THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

BOALSBURG.

Silas Gibbons spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Kiddle. Our hustling merchants, Harrison & Ishler, are having their store room furnished with a large plate glass window in front; when done will be a very nice store room. Howard Bricker, of Tyrone, was here a few days calling on old friends. Foster Charles and brother Grant, spent a few days at the home of their parents, John Charles. How about it Mae? Sallie Riley, who has been in Philadelphia for quite a while, returned home Wednesday. Keller Mothersbaugh, of Williamsport, made a short visit to his parents home over Sunday. Harry Miller, of State College, spent Wednesday with his uncle, J. W. Miller. Mrs. Fortney and son Russel, of Harrisburg, spent a few days at the home of William Patterson. Della Ishler is on the sick list. William Stewart, our up-to-date merchant, made a business trip to Philadelphia to buy ladies furnishing goods. Everybody come; and see the latest dress goods. Mr. Ulrich and wife, of Selinsgrove, are visiting their daughter Mrs. J. I. Stoncypiper. Mrs. Amanda Fisher is spending a few days at Millinburg. Mrs. Laura Bricker, of Tyrone, enjoyed a few days visit with friends here. How about the auto ride? Mae Stover is spending some time at State College. Those that spent Sunday at Fairview were: J. A. Fortney and wife, and Mrs. John Charles. Most everybody attended the Grange picnic, rain or shine. Ask Will and Effie how they enjoyed themselves at the festival Saturday eve.

FILLMORE.

Mrs. Hunter and party have just returned from the seashore. Everybody glad to have them back, as we know they enjoyed themselves while away from home. Those wedding bells will soon ring out again. That is if K. Crust don't cut out one or two visits a week which he pays Mattemville. Murphy Bros. are again ready to move their office from here to Port Matilda. On account of the absence of J. E. Clark and wife, of Waddle, Jessie Way, of Paradise, has taken upon her the pressing duties of the kitchen while the adopted son, John, attends to the work about the farm. We hope that the young lady of Mattemville will not be entirely inconsolable since our neighbor Breen has ceased to visit the place. Our neighbors, up the line, about Waddle, would make prize winning athletics, as some of them jumped six miles to a conclusion and landed on the wrong one. It is after supper now and they haven't returned yet. We have wind (not hot air either) of a couple of weddings to take place up in our country. Some guess who it is.

UNION TWP.

BELL GROVE. Thrashing has been all the go, around here. Mrs. Agnes Watson, from Bush Grove, was a pleasant caller at Mrs. Cora Spotts', one day last week. Mrs. George Spotts and Mrs. Henry Spotts, from Bush Grove, were pleasant callers at Joe Spotts', a day last week. Rena Witherite, from Chestnut Grove, spent Sunday with Mattie Lucas. Tracy Shipley and his sister Verna, spent Sunday at the Fetzer home. Bob Flick has been on the sick list for the past week, but is on the mend. Victor Wagner transacted business in Bellefonte, Saturday. Dora Lucas is all smiles since Mr. Barton came home.

MILES TWP.

CENTRE MILLS. Emanuel Harter is still growing weaker. Minnie Kline, daughter of J. M. Kline, left for Philadelphia Bible college, last Wednesday, where she will continue her theological studies. Mr. Hillbill and family, from Freeburg, are here to help take care of Mr. Harter. Mrs. Young, of Wilkesbarre, visited her cousin Mrs. Bruce Mayes, recently. Mr. Guisewhite expects to move to Pennsylvania in the coming spring. Lots of Brushvalley people were to Grange picnic on Friday. Mr. Corman and wife were called to Snyder county to help take care of Mr. Corman's mother, who is sick. Mame Wolfe and Mr. Bierly were married at the bride's home, by Rev. McIlhenny, on Sunday eve. The happy couple started on Monday morning for Deuts Run, Elk county, where they will make their future home.

HOWARD TWP.

Cider making is all the go. Ray Confer is driving team at Orvis. We are sorry to say Elias Thompson is very poorly. Blanche and Mable Gingham, of Bellefonte, spent last week at Henry Ganlets. John Lucas and lady friend spent Sunday evening at Henry Ganlets. John Lucas will leave the 1st of Oct. for McKean county, where he will act as traveling salesman for the Farm Compendium Co. Chas. Hagan and sister were entertained at the Tyson home, Sunday afternoon.

LINDEN HALL.

The Ladies Aid Society will serve a chicken and waffles supper on R. G. McMillan's lawn, Saturday Oct. 5, from 5 to 10 p. m. Proceeds for the benefit of United Evangelical church. Public is cordially invited.

