Vol. 29. No. 39

Circulation O Feb F?00-Largest in Centre County. = 3 L

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1907.

THE SECOND

WEEK OF COURT

Until the Next Term

OF BETRAYLS LARGE

The Case of Joseph L. Neff Against The Pennsylvania Railroad Company Excites Considerable Interest -- Other Cases.

Court convened on Wednesday after-noon confirming the accounts of the Register and hearing sundry motions and petitions, and disposing of other criminal cases not heretofore mentioned for the present session as well as some of the cases on next week's list. The following cases were disposed of as fol-

James Gregg, burglary and larceny prosecutor Oliver McGuire, nol prossed. Jerome Dale and Henry Gordon, burglary and larceny; prosecutor, Jerre Glenn, nol prossed.

Ierome Dale and Henry Gordon, burglary and larceny; prosecutor William Beezer, nol prossed

George Spangler, assault and battery; prosecutrix, Tacie A. Spangler, nol prossed, defendant being dead.

Edward Gentzel, betrayal; prosecutrix, Olivia Markle, continued.

Jesse P. Ryan, betrayal; prosecutrix, Cora Fulton, settled and costs paid. Steve Berente and Margaret Berente. wantonly pointing fire arms; prosecutor, S. R. McCartney. Leave was granted to enter a nol pross and costs to be paid

Com. vs. same, charged with malicious mischief; prosecutor, S. McCartney, disposed of the same as the case immediately matter of petition of sundry

ately preceding. Charles Bechdel, assault and battery prosecutor J. Harris Cook, continued. Clarence Poorman, betrayal; prosecutrix, Mildred Hemmes, continued

The Borough of Philipsburg and the Borough of South Philipsburg; prosecutor, the constable of South Philipsburg; ipsburg. An indictment was found in this case at the May Sessions of court this case at the May Sessions of court joining the two boroughs in the same indictment. Subsequently application was made to the court on September the with the report. The case was argued and took all the forenoon. 10th for bench warrants which being resisted by counsel for the defendants, the Court quashed the indictment as present separate indictments at the resent session, which was done and warrant not being the remedy to bring them into court, counsel for the prosecutor asked the Court for a writ of dis-

The Boalsburg & Bellefonte Turnpike returned by the constable of Benner township as being in bad condition from Axe Mann to Lemont ; continued. Anapal Dardo, Tony Irosh, Bonelli Sapatri, Ernesto Lelio, Bagnero Tony, 75 Lasy Guiseppe, charged with threats to kill and carry concealed weapons. Prosecutor Will S. Laffin. Nol pros entered. Melvin Smith, assault and battery; prosecutor, John E. Parker. Defendant waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty and was sentenced to plaintiff for $1249. pay the costs and $10 fine. Frank G. Fear, betraval; prosecutrix.

Mable Zettle, continued. Irvin Kern, Ammon Rote and Harry

Argument Court. Emanuel Shope, assault and battery; prosecutor, John E. Miller, continued.

B. J. Hoffman, charged with desertion; prosecutrix, Etta Hoffman, continued. Carrie M. Beckwith, larceny : prose-cutrix, Nancy A. Fink. The defendant and costs paid.

Malcolm Housel, betrayal; prosecutrix Dora Sellars, continued. Adaline Fisher, adultery; prosecutor, John J. Fisher, continued. Willis Heeman, larceny by bailee and

Com. vs. same charged with fornica-tion; prosecutrix Sara Parks, nol prossed. Jacob Hazel, assault and battery; prosecutrix, Lela Hackenberry, nol

Jacob B. Lucas, violating liquor laws ; prosecutor, Austin Walker, continued.

Peter Bartholomew Swartz, adultery prosecutor, John Fisher, continued. George Spangler, assault and battery; prosecutor, R. C. McKissick; nol prossed defendant being dead.

prosecutor, Bert Bowmaster, county to pay the costs

Austin Walker, assault and battery prosecutor, James B. Lucus, continued, Jacob Jackson, assault and battery; prosecutrix, Bell Jackson, continued. Ammon F. Rote, Harry Confer and Irvin Kerns-four cases, in each case charged with illegal fishing : prosecutor, George D. Shuman, game warden. Continued to Argument Court. Jacob Walker, attempt to commit a rape; prosecutrix, Sarah E. Black, continued.

Andrew Loneberger, indecent assault; prosecutor James Leitchner; defendant blead guilty to the charge of assault. Nol pros. entered as to the other charge.

