

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Mr. and Mrs. George Richards, of Braddock, are visiting friends in Bellefonte.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Uzale, of Snow Shoe, spent Monday with friends in Bellefonte.
—Mrs. Henry Sheldon entertained a number of ladies at the Bush House on Saturday evening.
—Orrie Ishler, who is holding down a good job at Pittsburg, is visiting his parents in Bellefonte.
—Miss Sue Wyland, of Bellefonte, is enjoying a very pleasant visit with her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Wyland 230, 35th St., Pittsburg.
—B. B. McQuistian, of Butler, is a very pleasant visitor at the home of his brother, S. A. McQuistian, on West High street.
—Guy Kaufman, one of Altoona's sports, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. Guy is cutting quite a dash with our Bellefonte ladies.
—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garbrick arrived in Bellefonte Saturday from Philadelphia. They have just returned from their wedding tour.
—J. R. Ritters and Newton Whippo, of Grimes, Iowa, are here visiting relatives and friends. Both gentlemen attended the Granger picnic this week.
—Friday evening, at 8 o'clock in St. John's Reformed church, Rev. A. M. Schmidt will tell of his visit to Florence, Venice, Milan and the Italian lakes.
—Mae Kelley, one of Snow Shoe's most popular and accomplished young ladies, has been spending a few days with her friend Miss Mary Conly on Logan street.
—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lillidahl, of Altoona, arrived in Bellefonte Friday evening and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Barletton Thomas street.
—Rev. D. B. Eshoo, of Berwick, will officiate in St. John's Episcopal church on Sunday morning and evening. Early celebration to be held at 8 o'clock.
—Hugh Crider and sister, Miss Mary, left Tuesday afternoon for Cambridge Springs, the beautiful summer resort. They expect to be absent about one week.
—Edward Troutman, who has been a guest at the home of Miss Viola Robb returned to Pittsburg Tuesday, Ed. says he enjoyed his stay in Bellefonte very much.
—Margaret Furey is visiting friends in Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Before returning home she will go with a party of young folks to the Jamestown Exposition.
—The engagement of Miss Augusta Merriman, of Bellefonte, and J. Andrew Beaver, of New York City, has been announced. The wedding will occur sometime this fall.
—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Maitland and family of Williamsport, arrived in Bellefonte Sunday in Mr. Maitland's large touring car and spent the day very pleasantly with friends.
—Ever since the Emigrant became postmaster, he got "cold feet" on the Premier Organ. He was afraid to oppose Harry Keller's scheme to get the money for a client.
—Ambrose Sherry, of Bellefonte, left on Thursday for St. Mary's Seminary, North Carolina, where he is numbered among the young men studying for the Catholic priesthood.
—Mrs. Albert Blackburn, who has been a guest during the past few weeks at the Spangler home on Allegheny street, returned to her home in Philadelphia, on Saturday.
—Miss Jennie Breeze and Miss Christine Blanchard left on Saturday to spend a few days with Mrs. Robert Fay, in Altoona. Miss Breeze will then go to her home at Downingtown.
—William Baird, clerk in the postoffice at Juniata, has been spending his vacation in Bellefonte and Milesburg. He is seriously thinking of making the Registers of Centre county happy and give an X to some preacher.
—Rev. J. P. Hughes has for the first time spent his entire summer vacation in Bellefonte, at his pleasant home on Academy Hill. During the past twelve months, the family in whole or in part, seven of his children, have visited him. The eighth may yet visit him during the coming fall.
—Miss Louise Somberger, of Williamsport, is the nurse who took care of the late Mrs. W. Harrison Walker. Those who came in touch with her while here speak words of praise as to her wonderful knack and ability to take care of the sick. She is a young lady who is thoroughly competent and reliable.
—Tuesday, Philip Beizer, the Bellefonte butcher, received a car load of hogs from William Hosterman, of Coburn. They were so fat that it was with considerable difficulty they were driven from the station to the slaughter house, near Reepsburg. For a while it was the opinion of the driver they would have to put a couple in the wagon and haul them to their destination.
—Charles E. Dorworth, who had been spending his vacation in Bellefonte, left Wednesday for Philadelphia where he will take up his duties again as a member of the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Press. He is one of the best newspapermen in the state and stands high in the estimation of those by whom he is employed. He is one of the Republicans who doesn't use the party for personal gains and selfish motives.