PENN HALL.

A number of folks from in and about town attended Grangers Picnic. Chas. Smith visited his parents several days last week. S. G. Burrell and family were seen in town several days ago. A. M. Kramer and wife, of Wolf's Store, visited at the home of R. B. Bartges, on Sunday. Maude Corfan spent Sunday with her friend, Rebecca Stover. Ella Condo spent Sunday at the home of her parents. J. A. Keller visited his daughter, Mrs. F. M. Fisher, over Sunday. Adam Heckman and family, of Yeagertown, visited his brother, W. B. Heckman, one day last week. While visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Dauberman, of Centre Hall, Manassa Guise, one of the oldest residents, had the misfortune to fall and break his right arm; the fracture is doing as well as can be expected. Theodore Brown, one of our young men of whom we are proud and who learned telegraphy here, is now stationed at Milton. Lola Ulrich has returned to Bucknell University, where she is taking a course in music. Miss Mary Foreman has been chosen to teach the Vonada school, near Woodward. She was for several years one of our successful teachers. Oliver Corman expects to have an oyster restaurant at the Lewisburg Fair. The tenters at Grange Park from here were: William H. Smith and wife, Martha Smith and Morris Rachau. There will be a special train through here to-night from the Union County Fair.

NITTANY.

Robert Kramer, of Mill Hall, transacted business in our town recently. Miss Cora Fisher visited friends in Lock Haven several days last week. George McCawley and family, of Hubbersburg, visited Perry Webner and family on Sunday. Mr. Yarnell and wife were called to Centre Hall, Saturday night, on account of the illness of Mrs. Yarnell's father, the aged Mr. Allen. Our farmers are back with their seedling on account of the wet weather. Mrs. G. W. Tolbert, accompanied by Mrs. A. R. Rossmann, of Clintondale, visited friends in Salona over Sunday. Miss Ethel Krape, of Lamar, was the guest of Miss Olive Wilson, on Sunday. Mrs. Callie Bohn, of Lemont, was the guest of William Brant and family, several days last week. Ex-sheriff Shaffer and daughter, Mrs. H. K. Allison, were Lock Haven visitors on Sunday. Miss Mayme Zerby, who is teaching school across the mountains, visited her parents and many friends here, over Sunday. We noticed quite a number of the Hubbersburg and Hecla Park young gents in our town on Sunday. Mrs. William Brant visited friends, at Lemont, several days last week. George Gunsallus, of Snydertown, visited friends here on Sunday. O. N. Yarnell was to Bellefonte Saturday night, on business. Merrill Kessinger, was to Howard, one day last week on business. The tax collector from Zion was in our town several days last week, collecting taxes. Loyd Webner, who is employed at Hayes Run, was home over Sunday. John Holmes, of Howard, was in our town one day last week.

YARNELL.

A number of people from this place attended the funeral of James Lucas, which took place at Runville, Sunday afternoon. Jonathan Packer and niece, Miss Bessie Shank were recent visitors at Kart-hous. Toner Fetzer and Miss Lucy Kline spent Sunday with friends out of town. Mrs. Harris Poorman and Ira P. Confer were among those who attended the U. B. Conference, at Clearfield, last week. Miss Alice Walters, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Miss Fannie Confer. Mrs. Mary Butler, of Austin, has been visiting friends in this vicinity for some time. Miles Heaton and daughter, Lucetta, spent Sunday at this place. Miss Trixie Confer spent part of last week in Milesburg and Bellefonte. Ross Cramer, formerly of this place, spent last Wednesday night at J. A. Confer's.

TYLERSVILLE.

After a brief visit at home, Hoyt Miller has returned to his work at Williamsport. Abe Weil is visiting friends in Philadelphia. A child of Albert Rhine's died on Friday night and was buried here on Monday. A. S. Greninger was in Booneville on Saturday, attending to his duties as tax collector. The secretary of the Logan twp. school board, having resigned, a meeting will be held on Monday evening to elect a new secretary.

LIVONIA.

Mrs. T. N. Stover had a fall last week and bruised her knee badly. E. M. DeLong and wife spent Sunday among friends here. John Wetzel called at Geo. Stover's on Sunday. T. N. Stover purchased a fine new Edison phonograph and kindly entertained his friends with it. Wonder where "Noisy Bill" was last Sunday morning. That is the time he usually goes through the neighborhood, awakens the people at 9 o'clock, but he did not appear this time. Harry Slegle was seen here, Friday.

