BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Berry and Harman, at the operal house, next Wednesday evening. -Frank Halderman, of Renova, has been visiting friends in Bellefonte. -John Love was badly burned at the Bellefonte furnace, Tuesday morning.

-joseph Rhoads, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his mother in Belle--Mrs. D.H. Hasting, returned home on Saturday from Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Irvin are rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter.

-James Noonan, proprietor of the Brant House, left Tuesday to visit friends in New York City.

-Rev. Jay Woodcock, of Philadel-phia, arrived in Bellefonte, Monday, and shake with Mr. Dreese, of Lemont, acfrom here went to Lemont.

-Berry and Harman will be here next Wednesday evening to address a public meeting in the opera house.

-Irvin Gettig left Monday morning for DuBois where he has accepted a position in a large butcher shop.

-Mrs. John Hoffman, of Williamsport, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spigelmyer, on Howard street. -George Potts, of Greensburg, arrived in Bellefonte on Monday and enrolled as a student at the Bellefonte Academy. -Mrs. Moyer left on Monday even ing for Tyrone where she attended the wedding of Lucy Moyer and Mr. Camp. -Harry Fitzgerald, who has been visiting his parents this week, returned on Sunday to his home at Columbus, O.

-Miss Lillian Muffly, of Philadelphia, after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Montgomery, left for the city. -Wm. Smith, who has been visiting his mother and sister on Bishop street, returned home to Williamsport, Monday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shivery attended the funeral of the late B. F. Thompson which took place at Jacksonville on last Thursday for their homes.

two weeks.

-Mrs. Dr. Geissinger entertained a Spring street.

Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming, on Reynolds Avenue.

consult an eye specialist. -Jno. R. Wian, wife and two children, from Pitcairn, are visiting friends in Bellefonte, their former home, and favored our sanctum with a call.

-James Cornelly, who had been working for the past six weeks at Buffalo, N. Y., with the Shoemaker-Eyre Construction Company, arrived home, on Monday.

-Mrs. Fred Miller, of North Bend, and Miss Nannie Welsh, of Sunbury, were pleasant visitors the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevenson on High street.

-A little fire at the home of William Fredericks, on Quaker Hill, called out the Undine fire department. Before the fire laddies arrived on the scene the flames were extinguised.

-Mrs. John Ripka, Mrs. Mary Wikel and Mrs. Salada, of Williamsport, are visitors at the Otto home on East High st. Miss Sarah Ott is now entertaining her friend, Miss Mable Breon, of Lock

-Mrs. A. L. Armstrong and two little daughters, Mary and Irene, left Tues-day for a two weeks visit with relatives in Pittsburg and Portsmouth, Ohio. Armstrong accompanied them as far as

-Joseph Twitmire, son of W. T. Twit- ways welcome guests here. mire, arrived home on Saturday evening. He had been out on the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad learning the different runs with a view of taking an engine in the near future.

-A meeting of the Penna. Developwhich was very encouraging to the finds a place on the monument plates. stockholders.

The Centre county medical society held its regular meeting recently in the court house Drs. W. L. Tryon, of this place, and Peter Hoffer Dale, of Centre Hall, were taken in as members, while Dr. R. J. G. Allison, of Centre Hall, was chosen presiding officer for the ensuing year.

-Clement Dale Esq., is located in his new law offices opposite the court house. He has them comfortably fixed up and is ready now to do! usiness. The rooms have been neatly painted and papered, and thus it is one of the coziest places in the town where you can go for law, if that is what you are looking for. Mr. Dale will not object to his friends calling and inspecting his new quarters. . out be ng defeated, had hard luck Saturday and fost to the fast Williamsport High School team by the very close score of 5-6. A little better judgment displayed in deciding the time for the haives might have resulted in a more satisfactory score for the Academy, for at the close of the second half the home boys were tearing through Williamsport at a rapid rate; and with a few minutes extra to play might have made another touchdown.

wheel and he was thrown into a ditch at the side of the road, alighting on his face and the was thrown out. Mr. He side of the road, alighting on his face, The horse ran away and the two women were also thrown out. Mr. He least thrown out, Mr. He was given recently by one of the play was given personal to play was given persona

-Mrs. Mullen, wife of the late Col. Amos Mullen, has been visiting in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lose, of Lock Haven, were Bellefonce visitors during last week.