—Tuesday forenoon a Pierce auto, large as an elephant and pretty as a marriage belle, came up Allegheny street on a proud rush and stopped in front of the Temple Court where the writer stood. When the machine was within half a square where we stood on the walk, we espied three individuals on the back seat cozy in its cushioned lap. At first we thought they were Russian counts just arrived from St. Petersburg, in all Muscovite dignity and importance. But as the pair alighted, we at once recognized in them H. A. Brungart, John W. Eby and B. A. Noll, of Zion, Nittany valley nobles, greater than Russian counts. They were brought here from Zion by Jacob Struble, a son of Isaiah Struble, the former being a graduate of State College and a traveling agent by auto for the Electric Traction and Signal Co., of Pittsburg, a responsible position which his education so ably enables Mr. Struble to fill.

—Jacob Valentine, of Pittsburg, has been visiting in Bellefonte.
—Mrs. John Olewine spent Friday at Lemont visiting her friends.
—William H. Runkle, of Tyrone, transacted business in Bellefonte Thursday.

—Miss Amy Duncan, of Gordon, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grimm, on Thomas St.
—Mrs. Charles Neely, of Pittsburg, underwent an operation in the Bellefonte hospital recently.
—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker have returned home from a two-week's visit with friends in Pittsburg.
—Miss Minnie Cole, one of the efficient composers of the Daily News office, visited friends in Lewisport over Sunday.
—Mrs. Gilmore and daughter, Miss Sarah, of Milton, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmore, on Linn street.
—Merrill Butler, who has been visiting friends throughout Centre county, was a pleasant visitor in Bellefonte, Friday evening.
—F. Walls Larimer has severed his connection with the Nittany Iron Company as superintendent of the ore mines at Gatesburg.
—Harry Otto has leased the assembly hall from the Logan fire company and expects in the near future to start a dancing class for men only.
—Senator J. K. P. Hall has appointed Thomas D. Fulton, of Tionesta, to the senatorial scholarship from his district in the Pennsylvania State College.
—A party of gentlemen entertained themselves with a duck dinner at the Country club recently in honor of Samuel Reynolds, of Lancaster, who is visiting his brother in town.
—Mrs. Edwin J. Quigley and child, of Pittsburg, who have been spending the summer in Lock Haven, spent several days recently as the guests of Henry C. Quigley and family.
—Prof. Francis Pray, who was a teacher in the Bellefonte schools, and who is this year teaching at Kane, says he likes his new position very much and is getting along nicely.
—Dr. H. W. Hiller, who is taking a special course at the University of Pennsylvania, spent several days with his family in Bellefonte. He is looking well and is getting along nicely.
—Mrs. John Larimer and her mother, Mrs. Furey, arrived home Saturday morning from Atlantic City, where they have been visiting for ten days. They also visited friends in Philadelphia.
—Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Johnson are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl, who came to their home Thursday. If the little girl lives he will have a big time keeping the boys away from his home.
—George Rhoads and John Kniseley, of Bellefonte, are building the abutments for the new bridge over Reynolds Creek near Allison's Mills, at Penn. Valley. They are giving the township a good job.
—Mrs. Thomas Morris and bright little son, Thomas King Morris Jr., who have been spending a part of the summer at the home of Hon. and Mrs. P. Gray Meek, left for their home Monday morning at East Liberty.
—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Undercoffer have been entertaining at their home on Willowbank street, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Moyer, of Williamsport; William Beck, of Snyderport; Mrs. J. W. Undercoffer, of Pittsburg; and Miss Mary Undercoffer, of Renova.
—Dr. Geo. Green, one of old Centre county's boys who is now located in Lock Haven, transacted business in Bellefonte, Friday. Dr. Green is one of the most prominent physicians in Central Pennsylvania and has an excellent practice in Clinton county.
—Some time ago we stated that Dr. J. H. Orbison had gone to Philadelphia, to preach. Since then we have learned that he and his family are located in Germantown, while Dr. Orbison is attending lectures at the University of Pennsylvania prior to going back to India.
—Some individual who has a tooth for chicken paid a visit to J. H. Decker's home on Bishop street, one night recently, and stole four nice, fat spring chickens from the refrigerator. Mr. Decker wants them to try it again and he will meet them half way with a gun.
—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleming, of Altoona, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl. It is the first born and the parents are greatly rejoiced over the arrival of the little daughter. Of course, you know grandpa and grandma Fleming, in Bellefonte, are rejoicing with the parents. Mrs. Thomas Fleming left for Altoona, Thursday.
