UNIONVILLE

Mrs. J. C. Smith and daughter, Miss Kate, left on an extended visit to friends in St. Marys, Ridgeway, Dubois and will take on their return trip, Clearfield and Philipsburg. At St. Marys, they will visit the aged Mrs. Hall, mother of the Hon. J. K. P. Hall who is an aunt of Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Iva Kizer Baird, after several months' visiting friends in this section, will return to her home in Utah on Monday.

Mrs. Harvey Gilliland, of Pittsburg, is a pleasant visitor at the home of her brother, James Holt.

Herbert Way and family, after a pleasant visit to their parents left for their home in Pittsburg, on Monday.

The lawn sociable held in front of W. B. Parsons residence on Saturday evening was a most enjoyable affair. Net results for the church $9.55.

Messrs T. E. and Joe Griest are off on a couple weeks' visit to friends in York and Adams counties. These gay brothers will need looking after, as they are both handsome men there is danger of their being kidnapped. During their absence T. E. Griest's extensive mercantile business will be looked after by his accomplished daughter, Miss Marie, assisted by their chief clerk, George Moran.

One evening last week, John Rowan went to the pasture field to bring home the cow. He searched every where for her but couldn't find her. He hurried home in great alarm and told his mamma that he believed the cow had run off or was stolen out of the field. Later it was discovered that he forgot to take her to the field in the morning, and there the poor cow stood chained to the empty manger all day; and now, if you want to make Johnny grin, just ask him if he found his cow yet.

Our base ball boys will hold a festival in the grange hall on Saturday evening, August 3rd, for the purpose of raising funds for their special benefit. Patronize the boys.

Mrs. Thomas Lambert, of Somerset county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Irvin G. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pratt and their bright little son, Riley, accompanied by Miss Hall, all of Baltimore, are visitors at the Pratt home.

That popular retired farmer, Master Hogan, has not forgotten how to raise potatoes. He presented the scribe with a basket full of a fine specimen of the Irish apple variety which he raised in his garden.

For the good of the order, I desire to state, that the column of "Farm Notes" published weekly in the Democratic Watchman, is alone worth more than the subscription price of that valuable home paper.

Mrs. N. B. Spangler, of Bellefonte, is a jolly visitor at the home of Mrs. Thomas Fisher. I want to tell how much she enjoyed driving the horses in the binder and seeing the golden sheaves drop off on the side, but she wouldn't let me—so there now.

Mrs. P. J. McDonnell left on the 1.23 train on Wednesday for Philadelphia to attend the funeral of her nephew, Frank Loughry. Deceased was a son of her eldest brother, M. C. Loughry and was a young man held in high esteem by all who knew him, with a bright future before him, and his death is a sad blow to his family and friends. The cause of his death being that dread disease, tuberculosis.

John Cadwallader, of East Braddock, had his little finger amputated and the next one to it badly crushed by the machinery in the steel works at that place.

FARMER RAN AMUCK WITH AXE

Crazed Michigan Man Kills Three of His Family.

WAS SHOT DEAD BY NEIGHBOR

Nunica, Mich., July 22.—Henry Scutcheon, a farmer about 50 years old, living near this village, ran amuck with an axe, killing his invalid son, his wife and her foster father. Scutcheon was later shot by Henry McClellan, a neighbor, whom the crazed murderer had also attacked.

The dead are: Henry Scutcheon, Polly Scutcheon, his wife; William Scutcheon, his 18-year-old son; George Anning, Mrs. Scutcheon's foster father.

The Scutcheon farm house had apparently always been a happy home, except for the cloud which the son's invalidism cast over the family. With no warning so far as is known, Scutcheon suddenly rudely attacked his son with an axe. He crushed the boy's head frightfully. When his wife interfered he turned on her and pursued the frightened, screaming woman from their house to the road, where he knocked her down with his weapon. He then rushed back to the house and murdered his foster father-in-law. Next he tried to destroy himself. The maddened man gashed his throat and wrists with a razor and took some parais green. His wounds did not weaken him and the poison did not take immediate effect. Axe in hand he returned to the road, where he had felled his wife a few moments before. The first blow did not kill her, and she had been carried into the house of Henry McClellan, nearby. McClellan rushed to another neighbor's for help.

When Scutcheon found that his wife was in the McClellan home alive, he smashed a window with his axe, jumped through it and again attacked her. This time he crushed her skull. He then left the McClellan home and returned to his own house, but when McClellan returned from his search for help the crazed man came out and started over toward him, saying, "I want you, too."