-Heck Kellerman, manager of the Telephone Company, at Indiana, visited his friends in Bellefonte.

-Mrs. Schmidt, wife of Rev. Ambrose Schmidt, and her mother, Mrs. Stouffer, left Thursday for Atlantic City.

-Mrs. Snyder, mother of Miss Mollie Snyder, was recently admitted to the Bellefonte Hospital for treatment. -Mrs. Samuel Shaeffer returned home on Saturday evening from an extended visit with her son Lester, of Milroy, companied by his father, who is yet hale and hearty.

left on Thursday for their home at Ardmore, after a most delightful visit with relatives in Bellefonte. -After a pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Ebensburg Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parrish returned to Bellefonte Monday morning. -Jacob Royer, a prominent business man of Mifflinburg, and one of the greatest horsemen traveling, attended the fair. Mr. Royer is a guest at the Bush. -Fish Commissioner Meehan, of Harrisburg, transacted business at the Bellefonte hatchery. He was well pleased with the improvement at the fish hatch-

-W. A. Resser, of Bucyrus, Ohio, is visting relatives in Centre county. This is Mr. Reeser's first visit to Bellefonte in fitteen years, and says he notices a great many changes in the old town.

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGinnis, Walter McGinnis and lady friend Miss Bamey, of Punxsutawney, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte, left on unday.

—Mrs. William Hunsinger, who was of Hon. and operated on at the Bellefonte Hospital High street. cent, left Monday morning for Wilkins-burg, where they will visit friends for that she was taken to her home on Curtin street on Thursday evening. -The Passion Play is booked for the few of her friends on Saturday at the Theatorium next week. The day will hope his visit home of Mr. and Mrs Harry Yeager on be announced later. This is one of the enjoyable one. finest features produced by moving pic-Edward Fleming, of Altoona, spent tures, is authentic and realistic, and should not be missed.

or the late B. F. Thompson, at Jackson-ville, on Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Clark, of Clarksburg, West Virginia, are pleasant visitors in Bellefonte. Mrs. Clark's maiden name was Lula Hoy.

even for an off-year. The sample ballots are now being made up by Clerk Wilson I. Fleming, of the State Department, at Harrisburg. Each county who at one time figured conspicuously in Centre County Pair last week. It is the first he had been in the county and the first he had been in the county politics.

-Harry Tate, son of the late D. K.

Tate, after an absence of seventeen ber of young ladies at her home on Linn street, Friday evening, in honor of Miss Katherine Willard.

—Mrs. A. A. Hoffman and W. Harrison Walker, Esq., left for Buffalo at noon Monday where Mrs. Hoffman will consult an eye specialist.

—Harry Tate, son of the late D. K.

Tate, after an absence of seventeen barnless excitement, resulting in the harmless excitement, resulting in the stoye too full of oil. The damage will amount to about $100.

—On Monday Rev. Edwin Richardson pering, in the side walls was ablaze, James Derrich and holds a clerk office of the latter. The same was a speared among his Bellefonte barnless excitement, resulting in the harmless excitement, resulting in the harmless excitement, resulting in the stoye too full of oil. The damage will amount to about $100.

—On Monday Rev. Edwin Richardson pering its track laid through the Nittany formerly rector of the St. John's Episco-pal church, of Bellefonte, left Bellefonte of the well known Hoffman will getting its track laid through the Nittany pering. His brother Kurt Tate, of Phillipsbury, was also here.

—W. T. Miller, formerly one of Belle-formerly rector of the St. John's Episco-pal church, of Bellefonte, left Bellefonte, left Bellefonte, formerly rector of the St. John's Episco-pal church, of Bellefonte, left Bellefonte, formerly rector of the St. John's Episco-pal church, of Bellefonte, left Bellefonte, ipsburg, was also here.

