Mrs. Thomas Jennings returned Thursday from a delightful visit with friends in Mt. Vernon, Ohio. R. B. Taylor, the contractor, received two dandy new dump wagons from Syracuse, N. Y., on Friday. John Miller, employed in the Standard Steel works, at Beaver Falls, is home on a short vacation. He is happy and prospering. Miles Barr, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Isabel Barr, and his brother-in-law, Milton Johnson, on Spring street. Mrs. Joe Undercoffer has returned home from a delightful visit to Philadelphia. She was accompanied home by her son William. Ross Parker, with his wife and the two younger children, left for Somerset where Mr. Parker's vacation will be spent with relatives. Mrs. Mary Peters, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Chaney Hicklen, spent Sunday with friends in Unionville. Mrs. R. H. Foster, of Carlisle, widow of Major R. H. Foster, once a merchant and editor of the Centre Democrat, is visiting friends here. Last week W. C. Lingle, of Bellefonte, fell from a car and was pretty badly injured. He has recuperated enough to be about again. Rev. Robbins, of Williamsport, preached both morning and evening at the Methodist Episcopal church. His sermons were well received. Dean Bension, one of the pleasing young men of Howard, is a frequent visitor in Bellefonte. He must have an eye on one of our pretty girls. Miss Garrison, who has been a guest of Miss Sarah Potter, on Linn street, returned to her home in Pittsburg after a delightful visit in Bellefonte. Ruth Rapp, youngest daughter of Mrs. Jacob Rapp, who has been quite ill with scarlet fever, is getting along nicely and will soon be able to be out. Mr. and Mrs. Beck, of Wellwood, are visiting friends in Bellefonte. Mr. Beck is foreman of the large foundry at Wellwood. He at one time was employed at Lingle's. Barney Gallagher left on Sunday for New York, where he is employed. His daughter Miss Alice, accompanied him as far as Philadelphia where she will visit friends. Wm. Breen, of Burnham, is visiting his friends through the county. Billy is a moulder and at one time was employed at Lingle's. He is considered an expert at the business. Mrs. R. J. Haldean, of Harrisburg, who has been spending part of the summer at Bedford Springs, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday and became a guest of Miss Mary Linn on Allegheny street. Miss Isabella Hill, Ph. B. who is a graduate of the Wesleyan University, and who took a Master degree at the Columbia University, will take charge of the English department at the Academy this year. William Smith, of Johnstown, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, on Spring street. Will is now manager of a large cold storage house in Johnstown and is getting along splendidly. Missioner Crittenden departed Saturday morning for Bible School work in the rural districts, Bottle Run, Oak Grove and Sylvan Dale, truck farm communities north of Newberry, Lycoming county. Miss Mabel Wagner, of Barnesboro, is a visitor at the home of her friend, Miss Edna Meyer. Miss Wagner is well known in Bellefonte, being a graduate of the High school, and her many friends are delighted to see her. Paul F. Willard arrived in Bellefonte Sunday from New York City and is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Willard on Linn street. Mr. Willard is employed by the Westinghouse company in their block system department. Miss Ella Alters won the beautiful silver set given away by the Reinehart Medicine Co. on Saturday evening. The silver set was given to Miss Alters as being the most popular young lady in Bellefonte. The other contestant was Miss Marie Gherity who lost by the small margin of 15 votes. Charles P. Hughes, Esq., of Erie, transacted business in Bellefonte several days last week. He stands high in the legal profession in the city along the lake, and is doing a most excellent business. He was here in the interest of the estate of the late George W. Jackson which is being closed up as rapidly as possible. One day last week John S. Walker took F. H. Thomas, James H. Potter, Charles McCurdy and Col. W. Fred Reynolds to Alexandria, Huntingdon county, in his Franklin car. They left here at three o'clock in the afternoon, had supper in Alexandria and arrived home at eleven o'clock, having gone by the way of Pennsylvania Furnace and Spruce Creek. The Nittany Iron company has sold their big cinder dump south of the furnace to McMingim & Sims, railroad contractors, of Philadelphia, who will use it in concrete and other work, in building railroad bridges, etc. The purchasers will remove the cinder as fast as they can use it and it will be only a question of time until the entire flat will be cleaned off.

