CIRCULATION FOR THE PAST SIX MONTHS OF 1907

5190 COPIES

Vol. 29. No. 38

PROC - DINGS IN LIEMBER COURT

on Over 5,200-Largest in Only an Ordinary Grist of Cases Heard Thus Far.

On Wednesday Forenoon Having Completed Their Work-- In Contempt

of Court--List of Cases Tried and Business Transacted

(Reported by S. D. Gettig, Esq.)

September session of court convened on Monday morning at ten o'clock and nearly all the forenoon was taken up in bearing motions and petitions as present.

Robert Mann, verdict on Wednesday Plenty of Others Think Way.

Plenty of Others Think Way.

ROCK CREAMERY (BENN EDITOR CENTRE DEMOCRAT:
I notice in a recent issue of stone Gazette that the editor per is urging the Republican nearly all the forenoon was taken up in hearing motions and petitions as present-ed by the several members of the bar.

George Waite, executor of his mother's estate of Miles township, who had been previously cited to file an account in his mother's estate, and not having done so, attachment was issued and he was brought before the Court; and after being instructed by the Court as to the George Waite, executor of his mother's estate of Miles township, who had been

The names of the grand jurors were called and P. J. McDonald, section-foreman of Unionville borough, selected as foreman.

The civil list for the present week was then gone over and the following cases

George R. Mock, administrator, vs. J. E. Hedding, H. Turner, non-resident, and Alton Nelson, resident, being an appeal-continued.

J. F. Guyer vs. J. E. Hedding, H. Turner, non-resident, and Alton Nelson, Coal Company, appeal-continued an appeal-settled.

betrayal cases, were discharged under had not made return under oath of the service of the summons. Non-suit granted and rule granted upon the de-fendant to show cause why non-suit the poor of Spring township, appeal. This action is brought to recover for medical attendance on a boy by the name of Saylor, a resident of Spring township, aged about seven years. patient was not financially able to pay the bill and the overseers of the poor did not have any knowledge of the attendance of the physician. The doctor took out an order of relief, which he subsequently handed to the overseers of the poor and charged the bill to the poor district. At the close of the plaintiff's testimony defendant moved the Court for compulsory non-suit on the ground that notice had not been given to poor authorities within ten days from the time that he was first called, as provided for by Act of Assembly of 1893. At the close of the argument for the non-suit, verdict was taken in favor of the plaintiff for $54 32, subject to the questions of law involved.

Earl Freeman, indicted first count larceny, second count feceiving stolen goods, etc., prosecutor, C. F. Shaw. The defendant is indicted for taking one suitcase on the 5th of August, 1907, in the borough of State College, of the value of about $4. Defendant plead guilty. Earl Freeman indicted, first count entering to commit a felony, second count larceny, third count receiving stolen goods, etc.; prosecutor D. T. Pearce. This defendant broke into the store of Pearce Brothers, at State College, on August 5, 1907, and taking therefrom a pair of men's shoes of the Wilbur, Wilkinson indicted ; first count larceny, second count receiving stolen goods, etc.; prosecutor G. W. Eadel, agent. This defendant got into the sta-grand jury and plead guilty.

David Glover, a member of the Union County Bar and the present District Attorney of Union county, was then admitted especially to assist in the trial of the The Mifflinburg Buggy Company vs. David Bailey, an appeal During the night this case was settled between the parties. On motion of H. C. Quigley, Esq., on Monday forenoon, Charles A. McClure, a son of James I. McClure, of Bellefonte, was admitted to practice law in the several courts of Centre county.

Tuesday morning the first case taken ap was Sprout, Waldren & Company vs. Daxid Bailey, and is an appeal. The defendant is an implement dealer of Morrisdale, and ordered some machinery from plaintiffs list prices, which was ordered for parties in Clearfield county. The defendant claims that he paid the plaintiffs in full for the goods as per price fixed per contract, which was made over the telephone, while the plaintiff over the telephone, while the plaintiff over the telephone of the plaintiff over the telephone over the telephone of the plaintiff over the telephone over from plaintiffs list prices, which was or-Verdict on Tuesday afternoon in favor

Com. vs. Summerfield Test indicted PROTESTS FROM for betrayal; prosecutrix Mame Moore. This case is from South Philipsburg. The defendant plead guilty and the usual sentence was imposed.

Centre County.

