Fred Brown, of Colyer, was to Potters Mills, Saturday. Lydia Ishler, of Fruit Town, spent one day last week with her cousin, May Jordan. Wm. Taylor, wife and children, spent Sunday among friends here.

PORT MATILDA.

While Mrs. O. P. Reese and Mrs. C. Sharer were visiting in the state of Indiana, they experienced the terrific Dupont powder explosion. The house in which they were guests was badly shattered. Rev. G. W. Shires was returned to the Port Matilda United Brethren charge. His services as pastor heretofore, were highly appreciated by the members of his charge, and requested his return. Rev. Shires is an able speaker as well as a deep, thoughtful gentleman. Landlord Woodring has added another fine outfit to his livery business. He purchased the gray trotting mare, Florence, from J. V. Knepp, of Woodland, Clearfield county with his high grade harness and buggy; patrons will find nothing slow about that roadster. Mrs. Ester Connard, has returned to her home in Tyrone, after a few days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knepp. Alonza Clewell and two sisters are visiting at the home of Mr. Clewell's near Mt. Pleasant. Williams & Gingery, merchants here, have purchased timber from Dennis Reese with a view of putting out bank ties and props. J. V. Knepp has returned to his home in Woodland footsore and weary, the result of a few days' hunting along the Allegheny mountain; we might say that he took home with him the same amount of cartridges that he brought with him.

YARNELL.

Rev. Stewart preached a very able sermon in the U. B. church, Sunday morning. Harvest home services were held in the evening, the church being beautifully decorated. Winifred Gates, of Bellefonte, visited over Sunday with Gertrude Confer. Henry Heaton, of this place, left Monday for the western part of the state, where he will attend the State Baptist Association, and also visit his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Neff, at Sharon. Kathryn Malone made a short visit with friends here last week. She was on her way to Harrisburg where she will remain for some time. James Harsbarger and Ed. Gates, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday here. J. A. Confer delivered one hundred bushels of apples to Bellefonte this week to be shipped to the west. H. O. Miller, of Howard, spent Sunday with his family here. PENN TWP.

Mrs. Annie Heckman, of Penn Hall, was a caller with her sister Mrs. James Miller. Mrs. U. G. Auman and two daughters Mrs. Ed. Noll and Miss Furl, were callers at Potters Mills at the home of William Blausers. Mrs. Sara Breon, Mrs. Mary Zerby and Sadie Breon, were Sunday callers at Uriah Auman's. In the beautiful little town of Pleasant Gap, Edward Noll purchased the residence owned by Rachael Noll, where he and his young bride will go to house-keeping on the 23. Mrs. Noll was post-mistress here, at the age of 15 years, and continued working up until Dec. 25, 1906, when she was married to Edward Noll, of Pleasant Gap; she was highly esteemed by everybody as she always had a pleasant word for everybody. Miss Lettie Breon went to Farmers Mills to remain with her sister, Mrs. Emma Igen for sometime. Smith brothers sold Mrs. Ed. Hall a beautiful parlor suit for her new home.

TYLERSVILLE

Protracted meeting in the United Evangelical church is still in progress, as yet no converts are reported. Mrs. Frank Gingery is visiting at Jersey Shore. Samuel Glantz, of Ridgeway, is visiting friends here. Clara Walizer was a Loganton visitor on Monday. Samuel Smith was a visitor at Greenburr on Saturday. Noah Weaver, who has been working in one of the cities of the west central part of this state, is home again.

COLLEGE TWP.

Geo. Thompson is rushing business since Mr. Grimes is the head. Claud Lomison has left our little town and gone to farming. Lizzie and Anna Jones, of Pine Top, were callers at their brother's on Sunday, at Alto. Mrs. Gummo and two little daughters, Ruth and Fay, were in Bellefonte on Wednesday. Quite a few hunters out here, but no game.

NITTANY.

We are sorry to state that Mrs. Ben Crawford, who has been suffering with rheumatism the past three weeks, is not any better. We hope she will soon be well again. Lloyd Rodgers, who is teaching school at Beech Creek, took in the Social here Saturday eve. Mrs. William Brant has returned home from Lemont, where she had been taking care of her sick mother the past three weeks. Miss Carrie Shilling, of Fishing Creek, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Nolan and family, over Sunday. Mrs. Charley Gonsallus was to Lock Haven Saturday on business. We are sorry to say that Mrs. H. A. Clark has been quite ill with a heavy cold and lung trouble, since she went back to her home, in Philadelphia; we hope she will soon be well again. H. P. Norah and Isabel Miller, of Boalsburg, took dinner at the home of Frank Lohr. Minnie Thomas, of Shingletown, called at the home of Wallace Musser's, Sunday afternoon. E. W. Hess and family, spent Sunday in Boalsburg.

