

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Mrs. Claud Cook and daughter, Miss Grace, went to Warren where they became guests of Mrs. Cook's sister.

—Mrs. Benjamin Gentzel and Miss Cole, who had been visiting friends in Williamsport, have returned home.

—Mrs. George VanDyke and daughter, of Altoona are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Noll on Spring street.

—Mrs. Frank Hall and Miss Olmstead, of Harrisburg, who has been visiting Mrs. D. H. Hastings, have left for their home.

—Frank Graham, of Sharon, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte, has left after having an enjoyable time here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Houser, of State College, passed through Bellefonte recently on their wedding tour to eastern cities.

—“Teddy” Hamilton, of New York, who had been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hamilton, has returned home.

—Miss Lowry, who has been visiting friends at different places over the state, arrived home, after having a most enjoyable time.

—Miss Lulu Hoover, one of the waitresses at the Bush House, was very ill recently which was thought to be an attack of appendicitis.

—Miss Ruth Jones, of Wilkesbarre, has been a guest in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rees, on Reynolds Avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnston, of Pittsburg, were recent visitors in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston on Linn street.

—James Bailey, the tonsorial artist, has accepted the position of Company barber in Co. B. Mr. Bailey will accompany the boys to the camp.

—Merrill Shearer, who is employed at the Nittany Furnace, has a slight attack of blood poison coming from picking a little blister on his hand.

—Dr. Thomas C. VanTies has returned from a delightful visit among friends in different parts of Pennsylvania. He didn't venture out of the state.

—Miss Helen Bible, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George Bible, of Philadelphia, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, on North Spring street.

—Mr. Shaffer and John Cole, of Zion, were thoughtful enough to leave some samples of choice home grown strawberries on our desk for sampling. They certainly were fine.

—Fred H. Cota, of Pottsville, formerly secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., spent several days in Bellefonte as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin. He is always a welcome visitor in Bellefonte.

—Frank G. Kirkland, of Binghamton, N. Y., was a recent visitor in Bellefonte as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Daggett. He was a former clerk at the Bush House and his friends were glad to see him.

—Friday evening of this week, at 7:30, the first of a brief series of talks on his European travels, will be given by Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, in St. John's Reformed church. The public is cordially invited.

—J. S. Burns who is a student at the Pennsylvania State College, after spending two days in Bellefonte at the home of Miss Elsie Green on High street, will leave for New York City where he will spend his vacation.

—W. W. Swengle, who at one time was located in Bellefonte, as a life insurance agent, is now one of the active promoters of the Sunbury Brick Co., at Paxtonville. He is in Bellefonte this week on business, connected with that enterprise.

—The newly elected officers for the Bellefonte Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle are as follows: Past Chief, William Emel; Noble Chief, Bernard Stover; Vice Chief, Jessie Derstine; High Priest, David Barrett Jr.; Venerable Hermit, C. D. Young; Trustee, Thomas Hazel.

—Mrs. A. A. Hoffman, who took ill last January with typhoid fever, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Harrison Walker on Linn street, has had a long siege, being confined to her bed most of time since then. In the past few weeks there has been a marked change for the better.

—W. Harrison Walker, Esq., and A. Hoffman were to Williamsport on Saturday for the purpose of bringing home a new Buick touring car and landed in Bellefonte without any mishaps, making the entire trip on the high gear. Their Cadillac gave them good service for several years, now they have something better and speedier.

—Wm. A. Moore, supt. of the Nittany furnace, went to Altoona last week and returned with a new Ford runabout automobile. It is a clever machine and just the thing to travel to and fro from the hotel to the plant. Billie Waddle and George Grim are likely to catch the same idea ere long, as they seem to be making more coin out there than they know what to do with.

—The auditorium in Petriken Hall has been leased for several months by a firm that will give “moving pictures and illustrated songs” entertainments of about 15 minutes program for a small admission. The program will be changed at frequent intervals, and the character will be such as to interest and attract all good people. This lease provides that the hall will be under the control of the W. C. T. U. for any regular entertainments as heretofore, and moving pictures will be given on open dates only.

