

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-No more steam heat bills until September.
-Farmer Jones is the latest sensation in town.
-Mrs. D. C. Hess, of Linden Hall, was a pleasant call.
-Remember that the Undine picnic on the 4th of July at Hecla Park, will be the event of the season.
-The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Kelley, of Bellefonte, was recently christened in the Catholic church.
-Miss Alice Buck, of Unionville, one of Centre county's, talented school teachers, transacted business in Bellefonte, Monday.
-Wm. H. Lee, of Tusseyville, gave our sanctuary a call-Jolly as ever. At same time Joseph Rauchau and friend from Madisonburg, illumined our sanctuary.
-Mrs. Herbert Bellringer, who had been visiting in Bellefonte at her parents Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck, left Thursday for her home in New York City.
-Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Boal, of Centrehall, gave our sanctuary a pleasant call on Monday, having been over to attend the funeral of John Seibert on Sunday, Dr. Boal officiating.
-Mrs. Rose Sternberg, Lyon, of Philadelphia, was a recent visitor in Bellefonte as a guest of Mrs. C. M. Bower. She was on her way to California where her brothers are located.
-Westly Gephart Wagner, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner of this place, graduated with honors last week from the High School at Tobias, Nebraska. The subject of his oration was "The future of the Church."
-Dr. VanTries left Bellefonte Monday for a little trip of several weeks. He included Tyrone, Blairsville, Huntingdon, Pittsburg and Butler. The doctor is a very entertaining gentleman and his many friends in all the above places will be glad to see him.
-The Nittany Furnace, of Bellefonte, again broke its record Thursday by making 150 tons of iron. Is it "Billy" Waddle or is it George Grimm who has the hypnotic influence out there over the fiery furnace? They are evidently trying to make up for lost time.
-The monument with its name plates of soldiers, is constantly viewed by strangers from outside of town. All seek and find the names of relatives as well as their own, in imperishable bronze from the Revolution down to the latest, the Spanish war. We believe it is the only monument of its kind in the United States.
-Mrs. Levi Whippo, of Bellefonte, who has been seriously ill for a couple of months, has gone to Harrisburg to spend sometime with her daughter, Mrs. Cook, in the hope of being able to recuperate her shattered health. Mr. Whippo will spend the ensuing few months with Malbergers, on the farm in Benner township.
-This is the evening for the entertainment in Garmans opera house by the students of the parochial schools of Bellefonte. These entertainments are always of a high character and cannot help but please. The one to-night will be above the average, so if you go you can make up your minds that you will have lots of real fun.
-George Valentine, Jr., has started in the butter-making business. He has on his farm, near Bellefonte, a herd of pure Jersey cows and will churn nothing but the best Jersey butter. And, anticipating that the market hereabouts might soon become overstocked, he with Harry Shively went to Altoona to look up a proper market for their product.
-Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard, was in Bellefonte Friday, all spruced up to beat the band. Those who didn't know him would have taken him as the preacher of the baccalaureate sermon at State College on Sunday. He, however, is a trustee of the College, and is one of the men who stuck to the institution in its darkest days, and is now rejoicing over its bright and prosperous future.
-It does seem a hardship that a number of persons in our town who furnished supplies and entertainment for the dedication of the monument one year ago, that unpaid bills aggregate several hundred dollars and the committee that contracted them appears entirely indifferent to the payment. This is not just nor is it creditable to the parties who contracted the same. This gentle hint should suffice.
-There is constant complaint from citizens of the town about the speed of automobiles on our streets. Fortunately it is that far no aged person or children have been seriously injured or killed in this way. We have an ordinance against this and two policemen patrol the streets. We think these officials should give automobilists warning and if they persist in thus offending, let them abide with the consequences.
-Wm. Hipple, of Pine Glenn, was in to see us Monday. Now he is known as a man of truth and veracity in that community; and always pays his subscription in advance. When he told us that bears are getting so plenty in that community that the cubs come down in the pasture fields and milk the cows, we simply had to believe him, although it occasioned a suppressed smile. A number of young cubs were caught recently, but later were released. He also reports much cold weather, which if it continues they will be compelled to pull the plug out of the natural gas well and burn it up to ripen the cherry crop by the 4th of July. And he also is an honorable man, too.
-Thursday Mrs. Louisa Brackbill, the venerable mother of W. R. Brackbill, one of Bellefonte's successful merchants, celebrated her 88 birthday, and for one so advanced in years she is truly a most remarkable lady. She is well preserved physically, and is able to still take an interest in most everything about her. Thursday quite a number of her friends called at the Brackbill residence on Spring street where she gave them a cordial greeting and was almost as spry as when she was in her teens. She is a very pleasant lady and always has a good word for everybody, thus her friends are legion. Her name was Miss Louisa Kunkle and is of one of the pioneer families of Centre county. It is to be hoped that she may be spared to round out a century.