"I will shoot if you come across the road," replied McClellan, who had armed himself with a shotgun. Despite the warning, Scutcheon came across with murder in his glance. McClellan thereupon shot him dead.

AWARDED $2,049,336

McNichol Receives This Amount For Work On Philadelphia Filter.

Philadelphia, July 23.—Samuel Gustine Thompson, referee of the arbitration contract disputes between this city and the contracting firm of Daniel McNichol, filed the report of his findings in the prothonotary's office.

He awards to the contracting firm a total sum of $2,049,336.10, of which amount $394,810.55 is given to sub-contractors, leaving the actual award to McNichol, $1,744,725.55. The report shows that Referee Thompson awards McNichol $1,469,765.24 for actual cost of work done, leaving it to be inferred that the profit derived from the contracts was $377,960.31.

The contracting firm lost no time in securing its money, and City Treasurer Bringham paid out upon demand the sum as awarded by the referee. It was immediately redeposited by the McNichol firm in its own bank.

MAY BE POCAHONTAS' BONES

Skeleton Found On Site of Church Where She Was Buried.

Gravesend, Eng. July 22.—While excavating on the site of the old parish church where Pocahontas was buried and which was destroyed by fire in 1727, workmen unearthed a human skeleton. Much interest was evoked by the find, as it is suggested that the bones might be those of Pocahontas. The skeleton was submitted to experts, who, however, were unable to arrive at any definite conclusion.

LILIES MADE THEM ILL

New Explanation of Typhoid Epidemic at Trenton Hospital.

Trenton, N. J. July 23.—The latest theory advanced by the authorities of the State Hospital for the Insane, explaining the present epidemic of typhoid fever in that institution, is that patients wade into the pond of the institution for the purpose of picking pond lilies and amuse themselves by sucking the stems. The water of the pond has been analyzed and found to be infected with colon bacilli.

Pleading For Haywood's Life.

Boise, Idaho, July 23.—For four hours and a half E. F. Richardson pleaded with the jury for the life of William D. Haywood. Under order of the court the hours for the day's sessions were changed, and in place of sitting in the afternoon, court met at 6 o'clock in the evening. Judge Wood was informed by the jury that the extreme heat of the court room was too trying on some of the jurors, and he complied with the request for a late evening session. A verdict is expected this week.

Red-Hot Rail Driven Through Man.

Pittsburg, July 22.—Oliver P. Benson, 51 years old, one of the best-known iron rollers in the country, met a horrible death at the Carnegie Steel company, Braddock. Benson was standing in front of the rolls when a huge steel rail, red hot, came out of the rollers and passed through his body. Death was almost instantaneous.

Other Insects In Ants' Nests.

It is certain that ants intentionally sanction the residence of certain insects in their nests. This is the case, for instance, with the curious blind beetle, claviger, which is absolutely dependent upon ants. It even seems to have lost the power of feeding itself. At any rate, it is habitually fed by the ants, who supply it with nourishment, as they do one another.

Trivial.

"Trivial" is derived from the Latin for three ways and means the petty gossip of the crossroads.

Hindoo Girls.

Every Hindoo girl is a wife or a widow at fourteen. Girls have actually been married before they were a year old, and from four to six years they very commonly cease to be single. Eight is a marriageable age, and twelve is the maximum, except in a few districts.

Olive Oil.

Two tablespoonfuls of pure olive oil is said to contain more nourishment than a pound of meat or a cupful of butter and, being in a stage of natural emulsion, is digested promptly, making blood, fat and weight.

Women in Burma.

It is a remarkable fact that Burma differs from almost all other oriental countries in the freedom accorded to its women. They stand in every way at least on an equality with men. Girls share equally with boys in all inheritance.

An Old Marriage Notice.

There were some very candid persons in the time of George II. In 1731 the Gentleman's Magazine announced, "Married, the Rev. Mr. Roger Walms of York, about twenty-six years of age, to a Lincolnshire lady upward of eighty, with whom he is to have £3,000 in money, £300 per annum and a coach and four during his life only."

Fasting Animals.

Animals are often able to bear very protracted fasting. In the Italian earth- quakes of 1795 two hogs were buried in the ruins of a building. They were taken out alive forty-two days later, but very lean and weak.

