

The Racket.

Sheet Music

10 cents

We have the agency for the well known McKinley edition of 10 cent Sheet Music, which comprises all grades in popular, classical, and pieces arranged especially for beginners, in Instrumental, Songs, Violin, Cornet and Piano. Mandolin and Piano, Mandolin and Guitar.

Call or write for free catalogue of a hundred different pieces.

You can do better at The Racket, they sell for cash.

E. P. IRVIN

KUNVILLE NO. 2.

Mrs. Jacob Lucas spent several days at Bellefonte, last week.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnic at Hecla the 20th.

Lulu Lucas and Floyd Davis were married at the bride's home, Tuesday evening, Aug. 20th at 8 o'clock by Rev. Zeigler. May they live a long and happy life.

C. B. Friel spent Sunday at home.

Morgan Shope spent several days with his grandmother here.

Miss Adaline Smoyer, of near Snow Shoe, is spending several days here.

W. T. Kunes says they are the champion snake killers. While working along the railroad track killed 11 copperhead snakes, this summer. He said it was no place for pretty girls to travel. So girls take warning, Mr. Kunes knows what is right.

Mr. Ed. Lucas, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of Charles Lucas.

Mrs. Aust Lucas and children after two weeks visit among friends at this place returned to their home at Altoona.

Miss Nora Watson after a pleasant visit with friends at Tyrone and Altoona returned to her home at this place.

Don't forget the festival at this place Saturday evening Sept. 7 or the telephone line. All invited.

Mrs. John Furl and children, of Phillipsburg, are visiting at E. Hancock's.

Forest Aikens and John Sliker were very pleasantly entertained at this place, Saturday evening, by Misses Shope and Smith. Come again, boys always welcome to our city.

Quite a few of our people attended the reunion at Milesburg, Saturday.

Mrs. Claude Lucas and children, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at E. Poorman's and attended the Poorman reunion.

Adaline Shope and Lena Smith, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday among friends here.

John Hipple, of Dix, was seen on our streets, Friday.

Virginia Lucas has gone to Bellefonte where she will be employed.

Lila Keyser, of Unionville, spent several days at Myrtle Markley's.

Harold Yeager, of Jersey Shore, was seen on our streets, Thursday.

Joe Alexander is all smiles over the arrival of a young son.

Miss Lucy Smoyer spent several days at Vilas.

Yarnel's scribe must be dead. Wake up and cheer up.

Edward Lucas, wife and children, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of Charles Lucas.

Don't forget preaching Sunday evening, at 7:30.

Bell Leathers and Florence Aikey, of Curtin, spent Sunday with Mrs. C. B. Friel.

Hello Wingate, scribe, where are you.

JULIAN

On Saturday, Aug. 24th, a very large crowd of friends and relative assembled at the Henderson cemetery, four miles west of Julian, and paid due respects to their many friends and relatives buried there, by coming together and repairing the grave yard, which had been sadly neglected up to last Saturday when they gave it a thorough cleaning, making a very neat improvement. The committee will appoint another day for all to meet at said cemetery, next spring; the writer extends an earnest invitation to all to be present, and keep the cemetery in up-to-date order—as there are many old soldiers buried there, who have fought for our country flag. Following are the names of those present from a distance: Joseph W. Myers, and wife, James Myers, wife, and four children, Mrs. Mertie Gearhart and four children, and Jacob Myers, wife and child, all of Blueball; E. C. Henderson, of Huntingdon; and Thos. Burns and wife, of Julian; and several others of whom the writer failed to get their names. In the evening they all took shelter at the hospitable home of Alfred Rowin's, and on Sunday departed for their respective homes promising to return in the spring.

OAK HALL

E. H. Williams and family, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday with Edward Sellers.

Arthur Peters attended the business men's picnic at Hecla Park, on Tuesday.

Gertrude Homan returned home Saturday, after visiting with relatives at Pittsburg.

A number of people attended pomona grange last Thursday.

Margaret Stamm, of Altoona, visited with Margaret Peters, Sunday.

Glad to note that Earl Kishel is able to be about again.

Mrs. Della Garbrick, of Pine Grove, spent a few days last week with Edith Korman.

Geo. Grimes and family attended the colored people's picnic at Hecla Park, on Thursday.

UNIONVILLE.

Mrs. Ada Flack and daughter, of Altoona, are the guests of George P. Hall, at the home of David Keatley.

