This mishap obliged us to bridge over by cutting down some of the correspondence while others were knocked clean out—like a railroad accident, some killed, some wounded, some uninjured.

UNIONVILLE.

Frank Mack and Charley Moran, two young sports of Bellefonte, spent Decoration day here.

Alex Watson went right off and got married to a Miss Gunther, of Snow Shoe, and on Monday night the reception was given at the home of the groom's father up the pike, and at 9 o'clock the Unionville band, consisting of cow bell, by Jim Holt, horn, by Pete Stere; old dish pan, by Bobbie Hall; string of bells, by Toner Warner; and about two dozen miscellaneous implements of torture including as many Comanche Indians yells, serenaded the happy couple.

On last Friday the Hon. P. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, and H. E. Holtzworth, went to Benner Run to lay in their summer's supply of trout. They drove over in a covered spring wagon. The night about 12 o'clock one of their horses broke his halter strap and being free, left for parts unknown. We met the Hon. fisherman on this side of the "Rattlesnake." Holtzworth was leading the other horse and he looked very much as if he would like to say some words that are never heard in a church, while the Hon. Mr. Meek waded along in the mud weighed down with their "catch" looking very much as if he had received a letter from a subscriber saying, "Stop my paper." John Hall recovered the runaway horse and with one of his own delivered the lost horse and wagon to Bellefonte the following Monday.

Decorations day was observed with more than usual enthusiasm, proving clearly that the patriotism of our people is not on the wane by any means. The day was an ideal one. The Vail Drum corps, consisting of one fife, one brass drum and three snare drums, led by drum major Al. Roberts, furnished the music for the occasion. In the band was one little midget of a lad ten years old, who played one of the tenor drums and for a while it was feared Al. Roberts would lose his laurels. He was the envy of all the boys in town. His name is Oscar Dayton. The orator of the day was Clement Dale, Esq., who made three addresses, all of which were very fine and full of patriotism and were listened to with marked attention. Now I don't like to give the gentleman away but I know he will take it kindly. The joke is too good to be lost. At the upper graveyard, in his address, he was growing quite eloquent and at the end of a series of a pretty appropriate adjectives he said: "And now, gentlemen of the Jury." Mr. Dale, no doubt thought he was addressing a jury—quite a number of people looked pleasant. 13 old soldiers were present and they decorated 46 soldiers' graves. A free dinner and supper was given by the citizens of the town and such a "lay-out" we seldom had the pleasure to participate in. It was no cold lunch either, mind you; chicken and gravy with mashed potatoes, corn, baked beans, sliced ham, pies, cakes—abundance of everything. One fine, large cake beautifully iced over and ornamented with small flags and on top a miniature mounted cannon attracted the attention of all and especially the old soldiers. It was baked by Mrs. St. Clair. The tables accommodated 65 persons at one sitting and was filled four or five times, and when all had eaten they took away 12 baskets full of dishes and things. The exercises were concluded in the M. E. church at 7 o'clock. Addresses were made by C. Dale, Esq., Rev. Keifer, Mrs. Mary Hall, Mrs. St. Clair, Rev. Pifer and Dr. Russell, all of which were full of patriotic sentiment and should have been heard to be fully appreciated. At the close of a recitation by little Lenora Stere, the audience could no longer contain itself and she was greeted with applause. The two other recitations by Cora Hoover and Flora Holt were also well received. The choir exceeded all their former efforts and their singing was most inspiring. The quartette, Pauline Smith, soprano; Grace Smith, alto; J. W. Smith, tenor; and Jos. Brugger, basso, was exceptionally fine. It was a day to be remembered and shows conclusively that Decoration Day has come to stay.

Joseph E. Brugger and wife left on Wednesday for Philadelphia to attend the commencement exercises of the Art School of that city, from which their daughter Flora will graduate on the 6th inst.

GENTRE CO. PICNIC.