J. Mitchell Young, assault and battery;
prosecutor Albert Bergner, continued.

A Large Number of Cases Continued Katheryn Mongan, continued.

Until the Next Term

Merl Mongan, desertion; prosecutrix Katheryn Mongan, continued.

Bruce Auman, betrayal; prosecutrix Eva Wilson, continued.

William Stoner, betrayal; prosecutrix, Nora M. Lingle, continued. John M. Potter, writing a threatening letter; prosecutor, G. W. Cathcart, con-

Jesse Adams, attempt to commit a rape; prosecutrix, Pearl Copeland, set-tled and costs paid. William Casher, betrayal; prosecutrix, Lizzie Zimmerman, continued.

Martin Bullock, betrayal; prosecutrix, Maude Crispin, continued.

Warner Thompson, betrayal; prosecutrix, Emma Overton, continued. Roy Stover, betrayal; prosecutrix, Ella Rager continued.

Ada Fisher continued.

After which court adjourned 'until Monday morning.

Joseph M. Fetzer, proceedings to revive year 1795, and another in the summer of and continue the lien of three several 1798. In the year 1802, George and his ing special to Judge Orvis.

A. Jacobs. Plaintiff suffered a volun- brother Charles Hoy, purchased a tract tary non-suit as to Susan A. Jacobs, but of land of 400 acres from Andrew Apple the judgement remains against the oth- and divided it among them equally.

Miles Township for the re-establishment ligtning and burned with all it contained petition having been presented sometime the new one was near set on the Court quashed the indictment as being a misjoinder of defendants and granting leave to the District Attorney to present separate indictment at the present separate indictment as who in his lifetime was doing business with John H. Beck as partners under the name of Lukens & Beck. Assumption which was done and sit. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for favor of the plaintiff for $250.57. W. M. Ritter Lumber Co. vs. same- burg, where he is at rest, Charles G. Avery, Trustee, vs. same ond wife, lived on the old homestead verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1684. Rebecca, married to Samuel Kline. All it appears that Buruine Butler, Sr., sold father George Hoy, bought part of a farm his personal property to his son John on the south side of the Brushvalley Lucas by a bill of sale early in the year road and built part of a house to another note dated in 1886; whereupon he sub-sequently to the bill of sale obtained built a new house; the old one will be the finding of the grand jury. plead a jndgment and caused a levy to be removed and the old homestead of grandguilty and sentence was suspended.

Luther Haines, charged with betrayal:
prosecutrix, Maude 1. Auman, settled feigned issue was framed for the purpose of trying the title to the property as to one of the committee of Gregg township, whether or not the same belonged to promote the election of Andrew Jack-> sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $1.00 and to the Reformatory at Huntingdon.

charge of crueity to animals, was sen- were industrious, frugal Germans-men tenced to pay the costs of prosecution, $1.00 fine, and two months in the coun-

Victor Wagner, larceny by bailee; Station at Coburn, was sentenced to pay the cost of prosecution, $1.00 fine, and two months in the county jail. Tuesday morning the case of Joseph L. Neff vs. the Penna. Railroad Company for trespass was taken up.

to recover for the breaking up of the did not know his birth or age. John buggy, breaking the harness, killing the Hoy, his son, died in 1887. I horse of the plaintiff, and personal in- Hoy, date of death unknown. juries to the plaintiff occurring to him on the morning of the 26th of Nov. 1905. tinued.

Homer H. Brown, betrayal; prosecutive Esther Gilliland, continued. Samuel, Solt assault and battery and drunkenness; prosecutrix, Mrs. Nellie Solt. Continued.

Albert Bergner, assault and battery; prosecutor J. M. Young; not prosed and county to pay the costs.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and threats; prosecutor, Albert Bergner, continued.

Maggie Segner, assault and

OF NOTED FAMILIES

of Centre County.

George and Charles Hoy Settle on a Tract of Land South of Millheim-Have Always Been Progressive Cit-

The founder of the Hoy family came to this country and settled in Lebanon county, Pa. George Hoy, my grand-father, and his brother Charles Hoy. emigrated from the region of little Sawa John E. Fisher, adultery; prosecutrix, tara, Lebanon county, Pa., to Buffalo-da Fisher continued. there in the year 1793. The two brothers, George and Charles Hoy, removed to The second week of court opened on Monday morning at ten o'clock, with the officers in their different places.

