

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Harvey McClure, of Mt. Union, has been visiting his parents in Bellefonte. —Robert Miller, of New Florence, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte. —Miss McKee, of Wilkensburg, is a pleasant visitor with Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Stitzer. —Mrs. W. L. Daggett, of Bellefonte, is visiting among friends in Philadelphia and Atlantic City. —Mrs. Elizabeth Callaway has arrived home from Philadelphia where she had been visiting friends. —Mail-carrier Woodring, on Howard street, made a raise on his home, by putting it some three feet nearer the sky. —Mrs. E. R. Chambers and daughter, who had been visiting friends in Philadelphia and Chester county, are now at home on Linn street. —Col. H. S. Taylor has appointed Prof. James R. Hughes Color Sergeant of the 7th regiment. Prof. Hughes is an old Company B. boy and no doubt will be right there with the goods. —Frederick LeRoy Raymond, son of John Raymond, of Bellefonte, left for New York where he will remain three weeks preparing to serve in a cavalry regiment in Cuba. He will make a good soldier as he received his preliminary training in Co. B. —Commencement exercises at Perkiomen Seminary began Sunday morning. The Rev. Oscar S. Kriebel, the principal, preached the baccalaureate sermon. General James A. Beaver, former Governor, delivered the commencement address last Friday. —Thursday morning Miss Ferda Lew is ard Homer Keatly were married in Tyrone by Rev. John H. Daugherty. They are well and favorably known in Tyrone among a large number of friends. The bride and groom spent Friday in Bellefonte as guests of Mrs. Charles Rine on Thomas street. —The installation of Rev. Barry, the new pastor of the Bellefonte Lutheran church, will take place on Thursday evening, July 18, with the usual ceremonies. Rev. Barry, of Lock Haven, and Rev. Barry of Halleton, father of the pastor to be installed, have been chosen to officiate upon this occasion. The Lord's Supper will be administered in the same church, morning and evening, on Sabbath following, July 21. —Edward Haupt, the Rockefeller, of the Westward, has in contemplation the erection of a large house containing two flats with all the modern conveniences; it will be built of cement blocks and be made as near fire proof as possible. The roof will be made of concrete. What the matter with a roof garden? It will make a handy place for an enterprise of that kind. Mr. Haupt expects to have the building under roof by winter; each flat will have eight rooms and a bath room. —The First National Bank, of Bellefonte, through the careful financing of Charles M. McCurdy, cashier, and President Col. Jas. F. Coburn, has been placed on the roster of honor of National banks in the United States a mark of credit given by the comptroller of currency to a national bank when its surplus equals its capital. This is one of the best recommendations that can be given the surety of any banking institution of this kind and is with pleasure we note the high standing of the First National Bank of our town. —Picnics are beginning to ripen, and campers are planting their tents in the mountain districts along the streams. There is more real genuine enjoyment than going to the seashore every summer, at great expense, and see nothing but gawgaws and dress and hummer. Families that camp in the mountains for a week or two, need go to very little expense and the children can romp and play and yell to their hearts' content without annoying anybody and have full rope to enjoy themselves, with fishing, fresh air and pure and fresh water and bathing thrown in. It beats seashore trips all hollow. Added to all is some of the grandest mountain scenery in the world—we have it. —Charles Newcomer, who holds an excellent position with the York Bridge Co., spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Newcomer on east Clinton street. He is quite a busy man just now and was compelled to leave again Monday. He says they are about to put the iron on the abutments of the bridge between Sunbury and Selingsgrove, and when it is thrown open to travel it is going to be a big money winner. It will be remembered the man who is at the head of the enterprise is Boyd Musser, formerly of Bellefonte. Some day Boyd will be numbered among the millionaires of his day and generation and be riding around in a $10,000 automobile. —Joe Thal is no back number. He is up to the times when it comes to improvements. A couple of years ago he purchased a property on Thomas street and every now and then he does something that increases its value. He just finished giving it a couple coats of paint which makes the place look more cheerful and inviting. The old Dr. Rothrock property on the same street is undergoing some radical changes. A stone wall has taken the place of the old fence that stood there for the last forty years. A new porch has been built all along the front of the house and a new window has been placed in the south side of the building. When it is painted the house will be so transformed that few people will know the place. —Friday, Merty Cunningham, at one time one of the most active men in Bellefonte, reached his 75th mile stone in the journey of life. He is a little crippled up with rheumatism but otherwise is still a pretty good man, and the fellow who would put the boxing gloves on with him would have to be on the alert. The day was passed in a quiet way at his home on Bishop street but in the evening, when his children and grand-children came around and began pulling his ears, the old gentleman thought that he had gotten into a regular Kansas blizzard. However, grandpa enjoyed the occasion immensely and made everything pleasant for his guests. The democracy of Bellefonte always found in Mr. Cunningham a careful adviser and a good worker, and being a true Democrat he was always on the side of right. He is a moulder by trade and for pulling the patterns out of the sand he had few equals.