Robert Mann, indicted on first count assault, second count assault and battery prosecutrix, Inlia Lucas. Defendant's counsel moved to quash the indictment on the ground that the orginal information was not filed with the official papers GRAND JURY WAS DISCHARGED to the case, though the justice of the peace had filed his transcript. After argument the Court quashed the second count in the indictment, sustaining the first This case is from Howard, and brought before the Court; and after being instructed by the Court as to the position he had placed himself in, the Court suggested that he see some one or consider the position he was in, and he would again call the case an hour later. When he was called up the second time he still refused to file an account and mesond to the still refused to file an account and the seesone one or consider the position he was in, and he would again call the case an hour later. When he was called up the second time he still refused to file an account and the court in this cow she owned the cow in December 1906 which the husband sold to his brother and he to this defendant. This action is brought by for the men and boys that responded to the call of such men as Lincoln and Curtin, what would our great country. he still refused to file an account and was committed to the custody of the fendant having paid the value of the try, or commonwealth of Pennsylvania, cow to the brother of Mr. Gummo in March of the present year, made defense authority care for us today? Well, it is that he was the inneent holder without easily seen. Our great lawmakers are knowing of the title to the cow being in Mrs. Gummo. Verdict in favor of the der and justice, over the noblest, strongplaintiff for $36.60.

The grand jury made their final pre-sentment and the substance is, that the county buildings and offices are in good condition excepting, however, that re-pairs be made to the walk between the to die if it need be to save the country in Court House and the jail, and the board- the hour of peril,-I say that when walk in the jail yard, and the removal comes to enact laws for the benefit of Turner, non-resident, and Alton Nelson, of a frame building in the north corner those men and boys, then they are resident, trading as the Beaver Run of the jail yard. Afterwards the grand afraid of bankrupting the country, which jury was discharged, as well as the trav- is evident by the recent pension legisla-James B. Sliker vs. John H. Wetzel, a paragraph of the At the afternoon session three persons at the afternoon session three persons are the dependent of the Register's accounts were confirmed to the recent pension legislation. When they passed the dependent until Wednesday afternoon, at which time the Register's accounts were confirmed to the recent pension legislation. When they passed the dependent until Wednesday afternoon, at which time the Register's accounts were confirmed to the recent pension legislation. heretofore in the custody of the Sheriff nisi, and the list of cases for next week entirely unable to maintain himself, for non-compliance with the sentence in gone over, and after hearing motions while our lawmakers salary is being inand petitions, adjourned until Thursday creased almost continually. If the men

During the severe rain and electric partice of the summons. Non-suit granted and rule granted upon the de-granted and rule granted upon the de-endant to show cause why non-suit afternoon the barn southeast from Ty-cone Forges, and belonging to H. A.

Dr. E. S. Dorworth vs. overseers of Cripp, was struck by lighting, and, with this wast's cone for the summont. Shortly after the wound had been summont. Shortly after the wound had been southeast from Tythis year's crop of hay and grain, totally destroyed by the fire which ensued. Several employes who were about the farm sought shelter in the barn from the purposes. I am inclined to think that it rain, but . Il escaped injury, although somewhat stunned. They went to work and succeeded in getting all the live stock out and also the great bulk of the farming implements, including the big thresher. One wagon on the barn floor loaded with oats went up in the flames. The insurance of $2,000 only covered the building. The loss, over and above the insurance, will approximate $5,000. Within the past two years Mr. Gripp has been a great sufferer by fire. The mammoth barn on this same farm was destroyed by lightning about two years pension the poor old soldier, through ago. Since that a spacious dwelling house, corner of Woodland avenue and Tenth street. Tyrone, his handsome and wealth of Pennsylvania, and then we commodious residence property at Elkhurst, and lately a large apartment dwelling at Tyrone Forges. Included in the barn loss on Saturday was 150 the barn loss on Saturday was 150 their fairness will be very act to see that the loss soldiers and tons of hay, 900 bushels of wheat, besides other grain. The years oats crop was just being housed, a load having just been placed on the barn floor.

James B. Lucas Killed.

James B. Lucas, of School House Crossing, located along the Snow Shoe railroad, met with an accident shortly before noon, Friday, that caused his death. Lucas made his home with Joseph Lewis, of Tyrone, and only ten days ago secured employment as a brakevalue of about $4. Defendant plead man on the Tyrone division. The crew to which he was assigned was doing some shifting at the scales in the upper Tyrone division yard. He was riding a draft of cars, when a draft following bumped into them and jolted him off. tion at Coburn, opened a package and took therefrom a box of peanut candy.

