EDITORIAL.

If EDWARD CHAMBERS is meddling with petty local affairs, in some sections of the county, in order to make votes for district attorney, he may find that his loss will be greater than his gain.

The standard Oil company got $490,000,000 of clear gain from the American people in eight years. That's not so bad and reprehensible. The company could have made it five hundred millions.

The game that is trying to elect Sheats for state treasurer, thinks thereby to hide the state capitol thieves under sheets. Berry lifted the lid and the people will not be deceived by covering the graft with sheets.

STATE CHAIRMAN DIMMELING is greatly pleased over the outlook for Democratic success in November. He finds a strong sentiment among leading Republican business and professional men and farmers in favor of a Democrat succeeding Berry in the State Treasurer's office.

THE SUCCESS of the Republican candidate for state treasurer, this fall, would be the success of Penrose and would inevitably lead to the re-election of the latter. The voters should bear this in mind when they cast their ballots in November. He is unworthy the office, and every true loyal citizen should cast his vote in opposition to him.

When Pennypacker dubbed Quay as a greater man than Clay or Webster, he was as woefully mistaken as when he announced that the new capitol was finished for less than four million dollars, was an honest job, and worth every dollar spent upon it. Penny's declarations as to Clay and Webster were as untrue as his declarations about the capitol of graft.

PHILADELPHIA is not such a slow town after all. Telephone subscribers are requested not to say "please" when they ask for a number, because it takes too much time. Several hundred thousand "please," every 24 hours, over the phone in that city, are estimated to consume one second for each "please," which computed, would take up quite a number of hours during a day. Cipher it for yourself reader of the Democrat.

THE VOTERS of Centre county should give John M. Harman a handsome majority. There is not an independent Republican or a Prohibitionist who regrets voting for Berry two years ago and that man has not been found, Democrat, Prohibitionist or Independent Republican, who regrets voting against Frank Harris for the same office six years ago. John M. Harman represents the same policy followed by Berry. If he is elected the lid of the State Treasury will remain off.

SHEATS WAS nominated for state treasurer by the Penrose gang of capitol grafters, to take Berry's place and deprive the public treasury of a good and most faithful watchdog to fill that position. Because Sheats passes as a man who favored some good measures along with a goodly number of very bad ones, the gang thinks to blind the people by the former and draw their attention from the latter—his bad record, and if the trick served to elect the gang's nominee then it was to be claimed as a victory and endorsement of Penrose, that arch upholder of low politics and corruption and that the corrupt boss must be elected for the third term to the U. S. Senate, where he was put by Quay. Penrose was as corrupt, unscrupulous and vile as his master, Quay. The election of John G. Harman, of unspotted private life and clean public record, as Berry's successor, is a matter of highest importance in these days of most crying corruption, which easily points to Harman as the man and the rejection of Sheats who was nominated by the Penrose faction to serve as a sheet to cover rascality.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

Mrs. J. E. Kustaborder, of Bellwood, sent to the Bradley Bros. in Massachusetts, last Feb. and bought the finest barred Plymouth cockerel. This summer she sold eggs, and kept 200 young chickens; Sept. 16, she sold the cockerel to a man to take to the Hollidaysburg Fair, and he drew first prize for the barred birds.

Ex-Senator and Mrs. S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven, will celebrate their golden wedding on Sunday, Sept. 29. Senator Peale is one of the best known men in this part of the State as well as the best preserved and his many friends congratulate him and Mrs. Peale not only on their fifty years of wedded life but on the splendid health they both now enjoy, with the promise of many years of life in front of them.

While Irwin Bennett, an employe of C. S. Russell, of Clearfield, was chopping wood last Wednesday, he accidentally almost entirely cut off one of his fingers, as it was only hanging on by the flesh. Believing the finger would be of no further use to him, he took the scalpel and cut it off entirely, then went to a physician to have it dressed. The physician, to dress it properly, made another amputation, and now the healing process is on.

Commissioners' Clerk G. H. Arbbard, of Lock Haven, has some very nice ducks that have proven to be quite a source of profit to their owner. The three ducks that were kept over winter began laying early in February when seven and a half months old, and when they were a year old they averaged just too eggs produced by each duck. These ducks are from the Rankin strain of mammoth white Pekins and are unusually large and handsome, the drake weighing nearly 12 pounds. They develop to a good, marketable size in 10 to 12 weeks. Being hardy, they stand confinement well, and when grown are not large eaters.

The Academy's Good Showing.