Public Horse Baths.

In Guadalajara, Mexico, there are public horse baths, where the animals thoroughly enjoy swimming after the day's heat and dust. After the bath the horses are given a thorough scrubbing and rubdown in the shallow, shady part of the pool.

The Death Column.

In the ruins of Mita, Mexico, is the Death Column. The Indians say they can tell the number of years a person will live by the number of spans between his finger tips when he embraces the column.

Spanish Peanuts.

The only province in Spain where peanuts are produced is Valencia. There are two different sorts, one containing two nuts—probably known in America as Spanish peanuts—and the other containing three or four nuts, known in England as "giants." The first class is by far the most common and cheapest.

Eclipses.

Solar eclipses were noted by the Egyptians as far back as 691 B. C. The first eclipse recorded in history was of the moon by Ptolemy, who gives it as taking place March 19, 721 B. C.

Thanksgiving.

The Thanksgiving proclamation was originated by Sir Francis Bernard, captain general and governor in chief in and over his majesty's province of Massachusetts Bay. It was issued Nov. 4, 1707, and the form then used has been substantially adhered to ever since.

Reindeer Skin.

The skin of the reindeer is so impervious to the cold that any one clothed in such a dress, with the addition of a blanket of the same material, may bear the intensest rigors of an arctic winter's night.

Cyclopean Building.

The best examples of cyclopean building are at Baalbec. There are stones in the Baalbec walls thirty feet above the level, several of which are sixty feet long, twenty-four feet thick and sixteen broad, each stone weighing over 2,500 tons, all cut, dressed and brought from distant quarries.

Deaf Mute Instruction.

The first mention of the instruction of a deaf mute is in the writings of Bede, about 685. A Spanish Benedictine monk, Pedro de Ponce, taught the deaf and dumb about 1580.

Cocoanut Trees.

The cocoanut tree is the most valuable of plants. Its wood furnishes beams, rafters and planks; its leaves, umbrellas and clothing; its fruit, food, oil, intoxicants and sugar; its shells, domestic utensils; its fibers, ropes, shells and matting.

Mustard Cures.

Mustard is the nearest approach to a universal cure-all. Few pains will not give way before a mustard plaster, and a wide range of internal inflammations from colds and other causes may be stopped by its timely application. It is the first and best resort in threatened pneumonia, congestion of the lungs or determined colds on the chest.

White Ants.

The termites, or white ants, steal and store grain. As much as five bushels of grain have been taken from a single nest.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The convention of the Centre county Sabbath school association will be held in the Presbyterian church, Bellefonte, July 30 and 31. Each school is entitled to two delegates besides the pastor and superintendent. The opening session will be held Tuesday afternoon, at two o'clock, with devotional exercises by the Rev. J. B. Stine, followed by an address of welcome by the Rev. J. A. Platts, responded to by President C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg.

Tuesday—Praise service, conducted by the Rev. J. Allison Platts; Scripture and prayer, by Rev. W. B. Cox; "The Spirit's Help in Teaching," the Rev. S. Berger; discussion.

Wednesday morning—Reports of officers, districts, committees and election of officers; business; "Should the association take a religious census of Centre county?" the Rev. Ralph H. Bergstresser; discussion; "Children's Day" Mrs. W. Henry Schuyler; discussion; "A Glimpse Beyond the Horizon," W. G. Landes.

Wednesday afternoon—Devotional services, the Rev. F. W. Barry; "The Teacher the Public's Practical Friend," Mrs. I. R. Sechrist; discussion; "The Organized Bible Class," the Rev. C. F. Hall; discussion.

Wednesday evening—Scripture and prayer; "Parental co-operation with the primary teacher in the child's preparation of the lesson," the Rev. C. C. Snively; discussion; "Holding a Sabbath school convention in Rome," the Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt.

The officers of the association following: President, Prof. C. L. Gramley, Rebersburg; vice president, the Rev. M. C. Piper, Milesburg; secretary, the Rev. W. Henry Schuyler, Centre Hall; treasurer, A. Luckenback, of Bellefonte; primary superintendent, Mrs. H. W. Kramer, of Centre Hall; home department superintendent, the Rev. A. M. Schmidt, Bellefonte; normal superintendent, T. M. Gramley, Spring Mills.

WEDDINGS.

MILLS-LUCAS.