—The Cherokee Indian base ball game, scheduled for Bellefonte on last Friday, petered out. First it was announced that the game had been canceled, and naturally no one looked forward to the event. Friday morning the Indian aggregation by special car unexpectedly arrived in town which caused some excitement among our local sports. In a short time they had a good team gathered together for the onslaught. The Indian band rendered some noisy selections on the street that scarcely came under the head of music. In the afternoon when the game was to be played there appeared to be some uncertainty in regard to the finances; after some parrying the manager of the Redskins withdrew the team and the game was off. Owing to the intense heat the attendance was small.

—Don't forget “Gypsy Camp,” Wednesday and Thursday July 10th and 11th.

—The dates for the great Centre county fair have been fixed for October 8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th.

—Miss Ione Donachy, who underwent an operation at the Williamsport hospital, is getting along nicely.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gentzel returned to their home in Altoona after a pleasant visit at Pleasant Gap.

—Miss Eva Wieland, of Bellefonte, celebrated the 4th of July at Fishing Creek. She reports having a fine time.

—Dorothy Sourbeck, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sourbeck, has been quite ill with the whooping cough.

—Monday evening Mrs. Murry Andrews entertained a number of her lady friends at her home on the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets.

—While riding a freight train Lawrence Cowher had the misfortune of breaking his arm on Wednesday of last week. The accident happened near Julian.

—William Austin, of Milesburg, and Harry Baird, formerly of that place, but now an efficient clerk in the post-office at Juniata, were pleasant callers here the other day.

—Roy Coldron, of Lewisburg, arrived in Bellefonte the other evening and became a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bilger. Mr. Coldron had the misfortune to lose his pocket book on the train containing $28. The money was in a wallet in his hip pocket and accidentally slipped out.

—The terrific thunder gust Saturday evening was accompanied by heavy hail in the eastern section of the county, doing considerable damage to wheat and other crops. There was no hail at Bellefonte, but the down-pour of rain was heavy and lightning and thunder were vivid and terrific.

—Edward Owens has returned home from Bradford where he went to visit his brother, and a day or two afterwards his brother took seriously ill with appendicitis and was taken to the hospital where he received an operation. Mr. Owens' wife and family have been visiting friends in Altoona.

—A young wedding party arrived home sometime during the past week and went to the groom's home in the West Ward. On Monday evening a bunch of boys and girls went to serenade them and for nearly two hours they kept up the jollification. At last the groom opened the window and threw them two lemons. Some angry kind neighbors telephoned for the police to disperse the crowd.

—Tuesday, James Furst, Esq., and Charis McClure, both of Bellefonte, took the examination before the State Board of Examiners, in Philadelphia, that will permit them to practice in any court in the state, especially the Superior and Supreme courts. The passing of this examination makes them full fledged lawyers. We trust that this will be the commencement of a successful and useful career.

—The reception given recently by Mrs. Dr. Thomas R. Hayes, at her residence on Allegheny street, to the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, was a grand success. Whenever there is anything to eat, these societies always grow to an immense size, and thus Mrs. Hayes on this occasion entertained about seventy ladies. She did it in such a delightful manner that everybody was highly pleased.

—Frank Crissman, son of Homer Crissman, of Bellefonte, has joined the bugle corps of the 5th Regt. N. G. P. and will go into camp with the boys at Tipton, Blair county. Frank is young and small, but he can keep pace with the best of them in sounding the bugle call. He, perhaps, will be the youngest member of the guard in camp, but that won't prevent him from being tossed fifty feet into the air from a blanket.

