

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

NITTANY.

Dr. McGee, accompanied by Mr. Stoner, both of Mill Hill, were visitors here Sunday.

Henry Garbrick and wife, and Emanuel Garbrick and wife, of Zion, were guests of William Garbrick and family on Sunday.

Miss Pearl Winkelman, of Altoona, is visiting her parents and many friends here.

Joe Weaver and wife, of Hubersburg, visited friends here on Sunday.

Mrs. G. W. Young and grand-daughter, Mrs. Daugherty, visited friends in Lock Haven and Beech Creek several days last week.

Mrs. Ida Miller and children, of near Hubersburg, visited the former's brother G. S. Fisher and family on Sunday.

Mrs. S. C. Gobble, of Lock Haven, accompanied by her niece and nephew, of York state, were guests of B. F. Shaffer and family on Sunday.

Harry Stover and family, of Hubersburg, were guests of Mrs. Tate over Sunday.

On July 27, the members of the Ev. church will hold a festival at this place. Everybody come to Nittany, and have a good time.

Mrs. Carrie Sweely, of Avis, visited her mother, Mrs. Horace Winkelman, last week. Mr. Sweely, of the same place, spent Sunday with his wife at the home of H. W. Winkelman's.

Miss Bertha Weber has returned to Altoona; she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. William Weber, who visited friends in that city the last ten days.

Preaching in the Ev. church Sunday evening.

The Nittany cornet band will furnish music for the festival at Jacksonville on Saturday night.

Our farmers are busy making hay and some will begin cutting grain this week.

Mrs. William Brant and son Ralph have returned home after spending some time visiting friends at Lemont.

John Bohn, of Lemont, spent part of Saturday with his sister, Mrs. William Brant, here. He also spent Sunday with his lady friend at Mill Hill.

The McNitt & Huyett Lumber Co. employes were given several days vacation, the company having shut down for repairs.

Miss Carrie Shilling, of Clintondale, accompanied by a Miss Thompson, visited friends through here on Sunday.

MILESBERG.

Bessie Miles is visiting in Warren, Pa. among relatives and her young friends of that place.

Carl Keith and wife, of Altoona, were recent guests of Charles Ginter and family.

Ed Borst and family, of Pitcairn, Millie Borst, of Williamsport, were guests of Mrs. Crain and family.

Wm. Sprankle, of Stormstown, is a guest of his brother, T. E. Sprankle, and family.

George A. Snyder, after an illness of four years, six months, died on the 8th. Interment at Roland.

Ed. Crain and family, of Pitcairn, are visiting their parents.

Mrs. Ira Packer, of Yarnell, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Solomon Shay.

There is a movement on foot among some of the young men, to butt into each other, for the purpose of winning the affection of one of our fair sex. Those young men should use some "caution" in their undertaking, as it is dangerous for these young men to rob one of her affections. This may be true; a duel may follow; would be better to have your life insured in one of W. H. Musser's insurance companies for all your worth, and will the same to Miss Edna; Hecla Park picnic's in season, no telling what may take place.

AARONSBURG.

C. B. Bright returned home from a few days with friends at Lock Haven.

Prof. E. S. Stover and family, of Edenboro, spent one day last week at this place, his former residence.

Gillard Isenhover, who is employed at Lewistown, has come to spend a few days with his family.

Herbert Hosterman and wife, of Woodward, spent Saturday night with her parents E. G. Mingle's.

Mr. Miller and wife, of Jonestown, are the guests of his sister, Mrs. Donat, at the Reformed parsonage.

John Rupp and wife, of State College, visited his mother and sister a few days.

Geo. C. Stover and Mary Mauck and Mrs. Agnes Stover, of Millheim, spent one day last week with friends in town.

Rev. D. Schuyler and wife, of Centre Hall, were the guests of Mrs. S. J. Forster.

Mrs. Mona Crouse and children spent a few days with her mother at Lock Haven.

TYLERSVILLE.