Defendant waived the finding of the the thigh and foot and his right hand.

He fell to the track and several cars passed over his body, crushing his left leg at the thigh and foot and his right hand. He was picked up by his fellow trainmen and taken to the surgical room at the Tyrone station, where he was attended by Drs. Musser and Fulkerson. He was taken to Altoona and admitted to the hospital. He had lost considerable blood and slowly sank until death ended his sufferings at 4.30 o'clock. Coroner Blackburn made an investigation and decided an inquest unnecessary. Lucas was aged 21 years, and was an orphan. At 7.20 Saturday morning the remains were taken to School House Crossing for interment.

Oklahoma is All Right Returns from Tuesday's election, 17th, in Oklahoma indicate that the constitution was adopted 3 to 1, that prohibition sentatives, according to the returns received. The legislature is Democratic trial of the cases would not be reached

John Williamson vs. Edward Hughes, being an an appeal. Continued.

George B. Waite, who was placed in the custody of the sheriff on Monday for contempt of court, was released on Tuesday afternoon, agreeing to file the account as requested, and the Court granting him thirty days to do so.

Best Year at State College.

The Pennsylvania State College of the stand and he'll swear six 'all lies and liars.'

Six Governors.

Six states will elect governors this fall, namely, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Maryand. Mississippi and students, or about 200 more than last year.

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1907.

POINTS OUT SOME

ROCK CREAMERY (BENNER TWP.)

I notice in a recent issue of the Key-Robert Mann, verdict on Wednesday morning of not guilty, but defendant to pay all the costs.

Hannah Gummo vs. George Clark; stone Gazette that the editor of that panot all as lucky as he has been. No doubt while he was obtaining his education, or est and best country in the world, and yet when it comes to enact laws for the benefit of the men and boys who responded to their country's call and stood Brown and Rodearmel vs. George Katchik, an appeal. The defendant moved the Court for compulsory nonsuit, on the ground that the constable had not made return under coth of the prisoner suit.

like the Hon. A. G. Curtin said at one time, that there was a time when it was an honor to be a soldier. ple do not consider what the soldiers of the Civil War did for the country they enjoy. So also with our state government, in other words, with the ring that is ruling our State government. They can find plenty of money to educate sharks to get away with our State money and to appropriate to all kinds of institutions, to pension judges and even school teachers, but have no money to whom they enjoy all these things. Oh, no; that would bankrupt the Commonwould have no more chance at graft; yet their friends will do in November. Would say that I have always been a

WM. COLPETZER,

State College. Change the Time

such a change. The Democrat makes The contract price is $900,000. this suggestion, wishing to insure a more propitious date, that would, in a measure, lessen the risks as to unsafe weather. For an outing and a week of School State in the Union. pleasurable recreation and mingling and borders of the State are eleven thousand

Capitol Suits.

While it was at first thought that the Other civil cases disposed of were: M.
C. Gephart vs. Reuben Etters being an appeal. Defendant confessed judgment in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $68.03, with interest from November the Best Year at State College.

The light and will elect as until the regular January term, there is now probability that they will be tried at a special December term, but just what the new state road between Belleman of the light that the new state road between Belleman of the Gazette on the stand and he'll swear its wall lies and light.

Best Year at State College.

THE PROPER REMEDY

Monday evening an intoxicated man was found in the North ward, of Belle-AN OLD SOLDIER was found in the North ward, of Belle-fonte which, of course is nothing unnatur-He was so much under the influence of the spirits that he was not able to Who Does Not Like the Treatment He navigate. Some good people, out on Receives From Politciians. the hill, called the police who answered the summons as quickly as possible. When they arrived they found a number of sympathetic people around him who insisted that the victim of strong drink should be taken home. While these per-To Which They Must Submit--Will Not Stand by The Gang This Year--Plenty of Others Think The Same Same May have a high conception of the duty of one man to another they were evidently in the wrong here. When a man makes a brute of himself to the disgrace of his friends and family he ought to suffer the consequence. If the police-men of Bellefonte would make it a rule to carry home every man they found drunk on the streets of the town the ly remain there. In many cases it is for the exhibitor to realize a good return more of a human act to put an intoxica- for his labor in trying to have a fine exted man in the lock-up than to take him hibit. home where he will make a half dozen people unhappy. The right way is to put them behind the bars and make ments found on the ground. This year, them pay a fine to get out, thus teaching as an experiment, every game of chance, them a better lesson than if carried to including the harmless paddle wheel, their homes on flowery beds of ease. A will be excluded from the ground. The only way the public can approve the property of the control of not receive encouragement from the course is by a record breaking attenpublic to repeat the same thing over