—Mrs. Harry Yearick is visiting her parents in Bellefonte. —Andrew Knieley, of State College, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. —J. H. Ross, of Linden Hall, gave our sanctum a pleasant call. —Edward Derstine, of Altoona, is visiting his father on Lamb street. —Morris Hazel, of Altoona, spent Saturday and Sunday in Bellefonte. —Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shreyer of Chicago, are visiting friends in Bellefonte. —W. C. Storm was a visitor with his sister, Mrs. P. J. Walsh, in Tyrone, on Sunday. —William Fye, one of the foremen in the Altoona shops, spent Sunday with friends near State College. —Miss Anna Pressler left Thursday morning for Swisssdale where she will spend a month or so visiting her Uncle. —Ex-County Superintendent C. T. Gramley, of Rebersburg, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday morning. —Miss Grace Brocius, one of the efficient clerks at Joseph's store, spent Sunday at her home at Jersey Shore. —Wilbur Twitmyer left for Elmira, N. Y., where he will play with the Elmira base ball team the remainder of this season. —Mrs. Joseph Ceader and son, Joseph, left Sunday for Philadelphia and Atlantic City where they will visit friends for a month. —About dinner time on Saturday Willis Shuey caught another trout that measured fourteen inches. He's a cracker jack. —Miss Bertha Meyers, one of Lock Haven's very pleasant young ladies, is visiting her friend Miss Jennie Longacre on Allegheny St. —Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garman, of Coatsville, who have been visiting friends in Bellefonte the past week, returned home, Friday. —Misses Beulah Smith and Rosetta Ward, two bright and accomplished young ladies of Altoona, are visiting friends at Pine Grove Mills. —Remember that no paper will be issued from this office next week. That means we will be celebrating 4th of July in a true patriotic manner. —Miss Daisy Barnes, of Bellefonte, attended a class reunion which took place at the Lock Haven Normal last week. She had a most delightful time. —Mr. and Mrs. Edward Owens and children left Friday morning for Bradford where they visited friends. Mr. Owens is one of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co's efficient clerks. —Laird Curtin and Hugh Crider left Thursday evening for Philadelphia from where they went to Hartford, Conn., where they attended the Trinity College commencement exercises this week. —D. Lee Noss and Daniel H. Martin, of Rochester, have been visiting friends in Bellefonte the past two weeks. The young men returned to their work Thursday morning, having had a most enjoyable visit in the old town. —Harrison Walker, the lawyer, to keep himself stocked with fresh eggs for omelet, fried, soft and hard boiled, and omelet, had his chickens in an Ohio hatchery, 100 of piping chicks, which he will nurse until fit for stew, fry or roast, if the chicken thieves don't veto his intentions. —Col. Hugh S. Taylor left Thursday afternoon for Pittsburgh where he is one of the Board of Examiners of the 2nd Brigade N. G. P. That evening the Board examined all the officers of the 14th Regt., and on Friday evening they examined the officers of the 18th. Col. Taylor returned home Saturday. —Mrs. Annie Casswell and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Coatsville, who had been guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, left Saturday afternoon for Clearfield accompanied by Mrs. Kirk, Mrs. Casswell, with her daughter, are visiting her brother, Rev. Morris Swartz, while Mrs. Kirk is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rinesmith. —James Dawson, formerly of Bellefonte, but for many years a resident of Blair county, spent Sunday with his brothers in Bellefonte. Mr. Dawson has been an engineer for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. for over 30 years. He is recognized as one of their most trusted employees. He is now running an engine on the mountain. —The signing