Chas. Wolfe, of Williamstown, Dauphin county, is visiting friends and relatives here.

John and Jesse Moyer have gone to Huntingdon county where they have employment.

Quite a number of our people attended the festival at Greenburr on Saturday night.

The Sunday school of the Reformed church organized on Sunday by adopting a constitution. By a vote of 57 to 2 the suggestion to call the association a Bible school, was defeated.

Robt and Wm. McKee have secured employment in Nittanyville.

Ruth Mechtly left for Lock Haven on Saturday.

MADISONBURG.

E. H. Zeitler and brother Wm. spent Sunday at Wm. Limbert's.

Wm. Rishel, who has charge of a large flouring mill at Montoursville, arrived home to spend several days with his family.

Ex-treasurer Adam Yearick and wife, of Lamar, spent Sunday with friends in our town.

Grenoble Bros. have bought a threshing outfit and will soon be ready to meet the demands of the farmers.

In one-half day, A. H. Vonada, Herbert and J. F. Swartz, Joseph Rachau and D. C. Duck raked, heaped and hauled seven 4-horse loads of hay into barn on the farm of the former. A pretty good record.

When a man loses his head he must shoulder the responsibility.

PORT MATILDA.

Harry Moore, and family, of Black Diamond, were recent visitors among friends in this section.

James Moore and family, of Alexandria, accompanied by his brother Geo., spent a few days at their old home, the former having returned while Geo. will remain some time to assist his brother Lawrence, in putting away his hay and grain.

The members of the U. B. church will hold a picnic in Chaney Thompson's grove, near Laurel Run school house, on Aug. 19; everybody is invited and a good time is the object.

Mrs. Bertha McMonigal and family, of Blansburg, visited friends near this place a few days ago.

Hay is a good crop in this section and farmers are taking advantage of the sunshine and are busy putting it in the barns.

It would do good to see the broad smiles our miller wears, in the past few days; it is a boy, John says, "Yes, another miller for Port Matilda."

Martin Wickerman and family, of Tyrone, visited at the home of Joseph Cowher.

Sam Osman makes many and sly visits to Reese Hollow.

C. Reese met with an accident a few days ago, by being struck by a heavy plank falling from the hay loft 20 feet above him.

Chas Neff and wife, of Castanea, visited friends in this section over Sunday.

Chas Reese visited his best girl during the 4th of July, in Barnsboro, after which he transacted business in Climer, Indiana.

Ethel Custaborder, of Bellefonte, is visiting at the home of C. Reese.

Kate Reese, and Miss Neff, visited friends at Altoona and Tyrone.

A social party was held at the home of Joseph's on Saturday last.

UNION TWP.

Harry Lucas and lady friend, Miss Lucas, are starting for the smoky city where he is employed, and she will visit an indefinite time.

Misses Verna and Clara Watson visited at the Pownells over Sunday.

Father Wm. Spotts was so unfortunate as to fall from a cherry tree last week, hurting himself quite badly.

Miss Midy Brower visited at A. Lucas Saturday.

Alberta Lucas and wife, of Milesburg, visited at his home over Sunday.

Homer Fetzer has returned home to help his brother harvest.

Bess Fetzer spent Sunday at Runville. One of our boys seems to have an awful attraction for Tyrone; of course, one of the fair sex has looped him; cut it out, there is a girl nearer home that loves to talk to you.

Toner Hall was a pleasant caller at Resides.

Salavans Lucas was seen on our street on Sunday.

G. Barton was in the Hollow this week.

MINGOVILLE.

Hay making and harvesting are all the go now. Both these crops are exceptionally good considering the season.

The members of the Nittany Country Club held their annual meeting at the club house last Saturday evening.

The concert last Friday night was well attended.

Miss Mattie Peters spent several days with her sister at Mill Hill.

The Lutheran Sunday school from Lock Haven picniced at Hecla, last Thursday.

Harry Thomas, brother of Mrs. C. C. Workman, returned to his home in Pittsburg last Saturday. He spent his vacation here.

