrs. Longwell on Spring street, has left for her home in Belington, West Va. While here she finished a course in W. Gainford's school of stenography.
—Ralph Trafford is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Trafford, on Spring street. Ralph has grown to be quite a man as he is now holding down a good position as conductor with the Pittsburgh Street Railway Company. We are pleased to know that he is getting along so well.
—Charles McClellan, the tailor, is now residing out on the terminus of East High street and during his spare moments will grow potatoes and onions which will be a new experience to him. He will have a bucket of water close at hand, so that when the hoe gets too hot he can cool it off quickly. It is a very nice place to live, especially in summer.
—A 24-inch California trout having been caught last week by a little boy, in Logan Branch, beats the record in this blessed boro. Trout will have to quit getting larger, otherwise the beauties may attain such a length that if steaming up the stream they may find it not wide enough to turn around and would have to "hook" back to get into the corporation limits of town.
—M. F. Kelley, of Altoona, was in Bellefonte Saturday, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Charles McCoy on Thomas St. His main object here was to fix up the grave of his mother in the Catholic cemetery. Although dead it is impossible to forget the kind and generous deeds of a true mother, thus it is a delight to keep their graves green. "Mike," as he is known here, was always good to his mother, and such a person has warm friends wherever he goes.
—It would be in place if the proper authorities would keep an eye on Springcreek from the water works down to below the Nittany valley railroad station, and take measures to prevent all sorts of rubbish from being thrown into the channel to the detriment of that pretty stream rendering it an eyesore to all by being made a dumping port for every sort of waste and filthy rubbish. This can be prevented and the stream kept in presentable condition. The laws of the state and the powers the borough authorities are clothed with, are sufficient to correct this evil.

—Tomorrow will be the last day of this cold May.
—Miss Mame Pacini, of Bellefonte, is being treated in a hospital.
—Miss Grace Fox, of Lewistown, is visiting friends in Bellefonte.

—Word was received from Rev. Ambrase Schmidt on Saturday that he had reached Genoa, Italy, the birthplace of Christopher Columbus. They left the steamer and by rail went to Rome.

—Commissioners Weaver, Dunlap and Bailey have been kept busy going through the county distributing the newly made ballot boxes. This entire lot of cases was made by the Crier Lumber Co.
—Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. John Larimer moved from the rooms over J. A. B. Miller's law office on East High street, to East High street. Little Herbert will have space out there to spread his wings, and breathe fresh air.
—Twenty-four new members were taken into the local branch of the National Protective Legion, making a total of one hundred and twenty-six members since the Bellefonte Legion, No. 1819, was instituted February 21st, 1907.
—One of the greatest places of amusement in Bellefonte is at Clayton Brown's store. It is as good as a first class circus. The shooting contest closed at his gallery, on Saturday night, W. S. Crispin, of Altoona, received the first prize of $10, W. S. Wieland, the second prize of $5, and William Kline the third prize, of $2.50.