At Snow Shoe Intersection, by the Rev. J. Zeigler, on July 18th, 1907, Mr. John Mills to Miss Mollie Lucas, both of Centre Co.

HARKINS-PATERSON.

Walter Harkins, of Phillipsburg, was married Wednesday of last week to Miss Emma Paterson, of Fernwood, by Rev. S. E. Wilson.

JACKSON-JAMES.

Wm. A. Jackson, more commonly known as "Tom," was married to Miss Laura May James, of Black Bear, Rush township, where the groom has also for some years been making his home.

KENNEDY-GARMAN.

A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday the 17th, at Cumberland, Md., when Floyd C. Kennedy and Miss Mary Garman were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. McClellan Hicks. The marriage was performed in the Episcopal church at high noon. The beautiful ring ceremony was used. They left on an evening train, to spend their honeymoon trip at the Jamestown Exposition, Cape May, Atlantic City, Philadelphia, and New York. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Garman, of near Bellefonte. The bride was attired in white silk, trimmed with white satin ribbon and lace, white silk gloves, and a beautiful white veil and hat trimmed with white silk and carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. The groom is an industrious and a capable young man employed by the Penna. R. Co., as an inspector. They will reside in Altoona, on their return, in a newly furnished house, which is about finished. They start in life's journey with the best wishes of their many friends.

About four months ago Col. Austin Curtin left Bellefonte for Philadelphia where he entered the Presbyterian hospital for treatment. After laying on his back for five weeks, without seeing any good results, he got up and took the train for his home at Roland. He only remained there a short time when he went to Richmond, where he has been for two months. On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock he underwent a serious operation in the hospital at that place, and a telegram from his wife, to Gen. John I. Curtin, says that it was a success, and all indications point to his permanent recovery.

John Wood, a well known farmer, was found dead in a corn field on his farm about a mile and a half east of Sabula, Clinton county. Mr. Wood had gone to the field after eating his dinner to hoe corn. The field was a considerable distance from the house. Mr. Wood was a very old man, having passed his 75th year, and his death is believed to have been due to heart failure.

CENTRE HALL.

Last Sunday Jonathan Harter, of Millheim, was a visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. Rebecca Murray.

Hiram Lee and wife are at present on a visit to his brother Dr. Lee.

Mrs. William Lee left for Munson to join her husband on an extended trip, as he is in the painting business and may locate there.

Our townsman, George Dunkel, has been on the bum, and we hope he may speedily recover.

Edna Murray left last week on a short visit for Harrisburg, to visit her uncle, Aaron Harter.

Mrs. William Kerr, from Omaha, Nebraska, has gone to Millheim to sojourn with her many friends there.

The festival held on last Saturday night, by the Methodists, was a success, cleared $50.

Our butcher, J. G. Dauberem, is now running a sporty team and is doing at excellent business; John knows how to handle the trade.

Haymaking and harvesting are on hand and the scarcity of help is the great drag on farmers—women are seen in the fields taking the place of men.

We are glad to say that our early crop of apples is ready for the table and we long for apple dumplings.

SCHOOL TEACHERS ELECTED.

Since our last issue the following districts have reported the election of teachers for the winter term:

THAT John Kniseley, the hustling manager of the Garman House, Bellefonte, says that a square meal is as broad as it is long.

COBURN.

The Coburn cornet band is engaged to furnish music for the Union Co. Fair, on Thursday of fair week.

I. W. Daniel and wife, of Elizabethtown, are visiting at the home of G. W. Rodle.

Daniel Hosterman spent Sunday with his son John, who lives on the Neidigh farm, near Woodward.

A new boarder arrived at the home of J. Kerstetter recently.

W. J. Harter and wife, of Harter, W. Va., have left their lumber camp for a short vacation and will spend sometime with Mr. Harter's parents at this place.

Mrs. Susan Bressler, of Burnham, is visiting her friends here.

James F. Vonada, and family visited at Aaronsburg on Saturday.

John Stonebraker, of Maryland, is visiting his daughters, Susan, Helen and Hazel.

Tuesday afternoon death entered this place and claimed one of our most neighborly women in the person of Mrs. Eve Stover, second wife of Jackson Stover. She lived an exemplary life, was converted to God and enjoyed nothing so well since her conversion than to attend a truly spiritual religious service. Having a strong faith of a happy future, her spirit seemed to rise as her body failed, and she often said she had a great desire to depart and be with God. Her age was 36 years, 5 months and 23 days. She is survived by her husband and two sons, James Adams, of Ohio, and Martin at home. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Donat, on Friday, in the Reformed church here, and interment will be made at Wolf's chapel.