There have been complaints about chicken thieves in this community. Several parties had missing from their coops in one night, as many as forty-two chicks. We consider that this is a most cowardly act and suggest that the offenders cut it out, for they are suspicious and are being watched. Let this be a warning for those who offend lest you be found out.

ROCK.

The summer campers left Rock on Saturday for their homes at State College.

Howard Shuey, of Bellefonte, and lady friend, Miss Mary Walters, visited at Rock, Wednesday evening.

Lloyd Woome and family, of Bellefonte, visited the latter's parents, Harvey Benner's, Sunday.

Visitors at Ira Benner's on Sunday, were Wm. Saxton and family, Maurice Bohn and wife, Mrs. Mardica Benner, Wm. Thompson's, Misses Mabel and Mary Rob, John Walters, Grace Heaton, and Minerva Shuey.

Mrs. John Meyers, of Bellefonte, who has been very ill at her parents' home, Mr. Kunes is improving.

There will be a festival here, Saturday evening, 27, for the benefit of the church; will be held on the church lawn. Come and help the church along.

J. Harris Hoy's are busy making hay; he has a wonderful large crop, but Harris with his skill, will be done ready to harvest with the rest of the people.

JULIAN.

James E. Davis, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents here. Jim is now employed by the P. R. R. as a conductor in the Altoona yard, and has a good position.

Geo. Sones left on Saturday for Northumberland, where he will spend a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Fry.

Mrs. Beal's residence, which has just been newly painted by Eekenroth Bros. of Bellefonte, looks fine and the painting is well done.

The festival held here on last Saturday night, by the lodge, was well attended and the boys took in close to $60.

The United Brethren Sunday school held their children's service last Sunday, the program was first class; the decorations were beautiful and the church was crowded. The bass duet, by the Murphy brothers, was well rendered, as was also the singing throughout the evening.

Preaching service in the M. E. church next Sunday evening as usual.

Get busy occasionally and dust off your conscience.

Other people die that the undertaker may live.

SPRING MILLS.

Our farms are busy with the hay, and the golden wheat pods are nodding towards the sickle.

Two of our teachers, who enforced the vaccination law last year, have been granted schools in other townships; R. W. Bitner will teach the vike school in Penn township, and Miss Orpha Gramley will teach in Philipsburg. They have our best wishes for success.

Prices for butter have reached their summer level. They held up well on account of the backward spring, and the lateness of turning cows to grass, and the comparatively high price of feed.

Mr. Finkles have an ice cream restaurant added to their store.

Rev. E. Haney has secured a helper on his charge, so on that account, he finds time to teach school during the coming winter.

D. Landis' show was in our town last week. The people were pleased with it, and there was a good turnout.

Our schools were assigned as can be seen in another column.

Harry Allison has been appointed as health officer for Gregg township, by the Health Department. He is the man to see now about the health laws.

"A woman's bonnet would not cost much if it wasn't for the trimming," said the miserly husband, "neither would a man's whiskers" answered his wife.

Eggs are still 15c per dozen. This indicates that the consumption of this product is great and that there is little danger of overdoing the poultry business.

It is altogether likely that peaches and some other fruits will command high prices next fall as they are very scarce and so many were frozen.

Our attention through the last week has often been called by the bell of what the people here call "the strawberry war" selling the enormous crop of berries for E. P. Shook. We are informed by H. H. Rachau, the salesman, that he has disposed of over five thousand and a half, all raised on one acre, as fine a crop as ever seen in Pennsylvania.

A large part of the credit is due to efforts of Mr. Rachau, who is an expert orchardist and small fruit grower and a salesman of the first waters. The crop is now harvested for the season, with a large amount of orders unsupplied. To those who did not get their share, I would say that "we'll wait as the field looks promising for a crop next year."

We must not forget to say that the fine large sign for the strawberry war was made by our sign painter, C. C. Cummings.

OAK HALL.

Mrs. Burns and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. Biglow and children, spent Thursday at Lemont.