The Bellefonte Academy has opened this year with the largest attendance of boarding students in its history and an unusually strong corps of twelve instructors. The removal of the primary department from the main building to the old Bezer property, now owned by James Hughes, is proving a satisfactory improvement for all concerned. The new students comprise very strong athletic material and we are led to expect some interesting contests on the gridiron before very long. "Kiski" and Indiana Normal will both play the Academy at State College, on Nov. 13 and Oct. 7, respectively. Among the boarders this year are:

Arthur Allen, James Lusk, - Abrams, John Heiser, of Bellefonte; George and Ed Bassett, Sparrows Point, Pa.; George Balliet, Sunbury; Fred Meyer, Harry Phillips, Wayne Smith, McKinley Puzos, Donald Jordan, Pottsville; Clarence Bolton, George Hontewick, Tom Ray, Wheeling, W. Va.; Albert Bobb, Merrill Moltz, Albert Wilson, William Crooks, Williamsport; M. H. Boyd, Williamsport; W. V. John South, Townsend, Pa.; Sharp Daugherty, Bridgeport, Ohio; George McCoy, Stouffville, Ohio; Robert Elliot, Charles Ford, Jr., King, Hollidaysburg; Roy Cobb, Thomas Thomas, Edward Sprague, Saratoga; Richard Davis, Scott, Pa.; Cecil Craig, York; Warren Eisey, Gilbert Meyer, Howard Sweeney, David Sweeney, Edward Powell, Pittsburg; Frank Entekin, Lorne Hummel, Harrisburg; Lee D. Ferguson, Portage; John Lechman, Shamokin; Pettibone, Wilkesbarre; Clarence Louden, William London, Kistanning; Harold Miller, New York City; Clyde Oberlin, Seiler, Oberlin, Johnson City, Tennessee; Johnson Potter, Karlsruhe; Kling Reid, Millersburg; Harold Stevens, Reading; Edward T. Sweeney, Pottsville; Voris, Milton; C. Wisner, Canton, China; Joseph Wilco, Tyrone. The above list increased by the names of Jacob Hughes' three children, of Merrill, Wisconsin; Miss Margaret Finney, of Canton, China, and Miss Rebecca Jacobs, of Tyrone.

The above makes quite an interesting family for Mr. Hughes and his good wife to look after.

Milton's Big Fair.
The Milton fair, which will be held on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th of October this year, never had a brighter prospect for a good fair and a large attendance. The heads of the several departments report that the indications are for a large increase in exhibits. The racing this year will be better than ever. The midway will be a popular feature and will be free from anything immoral or objectionable, and the attractions are the best that money can procure. Excursion rates on all the railroads.
Following the several days rain on Tuesday a cool wave set in and it is not an unusual sight to see some of our people wearing overcoats. Thus far no frosts are reported in the county, and late crops have not been injured.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Marguerite, little daughter of Mrs. George Shank, of Blanchard, is dangerously ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. C. A. Williams, of Blanchard, has again returned to her home, after a long visit to friends in Altoona, Hollidaysburg and Tyfene.

Wallace Brungart, who was employed at Glen Rock, Pa., has moved his home to Smullton and now occupies the house he lately purchased at that place.

Theodore F. B. Brown, who took up telegraphy at the Spring Mills station, and Elizabethville, for a year or more at the post office in Centre county is a fine one. The vines were not affected by the blight this season and consequently the crop has not spoiled the crop.

J. Frank Heiser, who has been at the post office the past few years, arrived here last Friday and will spend his vacation with his mother, Mrs. A. L. Heiser, at Howard.

The heirs of J. P. Gephart, deceased, have sold the farm located in Millheim, and now occupied by Ammon Snook, to A. C. Cozart, of Coburn. The consideration was $1250.

Mrs. Mary A. Luse, widow of the late Dennis Luse, sold her house and lot on West Main street, Millheim, to Peter A. Breen for $260. Mr. Breen took possession of the premises at once.

W. B. Haines, the supervisor, and George Switzer, of Bellefonte, have about erected a substantial arch bridge over Hunters Run near Blanchard. It is a point where a good bridge was necessary.

Russell Bechdel and Morris Clark, of Blanchard, have gone to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where they have entered the business college. They are both fine young men and will make their mark in the world.

The Farmers Hotel, because of the death of Andrew Hugg, will be managed by E. Hugg, who assumed charge, and who will aim to look after the comfort of all guests. This is one of Philipsburg's popular hotels.