HAINES TWP.

WOLFS CHAPEL.

Farmers are beginning to cut their grain.

H. G. Miller and wife, of Rebersburg, have come to help C. W. Wolf's through haymaking and harvesting.

Mrs. Hannah Musser, of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday at Durbin Musser's.

Henry Beam and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Beam's parents, Henry Zerby's.

Some of our people attended the festival at Woodward on Saturday evening.

W. E. Boob is the happiest man in the community since that engine has come to his house; he was rather early for the thrashing season, but Elmer has decided to keep him. Congratulations Elmer.

J. D. Stover, wife and two children spent Sunday at Aaronsburg.

W. K. Haines and family spent Sunday at the home of his brother Chas.

David Burd and wife spent Sunday afternoon at Millheim.

Mrs. Kate Barner and children, of near Lock Haven, visited relatives here one day last week.

Martin Gilbert, wife and son Samuel, left last Friday for a week's visit with relatives in Snyder county.

WOODWARD.

The P. O. S. of A. festival, on Saturday evening, was a grand and successful affair. The crowd was large and the boys took in $120.

Archie Wittmyer, who was recently married to Miss Ella Arney, moved to Mrs. Arney's home at the summer mountain, where he is now father of the situation.

Miss Helen Dreese, a society leader of Lemont, visited at the home of Dr. Ardy.

It is reported that Wilson Ard went to Maryland to seek employment.

J. H. Corman and wife, I. A. Meyer and family, and H. S. Snyder and family, all of Coburn, visited relatives here one day.

W. E. Hosterman and family of nine, spent Sunday afternoon at Grampa Grandpa's.

John Bindle and wife and Wm. Burd and wife, transacted business at Millheim one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith and son Wesley, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday with Mr. Smith's parents.

Ben Halliley and wife, J. S. Weaver and wife, of Aaronsburg, and Adam Corman and wife, of Coburn, visited grandmother Corman who is almost 81 years of age.

Prof. Edgar Stover, wife and bright little daughter Grace, of Edinboro, spent a few days at Charley Hosterman's.

Two little girls are making their home at W. G. Hosterman's.

The hay crop in this section was large and the farmer's help was scarce, but Elmer Boob is henceforth not handicapped in this respect, for on Friday a new haymaker came to his place to stay. The little fellow is also good company for his 12-year old sister.

UNION TWP.

BELLE GROVE.

On last Sunday Rev. Kifer preached a very interesting sermon, in Bushs church.

The Free Methodists will hold their camp meeting at Phillipsburg, beginning Aug. 15.

Well, the harvest is here again. Farmers are all busy.

V. L. Wagner purchased a new binder.

Alfred Spotts is operating his binder this morning—George Bird is doing the shocking.

George Spotts brought a binder home yesterday, Frank Lannen, Frank Watson and Jacob Spotts were helping to get it in running order.

Miss Bathcart, of Pittsburg, and Miss Edith Spotts, of Bush Hollow, were pleasant callers at J. H. Spott's on last Tuesday.

Harry, James, Roy and Miss Bessie Fetzer are over on the Run cutting their harvest.

Mrs. Dora Shekley was to Bush Hollow to visit her daughter, last Monday.

Miss Bessie Lansberry has been on the sick list since she came home from Phillipsburg; Mr. W. S. Miller, at Julian, was very sick, but glad to know both are better.

There was quite a rumor in our little village on last Saturday evening. Better keep the cow bells hid.

Man is made of clay, but that doesn't prove that every fellow is a brick.

PENN HALL.

Haymaking is almost over here, and the farmers have started to harvest their grain.

D. J. Musser, who has been on the sick list, we are glad to say, is slowly improving.

Lucy Musser returned home last week after spending a pleasant vacation at Harrisburg.

Mrs. H. M. Smith and two children are at present visiting friends in Centre Hall.

Charles Kreamer, of Woodward, accompanied by his lady friend, spent Sunday at the home of R. B. Bartsge.

Mary Heckman spent Sunday with her friend Jennie Bartsge.

Wm. Keller visited his sister, Mrs. F. M. Fisher on Sunday; he was accompanied to Centre Hall by his niece Sarah Fisher.

An empty head is most easily rattled.