Mrs. B. E. Stamm and daughter, of Altoona, have come to spend a few weeks at the Peters home.

Gertrude and Mary Homan are visiting at Centre Hall.

Misses Zong and Tressler, of Pottery Bank, spent Friday at the home of Ed. Zong.

Messrs Barton and Wilcox, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday with their wives who are visiting at the Knopf home.

John Barton and wife, of Pittsburg, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Geo. Stover, of Centre Hall, visited her daughter, Mrs. Ishler.

Messrs C. M. Wagner and Geo. Hazel accompanied by Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Wagner, of Bellefonte, made a flying auto trip to the home of H. A. Wagner, Sunday.

Mrs. Krebs and Mrs. Geo. Glenn and children, of State College, visited D. B. Lowder and family, recently.

Mary Reish, of Boalsburg, did some sewing for Mrs. D. B. Lowder last week.

POTTER MILLS.

Squire Carson and wife, John Wilkison and wife, Harry Spangler and wife, of Chicago, spent Sunday at the home of Ammon Bubb, at Reedsville.

Layde Smith has returned from Burnham where he was employed 12 the hammer shops.

Rev. McElroy was visiting among his friends here last week.

Harry Spangler and family are visiting his father at Centre Hall, will leave for the home in Chicago, Wednesday, 17.

Dr. Alexander, wife and son, Elmer, spent Sunday at the home of Geise Wagner.

Mrs. Armstrong is visiting friends in Bellefonte, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Wm. McKinery has been quite ill the last few days, but is now on the way to recovery.

Our fish warden, Charles Bitler, and Prof. R. M. Bolyer, are helping make hay at Ney Bank.

Our skilled mason, J. R. Strong, has returned home after completing a fancy job of mason work for Prof. E. Elmer.

Ed. Allison has the heaviest field of grass in Potter township.

Ed. Boob has the biggest corn.

COLLEGE TWP.

Sunday was a nice day, and everybody seemed to enjoy it.

Miss May Boal and brother, Earl, spent last week at the home of Wallace Musser's.

Daniel Breen and family spent Sunday at the home of Samuel Breen's.

That our two young sports, William Breen and Marion Meyer, are sporting new buggies, rubber tire; now girls look out.

Mrs. Wallace Musser, and Mrs. Boal from State College, spent last week with friends in Philipsburg.

Miss Katie Breen spent Sunday with her friend Minnie Thomas.

George Lohr passed through here on Sunday in his new buggy; where was Norah, George.

Henry Dale spent last week with friends in Altoona.

The most of the farmers are through making hay.

Miss Lizzie Fishburn spent Sunday with friends at Pine Grove.

Shows seem to be all the go now.

LIVONIA.

We are glad to see the Wolfestore scribe is still on top, as we had an idea he was buried long ago.

Mrs. McManaway and Miss Katherine Meyer, of Millheim, were the guests of Jessie Adams, last Thursday.

Mr. Kline, of Sunbury, transacted business here on Friday.

T. N. Stover took a business trip to Bellefonte, Monday.

Our young people nearly all took in the festival at Greenburr Saturday evening.

Raymond Adams, who was shot on the 4th, is improving.

For first class ice cream call at Geo. B. Stovers every Saturday evening.

Experience never makes fools of wise men.

MOSHANNON.

On Monday evening Edw. Shannon and wife returned home after a most enjoyable visit to Harrisburg where they were guests of Mrs. Shannon's brother, Mr. Dale; while on their way they were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Harry Snyder, of New York.

Black, wife and son James, of Clearfield, are now being entertained at the home of Mrs. Black's mother, Mrs. Rankin.

Edith Lucas spent several days in Howard last week.

Mrs. Clyde Barger spent several days last week in Clearfield, at her parental home, and upon her return; she was accompanied by her sister, Ruth Beightol.

Reed Bierly and wife returned home on Saturday, after several weeks' visit with relatives in Port Trevorton.

Elizabeth Williams was a Clearfield visitor last week.