-Dr. A. W. Hafer, of Bellefonte, spent several days this week at Punxsutawney.
-Edward J. McClincy, who has been visiting his parents in Bellefonte the past month, left Monday morning for Pitcairn.
-Miss Bertha Sourbeck accompanied her sister, Mrs. Mame Bellringer to New York City where she will spend several months.
-Mrs. Sadie Baney, of Atlantic City, is visiting her nephew W. H. Hunsinger of Curtin street, and will spend most of the summer with relatives in the country.
-Rev. James P. Hughes, Rev. J. Allison Platts, Dr. Thomas C. TanTries and Rev. Crittenden left Monday morning to attend the Huntingdon Presbytery.
-Dr. John Henderson left on Friday for Philadelphia. He was accompanied by Miss Margaret and Elizabeth Heckman who will visit friends in the Quaker City.
-Rev. James Stein, pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, returned Thursday from Carlisle where he attended the commencement exercises of Dickinson College.
-Miss Maud Fink and mother, of California, are guests in Bellefonte of Mr. and Mrs. Fall Stover. They expect to spend a couple of months visiting friends in this vicinity.
-Abraham Houser, of State College, Mr. Cooper, of Snow Shoe, and Frank Sauerman, of Bellefonte, are attending the State Convention of the Red Men at Lancaster this week.
-Mrs. Harry Yeager and her children arrived home from Harrisburg Sunday evening. They were accompanied by Mrs. George Kerstetter who will visit a few days in Bellefonte.
-The roof is being put on the new parish house on Lamb street, adjoining the St. John Episcopal church. The cement block work up to good effect, and make a structure that will be much admired.
-Jared Harper and family left on Saturday for Lancaster, Pa. to attend F. and M. commencement. From there they go to Atlantic City for a month's stay and before returning home may visit the Jamestown Exposition.
-The Centre Democrat had a bad smash last week at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. By 5 o'clock in the evening we again started the paper and were successful in printing the edition without any further mishaps.
-This week the Co. Commissioners erected an iron fence at either side of the court house to keep the rear yard private. Heretofore it was a resort at night for questionable purposes, where drinking was done. This should put a stop to the nuisance.
-D. A. Grove, of Lemont, was in to see us upon his return from Chicago, where he visited the horse market. The prices now are skyhigh and promise to remain there. These days you can not buy any kind of a horse for $200, but on up to $400 is the price.
-The young ladies and gentlemen who are to take part in the "Coming of Ruth," are kindly requested to meet in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Monday evening at 7:30. A great many of the young folks have not been seen, and it is a question if the managers can see everybody personally. Those who desire to take part in the chorus are earnestly requested to be present on this occasion.
-Edward B. Gregory, agent for the National Biscuit company, moved his headquarters, from the Brokerhoff house, this place, to the Fallon house, Lock Haven. The latter place is perhaps the most central location for him. During his sojourn in Bellefonte Mr. Gregory made many warm friends here who regret his leaving the town. He expects to visit Bellefonte once a week, thus the boys can keep a tag on him.
-Louis Daggett, who has been a student at the John Tombs Academy at Port Deposit, Md., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday and is now assistant clerk at the Fallon House. The right thing for him to do now is to take off his coat, roll up his sleeves and get down to doing business as it should be done. Life is a stern reality and the quicker a young man realizes this the better for him in after years. Louie will make an up to date clerk.
-Al Dale, Esq., formerly of Bellefonte, but now a lumberman at Pine Glenn, made a big hit at Pine Hall on Memorial Day when he delivered the address there. Those who heard it say that it was not only eloquent but the best eulogy to the old soldiers ever delivered at that place. Al, no doubt, drew his inspiration from the tall, towering pines of the Alleghenies and the warbling of the nightingale.
-Monday evening Ralph Spigelmeier, one of Bellefonte's successful merchants, was walking to his residence very leisurely when he heard a whistle blow that had a tendency of hastening his pace to almost a run. When he reached home he consulted the ten o'clock he has running in the house and he found that instead of it being the Curfew whistle that made him hustle, it was the "grub" whistle at six o'clock. After this he wants to tie a string on his finger so that he doesn't forget that the curfew sounds at 8:45 instead of 6 o'clock.