GREGG TWP.

EAST GEORGESVALLEY. Chas. Hackenberg had the misfortune to cut a deep gash in his leg. This must be a leap year at the east end of Georgesvalley, for the girls take the boys out driving. Most of the farmers are done cutting off corn. Conrad Immel was to Millin county last week. Miss Lola Heckman took Edward Zerby to Milroy last week. Green Deckers corpse was sent here from Dakota for burial. There is a race between two girls-want the same boy.

BOALSBURG.

Geo. Meyer, wife and children, of Lemont, spent Sunday at Locust Grove. Mrs. Margaret Miller is enjoying some time with friends at Altoona. Chas. Eckenroth, of Bellefonte, spent a few days' visiting friends here. A. J. Bettney and wife spent Sunday at Pine Grove. Mrs. Harry Miller and Mrs. Ira Rishel were callers at the J. W. Miller's home last week. We are sorry to hear that Mabel Meyer is ill with typhoid fever.

MOSHANNON.

Mr. Bartley, of Homestead, is a guest of W. A. Brower and family and enjoying himself in hunting small game. Arthur Proudfoot and child, of Altoona, is a guest of his mother. Rev. E. Foster Piper and ladies, after visiting his parents, returned home to Greenwich. Rev. Marshal C. Piper and wife, Sunday in Williamsport. Rev. Keefe, of Tyrone, preached in the M. E. church, on Sunday evening. Mrs. Mary J. Armstrong, with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Grattire, are visiting at Salona. Col. Greene and wife, of Cincinnati, are guests of Charles Elise and wife. On Tuesday evening, 15, the home of L. T. Eddy and wife, was invaded by a company of 38 persons. The affair was arranged in honor of Mrs. M. E. Eddy, for the occasion of a birthday anniversary by her large Sunday school class. Pastor and wife, Mrs. Dr. S. M. Huff and sister from Jersey Shore, (relatives) a few husbands of the ladies, and children were present. It was a complete, but delightful surprise to the teacher, which will never be forgotten, while memory lasts. Rev. Piper gave a fine talk. L. T. Eddy was joined in "Blest be the ties that binds." Then time for refreshments arrived, which were brought by the class, coffee, cake, ice cream, which had been smuggled on the back porch. "Excellent" was the verdict of every one and such delicious grapes. There were presents above all we value the love that prompts such kindness. The originators were Mrs. T. E. Zimmerman and Mrs. Ada Camp, well assisted by the other ladies belonging to the class. Mrs. Tannyhill Taylor, of Altoona, is visiting Miss Lida Taylor and sister. Mr. and Mrs. George Scheckler arrived home Sunday evening from a visit to Cosemaugh and Pittsburg. Ray Bullock, the night operator at Milesburg, spent Sunday at his home at Beech Creek.

HOUSEVILLE.

Mrs. David Pressler was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Olive Houser, of St. College, several days last week. Everybody in this community is very busy boiling apple butter, and getting their apples stored for the winter. Mrs. Leah Osman, of Lemont, is spending some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Luther Campbell, who is engaged in making apple butter. Ed. Houser had been on the sick list last week, but is now reported better. Wm. Hoy, of Lemont, had the misfortune of falling off an apple tree, one day last week, and injuring himself very badly. The jolly hunting club that was camping on the mountain at sand spring, last week, have all returned to their homes again. Mrs. Mary Hickey and two sons, David and Charles, and Joe Riebel, of Altoona, and the Houser brothers and families, of State College and Peru, II report having a fine time and succeeded in getting some fine game.

WINGATE.

George Stere, of Altoona, is spending a week with his parents here. MIX THIS AT FIRST SIGN Says Home-Made Mixture is Easily Prepared and Cures Weak Kidneys and Bladder Trouble.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney disease, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in side, frequent desire to urinate especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it. Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarasapilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A well-known druggist here in town is authority; that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription. 4

Our New Hair Vigor. Ayer's Hair Vigor was good, the best that was made. But Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is better. It is the one great specific for falling hair. A new preparation in every way. New bottle. New contents. Ask your druggist to show it to you, "the new kind." Does not change the color of the hair. Formula with each bottle show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says. As we now make our new Hair Vigor it does not have the slightest effect upon the color of the hair. You may use it freely and for any length of time without fear of changing the color. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff. Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
