

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

BRUSHVALLEY.

Miss Minnie Phillips, of Akron, Ohio, is visiting her father here.

It would pay a man to buy a manure spreader and spread lime for the neighbors at the rate of four dollars a day.

Lloyd Duck, who has been in poor health the past few weeks, is somewhat improved.

John P. Eckley, wife and children, of Bellefonte, Sunday at F. A. Yearick's.

Misses Erie Homan and Olive McClain, of Williamsport, spent a few days at F. P. Duck's last week.

C. N. Phillips purchased a new Plano binder and gave it a trial in his wheat.

The game of base ball played between the West Brushvalley and Brushvalley teams was won by the Brushvalley team, by a score of 35 to 18. It was an interesting game from start to finish. This was the first game played by the Brushvalley team and considering everything, they played well.

The baseball festival was quite a success last Saturday evening.

G. E. Weaver who was employed at Burnham the past year came home to spend a few days with his grandmother and in a few days he will leave for Tiffin, Ohio, where he was formerly employed.

That cow story seems a "little shaky" that appeared in last week's issue, as there is no John Taylor in Brushvalley, "of course it was only a story."

James Duck is in feeble health.

Greenoble brothers ordered a new Peerless thrashing outfit and are expecting its arrival any day. They are all-around first-class thrashermen, as they have had years of experience in thrashing and will no doubt be kept busy all through the season, everybody knows them to be up-to-date thrashers.

The scribe will drop in on the editor next Saturday and if there is no paper the next week you can just think that it scared him out of his office—"ober-nit" I am just going to give him a surprise.

Lloyd Duck and wife and Earle Phillips, spent Sunday in Pennsylvania with Mathias Weagley.

The hail storm last Friday in Brushvalley was one of fiercest ever witnessed through here. The hailstones were as big as common sized walnuts and at several places where the hail rolled off of the roofs, it was a foot deep. Corn was completely stripped at several places and the oats was damaged to a great extent.

G. E. Wise and wife, D. C. Duck, wife and son and Walter Hosterman, of Rebersburg and Madisonburg, respectively, spent Sunday at F. P. Duck's.

C. P. Grenoble and sister Minnie, of Smulton, spent Sunday under the parental roof here.

J. S. Hoy returned from a trip to Pennfield last Thursday.

Mrs. J. J. Taylor and son, from Spring Mills, spent Sunday at E. T. Taylor's.

TYLERSVILLE.

Farmers are about through with their harvest and, if the weather permits, will be through with haying before the end of the week.

Mrs. Geo. Walizer and daughter Clara, visited at W. D. Kerstetter's on Thursday.

Percy Lutz has returned from Nittany Valley.

The Rebersburg base ball club passed through Tylersville on Saturday, enroute to Loganton, at which place they played against a combination team.

Frank Mechtly and daughter Mina, of Bald Eagle valley visited his brother and mother here on Sunday.

A. A. Schreckengast, who is working in Nittany valley, returned home on Saturday.

Go to Bletz Bros., for up-to-date post-cards.

Mrs. Stoner of Millheim, visited her mother and other relatives here a few days last week.

Hoyt Miller went to Ebersburg on Friday morning.

At last our boys have organized the semblance of a base ball team. The initial game was to be played at Bierly's grove on Saturday, but was postponed. The manager will try to arrange for a game soon.

FILLMORE.

Quite a number of our people attended the woodmen's picnic at Hunters Park, last Saturday.

The festival at the Presbyterian church was very well attended.

The Misses Meyer and Ulrich, of Millheim, visited Miss Bertha Henderson over Sunday.

Foster Young is wearing a broad smile since the arrival of that new daughter.

The Methodist Sunday school will hold a festival in the church yard next Saturday evening, Aug. 10, to which all are invited. Come and help a good cause along.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Burket, of Stormstown, also Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Tressler, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at the home of William Tressler.

We are glad to see Mrs. Rose Marks, nee Hoover, is around again.

The E. L. of this place will hold a Literary social Aug. 21.