About a dozen of our good citizens went, in a body, to spend the day at the home of the venerable Ezra Fisher, near the intersection, on last Thursday. They had great baskets full of provender. John G. Geary, of Harrisburg, was the leading spirit.

Albert Hazel attended the Hazel reunion in Pennsylvania last week.

Miss Minerva Winters, of Williamsport, is having a good time in our town among her many friends.

Toner Calhoun, who holds a lucrative position with the Nelson & Morris Co., in Philadelphia, is home on a visit to his mother.

The Hon. Milton Peters, borough electrician, had a close call for his life a few evenings ago. He was hauling down the large 600 candle power lamp, at the crossing near the residence of Squire Pratt, when the pole which is as large as an ordinary telephone pole, broke off at the ground, and fell so close to him as to brush his coat sleeve. Had it struck him on the head it would have killed him instantly. But, "a miss is as good as a mile," Milt.

Dr. C. A. VanValin left on Monday for the state of Washington, where his father is said to be seriously ill and of whose recovery little hopes are entertained. Doc. expects to kill a few cinnamon bears, mountain lions, etc., before he returns.

W. Penn Griest, of Huntingdon, who was recently married, is spending a part of his honeymoon in our city the guest of T. E. Griest, his uncle.

On Saturday evening Miss Alice Buck gave a pretty sociable to a number of her lady friends. Gee, don't these girls have lots of fun when they come together.

A pair of Evangelist imposters climbed off the 8 o'clock train, Saturday evening, and at once inquired for a leading Methodist family. They found one and succeeded in securing lodging for the night. Before retiring the perfume of tobacco smoke emanating from an old pipe, strong enough to draw a train of cars, permeated every portion of the house. The next morning, their host gave them a ticket to leave with sharp orders not to return again—give them a wide berth.

Mrs. A. J. Griest accompanied her son, Ed., and family to their home in Phillipsburg, where she will visit for a week or more. This is her first visit out of town, for many years.

During his visit here last week, Peck Griest did some fancy fishing—just practically lived on eels, cat fish, frogs and turtles. He caught in one night 2 large turtles, 7 eels, 10 cat fish, 5 bullfrogs and 20 frogs.

Miss Emma Griseber, of Harrisburg, is visiting at the Bruggler home.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Lizzie Black, after a long siege of serious illness, is convalescing nicely.

FOWLER.

Threshing is all the call for the past two weeks.

N. H. Krape, Lewis Marshall, Clyde Smeltzer and wives, from Buffalo Run, were recent visitors of H. A. Geyer.

Miss Ruth Leggo spent a few days in Tyrone last week.

James Dobsin and wife, from Altoona, are pleasant visitors at the home of J. F. Fowler.

Augustus Geyer, of Loganton, visited his son Henry; he is quite an aged gentleman and is quite active for his age.

M. C. Walsh entertained guests from Altoona.

Mrs. Elizabeth Merriman is visiting friends here.

Orin Burns has returned home after a week's stay in good old Bald Eagle.

Mary Lew's is entertaining her brother and wife, of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Ada Lewis is entertaining guests from Altoona and Tyrone.

Edna Gingery and friend, from Mill Hill, spent a few days with her uncle, Henry Geyer.

Roy Barto and wife, from Meringo, spent a few days with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Geyer and daughter, Eva, are visiting friends in Bellefonte and vicinity.

Hello, Buffalo six, we went to Altoona last Sunday, we didn't get lost, had a fine time in the park, and we didn't miss the car, but came straight home.

PENN TWP.

Calvin Swartz had the best barley in this section it thrashed, at the rate of 60 bu per acre.

Franklin Barger was the last to finish haying.

Oats is a good crop in this section; wheat is ordinary, the corn is in danger of frosts.

The farmers are busy plowing for their seedling.

E. Z. Zerby sold one of his horses last week.

Quite a number of our young folks attended camp in Sugar Valley, on Sunday.

Calvin Swartz expects to farm for Mrs. Henry Keen next year. Calvin is a good farmer.

Threshing is all the go now; the valley is full of machines.

Wallace Bartges and wife visited in Sugar Valley over Sunday.

C. P. Long made quite an improvement by building a manure shed in his barn. Wilmer Confer and sister spent Sunday at home.

Peter Breon purchased a new harrow from Geo. Franklinbarger.

Mrs. Perry Deabler came to the country to visit the black berries, last week.

GREENBURR.

F. P. Werth, William Lamey and Daniel Kahl, who are employed at Portridge, are home on a visit.

Adam Confer and family, of Greenburr, are visiting here.