Don't forget the Business Men's Picnic on next Tuesday. Mrs. John Seibring was an arrival home from Lewisburg, Saturday. Frank Shaughnessy and wife, of Pittsburg, are visiting his parents in Bellefonte. Misses Grace and Alice Milvum, of Pittsburg, are visiting their brother, on Water street. Mrs. John Noll and daughter Bertha, left Monday afternoon for a ten-days visit to Atlantic City. W. T. Miller left Monday for Washington, Pa., where he will be employed in the large iron works. Mr. and Mrs. Jones spent Sunday in Williamsport. Mr. Jones is mail clerk on the Lewisburg train. Rev. W. B. Cox will officiate next Sabbath at the dedication of the new Evangelic church at Pinecroft, Pa. Miss Libbie Van Dyke, of Williamsport, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Petteoff on Bishop street. Rev. Erhard, of Ardara, Westmoreland Co., is visiting her many friends in Bellefonte and Unionville. Mabel and Marie Cox, the two bright young daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Cox, are visiting friends in Lewisburg. Thursday afternoon Mrs. James A. Beaver returned to Bellefonte after a visit among friends at Millin and Huntingdon. Miss Tam Bland, Mrs. William McCabe and Miss Rachael Ammerman, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends and relatives here. William Rider and family, of Beaver Falls, arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday evening and will visit friends here for a couple of weeks. Mr. Hicks, one of the prominent merchants of Tyrone, brought his daughter to the Bellefonte hospital Sunday for treatment. Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside, who is spending the summer at Howard, came to the Bush house Saturday, where she will be for a week. Mr. and Mrs. William Reed left on Saturday to visit friends up through Ferguson township. They expect to be away about two weeks. After a short visit at the home of his parents, ex-county commissioner and Mrs. A. V. Miller, in this place, George B. Miller, left for Pittsburg. Mrs. G. Gibbs, of Cincinnati, Ohio, formerly Miss Sarah Sides, of Jersey Shore, spent Saturday at the Bush house on Spring street. I. J. Dreese, the prosperous woolen manufacturer of Lemont, was around to see us yesterday. He is getting over his recent ailment in good shape. Mrs. Carrie Graham and son, who have been visiting the Robb home in Bellefonte the past few weeks, left Sunday afternoon for their home at Wilmerding. Will Undercoffer is here from Philadelphia on a visit to his father, Joseph Undercoffer. He accompanied his sister Clara home, she having been in Philadelphia visiting friends for a week or two. The mail carrier who thoughtfully frames and hangs up the Emigrant's photograph in the outer lobby of the Post-office aside of his commission, will be sure of a promotion. The community would have another laugh. Judge B. Frank Keller, of Virginia, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte and Solersburg, has gone to Lancaster to spend a short time with his nephew, Will Keller, Esq., before returning to his home in Braxwell. There was a surprise party in honor of the birthday of John Watson, brakeman on the shifter, at his home on East Lamb street, Wednesday evening of last week. There were about thirty guests present and all report having a most enjoyable time. Alexandria, Huntingdon county, has prepared an elaborate program for the celebration of Old Home week August 26th to September 1st and on Wednesday, August 28th, there will be a school reunion with John D. Meyer, supervising principal of the Bellefonte schools, presiding. Wednesday morning the Ardell planing mill and lumber yard was put up at public sale. There were several bidders but it was knocked off to Ed. K. Hoy for $549, subject to the mortgages. Mr. Hoy is a thorough business man and there is little doubt but that he will be successful in his undertaking. Clyde Blackford, proprietor of the popular restaurant, started this week on some important improvements to his eating house. He will build a 100 foot addition in the rear and put on one side a big up-to-date kitchen with new ranges and all the latest improvements. He will install an experienced chef and serve ball-of-fare that will make your mouth water. He expects to make his restaurant the swellest in any town between Philadelphia and Pittsburg. Dick Taylor will open the rink on the afternoon of September 2nd. This is Labor day and it is very probable that the rink will be crowded. Mr. Taylor says that many improvements have been made which will make this sport much more attractive than ever. In the first place the floor has been given a thorough overhauling, and the skates have been put in excellent shape. Better accommodations will also be provided for those who go there simply as sight-seers. The buttonless suspender, manufactured by S. D. Ray in connection with his shirt factory in this place, is proving a success and the demand for it is increasing right along. In fact the demand is far greater than the output owing to the inability to secure the material. If this difficulty could be overcome Mr. Ray could easily double if not triple his output and naturally would be compelled to increase his force of employees. The buttonless suspender is not an experiment having passed beyond that stage, and it would not be surprising to see it come into universal use in a very few years and the plant here increased to ten times its present dimensions and output.

R. D. Ardery, of Martha, gave our sanctum a call. Mrs. Sophia Hall, nee Keller, was a visitor among friends in town this week. The Hoy Yearick reunion will be held at Hecla Park on the 28th of August. Miss Lone Donahy, of Bellefonte, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Derstine, in Altoona.
