Miss Mary Mosebarger, who has been in Bellefonte the past year, left on Saturday for her home at Clearfield; she will be greatly missed by her many friends. The Theatorium, in Petrikin Hall, has been drawing nice crowds every night. The programme is good and can be seen by any lady or gentleman without the least hesitancy. Catherine Bower, a native of Aaronsburg, and recently a resident of Bellefonte, writes us from Milton to change the name on her paper to Mrs. C. W. Snyder as she was married recently at that place. The first floor of the stone residence on Bishop and Spring streets will hereafter be used by the Academy as a recitation room for the Primary and Intermediate departments under Miss Overton. Mrs. E. E. Davis and two daughters Isabel and Gerald, of Bellefonte, left Saturday afternoon for Phillipsburg where they became guests at the home of Mrs. D. H. Thomas. They expect to be absent several weeks. To keep the friends of Col. Austin Curtin informed as to his condition we would state the indications up until this time, are that he will permanently recover. The operation was performed in a hospital at Vicksburg instead of Richmond. Mrs. Albert Engles Blackburn with her two children, Jack and Eliza, of Philadelphia, are pleasant visitors at the handsome residence of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler. They came here to avoid the great heat of the city, and thus will remain here during the month of August. L. C. Godfrey, who has been physical Director, at the Y. M. C. A. here for the past few years, left Monday for his home at Buffalo N. Y., where he will spend some time visiting his parents, after which he will go to Batavia, N. Y. and take charge of the Y. M. C. A. at that place. Mr. Godfrey was accompanied home by his mother who has been visiting in Bellefonte. Several weeks ago Mrs. Thomas O. Morris, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Warren, Ohio, arrived in this place with her family, from here they went to Millheim to visit friends. Last week her oldest son fell and broke his arm. The boy withstood the pain like a little man, and this is getting along as well as can be expected. His father passed through Bellefonte Saturday on the way to Millheim. Mr. Morris at one time, was in the employ of L. C. Gettig, Bellefonte, and is now in business for himself. Brachbill, the furniture dealer, has a good thing in the line of baby carriages that he persists in advertising right along in another part of this paper. We can't recommend them as there has been no occasion for any such furniture about our abode, but we notice that lots of sensible people are buying and using the articles which is the best recommendation. He also has a clever kitchen cabinet, about which he talks a great deal. It is just the thing for a thoughtful husband to send home to see if it will make the "better half" smile. Try it and watch the result. Again we say, that we are not in position to do that either, but take Billy's word for it--will work like a charm.

See Willard's advertisement in another column. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fitch, of Flemington, were pleasant callers. Prof. James R. Hughes departed Tuesday morning on a business trip to Holdaysburg. Miss Emma Waite, one of the efficient operators of the Bell exchange, accompanied by Miss Mamie Hill, left Thursday morning for a ten-days sojourn at Atlantic City. Willard, the new merchant, in Criders Exchange, has another important announcement in this issue. By the way, "Willard's Way" of selling goods is becoming popular. While attempting to climb over the fence at the Union cemetery, one evening recently, Mrs. Robert Armstrong fell and sprained her ankle so badly that she could not get home without assistance. Will Katz and family have moved from the Brokerhoff house back to their home on Spring street, the damage caused by the recent fire having been repaired. "Billy" says if it wasn't for that boy of his they would board. There is that little "if" again. Mrs. J. C. Harper and daughter Helen left on Friday morning for Lynn, Mass., to spend several weeks on a visit to her son Clarence, who has a good position there with a large manufacturing establishment for which he is the purchasing agent, and is doing very nicely. The Lock Haven Democrat says: Rev. R. Crittenden, of Bellefonte, the pioneer Sunday school organizer and worker, stopped off here between trains Friday on his way to Newberry, near Pittsburgh, where the operation will establish a Sunday school. This indefatigable worker in the Master's vineyard is 76 years of age, but possesses the vigor of a youngster and pursues his work with his accustomed energy. George W. English, a graduate of Bucknell, was operated on for appendicitis at Pittsburg, on Friday. Mr. English and his wife, who was Miss Esther Godcharles, of Milton, reside in Cleveland, where he was taken ill on Sunday evening, July 20. He at once telegraphed his father, who is a noted physician in Pittsburg, and he hastened to Pittsburg, where the operation took place on Friday. The operation was successful and Mr. English is getting along nicely. The young man is a nephew of Mrs. Morris Furey, of near Bellefonte.