Maude Warnitz, of Lock Haven, is visiting her parents for a few days.

Ambrose Sheats and family, of Pittsburg, are visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. Roland and wife, of Pittsburg, are visiting Mrs. Roland's sisters, Mrs. Samuel Shaffer and Mrs. Daniel Kahl.

Tom Reed, wife and little daughter, from Jersey Shore, spent Sunday with Mrs. Ellen Frank.

William Kahl, who is employed at Milroy, is visiting his family a few days.

John Frank returned home from Milroy, on Saturday.

Harvey Zellers, wife and two grandchildren, Martha and Russel Frank, from Logan Mills, attended campmeeting on Sunday and took supper with Mr. Zeller's aged mother.

MILESBURG.

Miss Alice Walls is a guest of Mrs. Mary Zeller.

John Butler, of Marion, was a guest of Bruce Peters and family.

Mrs. Nancy Watts, of Altoona, is visiting Mrs. Mary Murray.

Frank Baldrige, of Pittsburg, was summoned home to attend the funeral of his mother, last week.

Charles H. Austin, of Pittsburg, was a guest of his brother Harry.

Henry Charles, of Selingsgrove, is a guest of his brother Samuel Charles; this is his first visit since 1861.

Jennie Watson, of Wingate, is a guest of Geo. Stanley at Curtin's rolling mill.

Joseph Charles is spending his vacation in Clearfield.

Mrs. Clayton Greek and daughter, of Rote, also Christ Confer, of Yarnell, were guests of Solomon Shay and family.

Marcella and Rebecca Boggs, after visiting friends in Uniontown, returned home to Milesburg.

Oscar Aikens, after a pleasant visit with his grand-parents, Henry Dyke and wife, returned home to Uniontown.

Mrs. Henry Dyke is visiting her grand-children in Uniontown, George Aiken and family.

Mrs. Robt. Holmes, of Lock Haven, and Robt. Holmes and wife, of Pittsburg, are guests of Thomas Johnson and family.

Mrs. John Laurie and children, of Tyrone, is visiting Harry Austin and family.

Mrs. Kirby, of Tyrone, is visiting C. H. Else and family.

The Bryan, Smith's, and Lambert families visited Penn Cave on Sunday, three carriage loads.

Mrs. Tate, of Nittany, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Shope.

William Baird, of Juniata, Sundayed with his parents.

Miss Mildred Henderson, of Tyrone, returned home after a pleasant visit with the Rev. M. C. Piper and wife.

Grace Walters, of Altoona, is a guest of Rev. M. C. Piper's.

Raymond Baird has accepted a position in the Tyrone shops.

Nellie Weaver is visiting friends in Norristown.

Harriet Butler and A. Fletcher, of Howard, visited the burg recently.

Verma and Harriet Baird are visiting friends in Tyrone.

Hannah Green, after spending a season in Holidaysburg, returned home.

Mrs. Ed. McClain and child, of Ridge-way, are guests of Mrs. P. H. Haupt.

Bessie Miles, after a pleasant visit with the W. I. Harvey family, of Flemington, returned home.

Mrs. Jamison, of Spring Mills, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Allen Sayres, also Mrs. Rhule, of Spring Mills is her guest.

The borough schools will open on the 9th of Sept., 7 months term.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Joana Foster and daughter Margaret, of Carlisle, and May Burley, of Tyrone, are the guests of Mrs. Frank Foster.

Mrs. Kathryn Snyder, of Milton, is spending a few weeks with her grandmother Bower.

Regina Hubler, of Heblersburg, was the welcome visitor of Mrs. Effie Weaver over Sunday.

Maggie Bitner, of Spring Mills, visited her sister Alice a few days.

Mrs. Wm. Guisewite and daughter Sara, have taken a trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Bertha Lane, of Tyrone, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sara Leitzell.

Among those who are at Gettysburg this week, are: Fredrick Limbert, Harry Cronce and James Holoway.

Mrs. Holderman, of Altoona, is the guest of Samuel Gettig's.

Walter Orwig's are spending the week with his parents at Hartleton.

Mr. Catherman and wife, of Millmont, spent a few days at the home of Thos. Frank's.

Prof. Aikens Pres. of Susquehanna University, visited Rev. R. M. Scheeders, at the Lutheran parsonage.

Mrs. Emma Hess, of Knox, Pa., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Desher.

Merrill Isenhower has gone to teach a term of school.