-Newton Dunlap, son of John Dunlap, the County Commissioner, who has been working on an iron bridge, near Sunbury for the last year, was in Bellefonte last week attending the big county fair. He is looking the picture of health and says he is getting along swimingly.

He pulled the wool over Harris Oleded fr wine's eyes when Newt told him that he and relatives at Butler, his old home. was married. Harris said his wife was a He was much pleased with the wonder-

-One of the pleasant homes in Belle-fonte is that of G. R. Spigelmyer on Howard street. One of the attractive features during the summer was the beautiful lawn kept up by Mrs. Spigelmyer, who is a great lover of beautiful and fragrant flower beds that were admired by the host of people who pass there from time to time. We just remark that the lawn mower was run by Mr. Spigelmyer.

-Mr. and Mrs. Shem Spigelmyer, of Jersey Shore, were visitors in Bellefonte. several days last week. Mr. Spigelmyer is a great admirer of fine horses and he would travel a long ways to see them. He is one of the boys who, when he sticks his hand into his pocket, always finds a dollar. He is a good fellow and his prosperity is the result his own pro-gressivness. He and his wife are al-

-Chas. E. Snyder, of Blanchard, was a caller. He is a veteran of the civil war, served three years and one month; joined the Pa. Reserves at Lewisburg, under Capt. Chamberlin, Co. D. 5th Reg., and then entered the 34 Reg. of ment Company was held in the office of the line. His name was omitted on the F. H. Thomas, on Saturday. Mr. M. B. monument. Mr. Snyder has been a resi-Rich direct from the zinc mines was dent of our county for 41 years, and the present and made a splendid report proper persons will see that his name

-Mrs. C. T. Lemon and little daugh--Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maginnis arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday from Ridgeway. Mrs. Maginnis will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyon until she gets well and strong. Mr. Maginnis returned Tuesday to his work at Punxsutawney.

-Mrs. C. T. Lemon and little daughter, of Morgantown, West Virginia, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Lemon's father, John H. Miller, of Ferguson United Struck Mrs. Wieland, at Linden Hall. On Friday Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Wieland, Mrs. Wieland, Mrs. Wieland, Mrs. Wieland, Mrs. Gertrude Miller and Mrs. Lemon and little daughter, of Morgantown, West Virginia, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Lemon's father, John H. Miller, of Ferguson Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Wieland, at Linden Hall. On Friday Mrs. Miller and Mrs. West Virginia, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Lemon's father, John H. Miller, of Ferguson Mrs. Maginnis returned Tuesday to his work at Punxsutawney. Mrs. Lemon were in Bellefonte attending the fair, and while here were pleasant callers. Mrs. Lemon, at one time, was one of Centre county's most successful school teachers, and was well known throughout the county. This was her first visit since she left seven years ago and thus her friends were all to some important changes and improve glad to see her.

-Wednesday afternoon of last week George A. Beezer was taking his wife and sister, Ella, to the fair. He drove down the back road and was driving at a good pace to keep out of the way of an automobile behind him, when turning a corner in the vicinity of the American Lime & Stone company's plant he al-most ran into an automobile coming and inspecting his new quarters.

The Academy foot ball team, after passing through two hard contests with Mr. Beezer out. His foot caught in the the season is "The King Bee," which out by ng defeated, had hard luck Sat. wheel and he was thrown into a ditch at will be at the Garman opera house Fri

-The Passion Play will be at the Theatorium next week.

-M. M. Grove and insurance agent Jameson, both of Spring Mills, were interesting callers. -Mrs. Katharine Hamilton left Tuesday for an extended visit with friends at Topeka, Kansas. -Tillman Klinefelter, wife and daughter, of near Tusseyville, favored the Democrat with a call.