—While skating at the rink one evening Maurice Jackson collided with another skater with the result that his glasses were knocked off and broken and he lost his diamond stick-pin; and though he offered a reward of five dollars for the finding and return of the latter he failed to get it that night but later he got the pin back but minus the diamond.
—Charles Larimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Larimer, of this place, who had charge of the Clearfield Telephone exchange for the last five years, has been transferred to Indiana where he will install an entirely new plant. A new eight position switchboard will be placed in the exchange and the town newly wired. This position is more remunerative than the old one, and is an advancement well merited. Charles is an energetic, up-to-date telephone man, and there is no question but what he will succeed. He is employed by the American Union Telephone Co.

—Our friend, C. Reese, of Port Matilda, gave us a friendly call.
—Mr. and Mrs. William Musser spent Sunday at Pine Grove Mills.
—Mrs. Media Wan and daughter, Helen, visited friends in Tyrone and Altoona.
—Captain Patterson, of State College, was a business visitor in Bellefonte, Friday evening.
—Frank Halderman, who is working at Corwensville, was an arrival in Bellefonte, Saturday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whitaker and family, left Thursday afternoon for Altoona where they will visit friends for a week.
—Thomas Conathan, one of the young operators who handles the keys in the tower near Tyrone, spent Sunday with his mother near Axe Mann.
—Iva Kidder, of Pittsburg, who has been visiting friends in Pennsylvania, spent part of Monday at the Taylor home on Willowbank street.
—George Sasserman, superintendent of the Valley Iron Works at Williamsport, is a guest at the home of Samuel Donahy, on Allegheny street.
—Pete Mack, who left with Dick Brouse and Charley Moran a couple of weeks ago, returned home on Monday morning. He got lost up around Unionville.
—The Munson home on Allegheny street is near completion and when finished will be one of the prettiest homes in the town. The roof has been put on and the inside work started.
—Harry Williams, of Bellefonte, who fell and injured himself, Tuesday of last week while frescoing the Presbyterian church at Lemont, was able to be around on Saturday, although still very sore.
—George Jackson, one of the best young colored men in Bellefonte, accepted a position with the "Jessie James" troupe that was in Bellefonte, as a waiter. This company travels in their own car and have twenty persons in the troupe.
—Harry E. Shook, son of Mrs. Sarah J. Shook, arrived in Bellefonte on Friday evening and is a guest at his home on Allegheny street. Harry is employed in the Harris Studio at Williamsport and is one of the most up-to-date young photographers around.
—Samuel McClure left Monday morning for Princeton College. He has three years before he finishes his college course after which he will take a four-year course in a Theological Seminary. He will then be ready for his mission which will be the ministry.
—The other day Steele Hunter was at work cutting a door in the house occupied by Neil Martin when he made a mistake and cut a deep gash in his hand. It required almost a dozen stitches to close the wound while it was with some difficulty the flow of blood was stopped. He is now getting along all right.
—Miss Marie Gerrity, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Gerrity, has been elected organist in St. John's Catholic church and led the choir for the first time last Sunday. Although only in her teens Miss Gerrity is a proficient musician and performs with a marked degree of expression which is very pleasing to her hearers.
—The front of the Reynolds block, on Allegheny street, is being painted and remodeled. This will make a wonderful improvement to the building and also to that portion of the town. On the lower floor the building is occupied by Millers Hardware, Meese's Grocery and Garman's Dry Good store. Eckenroth has the contract to do the work.
—The County Commissioners have placed an incandescent light in the rear of the court house. The hoodlums of the town would get down at back of the temple of justice and make such a noise at night that it really became an annoyance to the neighborhood. Now the officers of the law can walk up there and without any difficulty see who is there. The idea is a good one.
—James A. Shook, the accomplished son of Mrs. Sarah J. Shook, who has been spending his summer vacation at his home in Bellefonte, left Monday for Huntingdon where he will enter Juniata College as a senior. This is his second term at Juniata, and he reports it as a fine institution. James is a progressive fellow and through his energy and courage he is gradually pushing to the top. We wish him great success through life.