On the resignation of Rev. M. L. Ganoe as pastor of the Bloomsburg Methodist church, Rev. Edgar Heiser has become the pastor. He is a son of Rev. Isaac Heckman, and when a boy lived in Centre Hall.

J. W. Harshbarger, of Port Matilda, has gone to Valparaiso, Ind. Walter R. Heaton, formerly of Patton twp., has moved from Michigan City, Ind., to Valparaiso. A number of Centre county boys are attending this school, at Valparaiso.

N. M. Kunes, of Blanchard, raised his potatoes last week; he had eight rows going long that turned out 24 bushels of very nice tubers, he selected one half bushel of the largest and they averaged 2 1/2 pounds each. Can you beat this boys?

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Behers, near Graysville, was the scene of a pleasant party recently when his brothers and sisters and a few neighbors formed a surprise party to remind him of his forty-fifth birthday. A sumptuous dinner was served.

M. S. Betz, of Jacksonville, is said to be the champion cat catcher in that end of the county. He has a process whereby he hypnotizes them. He is sort of a snake charmer and next thing you'll hear of him he will be traveling with a side show or a circus.

W. H. Long, the popular miller, of Howard, recently sent his check for $15 to the fire company of that place. This was to show his appreciation of the good work the firemen rendered recently when his barn burned. Mr. Long's gift to the company is a practical one.

J. Roll Keller, of Phoenixville, spent last week at the Grangers' picnic at Centre Hall. He is assisting his father, D. C. Keller, to conduct a dairy. They are now milking eighteen cows to supply their trade. In connection with this they are also doing some trucking.

Quite a number of papers throughout the state recently printed dates for killing game this season, among which the turkey season to begin October 1st, which should be October 15th. In this issue will be found reliable dates for killing the various kinds of game.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Foust has sent to Professor Frear, of State College, one of the leading pure food experts of the country, samples of 75 brands of breakfast and other patent foods for analysis. Every brand from all over the United States was taken. Corn stalks are claimed to be used in some of the patent foods.

One day recently the Ladies Aid Society at Blanchard met at the pleasant and comfortable home of Mrs. Edgar Bechdel for the purpose of sewing. They sewed so rapidly that they broke the record as to the number of articles made within a given time. The cause perhaps was that these good and industrious ladies did less talking and more work than on former occasions.

Mrs. Sara Fryberger, of Zion, at the age of 91 is at this writing very weak physically; her daughter, Mrs. George Campbell, of Philadelphia, and her son, C. T. Fryberger, of Philipsburg, have been called to her bedside. Her home with Dr. P. S. Fisher and her daughter, Mrs. Dr. P. S. Fisher, has been a pleasant place to be and the growing weakness of this old lady throws a gloom over this unusually lively home.

The ladies at Howard have always taken a great interest in the Bellefonte hospital because they realize that it is an institution worthy of the confidence of our people and one that has been doing a noble work for humanity. Saturday afternoon there was a cake sale held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Schenc k the proceeds of which will go to the hospital. It was well patronized and thus the ladies deserve a great deal of credit, for the interest they have taken in this matter.

On Wednesday of last week Harvye Wert, of West Brush valley, with Ammon Breen, of Millheim, started to take a threshing outfit, consisting of an engine, water tank and threshing machine across the mountain north of Penn Hall. When they arrived at the foot of the mountain the driving axle on the engine broke, and the big machine became unmanageable. It began to run backward down the steep grade and the threshing machine and water tank were pushed crosswise in the road. The engine was stopped by the water tank after considerable damage had been done to the machinery of the threshing machine. None of the men were injured as they jumped from the engine when the axle broke.

Henry Meyer, of Kansas, is visiting his old home in Pennsylvania. Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Kreider, of Johnstown, arrived in Centre Hall, recently.

The new house of Andrew Hugg, deceased, at Philipsburg, was transferred this week to the surviving widow, who will reside in the hotel.

Mrs. Isaac Shuey, of Benner township, has a hen that lays nothing but large eggs. A sample was left at this office that measured 6 1/2 and 8 inches in circumference and weighed over four ounces. That hen deserves a pension.

A very enjoyable time was spent at Pleasant Gap, Sept. 22nd, at the home of B. S. Miller and wife. The occasion was a reunion of the family, at which the following daughters and their husbands were present: L. H. Wian and wife, H. D. Gehret and wife, of Bellefonte; J. T. Noll and wife, of Pleasant Gap; and J. N. Fatkin and wife, of Lewisistown. Also six of their grand-children and J. F. Swaney, a brother of Mrs. Miller, of Philipsburg, and Miss Maggie Raudenbush, of Pleasant Gap. At the noon hour all sat down to a sumptuous repast, to which all did ample justice. In the early evening the family party separated to return to their respective homes, hoping to witness many more happy reunions of the family.