-H. W. Tate arrived home on Monday evening from his lumber operations near Elkins, West Virginia. -Dr. George Robinson and wife, of Winber, passed through Bellefonte Tuesday to State College. -Mrs. H. S. Ray returned Tuesday morning from New York City where she has been visiting friends the past few weeks. -Mrs. Samuel Eldridge, after a pleas ant visit with her parents Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Laurie, left Tuesday for her home at Cape May. -William Kuhn, who has been here little daughter, attending the funeral of his sister, the late Mrs. John Meyer, left for his work at Pittsburg. -Mrs. Mervin Arney, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Annie Harpster Widder, of -Mrs. C. E. Dorworth and little baby Harrisburg, were callers in the Democrat sanctum. -Note, in another column, the premgroceryman, for good butter during the month of October. -The Misses Valentine and Potter will open their dancing class the first Saturday night in November. It will be for children only. -Mrs. Aaron Harter, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday visiting relatives in town, and on Monday left for a short visit among friends in Pennsvalley.

and Esther Kaup, and Mrs. George Kaup, of Boalsburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fisher, on Water street. -Rogers stam floor finish is an article in which Olewine, the hardware dealer, large line. You will read more about it in another column of this issue. -Dr. Caldwell, Miss McDermott, of Johnstown; Miss Devine, of Providence; and Dr. Eloise Meek, of Johnstown; have been guests at the beautiful home of Hon, and Mrs. P. Gray Meek, on -Luther Houser, formerly of Belle- the world.

last Saturday from Juniata for a brief Rev. Richardson is suffering from an visit. He holds a good position in the attack of nervous prostration and his yards of the Penna. R. R. company at entire system is wrecked. It was necthat place, and is doing well. He says they can't do without the Centre Demo--Saturday S. A. McQuistion returned from an extended visit among friends hoped Rev. Richardson will regain his ful progress the town has made during the last few years. He was accompanied home by his niece G, W. Keffer, of Sun-bury, and Mrs. Lizzie Webber, of But--If you desire to see something fine improvement on this handsome resiby James McCafferty, the stone mason, and it speaks for itself.

-During the past week Aaron P. Zer by returned from a trip of several months to Illinois, Michigan and other parts of the west in which time he had the opportunity to see a variety of country and observe the various methods in farming. He is an old resident of Penn township but is now living with his son W. D. Zerby, Esq., in Bellefonte.

hard that it began to bleed. It hung to other places' him with the tenacity of an Irish bull pup, and thus he almost drew his head out of the water. This is rather a strange coincidence.

has good grit in him, and some day we ture in the transportation line there. expect to see him in the front rank of the legal profession.

-This has been a busy week at the Bellefonte electric light station, owing ments. Owing to the demand for great er service, new engines and dynamos are being installed and this requires considerable alterations in the present equipment. Superintendent Bressler and Engineer Faxon are kept busy over-seeing the work so that there will be no interruption in the service. When all changes are made they likely will supply electric power for mills, printing offices and factories.

—Adults will be admitted to the Theatorium on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons for 5 cents. Children two for -The Misses Bertha M. Smith and Pauline Kohl, two young ladies from Middleburg, Snyder county, are now employed in the shirt factory.

-Miss Nettie Guthrie and Miss Sarah Guthrie, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, on Linn street, returned home to Philadelphia.

-Tuesday evening the Quarterly Conference was held in the United Brethern church. Rev. Foller, of Johnstown, the Presiding Elder, was present and preached. -Mrs. Paul Brosius, of Ridgeway, and Miss Elizabeth Ackenbach, of Topeka, Kansas, spent Monday very pleasantly with Mrs. Sabra Garman and Miss Grace Brosius. -Mrs. Anna Fulton, of Tyrone, pass-ed through Bellefonte Wednesday for

-John Nighthart, the tonsorial artist next door to the Democrat office, on Wednesday morning brought in the first wild turkey for this season, weight six pounds, shot on Tuesday. He reports squirrels very scarce. -Mr. and Mrs. Maxon, of California, -Note, in another column, the premiums offered by Roan, the Bishop street J. Allison Platts left, Wednesday morning for a short visit to Elmira, N. Y. They will return to Belletonte again before returning to their western home. -Miss McConaghy, of Gettysburg, a sister of David McConaghy, who has been very prominently connected in the Forward Movement of Foreign Missions. is a visitor at the home of Charles M. McCurdy and sisters on Curtin street.