-Harry Diehl, who is employed as artist for Indiana Carriage works, located at Indiana, Pa., was a visitor in Bellefonte recently as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Diehl. Harry says that a man who secures a patent for a machine that will reflect the name of a firm on the side of a wagon so that it can be painted without having to mark out the letters will have his fortune made. Bellefonte ought to have enough of genius in it to get up a contrivance of that kind. He would like to have spent a week here along our trout streams but business wouldn't permit it. So he returned after a short but pleasant visit.
-"Bob" Woodring, the North Ward mail carrier, has great trouble with that garden of his. Every night he goes to bed he dreams of frosts and imagines that everything is going to the dickens. The other evening, before going to bed, he took the brush off a long handle and tied a thermometer to the end of the stick and put it out of the bedroom window. He then set the alarm clock for 3 o'clock in the morning thinking that if there was frost he would hustle out and cover his plants. Bang went the timepiece at the appointed hour. He arose quickly and in drawing in the thermometer he found that it was four degrees warmer than when he went to bed. He was going to swear, when he remembered he was a Lutheran.

-A new floor is being laid in the P. R. R. freight station.
-Mrs. John I. Olewine returned home Tuesday from Hanover.
-Oscar Wetzel, of Bellefonte, who had been seriously ill, is much better.
-A new flag stone pavement is being laid in front of James Rine's home on High street.
-Miss Charlotte Crittenden arrived home Monday evening from Brooklyn N. Y.
-Hon. Wm. Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills transacted business in Bellefonte Wednesday.
-W. H. Musser left on Tuesday evening for Pittsburg where he will attend a large convention of insurance men.
-Mr. and Mrs. McVain and little nephew, of Cameron, visited friends in Bellefonte and Centre Hall this week.

-The State-Indian game of basketball at State College Wednesday resulted in State defeating the red men by a score of 7 to 2.
-Miss Lulu Stover who has been visiting friends in Bellefonte and vicinity, returned on Tuesday evening to her home in Altoona.
-Rev. J. H. Orbison, M. D., and family of Tahora, India, are visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Nannie Orbison, on Spring street.
-If you desire to attend a pleasant outing in the woods go to the Resides family reunion at Hunter's Park on Saturday June 29. It will be a basket picnic and everybody is invited.
-Mrs. W. R. Taylor of New York, who has been visiting friends in Bellefonte the past week left for her home Wednesday morning. Mrs. Taylor's maiden name was Miss Julia Powers.
-The new chapter of the Kappa Delta Pi of the Bellefonte Academy held their first annual banquet at the Bush House on Tuesday evening. It was a very elaborate affair and was greatly enjoyed by all present.
-F. H. Thomas, Superintendent of the Bellefonte Central, and Mrs. Thomas and son Francis are spending a few days at Atlantic City. Mr. Thomas is attending the National Mechanic's Association in convention at that place.
-Miss Meri Kirk, of Clearfield, is visiting at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, on West High street. This is her first visit here and naturally she has been very much impressed with our beautiful town and its people.
-Arthur Roberts, of Pitcairn, is home visiting his friends in Bellefonte, Roland and Howard. Art left Bellefonte about four years ago and went to Pitcairn where he learned the machinist trade and from all reports he is getting along nicely.
-The ladies of the Bellefonte Methodist church will hold an exchange Saturday, June 29, the place to be named later. They will have on sale bread, cakes, pies and potato salad. They will also have for sale a large variety of aprons.
-Miss Carrie Harper left Wednesday morning for Jamestown, Virginia, where she will visit the exposition for several weeks. She will then go further South for a short time and then back to Atlantic City where she will spend the balance of the summer.
-While you think of it, just ask Walter Furst, of Bellefonte, where he got that rig on Sunday, at State College, and how he enjoyed that short buggy ride with the fat damsel. He can tell you how his adventures suddenly were terminated by the real owner of the rig coming on the scene in the first act and they had to hoof it the balance.
-On account of the incessant cold, damp weather the County Commissioners are having pipes put into the various offices so that gas stoves can be attached. There is no cellar under the offices, thus they are damp and unfit for occupancy without heat of some kind. Why don't they use bottled heat that would make them feel as though there were five or six stoves in the room.
-Jacob Jery, after a faithful service of thirteen years as cook in the restaurant conducted by Jessie Cox, severed his connection with that place of business on Monday and now is one of the mixologists at the Brokerhoff House. Jake is a good cook and pleased his many customers, but he thought he would like a change. His place in the restaurant is being filled by William Rider, who will give the best of satisfaction.