After hearing some motions and petitions the trial list was gone over and the following assess dispaged of: following cases disposed of:

C. M. Bower, Admrs. of etc. of John Fetzer, deceased, use of C. M. Bower, now to the use of William B. Mingle vs. some visits into Brushvalley, one in the judgements, there being three cases. brother Charles removed to Brushvalley. The cases were continued, the same bethe west end of Brushvalley, by what is John I. Olewine vs. Susan A. Jacobs now called Penn Cave, cutting a road and John M. Long, being a proceeding through the wood and brush. George on an opened judgement against Susan Hoy, the writer's grandfather, and his

George Hoy built his first barn in or After which argument was held in the between 1804 or 1812; as near as can be matter of petition of sundry citizens of ascertained, that barn was struck by of the Harter school in said Township, another one was built shortly after, then ago to the court by citizens of said school by spontaneous combustion, from putting district asking to have this school re-esting freen hay. The barn stands yet in tablished and an inspector was appointed, who reported in favor of the re-esting good condition. The first house, or hut, ed, who reported in favor of the re-esting gone. He built a large log house, with tablishment of the school. The direct a large stone chimney, near the middle Ed. L. Shirey vs. Frank K. White, the outbuildings are all rebuilt, except admr. of etc. of J. W. Lukens, deceased, the dry house, which is built of stone, the outbuildings are all rebuilt, except but not used any more, and the cider press is gone

James Passmore vs same. Verdict in means of identification His wife lies in the cemetery at Madison-His chiidren, verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $219.- five sons and seven daughters, namely Albert, married to Magdalena Weckerly Frank Perks vs. same—verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $169.

Pittsburg Door & Sash Co. vs. same—verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $215.

Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $215. Agnes L. Lukens, assignee of William Lamere, vs. Frank K, White, Admr. ried to John Brungart, lived in Sugarof etc. of Jesse W. Lukens, deceased, and George W. Rumberger, guardian ad liten of Ruth Lukens, seire facias sur mortgage—verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1249.

Arigono for the lived in JoDavis Co. Ill.; Anna Mary, lived in JoDavis Co. Ill.; Anna Mary, Agnes L. Luckens. Assignee of married to John Roush, daughter of sec are dead and left children, except Anna, Irvin Kern, Ammon Rote and Harry Confer, being an appeal from summary conviction before a justice of the peace for illegal fishing. Cause continued to Curtin Township, and from the evidence and in 1837 Jeremiah Hoy, son of grand-1905; the defendant alleging that Burden and built a barn, which is still in good dine Butler was indebted to him on a condition—the farm now belongs to W.

the property from Burdine to John But- brother, Charles Hoy, were noble speci-Willis Heeman, larceny by bailee and cruelty to animals; prosecutor Frank P. Bartley, waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guily.

Com. vs. same charged with fornication; prosecutrix Sara Parks, n.l prossed.

The property from Burdine to John B Willis Heeman, who plead guilty to the indigent and unfortunate. They took place on Monday morning. of rare common sense, which enabled Coplin, of Philipsburg, died at the home evening, after seeing the full day's proand of the government. They were a morning after a brief illness of a lung ty jail.

Wilber Wilkinson, who plead guilty to taking some candy from the Railroad sincere in heart and manner—honest, sincere in heart and manner—honest, solver and intelligent, and remarkable good type of the old school of gentlemen, affection, aged 33 years and 5 months. sober and intelligent, and remarkable characters for their independence always. Charles Hoy, brother of George Hoy, owned the half of four hundred acres bought by them jointly. Charles Hoy built a large barn on his farm in or be In the case of Neff vs. the Railroad Company, which is an action for trespass barn. Charles Hoy died in 1815 or 1816; was shot near Washington Furnace Adam died in Brushvalley; Elizabeth married Simon Yearick; Mary, married to Conrad Brickly; Susan, married to John Hoy; Rebecca, married to David Johnsonbaugh; Catharine, married to Adam Hoover; Sarah, died single—all of the Hoys and Yearicks, whose history is here sketched, have not yet been fully The founders of the Hoys emi grated from South Germany, along the Rhine; the year is unknown. They Rhine; the year is unknown. came to Lebanon county, Pa.; from there some of their families came further north in Pennsylvania; then emigrated to At Howard They Were Among the Early Pioneers in Pennsylvania; then emigrated to Centre county, locating in Brushvalley, and settled on two farms two miles west f Madisonburg. From these two par-THEY LOGATED HERE IN 1805 ents there sprang a large number of descendants; they are thrifty, correct in their habits, filling their callings in life ly name and descendants.