of the agricultural fair bill by the Governor makes it possible for the Centre County Agricultural Fair Association to more than double its premium list for products of the farm raised in Centre county. The advanced premiums will rule at the fair in the fall and will make it worth the while of all farmers to begin to plan their exhibits now. —Charley Waring, who has spent the past two years in South America, having a splendid position in connection with the construction of the Panama canal, arrived home in Philipsburg, Saturday morning, and is being cordially received by his legion of friends. Mr. Waring is well and favorably known in Bellefonte, having served in Co B during the Spanish American war. He was the tallest man in the company. —Keep in mind the exchange, the ladies of the Methodist church intend holding on Saturday, June 29th. In addition to all kinds of bread, pies, cakes, potato salad and good things to eat which they will have for sale they will also offer a fine line of fancy and work aprons. It will be just the place to lay in the extras for the Sunday dinner as well as get a good apron to wear in serving it. The place will be the vacant store room, corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, lately occupied by Roan's grocery store. —The Pennsylvania railroad company has decided to erect a new signal and switch tower in the Bellefonte yard. It will be located on the north side of High street, where the watchman's box has stood heretofore, the latter having been moved far enough away from the track to give room for the location of the tower. When it is completed an experienced man will be stationed there whose duty it will be to display the proper signals for all trains as well as operate all the switches. It will be a great convenience as well as time saver for the trainmen.

—Miss Marie White, of Williamsport, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte. —Herbert Hassinger, of Williamsport, is visiting his parents at Pleasant View. —Have you noticed the special bargains that are advertised at Willard's Bazaar? —Mrs. J. B. Gentzel and granddaughter, Clara Cole, has been visiting friends at Williamsport. —Thomas Fleming, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in Altoona as a guest of his son, Thomas. —Mrs. Cyrus Labe, of Altoona, arrived in Bellefonte Thursday and became the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lobe. —Joseph J. Rhoads, First Assistant Engineer of the Philadelphia Division of the P. R. R., spent Sunday with his friends in Bellefonte. —Clark Carson of Altoona, arrived in Bellefonte Friday, being called here on account of the serious illness of his father-in-law, Harrison Kline. —Mrs. Irvin Underwood and little child arrived Monday from Renova and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Underwood, on Spring St. —Joe Runkle, the plumber, is making repairs to his residence on East High street. By the time he gets through with it he will have a regular palace. —The butchering business is undoubtedly a good one, inasmuch as L. C. Gettig has just purchased one of the hand-somest delivery wagons in Bellefonte. —Mrs. Frank Derstine and baby, of Altoona, has been visiting in Bellefonte for the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Donahy. —Mrs. Sue D. Spalding, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of Mrs. George Potter on Linn street. Mrs. Spalding's maiden name was Miss Sue Potter. —David Allison Russell, of Burgettstown, who was one of the graduates at the Pennsylvania State College has been employed as chemist for the Bellefonte furnace company. —If you want to see something neat and tidy just go and look at the cement block building at the Harris residence, on Howard street. "It's a peach" and was put there by Haupt Bros. —Austin Bartley and wife, after spending a week with friends in Lock Haven and Bellefonte, returned home on Monday to Altoona, where he holds a good position with the