Quite a number of family reunions Quite a number of family reunions have been fixed upon, for various dates, throughout the county. These reunions, bringing in assembly connections, are certainly pleasant gatherings and greatly to be encouraged. Such reunions are on the increase, and thus far have been most orderly, of strict decorum, and bring a connection to a knowledge of "where they are from" and lead to the building of many a family tree that would otherwise be marked oblivion.