-We were pleased to have a paternal call from the editor of the Freeport Bulletin, the leading paper of that flourishing Illinois city, O. P. Stiver, a native of Potters Mills, who has been visiting friends in Centre county. Mr. Stiver has gained prominence in Illinois. He was county superintendent a number of years, and is influential as a journalist of force and ability. He is a brother of Mrs. Dr. Ward, of Bellefonte, and has a sister living at Centre Hall.
-Thursday evening Miss Bettie Heine was greeted by a large and representative audience at her recital in Petrakin hall. While it was a fine compliment to the young elocutionist, the audience was highly pleased with the dramatic ability possessed by the young artist, showing beyond a doubt she was able to hold her place with the best elocutionists. She has a strong, retentive mind, so that her selections are smooth and fascinating. Miss Heine was assisted in this entertainment by Mrs. Derr Bubb, of Williamsport, a cultured soprano. Miss Marie Walsh, an accomplished pianist, presided at the instrument.
-Monday afternoon mine host of the Brokerhoff house, H. S. Ray, "hit" up his new auto, and with four of his friends took a trip to "view the landscape o'er". Starting at 3 p. m. and returning at 8:15 in the evening. The following was the route: From Bellefonte to Centre Hall and Potters Mills; from Potters Mills via Old Fort to Spring Mills and Millheim; thence to Coburn and back to Millheim; thence to Madisonburg and back to Millheim and via Old Fort to Bellefonte. The distance traveled was no less than 65 miles, and including stops at hotels for "watering the boss," the time made was "not slow."
-The Penypacker-Snyder statement of last September is shown by recent valuations to have been mendacious. It is especially false where it declares that "no bill was finally settled until the article had been measured or weighed as the schedule." There was no measuring and no weighing for the State, and bills presented were paid without question. State officials helped the chief looters and the guilty must be prosecuted if this be possible.

RECENT DEATHS.

HARRIS SPANGLER - son of Nathan Spangler, of Blanchard, died Monday evening of tuberculosis at the home of his parents. He was aged about 19 years. The deceased is survived by one brother and sister. Interment Wednesday afternoon in the cemetery adjoining the church.
JACOB HESSICK - died in Green Springs, Ohio, on May 13th at the age of 85 years 11 months and 13 days. He was a basket weaver and a shoemaker which trades he followed most of his life. He was an old soldier, serving both in the Mexican and Civil wars. He belonged to the Reformed church of which he was a member. He is survived by a widow and the following children: John Hessick, of Mecosta, Mich.; Mrs. David Stoner and Albert Hessick, of Green Springs; and Mrs. Fanny Shirey, of Unionville, Pa.
MRS. ADAM HESS - died Sunday morning very suddenly at her home at Boalsburg. She was sitting in the parlor reading a church paper when her head dropped and in a few minutes life was extinct. The call was unexpected but the angel of death found her ready to enter into that rest that knows no end. She was a good woman and will be greatly missed in the community and in the Lutheran church of which she was a faithful member, always taking an active part in all its work. Mrs. Hess' maiden name was Brisbin, and a sister-in-law of Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer, of Bellefonte. She is survived by three sons and one daughter. The funeral took place Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock.
REV. R. G. WILLIAMS - who for the last two years had been the efficient pastor of the Presbyterian church at Snow Shoe, died at the Maple Hill sanitarium at Philipsburg, on Wednesday night of last week. He was 70 years of age, and for 33 years had been faithfully preaching the Gospel. He was a native of Wales but spent most of his life in the United States. Prior to going to Snow Shoe he served as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Kylertown, Clearfield county. He was a true religious man and was the instrument of winning many souls for Christ and his kingdom. He is survived by a wife and seven grown up children. The funeral took place Saturday morning, the officiating minister being Rev. R. P. Miller, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Philipsburg.
ANDREW JACKSON TATE - died at his late home near Lemont Monday morning June 3, of heart trouble. The deceased had been in delicate health for several months and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Tate was born in the old Mitchell manor house more than 75 years ago and had spent all his life within a few miles of the place of his birth. In early life he followed the trade of coachsmith but later took up farming, retiring from active pursuits about 10 years ago, and taking up his residence at the forks of the Bellefonte pike and Nittany Valley road. There was probably not a better man known in the county than the deceased. Mr. Tate was a Democrat of the old Hickory type and religiously was a Lutheran, being a member of the Shiloh church. He was married to Angeline Roop on April 13, 1839, the union being blessed with 10 children. Interment in the Shiloh cemetery.