An Attempted Suicide. Friday afternoon the little village of ulian, this county, was thrown into a fevor of excitement over the attempted suicide of Dr. Peter W. Swope, who for years had been a well-known and highly espected citizen of that place. It seems that for some time Dr. Swope has been in feeble health, although he was able to be around. Friday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, he went up stairs and in a short time afterward a shot from a revolver was heard and when going to his room some of the family found him on the bed with a wound in his head. The bullet entering a little below the temple. He was still conscious and stated he wanted to die. Dr. James Thompson. ashamed of themselves, so they amended of Port Matilda, was called who located that law a little so that it now says $12, the ball in his neck. It is thought by c Shortly after the wound had been we get the $25 a month. They want to ever since he has been in a critical condition, with no possible hopes of his re-covery. Saturday morning his entire right side became paralyzed. He is said to be 84 years of age which, of course, is much against his recovery. He has a wife and two daughters and is reported to be in good financial circum-

Correct Game Laws.

Not in a long time were the people of this county confused as much on the game laws as this year. This was dealer, has placed in the Catholic cemedue to the different dates that were pubtery in this place, a handsome monument er portion of the edition was run off.

A Large Contract.

The Grange picnic last week, unfortunately, was interfered with by rain set-Everything was in the best trim to ville to Carmon, a stretch of nine miles, of Mr. have an attractive farmer's encampment and when the work, which is to begin who assisted in the work. upon this usually pleasurable occasion, at once is completed, the road from The period for holding this encampment is right within the equinoctial dates, and where the road branches to Buffalo and hence the frequent interferances by rain Rochester, will all be doubletracked.

According to a survey completed by If suitable dates could be fixed upon D. S. Watson, many long curves will be to have the picnic come off a week or straightened, and a tunnel 1,200 feet two earlier, outside of the equinoctial long will be put in. This tunnel enbelt, no doubt the rain troubles might tailing a vast portion of the expendi-be avoided, to some extent at least, and tures, will decrease the distance by a farmers, being aware of the earlier date, mile and make this portion of the railcould arrange their farm work to suit road one of the best on the division.

Sunday School Workers.

Pennsylvania is the largest Sunday mmingling of our farmers, and their and sixty-five schools enrolling 1,682,47 friends of other pursuits, the Grange Encampment affords all that could be desired, and more so than the expensive trip to a seashore resort.

and skty-live schools enfolding 1,002,47 members, nearly one-fourth of the population. This vast organization will hold its Forty-third Annual Convention in the city of Uniontown, Fayette county, Oct. 9, 10 and 11, 1907.

The Centre County Association is en-The bills of indictment in the capitol cases will be considered by the Dauphin county grand jury this week if District railroads and special entertainment rates Attorney Weiss can bring it to pass, at Uniontown can be secured from Rev. though the over 200 cases that precede W. H. Schuyler, Centre Hall, Pa., the these on the trial list may make it necessary for a special sitting of the grand jury next week.

County Corresponding Secretary, or from W. G. Landes, General Secretary, Witherspoon Bidg., Philadelphia, Pa.

fonte and Milesburg is about completed and extends along the Fair grounds. A drive over this road will be a rare treat to any person who has enough sense to appreciate a good thing.

The Milton high school team has already written for a game.

The lockers are now being over hauled and fitted with new lock combinations which will put them in good

CENTRE COUNTY COMING FAIR

Promises to be Larger and Better than Ever Before.

FAMOUS REPAZ BAND COMING

There Will be no Gambling Devices Allowed on the Ground--Wednesday Will be Children's Day-Good Races and a Fine Exhibit Assured.

Whatever you do, you should make force would have to be increased four County Fair, to be held October 8, 9. all arrangements to attend the Centre fold, or in other words the drunks of the 10 and 11. It will be larger and better town would have a dead cinch. If a than ever before. This year everything drunk man steals or commits a murder will be done to cater to the public taste the law takes its course and punishes in the line of amusements, as well as the law takes its course and punishes him, and if he is found a nuisance on the streets of Bellefonte he should be taken to a place where he has time to reflect. We know places in Bellefonte where it would be nothing but a brutal act to bring forth good results. As a special inducement the premiums for fruits and take a drunk man home to annoy and inducement the premiums for fruits and probably beat a good wife or make it so articles in the general list have been unpleasant for her that she could hard-doubled, so that it gives an apportunity dance.