—One day recently Miss Mary Rapp, a seamstress, went into a closet and was somewhat startled to be confronted by a big rat. She at once procured a broom and went after the rodent. Striking it just hard enough to rouse its fighting blood and yet not hard enough to cripple it, the rat ran up the broomstick and before Miss Rapp realized what it was about it had bitten her on the hand. Since that a sore has broken out on her arm near the shoulder and one on her face and it was feared that a bad case of blood poison may result from the rat's bite.
—Friday Lieut. James Gilbert Taylor left Bellefonte for Port Wayne, Michigan, to which post he has been assigned by the government. His social engagements were such in Bellefonte that he found it extremely difficult to break away, but a soldier must obey the summons, sweetheart or no sweetheart. James made a most excellent record at West Point and there is no question but what he will maintain it at his new post of duty. He now holds a position of which any young man could be justly proud. He is ambitious and it would be no surprise to hear of him, some day at the head of the United States Army.
—Notwithstanding the unwarranted and selfish criticism of fools who think that everything in Bellefonte must be done to enhance their properties to the detriment of all other interests in the town we say, with hundreds of others, that counsel did perfectly right in repairing and fixing up Linn street in a way that it looks respectable. This is a street where many of our best citizens reside, who always take a great interest and pride in their homes. In fact, it is one of the finest residence thoroughfares in the borough, and one of which our people can justly feel proud. The council, therefore, should not take any notice or dictations from a windy blatherskite or an emigrant here, who thinks of nobody but himself and his personal interests. The street in question has been covered with a thick layer of crushed limestone, and then rolled with R. B. Taylor's ten-ton roller which makes it as solid as a state road. It is a good job and the people who come and go, on it speak volumes of the progressive spirit that which characterizes those who have this work in charge.

—Mrs. Wilbur T. Twitmyer returned home Friday evening from a delightful visit to Lancaster.
—Mr. and Mrs. Bartley, of Bellefonte, visited their son, A. W. Bartley, and family, at Lock Haven.
—Mrs. Kerr, of Chicago, who is visiting friends over through Penns Valley was a Bellefonte visitor, Saturday.
—Edward Harper was taken home on Saturday from the hospital. He is almost well and looks fine. Ed. has had a pretty serious time of it.
—On Thursday J. C. Rowe left on the noon train for Pittsburg where he has business of importance to transact. He will return home Friday afternoon.
—The porch erected by the Misses Benner in front of their residence, on High street, looks all right, and gives the place quite a colonial appearance.
—Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Harris left Thursday for a ten day's trip to Old Point Comfort. While away they expect to spend a day or so in Washington.
—Blair & Co., the jewelers, have placed a new awning in front of their store in the Brockerhoff House block. It's a good improvement and makes an elegant appearance.
—Mr. and Mrs. John Dugan arrived in Bellefonte Saturday and spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte. This is Johnnie's first visit to Bellefonte since he became a wedded man.
—Miss Helen Hull, who has been spending part of her vacation at Boalsburg and State College, returned home and will resume her work in the millinery department at Joseph Bros.
—George A. Beezer went to Philadelphia the other day and while there bought "Joe," a horse with a pedigree and a record. He expects to enter him in the races at the Centre county fair.
—Samuel White, who resides in Bush's Addition, a suburb of Bellefonte, brought to this office a bean pod, which measured 20 inches in length. Those who can beat that let us hear from them.
—Mrs. Henry Sheldon and Miss Julia Curtin, two very distinguished ladies who have been spending the summer at the Bush House, left Monday morning for their home in Philadelphia. Miss Curtin is a sister of the late Andrew Gregg Curtin.
—The large double parlor at the residence of W. P. and Miss Myra Humes, on the corner of Howard and Allegheny streets, has been papered with imported English paper. The effect is beautiful and is much admired by all who call at this beautiful and hospitable home.
—L. F. Roan, who for a number of years had been the efficient postmaster at Lemont, has resigned and Tuesday left for Tyrone where he has accepted a position in Francis' hardware store. Mr. Roan is a thoroughly reliable young man and has considerable experience as a business man. His success goes without saying.
—When you see Allen Marshall ride along the street in that big yellow wagon of Shrivery's, don't laugh at him because he is smiling for he can't help it. On Sunday evening that big stork left a little girl at his home, and Allen is tickled almost to death. Mr. Marshall and the young lady are getting along nicely.
—Benjamin Hubbard, of Scranton, the newly elected physical director of the Y. M. C. A. arrived in Bellefonte Monday evening. He is a fine young man and the indications are that he will do good and efficient work. The gymnasium and the bowling alley will be well patronized this winter by the young people of town.
