Montgomery are entertaining Mrs. Frank Van Lee, of Philadelphia. —Miss Clara Gardner, of Johnsonburg, spent several days as the guest of Miss Grace Blackford. —The report of the Yearick-Hoy reunion and historical sketch will appear in our next issue. —Mrs. Harry Mills and children are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mills' mother in Bellefonte. —Mrs. James Coburn and her nephew Philip Mussler, left Saturday to visit friends at Akron, Ohio. —Miss Joe Sexton, of Tyrone, a sister of Thomas Sexton, Esq., attended the picnic on Thursday at Hecla. —Mrs. M. Ferd Hazel and family, Miss Barbara and Walburg Emsbrenner, left on Friday evening for Altoona. —Rev. James B. Stein and family have returned from the Mountain Grove where they had a delightful vacation. —Miss Emma Capenter, who has been a guest of Mrs. W. L. Dagget, returned to her home in Horseheads, N. Y. —Mr. and Mrs. Zeph Underwood and little grandchild arrived in Bellefonte Saturday morning from Sunbury. —Mrs. Keller, merchant at Lindenhall, gave our sanctum a call, also Mr. Harter, miller, and brother, of same place. —Miss Clair Shivers, of Columbus, Ohio, who has been visiting friends in Bellefonte left on Thursday for Dubois. —Isaac Underwood returned home Saturday morning from Williams Grove where he attended the Grangers Picnic. —John Raymond was called to Lock Haven on Thursday on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Jean Smith. —Harry Hazel, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Niagara Falls, is ill with typhoid fever. The latest report is he is improving. —Mrs. Giard Childs, nee Miss Mary Weaver, after spending sometime in Bellefonte as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, left Wednesday for her home in Philadelphia. —Prof. Angel, the eye specialist, will be at the Brockert-Hoff House, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 11 and 12th, where he will attend all who may desire to consult him. See his announcement elsewhere in this issue. —Miss Daisy Brisbin, who had been spending the summer in Bellefonte at the home of Col. J. L. Spangler, left Saturday for Chester Springs where she will resume her position as teacher in the Orphan school at that place. —Miss Iva Meyers, of Milesburg, historian of the graduating class at commencement exercises of the Bellefonte High School last June, was brought to Bellefonte, Friday, suffering from appendicitis. She was taken to the hospital. —Mrs. Alice Showers and her son, Frederick, just returned from a two weeks trip to Philadelphia, Germantown and Atlantic City. While away they had a most delightful time. It looks a little as if Frederick has a pretty girl in that section of the state. —A couple of days recently Misses Ann Orvis and Helen Ceder, of Bellefonte, were at the Country Club House, at Hecla, as guests of Miss Freeman, of Tyrone, later Miss Francis and Miss Brooks, of Tyrone, who joined the party. The young ladies left for their home Friday. —Mrs. Frank Nagney is visiting her sister, Mrs. George B. Brandon, at Honesdale. On her way home she will visit friends in New York and Philadelphia. It must be exceedingly lonesome on the hill without the chatter of the children. —The Elks are desirous of having a lodge located in Bellefonte and in order to organize there must be a certain number of inhabitants. Paul Fortney was delegated to make a census of the town and his estimate of the present population is 5477, which is 400 more than is necessary to establish the lodge. It is also a gain of 1100 in the last eight years. —Saturday Edgar H. Murphy, one of Philadelphia's prominent business men, arrived in Bellefonte and until Tuesday afternoon was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Ralph Mallory on Allegheny street. He is a professional singer, and Sunday morning sang a solo in the Presbyterian church which pleased the congregation. —John G. Baudis, after a successful season at Hecla Park with his merry-go-round, will move his machine to the fair ground, north of Bellefonte, where he expects to put in another week at the coming fair and then store the machine away until next summer. Mr. Baudis has made quite a fortune and will live on the top of the pile during the coming winter. When the season opens next year he expects to greet his friends again at Hecla Park. He therefore extends his thanks to the people who so kindly patronized him. —Labor Day was observed in Bellefonte Monday more closely than ever before. Most of the business places and factories were closed down, and the day given up to outings and pleasure. Notwithstanding the weather was threatening and disagreeable, a large number of people attended the Labor Day picnic held at Hecla Park, Frank Dietrich's orchestra furnished extra fine music for dancing, and a general good time was the result. Had the weather been more agreeable the crowd at the Park would have been much larger.