Mabel Duck, of Grampian, is now the guest of her friend, Rhoda Weaver.

Clementine Cramer and Rita Lucas, were recent visitors to Munson.

Mrs. Roy Spangler returned to Barnsboro on Saturday, after an enjoyable visit of several weeks with her father, Hugh Ward.

Sarah Wiggins, of Snow Shoe, was a caller in town on Saturday.

Margaret Kerin, of Houtzdale, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Wm. Kerin's.

On Saturday Lucy Lucas left for New Bethlehem, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Geo. Laurie.

On Tuesday Mrs. J. W. Howard was called to Milesburg to attend the funeral of her niece.

Thos. Gleason, Sr., was a visitor to Howard.

Mrs. Mary Rapp, our popular seamstress, has moved from Turnpike Ave. to the Hippie residence.

Harry Yeager, left for Scalp Level, where he has accepted a position of assistant section foreman.

Nellie Tubridy spent several days in Bellefonte last week.

Mrs. Kate Grover, of Milesburg, is visiting at the home of her son, A. A. Grover.

F. D. Weaver and wife transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

The S. M. Club held their annual picnic on Sunday at the famous "Iron Bridge" Glen. The party consisted of both Snow Shoe and Moshannon's most popular young people, which numbered 50 in all.

BOGGS TWP.

Jerome Confer and family, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday here.

Ada Watkins and Amelia Lucas attended the festival at Curtins, Saturday evening.

Edward Confer spent Sunday in Lock Haven.

Mrs. Thomas Shawley is on the sick list.

HOLTS HOLLOW.

Mrs. Elsie Wiesel, of Williamsport, has returned home after visiting some time with friends here.

Grace Bard spent Sunday with Bessie Johnson.

Clyde and Edith Fetzer spent Sunday at Coleville.

Sarah Lucas, of Tyrone, spent a few days with her parents.

Geo. was the festival better than the ice cream supper at home on Saturday evening.

W. E. Stover is papering and otherwise improving his house; he recently purchased the home he now occupies, from J. H. DeLong.

Edward Gingerich had his lady friend to the festival Saturday eve. We now understand the attraction the lumber camp in the Narrows holds for him.

Geo. how many pigs do you have for sale?

HUBLERSBURG.

Herbert Decker and wife, of Pitcairn, are visiting their relatives and friends.

Margaret Bergstresser, of Renova, is visiting her uncle, Lot Bergstresser.

Chas. Taylor, of Mackeyville, spent Thursday night with J. P. Carner on his way from Centre Hall, where he purchased four cows.

Mr. Yeager, wife and three children, of Dubois, are visiting Mrs. Yeager's aunt, Mrs. Elmira Miller.

Winfield Dietz and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. Dietz's parents at Jacksonsville.

Mr. Yeager and family, Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Decker, were entertained at dinner Thursday, by J. H. Carner and wife.

While wheeling a barrow of stones, on a plank, at Mackeyville, W. H. Markle had the misfortune to fall about five feet, badly cutting his face and injuring his arm.

WADDLE.

J. S. Parsons, of Benore, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. J. E. Way.

Lettie Rye, of State College, spent Sunday at H. H. Evey's.

Claude Lomison, of Moshannon, is visiting his brother, Thos. Lomison.

We hear that a young man from Rebersburg calls quite frequently at our little town.

John Clark spent Sunday afternoon at State College.

Mrs. Way visited Mrs. David Gummo last week.

We hear there is going to be a wedding around here in the near future, for the people say they were after their license on Saturday.

Festivals are going to be trump for about a month; there will be one every Saturday night quite a while.

Some people are so exclusive that they object to even having common sense.

RUNVILLE.

Hello! Glenn Harris, waken up and give us a "puff" from your C. D. pipe.

Mrs. Wm. Johnston and two interesting little children William and Ruth, of Walaceton are the guests of Charles Lucas.

"Pinney" Price, of Snow Shoe, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Weaver home, at Milesburg.

The festival was largely attended on Saturday night