PENN TWP.

PARADISE. The Paradise festival was well attended, proceeds were some $40. U. G. Auman and wife were Sunday callers at O. J. Auman's; William Mosser and wife, of Feidler, Sundayed at Jerry Rishel's. A number of our farmers are wishing for a few days of sunshine so that they can finish seeding, as it rained almost daily for the last two weeks. Daniel Immel and wife were visitors at Jacob Auman's over Sunday.

PORT MATILDA.

Lillian Woodring spent Sunday with her friend, Emma Reese. Telitha Adams started for Pittsburg Sunday morning, to visit her brother, Wm. Adams. Mrs. Ella Price, of Hannah, and Mrs. Herdman, of Johnstown, were the guests of Mrs. Thomas Beckwith, last Sunday. Abe Cowher, who is employed at Sandy Ridge, spent Sunday at his home. Charles Reese made a flying trip towards Barnesboro. Arthur Reese went to work, Monday morning, as fireman for P. R. R. Arthur is a fine young man and his many friends wish him success. Now, Sam, who is the latest. Henry Graizer and Christ Bower, two of Bellwood's up-to-date young men, recently Sundayed at the home of C. Reese. CHRISTIE BECKWITH—SON OF THOMAS and Gertrude Beckwith, died, Sept. 13 '07. After an illness of four days.

PORT MATILDA.

The Milesburg base ball team came to our town last Saturday and played with our team. We know Milesburg is noted for its pretty young ladies who believe that their basket ball team can't be beaten, but the base ball team is not in our class. Gee, how our team did them up. The score was 15 to 0. The fun started in the first inning, after Milesburg had been disposed of in one, two, three order, J. Robison drove the ball so far that -hope had to take the bars out of the fence to get it. Singles, doubles and triples came so rapidly that I had to record them at the speed of an express train. When the smoke of battle had lifted, and the runs counted, it was found that each player of the Milesburg team had a goose egg to take home with him as a souvenir. Of course, our team is made up of professionals. This is how they looked to me: Chance, 1st b; Lajoie, 2nd b; Collins, 3rd b; Maddox, p; Needham, c; Wagner, ss; Clark, if; Anderson, rf; and little Tommy Leach, cf. The Milesburg team looked to me like the Unionville team.

Score by innings: R H E

Port Matilda 1 2 2 4 0 0 2 15 21 2 Milesburg 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 4 6

Notes. Most of our young ladies admired the playing of Milesburg's second baseman—reason, his name was "Hugg." The Milesburg boys are perfect gentlemen and we would like to see them play again. Short-stop "Tobe" picked up some "sizzlers" that Wagner could scarcely have handled. Second baseman Woodring handled a couple of line drives that had a two-baseable attached to them. During the summer I saw nearly all the National and American league teams play, but first baseman Bennett has a shade on any first baseman in either league; it is reported that he has signed with Pittsburg. Robison pitched a fine game striking out 14 of our visitors, and only allowing four hits; he was signed by Altoona. Jodon was the only visiting player to reach third base, he was left there, because Hugg struck out.

PORT MATILDA NO. 3.

A birthday party, was held at the home of Mrs. Rachel Funk, on Saturday night, in honor of her son Zeek, being his 21 birthday quite a large number of young folks were present and after enjoying themselves with various sorts of games and partaking of a sumptuous feast at a late hour and feeling that all had spent a pleasant evening together, retired to their respective homes wishing Zeek many more happy birthdays. A. P. Woodring, transacted business in Bellwood, on Thursday. Al. Jones, of Chatman, was seen on our streets, on Sunday. Rev. George Downing delivered a very able sermon in the Presbyterian church, on Sunday morning, there being a good turn out. M. C. Williams, traveling agent for Reeves Parvin Co., of Philadelphia, Sunday with his family. W. S. Crains new house is now completed and he anticipates moving in it soon. Mrs. Rachel Funk will dispose of a portion of her household goods, and one cow, at public sale at her home here, on Saturday, prior to her moving to Tyrone. For an up-to-date line of post cards call on J. W. Williams, as he has a full line of different scenes of our beautiful little city. Frank Weaver, who was recently married, left with his wife, on Tuesday for Figgart, Pa., to take up house-keeping and where Mr. Weaver is employed as brick molder in the brick works at that place; we wish you success Frank. S. S. Osman, our up-to-date undertaker, is attending an undertaker's lecture in Pittsburg. Edith Neman and Olie Gates, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with friends here.