-The next weekly meeting of Wash-Logan Hall on Howard street next Friday evening October 18th at half Government. He just returned from a past seven. A full attendance of the members is desired. A number of new Washington, and was recently appointed laces great confidence and carries a members will be taken in at this time.

-Mrs. Henry Taylor left Wednesday morning for Huntingdon where she will and Mrs. Orvis, and is a bright and meet her son Charley, and the two will aimiable young lady, with a large numgo on to Williamsburg where they will ber of friends who will wish her muc attend the wedding of Reynolds Taylor happiness all through her wedded life. to Miss Berrill Snell. Reynolds is an old Bellefonte boy and has many friends here who wish him all the happiness in -Our friends who called in our sanc- men who enjoy this sport will now have morning went to the parsonage of St.

-Hon. J. K. Thompson, of Philips-ourg, who at one time figured conspic-ploded and came within an ace of caus-ing salute. Mr. Jackson, the brideing a hig fire. The girl, doing the ed the Centre County Fair last week. It washing, threw water on the stove is the first he had been in the county which spread the flame until a portion of the side walls was ablaze, James Derr S. Taylor, and holds a clerkship in the tontes efficient policemen, came down days before leaving on his trip abroad. Reverend gentlemen to Baltimore where he will be joined by his relatives who will look after him. It is sincerely health and strength.

soot. This is a mistake for the reason trip which will include a trip to the a fire is started the soot becomes heated and then it becomes necessary to sound friends.

He fire alarm A little precaution in MOYER-CAMP.

Houser, State College, Pa. X41 ence, and the artistic work was done the fire alarm. A little precaution in the matter may save much expense and recently and in conversation with one of came the bride of Wallace Edgar Camp. our prosperous citizens he made this emark. "Bellefonte is the dearest town home of the bride's brother-in-law and I have struck in my traveling over the sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hiltner. The state. For instance, I use considerable guest of honor was the bride's grandcoal oil in connection with my business and I never paid more than 12 cents a The groom is a son of W. R. Camp gallon until I came here and they asked formerly of Bellefonte; the bride has -Thursday George W. Rees was me 15 cents. It is an exorbitant price many relatives and friends in Bellefonte. showing R. R. Houck, of Mifflinburg. and the people who use it ought to inthe large trout in the big spring and he thought he would play with them. The result was that one of the speckled chases which were much higher than I beauties came up and bit his finger so have been accustomed to paying in Automobile Party.

A party of ten, with C. E. Keefer driving the big red automobile of the Tyrone Fred Chambers, who has been in Philadelphia the past year, is home on a visit to his parents Col. and Mrs. E. R. Chambers. The young gentleman holds a good position in a law firm in that city and position in a law firm in that city are discovered by the college on Friday and enjoyed the overland journey to the utmost. The morning. They are discovered to college building. and in connection with his regular office | Inn and looked over the college building duties is devoting his spare time to taking a course in the law department of the University of Pennsylvania, and is had the big red car at the Centre county making a fine record in his class Fred

MARRIAGE LICENCE

MARRIAGE LICENCE.	a
Moses G. Mains - Port Matilda	0
Robert Fye - Howard
Joseph E. Sweet - Pittsburg Beulah Wetzel - Rebersburg	1
Richard Hayes Zettle Coburn Rhoda A. Royer Spring Mills	**
Joseph K. Adams - Milesburg Eleanor Shultz, - Curtin	4
Harry J. Jackson Bellefonte
j David Adams Jr Julian Martha Hartsock - Tyrone Winfield Brinton Wallace - Milesburg Clara Pearl Powers - Bellefonte
Wilbert E. Sazton - Bellefonte	ľ
William Hale - Julian Ella May Martin	1
j Edward Loyd Walker New York City i Julia Ida Orris Milesburg	li

To be run over by an automobile gives

WEDDINGS.