—Last Sabbath the Bellefonte Presbyterian congregation had the pleasure of listening to Rev. Samuel L. Boston, of Pittsburg. He delivered two plain practical sermons, which were listened to with wrapt attention. Rev. J. Allison Platts, the pastor, officiated in the Huntington Presbyterian church both morning and evening. In the afternoon he made the principal address at the laying of the corner stone of the new Presbyterian church at Mt. Union.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has gotten tired of having their depot in Bellefonte being made the rendezvous for a crowd of girls whose only business here is to flirt and meet young men for purposes that are suggestive and beneath a young lady who has respect for herself and family. The company has taken steps to break up this practice. The other day a young lady thought she was flirting with a drummer when she discovered that the victim of her eyes was a railroad policeman who gave her some sound advice to promulgate to her friends. This is a warning which, if not heeded, will give Sheriff Kline additional business.

—One of the most active men for his age in Bellefonte is Steel Hunter, the carpenter who has reached the 77th milestone in the journey of life. This week he was on a roof patching it up with the sun pouring his hot rays upon him. He got through with the job but he says that it will be a cold day before he will be caught doing the same thing. We might just add here that several weeks ago Mr. Hunter and his good wife, through the courtesy of John Olevine, took their first automobile ride. They went to Salona, where they spent a day with friends. Mr. Hunter had his automobile cap on and he just looked like a dead game sport. They had a delightful trip which was thoroughly enjoyed by Mr. Hunter and wife.

—The Fourth of July passed off in this county with the usual local celebrations and picnics. Hundreds of thousands of fire-crackers, rockets, and other explosives kept a 24 hour boom, bang, with all the other attendant noises, so common on Independence day, and our town was kept in a continual roar from morning until night by old and young, male and female, in attestation of their appreciation of what our revolutionary fathers achieved in freeing our land from the tyranny and oppression of George the III. There were no accidents so far as we can learn, and about everybody was celebrating in some manner, even to having an overflow of tangefoot. During the day our town was unusually quiet, as there was a general exodus to the woods, or along a shady brook to spend the day in comfort and quiet. Several hundred went up along Spring Creek where many families and parties enjoyed a delightful outing. The more strenuous ones took in the sights at the famous “Hecla Park.”

—Mrs. Claude Jones, of Tyrone, is a guest at the Armour home on Linn street.

—Mrs. J. Will Conley and daughter, Miss Nellie, have been visiting friends in Ohio.

—Mrs. W. Harrison Walker attended a reception given at Lock Haven recently.

—Mrs. Rogers after visiting her son, Dr. Coburn Rogers, at Freeland, arrived home Tuesday.

—Mrs. Zane Gray was a guest of her brother, Philip Waddle, at the Bush House, on Saturday.

—Herbert Hull, his mother and son, Clarence, left Tuesday for Dubois, where they will visit friends.

—D. L. Bartges, wife and little grand daughter, of Earlston, were pleasant callers in our sanctum.

—William Dorworth, of Schenectady, N. Y., spent his fourth of July vacation with his parents in Bellefonte.

—Miss Laura Wilson, who has been a guest of Miss Bell Hoover, left Monday for her home at Lancaster.

—Mrs. H. D. Haagen, of Tyrone, spent a few days the past week with her father, Dr. Hafer in Bellefonte.

—Miss Kate McCoy, one of the efficient compositors in the office, spent her vacation with friends in Altoona.

—Miss Bess Cooney, who had been working in a large millinery store at Reading, has returned to Bellefonte.

—Herbert Sheffer, of Milroy, spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sheffer, on Curtin street.

—Mrs. Wade Cruse is visiting her home at Salona. Mr. Cruse is now installed as bookkeeper in Ekinroth store.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Black, who have been visiting friends in Bellefonte the past week returned to their home in Altoona.

—Mrs. Joseph Apt returned home on Saturday from a five-week's visit with her brother and sister at Bedford and Punxsutawney.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Barlett, who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, in Altoona, returned home Monday evening.

—Mrs. Clayton who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kilpatrick, has left for Philadelphia. She was accompanied by her son and grandson.

—William Sanders, filer at the Babcock Mills, at Ashtota, Pa., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Haines on Beaver street.