UNION TWP.

BUSH GROVE. Mrs. H. F. Spotts, and Mrs. G. E. Spotts, and two sons, Joe and Roy, spent Friday at J. H. Spotts along the pike. Mamie Ewing is visiting friends in Loveville. Walter Watson returned to his work on Monday and on Wednesday came home to stay. H. P. Fetzer was a Sunday afternoon visitor at G. E. Spotts'. I understand now why the Bell Grove scribe gets his items so mixed up; when a fellow don't get in till 5 a. m. he don't feel much for writing. What do you know about that? Rena Witherite, of Chestnut Grove, was a pleasant guest of her friend Mattie Lucas, Sunday. Joe Way's were Sunday visitors at our town. Our school opened on Monday with 14 scholars enrolled, and Roy Calhoun at the head to principal them; hope he will have a pleasant term.

POTTER TWP.

EARLYSEWON. The grangers picnic is over and it was better than ever; large crowds and good order and mud plenty; the display of fruit was grand. Callers at Cloverdale on Thursday were B. W. Shaffer and wife, Mrs. J. B. Hazel and J. H. Rauch, all from Madisonburg. Bessie Ream attended Bush meeting on Sunday at Coyley and reports a fine time. Sam Durst and wife entertained a lot of their friends at the picnic.

BENNER TWP.

Now you can listen for the school bell, also get a drink from the cistern at the school house. Mrs. John Maffet, of Summer Hill, and Mrs. Wm. Ammerman, of Curwensville, were visiting their father, Martin Fleck, who is very poorly. Mary Tohen and Anna DeLong, of Tyrone, have been visiting at James Saxion's. Mr. and Mrs. Fiddler, of Madisonburg, visited at Clayton Royer's, on Monday. Mrs. Maud Kinch, of Tyrone, Mrs. Hattie Marks and daughter Margaret, of Altoona, visited their uncle, Martin Fleck. John W. Morrison and Ned Heverly, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday evening in our view. Mrs. K. Sprankle visited her brother Martin Fleck. There was no school in the high school, on Monday, as Prof. Hosterman was on the sick list. Those Bellefonte boys who come out the back road so often in a week had better take warning and cut it out, as Catharine Hoy was held up on Sunday evening by two men, but by the presence of mind, and the usefulness of her whip, and the fastness of her horse, she managed to get away and no harm was done. Boys take warning, it may be worse the next time. Dell Fleck, Charles and Edward Saxion attended church at Pleasant Gap, Sunday evening. Boys, take warning, and let those Gap girls alone. There were a number of young people from our view attended the festival at Axeman, on Saturday evening, but it cannot come up to the festival we had in our view sometime ago. S. H. Hoy's had company from Pleasant Gap, Sunday. Some of the people in our view attended the funeral of Harry Hazel, in Bellefonte, on Sunday.

ZION.

Some of our farmers are done sowing, while others, on account of the wet weather, have not yet begun. Jacob Struble while spending his vacation here, is busy giving our people rides in his automobile. Joe Deitz is very downhearted since that girl of his went away. Merrill Kerstetter, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his lady friend, Miss Mabel Garbrick. A crowd of our girls tented at the granger's picnic and, from all reports, might have had a terrible accident but for the arrival of umbrellas. It was during the night that a heavy rain fell, and, as our girls sleep soundly, they did not know that their tent was leaking, and in a few minutes they were soaking wet, but still they slept. Finally a kind neighbor informed them of the matter, and they hastily secured some umbrellas thus narrowly escaping being drowned. James Kane, Edgar Lutz, Lloyd White, Merrill Showers, Frank Hockman and Arthur Vonada took advantage of the excursion to Watkins Glen, N. Y., last Sunday. Mrs. Henry Lesh and Cora Corman have gone to Altoona to spend a few days with friends in that city. Hirman Grove, of East Pittsburg, spent a few days with his parents here. Harry Smith has gone to Hubbersburg where he will attend the Walker twp. high school this winter. John Garthoff and wife visited at the home of Wm. Hassinger last week. Lloyd White visited his parents at Axeman, on Sunday. Roy Clemens, of Marion township, visited Ad. Reish, on Sunday.

MILESBURG.

The Evangelical church will hold a festival on Saturday evening, the 28th; all are invited to help along. Mrs. Henry Dyke has returned from a visit to Uniontown. Ray Aikens, of Uniontown, is a guest of his grandparents. The Odd Fellows, of the burg, will have a treat in their hall, on Saturday night, the 28th, after the regular session.