This morning at 11 o'clock a beautiful but quiet wedding took place at the cozy residence of Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, on Linn street. The interior of the house was tastefully decorated in pink and white making a very placeing.

Emily Merrimen, of Beliefonte, will be married to G. Andrew Beaver, of New York City, who is employed in the Trust Co., of America, located in that metropolis. Extended preparations are being made for the nuptial event which will take place in St. Johns Episcopal church. The maid of honor will be Miss Adeline Merrimen, of Beliefonte, will be married to G. Andrew Beaver, of New York City, who is employed in the Trust Co., of America, located in that metropolis. pink and white, making a very pleasing and attractive appearance. The conand attractive appearance. The con. bride, and the bridesmaids are Misses tracting parties were Miss Anne Valen. Christine and Isabel Merrimen and Miss tine Lyon Orvis and the groom was Katherine Beaver. The usbers are John Clarence Lamont Arnold, 1st Lieut, of Stevens Bertran Robinson, of New York the United States Navy. The nuptial City, and John Blanchard, Bellefonte. event was solemnized in the library in the presence of about twenty-five guests, appointed hour the approach of the bridal party was announced by Miss Claire Nicolls, cousin of the bride, of St.

Dayis, who sang Loboresian parsonage, Petersburg, Pa., Oct. 15, 1907, Moses G.

Mains and Erma Woodring, were married by the Rev. S. S. Berger. Both young people are from Pert Mains. Davis, who sang Lohengrin's wedding march, the accompanist on the piano being her mother, Mrs. William Jasper Nicolls. As they entered the spacious parlor to the library the pretty and be-State College where she attended the coming bride was leaning on the arm of funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Knisely's her father who at the altar gave her away. She was attired in a handsome lot in Bellefonte. $1200. gown of white voile trimmed in lace, and wore a large white hat trimmed in plumes, and in her hand she carried a boquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Orvis, sister of the bride, who was attired in plain blue silk, with hat to match. The nup-tial word was said by Dr. William Laurie, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church. Following the ceremony there was an informal reception held in which son twp. $30. the happy couple were highly congratulated, and received the best wishes of all present. A wedding breakfast was then served after which Mr. and Mrs. Arnold took the afternoon train for a wedding tour. The groom is a young man of considerable intelligence, and his worth and ability have been recognized by the United States Marine service for a num--Mrs. Emma Fisher. Misses Hattie ington Camp No. 759 Patriotic Order hat he stands high with those in author- Ellis E. Pressler ity, in that department of the National Government. He just returned from a Washington, and was recently appointed Naval Inspector in the United States shipbuilding yards at Quincy, Boston. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr.

An early morning wedding on Wednesday of last week was that of Harry J. fonte, but now of Tyrone, is spending a few days with friends in Bellefonte. Luther is a jolly, good fellow, and we hope his visit to Bellefonte will be an enjoyable one.

Our friends who called in our same, who called in our same in the first our same who called in our same in the first our same in the same way in the same way in tast week was that of Harry J.

Jackson and Miss Elizabeth Hazel, both of this place. Though the fact was known that the same way in the same way tum during the fair, can be counted by an opportunity to see an interesting and John's Catholic church and were quietly scores; of these many were ladies, but exciting game. Remember, Friday is married by Rev. Father McArdle. They -Friday was the last day for filing the space it would occupy to name them exceptions to nominations but none was in our column, makes us forego the price of admission. Don't fail to go. the Jamestown Exposition; they found a -About 5.45 o'clock a coal oil stove number of friends there who gave them groom, is well known throughout Centre county. He served as deputy register and was deputy sheriff under sheriff H. office of the latter. The bride is a member of the well known Hazel family of this place, and will make a good and he damage will amount to about $100. devoted wife. Upon their return they

-On Monday Rev. Edwin Richardson will make their home with Mr. Jackson's

A quiet but pretty wedding was cele-brated at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Powers, on Spring street, on Wednesday evening, of last week, when her daughter, Miss Pearl Powers, became the bride of Brinton Wallace, of Milesburg. Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt performed the ceremony, which took place at 6.30 o'clock in the evening and was witnessed by only the immediate friends of the ealth and strength.