The writer wishes to have all the information of the Hoys of Nittanyvalley as far back as possible-please take notice of this; all the Yearicks and Hoys can send sketches to the writer's address

JOHN S. HOY, Spring Mills, R. F. D., Route 1, Box 63.

RECENT DEATHS

nome a short distance east of Bellefonte. the Union cemetery.

JOHN AGE SHUTT:-one of Walker township's progressive citizens, died Thursday from the effect of three strokes. Sometime in May he had the 60 years, 1 month and 19 days, and was born in Miles twp. He was the son of Lewis Shutt who was well and favorably George Hoy, the grandfather, lived up known in that vicinity. The deceased his return to his western home, after a ed one of Joseph Long's farms. visit to friends in Altoona. With his wife and son Harold, spent three weeks at the home of Fred R. Pierce and other friends. He had not been in the best of health, but no serious results were expected from his illness. Mr. Temple was a native of the west and a son of Dr. A. Temple of Eldon. But his wife, who was Miss Maud Musser, daughter of L. U. Musser, Esq., of Triscumbia, Mo., is an eastern lady and native of Pine Grove Mills, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Matilda Musser, of Altoona, and a niece of merchant N. F. Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills In his short visit, Harry Temple had won for himself many friends who were shocked to hear of his sudden

SAMUEL GAULT:-the well known carpenter and contractor, died quite suddenly at 9.15 o'clock Thursday morning. after about a week's illness with chronic gastritis. He had not been confined to the house all the time and few of his friends knew of his illness until they heard of his death. Deceased was about fifty-seven years of age and is survived by his wife and eight children, as fol-lows: James S., of Bellefonte; Mrs. Geo. Barnes and Mrs. Harry Stover, of whether or not the same belonged to Burdine Burdine Burdine Burdine Butler, the son for president of the United States. Geo. Barnes and Mrs. Harry Stoter. Son for president of the United States. Geo. Barnes and Mrs. Harry Stoter. Altoona; Mrs. Wm. Kneps, of Hunting-defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging that the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and his defendant alleging the transfer of Grandfather George Hoy and Hoy a and Miss Emma, at home. The funeral they saved many firesides from execu-tion and sale, and were great friends years. He is survived by his wife and other lines and in all other directions and patrons of the young men, kind to eight sons and daughters. The funeral there are ample railroad accommoda-

Big Day In Williamsport.

A great football I event will be witnessed in Williamsport on Saturday, October 5, 1907, when State College and Carlisle Indians will line up for another battle on the Seminary Field. Last year State won by a score of 4 to o, and count on repeating the performance this year. The Indian team is said to be one of the strongest that has come from the Carlisle school in recent years. Both teams will be at their best and those who witness the struggle between them will be well entertained. The game will be called at 2:30 p. m., and low rates will be given by all railroads leading to Williamsport.

On and after October 1st, 1907, pending the ruling of the Supreme Court on the 2c rate law, the Bellefonte Central Ave, South Bethlehem.