—Mrs. Charles Fredwell and daughter, Martha, and Mrs. George Kerstetter, all of Harrisburg, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeager on Spring street.

—Col. W. Fred Reynolds has purchased a beautiful Shetland pony for his two sons. The boys are as proud of it as though they had gotten the fastest trotter on the track.

—Hon. H. B. Young, of the Auditor General's department, was in Bellefonte recently looking over the books and papers at the Bellefonte Hospital. He found everything in first class shape.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Kibler and Miss Lucy Taylor, who have been guests here the past few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson on Lamb street, left Saturday afternoon for their home at Coalport.

—Abe Baum's big gray horse, one of that handsome, mated team, died recently. A few days before the animal “kicked the bucket” Mr. Baum was offered $400 for the team. That's the time he missed it.

—Mrs. James Wan returned home on Monday evening from a delightful visit with her mother, at Belleville Pa. Her daughter, Miss Irene, who went with her mother, will remain there during her school vacation.

—Chester DeVoude, one of the greatest actors traveling in repertoire, will be in Bellefonte the beginning of the theatre season. No doubt Mr. DeVoude will have a crowded house every night, as he is a great favorite here.

—Mrs. John I. Rogers, who has been visiting Mrs. D. H. Hastings for a week last Saturday for her home at Philadelphia. She was accompanied by Miss Madeline Rowe who will visit the Rogers home for a few weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Murray Andrews have opened their residence for the Summer on the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets. To add to their enjoyment while here they received recently two fine driving horses from Valley Forge.

—Prince de Crop, of Belgium, and Mr. Walls, of the Spanish legation at Washington, D. C., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Reuben Valentine south of Bellefonte. They left for Boalsburg where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Boal.

—Rev. Father McArdle, of Bellefonte, and Rev. Father, Corcoran, of Snow Shoe, left on Monday morning for Loriet where they will spend one week in prayer. All of the priests in this diocese go to this retreat once a year and are shut off from the outside world.

—H. S. Cooper, of Galveston, Texas, spent a day or so in Bellefonte last week at the home of the Misses Benner, on High street. It will be remembered that a number of years ago he was superintendent at the Bellefonte Electric Light plant, and while here was married to Miss Mame Morris. He is looking well and still stands about seven feet in the air.

—Norman Kirk, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, left Bellefonte Saturday for Clearfield county where he will sweat his jacket pitching hay and running after the binder in the wheat field. He is quite a lady's man and, no doubt, he will find some out there that will strike his fancy. Several of his companions in Bellefonte ought to have gone with him and perspired a little in the hayfield.

—The installation of Rev. Barry, the new pastor of the Bellefonte Lutheran church, will take place on Thursday evening, July 18th, with the usual ceremonies. Rev. Parr, of Lock Haven, and Rev. Barry, of Hartleton, father of the pastor to be installed, have been chosen to officiate upon this occasion. The Lord's Supper will be administered in the same church, morning and evening, on Sabbath following, July 21.

—Lee Adams, son of the late County Commissioner Frank Adams, formerly of Bellefonte, was married recently to a young lady at Hudson, N. Y. They will go to housekeeping in Schenectady, N. Y., where Mr. Adams is employed in a large electrical works. Lee is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College and an enterprising young man. His many friends in this vicinity wish for him much happiness and success in his matrimonial venture.

—Harold Twitmore, son of Alvin Twitmore, who is employed at Williamsport, spent a short time in Bellefonte as guests of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Twitmore.

—Charles P. Hughes, Esq., one of the most prominent attorneys at the Erie county bar with his little son Cresswell, were visiting at the Hutchinson home on Howard street last week.

—Dr. Jones shipped “Ash,” a race horse, to Clearfield, over the Central R. R. P. The horse was entered in the 2.30 class at the races there on the 4th of July and the smallest purse is $300.

—Mrs. Samuel Miller, Mrs. Sarah Satterfield, Mrs. Samuel Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Demp Meek, Mrs. James Waddle, attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Stuart in Tyrone Monday of last week.

—Miss Helen Landis left recently for a delightful trip West. This week “Dutch” Brouse took to the woods—we mean to the water, along Fishing Creek. When a fellow's girl leaves he must put in the time somehow.

—James Pierpoint, who was married to Miss Jennie Reynolds, and who is now located in Philadelphia, was greeting his friends in Bellefonte the other day. He was quite a stranger and thus met with a hearty welcome.

—Strawn, the Bellefonte broker, sold out his establishment to Harry Garber and he and his wife left Wednesday of last week for Scottsdale where he expects to go into the hotel business. He sold his horse and buggy to Frank Warfield. The outfit is alright and Mr. Warfield is proud of it.

—Dr. Thomas R. Hayes celebrated his 63th birthday July 1st, at his home on Allegheny street. The Doctor looks much younger than his age indicates, and he gets around remarkably well. He and his estimable wife are kept busy always doing something that will benefit humanity in one way or the other.

—While working at his father's saw mill William Shope was struck with a bolt from the machine. He was knocked down and suffered a great deal of pain. He was taken to his parents home on Thomas street where he received medical treatment. He has been getting along as well as can be expected.

—Dr. J. Allison Platts, of the Presbyterian church and C. N. Meserve, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., have gone into the chicken business on a large scale, and within the last few months they have been successful in hatching out 500 little peeps, some of them are large enough, already, to put in the stewing pan. They have a cypher incubator and they found it an easy matter to gather a big flock of thoroughbred chickens. Dr. Platts has only lost ten small chickens out of all the eggs he placed in the incubator which is a good record. If you want spring chickens there is the place to go, but get there at daytime and not at the wee small hours of the night.

—Miss McClellen, is visiting friends in Altoona.

—Miss Edna Meyer has been visiting friends at Barnesboro.

—Miss Mary Crider left Monday evening for a visit to Atlantic City.

—Miss Belle Lowry, of Bellefonte, is the guest of Miss Maud Bonnell, in Tyrone.

—While unloading some goods from a wagon in front of the Haag Hotel on Tuesday, a barrel rolled on Harry Haag's leg fracturing the limb near the knee.

—John Gross, wife and two children, of Finley, Ohio, visited friends in Bellefonte and Axemann recently. Mr. Gross is employed in the tool works out there and is getting along tip-top.

—Beginning with next Sunday the Methodist Sunday School, of Bellefonte, will convene at 9.30 o'clock in the morning, instead of 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon. This change will continue until after the warm weather.

—Miss Minnie Cole, a teacher in the Reformed Sunday School, gave her class an outing at Hecla Park, Tuesday. She ought to have had a couple of real nice young men down there who would have kept her company.

—Miss Rebecca Hewes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Hewes, of Erie, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hutchinson, on Howard street. Miss Harriet Ray has her in town and she is showing her the sights of our beautiful town.

—Conductor H. V. Reamer and wife are entertaining Mrs. David Olds, of Newark, N. J., and Mrs. F. M. Clark, of Williamsport, at their home on Allegheny street. The former is a niece of Mrs. Reamer and the latter is a sister.

—Edward P. Gamble, deputy factory inspector, of Altoona, paid Bellefonte a visit on Monday and as a result a number of boys and girls under 14 years of age were sent home as it is against the law to employ children under that age.

—W. Harrison Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte, has been appointed the attorney in the estate of the late Mrs. Barbara Long, of Porter township, Clinton county. This is a large estate and the business has been placed in honest and competent hands.

—Next Sabbath afternoon, the Sunday school at Coleville will observe Children's Day. It will take place at 4 o'clock when a most excellent program will be observed. You are invited but don't forget to take something with you for the collection. The school needs the money.

—Miss Florence Denius, who the past two years has been stenographer in the sales offices of the Potter-Hoy Hardware company, will resign her position and will go to her home in Watsontown for a month's rest, prior to her marriage to W. S. Mallalieu, manager of the Pennsylvania telephone company at this place.