—Miss Edna Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meyer, of this place, has entered Wilson College, at Chambersburg, one of the best young lady seminaries in this country. She is a bright and intelligent young lady who graduated with honor from the Bellefonte High School, and there is no question but she will like the school and get along nicely.
—Monday night eighteen young men attended the mechanical drawing class at the Y. M. C. A. H. C. Harper, one of the finest instructors of the kind in this part of the state, will have charge of the class. This is an excellent opportunity for young men who want to make something of themselves. This class will meet regularly every Monday and Thursday evenings.
—The Nittany Furnace Co., of Bellefonte, has discarded the Gatesburg ore banks, which has been in operation for a great many years. While there is still ore there it is not sufficient quantities to pay for taking it but the company will get ore from near Glenn Iron, located in Union county, along the Tyrone & Lewisburg railroad. This ore is of a superior quality and makes extra fine iron.
—L. C. Gettig, the butcher, has leased the Thomas homestead, near the P. R. R. road house, now occupied by Clifton Thomas. He will move from the VanTries house, on Spring street, on October 1st. People coming along in the train will wonder what millionaire lives there. It is a nice place to live but we would be sorry to hear of Lew straining his back while cutting the grass on that large lawn.
—Mrs. J. E. McGinnis, who prior to her marriage was Miss Adaline Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of Bellefonte, is still in the Ridgway hospital with typhoid fever. She was on a fair way to recovery when she had a slight relapse but is now getting better and her friends hope that in a short time she will be able to be removed from the hospital when she will be brought to her parents home here to recuperate.
—Dr. H. M. Hiller, has decided to go to Philadelphia where he will practice his profession and make his future home. He is an excellent gentleman, and we were in hopes he would settle down in Bellefonte and be good. He however thinks that he can do better in the Quaker City, than any place else and thus he is locating. We hope that he may be successful to the extent that some day he will come down the pike with an even million in his inside pocket.
—John Eckel, the accommodating young clerk in Gettig's meat market, left Sunday morning on the train for Lock Haven for the purpose of visiting friends. He had such a pleasant time, that afternoon train pulled out without him. As Mr. Gettig was in Snow Shoe, John knew that he had to be in Bellefonte ready for business Monday morning. So he started to walk, and by a little perseverance he turned up for duty at the regular time. After arriving here he didn't feel much for going to the gymnasium and taking exercise.

—Mrs. Mary Linn is visiting friends at Harrisburg.
—The Passion Play is coming soon to the Theatreum.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Love, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.
—Mrs. Newton Spangler was an arrival home Saturday night from Tyrone.
—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, of Altoona, spent the Sabbath in Bellefonte.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Callaway and Mrs. Lane are visiting friends in Philadelphia.
—Helen Simler, of Pittsburg, is visiting the Misses Bullock on West High street.
—Mrs. James Kellerman and Mrs. Harry Auman and son are visiting friends at Lewistown.
—Mrs. Lonsbury, who has been visiting her son Lewis Lonsbury and wife, left Monday for Corning, N. Y.
—Mrs. E. R. Wainright and daughter are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell on Linn street.
—Miss Guss Hetzel, of Lock Haven is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCoy, on Thomas street.
—Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk are entering Mrs. Emma Thornburg, of Burr Oak, Kansas, and Mrs. Moyer, of Kylesport, Clearfield county.
—Mrs. Charles Vernon and daughter, Annabela, and Mrs. Leonard George, of Pittsburg, are guests at the Decker home, on Spring street.
—Landlord H. S. Ray, of the Brockerhoff house, bought F. Walls Larimer's riding horse, Pidgeon, and now he will do some stunts on horseback instead of automobile.
—Thomas E. Mayes, train dispatcher on the Central R. R., of Pa., is taking his vacation. He is putting in the time at his home near Lemont, and at the Grangers picnic.
—The many Bellefonte friends of James P. Dowling, of Renovo, will be sorry to learn that he is in the Lock Haven hospital threatened with a serious attack of typhoid fever.
—Commissioner John Dunlap left Monday morning for Snow Shoe with the new ballots which were used at the special election on Tuesday when they elected the first borough officers.
—Rev. and Mrs. R. Crittenden announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lillian, to Dr. David W. Stinson, of Pittsburg; the wedding is to take place within the next few months.