R. R. Co. will conform to the new law, Williamsport. Williamsport.

RUSSEL SOLT HORRIBLY BURNED

NOW IN BELLEFONTE HOSPITAL

with credit to themselves and their fam- Clothing Was Burned off His Body--

Wednesday afternoon Rev. W. W. Rhoads, of Howard, brought to the Bellefonte Hospital, Russel Solt, a young man about 18 years of age. He was badly burned on the breast, left side and Beaver will deliver addresses. Several face, and the probabilities are that he PHILIP BARNHART :- one of the oldest will not permantly recover for sometime. residents in this county, died Tuesday A couple of weeks ago young Solt was afternoon, at 4 o'clock at his country elected by the council to light the street He was in the line of his duty lamps. About two years ago he had a slight Tuesday night about 7 o'clock, and while stroke of paralysis when he fell and trying to light the lamp near the Pennbroke his arm. He had quite a serious sylvania railroad station his clothes took time with it as he would frequently wrench the fractured parts and then After filling the lamp with gasoline he they would have to be reset. It finally took from his pocket a match and struck healed and he was getting along nicely. it with the purpose of lighting the lamp. About one week ago he was stricken Immediately his clothes took fire, and, with another stroke from which he never in less than a minute he became a human He belonged to one of the old- torch. Mr. Derget, the telegraph operest families in Centre county and was ator at the tower, seeing the awful preborn and raised in Spring township dicament of the young man went at once where he lived all his life. His age was to his relief and succeeded in extinguishing the flames, by taking off his own wed tilling the soil all his life and was coat and throwing it around him, smothcounted as one of Centre county's most ering the flames, thus saving him from a successful farmers. He was a man of frightful death. His clothes were almost strong integrity, and had the good will burned off his body and he suffered exof all who knew him. He joined the cruciating pain. He was taken to the Methodist church early in life and was office of Dr. Walter Kurtz where his one of the pillars of that denomination. wounds were dressed, and it was the im-He is survived by two sons: Thompson pression then of his friends he could not and J. Willard, both of Bellefonte. He recover. During the night he showed is also survived by one sister, Miss Eliza- signs of being better, and after being beth Barnhart, who has lived with him brought to the hospital rested much for thirty-one years. The funeral will be easier. The supposition is that while Heavy Loss by Fire. At 3 o'clock Monday morning fire broke out simultaneously in the house and barn of Lewis Bailey, near Greenago he had two which were the imme.

diate cause of his death. His age was burr, and spread with such rapidity that the family had barely time to escape

diate cause of his death. His age was any of their household effects or clothing. With the aid of the neighbors the horses season's crops and farm machinery, to a ripe old age; was born in 1773 and was a progressive farmer, a member of died in 1863. I do not know the date of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, implements, were all consumed, and tions to the happy couple. both boroughs indicted separately, each indictment containing two counts, neglect of public daty; second fendants not being in court and a bench fendants not being the remedy to being in court and a bench fendants not being the remedy to be and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and some chickeas were and a staunch Democrat. Besides a several hogs and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church, at Jacksonville, and a staunch Democrat of the Reformed church stoyed the outbuildings. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary cept a position at the University of Wis-Dean Reber has been connected with the Pennsylvania State college for 26 years, during which time engineering ing the institution has undergone phenomenal growth. The present engineering building which was opened in 1892, was planned and erected under Prof. Reber's supervision. Prof. Reber's abilities are known far and wide and his services have frequently been called for by the state. In 1893 he organized and installed the exhibit of mining for the state at the World's fair in Chicago. Again in 1903 he was called upon to install a similar exhibit at the St. Louis exhibition for which he received a special medal for "the best, most complete and attractive installation in the mining building." He also planned the new ventilating system at the Capitol.

west on the Bald Eagle Valley will wait wealthy retired gentleman or beneficial west on the Bald Eagle Valley will wait wealthy retired gentleman or beneficial west on the Bald Eagle Valley will wait wealthy retired gentleman or beneficial west on the Bald Eagle Valley will wealthy retired gentleman or beneficial west on the Bald Eagle Valley will wealthy retired gentleman or beneficial west on the Bald Eagle Valley will wait wealthy retired gentleman or beneficial west on the Bald Eagle Valley will wait wealthy retired gentleman or beneficial wait was a supplier or wait was a supplier was a supplier wait was a supplier was a su fonte Central will be held the same way. On Thursday and Friday a special train will be run over the Lewisburg and Ty-rone as far as Coburn, leaving Belletions for bringing the crowds in the NELLIE COPLIN:-- a daughter of Isaiah morning and getting them home in the Reunion of the IIOth.

Our 24th Annual Reunion will be held at Tyrone, Pa., on Friday, October 25th, 1907. Try and make a special effort to be there as this will perhaps be the last one for some, as has been the case in the last year. Business meetings will be at at 7.30 p. m. a Camp Fire will be held.
A special program will be rendered to which the public is cordially invited. For but will reduce the number of stations, discontinuing the following stopping places: Morris, Briarly, Krumrine, Bloomsdorf. The sale of round trip 13th ANNUAL REUNION.

Seventh Pa. Veteran Volunteer Cavalry

A Trip to State College. The thirtieth annual reunion of the 7th Pa. Veteran Volunteer cavalry will be held at Bellefonte, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 22 and 23. The committee of arrangements have provided for an excursion trip from Bellefonte to State College, over the Bellefonte Central railroad on Tuesday, the first day of the gathering. The round trip fare will be 50 cents. The business day of the organization He was Only Saved by the Heroic will be Wednesday, the second day of Efforts of Mr. Derget, the Night the meeting, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m, and that part of the program will be carried out in the Gregg post room, G.