—Saturday afternoon the base ball club of the Bellefonte Academy and the State Normal school at Lock Haven, Pa., met on the athletic grounds in Bellefonte. This will be an interesting game, as both teams are evenly matched. The price of admission is 25 cents, which goes to pay the guarantee. It is to be hoped that the game will be liberally patronized, but the spongers are invited to remain at home.
—Jacob From, immediately after his discharge by the court, left on foot for his home at Centrehall, seven miles distant, and proceeded to look after the affairs about his premises. The speculation now is, who murdered Joseph Dale? Sentiment has turned to the belief that From is innocent, and the absence of proof that he committed the deed, points to his innocence. Every effort made to obtain evidence to convict was fruitless.
—Conductor Reamer, who was laid off a number of weeks from his train on the L. & T. railroad, on account of illness, is now on his feet, and we are pleased to see on our streets again with evidence of improvement, which his many friends will be pleased to learn. Mr. Reamer served many years as conductor and by his accommodating and gentlemanly deportment won the esteem of all. Hope he may soon be well enough to fill his position again.
—The Messrs McKensye and Bennett the gentlemen who are finishing up the soldiers' monument, placed large long name plates on the outside of the monument and small end columns, and two smaller ones in the middle columns. This was made necessary on account of not being able to get all the names of soldiers on the square plates in the panels. It does not destroy the beauty of the architectural design but rather adds to its interest.
—After spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rishel and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stover, in Benner township, Samuel Stover left for his home in Altoona on Tuesday. His sister, Miss Lula Stover, who accompanied him here, will remain in this vicinity a week or two. Miss Stover was, at one time, one of Bellefonte's most accomplished young ladies and her many warm friends will be glad to see her. She attended the graduating exercises in Petrikin Hall Wednesday evening at which her niece, Miss Helen Stover, was one of the happy graduates.
—The recital to be given in Petrikin Hall, Thursday evening, June 6th, promises to be a delightful entertainment of high order. It will be under the direction of Miss Bettie Heine, of Bellefonte, who recently graduated from a dramatic school of art in Philadelphia with high honors, and on other occasions in that city received favorable comment. The program on this occasion will be filled by Miss Heine as reciter and impersonator; Miss Lula May Elliott, of Philadelphia, an accomplished soprano; and Miss Marie Welsh, as accompanist. There is no doubt but that our people will give Miss Bettie a hearty welcome on this occasion by their presence.
—Thursday evening Charles Kellerman came to Bellefonte and after securing a wagon load of young ladies and gentlemen he conveyed them to his country home, a short distance east of town. Here Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman had arranged for one of the old fashion barn dances. The barn floor was cleaned and illuminated by lanterns hung from the rafters. The music was furnished by James Kellerman, who is a professional on the violin and the calling was done by Corney Friel, who is an old hand at that kind of business, who can say more in a minute than an ordinary man can in an hour. It was fun for the young folks who enjoyed the novelty of the occasion until the wee hours of the night. Elegant refreshments were served after which Charles Kellerman's big team of spirited grays returned his guests to Bellefonte.

—Christ Beezer had been knocked out physically for several days. He is around again but his clothes don't fit him owing to the fact that he is twenty-five pounds lighter than before he took sick.
—With only a few trifling matters looked for the second week of court it looks as though litigation in Centre county was on the wane, or the attorneys are more sensible than usual by settling or compromising difficulties.
—For the last ten days Frank Nagney has had a sick horse. He eats like a beaver, but is down and can't move. His joints seem to be desperately stiff. The animal is a good one and should it die it will be quite a heavy loss.
—A. A. Alexander, of Millheim; B. W. Wingard, of Gregg; H. O. Fiedler, of Fiedler; and George Weaver, of Aaronsburg, all jurors, gave the Democrat a pleasant call. All bespeak a good wheat, clover and apple crop for that section. W. M. Houser, of Pleasant Gap, also was a caller.

—The annual business meeting of the Alumni Association of the Bellefonte High School will be held in the Arbitration Room at the Court House, on Thursday evening, May 30th, at 7:30 o'clock. A large attendance is desired as the business to be transacted is important to the association. John J. Bower, President.
—C. V. Tuttle, who was operating for the Adler Commission Co., of Pittsburg closed his broker's office in the Crier building and shipped his outfit to Huntington. He probably anticipated Governor Stuart signing the Nests anti-bucket shop bill and the closing of all the offices in the State. It looks a little as if fate was against these get-rich-or-get-poor schemes.
—Homer Justice, a Bellefonte young man, came near being killed recently near Blairsville. He was a brakeman on the Pittsburg Division of the Pennsylvania railroad and was thrown from the train. He was taken to the hospital at Johnstown, where it required eight stitches to close up one wound. His legs are injured about the shoulders and hip. He is now in Bellefonte and is getting along nicely.

Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, father of Wilbur Cassidy, of Bellefonte, was selected as one of the honorary pallbearers at Mrs. William McKinley's funeral, which took place Wednesday, Mr. Cassidy was an honorary pall bearer at the late president's funeral and at the president's mother and brother Abner, and was selected before Mrs. McKinley's death to act in the same capacity at her funeral. Mr. Cassidy and the late president were warm friends and the two families were intimately acquainted and visited one another very often.
—Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. John Rayman, of Bellefonte, will take charge of the Poor House. This change has been made on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Levi Whippo, who, of course, is unable to look after things out there. Mr. and Mrs. Whippo have been doing about the right thing, both for the interest of the borough and the inmates of the institution, and it is to be regretted they have to leave. However, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond will give excellent service. They are good people and well fitted for the position. —Grant Charles, the popular young clerk at the Bush House, has resigned his position there and has accepted one at Ridgeway. He will become head clerk in the Hyde House, one of the most popular and up-to-date hotels in Pennsylvania. He is a good fellow and it is to be regretted that he is leaving. We wonder what that young lady will do who called him up on the phone about one dozen times a day? Naturally he will get a rest.
—Tuesday morning the annual floral emblem from the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps Philadelphia arrived in Bellefonte as usual it is the main decoration today on the grave of Gov. It is said to have been one of the best ever delivered to the Post, which is a high compliment to Rev. Platts, as the members of this post have had some fine sermons preached to them.

Mrs. McKinley Dead:—Sunday afternoon Mrs. William McKinley, of Canton, Ohio, fell into the sleep that knows no awakening. The funeral of this good woman took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which the remains were placed in the vault in Westland Cemetery which holds the remains of her husband. She had frequently told friends that she desired to live until the completion of the McKinley mausoleum, which is the gift of the nation, and which is to be dedicated on Monument Hill September 30 next. The McKinley estate is worth $210,000.
John J. Goheen:—probably the oldest gentleman in Centre county, died Friday evening about 5 o'clock, from diseases incident to old age. He was one of the old pioneers of Ferguson township, and resided all his life at Rock Springs. He was born on the old homestead at that place in 1818, thus making his age 89 years. He was a hard worker during his life, and did much to improve the agricultural conditions of that county. He was a son of Joseph Goheen, a pioneer settler of Pennsylvania. In 1844 he was married to Sarah Rider, of Gatesburg, who died in 1891. John J. Goheen was the father of the late Rev. Miligan Goheen who passed away quite recently. He was a successful farmer and was highly respected among the agriculturists of the county. When the civil war broke out he was too old to go to the front but with his drum he led the boys of Co. E, 48th Regiment to Camp Curtin at Harrisburg. He is survived by the following children: Miss Jennie Goheen, Mrs. Frank Gardner, Mrs. William E. McWilliams, Miss Belle Goheen, all of Rock Springs; J. C., J. M., and H. C. Goheen, of Tyrone; R. G., of Penna. Furnace. The funeral took place on Monday at 1 o'clock, interment at Gray's cemetery. His pastor, Rev. E. M. Campbell, of Gravelly, officiated, assisted by Rev. J. C. Kelley, of Hollidaysburg, and Rev. John Oliver, of Pittsburg.
Roland Miller:—died in the Bellefonte Hospital Thursday morning, of concussion of the brain, the result of a blow which he received about a week prior to his death. Mr. Miller's home was in Centrehall, but for some time had been working in Lewistown. It seems that he became entangled up in a free-for-all fight over there and he, with several other men were arrested. It is not definitely known whether the fatal blow he received was during the fight or dealt by the officer making the arrest. He was a brother-in-law of Sheriff Henry Kline and when the latter heard of the affair he went to Lewistown and brought Mr. Miller to Bellefonte and took him to the hospital, but the concussion of the brain was so bad that his death resulted. Before the remains were laid in the tomb a post mortem was held and a clot of blood was found on his brain indicating that he had received a severe blow of some kind. Roland Miller was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Painters and Paper Hangers' Union, and early in life joined the Lutheran church. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and son Andrew, who is about ten years old, and the following sisters: Mrs. Kline, wife of Sheriff Henry Kline, of Bellefonte; Mrs. William Caldwell, Clearfield; and Miss Margaret, of Pittsburg; and two step-brothers: Sidney Miller, of Pleasant Gap; and Robert, of Curwensville.