Public schools opened on Monday morning in the boro. —Al. S. Garman left Sunday morning for a week's trip to Atlantic City and Philadelphia. —The skating rink opened on Monday for the season under the management of Richard Taylor. —Landlord H. S. Ray and family arrived home on Friday from their summer vacation in New York state. —Minnie and Anna Cherry, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cherry, are visiting friends in Williamsport. —Miss Sallie Ulrich, sister of Mrs. Lewis Gettig, has gone to Philadelphia where she expects to spend a month. —Dr. John Keichline, of Petersburg, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as a guest of his parents, Squire John Keichline and wife. —Mrs. Patsy Stewart, of Linn street, who had been quite ill is much better. The same can be said of Mrs. John Klinger, on Lamb street. —Miss Edna Hartsock, of Phillipsburg, attended the wedding of John Bullock and Miss Ella C. Musser, which took place Thursday evening. —Next Sabbath morning and evening Rev. Barry will administer the Lord's Supper in the Lutheran church. Preparatory services Friday evening. —Randolph Hoy, brother of Edward and Harry Hoy, left Thursday morning for Pittsburg, where he accepted a position with the Universal Portland Cement Co. —Miss Jennie Longacre, one of Bellefonte's efficient school teachers, has returned from an extended visit among friends in Norrisstown, Philadelphia and Williamsport. —Daniel Sloteman, a true and tried employe of the McNeill-Huyett Lumber Co., gave us a call, and speaks well of the firm in whose employ he has been these many years. —Miss Sarah Miller returned from a very pleasant visit of several weeks with the Mulbarger family in Williamsport. She reports Mr. Mulbarger not in the very best of health. —The Herald Square stock company is drawing large crowds at the opera house this week. The new exit from the gallery is a decided convenience to the patrons of the house. —Mac Heine, who holds a good position at Rochester, N. Y., with the Nation Carwheel Works, at Rochester, N. Y., arrived here on Sunday to visit friends. Mrs. Heine and child have been here for some time. —Miss Bertha Laurie, the efficient stenographer in the First National Bank, has returned from a delightful visit among friends at Cape May and Atlantic City. She reports as having a splendid time. —Mr. and Mrs. Blair Varnell returned home to Bellefonte, Friday evening, from Ohio, where Mr. Varnell has been employed the past year. They will make their future home at Snow Shoe where Mr. Varnell has secured a splendid position. —Col. J. L. Spangler, of Bellefonte, has been appointed a member of the notification committee which will officially notify John G. Harman, of his nomination for State Treasurer on the Democratic ticket, at Mr. Harman's home in Bloomsburg, on Wednesday, September 11th. —C. C. Shuey, president of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., announces the following as chairmen of committees: Finance J. R. Hughes; Devotional, C. H. Hickley; Educational, J. E. Wagner; Physical, John Bullock; Boy's Work, H. J. Hartranft; membership, Edward Gates; Auxiliary, Mrs. C. N. Meserve. —Miss May Walker, one of the young lady operators in the Commercial Exchange, has been quite seriously ill with appendicitis but through the careful nursing of friends and the splendid treatment from her physician, Dr. Philip Fisher, she has almost recovered. She makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Witmer Smith on High street. —Thursday evening William Rider, Jr., residing on Willowbank street, gave a very pretty lawn party in honor of his sister, Miss Katurah Rider, the assistant cashier in Josephs store. Miss Rider didn't go away for a vacation, so to give his sister and her friends an evening of pleasure Mr. Rider got up the party. It was very considerate in him and the result was that Miss Rider had just as good a time at home, as though she had gone elsewhere. —Miss Ruth Bottorf, sister of William Bottorf and Mrs. John Olewine, of Bellefonte, has just finished a post graduate course at the Buffalo Conservatory of Music and on her way home to Lemont she stopped off to see Mr. and Mrs. Olewine. Miss Bottorf is a natural born musician who has but few equals. Her proficiency, in this her chosen art, has again placed her as musical instructor at the Bucknell University which position she has been filling very satisfactorily for several years. —Trude Bidwell, a midshipman at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bidwell, on Allegheny street. Trude has but one more year to serve at the Academy when he will become a full fledged officer and rank as ensign in Uncle Sam's big navy. During the summer months he has been doing practical work up along the New England coast on the United States battle ship, Kansas. He is getting along nicely and is deserving of success. —The picnic held at Hecla Park Thursday by the merchants and business men of Tyrone was a grand success. The special train from Tyrone brought to the park about 600 men, women and children. During the day enough of the jovial crowd to 1000. There were quite a number of excellent amusements, among which was the high class music in the pavilion by the Symphony orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Stein. The guests were delighted with the park, and stated if the Railroad Co. would put up bathing houses, a shooting and a ferris wheel they would get a great many picnics from that section. These amusements could be provided, and by charging a small admission they would soon pay for themselves.