Miss Helen Everhart is visiting friends at Curwensville. Dr. Lee B. Woodcock, of Scranton, was a recent visitor in Bellefonte. Prof. John Harrison, of Jersey Shore, was circulating among his Bellefonte friends on Saturday. Sim Baum returned Thursday from New York and Philadelphia where he selected his fall and winter clothing. Mrs. G. F. Shook, of Spring Mills, was a caller and inspected the operations of the printer and folder at work upon the Democrat. Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt, of Renovo, attended the funeral of little Daniel Woodring, which took place in Bellefonte last week. Mrs. John Bloom, of Philadelphia, has been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Tomazine Lane on Allegheny street. Dentist Ward boasts of having the first apple dumplings this season from the fruit of a tree in his yard; well, he should be happy. Misses Kathryn and Margaret Duppala, of Bellefonte, have returned home after spending several weeks with their aunt, Mrs. J. C. Brown, at Potters Mills. Ed. Smith, formerly of this place, but who has been located at Laquin, Pa., with a large lumber operation the past year, has been here on a visit the past week. Councilman W. H. William T. Meyer, of Philadelphia, brother of J. C. Meyer, Esq., of Bellefonte, will spend the month of August in Centre county. He will look after his piano tuning patrons, thereby combining business with pleasure. He can be addressed at Aaronsburg. L. C. Gettig, the Bellefonte butcher, has placed in his meat market what is known as a silent cutter. That is a machine that will cut meat for puddings and sausage that cannot be heard when three or four squares around, as was in the case of the old style choppers. Harry Jackson, clerk of the 5th Regt., N. G. P., with George Knisley, were among the large number of Bellefonters who attended camp at Tipton, Thursday. A severe electrical storm swept over the camp about 5 p. m. and one of the amusing incidents was Jackson and Knisley trying to keep dry under a small umbrella. James Williams, of Lamb street, has purchased the tinning department of the Potter-Hoy hardware store, where since coming to Bellefonte he has been foreman. He has moved to the business State College, where in the future he will conduct the same. The family will not move to the College, but he will come back and forth every day to his home in this place. William A. White, who several months ago had his leg amputated at the Bellefonte Hospital, has left the institution and is now at his home at Howards. Mr. White for a number of years had been suffering considerable pain from a sore on his leg. He did everything to prevent an amputation, but finally he was compelled to submit to the operation. Although minus a leg he is free from pain and suffering and his life has been spared. He speaks in glowing terms of the treatment he received while an inmate of the hospital. Thursday Robert Kerns the little son of Laundryman Frank Kerns, saw a dog running along Water street, in front of the laundry with a rope around his neck. The boy thought the rope was choking the canine and went to unloosen it. The dog growled and finally flew at the boy and sunk one of his teeth through the boy's cheek. The wound bled profusely when he was taken to the office of Dr. M. A. Kirk who cauterized the wound. The wound is about healed and the boy has felt no bad effects from it. The dog seemed to be a strange one, thus he succeeded in making his escape from being shot. The other day Horton S. Ray with DeLann Stuart, George Beezer and Sam Miller went to Tyrone in his Buick. Of course Beezer, Stuart and Miller expected to return in the "auto" but Ray fooled them, and it was a good thing they had money to buy a ticket to get back. While in Tyrone, Ray drove a number of Tyrone's around town when Sam Graham was so well pleased with the machine that he purchased it. Ray was offered his price and he let 'er go. He is a sort of a lucky cuss, as he gets out of a pinch every time. He had made arrangements to take an automobile trip through the Thousand Islands, but he has changed it to a trip by rail. Last Sunday evening Rev. J. Allison Platts pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, preached his last sermon prior to his vacation. Rev. Platts has been a hard worker, since coming to Bellefonte, and he is deserving of a rest. He will first go to Atlantic City, up the Hudson to New York and then to the Hudson river little church where he commenced his ministry. Before returning home he will attend the Platts family reunion in New York state. In his absence the pulpit will be filled by able ministers. Next Sabbath Rev. W. K. Foster, of Jenkintown, will preach both morning and evening. The following Sunday Rev. W. E. Brooks, of Reedsville, will officiate. The weekly prayer meetings will be led by Dr. J. Hays Orbrun. Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Furey, of near Bellefonte, have been entertaining quite a number of friends. Among them was their son William Furey, of Pittsburg, who spent the Sabbath there, Monday he left for home taking with him his little son, William, who had been visiting there. Mrs. Web. Kersetter and her three children are now visitors at this country home, and they expect to remain there for some time. Wednesday, Mr. Furey, Mrs. Karstener, Margaret Turey and Mrs. N. A. King, of Centre Hall, drove over the Seven Mountains to visit friends at Milroy. Next Thursday Mrs. Furey and her daughter, Mrs. John Larimer, of Bellefonte, will leave for a couple of weeks at Atlantic City. If they are not tired out while at the seashore they will proceed to the Jamestown Exhibition.