Rev. L. K. Evans, D. D., of Pottstown, Pa., a former Centre countian, has kindly consented to make an address on "Centre County." Short addresses will also be made by the President, Dr. Roland G. Curtin, Rev. Harkinson and other prominent members of the Association. Persons having friends or relatives living in Philadelphia will greatly aid the committee by informing their friends of the picnic or by sending their names and addresses to the Secretary Forest N. Magee, Esq., 1329 Land Title building, Philadelphia, who will mail invitations to all such whose names are not already recorded. It is desired that all be present as early in the afternoon as possible, as the addresses will be given before luncheon hour.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention meets at Harrisburg this Thursday. At the time of convening it appeared settled that John O. Sheats, of Philadelphia, would be nominated for State Treasurer. Senator Penrose had Senator Cummings slated for this office, but the delegates from the country districts have defied his dictation and broken the Boss' slate. Sheat's candidacy was in direct opposition to the "organization," and indicates that the Penrose combination has been side tracked.

United States Senator Knox is quite certain to be endorsed for Presidency.

BERRY would make a good governor of Pennsylvania. He is a useful man at Harrisburg.

They now reside at 618 North 42 St., West Philadelphia, their newly furnished home.

REV. SCHMIDT IN ROME.

Interesting Letters Written Describing his Voyage and the Sights in Italy.

From Bellefonte Republican.

Sunday, May 5, 1907. To the Congregation, and Sunday School of St. John's Reformed Church. My dear Friends: This is our second Sunday out on the ocean and I have been thinking of the congregation and the boys and girls at home. This morning services were held in the large dining room at 10 o'clock. At 3 o'clock Sunday school classes met all over the ship and those who did not attend any of the other classes were enrolled in the Home Department, given lesson papers and promised to study the lesson. Tonight we held another service at 8:30. Everyday a morning and evening is held. They are well attended, the singing is good and the addresses are helpful.

I wish you could see the ocean as it has been the past two days. It is rolling in good sized waves, and as a result our ship dips and rolls a great deal. It takes steady feet to walk around the deck. I can imagine some of the boys and girls asking, "I wonder if Mr. Schmidt got sea sick." Not yet, though far I have proved a good sailor but I will not boast until I get ashore and once more.

Last Friday we visited the largest of the Azores Islands, St. Michael, its chief city is Ponta Delgada. It was very interesting place, the island is of volcanic formation and the houses are built of volcanic stones and then plastered over the outside and washed with a mixture of either white, pink or buff in color. The people are Portuguese and most of them are Roman Catholics. There is a small protestant mission there, we visited it and held two services in their chapel. I will tell you more about it when I get home.

Today we expected to spend on the island of Madiera. Our ship anchored in the Bay of Funchal, opposite the chief city of the island but we could not land as there were cases of small-pox on the island, had we gone ashore we would be quarantined at other ports for 10 days, so we sailed away and hope to make our next stop at Gibraltar.

I hope that this letter reaches you in time for the service on Sunday, May 19. I shall think of you all, be with you in spirit and together we shall worship the same Lord and Saviour, although we are more than 4000 miles away from each other. My prayer is that the Heavenly Father may watch over us each one and keep us safe in his love that we may see and worship together again in our dear church in Bellefonte.

Your Friend and Pastor, AMBROSE M. SCHMIDT.

James Bechdel Dead.

From Bellefonte Republican. On Thursday May 30th about the noon hour the death angel entered the Bechdel home on Walnut street at Howard and took thence the spirit of the father, Mr. James Bechdel. Mr. Bechdel had been a sufferer for some time past with that dreaded disease consumption, and bore it patiently. He was a man who had many friends in that community, having been a resident there most of his life.

The funeral took place on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Schenk cemetery.

Richard Coulter, of 10th Regt. N. G. P. Those who were examined from Bellefonte were Capt. P. H. Garbrick, Capt. J. M. Locke, Capt. Robt. Hunter, Lieut. S. D. Gettig, and Lieut. Richard Taylor. The examination was held at the Logan House.