BOGGS TWP.

HOLTS HOLLOW.

Ed. Bullock and wife, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at Harry Johnson's.

Mrs. Ida Poorman left Saturday for Phillipsburg where she will spend a week.

Florence Siker, of Moose Run, spent Saturday and Sunday with Edith Pitzer and Mabel Burd, here.

Clair Watson, of Coleville, spent Sunday with Raymond and Roy Fetzer here.

Chattie Confer and Lizzie Kelley, of Fairview, spent Sunday afternoon with Mabel Burd.

Grace Burd spent Sunday at Fairview.

WADDLE.

Don't forget the festival at the U. B. church, Saturday night, August 10. Everybody come.

Edna Fisher, of Lock Haven, is visiting her friends, Bessie and Mary Hoy, John Clark, of this place, and lady friends, Miss Snyder, of State College, and Jessie Weaver, spent Sunday at the former's home J. E. Clark's.

Some fellows don't get married because his girl's father can't afford it.

NITTANY.

Miss Frances and Pauline Webner are visiting their sister Mrs. Claud Shade and husband, of Sunbury.

Grandmother Wilson has returned home after spending the past three months visiting friends in Altoona, Leont and Bellefonte.

John Delaney and wife visited Henry McCloskey and family, of Mackeyville, on Sunday.

George Fisher and family visited friends in Snyder town, on Sunday.

Gee, but it is getting cold these evenings.

Mr. Holter, of Howard, spent the past week with his lady friend here, Miss Mary Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Clark, of Philadelphia, arrived here last week. Mr. Clark after spending a week here, returned to the city while Mrs. Clark will remain till September.

Homer Treaster, of Coburn, and Ben Morre, of Milroy, visited D. O. Dorman and family and William Treaster, over Sunday.

Tom Shoyer and wife and little daughter, of Milesburg, visited Mrs. Tate and Miss Penina Shields, on Sunday.

Walter Graham, of Philadelphia, arrived here the past week to visit his wife and little son who are spending the summer at her father's home, W. E. Kessinger and family.

Mrs. H. A. Long and children attended church at Hubersburg, on Sunday, and spent the remainder of the day with her father, brother and wife, of Snyder town.

Miss Marie Nolan is spending ten days visiting friends in Ridgeway.

Oscar Dorman, who cut his foot recently, is getting along nicely.

W. E. Kessinger, our postmaster and barber, was to Bellefonte one day the past week on business.

Ray Showers and Eugene McCaleb, who are attending the Williamson schools, are home for a month's vacation with their parents and many friends.

Jake Smith and N. C. Shaffer, of Lock Haven, were guests at the Nittany hotel one day last week.

W. E. Garbrick and Wilson Ammerman attended a public sale at Salona, on Saturday.

Dan Diehl has started out with his thrashing machine and will have all the thrashing he can do this summer.

We noticed some of the Hecla young gents in our town, on Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended the festival at Snyder town, Saturday night and report having had a good time our band furnished the music.

Our band has been engaged to furnish music for the festival to be held at Hecla Park, on Saturday night.

Our farmers are all through hauling in grain and are cutting barley at present. Next will be the oats.

MILESBURG.

Wm. R. Essington, of First Forks, is a guest of his half brother, C. K. Essington.

Wm. Rose, of Kane, was a guest of James McMullen, his uncle.

Hughes Schultz and Wm. Stanley, each had a crowd of chicks; both crowds contained a four-legged chick, well developed; have since died.

Wm. F. Taylor, of North Dakota, is a guest of his brother, Thomas.

Ralph Arney, of Altoona, was a guest of his uncle, A. T. Boggs and family.

Benj. Wyland and family, of Howard, Sunday with Jas. McCullough and family.

Rev. M. C. Piper and wife arrived home on Friday after a two weeks' visit in Huntingdon and Tyrone.

Misses Ophelia Haupt and Margaret Baird arrived home from a visit with friends in Tyrone and Tipton.

Miss Keith and niece, of McKeesport, are guests of Mrs. James Bryan.