—Edward Kechline arrived home Saturday morning from Sparrows Point, Md. —James Parsons, of Philadelphia, is visiting the Humes home on Allegheny street. —Dr. Thomas VanTries returned Tuesday from a delightful trip to Ocean Grove. —Mrs. John Fleck, of Phillipsburg, has been visiting the Schofield home on Thomas street. —Miss Bonnell returned home to Tyrone under a pleasant visit with the Misses Lowery. —Miss Orissa Griffith, Mrs. Thomas Markle, son and daughter, left Saturday for Philadelphia. —Little Jeanette Underwood, of Sunbury, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevenson in Bellefonte. —Miss Isabel Cassidy, of Pittsburg, has been a guest at the home of J. W. Barnhart, on Howard street. —Mr. and Mrs. John Bullock, of Bellefonte, will occupy one of Dr. R. G. H. Hayes', new houses on Curtin street. —Mrs. Harrison Kline has returned to Bellefonte from Berwick, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clark Carson. —Mrs. Roland Kelley, of Beaver Falls, is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson, on Linn street. —Mrs. Elmer Davis and Miss Ida Orris left on Thursday evening for Philadelphia where they will visit friends for a month. —Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Reese, Mrs. John Rockey and daughter, Anna, and Miss Bennett arrived home from Atlantic City. —Friday evening a young boy by the name of Miller, living near Nittany furnace, fell from a tree, severely injuring his back. —Mr. and Mrs. Vale who have been guests of Rev. James P. Hughes returned this morning to their home at Rahway, N. J. —Rev. Frank B. Coon, an Evangelical minister, who has been visiting his parents near Bellefonte, left Saturday morning for Tioga Co. —Mrs. Harry Mill and children, who have been visiting at the home of her mother, returned to her home Saturday after spending a week here. —Mrs. J. E. McGuinnis, of Punxsutawney, formerly Miss Adaline Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of Bellefonte, is recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. —Miss Marian Rumberger and Lillian Walker, who have just finished learning the art of trimming hats at Miss Mollie Snyder's millinery establishment, have secured positions in Philadelphia. —Mrs. Kerstetter and her three daughters who have been visiting the Furey home east of town, returned to their home at Curwensville, Saturday. —Thomas Hamilton, of New York City, has been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Hamilton, on Howard street. —William Cox, Jr., accompanied Mrs. William Cox, Jr., and her two sons to Pittsburg on Friday last. Mr. Cox will remain in the smoky City several weeks. —Rev. Hal Orbinson and family left Saturday morning for Philadelphia where they will spend the winter. Rev. Orbinson has a charge in the Quaker City. —Misses May and Sallie Stover returned home Friday evening from Jeannette, accompanied by Miss Noll, of that place, who will visit the Stover home at Boalsburg. —In the yard of Mrs. Henry F. Bartly, on Willowbank street, there is a dahlia stock that is nine feet high and in bloom. It is attracting a great deal of attention. —Jacob Finkelstein, the proprietor of the 5 and 10 cent store, wants the fellow to come back again who raided his ice box the other night. He would like to give him a warm reception. —Mrs. J. C. McEntire, who was called to Williamsport on account of illness of one of her friends, was a pleasant visitor at the Schofield home, on Friday. She left that evening for her home at Pittsburg. —Mrs. Ambrose M. Schmit, Mrs. Archibald Allison, Mrs. Annie Woodcock and Mrs. John P. Hagar, of Bellefonte, spent Thursday very pleasantly at the home of Hon. Harvey Curtin and wife, at Roland. —Hugh W. Crider has placed a third seat on his Buick runabout which gives him a chance to do about the right thing to his friends. The new addition was placed on the machine by McQuisition & Co., and it looks all right. —George W. Miller and wife, of Axe Mann, have returned from a ten days' visit among friends in Altoona, Bellwood and Tyrone. In their absence Mr. Miller's father, who is 92 years of age, was cared for by his grand-daughter Mary A. Shuey, of College township. —The Bellefonte Shirt factory, an industry of which the community can feel proud, has closed down to give the employes a two-weeks vacation. Mr. Ray, the proprietor, will devote part of the time in looking over the machinery and getting it ready for another long run. —The office of the Centre County Commissioners will be closed on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The State Convention of County Commissioners will meet at York at that time and John Dunlap, Calvin Weaver and John G. Bailey, will be in attendance. —Bert Bayard, of the Daily News, must have a flower garden somewhere or some old girl of his must be stuck on him, as he has been receiving bouquets everyday. To receive a bunch of flowers so frequently from an individual is an evidence that a call once and a while would be greatly appreciated. —Prof. W. T. Meyer and wife, of Philadelphia, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte and Aaronsburg, left Saturday for their home in the Quaker City where Prof. Meyer is organist in a large church. He also teaches music and is getting along nicely. It is just ten years since he left Centre county and located in Pennsylvania's thriving metropolis. —Irvin Gray, who has been working his face horses on the track at the Bellefonte fair ground during the summer months, left on Friday for Milton with "Sallie Derby" and "Marjoretta" where he entered them in the races this week. The horses were in charge of Kerin Gray, who knows how to keep race horses so that they will win. We hope to hear of Mr. Gray returning with his pockets full of gold.