UPPER MARION.

Children's services in the U. E. church Sunday evening had a fine program. Roy Clemens is down with rheumatism.

THE COMING OF RUTH.

Y. M. C. A. Arranging for Great Local Entertainment.

From Bellefonte Republican.

Beautiful Cantata that has given fine results elsewhere, will possibly be rendered in Bellefonte in the near future.

The local Young Men's Christian Association has lately come in touch with Dr. W. T. Noss, the author and director of the beautiful musical drama, "The coming of Ruth," and an attempt is being made to have him come and conduct the preparation and rendition of this biblical oratorio in Bellefonte, using our local musical organizations for the purpose. In order to give the most satisfactory results, it is necessary to have a company of, a hundred or more singers. As the course of instruction will be an exceedingly valuable one, and as the expenses of it will be taken out of the proceeds of the final entertainment, there should be no difficulty in securing double the number of people asked for. It is not often that our young people have an opportunity of getting free, a course of instruction in music and dramatic culture which, if taken privately, would cost from fifteen to twenty dollars for each person. And the chief beauty of it is that those who take part will have the satisfaction of knowing they are helping "the boys" at the same time in which they are doing work that is of great pleasure and profit to themselves. It is certainly an opportunity which no one should miss. We understand that the most musical people of the city, both young and old, are invited to take part, and that many of the best singers have already signified their intention of doing so. "The Coming of Ruth" is highly spoken of wherever it has been performed, and with such a company as that now asked for, it will probably be one of the finest entertainments ever offered in our town. Those who wish to take part in "The Coming of Ruth" should at once leave their names with Mr. Godfrey, the Physical Director, at the Y. M. C. A. building.

A CONFESSED ASSASSIN.

The most sensational trial of the times is now in progress, at Bois, Idaho, where Wm. D. Haywood is indicted for murder of Gov. Stuenkel. Haywood and his associates are the representatives of the Western Federation of Miners, whom Harry Orchard on the stand yesterday said that at their inspiration and for pay he was employed to commit some of the most revolting crimes, as follows:

Blew up Independence, Col., depot, as train was passing; fourteen killed.

Lay in wait for Governor Peabody, of Colorado, armed with gun under coat for a week, under instructions to assassinate him. Proposed to put nitroglycerine under sidewalk, but this plan was vetoed.

Blew up Vindicator mine at Cripple Creek. Two men killed.

Blew up mill of Sullivan and Bunker Hill mines, at Wardner, Idaho, in Coeur d'Alene district. Two men killed.

Shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Lyte Gregory in Denver street.

Blew up house of Fred Bradley, an enemy of the Western Federation of Miners, in San Francisco. Bradley badly injured.

For five hours he continued his recital of bloodshed and death, until it seemed, indeed, more like into a greswome tale of the days of terror in France or of the revolutions of Russia, than one of modern, enlightened America.

Canceled Their Debt.

Debts to an honest man is a hard task master, and the person who lives within his means is by far the happiest. To a church, or any other organization whose purpose is to elevate mankind and make them better, a debt hangs like a millstone, hindering its progress in many ways. Realizing the truth of this the members of the A. M. E. church, of Bellefonte, got together the other week and canceled their debt on both church and parsonage. They succeeded in raising $433.62. They are therefore thankful to the benevolent public for their liberal patronage.

Sunday the members of the Bellefonte Methodist church reached down in the yockets of their jeans and wiped out a debt of $4,500. It was an easy thing to do when everybody was in the mood of giving.

From Bellefonte Republican. On Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock a young man from Harrisburg walked into the Recorder's office in the Court house here and placed in the hands of Recorder John C. Rowe, to be recorded, the largest mortgage ever placed on record in Centre County. It was for $25,000.00 and was against the newly organized American Union Telephone Company, of which Hon. Ellis L. Orris, of Bellefonte is President. It is in favor of the Pittsburg Title and Guarantee Company. It is being recorded in all the counties in which the company does business.