Penna. railroad. —James Shook, who has been a student the past year at Juniata College, Huntingdon, arrived in Bellefonte Friday evening. He was accompanied home by his sister, Miss Grace, who was attending the Commencement exercises at the College. —Mrs. Harry Stevenson, of East High street, with her sister, Mrs. Jesse Underwood, of Sunbury, are now enjoying themselves among the Pocono Mountains, visiting her parents. From there they will go to Virginia, to the Jamestown exhibition. —E. P. Roan, the Bishop street grocerman, is the only merchant in Bellefonte who closes up at 6 o'clock in the evening. Instead of his business decreasing it is increasing right along. The people have sense enough to know what is about right along this line. —The other day Mrs. Clarence Herr, of Bellefonte, lost a pocket book containing a small amount of money and some other little trinkets. It was found by Harry Covert, who is in the employ of Col. W. F. Fred Reynolds, who delivered the same to the owner. It was a good act. —Company B, is having magnificent drills. Most of the fellows have been issued their uniforms and will soon be ready for camp. They had the pleasure of being drilled on Friday evening by Lieutenant James G. Taylor who recently graduated from West Point. He put the boys through a course of sprouts. —L. T. Munson is getting things in readiness for moving his house on Allegheny street back some fifteen or twenty feet, then have it cased with brick and thoroughly remodeled inside and out. Most of the stone for the foundation wall are already on the grounds as well as the brick for casing the house. —Grant Charles did not stay in Ridgeway but is back again as second clerk in the Bush house. When he went to Ridgeway it was with the expectation of becoming head clerk at the Hyde house, where Horace Seltzer was located, but when he got there Seltzer decided to stay so Charles returned to Bellefonte and took his old position at the Bush house. —James Seibert, the Bellefonte machinist, has purchased what was known as Rhoads skimming station located at Waddle, along the Bellefonte Central railroad. He is tearing it down and will use the lumber in building his machine shop along the P. R. R., east of McQuistons carriage shop. The building has good timber in it and well suited for the purpose of Mr. Seibert. —A worthy citizen of the town made the remark that one of Bellefonte's business men complained that he needed the help of some boys, but was unable to find any to take jobs that he could give boys but found them scarce. The gentleman first named told him there was no scarcity of boys and he could find quite a number in idle play all day if he sought out the place-but to get them to accept useful employ, there's the rub. —Thursday a large number of horsemen attended the big horse sale at Millheim. Among those from Bellefonte and vicinity were Henry Kline, D. M. Kline, Thomas Jodon, J. B. Gentzell, Abe Baum, William Carson, John Reark, Christ Beener, John Meese, Frank Warfield, A. C. G. Wagner, John Grove, Kurt Wagner and Frank Grove; Kline, Wagner and Nagney bought horses, and they are good ones. —Edward T. Gregory, agent for the National Biscuit Company, underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lock Haven hospital, recently. Several weeks ago Mr. Gregory moved his headquarters from the Brockerhoff house in this place to the Fallon house in Lock Haven. Prior to his leaving Bellefonte he complained of not feeling well and was under treatment for stomach trouble. He suddenly grew worse when it was found that he had a bad attack of appendicitis and that an immediate operation was necessary. When the operation was performed that evening it was found that the disease had made rapid advance and his condition was quite serious. Since the operation, however, he has been getting along splendidly and there is little hope now for his speedy recovery, a fact that his many friends in this place are extremely glad to know.