Rowe returned home Monday evening from a weeks vacation spent in Tyrone, Altoona and Pittsburg. Miss Sarah Bayard, one of the efficient sales-ladies with the Bush & Bull Company, of Williamsport, is home for a short vacation. Major Walters, military instructor at the Soldiers Orphan School at Jumboville, Pa., is a guest at the Bayard home, on North Spring street. Mrs. William McClelland and two daughters, Grace and Sarah, left Saturday for Altoona to visit Mrs. McClelland's son, Thomas. Ambrose Sletoman returned Sunday from a three weeks business trip through eastern cities in the interest of the Karthaus brick company. Rev. William Dale, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon, and is now a guest of his father, W. J. Dale, near Pleasant Gap. Mrs. James Peirpoint, who had been spending several weeks in Bellefonte at the residence of the Misses Benner, left Wednesday afternoon for Fair Haven, New York, along the shores of Lake Ontario where they will remain for several weeks. During the last week the water was turned into the race leading to Gamble, Green & Co. Mill. The new engine in the race bay and the water wheels work like a charm. The new wheels give them about five additional horse-power which improves the plant. As a money maker there is none better around this neck 'o' woods. Miss Lottie Robb, the efficient stenographer in the law office of W. Harrison Walker, is again ill at her home, on Bishop street. It was the recurrence of the trouble from which she suffered less than a year ago, but her physician has succeeded checking the disease, making it probable she will be out again in a few days. In her absence from Mr. Walker's office Henry Keller, son of Harry Keller, Esq., is acting as office boy. Last week Charles Aull and William Stuart, of the Indian territory, together with Postmaster John Stuart and Scott Bailey, of State College, left in a $5000 automobile for Atlantic City. At Millersburg they were joined by Kirk Foster, Messrs Stuart and Aull struck it rich in the oil fields and are now having a good time on a well-earned vacation. They are industrious young men and deserve the success they have attained. Friday evening Chas. L. B. of Bellefonte, returned from "Camp Libby," near Tyrone; they were a little brown and tanned, but in good "spirits". Philip Garbrick, the worthy captain of the company, together with Col. H. S. Taylor, of the 5th regiment, returned from the field bearing new laurels. They both received high compliments for the excellent condition of the men and have the credit of having the best company and regiment in camp. This is a compliment of which these gentlemen can justly be proud. When company B arrived in camp so steady was their formation and exact in their movements that they were at first mistaken as a detachment from the "Regulars". Dr. George P. Bible, of Philadelphia, who has been spending a couple of weeks in Bellefonte and vicinity, has been engaged by the Grange picnic committee to furnish the entertainment during the picnic at Grange Park, Centre Hall. It is not his intention to do the work alone, but will be assisted by Mrs. Bible and his two daughters, among them being Miss Helen, who made such a favorable impression in the part she took in the cantata, "The coming of Ruth" which was delivered in Bellefonte recently. He will also have with him several specialists from Philadelphia. The fact that the entertainments are to be given by Dr. Bible is a guarantee to the public that they will be the best ever given there. Hon. Benjamin F. Keller, of Brownell, W. Va., is visiting friends in Boalsburg and Bellefonte, spending most of his time in the former place with his sisters, Misses Clara and Sarah Keller, and Mrs. Sophia Hall, as well as friends of his boyhood days. Mr. Keller left Centre county twenty-seven years ago with a determination to make something of himself. He went south and put out his shingle as an attorney. You never knew a Keller to keep out of politics, so he plunged into the tide and finally was elected Judge of the Southern district of Virginia. He was successful but he had to hard his health failed, and the last year he spent in Colorado. The treatment he received there was a success as he now tips the scales at 215 pounds. He is an uncle of Harry Keller, Esq., of Bellefonte, whom he visited recently. He is getting along nicely. Thursday we had a pleasant call from Congressman Charles Barclay, of Sinemahoning. He was accompanied by S. H. Williams, an old soldier and one of the oldest and best citizens of the town. There is no question but what Congressman Barclay was favorably impressed with Mr. Williams' popularity among the citizens of the town, and that had the postoffice been an elective position instead of an appointive one, things would have been decidedly different. Mr. Barclay was not here on a political mission, but as he talked with the merchants and business men of the town, he must have also come to the conclusion that Judge Love was knifing the members in his own party who refused to go with the rotten gang or vote for him for judge, and Mr. Williams had fallen a victim to his desire to reap vengeance upon those who refused to obey his mandates, and that the judge still has his bowieknife ready for other victims. Congressman Barclay, accompanied by his wife and brother-in-law, R. G. Roberts and wife, of Knoxville, Tenn., were just returning from an automobile trip from Atlantic City where they had a most delightful time.