—All chimneys should be examined were Miss Ada Powers as bridesmaid before the cold weather sets in. Many and John Blackwell, of Williamsport, as are putting up their heaters now, so that the warning is timely. Some think because the chimney was cleaned when the reception held and at 8,16 o'clock Mr. heater was taken down that there is no and Mrs. Wallace left for a wedding

MOYER-CAMP.

Two of Tyrone's popular young people were joined in wedlock Tuesday after--A prominent man was in Bellfonte noon when Miss Lucy Potter Moyer beother, Mrs. Lucy Potter, of Bellefonte.

Dr. W. S. Glenn, of State College, was united in marriage to Dr. Nannie M. Sloan by the Rev. George M. Glenn, Thursday, Sept. 26, at the M. E. parsonage. Chambersburg. The announcement of the marriage was a surprise. Mrs. Glenn was a practicing physician at Latrobe, and is a charming woman, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn have returned to State College from a trip to Washington and the Jamestown exposition.

REISH-WITMER.

Miss Emma Witmer, of White Hall, and Simon Reish, of Baileyville, were married at Altoona on Wednesday evening 2nd. The bride is a daughter of J. B. Witmer, and is one of White Hall's vivacious young women. The groom is a son of Jacob Reish and holds a clerk-ship with the Pennsylvania railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Reish stole a march on their friends, for none anticipated the bject of their trip to Altoona. STOVER SAMPSEL.

John W. Stover and Ethel E. Sampell, both of Axe Mann, were united in parriage at the Reformed parsonage, Centre Hall, by Rev. Daniel Gress, Wednesday afternion Oct. 2. They began housekeeping at Axe Mann, and on the evening of their marriage took diner in their home. WILLIAMS WOOMER.

By Rev. H. R. Bender at the parson-age, 34 West Main street Lock Haven, Wednesday, October 9 William Edgar Williams and Miss Hannah Woomer, both of Bald Eagle, were married. After the wedding the bridal party took he train for Buffalo and Niagara Falls BAXTON-BANKY.

Mist Mary M. Baney and Wilburt Saxon were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage. Thursday Oct 10. Rev. Stein performed the ceremony. BEAVER-MERKIMEN.

MAINS-WOODRING. At the Presbyterian parsonage, Pe-

Emily Merrimen, of Bellefoute, will be

Real Estate Transfer.

John Curry to Wm. M. Daley, July 15, 1901; lot in Boggs twp. $30. W. C. Storm et ux to Robt. H.

Irvin, et ux Sept. 24. 1907; house and J. H. Bartoe to Edw. T. Robison, Aug. 23, 1907; lot in Port Matilda, $200.

W. Fred Reynolds et ux to Nittany Iron Co., Sept. 24, 1907; land in Spring twp. $600. W. J. Wiser et ux to J. C. Marks, July 23, 1907; lot in Port Matilda; $75.

A. S. Ellenberger et ux to Michael Bressler, April 15, 1905; 1 acre in Fergu Nancy Pennington, et baron to Henry Reitz, July 5, 1907; house and lot in Harris twp. $75. James K. Reifsnyder et al to Sarah A. Confer, June 14, 1906; 99 acres 79 perches in Penn twp. $446.10, D. N. Kennelly to Adam N. Finkler, March 21, 1906; 1 acre 20 perches in Ellis E. Pressler et al to Emanuel Monsel, April 11, 1907; 15 acres 1 perches in Penn twp. $200. Clayton E. Boob to Samuel Kreamer, March 21, 1906; house and lot in Haines twp. $725.