—Norman Kirk and Blair Fisher walked from Snow Shoe Intersection to Bellefonte on Sunday afternoon. Norman's young lady friends in this place are getting suspicious of his frequent travels up there.
—Cal Green, the famous colored tenorial artist, is again in Bellefonte. He spent several years in Denver, Col., and from the looks of him he must have been dining on the fat of the land out there. He says he is going to remain in Bellefonte.
—Miss Bess McDermott, Miss Margaret Gargan and Francis Gargan, who have been guests the past few weeks of Mr. and Mrs. James Noonan, returned to their homes in New York City. These young ladies enjoyed their visit and during their stay here won many friends. Bellefonte is a good old town and knows how to entertain her guests.
—Recently Leo Stevens, the aeronaut who is well known in Bellefonte, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fleisherman, of Cincinnati, and three other friends, made an ascent in a big balloon on Staten Island and after ascending almost a mile in the air sailed up into Vermont, south again into Massachusetts and up into New Hampshire, a distance of 147 miles, which was covered in a little more than five hours, they finally landed without a mishap of any kind.
—Lee Adams, son of the late Frank Adams, who had been employed in the General Electrical works at Schenectady, N. Y., has accepted a position at the Pennsylvania State College as an assistant in the electrical department. He is a graduate of the college, and his close application to his work while in Schenectady has been the means of his securing such an important position which he has been called to fill. He and his wife have been at the College for the last ten days where Mr. Adams has been getting acquainted with his duties.
—The addition to the Bellefonte hospital is nearing completion as rapidly as possible. This addition is badly needed as the hospital, proper, is crowded to its utmost capacity. Patients are compelled to lay on cots in the hallways which is not only inconvenient for the nurses but it is not strictly conducive to the best interest of the patient. The new addition will give room enough for eighteen or twenty beds which will relieve the congested condition of things on the hill. The operating room will be one of the finest in the state when completed.
—The Theatreum, which has been a pleasant evening show for months in Petriken Hall, it will please the people to know, will produce pictures of the world famous Passion Play, within a few evenings. None will want to miss that, as it is re-produced in pictures, in its reality, and is interesting as well as instructive. Hundreds have gone abroad at great expense, to witness the Passion Play at Oberammergau, and we will soon be favored with a reproduction upon the screen in Petriken Hall, at a date to be announced later, cost only a trifling sum.
—James Furst, Esq., arrived in Bellefonte Friday from an extended tour through Europe. While in the foreign country he was accompanied by his brother, William Furst, Esq., of Philadelphia. They visited the principal cities of the east and had a very pleasant and enjoyable time. He is slightly tanned showing that he did a great deal of traveling in the hot climate to be found across the waters. He is much improved in health and is now down to business at the old place, opposite the court house. He is a good attorney and ready to give good wholesome advice and then take your cash. Give him a call and see if this is not correct.

—Mrs. Henry Harris and son, Wilber, left on Saturday for Harrisburg.
—Mrs. Frank Derstine, who has been visiting her parents in Bellefonte, returned to Altoona on Saturday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robb, who have been visiting friends in Bellefonte, returned home to Pittsburg on Saturday.
COBURN.
Harry Frankenberg and family, of Smithtown, visited at L. H. Stover's on Sunday. Other visitors in town recently were Frank Benner, of Woodward; J. C. Krumrine and wife, of Weikert; Mrs. N. F. Braucht and two sons, of Dewart, and C. F. Corman and family, of Duquesne.
On Saturday evening J. W. Kerstetter had his right hand badly burned and the wrist of his left hand, by the breaking of a kerosene lamp, which broke in his hands while in the attempt to throw it out through the warehouse window. His hands and clothes were saturated with oil and at once caught fire which flashed about his head; had it not been for the presence of mind of a woman, Mrs. Conrad Decker, who smothered the fire by covering him with her apron, he would certainly have been burned worse.
Marion Kerstetter went to Philadelphia on Saturday to spend sometime with her sister, Mrs. Orvis Meyer.
H. E. Bush and wife, of Sunbury, spent a few days at the home of G. W. Kaeber.
On Saturday, M. S. Fiedler, of Millheim, conveyed Reuben Harter and wife to Brushvalley, to visit Emanuel Harter, who is very sick.
T. W. Hosterman and wife, and J. C. Krumrine and wife, spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Hosterman at Fiedler.
W. H. Corman went to Lancaster on Monday to enter F. & M. college for his second year.