Mrs. Bell, of Pleasant Gap, is visiting her daughter Mrs. R. U. Wasson.

Mr. Sharp and wife, of Iowa are visiting at the home of their uncle Zach Thomas, and aunt Polly Stover.

Prof. R. U. Wasson was called to the bedside of his mother, who is sick, near State College.

PENN HALL

A number of folks from in and about town attended the business men's picnic at Hecla.

Mrs. William Heckman returned home, after spending the week in Brush-valley.

Loia Ulrich spent Sunday in Madisonburg.

Sarah Condo spent several days with her sister, Mrs. H. N. Meyer, in Millheim.

F. M. Fisher, wife and daughter, made a business trip to Millheim one day last week.

Mrs. James Grove and daughter, Miss Grace and little grandson Russel, spent Sunday at the home of J. C. Condo's.

J. C. Condo, wife and son Russel, spent Sunday at the home of Thomas Stover, west of Millheim.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stover a daughter.

PENN TWP.

The Pike scribe had taken a long sleep, but awoke the other day, and will again continue the Pike items.

Quite a number from our village attended the Sugarvalley campmeeting on Sunday.

Ferna Rossman spent last Sunday with her brother near Coburn.

Elias Stover's spent Sunday evening at Mr. Haines'.

Kathryn Stover has been suffering the past week with a very sore hand; we all hope it will soon get better so she will again be able to use her hand.

Anna Haines is at home taking care of her mother, who is on the sick list.

Robert Young and family spent last Sunday at Spring Mills.

HARRIS TWP.

Quite a few of the young folks attended the festival at Boalsburg on Saturday evening.

Clarence Mechtly, of Altoona, spent a few days at his home recently.

Margaret Musser took supper with her friend, Nannie Leech, on Saturday evening.

Nannie Leech took supper with her friend, Margaret Mothersbaugh, on Sunday.

BOGGS TWP.

Chattie Confer and Mable Bird Sundayed at Moose Run.

John Gross and wife spent Sunday at Thomas Shawley's.

Harry Shawley and his lady friend were the guests of Alfred Shawley's, Sunday.

James Wensel Sundayed at E. Z. Confer's.

Miles Lucas, wife and family, attended the festival at Komola Saturday evening. They reported having a good time.

Wm. Cox and wife Sundayed at A. J. Lucas'.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnic at Hecla, on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. Lucas spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Hanes, in Curtin twp.

Thomas Lucas and wife spent Sunday at James Lucas'.

Ethel Woomer spent Sunday afternoon with Nancy Kelley.

Mrs. Clayton Yarnell and Mrs. Henry Confer spent Sunday at John Kelley's.

Milton Nyman is still on the sick list. We hope for speedy recovery.

Lloyd Shawley and Earl Nyman, after spending a week at home, have gone back to Orvis.

If the young ladies from our town wanted to take any more berries to Curtin, they will not need wait so long for the boys to help them. Hay making is over.

Wm. Yarnell, of Lock Haven, gave a warm handshake among his many friends at this place Sunday.

BENNER TWP.

The farmers are busy plowing.

Mrs. John Meyers is very poorly. Mr. Meyers was here nearly all last week.

Dale Kuhla spent Sunday at home.

Charles Saxton spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap.

Miss Grace V. Hoy has returned home.

Most of our people were to Hecla last Tuesday, say George where did you get your girl that day?

Harvey Shaffer and family, George Hazel and family, spent Sunday at Clayton Royers.

Charles Remmy and wife, Samuel Cranes and wife, spent Sunday at J. F. Hoy's.

I guess "Dock" had a hard trip over Sunday; he went away on Saturday at dinner time, and never got back until Monday morning; now boys, get your horns ready, as there will be another wedding over at "Sams."

REBERSBURG.

A basket Sunday school picnic will be held by the Lutheran Sunday school of Brungarts, at Wolf's Store, Aug. 31st, Saturday, all day, in the woods on Allen Brungart's farm, north of public road. The Coburn band will furnish the music. A baseball game and many other kinds of games and races of various sorts, will be engaged in, by old and young. Every family in the valley, children, parents and all, are cordially invited to spend the day with us, in this beautiful grove. Ice cream, confectionery and other dainties will be for sale on the grounds. Come one, come all. Come everybody.

SPRING MILLS.

Sunday begins September.

Schools all open on Monday.

The K. G. E's. will go to Milton on Monday, where there will be a grand meeting of the K. G. E. of the Susquehanna district.