Geo. Reiber to Arthur B. Lee, Dec. 26, 1893; 5 acres in Potter twp. $16. John Graden et ux to Rebecca Strunk, June 29, 1907; 71 perches in Howard boro, $1. Chas. Chipman to Debbie Mann, April 18, 1907; 28 1/2 rods in Curtin twp. $175. Robt. O. Boyle gdr. to Alice Brisbin, room at the Court House, Friday evening, to elect a board of managers for the Bellefonte hospital for the ensuing year. The term of Dr. George F. Harris and John M. Shugert had expired and they were re-elected for four years. Other officers elected were as follows: President, C. C. Shuey; Vice President, Dr. J. L. Seibert; Secretary, George R. Meek; Treasurer, W. Harrison Walker. The report shows that the institution is in the most flourishing condition.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisement in this column one issue free, Af it does not exceed 25 words. Charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; 2 issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

WANTED :- apples. J. C. Rumberger, Belle-

NOTICES-Trespass notices for sale at this of-fice-5 cents a piece, or six for 25 cents.

FOR SALE:—four Chester while shoats, 5 months old. Apply to Calvin Weston, Port Matilda. x-41 WANTED:—a woman to take cluster of a home; small family. Address postenice Box 224, Bellefonte. 40-tf

MEN WANTED :-- six to eight men wanted to work in the woods; good wages. Apply to

WANTED-Fifty men; steady employment and good wages. Apply at once to Hayes Run Fire Brick Co., Orvis, Pa. FOR SALE:—cheap—a 20 horse power sawmill engine with belt in good running condition. J. F. Treaster. Potters Mills. 29-3t

FOR SALE—Acre, more or less, at Pleasant Gap, with 2-story house and outbuildings. Apply to Gill heirs, Pleasant Gap. 23-4f

FOR SALE :- 19 acres of land, south of Zion containing a good orchard, water, house and barn. Apply to Jacob Garbrick, Zion, Pa. x-42 FOR SALE: team of well-mated driving mares, broken to drive single or double, will be 4 years old in the spring, R. J. Hartle, Bellefonte, Pa. 40-43

WANTED-To rent a four-horse farm in this county, at money rent preferred, and occupy 1st of April, 1908. Apply to A. D. Ingram, Coldbluff, Washington Co., Pa. S4-tf

WANTED-Apples in carload lots, hand-picked and wind-fallen; any sour variety; also in 2-bbl lots. Call on Commercial phone or address Geo. F. Hoy, Hublersburg, Pa. 23-40 WANTED:—20 men to cut paper wood, acid wood and props, at Birch Lick, Snow Shoe twp. Prompt pay every two weeks, by L.D. Thorp and Green Watson, Roland. x42.

SALESMEN WANTED :- for lubricating oils, greases and paints in Centre and ad counties. Salary or Commission. A Clover Oil and Paint Co., Cleveland, O.

WANTED-Lath and shiegles, oak and chest-nut, small dimension stuff. A million pieces of each. For dimensions required and other in-formation call on or address Yeager Mg. Co., Bellefonte. Pa. 7-41, 2

FARM FOR SALE:—a fine farm of 15th acres with all modern improvements built 1890; run-ning water, fine fruit; also 500,000 feet of timber. For information inquire of the undersigned, D. D. Royer, Rebersburg. AUCTIONEER-L. Frank Mayes, of Lemont, offers his services to the public as an auctioneer; farm and stock sales a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Rates reasonable. Both phones. Address L. Frank Mayes, Box 3, Lemont, Pa.

INSURANCE :- for cheap insurance see George Garbrick, of Brilletonte, who represents the Sugar Valley Insurance Oo. The rate is 30 cents a hundred and the company issues a perpetual policy. It will pay you to call on or address Mr. Garbrick when you want anything is this line.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

BELLEFONTE-PRODUCE

The following prices are paid by Sechler & BELLEFONTE-GRAIN. The following prices are paid by C. Y. Wagner, for grain: