

The Racket.

Ice Cream Freezers

in 2, 3, 4, 6 and 8 quarts—the celebrated "Freezo" make, will freeze ice cream in five minutes.

Window Screens

in all sizes at 22, 25, 35 and 40 cents.

Cushion Tops

and backs, all ready to put the cushions in—a special at 19 cents—just the thing for porches and hammocks—other styles at 25 and 50 cents. Cushion cords in all the popular shades, 25 and 50 cents each.

You can do better at The Racket—they sell for cash.

E. P. IRVIN

POTTER TWP.

POTTERS MILLS.

Potter township has invested in a new road machine and now we feel confident we are going to have better roads under the good management of our present road master, Jas. Carson.

Bob Himer met with a painful accident on Thursday, he was a shopping stove wood in Decker valley and cut an awful gash on the top of his foot which required nine stitches. Dr. Alexander dressed the wound; he is getting along very well.

Dr. Alexander and Lena Smith spent a day last week at the home Geise Wagner.

Irvin Stover, who is working at Burnham, spent a few days with his parents. Ruth Smith and Nellie Wilkinson are spending a few weeks in Millin county. Quite a number of our town people, and also of Colyer, attended children services at Centre Hall Sunday evening, the service was fine.

Cal. Rossman and wife, of Siglerville, spent a few days with his brother at Tusseyville, and on their way home Saturday took dinner with Michael Smith.

Rail Foost and wife, of Altoona, are spending a few weeks with her parents, Samuel Bitner's.

Mrs. Roxanna Hanna, of Milroy, is visiting her home at William Blairs. Spruce town takes the lead in childrens services, so the writer was told by one that attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Palmer are the proud parents of another daughter.

Harry Spangler, wife and two children, of Chicago, are visiting her parents, John Wikison.

John Lucas, wife and children, Mrs. Heckman and son, from the West, spent Sunday at John Reishes.

Chas. Bitner has received the appointment for fish and game warden for this district.

Dr. Alexander is quite busy attending the sick in this community.

COLYER.

James Barr and wife, from Monessen, are at present visiting his mother Margaret Barr, here.

Miss Agnes Boal, of Altoona, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Jordan.

Mrs. Robert Glasgow, and son Fred, spent a week visiting friends at Linden Hall.

Mrs. P. C. Bradford and son Carl, of Lemont, spent a week with her parents here.

Mrs. C. C. Gettig left Friday for Michigan where she will visit friends and relatives for several months.

Mrs. Mary Colyer and Mrs. Wm Colyer, Jr., of Centre Hall, spent one day last week at the home of Amos Lee.

Mrs. Belle Kerstetter had the misfortune of falling in her yard dislocating her wrist also breaking one of the bones in her arm.

Miss Matilda Fortney, of Altoona, spent several weeks visiting her friend Miss Ruth Rossman.

Mrs. Charlie Geary and daughter Louis, of Altoona, are visiting a few weeks at home.

Miss Blanch Philips and sister Ella, of Milroy, spent a few days with their parents here.

Miss Ella Smith is visiting friends at Colyer.

HAINES TWP.

WOLF'S CHAPEL.

Hay making is in full blast now.

Calvin Gilbert spent the 4th with his aunt, Mrs. Henry Waite at Renova, and took in the sights at Lock Haven and Williamsport.

George Jackson, from west Brushvalley, spent Saturday night and Sunday in our valley.

Gertie Musser, of near Madisonburg, spent a week visiting friends here.

Mrs. D. D. Breen and children spent Sunday with her brother Warren Winklebeck and family at Aaronburg.

Thos. Sholl and wife recently paid their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Yearick at Sunbury, a visit.

Mrs. Derlin Musser and son Paul, spent Tuesday at Enoch Kreamer's.

Tammie Arney spent Sunday with her mother, north of Fiedler.

Jennie George and Anna Ryan, spent Sunday at John Durst's.

MILES TWP.

CENTRE MILLS.

Rev. Bixler and family, of Rebersburg, spent the fourth fishing at this place.

Eva Moyer is visiting her sister, at Freeland, prior to her trip abroad.

Mrs. Margaret Bailey and children, of State College, and Arthur Kline and wife visited their parents J. A. Kline's, here.

Several young people, of Rebersburg, picniced in the Mayes woods on Monday.

David Moyer, wife and son, of Centre Hall, passed through here on Saturday.

Rev. Hass, of Madisonburg, called on our community on Monday.

UNIONVILLE.

Hen. Fred Lose, of Pleasant Gap, grandson of W. T. Johnston, came into the court house the other day expressly to see that funny man they call "Domino." Fred's a nice boy, but he must watch that the girls don't run off with him.

Dave Pratt came down the valley on a visit to his parents. After the train passed Martha station, the god-Morpheus toyed with him and David fell into a deep sleep and did not waken till the brakeman called out "Snow Shoe Intersection!" when he awoke to realize where he was at. Poor fellow, had to hire a man to bring him back to Unionville.

On last Friday evening, John Hipple, residing on the John G. Hall farm, had the misfortune to have two fine horses killed outright, on the railroad crossing at George Morrison's, and his wagon partly demolished. His son Reuben, 19 years old, was driving the team, and had just unloaded and was starting for home, but before he came to the crossing, a through freight came thundering down the valley and Mr. Morrison warned him not to cross till the train had passed, but a box car standing on the siding prevented him from seeing how near the train was and thinking he could cross, made the attempt but the horses' heads and shoulders had just gotten fairly on the track when the engine struck them killing them instantly. The young man escaped without injury. The team was valued at $550, and is a serious loss to Mr. Hipple.

Last week, Mrs. A. J. St. Clair, Mrs. D. Buck and Mrs. Sarah Smith, of this place, attended the annual convention of the Women's Foreign Missionary society at Altoona and report having had a most enjoyable and profitable session. The report of the financial secretary showed an increase of over $800, over last year's collections, which is certainly encouraging.

Children's day was observed in the Presbyterian church on last Sunday and, like all such occasions, was most beautiful and impressive. Solos were sung by Misses Laura Rumberger, Ruth Parsons and Margaret Brady. The flag and banner exercise was very pretty.

There will be an ice cream and cake festival at the Presbyterian church on Buffalo Run, near the Myers cemetery, on next Saturday evening. Everybody cordially invited. Go, have an enjoyable time and help the church along.

About 70 of our good people concluded to surprise Victor Wagner out of his boots on last Monday, it being the occasion of his birthday anniversary and they almost did it. The same old story—big table in their beautiful yard, loaded with good things, everybody happy; Victor, happiest one in the lot. Now why don't everybody have a birthday party? The way to be happy is to make others happy.

Mrs. Harry Black is lying seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Pratt.

Gladys Alexander and Hester Mattern, two bright little Misses of Julian, spent Sunday at Billy Parsons', the former's uncle.

Billy Keatley, formerly high constable, concluded, and rightly too, that life wasn't worth living if one didn't "get on the band wagon and keep up with the procession" and the only way, he said that it can be done, is to buy the Centre Democrat, and down went his hand into his pocket and out came a big white dollar and he exclaimed "there you are." My, oh my, but Bill did look happy.

At a meeting of the school board on Monday evening, July 1st, the following teachers were elected for the coming school term: Grammar school, Prof. Jacob Fox, who taught our school so successfully last winter; and Miss George Steele, of Lemont, for the primary school; length of term, 7 months.

Miss Leah and Amelia Pike, a pair of pretty twin sisters, of Sandy Bidge, are bright little visitors at the home of Henry Irvin Stere.

Miss Lizzie Brugger, accompanied by Miss Margaret Buttorf, of Near Cumber-land, after spending her vacation of several weeks at her home, returned to resume her duties in the state treasurer's department, on Monday.

SPRING MILLS.

The Fourth passed off quietly; nearly everyone spent the day in other towns.

A lightning stroke destroyed the beautiful shade tree in the front of Robert Smith's yard so badly, that it must be removed.

Landlord Warren Wood and wife, were to Bellefonte on Monday.

The Grove surveying crew have finished work for the year and have returned to their homes.

Wm. Steeley and wife, from Sunbury, spent a short time with C. C. Cummings. James Crader died on Monday morning.

O. H. Rachau is selling ripe, luscious strawberries for Emanuel Shook every day. He one day sold five hundred quarts.

An antoist was trying to jolly a farmer, whom he met on the road and who had none of the latest looking wagons and a mule hitched in, said "Right nice looking rig you have there, Mr. Corntassel; can you tell me the difference between your rig and mine? Farmer: "Yes in my rig the jackass is in the shafts, while in your rig he's on the seat."

John Rishel, from Farmers Mills, moved his goods and family into his new store room here, and is ready to sell goods of all kinds. The store building is finished all but a coat of paint.

CENTRE HALL.

Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Deitzel are spending their annual vacation with Mrs. Deitzel's parents, Alfred Durst's.

An entertainment will be given in the Grange hall by the members of the Y. M. C. A. from Milesburg.

Mrs. Lee is with her son Arney, in Allegheny. Arney and his wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter.

The members of the Lutheran charge are having their parsonage repaired and painted ready for the pastor's occupancy.

Mrs. Benner Walker has been very ill for the last few weeks. Hope she will soon be well.

Wm. Glenn and family, of Pittsburg, visited with his brother Rev. D. Glenn.

Last week Jacob Shearer raised one of the largest barns in the county.

Milton Benner spent several days with friends in town. He is working in a store in Pittsburg.

Harry S. Meyer, of Williamsport, who is a Centre county boy, is out as a candidate for prothonotary in Lycoming county.

PORT MATILDA.

Hilda Williams, of Martha, was home over the 4th.

S. G. Behres and Victor Weston, of Pitcairn, were visitors in our town last week.

Wm. Weston, of Gallitzin, spent Tuesday at home.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a girdele social on the evening of July 20th.

Tom Robison wears a broad smile since the arrival of a little girl at his home, to stay.

Mrs. S. C. Miller, of Altoona, is spending a few days at home.

W. T. Hoover transacted business in Sandy Ridge last week.

J. C. Marks is erecting a carpenter shop.

Eugene Harshberger, of Pittsburg, spent Thursday at home.

William Robison expects to leave for Jamestown, on the 15th.

G. Z. Funk, of Tyrone, was home over the 4th and called on his lady friend, Ruth Williams.

M. B. Williams and Elsie Funk took in the Cherokee Indian ball game, at Tyrone.

Lucy Cowher has returned to White Haven where she is undergoing treatment for consumption in the sanitarium at that place.

M. B. Williams, extra telegraph operator, worked at Gardner last week.

H. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, was seen on our streets on Tuesday.

The chicken and waffle supper held at the U. B. parsonage, was well attended clearing about $75.

MT. EAGLE.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Martin L. Gates were, Ethel and Belle Leathers, Ruth Sence, Lena Confer, Ester Woomey and Florence Aikiey.

Mrs. Joshua Phesant is visiting friends and relatives in Altoona.

Mrs. Samuel Bower, of Howard, visited at the home of Mrs. J. B. Leathers.

Albert Bathurst has returned home from Hayes Run and in a few weeks he will go to Coatsville.

The ladies of the K. I. G. club were entertained at the home of Miss Pearl Gates, last Friday evening. Miss Nancy Glaze and Ruth McKee, of Jersey Shore, were present.

Some of our boys and girls spent the 4th at Laurel Run, trout fishing. They report having a good time.

Miss Alice Reeder visited in Lock Haven last week.

Miss Pearl Gates and Maud Diets have been re-elected to the schools they taught last winter.

Mrs. Howard Butler and two pretty little daughters, Margaret and Elenor, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mrs. J. B. Leathers.

Theo. Bathurst departed Tuesday for Coatsville where he will be employed in the forge.

Misses Nora and Carrie Shank are visiting in Phillipsburg.

Miss Elgie Barger, of Curtin, spent Monday with Mayme Smoyer.

Mrs. Melvin Smith and daughter Mabel, are visiting Mrs. T. G. Leathers.

COBURN.

The children's service held on June 30, was a success in all respects. The music was grand, the children recited and sang well, the audience was greater than the building could contain and the collection was one-half larger than last year.

On the glorious 4th Clyde Boob, of Aaronburg, and Mrs. Maggie Hosterman, of Millheim, were united in marriage by Rev. Garrett.

John Weaver, Orvis Meyer, Edna Kaler and Mrs. A. J. Stover, are the sick of this place, but all are improving except the last one named.

On Sunday evening William Brindle, of Fiedler, arrived here with a fine horse and buggy and took one of our ladies to church at Millheim. Can you guess who she is?

Merchant J. W. Glasgow added a brand new cck to his force to help run his business, but it requires a number of years till he has learned his trade well.

Reuben Harter's were among the first to have new potatoes on the 4th.

Mabel Duck, of Snow Shoe, visited relatives here.

Mrs. John Vonado and children spent several days at Woodward.

C. H. Meyer is not behind the times and is putting down a concrete pavement in front of his fine residence.

CURTIN TWP.

MARSH CREEK.

Jerry J. Foringer, of Mahaffey, was home to visit his mother and friends over the 4th.

The fourth lasted for two or three days for some of the people here—some didn't get home till Friday and Saturday.

The people are improving greatly around here as Wm. Butler put a new roof on his house and George Heverly built a new pig pen.

Rex DeLong, who is employed as a barber, at Renova, is taking a two weeks visit at his home.

Bert Foringer visited at the home of his sister at Snow Shoe for a few days last week.

Mrs. Wm. Robb is able to be around again after her serious illness.

Mrs. Toner Robb and child is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. Brickly.

George Heverly, wife and children, spent the fourth at Joseph Poorman's on the Ross Bell farm, and Wilson Boon and family went to Bellefonte.

MADISONBURG.

The farmers are busy making hay. Calvin Rishel and wife spent Sunday with T. C. Miller's west of town.

Miss Mayme Lambert spent Sunday with Mrs. N. A. Duck.

Our town can boast of having a prize fighter.

A few young folks from town attended the Sunday school picnic in Beck's woods.

N. A. Duck returned home on Saturday, after spending two weeks with her parents at Millinburg.

J. J. Gramley is busy remodeling his house.

The 4th of July was celebrated here with fireworks and balloon ascensions.

Married—Windom Crebs and Miss Catharine Royer.

Tommy Everet spent the Fourth at Williamsport.

GREENS GAP.

Miss Mabel Duck, after spending a few weeks very pleasantly with friends and relatives at this place, left for her home at Gramplan.

Lloyd Duck had a slight attack of blood poison but by timely aid of Dr. Smith, was soon up and around.

Mrs. Miller, of Madisonburg, spent Monday at F. A. Yearick's.

ZION.

Saturday and Sunday were very rainy days, much needed for the crops.

Some of our farmers began to make hay, which is a rather short crop owing to late and cold spring.

There will be no cherries, plums, peaches, or pears, in this vicinity, but is reported there will be an abundance of huckleberries.

H. Truckenmiller and H. B. Shaffer are busy with their strawberries which are a fair crop.

Alma Stein is employed by the Bellefonte Evangelical church as organist.

Charles Shaffer who was attending school at Lancaster, has returned home.

Fannie Stein spent Sunday at home.

G. Weiland and wife, of Philadelphia, are visiting the latter's parents, Wm. Shaffer's.

Cloyd White was very pleasantly entertained by his lady friend, Cora Corman, on Sunday.

Arthur Vonada was pleasantly entertained by his lady friend Lizzie Shaffer, on Sunday.

Mary Stein, of Philadelphia, is home on a visit.

Harry Rocky, of Hartford, Conn., is home on a visit and spent Sunday with his lady friend, Cora Corman.

Quite a number of our folks spent the 4th at Hecla Park.

The carpenters are busy working at the Struble home in Zion, which will be a very comfortable and attractive home when finished.

BENNER TWP.

SPRING CREEK.

Carl Hawkins, of Canton, Pa., spent a few days last week with his uncle Fred.

A picnic at the so-called Longreach was enjoyed by the people of Spring creek on the Fourth.

Edward Saxon spent his Fourth with the pretty girls of Scotia.

Mrs. Bradley and two children Katie and John, of Altoona, spent a few days of last week at the Beris home.

Levi Carroll, of Altoona, spent a few days of last week with his friend Joe Bertram.

Harry Crust and wife were pleasant callers at the home of Robert Hartle, Sunday.

HARRIS TWP.

SHINGLETOWN.

Those that spent Sunday at the home of E. W. Hess were: M. J. Smith, wife and daughter Mayme; J. W. Smith and Samuel Daughenbaugh.

Mr. Parker, of Altoona, is now visiting his parents in Shingletown.

Miss Margaret Musser spent Sunday afternoon with her friend Nannie Leech.

S. Kramer and family and William Kramer took supper with their aunt, Mrs. Lohr. Say, Mrs. Lohr, how do you like your new summer house?

Misses Nannie Leech, Margaret Moth-ersbaugh and Margaret Musser were at State College on Thursday afternoon.

Those Altoona boys are, enough to make we fellows jealous, for when they come around we get the back seat.

Mona Struble was pleasantly entertained by her friend, Maggie Roosen-hoover, Sunday.

When business is good the clock maker puts on more hands.

KATZ & COMPANY STORE NEWS!

Special Sale for

10 DAYS ONLY

American Beauty Corsets, including styles 94, 219, 285 and 129, always sold at 50c and 75c,

AT 39 CENTS.

We have made arrangements with the Kalamazoo Corset Co., of Kalamazoo, Mich., to have the largest Corset Sale we ever inaugurated. Remember the price, 39 cents.

KATZ & COMPANY,
BELLEFONTE, PA.

One-Half Price

You may take your pick of any STRAW HAT in the house at just one-half price.

Good selection of all the new shapes and every size. There's three months' wearing for you and at these low prices you won't want to miss the comfort.

One-fourth Off on all Outing Pants.

SIM, THE CLOTHIER,
CORRECT DRESS FOR MEN.