Miss Annie Johnson is visiting relatives in Tyrone and Altoona.

Miss Verma Baird was a guest of Miss Margaret Bullock, of Bellefonte.

Miss Helen Haupt, of South Forks, is a guest of her grandparents, H. P. Haupt and wife.

Miss Bessie Confer visited her parents, at Howard.

Rumor has it, there will be two weddings in this burg in the near future; tell us, Harry and George, about it.

Our friend, Mr. Fowler, is laid up with rheumatism, as reported to the scribe.

James Lucas and wife, of Pittsburg, are guests of her parents, H. N. Jones and wife.

Jas. G. McKinley, of South Williamsport, was a guest of Robt. Brown, on Hazel street.

John Meyers and family are guests of his brother Ed, and family.

Miss McKinley, of South Williamsport, was a guest of Miss Olive Bloom.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Irvin, of Oak Hall, spent Tuesday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Rankin.

Norah and Ruth Miller were pleasant callers at the S. A. Bailey home Monday eve.

Mrs. Margaret Keller spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Miller.

Mrs. Robert McCrea and daughters, Margaret and Elizabeth, of Pittsburg, are spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, S. H. Bailey's.

Gussie Murry spent Tuesday afternoon with her friend Mabel Miller.

Wm. Cramer spent Sunday with his parents at Rock.

Mr. Cramer and wife, of Altoona, are visiting Mrs. Cramer's sister, Mrs. Ed. Williams.

Harry Miller, of State College, was a pleasant caller at the J. W. Miller home Sunday.

MILES TWP.

CENTRE MILLS.

Mr. Harter has been confined to bed the past week.

Bessie Gnisweit made a trip to Coburn one day last week.

Clayton Stover, of Farmers Mills, and Mrs. Gettig, of Bradlock, were visitors at the home of John Kline last week.

Mrs. Howard Weaver, who had been on the sick list, is much better.

Mrs. Zigler, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her parents, J. K. Meyer's.

George Kline and Charles Miller spent Sunday with friends at Farmers Mills.

Mr. Corman and wife are visiting relatives in Snyder county.

A many-sided man is an all-round fellow.

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. John O. Comer and son Joseph, of Philadelphia, are now the guests of the former's parents, Thomas Gleason's.

Miss Kathryn Tubridy left for Clearfield on Friday where she will become the guest of her friend, Mrs. P. J. Flanagan.

Glenn Williams was an arrival home from Philadelphia, Saturday evening.

Miss Bridgie Ward departed Monday morning for a visit with friends in Barnesboro, Altoona and Clearfield.

Lewis Culver, of Kylertown, spent Sunday with his brother James here.

Mrs. Ardell, of Barnesboro, is being pleasantly entertained by her sister, Mrs. A. A. Groe.

Mrs. Rose Yeager left for Howard on Monday where she will spend some time with her brother, Arthur Yandes.

Miss Mary E. Connolly, of Bellefonte, is now a pleasant guest at the home of her friend, Miss Eva McGowan.

On Friday Amelia Houston and Mae Zindle, of Snow Shoe, were callers at the home of their friend Miss Rhoda K. Weaver.

Miss Ella Foresman, of Ford City, and Mrs. Mary Holt, of Phillipsburg, were entertained several days last week at the Rankin residence.

E. L. Gleason transacted business in Phillipsburg on Monday last.

Miss Laura Williams was a business visitor to Clearfield one day last week.

Mrs. Renaud, of Altoport, visited her friend Mrs. Robt. Reiter, several days last week.

Austin Kerin and daughter, Marie, of Housdale, were recent visitors to our town.

Gilbert Craft, of Pittsburg, visited at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Viehdorfer, one day last week.

Mr. Brown, of Lock Haven, transacted business in town several days.

Miss Edith Lucas returned to her home (The Maples) on Saturday after having attended Methodist Day in Lakemont Park, Altoona.

Robt. Reiter and wife spent Saturday at the former's parents in Keewadin.

Michael Gleason and wife have at their home a new baby girl and all are as happy as can be.

Miss Violet Zindle, of Snow Shoe, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Viehdorfer.

J. T. Lucas, our hustling merchant, made a business trip to Allentown recently.

One of the most important social events of the season, was on Friday evening, when Miss Eva McGowan entertained the S. T. Club at her home.

This club has been recently organized and consists of Snow Shoe and Moshannon most highly accomplished young people. The evening was joyfully spent and after refreshments were served, all took their departure for home and hope to spend many more nights like that one.

SPRING MILLS.

A welcome rain fell the beginning of the week. The dry weather continued until the farmers had finished haying and harvesting. It is now beneficial for the corn.

Our butcher, Meyer, purchased a team of horses from Harry Allison.

Miss Louisa Burrell intends to spend some time in Lock Haven in the near future.

A number from here spent Sunday in the vicinity of Potters Mills.

Warren Wood and wife, our hotel keeper, returned from a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City and report having had a fine time.

Rev. J. V. Royer led Y. M. C. A. on Sunday evening. Instead of using the regular topic he held an evangelical meeting. He has a regular charge at Altoona, but is here with his parents, C. E. Royer, on a vacation.

Little Mite Exson from Bellefonte, is here breathing the pure Pennsylvania air, and partaking of the victuals at the Wood house.

There is a scarcity of all kinds of fruit and of some vegetables; canned goods are likely to be higher next year and farmers who have fruit and vegetables in surplus do well to preserve them.

Our miller has been out of corn for several weeks. They have now ordered a car load.

Mr. Bryan is a busy man repairing bicycles.

Little Sarah Fisher arose in her sleep and fell out of the upstairs window upon the window sill below and from there to the ground. Fortunately no bones were broken. The result was a bruised side. She is the daughter of Frank Fisher, the merchant at Penn Hall.

Both the Reformed and Presbyterian ministers are away on a vacation and will stay till September, so there will be no preaching until that time.

MT. EAGLE.

Misses Cora, Maudie and Anna Dietz, Pearl Gates, Florence Leathers and Lulu Johnson, all departed Wednesday for a few days visit at Niagra Falls.

W. C. Smoyer and wife, also sister Mayme, visited their uncle James Smoyer at Snow Shoe a few days last week.

Al. Stricklen and wife spent Sunday in Howard.

Mrs. David Garthoff and two daughters, Erma and Caroline, of Lock Haven, visited friends here.

Frank Leathers, of Brookville, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Etta Leathers here.

W. C. Smoyer has returned to his home at Sharon; he was accompanied by his sister, Tessie, who expects to make her home with him.

Joseph Leathers and wife visited their son Jno. Leathers here.

Mrs. James Hayes and son Charles, of Howard, visited Mrs. W. Daughenbaugh, last week.

PORT MATILDA.

The brick layers are busy at work on W. S. Crain's new home.

S. S. Osman spent Sunday in Johnstown.

Mrs. Rachel Funk returned home on Sunday after two weeks' visit with friends in Tyrone, and Tipton.

It is rumored that we are going to have a brick yard in the near future.

A. B. Williams & Bro. purchased the general store, of C. W. Crain.

Edward Robison moved from Pine Top into Mrs. Wm. Wiser's house.

The farmers are busy harvesting in this section.

Miss Hilda Williams, of Martha, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Edna Reese spent a few days in Bellefonte last week.

Thomas Weaver is driving team for J. W. Williams, hauling props from west of town.

There seem to be lots of rich fools in spite of the old proverb about the fool and his money.

BENNER TWP.

ROCK VIEW.

Misses Mae Royer and Caroline Hoy spent Saturday and Sunday at Madisonburg with the former's parents.

Hoy Rishel and his sister, Miss Emma, of Philadelphia, are visiting at their grand parents, John Rishels.

Miss Ruth Benner is visiting at Houserville this week.

We have a boy in our View that goes to Bellefonte in the evening about six o'clock and never gets home until six the next morning; now that is rather bad, I wonder what the attraction is?

Miss Ida Royer is visiting her brother Clayton Royer.

We were all very glad to see our old professor, Mr. Hosterman, back to attend the festival, also his wife and two little boys.

Mr. Houser wife and little child, of Houserville, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, F. H. Benner's.

Misses Alice Lowry and Lillian Williams, of Bellefonte, and Verda Tate, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at James Saxtons.

Miss Grace V. Hoy and her grandfather, Martin Fleck, are going to Curwensville this week to visit at William Ammerman.

Miss Mabel A. Brungart has been visiting in our View the past week, also James Shook.

Charles Poorman has his thrasher in our section.

The festival that was held by the High school scholars, was quite a success, and we hope now that the directors will push ahead and get the bell and belfry up before school starts; I think the next start should be to get a cistern put in at the school house so the scholars have good, pure water, also can wash themselves once and awhile.

Harry Baum, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday evening in our View; say, Harry, you found the gate this time.

On Sunday evening, about 9 o'clock, Sam Thomas' house took fire down along the creek; the bucket brigade was all there, but it seems they could not get the fire extinguished.

HUBLERSBURG.

Ray Dotterer preached a very able sermon in the Reformed church Sunday before an unusually large audience, and the opinion expressed by many was, "he is the making of an excellent minister."

Anna Meyer, of Coalport, who came to attend the Meyer-Maury reunion, at Hecla, is spending some time with friends.

John McEwen, the jeweler, came home from Altoona, where he was employed.

There were thirteen visitors in Sunday school on Sunday a. m. Come again, we are always glad to welcome you.

Huckleberry pickers are thicker than huckleberries on the Ridge.

Viola Fulton is entertaining several young friends at her home.

Edna Haines, of Coalport, is spending several weeks with her cousin, Talitha Hoy.

Grace Fisher entertained two friends at the home of Jerry Lee on Sunday.

Ethel Miller, Anna Meyer, John McEwen and Cairin Hoy, spent Sunday with Edna Decker.

Ray Dotterer and brother Beezer, took dinner, Sunday with D. A. Deitrich.

Some of our farmers are cutting oats while others have wheat to haul in yet.

A meeting of the schoolboard was held Saturday to elect teachers for the school year vacant at the previous meeting.

J. H. Cerner and sons, G. F. Hoy, Jake Berstesser and Ad Vocum, drove to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Noil brothers are digging a cellar and repairing the house recently bought from Lot Bergstesser.

YARNELL.

Chas. Thorpe and wife and Mrs. T. H. Malone and children, of Pittcain, are spending a few weeks here.

Harry Shawley and Martin Fetzer returned last week from Driptwood where they had been employed.

J. Ed. Confer and wife Sunday at Wm. Walker's in Milesburg.

A party was held at the Pownell home last Friday evening; about thirty young people were present and report having had a good time.

Miss Anna Shank returned last week from a visit with friends in Phillipsburg and Tyrone.

Mrs. Rachel Walker is visiting in Snow Shoe and Cato.

Miss Viola Kline, of Bellefonte, is spending a month with her parents here.

Mrs. Alfred Shank left Monday for a visit with friends in Williamsport.

Miss Fannie Confer spent Saturday and Sunday with her brother.

Philip Walker, of Houserville, visited his aged parents.

Geo. Bowmaster, who has spent the past year at the home of Wm. Shawley, left this week for Milton, where he will be employed in the future.

Lewistown Banker Dead.

William Irwin, cashier of the Mifflin County National Bank at Lewistown, for the past twelve years, suddenly died, of paralysis Wednesday morning 31st. For thirty-seven years he has been in the employ of the National bank of which he was cashier, when he died.

The fellow who prides himself upon being a sharp man may really be a sharper.

LUNCH PARTIES

out of 1,000 or 1,000 are sure to be enjoyed if you offer guests tempting delicacies. We carry an exceptionally large stock of Canned Goods and eatables that may be readily packed and carried.