—What do you think of "cold feet" in summer time? —George Love, who lately joined the ranks of the Benedic, was down from Altoona to see his wife. —Mrs. J. B. Roan, of Bellefonte, is visiting her sons, John and Harry, who reside in Philadelphia. —Miss Daisy Brislin, who is one of the instructors in the Soldiers Orphan School, at Chester Springs, is spending part of her vacation in Bellefonte. —Among the eight who took the Civil Service examination on May 4, at this place, Miss Sarah McClure, daughter of William McClure, got the highest percentage. —Supt. John D. Meyer, after attending the Franklin and Marshall commencement and visiting friends in Philadelphia, was circulating among his friends this week. —Mrs. McEntire and her daughter, Nancy, who have been visiting friends in Bellefonte, Howard and Williamsport the past month, returned home to Pittsburgh on Sunday. —Mr. and Mrs. William Bollock, of New York, are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Seibert on Allegheny St. Mr. Bollock is a civil engineer and is employed by the U. S. government at Panama. —A. Baum has had some sick horses the past week. That is the kind of luck that knocks all the profits out of the livery business for days and weeks, when horseflesh commands the present high prices. —W. C. Storm, the barber, contemplates moving to Seattle, Wash., to which place his family has already gone. He is offering his barber shop in the First National Bank building for sale. It is a good location and no doubt he has disposed of it by this time. —Tuesday morning Samuel Rine caught a trout that measured 21 inches and weighed four pounds. It was caught under what is now the new pumping station and the Yeager swing factory. Some says there is a hole under there from which he has taken 38 or 39 large trout since April 15th. —James Corl, Commissioner's clerk, left yesterday noon to attend the Democratic State Convention at Harrisburg, today. On this trip he will make return to the State Treasurer of the expenses incurred in holding the recent primaries in Centre county under the new act. The amount, as calculated, aggregates $624, which may be reduced some by the department, after being audited. —The Undine Picnic, at Hecla Park, will be the point where nearly everybody will go to have a good time on the 4th of July. They have arranged a large list of amusements for this year and there will be plenty of diversions to take up your time. Splendid music will be given at concerts and for dancing. There will be trains running to and fro about every hour of the day. —Dr. Brockerhoff is having the wood-work and trimmings on the outside of Temple Court touched up by the painters, and the building as a result appears more massive, under the few changes in color that have been applied. Sammy Williams is doing the work and it includes the exterior of the postoffice which is in the corner room. Of course he won't attempt to go inside that department, just now, for a while. —Mrs. Roland Kelley, of Beaver Falls, arrived in Bellefonte Friday and became a guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston, who after spending several months at the Bellefonte hospital, was taken to her home on Linn street last week. She is much better and the indications are that in a short time she will be able to get around as usual. Mrs. Kelley will take her mother with her when she returns home, where Mrs. Johnston will visit her children until she regains her strength. —Monday, Jack Decker, the II., was six years old and in the evening his papa and mamma celebrated the event by giving the young man a birthday party. There was a large number of girls and boys present and they had a big time, papa enjoying it as much as the little folks. During the evening refreshments were served and the tables fairly groaned with good things of endless variety. It is unnecessary to say that choice viands disappeared as by magic. After an evening of fun and enjoyment the little folks went to their homes, wishing Jack would live to enjoy many more like occasions. —Milton Johnson has beautified his residence on Spring street with several coats of yellow paint. It looks all right and is a big improvement to that locality. Just south of it, on the same side of the street, Harry Yeager is making extensive improvements to the Tripple homestead, and by the time he gets through the people who once knew it will know it no more as the Tripple home. The entire house has been elevated about twenty inches which raises it out of the ground. On the rear a kitchen is being built above which will add another bedroom and a bath room, on the south side of the house will be an additional porch; when completed Mr. and Mrs. Yeager will have an up-to-date home. —T. C. Godfrey, who has been the efficient physical director at the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. since the opening of the gymnasium, has tendered his resignation, to take effect Sept. 1st. He has accepted a similar position in the Y. M. C. A., at Batavia, N. Y. The reason assigned for this move is he wants to get closer in touch with his parents who are well up in years, and who reside at Buffalo. Mr. Godfrey, while here, has shown himself to be a professional instructor pertaining to physical training in the gymnasium. Besides this, he possesses more than usual musical ability, and in this way has been a wonderful help in the work here. He is also a christian gentleman and lives a life worthy of emulation. We wish him success in his new undertaking. —The physicians have practically given up hope of restoring James Kane, of Bellefonte, to health again. He made a brave struggle for life but fate seems to have been against him. A couple of years ago he fell from a ladder, the result of which he received a strain in the neck which afterwards developed in a large hard lump. He consulted the local physicians for sometime when he finally went to the University of Pennsylvania where he received treatment but it did him little good. He returned home and since then he has been slowly getting worse. It is believed that the struggle will soon be over. While he was in the hospital his daughter was also in the city receiving treatment, but the saddest of all was the recent death of his son. It is said that a trouble never comes single and this is a practical demonstration of this old maxim.

—Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy and Miss McGovern are visiting friends in Pittsburgh. —Dr. R. G. H. Hayes and daughter, Ellen, returned home Tuesday morning from Atlantic City. —Gregory Curtin, of Pittsburg, is a guest of his parents, General and Mrs. John I. Curtin, on Curtin St. —Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Labe who have been guests of Bellefonte friends, left on Monday for their home in Altoona. —Miss Jennie Crittenden, after a pleasant visit at home, left Monday evening to resume her duties at Waterbury, Conn. —Mrs. Eber Rothrock and little child, arrived in Bellefonte, Monday evening, from DuBois to visit the Ott home on High street. —Mr. and Mrs. H. D. W. English, who have been guests at the Furey homestead, left for their home in Pittsburgh, Monday. —Miss Boyd, who has been a guest at the home of Mrs. Wesley Gephart, on Linn street, left Tuesday morning for her home at Danville. —Miss Caroline Anderson is quite ill at her home on Bishop street, with appendicitis. It is very likely she will have to undergo an operation. —Miss Valeria Penrose Shissler, of Detroit, Michigan, who is well known here, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Louisa Bush, on Spring street. —Mrs. Richard Malliein, wife of Rev. Richard Malliein, is visiting her son, William Malliein, manager of the Pennsylvania Telephone Co., of Bellefonte. —Burgess Curtin has issued orders that no fire crackers or other explosives shall be set off within the borough limits previous to the evening of July 3. Now, boys, hold in your little thunder gusts. —Wesley Hendershot landed a trout 20 inches long Tuesday morning. It was one of the German brown trout that do so much damage among our smaller trout. It was caught out near the spring. —Dr. Hiller arrived in Bellefonte, Saturday, after taking a special course at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. He now will spend the balance of the fishing season along the various trout streams. —The court house gang are figuring around on having another outing at Fishing Creek this year. Up to this time they have not come to any definite arrangements. The boys certainly had a fine outing last season. —You will note that the time table of the Central Railroad of Penna. in this issue contains the corrected schedule that went into effect recently. The change in some of the trains, while not extensive, is sufficient for the traveling public to sit up and take notice or will be in danger of getting left at a critical moment. —Woods Sebring arrived in Bellefonte, Tuesday, and became a guest of his brother Dr. John Sebring. He hardly had gotten his hat off in the house until the Doctor wanted to show him the sights from his automobile. He is a son of John Sebring, Sr., of Loveland and at one time was a clerk in Green's drug store. —Friday, July 15th an interesting game of ball will be played on the glass works meadow, between the Cherokee Indians Base Ball Team, and a selected nine from Bellefonte. Two games, one at 2:00 and another at 8:15 p. m., will be played. They travel in their own Pullman car and are accompanied by a band. Admission 25 cents. —Dr. J. Coburn Rodgers was a recent visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Rodgers and Col. and Mrs. James Coburn, on Allegheny street. Dr. Rodgers is now permanently located at Freeand, Luzerne county, and has a very large practice. He is getting along splendidly, and for a young physician, has a bright and prosperous future before him. —Curt Wagner, the miller, now is in the push. On Friday he received a new Stanley steamer of the same pattern as owned by John Olewine and Dr. Seibert. He brought it from Lewisburg by the way of Williamsport and on the trip had regular auto weather, enough rain to drench him to the skin and make the roads almost impassable but the steamer pulled him through in fine style. —The local Salvation Army picnic at Hecla Park, Wednesday. They marched from their hall to the depot, playing the bass drum with their colors flying in the breeze. There is more in this outing than the people first imagine. A