Miss Ione Douschy is out again, after an extended illness. Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming came up from Harrisburg to spend Sunday in Bellefonte. Prof. C. L. Mrs. John Reasner, of Brackonridge, spent several days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Martin, on South Allegheny street. From here she went to Centre Hall to visit friends. Friday evening there will be a meeting held in the office of J. Thomas Mitchell, Esq., Temple Court, to organize a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Both ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited. This week a house party is being held at the Rhone homestead, near Centre Hall. Roger Bayard, of Bellefonte, is knee deep in timothy and clover, and is acting as bell sheep. The young ladies and gentlemen have been having a most delightful time. In the matter of the redistribution of Troop D, of State Mounted Police, it is said one of the detachments will be located at Curwensville and another at Bellefonte. There will be several other sub stations, with the general headquarters remaining at Punxsutawney. John D. Hall, of Sunbury, was in Bellefonte this week attending to duties connected with the selling of the estate of his father, the late J. Newlin Hall. As administrator he sold the farm near Howard to Rothrock Gardner, of Howard, who intends to make that his future home. One day recently the little son of Wm. Miller, agent for the American Express Co., was enjoying himself with a number of playmates when one of them pulled his arm out of socket. It required the skill of a physician to place it back. The little fellow will be alright in a few days. James K. Conley, of Freeport, Ill., was an arrival in Bellefonte last Friday having previously visited the Exposition at Jamestown; Sunday he attended a reunion of the Conley family at Centre Hall and is now the guest of his brother, J. Will Conley. This is his first visit east in many years. The Yeager Swing company have their new building near the Phoenix mill plant completed and ready for installing their machinery just as soon as the engine and boilers are put in shape. In the meantime they are using the second floor of the building as a warehouse and have it piled half full ready for the market. The Bald Eagle Telephone Co., of which Nelson Robb, of Bellefonte, is the promoter and secretary and treasurer, has been in operation for about a year, and on July 31st paid a 3 per cent dividend. It has fifty miles of wire with about one hundred phones. To increase its usefulness the stockholders recently voted to increase the capital stock from $15,000 to $50,000. The majority of the stock is held by people who live in Bald Eagle valley and are renters of telephones. The Garman Estate. Edwin F. Allen S., and Ira D., the three eldest sons of Daniel Garman, deceased, late of the town of Bellefonte, have been granted letters of administration on the above estate. Mr. Garman was a large owner of real estate in this section, having held for some years the following properties: The Garman House (hotel), the Garman Opera House, the fine residence on High street, dwelling on East High street opposite the jail and a vacant lot adjoining, dwelling on East Linn street, dwelling on Lamb street, also the "Mann property" at Axemann known as the Boiling Springs. In addition to the above there were large deposits in various banks, and other securities. It is the wish of the children that the estate be practically kept intact, the income only to be divided annually by the administrators; as to the value of the estate no definite estimate could be obtained, but it indicates that Mr. Garman was a successful and prudent business man. Mrs. Wolf, wife of R. B. Wolf, of Kansas City, Kansas, is in Centre Hall, and will remain for several weeks. ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Estate of FANNIE F. KAUFFMAN, late of Bellefonte, deceased. RECENT DEATHS

CALVIN MALLORY--died in Altoona Sunday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock from cancer of the stomach. He had been ailing for about one year, and about three months ago was compelled to take his bed.