—Sarah Hastings visited friends in Lock Haven this week. —Mrs. Edward Irvin is visiting friends in New Castle and Pittsburg. —Mrs. George Johnson, of Beaver Falls, is a guest at the Aiken home. —Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Musser, of Scranton, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. —Edward Hughes, wife and baby, of Milesburg, are guests at the academy. —Sunday being a Jewish holiday the Store of Sim the Clothier, will be closed. —Miss Memphis, of Erie, is visiting at the residence of Mrs. Margaret Wilson. —Mrs. Hicks, of Tyrone, was discharged from the Bellefonte Hospital, Saturday. —The condition of Edward Harper, who is recently operated on for appendicitis, is slowly recovering. —Monday afternoon, John Emerick, an employe of the Yeager Swing factory had two fingers badly mashed. —John George, who has been a guest at the Decker home on Bishop street, returned to his home at Pittsburg. —Frank H. S. Keen, of Lancaster, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of his brother-in-law, C. L. Herr, on East High street. —Tuesday morning Miss Elizabeth Gephart applied the match that set things in motion, again at the Bellefonte Furnace. —Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Achenbach, of Clearfield, spent Sunday and Monday as the guest of Mrs. Sabra Garman and Miss Brocius. —Miss Martha Shank, who is prominently connected with the Williamsport Sun, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Smith. —Mr. and Mrs. Seixas, who has been guests at the residence of Charles Smith on Bishop street, returned to Philadelphia Monday night. —Mrs. Clement Dale, who had been making an extended visit among relatives and friends, in Philadelphia, returned Saturday. —Miss Caroline Hoy, who spent her vacation in Bellefonte with her parents, left Monday for Kutztown, where she is a teacher at the State Normal. —Roy Gentzel, who had his leg crushed in an auto accident at State College, is improving nicely and it will be only a short time until he will be out again. —Mrs. Emma P. James Coburn, president of the First National Bank, and W. P. Humes, a stockholder, left Wednesday for Pittsburg to attend the meeting of the State Bankers Association. —Sunday, James McKinley, on Moose Run, about a mile and a half from Milesburg, celebrated his 76th birthday. A large number of friends gathered at his home and had a royal good time. —If the parents of Bellefonte want to see a neat school room they should go visit the one recently fixed up for the primary department of the Academy, in the Beizer property, on the corner of Spring street. —Next week Dr. J. E. Ward, the dentist, will go to Jamestown to attend a dental convention and try to grasp some new idea connected with his profession. He will also visit the Exposition. He will return one week from next Monday. —The Labor Day Service in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning drew a large congregation. It was well attended by members of the several labor organizations of the town. The sermons by Dr. J. Allison Platt were well received by all who heard them. —Mr. and Mrs. David McCloskey, of Snow Shoe Intersection, who, until recently, run the boarding house at the Dale-Bennett lumber operation, at Glenn Harris, were in Bellefonte Wednesday preparing to take a little pleasure trip to Tyrone, Clearfield, Indiana and Lock Haven. —W. Wilson Gephart and "Love" Lane have a right to "feel their oats" just a little bit at this time. The first thing they will be walking around with kid gloves, silk hats and a Prince Albert coat. One day recently they won the silver trophy cup for doubles the tennis tournament of the northwest district Bellefonte. This week they went to Altoona where they played in another tournament and were up against several fine players, from Pittsburg. That didn't figure very much, as they brought back with them a very pretty bronze cup and the consolation prize of Pennsylvania held at Erie. In the singles Gephart had two straight games to his credit when he unfortunately fell and sprained his ankle and his opponent won out in three straight games. If "Gepie" had been fortunate enough to hold his own both trophies would have been brought to Bellefonte.