Many young people are at Penn Cave every Sunday. On one Sunday there were over two hundred people there.

Mable Brown, our assistant postmistress, has returned from Glen Iron, where she spent her vacation. C.C. Bartges ably filled her position while she was away.

A few from here were to Sugarvalley camp-meeting last Sunday.

Rev. Runkle and family, of Williamsport, spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Runkle, here.

The bridge across Penn's Creek, between the mill and hotel, is in such a poor condition, that it is unsafe to haul heavy loads across it.

Chas. Weaver, wife and son, spent last Sunday in Sugarvalley.

"Aunt Jane" Nofsger has been in poor health of late.

C. P. Long is erecting a barn on his homestead where Mr. Bryan lives.

Grove Meeting.

The annual grove meeting and 50th anniversary jubilee will be held at Tusseyville, Sept. 7th to 15th inclusive. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Zion congregation of the Evangelical Association. The following ministers will be present to aid in the services:

The Revs. W. A. Leopold, D. D., of Philadelphia; J. W. Romberger, of Loganton; S. G. Haas, of Madisonburg; L. H. Yergey, of White Haven; P. W. Soliver, of Mohnton; Daniel Ertel, of Spring Mills; A. S. Bierly of Selingsgrove; C. D. Dreher, P. E., of Allentown.

Nothing of any nature will be sold on the ground. The meeting will be held for the purpose of saving souls and the betterment of the people of God. Come one and all. For further information write the pastor of charge. Rev. C. D. Dreher, P. E., Rev. D. E. Haney, P. C., Spring Mills.

Geo. Fox & Sons, painters, of Lock Haven, have been awarded the contract for doing the painting on the new agricultural building at State College.

JACKSONVILLE.

Harry Martin and family, of near Pittsburg, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Harry Yearick, of Niagara, N. Y., visited friends in this section.

D. R. Miller and wife, of Lock Haven, were in Jacksonville, on Sunday.

Mrs. Tillie Peck and sons, of Nittany, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Jennie Hoy is visiting relatives and friends in this section.

Harvest Home services were largely attended in the Reformed church, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Carrie Kling and child, of Altoona, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Lottie Yearick, who was ill several weeks ago, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Catharine Lucas, of Howard, visited relatives here, on Sunday.

Miss Kate Martin, from State College, visited relatives here.

I. S. Frain transacted business in Bellefonte, last week.

34th Annual Encampment and Exhibition

OF THE PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY OF CENTRAL PENNA.

Grange Park, Centre Hall

SEPT. 14 TO 20, INCLUSIVE

ENCAMPMENT OPENS SEPTEMBER 14th. EXHIBITION OPENS MONDAY, SEPT. 16th.

The largest and best fair in Central Pennsylvania, by farmers and for farmers. Twenty-eight acres devoted to camping and exhibition purposes. Ample tent accommodations for all desiring to camp.

A large display of farm stock and poultry, farm implements, fruits, cereals, and every production of farm and garden.

The Pennsylvania State College will make a large display of the work of the College and State Experiment Station.

ADMISSION FREE.

LEONARD RHONE, Chm.
GEORGE DALB,
J. S. DAUBERMAN,
GEO. GINGEBRICH,
G. L. GOODHART.

REPETTI'S
CHOCOLATES, CARAMELS,
AND BON BONS

EXCELLED BY NONE.
EQUALLED BY FEW.

PURITY GUARANTEED.
PRICES RIGHT.

—SOLD ONLY BY—
J. ZELLER & SON, Crider's Exchange.

.. BOYS'..

FALL and WINTER CLOTHING

AT

THE SIM STORE

Made as you'll see few other Suits made. We use the utmost care in the making of our Children's Clothing. All seams doubly sewn with none but silk thread, and re-enforced with tape. Well canvassed and stayed at each vital point; pants lined when the goods require it; good quality linings; strong pockets; so that you'll find that Suits purchased here will withstand the most wear, and retain their good looks the longest.

FOR THE LITTLE FELLOWS—2 1-2 to 8 years—Bloomer, Sailor Blouse, Russian, Norfolk and Vestee Suits..... $3 to $6

FOR BOYS—7 to 16 years—Single and Double Breasted, plain or belted coats, knickerbockers or plain pants..... $2.50 to $7.50

You'll find our prices the most reasonable and selection the largest.

SIM, THE CLOTHIER,

CLOTHIERS FOR THE MEN TO BE.