In the evening of the second day a camp fire will be held in the court house beginning at 7.30 o'clock, ex-Judge Love, members of the 7th will also talk at this

Headquarters for the regiment will be established at the Garman house, opposite the court house. There the officers of the organization can be found the day preceding the gathering as well as durng the two days of the reunion. General Greeno, major of the regiment, who now resides at Cincinnati, has written the president of the association, R. H. McGhee, of Lock Haven, that he and his wife will be present, which is gratifying news to his old comrades, as he is yet as full of fire and fun as he was during the dark days of the rebellion, when he and his comrades of the gallant 7th, were enduring the hardships of march and battle under the parching rays of the southern sun. Reduced rates will be given on all railroads leading to Bellefonte, for the time of the reunion and any comrade desiring orders for tickets should write R. H. McGhee, president of the association, at Lock Haven.

WEDDINGS.

HARDY-BOAL. In Easton, Pa., at the home of the held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at his late home. Interment will be made in lamp some of it leaked out on his clothes the Rev. James W. Boal, D. D., assisted and when he lighted the match the by E. D. Warfield, D. D., president of the Lafayette College, the Rev. James Hamill Boal and Mary Montague Hardy, daughter of J. J. Hardy, professor in Lafayette College, were married. The groom is a son of Dr. Boal, of Centre Hall, and was recently licensed for the burr, and spread with such rapidity that ministry in the Presbyterian church, and with their lives, and were unable to save Reformed church of Bellefonte. His examination by the Presbytery was highly creditable, and the bride is a were gotton out of the barn, but the young lady of high excellence. The Democrat extends warmest congratula-

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock a stylish and pretty wedding took place in aroused and reached the scene, both buildings were a seething mass of flames ton Brew, formerly of Beliefonte, and took place Monday morning. Inter-ment at the Reformed cemetery at Jack-stoyed the outbuildings. The fire is lennie Siliman Roberts of that place After the ceremony at the church a brill-HARRY TEMPLE:—died after reaching his home in Missouri, on Wednesday morning, Sept. 25, a few hours after morning. Sept. 25, a few hours after morning. Beaver and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fenlon, of Bellefonte. After a wedding trip Prof. Louis E. Reber, dean of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of engineering at the Pennsylvania State college, has resigned to accept a position at the University of the school of th

Thursday, Sept. 26th the home of Mrs. Addie Benner, of Oak Hall, was the scene of a pretty wedding. The conion M., and G. Willis Houtz, of State College. The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants and ferns. Lohengrins march was played by Miss Laura, sister of the bride, who was handsomely attired in white mull and lace. After hearty congratulations and well wishes, the guests were invited to the dining room when a royal repast was served. The calithumpians tendered them the usual serenade. SHAEFFER-WHITMER.

Miss Viola B. Whitmer, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitmer, of Huntingdon, and John M. Shaeffer, of Lancaster, were married, Sept. 18, at the M. E. parsonage, by the Excursion Tickets.

Excursion tickets to the fair will be sold on all railroads. The evening train west on the Reld Fault Valley of the Rev. Stein. Miss Whitmer is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitmer, and granddaughter of Wm. Whitmer, a Shaeffer is employed as head machinist for Drake & Stratton Co., in whose employment he has been for the past eleven

RUMBERGER-GATES.

Chester Rumberger and Miss Ella Gates, two young people of Philipsburg, fooled their friends very nicely the other day. They gave out that they were going to Clearfield to attend the conference of the United Brethren church but instead went there and were married by Rev. W. G. Stiverson, of the Philipsburg U. B. church. They will go to housekeeping in Philipsburg in the near future, the bridegroom being in the employ of the Lauderbach-Barber company.

DARTT-THOMAS.

which the public is cordially invited. For further particulars apply to James Kreps Roland.

Bellefonte Central R. R. Co.

Inspected County Bridge.

places: Morris, Briarly, Krumrine, Bloomsdorf. The sale of round trip tickets between State College and Bellefonte, and between Pine Grove Mills and Bellefonte, which is at a less rate than 2c per mile will be continued as before.

Some people are always in love, but U and I never are.

Centre County Commissioners John I. Dunlap, John G. Bailey and Clinton County Commissioner Alex Flanigan went to Beech Creek and inspected the new Hubbard inter-county bridge and found the superstructure and abutments completed and fully up to specifications and requirements. They decided to release the contractors and pay for the bridge. Centre County Commissioners John I.