SAMUEL MARSHALL McMURTRIE - who for years had been a familiar figure on the streets of Bellefonte, passed away at his home at Coleville, Saturday morning from diseases incident to his advanced age. Had he lived until the 77th of this month he would have been 77 years old. He was born in Huntingdon county but early in life he came to Bellefonte and for a number of years was Morris Cowdrick's right-hand man in manufacturing brick, near Coleville. Brick in his day were mostly made by hand and when a large contract was secured it meant hustle. Mr. McMurtie made the brick for the Bush House, the McClain Block, the old Bush Arcade, the old Humes Block, which stood on the site now occupied by Crider's Exchange, and many other buildings in the town. The deceased was also a great hunter and, up until a couple of years ago, he was always found in the Alleghenies with a party from Bellefonte among whom were the late Simeon Haupt and James Alexander. About the only one living of the crowd is Isaac Miller. He was one of the men who seldom returned from the woods empty handed. He was a soldier in the Civil War, belonging to the 45th Regt. and the 5th Reserve and as such, made an excellent record. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to all who were in need during that great struggle. For the life, but took plenty of exercise. Socially he was a most excellent gentleman and had hosts of friends. He was a member of the Methodist church, Union Veteran Legion and Gregg Post, No. 95 G. A. R.; was married twice but both of his wives preceded him to the grave. He leaves to mourn his loss the following children: Mrs. Mary Wertz, James and Edgar McMurtie. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, under the direction of Gregg Post. Interment in Union cemetery.
WILLIAM HESS - a most highly respected resident of Philipsburg, died Friday evening about 9 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ida M. Rothrock. For some years he had been in declining health, but a stroke of paralysis, received on the evening of May 25th, so completely prostrated him that, instead of rallying under the very best care given him, he steadily grew weaker and finally at the hour indicated breathed his last. The deceased was born in Haines township, this county, on February 27, 1831, and was aged 76 years, 3 months and 11 days. His parents, Michael and Mary Hess, who long since passed to their reward, were among the early and most honored citizens of the county. His grandfather, who bore the same name of his father, Michael Hess, was a native of Germany, and during the Revolutionary war came to this country with Count Raushmbau in 1786, and aided the Colonies in their struggle for independence. He spent his boyhood on the farm and at the age of 16 years started to make his own living. He located in Philipsburg June 1873 where he was engaged in the tanning, lumber and brick business. About twenty years ago he engaged in the grocery business, which he has since successfully conducted. He was married in Snyder county, in the spring of 1854, to Miss Sarah Eisenhour, who survives, together with the three children born to them, viz: Charles C., residing near Philipsburg; Mrs. Ida M. Rothrock, Philipsburg, and Frank W., of Sandy Ridge. One brother, Jonathan, residing in Williamsport, and one sister, Mrs. Lydia Stover, of Altoona, survive.

FOR MORE THAN FORTY YEARS HE HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THE METHODIST CHURCH. THE FUNERAL TOOK PLACE FROM THE RESIDENCE OF HIS DAUGHTER, MRS. ROTHROCK, MONDAY AFTERNOON AT 2 O'CLOCK.

Mrs. Mary Kreidler - of Millhall, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Hills, at Clearfield, Monday evening of a complication of diseases, aged 64 years. Interment at Cedarhill.
Mrs. Joseph Hanna - died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Joseph Johnson, in Millhall, on Tuesday morning, of old age - aged 89 years and 10 months. Interment at Duncannon this afternoon.
MRS. SUSAN WILSON - wife of John Wilson, of Milesburg, died Thursday night at 10:45 o'clock from a complication of diseases. She was 60 years of age and for 40 years had been a resident of that place. She was a member of the Methodist church, and lived a life that commanded the respect of all who knew her. She is survived by two sons and one daughter: Claude and Edward, of Sunbury; Mrs. Effie Heaton, of Monument.
JOHN SEIBERT - entered his eternal rest Friday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Longwell, who resides a short distance southwest of Bellefonte, along the Buffalo Run road. The venerable gentleman had been a patient sufferer for sometime with heart trouble; he knew that his time here was limited. By occupation he was a farmer always considered one of the foremost in Centre county. He was honest and upright in all his dealings, thus having the confidence of hosts of friends. He was a christian in all the meaning of the word and for years was an elder in the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church. He was also a member of the Bellefonte Lodge No. 268 F. & A. M., the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and the Pomona Grange of Centre county. He was the son of the late John Seibert Sr., and was born in Benner township Sept. 20th 1832. He was married to Mary Boal (now deceased) a sister of Rev. James Boal of Centre Hall. He leaves to mourn his death the following children, C. H. Seibert, State College; Mrs. Lucy Longwell, Benner Township; Mrs. Ella Dale, Dubois; Mrs. Mary Cori, State College; Mrs. Margaret Keynolds, Graysville; Mrs. Martha Gozara, Rock Springs; George Seibert, Niagara Falls.