Dr. Wadsworth to Leave —Dr. Marshman Edward Wadsworth, dean of the school of mines at the Pennsylvania State College, has accepted a professorship in the new department of the Western University of Pennsylvania, and will take full charge as soon as arrangements are completed for his release by the board of trustees of the Pennsylvania State college. He has been professor of mining engineering and geology and dean of the school of mines of the Pennsylvania State college since 1901. —The sun began to peep through this morning with every assurance to greet us with a clear sky and a let-up to the rain, which was so welcome, and if repeated in three or four days, will not be amiss. —Woodland is suffering from a serious epidemic of typhoid fever of which there are already fourteen cases in that near town. —A lamblike girl can often make a man feel sheepish, but a chicken hearted maiden can make a downright goose out of him. —As to the monopoly and trusts, Roosevelt has talked all right—but the people want action to correspond. —B. W. Hess has sold his hardware store at Oscoda, and will move his family back to Houtdale. —A girl may have teeth like pearls and be as dumb as a oyster.

SOME STRAY THAITS. THAT the other evening a certain young lady in Bellefonte was overheard making the remark that her face was her fortune. Wonder how long she had been broke. —THAT Claude Cook, one of the best business men in Bellefonte, heard an awful noise in the bath room the other morning and in making a careful examination found that a crash towel had fallen off the rack. —THAT the girl in Bellefonte who is as good as pie doesn't always take the cake. That's one reason why so many girls in town would rather play euchre than teach a class in Sunday school. They realize that to be popular you must be on the side of the devil. —THAT the other day a strange gentleman went into Frank Sasser's barber shop to get a fashionable hair cut. Ed. Boney, the up-to-date tonsorial artist, said "I'll take a little off the end of your hair, sir?" The customer replied: "Yes, I think you had better take it off the end, unless you can take it out of the middle." —THAT there is a young lady in Bellefonte who is so thoroughly "daffy" over a young man, that if she doesn't stop her tomfoolery the young man will lose his job. Her employer wants her to distinctly understand that the telephone was not put into his place of business for her convenience, especially to get off a lot of "rot." The right person will heed this admonition.

WEDDINGS. SHAEFF-PATTON. A marriage license was granted by the register of Blair county, in Hollidaysburg, to John H. Shaef, Tyrone, and Miss Rhoda Pearl Patton, of Port Matilda. BLANCHARD-MERIMAN. The announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Adelaide Meriman to John Blanchard, Esq., both of Bellefonte. The wedding will be some time in the spring. MILLER-STOVER. Joel B. Stover, of Zion, and Miss Ethel Miller, of Hublersburg, were united in marriage by Rev. H. C. Crow, Wednesday morning, Sept. 4. These young people are well known over the county, being among Centre county's popular teachers. Mr. Stover will teach in Walker township again this year. The happy couple left on the morning train for Bethlehem and other points in the state. They have the best wishes of a host of friends. SCHENCK-WINSLOW. A pretty home wedding was solemnized in Blanchard, Wednesday evening, Aug. 26, at 8 o'clock when Miss Laura, daughter of Mrs. Levina Winslow, was married to Foster Schenck, son of William Schenck, residing between Blanchard and Howard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Dudley, pastor of the Disciple church, in the presence of 150 guests. Harry Winslow, brother and sister of the bride, acted as best man and bridesmaid respectively. WEAVER-BENNETT. A quiet wedding took place at the home of George R. Williams, at Port Matilda, on Tuesday, Sept. 3, when Frank Weaver, son of Mrs. Thomas Weaver and Miss Leah Mabel Bennett, one of the attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bennett, all of Port Matilda, were united in marriage by the Rev. G. A. Williams, pastor of the M. E. church at Pine Grove Furnace, Pa. The newly married couple left on the 1:40 westbound train for Altoona. They will reside at Blandburg. Their many friends wish them the joys of a happy and prosperous life. WALKER-MCCLOSKEY. On August 25, at the home of J. S. Chapman, near Port Matilda, was the scene of a very pretty and attractive wedding, when their niece, Miss Eva Lane Walker, was united in marriage to George McCloskey, by John W. Williams, Justice of the Peace. After the ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served of which everybody partook and went away enjoying themselves and wishing the bride and groom many long and happy days. Some of those present were, John R. Walker, of Tyrone; Walter McCloskey, of Howard; Jacob Woodring and wife, James W. C. Orvis and wife, H. H. Osman and wife, W. B. Ginery and S. R. Pringle.