WEDDINGS.

KREAMER-BOWER. Miss Nora Bower, accompanied by her gentleman friend, Charles Kreamer, of Woodward, took a flying trip to Buffalo on Monday, the 9th, where they were quietly married. Mrs. Kreamer has returned home, while Mr. Kreamer has gone on to Edinboro to resume his studies.

MILLER-SMITH. The Indiana Evening Gazette of Thursday notes the wedding of William L. Miller, of Philipsburg, and Miss Odessa P. Smith, of Glen Campbell, which took place on Wednesday, September 19, at the M. E. parsonage in Indiana, Pa., Rev. George Holmes officiating.

STARK-PARK. James Stark and Miss Kathryn G. Park, both well known and popular young people of Snow Shoe, went to Altoona on Monday and at three o'clock that afternoon were married at the parsonage of the Fairview Methodist church by Rev. H. J. Schuartz. The young couple will make their home in Snow Shoe.

MALLARD-DENNIS. Thursday W. S. Mallard, of the Bell Telephone exchange, in Bellefonte, was united in marriage to Miss Florence Dennis, formerly a stenographer in the office of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. The nuptial event took place at the home of the bride at Turbotville. After a wedding tour they returned to Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon when they were greeted by a host of friends.

DAILEY-THOMAS. On Saturday evening a pretty wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas, near Wadde station, the contracting parties being their accomplished daughter Miss Verna B. Thomas and D. W. Dailey, of Philadelphia. Rev. Kepp, of the Methodist church at State College, officiated. A large number of guests were present from Philadelphia and other points. Mr. Dailey is connected with the firm of Roberts & Co., Philadelphia, as a successful business man. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Dailey took their departure for their wedding trip, after which they will be located at 12th and Spruce, at the "Edmond".

BIERLY-WOLF. The home of Mrs. and Israel Haugh, of Smullton, was the scene of a pretty home wedding Sunday evening, Sept. 22nd, when the youngest daughter of the latter, Miss Mayme V. Wolfe, was united in the bonds of holy wedlock to Mr. Curtis M. Bierly, of Dents Run, Pa. The attendants were Mr. Samuel Bierly, brother of the groom, and Miss Mabel Brungart, of Rebersburg. Miss Adah Bason, of Carlisle, presided at the organ. The bride's pastor, Rev. G. W. McClintock, officiated. Only a few invited guests were present. The groom is a young man of sterling qualities who holds a good position with the Williams Coal & Coke Co., of Buffalo, at Dents Run, where a house ready furnished awaited the coming of the happy pair, on last Monday.

The bride is one of Centre county's most charming daughters, possessed of such qualities that make up a splendid companion in life. She taught several terms of public school in Centre and Clinton counties. She will be greatly missed in the locality which she always called her home. Especially will she be missed in the Methodist Episcopal church, in Smullton, where for years she has been the organist, and in which she was also an excellent church worker. May prosperity attend them, is the wish of many friends.

The New Boro.

Snow Shoe can now disregard the short dresses and wear the long skirt of her hood. She is young, but is big for her age, larger than some of the older boro's. At the first election, on 17th, for boro officers, 720 votes were cast for boro, indicating five to a voter, a population of 800. All the other municipalities shake hands with the newcomer, and hope she will be happy. The new boro of Snow Shoe has some very good and enterprising citizens, an honor to themselves, their town and to the county. The other boro of the county are: Bellefonte, population, by the recent census taken by Paul Fortney, 5000. The others, by the census of 1900, are: Centre Hall, 537; Howard boro, 543; Millersburg boro, 594; Millheim boro, 612; Philipsburg boro, 326; Unionville boro, 350; State College boro, 85; South Philipsburg, cast 96 votes for president in 1904, indicates a population of 480.

LET THE capitol grafters be tried immediately and railroaded to the penitentiary as fast as they railroaded their fraudulent bills through the state treasury until stopped by Berry when he took his seat as state treasurer.

Golden Wedding.

Isaac Loveland and wife celebrated their golden wedding at their home at Lamar, September 22. They were married at the home of William Meyer, an uncle of the bride near Lamar, September 22, 1857. They settled in Iowa, returning after 22 years to spend the remainder of their days in their native place. Their six children—three sons and three daughters—are all living except the second daughter, Mrs. Frank Shields.