Another change will be with refference to the amusements before the grand stand. In former years they had either a dog or a horse show with trapeze or acrobatic performances. This year arrangement has been made with the famous Repasz Military Band, of Williamsport, to give concerts during the progress of the fair. This is the musical organization that gave such general satisfaction at the Business Men's picnic at Hecla Park this year. It is an excellent attraction which cannot help but be appreciated. The prospects for racing are brighter now than they have been at this early season any year in the past. The track could not be in better condition than it is already, and competent judges expect to see exceptional time made during the things for granted meet. The poultry department which thing but a hint." last year proved such a wonderful success because none but Centre county said: "If all flesh is grass, you must be owls were admitted bids fair to be a load of hay.'

arger this year. The grounds are The fermi fit of the $15, and seventy-five before inflicted he became unconscious and the annual coat of white wash which is be wound had been larger this year. The grounds are about ready for the exhibition, barring

The managers have introduced another new feature and that is "children's day" which will come on Wednes-day. All children under fifteen years child in Centre county a chance to see this big show.

A Handsome Monument.

Milton Johnson, the Bellefonte marble lished by different papers in this county to the memory of two brothers, Stefen in the past few weeks. In this the Cen- and Hric Bovanco. These are two of tre Democrat went astray by copying the the Austrians who were buried beneath incorrect statement from another, the tons of rock and earth at the quar-Then in making a correction last week another rediculous blunder happened something less than a year ago. The that was not discovered until the great- monument stands over ten feet in height We now wish to call particular atten- among the finest in the market. The and made of Westerly granite which is tion to the synopsis of the game laws as found in this issue, which was compiled inscription contains the names of the two brothers, and states they were killfound in this issue, which was compiled two brothers, and states they were killstaunch Republican, especially on Na- by Geo. Miller, and issued as a souvenir ed in the lime quarries. The monu-truant. A family in that town objected tional and State questions; have been a from their store. This is correct and in ment, which cost about $350, was the convenient form for easy reference, wift of Rosia Boyano, the wife of convenient form for easy reference. Better cut this out and keep it so that you will not go hunting out of season.

ment, which cost about $350, was the gift of Rosie Bovanco, the wife of Stefen Bovanco, one of the men in whose honor the marble shaft has been away, went to a doctor, had himself vacwhose honor the marble shaft has been away, went to a doctor, had himself vacerected. Besides this there is a marble cinated, and with his certificate in his post at each corner of the lot with an hand went to school and asked for adiron railing running around the entire plot of ground. Although the monuting in on the affair, during the most falo, Rochester and Pittsburg Railroad ment is large it is a neat design and reimportant lays. Wednesday and Thurs- Co. to lay double tracks from Brockway- flects great credit on the workmanship cinated. Johnson and Charles Heisler

U. B APPOINTMENTS.

At the United Brethren Conference at Clearfield, on Monday, the appointments were announced from which the followinglare selected being in this section: Altoona, First church—W. G. Stiverson; Second church, S. R. Reese; Third church, D. J. Good.

Bellwood-A. B. Wilson. Clearfield-C. C. Miller. Clearfield—C. C. Miller.
Houserville—J. R. Miller.
Huntingdon—G. W. Sherrick.
Middleburg—H. F. Reber.
Philipsburg—G. W. Fulton.
Port Matilda—F. A. Risley.
Somerset—R. L. Erhard.
South Williamsport—D. J. Davis.
Tyrone—D. P. Orner.
Woodland—G. W. Shires.
Wilmors—W. H. Spangles. Wilmore-W. H. Spangler. Winber-E. E. DeHaven. Zion-S. May Whitehead. The closing session was held Monday morning.

Bellefonte-D. Barshinger.

Y. M. C. A. Notes. During the past week membership

tickets have been issued to the following young men:

Edward Sprague, Orchie Voris, Harold G, Mellen, W. F. Entrekin, S. C. Pettibone, W. J. Louden, C. E. Louden, K. Calvin, W. S. Dockerty and Roger Willard.

FACT, FUN AND FANCY. Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs--Selected and Original,

WHEN A MAN MARRIES.