week more ago a festival was held to raise money to take poor children to the park and give them a day of real enjoyment in this famous pleasure resort. Had it not been for the good ladies in charge, the probabilities are that a number of these children would have had to remain at home. They report as having a most excellent time. —The Lutheran Children's Day exercises took place Sunday evening in the Lutheran church in the presence of a large and appreciative audience. The interior of the temple of worship was beautified by clusters of pretty blooming flowers which tended greatly to increase the cheerfulness of the surroundings. We would like to name all those who took part and compliment each on their success, but time or space will not permit. Suffice it to say that those who took part acquitted themselves well and made a favorable impression. The music, by the choir, was also up to the standard, and exceedingly pleasing. The address made by Rev. Barry, the new pastor, was an appropriate one and that pleased the congregation, especially the little ones. He is rather a fluent speaker and no doubt will give excellent service to the people who called him to be a shepherd over them. —H. D. Loveland, ex-shepherd of Clinton county, arrived in Bellefonte a few hours on Wednesday morning. He has been in poor health for several years and had been spending a week or so on the top of Nittany mountains with his only uncle, David Rossman, who is an old soldier, belonging to the 14th Regt. Mr. Loveland was also rusticated among friends in Snow Shoe. He thinks that the pure mountain air has had an exhilarating effect upon his entire physique, and he has been greatly benefited. Although a strong republican Mr. Loveland paid a high compliment to the Centre Democrat which we fully appreciate. Another good republican, standing by, said that he voiced the sentiments of Mr. Loveland. The bouquets came thick and fast but we will try and not let them turn our heads. Mr. Loveland went to Miesburg where he took dinner with his son-in-law, Dr. Huff, and in the afternoon proceeded to his home at Jersey Shore, although for years he had been a resident of Lamar.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker and children are visiting friends at Millintown. —Miss Minnie Cherry left on Tuesday for a visit with friends at Atlantic City and Philadelphia. —Rev. J. Allison Platts left Wednesday morning for Coudersport where he will deliver a lecture. —Miss Mary H. Linn left Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Baker in Altoona. —William Bilger, J., who has been bookkeeper at the Eckenroth paper store, has accepted a position in the Bellefonte postoffice. —Willis Williams left Wednesday for Altoona where he has accepted a position with Kramer's large wall paper and painting establishment. —Mrs. James Hughes and Miss Emma Green returned home from Snow Shoe Tuesday evening where they had been visiting the camping party. —Miss Roxanna Brisben, of Centre Hall, passed through Bellefonte Monday on her way to Freeport, Ill., where she will visit friends several months. —Miss Margaret Sechler returned Wednesday morning to her work at Baltimore after a delightful visit with her parents and sister in Bellefonte. —Charley Scott, the professional 1st base man, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. He was on his way to St. Mary's where he will play the balance of the season. —A new 5 and 10 cent store will be started the beginning of the week in the vacant room next to C. C. Shuey's store. The store will be run by Vincent Bauer. —Wade Cruse, who has been the billing clerk at the Central R. R. for the past two years, has resigned and has accepted a position at E. J. Eckenroth & Brother paper store. —Mrs. A. Katz leaves on Saturday for an extended trip to Lewistown, Philadelphia, New York and Atlantic City. Mr. Katz expects to join her at the latter place on his vacation. —Friday evening class No. 5, of the Bellefonte United Brethren church, will hold an ice cream and cake festival in the lecture room of the church. The public is cordially invited to attend.