When a man marries, Trouble begins; Buttoning waists, And putting in pins.

And putting in pins.
Looking at bonnets
To see if they're straight:
Ready to start
Then having to wait.
Hunting for robbers,
Under each bed.
Roused in the night
For a blanket to spread.
When the rain comes
Though you're wrapped in repose,
Roused with a shout.
All the windows to close

All the windows to close Summoned at morn. To start up the fire; Get in the milk.

In your seanty attire, Run to the store, For the food you would eat :

Get in the ice,
Ere it melts in the street.
Hurry to work,
Hurry back with your pay—

When a man marries. So passes the day The race for wealth merely leads to

The fellow who is stuck on himself is apt to be a stick. A man of note shouldn't allow his notes to go to protest. It isn't every ball player who can make a hit on the stage. Any man can put up a bluff, but it takes faith to move mountains.

Hope is a good thing to have, but you can't get it cashed at the bank. When a man marries for money the woman seldom gets her money's worth.

No man ever really worked until he started in to avoid work. . Freedom of speech has blasted many a reputation for wisdom.

When a woman hasn't anything to tell she is willing to let a man talk. The fellow who is out for the dust nust have a certain amount of sand.

Some people are so disagreeable that even the climate dosen't agree with them. Practical religion is the kind that selps you to live, and not only to die. The frog is a born kicker, but he dosen't kick the bucket every time he croaks.

Judging by the epitaphs on tomb-tones, sinners are rare articles in this world. Some men are born great, some achieve greatness and others put up a successful bluff. Nell-"Mr. Dense is so apt to take things for granted," Belle-"Yes, every-

The farmer replied: "I suspect I am from the way asses are nibbling at me."

A town school girl was required to write an essay of 250 words about an autombile. She submitted the following:
"My uncle bought an automobile. He was riding in the country when it busted of age will be admitted free. This is going up a hill. I guess this is about 50 done to give an opportunity for every words. The other 200 are what my uncle said when he was walking back to town, but they are not fit for publication An Irishman, who had started photography, went into a shop to purchase a small bottle in which to mix some of his solutions. Seeing one he wanted, he asked how much it would be. "Well" said the druggist. "It will be five cents as it is, but if you want anything in it I won't charge you for the bottle "Faith, sorr," said Pat, "then put a The cork in it!"

There was a time when the bad boy mission. We would like to see an urchin play that trick in Burdine Butler's family-it would be whack, whack, whack-

GAMBLER'S LANDLORD IN JAIL One Of The First Cases of Its Kind In Pennsylvania.

George J. Jones, a wealthy real estate owner and prominent citizen, of New Castle, was Saturday sentenced by Judge Porter to 30 days in the Allegheny county workhouse. He pleaded guilty to a charge of leasing a building for gambling purpose.

The sentence caused a sensation, and is one of the first of its class ever imposed in Pennsylvania. The ordinary custom is to punish the victim of this most immune class of rich offenders who fatten on vice in all the large cities and most of the small ones.

Passing of the Peach Trees.

Dr. Dumm, of Mackeyville, who had a large peach orchard, is busy having the trees pulled up. He uses a steam thresher for this purpose, and by means of a chain fastened to the trees, he has them pulled, one by one, from the roots. The Dr., like some others, finds that peach trees are no go in this climate.

Another owner of a peach orchard in the same section, is also! removing the trees, finding it an unprofitable invest-ment. In a previous issue of the Demo-crat, we noted the fact that ex-sheriff Benjamin Schaffer, of Nittany, who had 1600 peach trees planted some five years ago, is having all of them removed for reasons similar to the above.

Old Style Auto.

Judge G. Philip Orlady, of the Super-ior court and his son George, walked from Huntidgdon across the mountains to Centre Hall and visited friends Capt. Six states will elect governors this fall, namely, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Maryland, Mississippi and Kentucky. In all of them except Mississippi there will be a vigorous contest by both the leading parties at the polls.

It is a revelation, rather a dream, for you can scarcely realize that it is perfect. It is as even as a floor with shape for the winter.

Six states will elect governors this fall, namely, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Maryland, Mississippi and Kentucky. In all of them except Mississippi there will be a vigorous contest by both the leading parties at the polls.

It is a revelation, rather a dream, for you can scarcely realize that it is perfect. It is as even as a floor with shape for the winter.

Social supremacy consists of equal parts of knowing whom to cultivate and whom to snub.